27:1 punish. The punishment in this verse links it with 26:21; this verse is the climax of the preceding section. Leviathan. This creature was used to poetically describe various evil forces over which God has ultimate control and victory (Job 3:8; Ps. 74:14). Eventually Leviathan (Job 41:1) became a symbol for Satan, who is "the dragon, that serpent of old" (Rev. 20:2).

27:2 vineyard. The vineyard is Israel (5:7; 27:6). The language of the vineyard is used frequently in Scripture. The good vines are planted or cared for by God and His servants. They are supposed to bear good fruit and be worthy of the care of the Master. Sometimes the fruit is bad, sometimes the servants are unfaithful, but the vines always belong to God (Matt. 21:33–46; Mark 12:1–12; Luke 20:9–19).

27:3 keep it . . . water it. The "keeper" of the vineyard contrasts with the one who will lay waste, and watering it "every moment" contrasts with "no rain" (5:6).

10 Yet the fortified city will be [m]desolate,
The habitation forsaken and left like a wilderness;
There the calf will feed, and there it will lie down
And consume its branches.
11 When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off;
The women come and set them on fire.
For [n]it is a people of no understanding;
Therefore He who made them will [o]not have mercy on them,
And [p]He who formed them will show them no favor.

12 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will thresh,
From the channel of the River* to the Brook of Egypt;
And you will be [q]gathered one by one,
O you children of Israel.

13 [r]So it shall be in that day:
[s]The great trumpet will be blown;
They will come, who are about to perish in the land of Assyria,
And they who are outcasts in the land of [t]Egypt,
And shall [u]worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Woe to Ephraim and Jerusalem

28 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim,
Whose glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valleys,
To those who are overcome with wine!
2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one,
[a]Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
Who will bring them down to the earth with His hand.
3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim,
Will be trampled underfoot;
4 And the glorious beauty is a fading flower
Which is at the head of the verdant valley,
Like the first fruit before the summer,
Which an observer sees;
He eats it up while it is still in his hand.

5 In that day the LORD of hosts will be
For a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty
To the remnant of His people,
6 For a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment,
And for strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

7 But they also [b]have erred through wine,
And through intoxicating drink are out of the way;
[c]The priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink,
They are swallowed up by wine,
They are out of the way through intoxicating drink;
They err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
8 For all tables are full of vomit and filth;
No place is clean.

9 "Whom[d] will he teach knowledge?
And whom will he make to understand the message?
Those just weaned from milk?
Those just drawn from the breasts?
10 [e]For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little."

11 For with [f]stammering lips and another tongue
He will speak to this people, 12 To whom He said, "This is the [g]rest with which You may cause the weary to rest,"
And, "This is the refreshing";
Yet they would not hear.

* 27:12 That is, the Euphrates

27:12 thresh . . . be gathered. Threshing and gathering describe how the grain is separated from the chaff. The grain is saved or "gathered," and the chaff is thrown away. Threshing can be accomplished by beating the grain heads with flails or driving a cart over the grain to separate the grain from the stalks and husks. The grain is then gathered in baskets and tossed in the air, where the wind blows away the chaff and bits of straw, and the ripe grain falls back down into the basket.

28:1 crown of pride. The "crown of pride" on Ephraim's drunkards is part of a word picture (v. 3) contrasting the debasing actions of a drunkard with the crown of flowers, which was customary to wear at feasts. The incongruity of this image parallels God's view of the debauchery of the Israelites in the beautiful land He had given them.

28:5 diadem of beauty. The crown of the Lord of Hosts, which is Himself, sits in true beauty on the remnant of His people. Unlike the fading beauty of the crown of flowers, the glorious crown will be a lasting beauty.

28:9 Those just weaned. A child was weaned between the ages of three and five, the time for elementary moral education, which is described in verse 10.

13 But the word of the LORD was to them,
"Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
Line upon line, line upon line,
Here a little, there a little,"
That they might go and fall backward, and be broken
And snared and caught.

14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD,
you scornful men,
Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem,
15 Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death,
And with Sheol we are in agreement.
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
It will not come to us,
[h]For we have made lies our refuge,
And under falsehood we have hidden ourselves."

A Cornerstone in Zion

16 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I lay in Zion [i]a stone for a foundation,
A tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
Whoever believes will not act hastily.
17 Also I will make justice the measuring line,
And righteousness the plummet;
The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
And the waters will overflow the hiding place.
18 Your covenant with death will be annulled,
And your agreement with Sheol will not stand;
When the overflowing scourge passes through,
Then you will be trampled down by it.
19 As often as it goes out it will take you;
For morning by morning it will pass over,
And by day and by night;
It will be a terror just to understand the report."

20 For the bed is too short to stretch out on,
And the covering so narrow that one cannot wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD will rise up as at Mount [j]Perazim,
He will be angry as in the Valley of [k]Gibeon—
That He may do His work, [l]His awesome work,
And bring to pass His act, His unusual act.
22 Now therefore, do not be mockers,
Lest your bonds be made strong;
For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts,
[m]A destruction determined even upon the whole earth.

Listen to the Teaching of God

23 Give ear and hear my voice,
Listen and hear my speech.
24 Does the plowman keep plowing all day to sow?
Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?
25 When he has leveled its surface,
Does he not sow the black cummin
And scatter the cummin,
Plant the wheat in rows,
The barley in the appointed place,
And the spelt in its place?
26 For He instructs him in right judgment,
His God teaches him.

27 For the black cummin is not threshed with a threshing sledge,
Nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cummin;
But the black cummin is beaten out with a stick,
And the cummin with a rod.
28 Bread flour must be ground;
Therefore he does not thresh it forever,
Break it with his cartwheel,
Or crush it with his horsemen.
29 This also comes from the LORD of hosts,
[n]Who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in guidance.

Woe to Jerusalem

29 "Woe [a]to Ariel,* to Ariel, the city [b]where David dwelt!
Add year to year;
Let feasts come around.

* 29:1 That is, Jerusalem

28:13 fall backward, and be broken. In keeping with their drunken habits, the people would not be able to hear the teaching of the Lord.
28:14 scornful. The scornful, or scoffers, are worse than fools. Beyond choosing what is bad, they despise what is good (Ps. 1:1).
28:16 precious cornerstone. The apostles identified the cornerstone as Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 2:4–6).
28:20 bed . . . covering. The word picture of the short bed and inadequate covering is an illustration of the inadequacy of any security that is not based on a relationship with the living God as He has outlined it in Scripture.
28:27 cummin . . . threshing sledge. Cummin cannot be threshed with a sledge. The cart and sledge are too large for such a fine seed (27:12).
28:29 wonderful in counsel. The wisdom that the farmer uses to tend his crops comes from God, the source of all good counsel.
29:1 Ariel. Ariel probably means "altar" (Ezek. 43:15–16). The destruction and bloodshed in Jeru-

2 Yet I will distress Ariel;
There shall be heaviness and sorrow,
And it shall be to Me as Ariel.
3 I will encamp against you all around,
I will lay siege against you with a mound,
And I will raise siegeworks against you.
4 You shall be brought down,
You shall speak out of the ground;
Your speech shall be low, out of the dust;
Your voice shall be like a medium's,
[c]out of the ground;
And your speech shall whisper out of the dust.

5 "Moreover the multitude of your [d]foes
Shall be like fine dust,
And the multitude of the terrible ones
Like [e]chaff that passes away;
Yes, it shall be [f]in an instant, suddenly.
6 [g]You will be punished by the LORD of hosts
With thunder and [h]earthquake and great noise,
With storm and tempest
And the flame of devouring fire.
7 [i]The multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel,
Even all who fight against her and her fortress,
And distress her,
Shall be [j]as a dream of a night vision.
8 [k]It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams,
And look—he eats;
But he awakes, and his soul is still empty;
Or as when a thirsty man dreams,
And look—he drinks;
But he awakes, and indeed he is faint,
And his soul still craves:
So the multitude of all the nations shall be,
Who fight against Mount Zion."

The Blindness of Disobedience

9 Pause and wonder!
Blind yourselves and be blind!
[l]They are drunk, [m]but not with wine;
They stagger, but not with intoxicating drink.
10 For [n]the LORD has poured out on you
The spirit of deep sleep,
And has [o]closed your eyes, namely, the prophets;
And He has covered your heads, namely, [p]the seers.

11 The whole vision has become to you like the words of a book [q]that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is literate, saying, "Read this, please."
[r]And he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed."
12 Then the book is delivered to one who is illiterate, saying, "Read this, please."
And he says, "I am not literate."
13 Therefore the Lord said:

[s]"Inasmuch as these people draw near with their mouths
And honor Me [t]with their lips,
But have removed their hearts far from Me,
And their fear toward Me is taught by the commandment of men, 14 [u]Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work
Among this people,
A marvelous work and a wonder;
[v]For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
And the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden."

15 [w]Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel far from the LORD,
And their works are in the dark;
[x]They say, "Who sees us?" and, "Who knows us?"
16 Surely you have things turned around!
Shall the potter be esteemed as the clay;
For shall the [y]thing made say of him who made it,
"He did not make me"?
Or shall the thing formed say of him who formed it,
"He has no understanding"?

Future Recovery of Wisdom

17 Is it not yet a very little while
Till [z]Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
And the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest?

salem would make the city appear like an altar. The repetition of the term Ariel indicates the Lord's sorrow over the state to which His city had fallen. where David dwelt. David made Jerusalem his capital and planned the temple that Solomon later built in that city. These words show God's continuing love for His servant David.

29:7 as a dream. No city has suffered desolation and later been rebuilt like Jerusalem. One final time the fires of God's wrath will be allowed to burn on the City of Peace. God's eternal purpose will bring the city to its knees. Judgment is God's unwilling work. He never allows the fires of discipline to punish His own for no reason. When His disciplines have accomplished His task, peace is sure to follow.

29:17 Lebanon . . . fruitful field. This is a statement of sharp changes. Lebanon was a land of forests. As valuable as a fertile field was, a forest was even more

18 [a]In that day the deaf shall hear the words of the book,
And the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.
19 [b]The humble also shall increase their
joy in the LORD,
And [c]the poor among men shall rejoice
In the Holy One of Israel.
20 For the terrible one is brought to nothing,
[d]The scornful one is consumed,
And all who [e]watch for iniquity are cut off—
21 Who make a man an offender by a word,
And [f]lay a snare for him who reproves
in the gate,
And turn aside the just [g]by empty
words.

22 Therefore thus says the LORD, [h]who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

"Jacob shall not now be [i]ashamed,
Nor shall his face now grow pale;
23 But when he sees his children,
[j]The work of My hands, in his midst,
They will hallow My name,
And hallow the Holy One of Jacob,
And fear the God of Israel.
24 These also [k]who erred in spirit will come to understanding,
And those who complained will learn doctrine."

Futile Confidence in Egypt

30 "Woe to the rebellious children,"
says the LORD,
[a]"Who take counsel, but not of Me,
And who devise plans, but not of My Spirit,
[b]That they may add sin to sin;
2 [c]Who walk to go down to Egypt,
And [d]have not asked My advice,
To strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh,
And to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 [e]Therefore the strength of Pharaoh
Shall be your shame,
And trust in the shadow of Egypt
Shall be your humiliation.
4 For his princes were at [f]Zoan,
And his ambassadors came to Hanes.
5 [g]They were all ashamed of a people who could not benefit them,
Or be help or benefit,
But a shame and also a reproach."

6 [h]The burden against the beasts of the South.

Through a land of trouble and anguish,
From which came the lioness and lion,
[i]The viper and fiery flying serpent,
They will carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys,
And their treasures on the humps of camels,
To a people who shall not profit;
7 [j]For the Egyptians shall help in vain
and to no purpose.
Therefore I have called her Rahab-Hem-Shebeth.*

A Rebellious People

8 Now go, [k]write it before them on a tablet,
And note it on a scroll,
That it may be for time to come,
Forever and ever:
9 That [l]this is a rebellious people,
Lying children,
Children who will not hear the law of
the LORD;
10 [m]Who say to the seers, "Do not see,"
And to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things; [n]Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits.
11 Get out of the way,
Turn aside from the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel
To cease from before us."

12 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

"Because you [o]despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perversity,
And rely on them,

valuable in Israel and Judah, which did not have large stands of trees suitable for lumber. It would indicate some major economic and physical changes for Lebanon to become a field and for a fertile field to be as valuable as a forest.

29:19 poor . . . rejoice. God always notices the poor and commands His people to do likewise. The poor and the humble are particularly vulnerable to exploitation, and God in His justice does not forget this when He is dealing with disobedient leaders.

29:21 by a word . . . lay a snare . . . empty words. The central issue in this passage is justice. The evil ones miscarry justice with "a word" or false testimony, "snare" through legal technicalities, and win cases with empty words or lies and clever arguments that obscure true justice.

30:1 Woe. This is the fourth woe. The rebellious children are Hezekiah's advisors. To the sin of injustice they add the sin of devising plans independently of God.

30:4 Zoan . . . Hanes. Zoan, which was in the Nile delta, was the capital of Egypt at this time (19:11–13). Hanes was 50 miles south of Cairo.

13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you
[p]Like a breach ready to fall,
A bulge in a high wall,
Whose breaking [q]comes suddenly, in an instant.
14 And [r]He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel,
Which is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare.
So there shall not be found among its fragments
A shard to take fire from the hearth,
Or to take water from the cistern."

15 For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel:

[s]"In returning and rest you shall be saved;
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."
[t]But you would not,
16 And you said, "No, for we will flee on horses"—
Therefore you shall flee!
And, "We will ride on swift horses"—
Therefore those who pursue you shall be swift!

17 [u]One thousand shall flee at the threat of one,
At the threat of five you shall flee,
Till you are left as a pole on top of a mountain
And as a banner on a hill.

God Will Be Gracious

18 Therefore the LORD will wait, that He may be [v]gracious to you;
And therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you.
For the LORD is a God of justice;
[w]Blessed are all those who [x]wait for Him.

19 For the people [y]shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem;
You shall [z]weep no more.
He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry;
When He hears it, He will [a]answer you.
20 And though the Lord gives you
[b]The bread of adversity and the water of affliction,
Yet [c]your teachers will not be moved into a corner anymore,
But your eyes shall see your teachers.
21 Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying,
"This is the way, walk in it,"
Whenever you [d]turn to the right hand
Or whenever you turn to the left.
22 [e]You will also defile the covering of your images of silver,
And the ornament of your molded images of gold.
You will throw them away as an unclean thing;
[f]You will say to them, "Get away!"

23 [g]Then He will give the rain for your seed
With which you sow the ground,
And bread of the increase of the earth;
It will be fat and plentiful.
In that day your cattle will feed
In large pastures.
24 Likewise the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground
Will eat cured fodder,
Which has been winnowed with the shovel and fan.
25 There will be [h]on every high mountain
And on every high hill
Rivers and streams of waters,
In the day of the [i]great slaughter,
When the towers fall.
26 Moreover [j]the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun,
And the light of the sun will be sevenfold,
As the light of seven days,
In the day that the LORD binds up the bruise of His people
And heals the stroke of their wound.

Judgment on Assyria

27 Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar, Burning with His anger,
And His burden is heavy;
His lips are full of indignation,
And His tongue like a devouring fire.
28 [k]His breath is like an overflowing stream,
[l]Which reaches up to the neck,
To sift the nations with the sieve of futility;
And there shall be [m]a bridle in the jaws of the people,
Causing them to err.

30:15 confidence. A quiet, patient trust in God provides more strength for a follower of God than any alliance with any other person or system. When danger threatens, it is difficult not to look for ways to use one's own strength. It is also difficult to maintain inward composure and not trust in external sources of help. Even if we cannot imagine how we can be helped, if we are trusting God, we can have confidence and therefore have peace that He will not forsake us in our hour of need. God may use our strength or the help of others, but, when we turn to God first, we can learn which resources, if any, are the ones He wants us to use. When God is first, then our decisions are wise.

30:23–24 give the rain. The promises that were part of the original Mosaic covenant were in force again.

As in the night when a holy festival is kept,

To come into [n]the mountain of the LORD,
To the Mighty One of Israel.
30 [o]The LORD will cause His glorious voice to be heard,
And show the descent of His arm,

And the flame of a devouring fire,

31 For [q]through the voice of the LORD
Assyria will be beaten down,

Yes, for the king it is prepared.
He has made it deep and large;
Its pyre is fire with much wood;
The breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, Kindles it.

The Folly of Not Trusting God

31 Woe to those [a]who go down to Egypt for help,
And [b]rely on horses,
Who trust in chariots because they are many,
And in horsemen because they are very strong,
But who do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
[c]Nor seek the LORD!
2 Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster,
And [d]will not call back His words,
But will arise against the house of evildoers,
And against the help of those who work iniquity.
3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
And their horses are flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out His hand,
Both he who helps will fall,
And he who is helped will fall down;
They all will perish [e]together.

God Will Deliver Jerusalem

4 For thus the LORD has spoken to me:

[f]"As a lion roars,
And a young lion over his prey
(When a multitude of shepherds is summoned against him,
He will not be afraid of their voice
Nor be disturbed by their noise),
So the LORD of hosts will come down
To fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.
5 [g]Like birds flying about,
So will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem.
Defending, He will also deliver it;
Passing over, He will preserve it."

6 Return to Him against whom the children of Israel have [h]deeply revolted. 7 For in that day every man shall [i]throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—[j]sin, which your own hands have made for yourselves.

8 "Then Assyria shall [k]fall by a sword not of man,
And a sword not of mankind shall [l]devour him.
But he shall flee from the sword,
And his young men shall become forced labor.
9 [m]He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear,
And his princes shall be afraid of the banner,"
Says the LORD,
Whose fire is in Zion
And whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

Blessing would extend from field to flock (Deut. 28:11–12).

30:30 descent of His arm. The strong arm of God had delivered the Israelites from Egypt. Now His arm would descend in judgment (Ex. 6:6).

30:33 Tophet. Tophet was a place where Judah made human sacrifices to the heathen god Molech. The prophet uses it as a picture of God's vengeance on the wicked. He is not picturing temporal punishment, but everlasting destruction. This punishment will be in a place that is "deep" or inescapable. Then Isaiah draws the picture of the punishment by fire in hell. Some claim that the fire is symbolic, but it should be remembered that the reality is always greater than the symbol. The bliss of the righteous cannot be fully comprehended, and neither can the terror that awaits the wicked.

31:1 Woe. The fifth woe reaffirms the fourth woe (30:1–33). It, too, was addressed to those who replace faith in the Lord with reliance on Egypt.

31:2 house of evildoers . . . help. This "house" refers to Judah, and their "help" refers to Egypt.

31:7 that day. "That day" refers to the day when God will judge the rebellious (24:21; 26:1). God had judged nations from time to time over the ages (Canaan, Egypt, Babylon, Israel, etc.), but the final day of judgment when everything will be made new is still in the future (Rev. 20:11–15).

A Reign of Righteousness

32 Behold, [a]a king will reign in righteousness,
And princes will rule with justice.
2 A man will be as a hiding place from the wind,
And [b]a cover from the tempest,
As rivers of water in a dry place,
As the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
3 [c]The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
And the ears of those who hear will listen.
4 Also the heart of the rash will [d]understand knowledge,
And the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.
5 The foolish person will no longer be called generous,
Nor the miser said to be bountiful;
6 For the foolish person will speak foolishness,
And his heart will work [e]iniquity:
To practice ungodliness,
To utter error against the LORD,
To keep the hungry unsatisfied,
And he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
7 Also the schemes of the schemer are evil;
He devises wicked plans
To destroy the poor with [f]lying words,
Even when the needy speaks justice.
8 But a generous man devises generous
things,
And by generosity he shall stand.

Consequences of Complacency

9 Rise up, you women [g]who are at ease,
Hear my voice;
You complacent daughters,
Give ear to my speech.
10 In a year and some days
You will be troubled, you complacent
women;
For the vintage will fail,
The gathering will not come.
11 Tremble, you women who are at ease;
Be troubled, you complacent ones;
Strip yourselves, make yourselves bare,
And gird sackcloth on your waists.
12 People shall mourn upon their breasts
For the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
13 [h]On the land of my people will come up thorns and briers, Yes, on all the happy homes in [i]the joyous city;
14 [j]Because the palaces will be forsaken,
The bustling city will be deserted.
The forts and towers will become lairs forever,
A joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks—
15 Until [k]the Spirit is poured upon us from on high,
And [l]the wilderness becomes a fruitful
field,
And the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

The Peace of God's Reign

16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness,
And righteousness remain in the fruitful field.
17 [m]The work of righteousness will be peace,
And the effect of righteousness,
quietness and assurance forever.
18 My people will dwell in a peaceful habitation,
In secure dwellings, and in quiet
[n]resting places, 19 [o]Though hail comes down [p]on the forest,
And the city is brought low in humiliation.
20 Blessed are you who sow beside all waters,
Who send out freely the feet of [q]the ox
and the donkey.

A Prayer in Deep Distress

33 Woe to you [a]who plunder, though you have not been plundered;
And you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you!
[b]When you cease plundering,
You will be [c]plundered;
When you make an end of dealing treacherously,
They will deal treacherously with you.

32:1 Behold. The fifth woe concludes with a prophecy about leadership and its effects. a king will reign in righteousness. The prophecy concerning this king is fulfilled in the Lord Jesus Christ (7:14; 9:1–7; 11:1–5; 28:16; John 10:11). princes. The princes are Jesus' shepherds (1 Pet. 5:2–4).

32:9–11 complacent. The word "complacent" has connotations of "trust," as one who has taken refuge, or who is secure and without care. These women were complacent, but it was a false security. sackcloth. Mourning women removed their clothing and wore sackcloth around their waists (Gen. 37:34).

33:1 Woe. The sixth woe differs from the others in that it is addressed to Assyria, not to Judah. By focusing exclusively on Assyria's defeat and Judah's salvation, the prophecy magnifies Judah's exalted King.

2 O LORD, be gracious to us;
[d]We have waited for You.
Be their* arm every morning,
Our salvation also in the time of trouble.
3 At the noise of the tumult the people [e]shall flee;
When You lift Yourself up, the nations shall be scattered;
4 And Your plunder shall be gathered
Like the gathering of the caterpillar;
As the running to and fro of locusts,
He shall run upon them.
5 [f]The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
6 Wisdom and knowledge will be the stability of your times,
And the strength of salvation;
The fear of the LORD is His treasure.
7 Surely their valiant ones shall cry outside,
[g]The ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.
8 [h]The highways lie waste,
The traveling man ceases.
[i]He has broken the covenant,
He has despised the cities,*
He regards no man.
9 [j]The earth mourns and languishes,
Lebanon is shamed and shriveled;
Sharon is like a wilderness,
And Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

Impending Judgment on Zion

10 "Now[k] I will rise," says the LORD;
"Now I will be exalted,
Now I will lift Myself up.
11 [l]You shall conceive chaff,
You shall bring forth stubble;
Your breath, as fire, shall devour you.
12 And the people shall be like the burnings of lime;
[m]Like thorns cut up they shall be burned in the fire.
13 Hear, [n]you who are afar off, what I have done;
And you who are near, acknowledge My might."
14 The sinners in Zion are afraid;
Fearfulness has seized the hypocrites:
"Who among us shall dwell with the devouring [o]fire?
Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?"
15 He who [p]walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
He who despises the gain of oppressions,
Who gestures with his hands, refusing bribes,
Who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
And [q]shuts his eyes from seeing evil:
16 He will dwell on high;
His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks;
Bread will be given him,
His water will be sure.

The Land of the Majestic King

17 Your eyes will see the King in His [r]beauty;
They will see the land that is very far off.
18 Your heart will meditate on terror:
[s]"Where is the scribe?
Where is he who weighs?
Where is he who counts the towers?"
19 [t]You will not see a fierce people,
[u]A people of obscure speech, beyond perception,
Of a stammering tongue that you cannot understand.
20 [v]Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts;
Your eyes will see [w]Jerusalem, a quiet home,
A tabernacle that will not be taken down;
[x]Not one of [y]its stakes will ever be removed,
Nor will any of its cords be broken.

* 33:2 Septuagint omits their; Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read our. * 33:8 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Dead Sea Scrolls read witnesses; Septuagint omits cities; Targum reads They have been removed from their cities.

33:3 lift Yourself up. This passage refers to an exaltation of the heavenly King (vv. 5,10) as He rises to demonstrate His glory and vindicate His justice.
33:4 plunder. The plunder of God's war with His enemies belongs to the Lord, the true Victor (23:18; 34:2).
33:9 Sharon . . . Bashan. Sharon was on the western coastal plain, and Bashan was on the east side of the Jordan.
33:15 walks righteously. For a similar description of the person who can approach the Holy One, see Psalm 1:1–2; 15:2; Galatians 5:22–25; and Ephesians 5:1–2.
33:17 land that is very far off. The prophet's land was continually threatened by the Assyrian army. But, in prophetic vision, Isaiah saw a little picture of the beauty of heaven. In the mind of the believer, the trials of the present fade into insignificance if he only contemplates that glorious time when he will dwell in the presence of his King.
33:18 the scribe. The scribe who counted was the one who took tribute (2 Kin. 18:14).
33:19 people of obscure speech. For a similar idea concerning Israel's enemies, see Deuteronomy 28:49.

21 But there the majestic LORD will be for us
A place of broad rivers and streams,
In which no galley with oars will sail,
Nor majestic ships pass by 22 (For the LORD is our [z]Judge,
The LORD is our [a]Lawgiver,
[b]The LORD is our King;
He will save us);
23 Your tackle is loosed,
They could not strengthen their mast,
They could not spread the sail.

Then the prey of great plunder is divided;
The lame take the prey.
24 And the inhabitant will not say, "I am sick";
[c]The people who dwell in it will be forgiven their iniquity.

Judgment on the Nations

34 Come [a]near, you nations, to hear;
And heed, you people!
[b]Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
The world and all things that come forth from it.
2 For the indignation of the LORD is against all nations,
And His fury against all their armies;
He has utterly destroyed them,
He has given them over to the [c]slaughter.
3 Also their slain shall be thrown out;
[d]Their stench shall rise from their corpses,
And the mountains shall be melted
with their blood.
4 [e]All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
And the heavens shall be rolled up like
a scroll;
[f]All their host shall fall down
As the leaf falls from the vine,
And as [g]fruit falling from a fig tree.

5 "For [h]My sword shall be bathed in heaven;
Indeed it [i]shall come down on Edom,
And on the people of My curse, for judgment.
6 The [j]sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
It is made overflowing with fatness,
With the blood of lambs and goats,
With the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For [k]the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7 The wild oxen shall come down with
them,
And the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
Their land shall be soaked with blood,
And their dust saturated with fatness."

8 For it is the day of the LORD's [l]vengeance,
The year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
9 [m]Its streams shall be turned into pitch,
And its dust into brimstone;
Its land shall become burning pitch.
10 It shall not be quenched night or day;
[n]Its smoke shall ascend forever.
[o]From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
No one shall pass through it forever
and ever.
11 [p]But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it,
Also the owl and the raven shall dwell
in it.
And [q]He shall stretch out over it
The line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.
12 They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,
But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.

13 And [r]thorns shall come up in its palaces,
Nettles and brambles in its fortresses;
[s]It shall be a habitation of jackals,
A courtyard for ostriches.
14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals,
And the wild goat shall bleat to its companion;
Also the night creature shall rest
there,
And find for herself a place of rest.
15 There the arrow snake shall make her nest and lay eggs
And hatch, and gather them under her shadow;
There also shall the hawks be gathered,
Every one with her mate.

33:22 The LORD is our Lawgiver. The Lawgiver is associated with other acts of mercy (Deut. 6:1–3; John 1:14–18); the giving of the law was God's way to point out the correct path for the Israelites to follow. His commitment to set our feet on the right path is one of His acts of mercy.

34:4 host of heaven. The host of heaven here refers to pagan deities (24:21; 2 Kin. 17:16). heavens shall be rolled up like a scroll. The old cosmos will give way to the new (51:6; Matt. 24:29; Rev. 6:13–14; 21:1).

34:8 vengeance. The Lord has promised that He will one day right the wrongs suffered by His followers, but that vengeance is His and His alone (Deut. 32:35; Rom. 12:19).

34:9 brimstone . . . burning pitch. Brimstone and burning pitch may be allusions to Sodom and Gomorrah (30:33; Gen. 19:24; Ezek. 38:22).

16 "Search from [t]the book of the LORD,
and read:
Not one of these shall fail;
Not one shall lack her mate.
For My mouth has commanded it, and
His Spirit has gathered them.
17 He has cast the lot for them,
And His hand has divided it among them with a measuring line.
They shall possess it forever;
From generation to generation they shall dwell in it."

The Future Glory of Zion

35 The [a]wilderness and the wasteland shall be glad for them,
And the [b]desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose;
2 [c]It shall blossom abundantly and rejoice,
Even with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
The excellence of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the [d]glory of the LORD,
The excellency of our God.
3 [e]Strengthen the weak hands,
And make firm the feeble knees.
4 Say to those who are fearful-hearted,
"Be strong, do not fear!
Behold, your God will come with [f]vengeance,
With the recompense of God;
He will come and [g]save you."
5 Then the [h]eyes of the blind shall be opened,
And [i]the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.
6 Then the [j]lame shall leap like a deer,
And the [k]tongue of the dumb sing.
For [l]waters shall burst forth in the wilderness,
And streams in the desert.
7 The parched ground shall become a pool,
And the thirsty land springs of water;
In [m]the habitation of jackals, where each lay,
There shall be grass with reeds and rushes.
8 A [n]highway shall be there, and a road,
And it shall be called the Highway of Holiness.
[o]The unclean shall not pass over it,
But it shall be for others.
Whoever walks the road, although a fool,
Shall not go astray.
9 [p]No lion shall be there,
Nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it;
It shall not be found there.
But the redeemed shall walk there, 10 And the [q]ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness,
And [r]sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

36 Now [a]it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. 2Then the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh* with a great army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem.
And he stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field. 3And [b]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, [c]Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to him.

* 36:2 A title, probably Chief of Staff or Governor

35:1–2 rejoice. Isaiah 35 stands in contrast to Isaiah 34. This chapter opens with the lilt of joy. The Arabah, or desert plain, shall blossom and break into bloom. Centuries before, Moses had warned of a day when the rain of this land would become "powder and dust" (Deut. 28:24). That day came because Israel was disobedient to God. But, at the second coming of Christ (Rev. 20:1–6), Israel will be restored spiritually, and with spiritual restoration comes physical blessing. When judgment is removed, great blessing follows. Restoration follows repentance, and restoration is accompanied by joy.

35:3 Strengthen the weak hands. This phrase is cited in Hebrews 12:12 (Josh. 1:6–7,9,18). We can reassure ourselves with the knowledge that our Savior is coming. In that day, justice will be restored.

35:5–6 eyes . . . ears . . . lame . . . tongue. This prophecy of healings was fulfilled by Jesus (Matt. 12:22; Luke 4:18; 7:22), and it was this passage in Isaiah that Jesus referred to when He answered John the Baptist's disciples who asked if He was the Expected One. The reply was somewhat cryptic, but it was something that John would understand in prison, without requiring Jesus to reveal Himself before it was time (Matt. 11:27; Luke 7:22).

35:10 ransomed. Someone who is ransomed is someone who has had a price paid to set him free from captivity. This promise looked forward to the return of the political captives and, in a much fuller sense, to the salvation through Jesus Christ, who gave "His life a ransom for many" (Matt. 20:28; Mark 10:45; 1 Tim. 2:6).

36:1 fourteenth year. The 14th year of King Hezekiah's sole reign was 701 B.C. all. In his annals, Sennacherib mentions 46 cities that he attacked.

36:2 the Rabshakeh. This was probably the title of one of Sennacherib's officials (2 Kin. 18:17).

4 [d]Then the Rabshakeh said to them,
"Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What confidence is this in which you trust? 5 I say you speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. Now in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? 6 Look! You are trusting in the [e]staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce
it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who [f]trust in him.
7 "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem,
'You shall worship before this altar'?"'
8 Now therefore, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses—if you are able on your part to put riders on them!
9 How then will you repel one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?
10 Have I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"
11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it;
and do not speak to us in Hebrew* in the hearing of the people who are on the wall." 12 But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"
13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and said,
"Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! 14 Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you; 15 nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."' 16 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; [g]and every one of you eat from his own vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; 17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any one of the [h]gods of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria? 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, have they delivered [i]Samaria from my hand? 20 Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their countries from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?'" 21 But they held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him." 22 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

37 And [a]so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2 Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of [b]trouble and rebuke and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth. 4 It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to [c]reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed
Me. 7 Surely I will send a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and return to his

36:7 taken away. Hezekiah had destroyed the idolatrous high places and altars that his father Ahaz had built (2 Kin. 18:1–5; 2 Chr. 31:1–3).
36:8 riders. Micah referred to Jerusalem's soldiers as merely "troops" (Mic. 5:1) compared to the enormous international army of Assyria.
36:10 The LORD said to me. Ancient Middle Eastern conquerors liked to claim that the gods of their defeated enemies had joined their side (2 Chr. 35:21). These words about the Lord were no more than a boast.
36:11 Aramaic. The Syrian language was Aramaic, which was the language of international diplomacy.
36:19 have they delivered Samaria. Like the Assyrian king (10:11), the Rabshakeh assumed that different gods were worshiped in Samaria than in Jerusalem.
36:22 Shebna. Isaiah had earlier condemned Shebna for presumption (22:15–23). Apparently that was a warning which was heeded, for his attitude was of mourning, repentance, and humility at this time.
37:6 Do not be afraid. The Lord commonly reassured

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8 Then the Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed from Lachish. 9 And the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." So when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 11 Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered? 12 Have the [d]gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar? 13 Where is the king of [e]Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?'"

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15 Then Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying: 16 "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, the One who dwells between the cherubim, You are God, You [f]alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 17 [g]Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and [h]hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God. 18 Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their [i]lands, 19 and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were [i]not gods, but the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them. 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, [k]save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may [l]know that You are the LORD, You alone."

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

"The virgin, the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind your back!

23 "Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against the Holy One of Israel.
24 By your servants you have reproached the Lord,
And said, 'By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter its farthest height,
To its fruitful forest.
25 I have dug and drunk water,
And with the soles of my feet I have dried up
All the brooks of defense.'

26 "Did you not hear [m]long ago
How I made it,
From ancient times that I formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should be
For crushing fortified cities into heaps of ruins.
27 Therefore their inhabitants had little power;
They were dismayed and confounded;
They were as the grass of the field
And the green herb,
As the grass on the housetops
And grain blighted before it is grown.

28 "But I know your dwelling place,
Your going out and your coming in,
And your rage against Me.
29 Because your rage against Me and your tumult
Have come up to My ears,

His servants with these words (7:4; 35:4; Gen. 15:1; Josh. 1:9). We have no reason to fear if our trust is in the all-powerful God (Heb. 13:6).

37:10 Thus you shall speak. Blasphemous and malicious designs against God and His people should motivate us to rely completely on the Lord and earnestly seek His strength. The response of God's people to blasphemers must never be incited by personal feelings, but by the desire that "all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are the LORD, You alone" (v. 20).

37:21 Thus says the LORD God. Hezekiah's plea for help against the Assyrian menace brought a word from the Lord. Hezekiah was assured that the Lord was in absolute charge, even to the extent that the Assyrian king's activities were brought about through God's own plan (v. 26). Sennacherib's forces fell before the mighty power of the angel of the Lord (v. 36), as a witness to the truth of the Word of God that the king's heart is turned by the hand of the Lord (Prov. 21:1).

37:29 My hook in your nose. The Assyrians dragged prisoners away with a hook in the nose. The Lord's

the house of Judah
Shall again take root downward,
And bear fruit upward.
32 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant,
And those who escape from Mount

The [p]zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

'He shall not come into this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there,
Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.
34 By the way that he came,
By the same shall he return;
And he shall not come into this city,'
Says the LORD.
35 'For I will [q]defend this city, to save it
For My own sake and for My servant
[r]David's sake.'"

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

36 Then the [s]angel* of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead. 37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at Nineveh. 38 Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then [t]Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

38 In [a]those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: [b]'Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.'"

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, 3 and said, [c]"Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what is good in Your [d]sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 And the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, 5 "Go and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears; surely I will add to your days fifteen years. 6 I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and [e]I will defend this city."' 7 And this is [f]the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing which He has spoken: 8 Behold, I will bring the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." So the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.

9 This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

10 I said,
"In the prime of my life
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am deprived of the remainder of my years."
11 I said,
"I shall not see YAH,
The LORD* [g]in the land of the living;
I shall observe man no more among the inhabitants of the world.*
12 [h]My life span is gone,
Taken from me like a shepherd's tent;
I have cut off my life like a weaver.

judgment was coming, and soon the Assyrians would experience being pulled away where they did not want to go.

37:36 angel of the LORD . . . killed. This verse is the fulfillment of God's promise to take vengeance on those who trouble His people (34:8).

37:38 Esarhaddon. Esarhaddon began his reign in 681 B.C.

38:5 add to your days. Hezekiah had no male heir at the time of his illness. Manasseh, the successor to his throne, was 12 when Hezekiah died (2 Kin. 20:21—21:1).

38:9 writing of Hezekiah. Scriptures attest to King Hezekiah's interest in devotional literature. Apparently, he instructed his scribes to compile some of the proverbs of Solomon (Prov. 25:1). He ordered the Levites to worship God with the psalms of David and Asaph (2 Chr. 29:30), and the song of praise (vv. 10–20) has some similarities with those psalms.

21 Now [m]Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs, and apply it as a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."

22 And [n]Hezekiah had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

The Babylonian Envoys

39 At [a]that time Merodach-Baladan* the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. 2 [b]And Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

3 Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?"

So Hezekiah said, "They came to me from a [c]far country, from Babylon."

4 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?"

So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: 6 'Behold, the days are coming [d]when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD. 7 'And they shall take away some of your [e]sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

8 So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [f]"The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "At least there will be peace and truth in my days."

38:22 sign. Depending on one's attitude, the request for a sign may express either unbelief (Matt. 12:39; John 6:30) or faith (v. 7). The healing of a boil would be the sign that the Lord would save Hezekiah (vv. 20–21).

39:1 recovered. The miracle of the sundial (38:8) would have held special interest for the astronomy-minded Babylonians (2 Chr. 32:31).

39:2 showed them the house of his treasures. Hezekiah was flattered to receive the attention of the Babylonian delegation and wanted to show how important he was.

40:1—55:13 Comfort. This section is addressed to the Babylonian exiles in a prophetic manner. This book of comfort, written about 150 years before the time of Cyrus, promised the exiles from Judah that they would return to Jerusalem (40:1–2). The restoration after the exile pointed to the coming of the Lord's kingdom. In Isaiah's prophecy, this first taste of salvation merges with predictions of the full salvation that Jesus Christ would bring.

40:2–5 Preparing the Way—Biblical scholars think this passage was originally intended to encourage the Israelite exiles, who were looking forward to their return to Israel. The obstacles to getting back home included both a release from slavery and a journey of hundreds of miles on foot through hostile territory. There was also much to be apprehensive about when they arrived home. How were they ever going to be able to rebuild their communities when they were virtually penniless and without resources?

Scholars also see this passage as one of the key messianic prophecies. The image of verses 3–4 is that of the ancient Near Eastern practice of "rolling out the red carpet" for a visiting monarch. Mark makes use of these verses to describe the ministry of John the Baptist, as the prophet urges people to prepare for the coming of the Messiah.

Both applications point to the same concepts. God is saying, "Trust Me, I will make it right. I will make a way through the obstacles. No matter how large the obstacles, I will overcome them." We should see these as some of the strongest words of comfort in the Bible.

40:2 Jerusalem. In this case, Jerusalem represents the exiles. warfare. Warfare refers to Israel's hard service in Babylon.

40:3 voice of one crying. John referred to this passage to explain who he was (John 1:23) as the forerunner of Christ.

40:5 glory . . . shall be revealed. The glory of the Lord is revealed in the restoration of the captives, but in a fuller sense it is revealed in the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ (Luke 2:29–32; John 1:14).

40:9 good tidings. Good news from God to man can always be properly described as "gospel." Here, the glad tidings are that the God who once delivered His captive people from bondage in Egypt is again at hand to rescue and protect His beleaguered Israelites. The assurance that God is with us (7:14; John 1:14) to save is at the heart of the Christian gospel (1 Cor. 15:3–4), and it is always "good news," even when it is something we have heard before.

40:12–31 God's Sovereignty over the Nations—God controls the destinies of rulers and politicians and public figures, no matter how much power they think they have. When times are rough, we wonder if God is really in charge. We wonder why He lets us get moved around by so many economic and political forces beyond our control. We sometimes wonder if He really even cares about what is going on in the world or our lives. If He really is in charge, does He know what He is doing?

The testimony of Isaiah is a resounding Yes! Nations may rise and fall. Rulers may come and go. God remains both Starter and Finisher. The circumstances that surround us are temporary conditions in the scheme of eternity. As God sustains the stars in heaven and the whole universe, He sustains our lives. We may not be able to say that easily every day, but if we keep coming back to Him, He will not disappoint us.

40:12 span. A span is the width of an outstretched

25 "To[x] whom then will you liken Me,
Or to whom shall I be equal?" says the Holy One.
26 Lift up your eyes on high,
And see who has created these things,
Who brings out their host by number;
[y]He calls them all by name,
By the greatness of His might
And the strength of His power;
Not one is missing.
27 [z]Why do you say, O Jacob,
And speak, O Israel:
"My way is hidden from the LORD,
And my just claim is passed over by my God"?
28 Have you not known?
Have you not heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth,
Neither faints nor is weary.
[a]His understanding is unsearchable.
29 He gives power to the weak,
And to those who have no might He increases strength.
30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall,
31 But those who [b]wait on the LORD
[c]Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

hand. This verse dramatically imposes images of the grandeur of God.

40:15 nations are as a drop in a bucket. Wicked nations have no power to thwart the purposes of God (Ps. 2:1–6).

40:19–20 image. Many idols were made with wood, then overlaid with gold. The poor had to choose the best wood available and hope it was good enough. But of what value is the prayer of a poor man to a plain idol? What is the value of the rich to one covered with gold? To both questions, the answer is "none."

40:26 who has created these things. The Babylonian gods were identified with the heavenly bodies. These words would have been comforting and encouraging to the Israelites who had learned to say no to Babylon and yes to the Lord.

40:27 my just claim is passed over. The captives in their weariness may have complained that they were forgotten by God.

40:31 wait. To "wait" for the Lord entails confident expectation and active hope, never passive resignation.

Israel Assured of God's Help

41 "Keep [a]silence before Me,
O coastlands,
And let the people renew their strength!
Let them come near, then let them speak;
Let us [b]come near together for judgment.

2 "Who raised up one [c]from the east?
Who in righteousness called him to His feet?
Who [d]gave the nations before him,
And made him rule over kings?
Who gave them as the dust to his sword,
As driven stubble to his bow?
3 Who pursued them, and passed safely
By the way that he had not gone with his feet?
4 [e]Who has performed and done it,
Calling the generations from the beginning?
'I, the LORD, am [f]the first;
And with the last I am [g]He.'"

5 The coastlands saw it and feared,
The ends of the earth were afraid;
They drew near and came.
6 [h]Everyone helped his neighbor,
And said to his brother,
"Be of good courage!"
7 [i]So the craftsman encouraged the [j]goldsmith;
He who smooths with the hammer inspired him who strikes the anvil,
Saying, "It is ready for the soldering";
Then he fastened it with pegs,
[k]That it might not totter.

8 "But you, Israel, are My servant,
Jacob whom I have [l]chosen,
The descendants of Abraham My [m]friend.
9 You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
And called from its farthest regions,
And said to you,
'You are My servant,
I have chosen you and have not cast you away:
10 [n]Fear not, [o]for I am with you;
Be not dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
Yes, I will help you,
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

11 "Behold, all those who were incensed against you Shall be [p]ashamed and disgraced;
They shall be as nothing,
And those who strive with you shall perish.
12 You shall seek them and not find them—
Those who contended with you.
Those who war against you Shall be as nothing,
As a nonexistent thing.
13 For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, Saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.'

14 "Fear not, you [q]worm Jacob,
You men of Israel!
I will help you," says the LORD
And your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
15 "Behold, [r]I will make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth;
You shall thresh the mountains and beat them small,
And make the hills like chaff.
16 You shall [s]winnow them, the wind shall carry them away,
And the whirlwind shall scatter them;
You shall rejoice in the LORD,
And[t] glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 "The poor and needy seek water, but there is none,
Their tongues fail for thirst.
I, the LORD, will hear them;
I, the God of Israel, will not [u]forsake them.
18 I will open [v]rivers in desolate heights,
And fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the [w]wilderness a pool of water,
And the dry land springs of water.
19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree,
The myrtle and the oil tree;
I will set in the [x]desert the cypress tree and the pine
And the box tree together,

41:2 one from the east. This refers to Cyrus, king of Persia (559–530 B.C.; see 46:11).

41:4 first . . . last. The Lord also refers to Himself as the first and last in Revelation 22:13, when He is speaking to the apostle John of the things that will happen at the end of the age. This description speaks of His sovereignty over all time.

41:14 Redeemer. For Israel, the redeemer was the family protector of distressed relatives, who could avenge murder (Num. 35:19) and redeem indentured slaves (Lev. 25:47–49). When the Lord is called the Redeemer, the title highlights His zeal to defend, protect, and purchase back His people (49:26).

41:16 winnow them. As threshed grain is tossed in the air or "winnowed" to separate the chaff, so the victorious people of God would be able to "blow away" their enemies.

The Futility of Idols

21 "Present your case," says the LORD.
"Bring forth your strong reasons," says the [z]King of Jacob.
22 "Let[a] them bring forth and show us what will happen;
Let them show the [b]former things, what they were,
That we may consider them,
And know the latter end of them;
Or declare to us things to come.
23 [c]Show the things that are to come hereafter,
That we may know that you are gods;
Yes, [d]do good or do evil,
That we may be dismayed and see it together.
24 Indeed [e]you are nothing,
And your work is nothing;
He who chooses you is an abomination.

25 "I have raised up one from the north,
And he shall come;
From the rising of the sun [f]he shall call on My name;
[g]And he shall come against princes as though mortar,
As the potter treads clay.
26 [h]Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know?
And former times, that we may say, 'He is righteous'?
Surely there is no one who shows,
Surely there is no one who declares,
Surely there is no one who hears your words.
27 [i]The first time [j]I said to Zion,
'Look, there they are!'
And I will give to Jerusalem one who brings good tidings.
28 [k]For I looked, and there was no man;
I looked among them, but there was no counselor,
Who, when I asked of them, could answer a word.
29 [l]Indeed they are all worthless;*
Their works are nothing;
Their molded images are wind and confusion.

The Servant of the LORD

42 "Behold! [a]My Servant whom I uphold,
My Elect One in whom My soul [b]delights!
[c]I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
2 He will not cry out, nor raise His voice,
Nor cause His voice to be heard in the street.
3 A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench;
He will bring forth justice for truth.
4 He will not fail nor be discouraged,
Till He has established justice in the earth;
[d]And the coastlands shall wait for His law."

5 Thus says God the LORD,
[e]Who created the heavens and stretched them out,
Who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it,
[f]Who gives breath to the people on it,
And spirit to those who walk on it:
6 "I,[g] the LORD, have called You in righteousness,
And will hold Your hand;
I will keep You [h]and give You as a covenant to the people,
As [i]a light to the Gentiles,
7 [j]To open blind eyes,
To [k]bring out prisoners from the prison,
Those who sit in [l]darkness from the prison house.
8 I am the LORD, that is My name;
And My [m]glory I will not give to another,
Nor My praise to carved images.

* 41:29 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Dead Sea Scrolls, Syriac, and Targum read nothing; Septuagint omits the first line.

41:21 Present your case. The Lord is addressing the idols in this passage. He is pointing out that only the Lord can tell the past or the future; He challenges the idols to prove themselves, but they cannot.

41:24 abomination. An abomination is something that causes revulsion. If the Lord regards idol worshipers as an abomination, we should too.

41:25 from the north. The conquest of Media by Cyrus (550 B.C.) made him master of the territories north of Babylon. Cyrus did not personally know God (45:4), but he nevertheless called on God's name when he released the exiles (2 Chr. 36:23; Ezra 1:1–4).

42:1 My Servant. The Lord formally presents His servant. This title is identified with Jesus Christ in the New Testament. This is the beginning of the first song of the Suffering Servant (vv. 1–13).

42:3 bruised reed . . . smoking flax. The Servant will restore that which is broken; He will not break or snuff out the needy.

42:6 covenant. The Servant will institute a new covenant binding Israel to the Lord (49:8). The prophets refer to this new covenant as a "covenant of peace" (54:10; Ezek. 34:25); an "everlasting covenant" (which

Praise to the LORD

10 [n]Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise from the ends of the earth,
[o]You who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
You coastlands and you inhabitants of them!
11 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice,
The villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
12 Let them give glory to the LORD,
And declare His praise in the coastlands.
13 The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, [p]yes, shout aloud;
He shall prevail against His enemies.

Promise of the LORD's Help

14 "I have held My peace a long time,
I have been still and restrained Myself.
Now I will cry like a woman in labor,
I will pant and gasp at once.
15 I will lay waste the mountains and hills,
And dry up all their vegetation;
I will make the rivers coastlands,
And I will dry up the pools.
16 I will bring the blind by a way they did not know;
I will lead them in paths they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them,
And crooked places straight.
These things I will do for them,
And not forsake them.
17 They shall be [q]turned back,
They shall be greatly ashamed,
Who trust in carved images,
Who say to the molded images,
'You are our gods.'
18 "Hear, you deaf;
And look, you blind, that you may see.
19 [r]Who is blind but My servant,
Or deaf as My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind as he who is perfect,
And blind as the LORD's servant?
20 Seeing many things, [s]but you do not observe;
Opening the ears, but he does not hear."

Israel's Obstinate Disobedience

21 The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake;
He will exalt the law and make it honorable.
22 But this is a people robbed and plundered;
All of them are snared in holes,
And they are hidden in prison houses;
They are for prey, and no one delivers;
For plunder, and no one says, "Restore!"
23 Who among you will give ear to this?
Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
24 Who gave Jacob for plunder, and Israel to the robbers?
Was it not the LORD,
He against whom we have sinned?
[t]For they would not walk in His ways,
Nor were they obedient to His law.
25 Therefore He has poured on him the fury of His anger
And the strength of battle;
[u]It has set him on fire all around,
[v]Yet he did not know;
And it burned him,
Yet he did not take it to [w]heart.

The Redeemer of Israel

43 But now, thus says the LORD, who created you, O Jacob,
And He who formed you, O Israel:
"Fear not, [a]for I have redeemed you;
[b]I have called you by your name;
You are Mine.

is also associated with the Davidic covenant, 55:3); a "new covenant" (Jer. 31:31–34); and most often simply as covenant. people. The "people" refers to the Gentiles.

42:17 molded images. Why is idolatry so terrible in God's sight? Several reasons may be given. It displays a total ignorance of the true nature and being of the Creator. He is invisible, eternal, all-knowing, and all-present Spirit, without limitations. Idolatry usually reduces the concept of God to an ugly metal or wooden object, which is almost always perceived as evil and bloodthirsty, selfish and capricious. Finally, idolatry provides absolutely no indication of those characteristics closest to God's heart—His love, mercy, grace, and holiness.

42:18–25 Hear, you deaf. This prophecy, justifying the exile as punishment, consists of two parts. First, the Lord addresses the fact that the people did not listen to Him.

42:24 sinned. The second part of the prophecy addresses the sin of the exiles, which was the reason for the punishment.

43:1 thus says the LORD. This statement emphasizes the authority of the words that will follow.

And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.
When you [e]walk through the fire, you shall not be burned,
Nor shall the flame scorch you.
3 For I am the LORD your God,
The Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
[f]I gave Egypt for your ransom,
Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
4 Since you were precious in My sight,
You have been honored,
And I have [g]loved you;
Therefore I will give men for you,
And people for your life.
5 [h]Fear not, for I am with you;
I will bring your descendants from the east,
And [i]gather you from the west;
6 I will say to the [j]north, 'Give them up!'
And to the south, 'Do not keep them back!'
Bring My sons from afar,
And My daughters from the ends of the earth—

Whom [l]I have created for My glory;
I have formed him, yes, I have made him."

8 [m]Bring out the blind people who have eyes,
And the [n]deaf who have ears.
9 Let all the nations be gathered together,
And let the people be assembled.
[o]Who among them can declare this,
And show us former things?
Let them bring out their witnesses, that they may be justified;
Or let them hear and say, "It is truth."
10 "You[p] are My witnesses," says the LORD,
[q]"And My servant whom I have chosen,
That you may know and [r]believe Me,
And understand that I am He.
Before Me there was no God formed,
Nor shall there be after Me.
11 I, even I, [s]am the LORD,
And besides Me there is no savior.
12 I have declared and saved,
I have proclaimed,
And there was no [t]foreign god among you;
[u]Therefore you are My witnesses," Says the LORD, "that I am God.
13 [v]Indeed before the day was, I am He;
And there is no one who can deliver out of My hand;
I work, and who will [w]reverse it?"

14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon,
And bring them all down as fugitives—
The Chaldeans, who rejoice in their ships.
15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your [x]King."

16 Thus says the LORD, who [y]makes a way in the sea
And a [z]path through the mighty waters,
17 Who [a]brings forth the chariot and horse,
The army and the power
(They shall lie down together, they shall not rise;
They are extinguished, they are quenched like a wick):
18 "Do[b] not remember the former things,
Nor consider the things of old.
19 Behold, I will do a [c]new thing,
Now it shall spring forth;
Shall you not know it?
[d]I will even make a road in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert.
20 The beast of the field will honor Me,
The jackals and the ostriches,
Because [e]I give waters in the wilderness
And rivers in the desert,
To give drink to My people, My chosen.
21 [f]This people I have formed for Myself;
They shall declare My [g]praise.

Pleading with Unfaithful Israel

22 "But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob;
And you [h]have been weary of Me, O Israel.
23 [i]You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings,
Nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not caused you to serve with grain offerings,
Nor wearied you with incense.

43:14 Thus says the LORD. The same phrase (v. 1) is used to emphasize the ultimate source of this prophecy, God Himself. Redeemer. The Lord is described as Redeemer because He zealously defends, protects, and purchases back His people (41:14).
43:22 But you. After the splendid and glorious declarations of His faithfulness, the Lord addresses the unfaithfulness of His people.

God's Blessing on Israel

44 "Yet hear now, O Jacob My servant,
And Israel whom I have chosen.
2 Thus says the LORD who made you And formed you from the womb, who will help you:
'Fear not, O Jacob My servant;
And you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
And floods on the dry ground;
I will pour My Spirit on your descendants,
And My blessing on your offspring;
4 They will spring up among the grass
Like willows by the watercourses.'
5 One will say, 'I am the LORD's';
Another will call himself by the name
of Jacob;
Another will write with his hand, 'The LORD's,'
And name himself by the name of Israel.

There Is No Other God

6 "Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel,
And his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
[a]'I am the First and I am the Last;
Besides Me there is no God.
7 And [b]who can proclaim as I do?
Then let him declare it and set it in order for Me,
Since I appointed the ancient people.
And the things that are coming and shall come,
Let them show these to them.
8 Do not fear, nor be afraid;
[c]Have I not told you from that time, and declared it?
[d]You are My witnesses.
Is there a God besides Me?
Indeed [e]there is no other Rock;
I know not one.'"

Idolatry Is Foolishness

9 [f]Those who make an image, all of them are useless,
And their precious things shall not profit;
They are their own witnesses;
[g]They neither see nor know, that they may be ashamed.
10 Who would form a god or mold an image
[h]That profits him nothing?
11 Surely all his companions would be
[i]ashamed;
And the workmen, they are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together,
Let them stand up;
Yet they shall fear,
They shall be ashamed together.

12 [j]The blacksmith with the tongs works
one in the coals,
Fashions it with hammers,
And works it with the strength of his arms.
Even so, he is hungry, and his strength fails;
He drinks no water and is faint.

13 The craftsman stretches out his rule,
He marks one out with chalk;
He fashions it with a plane,
He marks it out with the compass,
And makes it like the figure of a man,
According to the beauty of a man, that it may remain in the house.
14 He cuts down cedars for himself,
And takes the cypress and the oak;
He secures it for himself among the trees of the forest.
He plants a pine, and the rain nourishes it.

43:25 for My own sake. The Lord chooses to save and forgive. This arises out of His own character (37:35; 42:21; 48:9,11).

44:2 Jeshurun. Jeshurun, meaning "upright one," is a poetic word for the nation of Israel (Deut. 32:15).

44:6 King of Israel. For background, read Psalm 99, which begins by declaring, "The LORD reigns."

44:8 You are My witnesses. The people of Israel had already witnessed great miracles on their behalf (43:10).

44:9–20 Those who make an image. This passage skillfully displays the utter absurdity of trusting in idols. Idolatry is a source of shame (v. 11), and it is caused by a deceived heart (v. 20). This is a passage to remember and to come back to, for idolatry was a continual snare to the Israelites. We need to remember in our modern age that we are not immune to this sin; it is the Second Commandment, the reminder that nothing must come between us and our relationship to God.

15 Then it shall be for a man to burn,
For he will take some of it and warm himself;
Yes, he kindles it and bakes bread;
Indeed he makes a god and worships it;
He makes it a carved image, and falls down to it.
16 He burns half of it in the fire;
With this half he eats meat;
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
He even warms himself and says,
"Ah! I am warm,
I have seen the fire."
17 And the rest of it he makes into a god,
His carved image.
He falls down before it and worships it,
Prays to it and says,
"Deliver me, for you are my god!"

18 [k]They do not know nor understand;
For [l]He has shut their eyes, so that they cannot see,
And their hearts, so that they cannot [m]understand.
19 And no one [n]considers in his heart,
Nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
"I have burned half of it in the fire,
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals;
I have roasted meat and eaten it;
And shall I make the rest of it an abomination?
Shall I fall down before a block of wood?"
20 He feeds on ashes;
[o]A deceived heart has turned him aside;
And he cannot deliver his soul,
Nor say, "Is there not a [p]lie in my right hand?"

Israel Is Not Forgotten

21 "Remember these, O Jacob,
And Israel, for you are My servant;
I have formed you, you are My servant;
O Israel, you will not be [q]forgotten by Me!
22 [r]I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your transgressions,
And like a cloud, your sins.
Return to Me, for [s]I have redeemed you."

23 [t]Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth;
Break forth into singing, you mountains,
O forest, and every tree in it!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And [u]glorified Himself in Israel.

Judah Will Be Restored

24 Thus says the LORD, [v]your Redeemer,
And [w]He who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD, who makes all things,
[x]Who stretches out the heavens all alone,
Who spreads abroad the earth by Myself;
25 Who [y]frustrates the signs [z]of the babblers,
And drives diviners mad;
Who turns wise men backward,
[a]And makes their knowledge foolishness;
26 [b]Who confirms the word of His servant,
And performs the counsel of His messengers;
Who says to Jerusalem, 'You shall be inhabited,'
To the cities of Judah, 'You shall be built,'
And I will raise up her waste places;
27 [c]Who says to the deep, 'Be dry!
And I will dry up your rivers';
28 Who says of [d]Cyrus, 'He is My shepherd,
And he shall perform all My pleasure,
Saying to Jerusalem, [e]"You shall be built,"
And to the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid."'

44:22 blotted out. The idea of total forgiveness of sins is also found in 40:2 and 43:25.
44:23 glorified Himself. When He saves, the Lord demonstrates to the world His mercy and His power and His glory.
44:24 Thus says the LORD. Because the Lord says it, it will come to pass.
44:25 diviners. This term refers to people who attempt to foretell the future through occult practices. They are often mentioned along with other practitioners of the occult—all of whom were forbidden in Israel (Deut. 18:10–22). Diviners brought trouble on themselves, and on their nations as well (Deut. 18:10; 2 Kin. 17:17–18; Mic. 3:6–7).
44:28 Cyrus. Here, Isaiah mentions by name the king of Persia who would allow the Israelites to return to Jerusalem in 538 B.C. (Ezra 1:1–4). He was a chosen servant of God, even though he was not an Israelite. Isaiah's prophecy was made more than 150 years before it was fulfilled.

Cyrus, God's Instrument

45 "Thus says the LORD to His anointed,
To [a]Cyrus, whose [b]right hand I have held—
[c]To subdue nations before him
And [d]loose the armor of kings,
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:
2 'I will go before you
[e]And make the crooked places* straight;
[f]I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
And cut the bars of iron.
3 I will give you the treasures of darkness
And hidden riches of secret places,
[g]That you may know that I, the LORD,
Who [h]call you by your name,
Am the God of Israel.
4 For [i]Jacob My servant's sake,
And Israel My elect,
I have even called you by your name;
I have named you, though you have not known Me.
5 I [j]am the LORD, and [k]there is no other;
There is no God besides Me.
[l]I will gird you, though you have not known Me,
6 [m]That they may [n]know from the rising of the sun to its setting
That there is none besides Me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other;
7 I form the light and create darkness,
I make peace and [o]create calamity;
I, the LORD, do all these things.'
8 "Rain[p] down, you heavens, from above,
And let the skies pour down righteousness;
Let the earth open, let them bring forth salvation,
And let righteousness spring up together.
I, the LORD, have created it.
9 "Woe to him who strives with [q]his Maker!
Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth!
[r]Shall the clay say to him who forms it,
'What are you making?'
Or shall your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?
10 Woe to him who says to his father,
'What are you begetting?'
Or to the woman, 'What have you brought forth?'"
11 Thus says the LORD,
The Holy One of Israel, and his Maker:
[s]"Ask Me of things to come concerning [t]My sons;
And concerning [u]the work of My hands, you command Me.
12 [v]I have made the earth,
And [w]created man on it.
I—My hands—stretched out the heavens,
And [x]all their host I have commanded.
13 [y]I have raised him up in righteousness,
And I will direct all his ways;
He shall [z]build My city
And let My exiles go free,
[a]Not for price nor reward,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

The LORD, the Only Savior

14 Thus says the LORD:

[b]"The labor of Egypt and merchandise of Cush
And of the Sabeans, men of stature,
Shall come over to you, and they shall be yours;

* 45:2 Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint read mountains; Targum reads I will trample down the walls; Vulgate reads I will humble the great ones of the earth.

45:3 treasures of darkness. These treasures are an allusion to the fabled wealth of Sardis captured by Cyrus in 546 B.C. Who call you by your name. The Lord specifically named Cyrus and appointed his work before he became king, and even before he was born. Isaiah was ministering from approximately 740 to 701 B.C., which was at least 150 years before Cyrus became prominent. The Lord picked out Cyrus, but He picked out each of us, too, to do good works which He had planned beforehand for us to do (Eph. 2:10).
45:8 have created it. In the Middle East, pagan people commonly believed that the fertility of the earth and maintenance of the social order depended on the king's right relationship with a deity. Isaiah was proclaiming the Lord's clear statement that it is the Lord alone who made the earth and blesses it with rain and with righteousness.
45:9 potsherds. The ultimate act of insanity committed by the human soul is unfaithfulness. As the prophet Isaiah shows, how inconceivable and ridiculous it would be for a simple piece of pottery to lash out at the craftsman. And yet, that was what Israel had consistently done from the exodus of Egypt to the destruction of the second temple by Titus in A.D. 70. Jonah was a classic example of unfaithfulness. In the Book of Jonah, all nature spontaneously obeyed its Creator. The ocean churned, the fish appeared, the gourd grew, the worm ate, and the east wind blew at the command of God. The only object in that narrative that dared disobey was Jonah the prophet. What law of logic would allow a finite and sinful creature to brazenly speak out against the infinite and sovereign Creator of all things? (Compare Romans 9:20.)
45:13 him. That is, Cyrus.
45:14 Shall come over to you, and they shall be yours. The "you" and "yours" are both feminine singular, referring to the Daughter of Zion.

They shall walk behind you,
They shall come over [c]in chains;
And they shall bow down to you.
They will make supplication to you,
saying, [d]'Surely God is in you,
And there is no other;
[e]There is no other God.'"

15 Truly You are God, [f]who hide Yourself,
O God of Israel, the Savior!
16 They shall be [g]ashamed
And also disgraced, all of them;
They shall go in confusion together,
Who are makers of idols.
17 [h]But Israel shall be saved by the LORD
With an [i]everlasting salvation;
You shall not be ashamed or [j]disgraced
Forever and ever.

18 For thus says the LORD,
[k]Who created the heavens,
Who is God,
Who formed the earth and made it,
Who has established it,
Who did not create it in vain,
Who formed it to be [l]inhabited:
[m]"I am the LORD, and there is no other.
19 I have not spoken in [n]secret,
In a dark place of the earth;
I did not say to the seed of Jacob,
'Seek Me in vain';
[o]I, the LORD, speak righteousness,
I declare things that are right.

20 "Assemble yourselves and come;
Draw near together,
You who have escaped from the nations.
[p]They have no knowledge,
Who carry the wood of their carved image,
And pray to a god that cannot save.
21 Tell and bring forth your case;
Yes, let them take counsel together.
[q]Who has declared this from ancient time?
Who has told it from that time?
Have not I, the LORD?
[r]And there is no other God besides Me,
A just God and a Savior;
There is none besides Me.

22 "Look to Me, and be saved,
[s]All you ends of the earth!
For I am God, and there is no other.
23 [t]I have sworn by Myself;
The word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness,
And shall not return,
That to Me every [u]knee shall bow,
[v]Every tongue shall take an oath.
24 He shall say,
'Surely in the LORD I have [w]righteousness and strength.
To Him men shall come,
And [x]all shall be ashamed
Who are incensed against Him.
25 [y]In the LORD all the descendants of Israel
Shall be justified, and [z]shall glory.'"

Dead Idols and the Living God

46 Bel [a]bows down, Nebo stoops;
Their idols were on the beasts and on the cattle.
Your carriages were heavily loaded,
[b]A burden to the weary beast.
2 They stoop, they bow down together;
They could not deliver the burden,
[c]But have themselves gone into captivity.

3 "Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
And all the remnant of the house of Israel,
[d]Who have been upheld by Me from birth,
Who have been carried from the womb:
4 Even to your old age, [e]I am He,
And even to gray hairs [f]I will carry you!
I have made, and I will bear;
Even I will carry, and will deliver you.

45:19 in secret . . . dark. The diviners pronounced their mysterious and ambiguous oracles in secret and dark places. The Lord's prophets proclaimed the truth openly to all who would listen.

45:23 I have sworn by Myself. The Lord's promise to Abraham was sworn by Himself (Gen. 22:16; Heb. 6:13), and whatever God promises will come to pass, for He cannot lie. The certainty of the Word of the Lord is emphasized strongly in the Book of Isaiah (40:8). to Me every knee shall bow. This promise will be fulfilled in Jesus Christ (Rom. 14:11; 1 Cor. 15:24–25; Phil. 2:10–11).

45:24–25 justified. God breaks the stranglehold of nations to secure the release of His people from captivity. In the same way, God also breaks the stranglehold of sin to release His people from spiritual bondage. He does so by pouring forth righteousness through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. This is the centerpiece of God's salvation, which is worldwide in its scope. It is the only ground for acceptance by God, the only foundation for fellowship with God, and the only platform of service to God. Those who embrace it find that they are released from sin's guilt and that they are also given strength to have victory over sin. No wonder this all evokes jubilant praise!

46:1 Bel . . . Nebo. Bel, meaning "Lord," was a title of Marduk, Babylon's chief deity. Nebo, Marduk's son, was the god of fate, writing, and wisdom.

5 "To[g] whom will you liken Me, and make Me equal
And compare Me, that we should be alike?
6 [h]They lavish gold out of the bag,
And weigh silver on the scales;
They hire a [i]goldsmith, and he makes it a god;
They prostrate themselves, yes, they worship.
7 [j]They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it
And set it in its place, and it stands;
From its place it shall not move.
Though [k]one cries out to it, yet it cannot answer
Nor save him out of his trouble.

8 "Remember this, and show yourselves
men;
[l]Recall to mind, O you transgressors.
9 [m]Remember the former things of old,
For I am God, and [n]there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like Me,
10 [o]Declaring the end from the beginning,
And from ancient times things that are not yet done,
Saying, [p]'My counsel shall stand,
And I will do all My pleasure,'
11 Calling a bird of prey [q]from the east,
The man [r]who executes My counsel,
from a far country.
Indeed [s]I have spoken it;
I will also bring it to pass.
I have purposed it;
I will also do it.

12 "Listen to Me, you [t]stubborn-hearted,
[u]Who are far from righteousness:
13 [v]I bring My righteousness near, it shall not be far off;
My salvation [w]shall not linger.
And I will place [x]salvation in Zion,
For Israel My glory.

The Humiliation of Babylon

47 "Come [a]down and [b]sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of [c]Babylon;
Sit on the ground without a throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans!
For you shall no more be called Tender and delicate.
2 [d]Take the millstones and grind meal.
Remove your veil,
Take off the skirt,
Uncover the thigh,
Pass through the rivers.
3 [e]Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
Yes, your shame will be seen;
[f]I will take vengeance,
And I will not arbitrate with a man."

4 As for [g]our Redeemer, the LORD of hosts is His name,
The Holy One of Israel.

5 "Sit in [h]silence, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
[i]For you shall no longer be called The Lady of Kingdoms.
6 [j]I was angry with My people;
[k]I have profaned My inheritance,
And given them into your hand.
You showed them no mercy;
[l]On the elderly you laid your yoke very heavily.
7 And you said, 'I shall be [m]a lady forever,'
So that you did not [n]take these things
to heart,
[o]Nor remember the latter end of them.

8 "Therefore hear this now, you who are given to pleasures,
Who dwell securely,
Who say in your heart, 'I am, and there is no one else besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow,
Nor shall I know the loss of children';
9 But these two things shall come to you
[p]In a moment, in one day:
The loss of children, and widowhood.
They shall come upon you in their fullness
Because of the multitude of your
sorceries,
For the great abundance of your enchantments.

10 "For you have trusted in your wickedness;
You have said, 'No one [q]sees me';
Your wisdom and your knowledge
have warped you;
And you have said in your heart,
'I am, and there is no one else besides
me.'

46:11 a bird of prey from the east. The bird of prey refers to Cyrus (41:2) and to the speed and power of his conquests.

47:2 grind meal. Grinding meal was usually a job for female slaves (Ex. 11:5). Uncover the thigh. This phrase suggests doing menial labor with overtones of the shame of indecent exposure. A woman who was doing heavy labor may have needed more freedom of movement than was possible without shortening her skirts.

47:3 nakedness. Nakedness indicates disgrace, impropriety, lack of dignity, and vulnerability (Gen. 9:22–23).

47:6 You showed them no mercy. Babylon's cruel abuse of Israel when the Lord had given them into Babylon's hand would be avenged, as in the case of the Assyrians (10:1–19; 49:25). When God chooses to punish, He is never pleased with a bystander who cheers over the downfall of another.

47:10 trusted in your wickedness. The selfish pride of the wicked is based in part on believing that there is not an all-knowing, all-seeing God in the universe.

11 Therefore evil shall come upon you;
You shall not know from where it arises.
And trouble shall fall upon you;
You will not be able to put it off.
And [r]desolation shall come upon you [s]suddenly,
Which you shall not know.

12 "Stand now with your enchantments
And the multitude of your sorceries,
In which you have labored from your youth—
Perhaps you will be able to profit,
Perhaps you will prevail.
13 [t]You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels;
Let now [u]the astrologers, the stargazers,
And the monthly prognosticators
Stand up and save you
From what shall come upon you.
14 Behold, they shall be [v]as stubble,
The fire shall [w]burn them;
They shall not deliver themselves
From the power of the flame;
It shall not be a coal to be warmed by,
Nor a fire to sit before!
15 Thus shall they be to you
With whom you have labored, [x]Your merchants from your youth;
They shall wander each one to his quarter.
No one shall save you.

Israel Refined for God's Glory

48 "Hear this, O house of Jacob,
Who are called by the name of Israel,
And have come forth from the wellsprings of Judah;
Who swear by the name of the LORD,
And make mention of the God of Israel,
But [a]not in truth or in righteousness;
2 For they call themselves [b]after the holy city,
And [c]lean on the God of Israel;
The LORD of hosts is His name:

3 "I have [d]declared the former things from the beginning;
They went forth from My mouth, and I caused them to hear it.
Suddenly I did them, [e]and they came to pass.
4 Because I knew that you were obstinate,
And [f]your neck was an iron sinew,
And your brow bronze,
5 Even from the beginning I have declared it to you;
Before it came to pass I proclaimed it to you,
Lest you should say, 'My idol has done them,
And my carved image and my molded image
Have commanded them.'
6 "You have heard;
See all this.
And will you not declare it?
I have made you hear new things from this time,
Even hidden things, and you did not know them.
7 They are created now and not from the beginning;
And before this day you have not heard them,
Lest you should say, 'Of course I knew them.'
8 Surely you did not hear,
Surely you did not know;
Surely from long ago your ear was not opened.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
And were called [g]a transgressor from the womb.

9 "For[h] My name's sake [i]I will defer My anger,
And for My praise I will restrain it from you,
So that I do not cut you off.
10 Behold, [j]I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the [k]furnace of affliction.
11 For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do it;
For [l]how should My name be profaned?
And [m]I will not give My glory to another.

God's Ancient Plan to Redeem Israel

12 "Listen to Me, O Jacob,
And Israel, My called:
I am He, [n]I am the [o]First,
I am also the Last.

47:12 Stand now. The admonition to "stand" is facetious. The sorcerers and astrologers have nothing real to offer a person or nation that is having trouble.

48:5 declared it to you. God told His people of events that would come to pass in the future so that they would know that it was He, and He alone, who controlled history.

48:6 new things . . . hidden things. God did not tell His people all that the future would unfold. He knew that, if they had possessed such knowledge, they would have misused that knowledge to the detriment of God's plan and themselves.

48:11 For My own sake. God's acts of mercy are His own initiative, springing from the depths of His mercy (37:35; 42:21; 43:25).

13 Indeed [p]My hand has laid the foundation of the earth,
And My right hand has stretched out
the heavens;
When [q]I call to them,
They stand up together.

14 "All of you, assemble yourselves, and hear!
Who among them has declared these
things?
[r]The LORD loves him;
[s]He shall do His pleasure on Babylon,
And His arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken;
Yes, [t]I have called him,
I have brought him, and his way will prosper.

16 "Come near to Me, hear this: [u]I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
From the time that it was, I was there.
And now [v]the Lord GOD and His Spirit
Have* sent Me."

17 Thus says [w]the LORD, your Redeemer,
The Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God,
Who teaches you to profit,
[x]Who leads you by the way you should go.

18 [y]Oh, that you had heeded My commandments!
[z]Then your peace would have been like a river,
And your righteousness like the waves
of the sea.

19 [a]Your descendants also would have been like the sand,
And the offspring of your body like
the grains of sand;
His name would not have been cut off
Nor destroyed from before Me."

20 [b]Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing,
Declare, proclaim this,
Utter it to the end of the earth;
Say, "The LORD has [c]redeemed
His servant Jacob!"

21 And they [d]did not thirst
When He led them through the deserts;
He [e]caused the waters to flow from the rock for them;
He also split the rock, and the waters
gushed out.

22 "There[f] is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked."

The Servant, the Light to the Gentiles

49 "Listen, [a]O coastlands, to Me,
And take heed, you peoples from afar!
[b]The LORD has called Me from the womb;
From the matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name.

2 And He has made [c]My mouth like a sharp sword;
[d]In the shadow of His hand He has hidden Me,
And made Me [e]a polished shaft;
In His quiver He has hidden Me."

3 "And He said to me,
[f]'You are My servant, O Israel,
[g]In whom I will be glorified.'

4 [h]Then I said, 'I have labored in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing
and in vain;
Yet surely my just reward is with the
LORD,
And my work with my God.'"

5 "And now the LORD says,
Who formed Me from the womb to be
His Servant,
To bring Jacob back to Him,
So that Israel [i]is gathered to Him* (For I shall be glorious in the eyes of
the LORD,
And My God shall be My strength),

* 48:16 The Hebrew verb is singular. * 49:5 Qere, Dead Sea Scrolls, and Septuagint read is gathered to Him; Kethib reads is not gathered.

48:12 Listen to Me. This section (vv. 12–22) is directed to all Israel and encourages the unrighteous to participate in the Lord's redemption of the nation from Babylon.

48:16 His Spirit. One of the works of the Holy Spirit is to empower believers and their message. Isaiah recognized this task of the Spirit of God. The prophet had delivered unbelievable prophecies in a time when Assyria reigned supreme, speaking of a day when Babylon would replace the Assyrians. He even named the Persian King Cyrus, who would rescue Judah from Babylon. Knowing that these things were hard to believe, he urged the people to listen. He appealed to them on the basis that the Lord had sent him "and his Spirit." Isaiah's message was not simply the message of a man, but the Word of the Holy Spirit, the teacher and director of God's messengers.

48:20 Declare. By putting the command "declare" in the present tense, the future salvation is brought vividly into the present.

49:1–13 Listen. This second song of the Suffering Servant (42:1–13) consists of two parts: the Servant's soliloquy (vv. 1–6) and the Lord's oracles to Him (vv. 7–9). The song is followed by Isaiah's elaboration (vv. 9–12), and it concludes with a hymn of praise.

49:2 mouth like a sharp sword. The truth is "sharp." It cuts through lies and deception like a sharp sword (Eph. 6:17; Heb. 4:12; Rev. 1:16; 19:15).

49:5 bring Jacob back. The political mission of Cyrus to bring Jacob back from Babylon (44:28; 45:13) foreshadows the spiritually redemptive mission of the

6 Indeed He says,
'It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob,
And to restore the preserved ones of Israel;
I will also give You as a [j]light to the Gentiles,
That You should be My salvation to the ends of the earth.'"

7 Thus says the LORD,
The Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One,
[k]To Him whom man despises,
To Him whom the nation abhors,
To the Servant of rulers:
[l]"Kings shall see and arise,
Princes also shall worship,
Because of the LORD who is faithful,
The Holy One of Israel;
And He has chosen You."

8 Thus says the LORD:

"In an [m]acceptable time I have heard You,
And in the day of salvation I have helped You;
I will preserve You [n]and give You
As a covenant to the people,
To restore the earth,
To cause them to inherit the desolate heritages;
9 That You may say [o]to the prisoners,
'Go forth,'
To those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.'

"They shall feed along the roads,
And their pastures shall be on all desolate heights.
10 They shall neither [p]hunger nor thirst,
[q]Neither heat nor sun shall strike them;
For He who has mercy on them [r]will lead them,
Even by the springs of water He will guide them.
11 [s]I will make each of My mountains a road,
And My highways shall be elevated.
12 Surely [t]these shall come from afar;
Look! Those from the north and the west,
And these from the land of Sinim."

13 [u]Sing, O heavens!
Be joyful, O earth!
And break out in singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
And will have mercy on His afflicted.

God Will Remember Zion

14 [v]But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
And my Lord has forgotten me."

15 "Can[w] a woman forget her nursing child,
And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget,
[x]Yet I will not forget you.
16 See, [y]I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;
Your walls are continually before Me.
17 Your sons* shall make haste;
Your destroyers and those who laid you waste
Shall go away from you.
18 [z]Lift up your eyes, look around and see;
All these gather together and come to you.
As I live," says the LORD,
"You shall surely clothe yourselves with them all [a]as an ornament,
And bind them on you as a bride does.

19 "For your waste and desolate places,
And the land of your destruction,
[b]Will even now be too small for the inhabitants;
And those who swallowed you up will be far away.
20 [c]The children you will have,
[d]After you have lost the others,
Will say again in your ears,
'The place is too small for me;
Give me a place where I may dwell.'

Servant to free His people from their captivity to sin (42:7).

49:6 to the Gentiles. The "Gentiles" refers to those who are not Israel.

49:9 Go forth. This is an allusion to Isaiah's command for the exiles to leave Babylon (48:20).

49:14 has forsaken me. The complaint that the Lord had forsaken Zion resembles that in 40:27–31. The Lord disciplined the Israelites briefly because of their sin (54:7; Lam. 5:20–22), but the things that Isaiah was saying about captivity were still in the future. A message such as this would be good to remember in the days of captivity when it seemed that they were waiting a long time for the Lord to rescue them.

49:15 Can a woman forget. In the strongest of human ties, the tenderness of the mother for her precious and dependent child, the Lord draws a parallel picture of Himself. Even if the mother could forget, the Lord will never forget. Human parents often fail, but the Lord is the parent who never forgets how much His child needs Him.

49:20 too small. The complaint that the place is too small is in fact a cause for rejoicing (54:1–3; Zech. 2:4–5), because it means that the Lord would cause

21 Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has begotten these for me,
Since I have lost my children and am desolate,
A captive, and wandering to and fro?
And who has brought these up?
There I was, left alone;
But these, where were they?'"

22 [e]Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, I will lift My hand in an oath to the nations,
And set up My standard for the peoples;
They shall bring your sons in their arms,
And your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders;
23 [f]Kings shall be your foster fathers,
And their queens your nursing mothers;
They shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth,
And [g]lick up the dust of your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,
[h]For they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me."
24 [i]Shall the prey be taken from the mighty,
Or the captives of the righteous* be delivered?

25 But thus says the LORD:

"Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
And the prey of the terrible be delivered;
For I will contend with him who contends with you,
And I will save your children.
26 I will [j]feed those who oppress you with their own flesh,
And they shall be drunk with their own [k]blood as with sweet wine.
All flesh [l]shall know
That I, the LORD, am your Savior,
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

The Servant, Israel's Hope

50 Thus says the LORD:

"Where is [a]the certificate of your mother's divorce,
Whom I have put away?
Or which of My [b]creditors is it to whom I have sold you?
For your iniquities [c]you have sold yourselves,
And for your transgressions your mother has been put away.
2 Why, when I came, was there no man?
Why, when I called, was there none to answer?
Is My hand shortened at all that it cannot redeem?
Or have I no power to deliver?
Indeed with My [d]rebuke I dry up the sea,
I make the rivers a wilderness;
Their fish stink because there is no water,
And die of thirst.
3 [e]I clothe the heavens with blackness,
[f]And I make sackcloth their covering."

4 "The[g] Lord GOD has given Me
The tongue of the learned,
That I should know how to speak
A word in season to him who is [h]weary.
He awakens Me morning by morning,
He awakens My ear
To hear as the learned.
5 The Lord GOD [i]has opened My ear;
And I was not [j]rebellious,
Nor did I turn away.

His people to grow. This prophecy points to the return of the exiles to Jerusalem, for under Ezra and Nehemiah the exiles built a relatively small city (Ezra 2; Neh. 7). Some view the ultimate fulfillment of this prophecy to be the gathering of the Lord's people at the coming of Jesus' kingdom.

49:22 lift My hand in an oath to the nations. The return of the Israelites from all the nations, not only from Babylon, shows that the future salvation of all Israel is in view (Rom. 11:26).

50:1 divorce. The Lord had put away Israel as a husband might put away a wife, but it was for only a short period of exile (54:5–7; 62:4) and not permanently. Permanent exile would have required a certificate of divorce (Deut. 24:1–4). If the Lord had issued one, He could not have taken Israel back (Jer. 3:1,8). No prophet suggested that God had completely broken His covenant; rather, they predicted God's faithfulness to a remnant who would return (Mic. 4:9–10). creditors. If the Lord had sold Israel to creditors (Ex. 21:7; 2 Kin. 4:1; Neh. 5:5), He would not have any authority over its destiny. But the Israelites sold themselves because of their own iniquities (42:23–25). Therefore God as their Redeemer could buy them back (41:14; 52:3). your mother. The mother is Jerusalem—more specifically, the inhabitants of the preceding generation that had gone into exile.

50:2 I came. God came to Israel at the time of the exile through the prophets whom He sent. Later God came to this earth through His Servant and Son, Jesus (41:9).

50:4 tongue of the learned. The third Servant song consists of a reflection by the Servant (vv. 4–9) and the prophet's address to the believing and unbelieving Israel (vv. 10–11).

And [l]My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;
I did not hide My face from shame and [m]spitting.

7 "For the Lord GOD will help Me;
Therefore I will not be disgraced;
Therefore [n]I have set My face like a flint,
And I know that I will not be ashamed.

8 [o]He is near who justifies Me;
Who will contend with Me?
Let us stand together.
Who is My adversary?
Let him come near Me.

Who obeys the voice of His Servant?
Who [r]walks in darkness
And has no light?
[s]Let him trust in the name of the LORD
And rely upon his God.

Who encircle yourselves with sparks:
Walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you have kindled—[t]This you shall have from My hand:
You shall lie down [u]in torment.

The LORD Comforts Zion

51 "Listen to Me, [a]you who follow after righteousness,
You who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
And to the hole of the pit from which you were dug.

2 [b]Look to Abraham your father,
And to Sarah who bore you;
[c]For I called him alone,
And [d]blessed him and increased him."

3 For the LORD will [e]comfort Zion,
He will comfort all her waste places;
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
And her desert [f]like the garden of the LORD;
Joy and gladness will be found in it,
Thanksgiving and the voice of melody.

4 "Listen to Me, My people;
And give ear to Me, O My nation:
[g]For law will proceed from Me,
And I will make My justice rest
[h]As a light of the peoples.

5 [i]My righteousness is near,
My salvation has gone forth,
[j]And My arms will judge the peoples;
[k]The coastlands will wait upon Me,
And [l]on My arm they will trust.

6 [m]Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
And look on the earth beneath.
For [n]the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
[o]The earth will grow old like a garment,
And those who dwell in it will die in like manner;
But My salvation will be [p]forever,
And My righteousness will not be abolished.

7 "Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
You people [q]in whose heart is My law:
[r]Do not fear the reproach of men,
Nor be afraid of their insults.

8 For [s]the moth will eat them up like a garment,
And the worm will eat them like wool;
But My righteousness will be forever,
And My salvation from generation to generation."

9 [t]Awake, awake, [u]put on strength,
O arm of the LORD!
Awake [v]as in the ancient days,
In the generations of old.
[w]Are You not the arm that cut [x]Rahab apart,
And wounded the [y]serpent?

50:6 shame and spitting. This prophecy was fulfilled in the suffering of Jesus Christ (Matt. 27:30).

50:7 face like a flint. Setting one's face like a flint indicates determination in the face of opposition (Ezek. 3:8–9; Luke 9:51).

50:8 justifies. God's Servant fully anticipates vindication before the bar of God's justice. He was told to obey God perfectly, and He did. He was sent to suffer sacrificially, and He did. No prosecutor has a case against Him. In a stupendous development, God discloses that the sinners who identify themselves with the Servant may expect the same, although they are not righteous. Sin does carry the death penalty, but identification with the Servant brings exchange and substitution, in which the Servant takes the sinners' place. This makes the justification of sinners both possible and just. Their sins are transferred to Him, and He dies in their place. His shed blood removes their guilt, and they will be declared not guilty. His perfection makes them righteous, and they will be declared righteous. Every accuser will be silenced. Every attempt to have them convicted will be thrown out of court. God is just when He justifies those who belong to the Servant Savior (Rom. 8:31–34).

10 Are You not the One who [z]dried up the sea,
The waters of the great deep;
That made the depths of the sea a road
For the redeemed to cross over?
11 So [a]the ransomed of the LORD shall return,
And come to Zion with singing,
With everlasting joy on their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness;
Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
12 "I, even I, am He [b]who comforts you.
Who are you that you should be afraid
[c]Of a man who will die,
And of the son of a man who will be made [d]like grass?
13 And [e]you forget the LORD your Maker,
[f]Who stretched out the heavens
And laid the foundations of the earth;
You have feared continually every day
Because of the fury of the oppressor,
When he has prepared to destroy.
[g]And where is the fury of the oppressor?
14 The captive exile hastens, that he may be loosed,
[h]That he should not die in the pit,
And that his bread should not fail.
15 But I am the LORD your God,
Who [i]divided the sea whose waves roared—
The LORD of hosts is His name.
16 And [j]I have put My words in your mouth;
[k]I have covered you with the shadow of My hand,
[l]That I may plant the heavens,
Lay the foundations of the earth,
And say to Zion, 'You are My people.'"

God's Fury Removed

17 [m]Awake, awake!
Stand up, O Jerusalem,
You who [n]have drunk at the hand of the LORD
The cup of His fury;
You have drunk the dregs of the cup of trembling,
And drained it out.
18 There is no one to guide her
Among all the sons she has brought forth;
Nor is there any who takes her by the hand
Among all the sons she has brought up.
19 [o]These two things have come to you;
Who will be sorry for you?—
Desolation and destruction, famine and sword—
[p]By whom will I comfort you?
20 [q]Your sons have fainted,
They lie at the head of all the streets,
Like an antelope in a net;
They are full of the fury of the LORD,
The rebuke of your God.
21 Therefore please hear this, you afflicted,
And drunk [r]but not with wine.
22 Thus says your Lord,
The LORD and your God,
Who [s]pleads the cause of His people:
"See, I have taken out of your hand
The cup of trembling,
The dregs of the cup of My fury;
You shall no longer drink it.
23 [t]But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you,
Who have said to you,*
'Lie down, that we may walk over you.'
And you have laid your body like the ground,
And as the street, for those who walk over."

God Redeems Jerusalem

52 Awake, awake!
Put on your strength, O Zion;
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For the uncircumcised [a]and the unclean
Shall no longer come to you.
2 [b]Shake yourself from the dust, arise;
Sit down, O Jerusalem!
[c]Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion!

3 For thus says the LORD:

[d]"You have sold yourselves for nothing,
And you shall be redeemed [e]without money."

4 For thus says the Lord GOD:

"My people went down at first
Into [f]Egypt to dwell there;
Then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

* 51:23 Literally your soul

50:11 kindle a fire. Those who kindle a fire instead of the Light from God are those who are self-reliant. When the Light comes into the world, some will choose darkness (John 3:17–18).
51:14 exile . . . in the pit. The exile refers to those who were captive in Babylon. The meaning also extends to all who experience the darkness of sin and alienation from God (48:20; 49:9).
51:19 These two things. The two things are the desolation of the land and the destruction of the people.
51:21 drunk but not with wine. The cause of drunkenness was not wine, but the "cup of trembling" (v. 22), the terror of God's judgment.

Therefore they shall know in that day

7 [h]How beautiful upon the mountains
Are the feet of him who brings good news,
Who proclaims peace,
Who brings glad tidings of good things,
Who proclaims salvation,
Who says to Zion,
[i]"Your God reigns!"
8 Your watchmen shall lift up their voices,
With their voices they shall sing together;
For they shall see eye to eye
When the LORD brings back Zion.
9 Break forth into joy, sing together,
You waste places of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
10 [j]The LORD has made bare His holy arm
In the eyes of [k]all the nations;
And all the ends of the earth shall see
The salvation of our God.

11 [l]Depart! Depart! Go out from there, Touch no unclean thing;
Go out from the midst of her,
[m]Be clean,
You who bear the vessels of the LORD.
12 For [n]you shall not go out with haste,
Nor go by flight;
[o]For the LORD will go before you,
[p]And the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Sin-Bearing Servant

13 Behold, [q]My Servant shall deal prudently;
[r]He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.
14 Just as many were astonished at you,
So His [s]visage was marred more than any man,
And His form more than the sons of men;
15 [t]So shall He sprinkle* many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at Him;
For [u]what had not been told them they shall see,
And what they had not heard they shall consider.

53 Who [a]has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
2 For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant,
And as a root out of dry ground.
He has no form or comeliness;
And when we see Him,
There is no beauty that we should desire Him.
3 [b]He is despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and [c]acquainted with grief.

52:6 shall know My name. The people are the redeemed exiles, as well as the people who believe in and follow the Servant (Messiah). Isaiah was speaking of a time beyond his own time, to people who were not yet born (1 Pet. 1:10–12). Jesus speaks strongly of this concept when He says, I "know My sheep, and am known by My own" (John 10:11–18).
52:12 go before you . . . rear guard. This is an allusion to the pillar of cloud and fire that protected Israel in its flight from Egypt (Ex. 13:21–22; 14:19–20).
52:13—53:12 Behold. The fourth of the Servant songs, which form the central unit of chapters 40–66, begins with the praise of the Father for the work of the Servant.
52:14 visage was marred. This speaks of the physical punishment that the Servant, Jesus Christ, endured when He was bearing the sins of the world on the cross. He was cruelly beaten, even before He was crucified (Matt. 27:27–31; Mark 15:16–20; John 19:1–3).
52:15 shut their mouths. The kings are silent in stunned respect.
53:1–12 The Suffering Servant—Along with Psalm 22, this Scripture is understood to be one of the key prophetic Old Testament passages pointing to the saving work of Christ. This passage presents the whole idea of the "Suffering Servant," which is one of the central concepts of Isaiah, and for many, Judaism. Christ's fulfillment of this passage in His passion is remarkable. The New Testament writers point often to Isaiah 53 and how Christ fulfilled this prophecy (Matt. 8:17; Luke 23:8–9; John 12:38; Rom. 10:16; 1 Pet. 2:25). It is also the Scripture that Philip explained to the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts 8:32–33.

In the Old Testament sacrificial system people offered animals to atone for sin (Lev. 16). The Bible presents Christ as the ultimate sacrifice that died once and for all for the sins of the world (Heb. 8–10). Our sins are forgiven and we become righteous through Christ's great work on the cross (2 Cor. 5:21).
53:2 no form or comeliness. There was nothing in the Promised Servant's appearance to mark His special calling.
53:3 despised and rejected. The Servant was not received joyfully by the people who needed Him so much (Mark 9:12). Man of sorrows. This phrase does

Him;
He was despised, and [d]we did not esteem Him.

4 Surely [e]He has borne our griefs
And carried our sorrows;
Yet we esteemed Him stricken,
Smitten by God, and afflicted.
5 But He was [f]wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
The chastisement for our peace was
upon Him,
And by His [g]stripes we are healed.
6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned, every one, to his own way;
And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet [h]He opened not His mouth;
[i]He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.
8 He was [j]taken from prison and from judgment,
And who will declare His generation?
For [k]He was cut off from the land of the living;
For the transgressions of My people
He was stricken.
9 [l]And they* made His grave with the wicked—
But with the rich at His death,
Because He had done no violence,
Nor was any [m]deceit in His mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him;
He has put Him to grief.
When You make His soul [n]an offering for sin,
He shall see His seed, He shall prolong
His days,
And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.

11 He shall see the labor of His soul,* and
be satisfied.
By His knowledge [o]My righteous
[p]Servant shall [q]justify many,
For He shall bear their iniquities.
12 [r]Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great,
[s]And He shall divide the spoil with the strong,
Because He [t]poured out His soul unto death,
And He was [u]numbered with the
transgressors,
And He bore the sin of many,
And [v]made intercession for the transgressors.

A Perpetual Covenant of Peace

54 "Sing, O [a]barren,
You who have not borne!
Break forth into singing, and cry aloud,
You who have not labored with child!
For more are the children of the desolate
Than the children of the married woman," says the LORD.
2 "Enlarge[b] the place of your tent,
And let them stretch out the curtains
of your dwellings;
Do not spare;
Lengthen your cords,
And strengthen your stakes.
3 For you shall expand to the right and to the left,
And your descendants will [c]inherit the
nations,
And make the desolate cities inhabited.

4 "Do[d] not fear, for you will not be ashamed;
Neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame;

not indicate that the Servant would be dour, but that He knew better than anyone the havoc that sin brings into human life, and, as the kindest of friends, He was sorry for the pain of His people.

53:4 borne our griefs. The Savior Jesus came to suffer and die for the sins of others (Matt. 8:17; Heb. 9:28; 1 Pet. 2:24). Griefs, sorrows, and affliction refer to the consequences of sin.

53:7 He opened not His mouth. Jesus did not open His mouth to defend Himself or to answer the false charges made against Him (Matt. 26:63; Mark 14:61; Luke 23:9; John 19:9).

53:10 it pleased the LORD to bruise Him. The Old Testament pointed to the doctrine of the atonement long before Jesus died for our sins (1 Cor. 15:3). In fact, the atonement was part of God's eternal plan (Eph. 1:4–7). The Father was pleased that His Son should die because it would cover up the sins of many and reconcile them to Himself. offering for sin. The offering for sin, or "trespass offering," was the sacrifice of a ram to secure the Lord's atonement for sin (Lev. 5:6–7,15; 7:1; 14:12; 19:21). Here, the prophet Isaiah describes the Servant Jesus as a trespass offering. His seed. If the Spirit of God dwells in us (Rom. 8:9–11), and if we are led by the Spirit, then we are sons of God—His offspring (Rom. 8:14).

54:1 have not labored. The Israelites received a liberation (through the promised Cyrus for the Babylonian exiles, or through the Messiah, in the fullest sense) that they did not work for—it was God's idea.

54:4 widowhood. The widowhood was the time

12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies,
Your gates of crystal,
And all your walls of precious stones.

And [q]great shall be the peace of your 14 In righteousness you shall be

You shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear;
And from terror, for it shall not come

not because of Me.
Whoever assembles against you shall

Who blows the coals in the fire,
Who brings forth an instrument for his work;
And I have created the spoiler to

And every tongue which rises against you in judgment
You shall condemn.
This is the heritage of the servants of
the LORD,
[t]And their righteousness is from Me,"
Says the LORD.

An Invitation to Abundant Life

55 "Ho! [a]Everyone who thirsts,
Come to the waters;
And you who have no money,
[b]Come, buy and eat.
Yes, come, buy wine and milk
Without money and without price.
2 Why do you spend money for what is not bread,
And your wages for what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
And let your soul delight itself in abundance.
3 Incline your ear, and [c]come to Me.
Hear, and your soul shall live;
[d]And I will make an everlasting covenant with you—
The [e]sure mercies of David.
4 Indeed I have given him as [f]a witness to the people,
[g]A leader and commander for the people.

without the working presence of God in the lives of the people of God, the time of exile. In the fullest sense, every sinner is a "widow" without God, who has the role of protector and provider.

54:11 foundations with sapphires. For a more detailed description of the New Jerusalem, see Revelation 21:18–21. It will be a city of stunning beauty and grand proportions.

54:17 the servants of the LORD. Throughout the rest of Isaiah, the word "servants" refers to all saints, Jews and Gentiles (56:6–8; 63:17; 65:8–9,13–15; 66:14), the offspring of the Servant (Jesus).

55:4 witness. God's fulfillment of the promises to the house of David, climaxing in the resurrection of Christ, serves as a witness to the nations (43:10,12; 44:8). It shows that He has fulfilled His prophecies and promises, and that He is who He says He is: the King of the universe.

Let him return to the LORD,

And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;
And it shall be to the LORD [z]for a name,
For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off."

Salvation for the Gentiles

56 Thus says the LORD:
"Keep justice, and do righteousness,
[a]For My salvation is about to come,
And My righteousness to be revealed.
2 Blessed is the man who does this,
And the son of man who lays hold on it;
[b]Who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And keeps his hand from doing any evil."

3 Do not let [c]the son of the foreigner
Who has joined himself to the LORD Speak, saying,
"The LORD has utterly separated me from His people";
Nor let the [d]eunuch say,
"Here I am, a dry tree."
4 For thus says the LORD:
"To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
And choose what pleases Me,
And hold fast My covenant,
5 Even to them I will give in [e]My house
And within My walls a place [f]and a name
Better than that of sons and daughters;
I will give them* an everlasting name
That shall not be cut off.

6 "Also the sons of the foreigner
Who join themselves to the LORD, to serve Him,
And to love the name of the LORD, to be His servants—
Everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath,
And holds fast My covenant—

* 56:5 Literally him

55:6 while He may be found. Solomon warned his readers to remember their Creator in the days of their youth, when the evil days have not yet come (Eccl. 12:1). The writer to the Hebrews admonishes his readers, "Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts" (Ps. 95:7–8; Heb. 4:7). Responding to the call of God is not something to be put off. Hardened hearts become a habit, or evil days may impair our ability to think clearly. If the Lord is calling, respond to Him. We do not know how long we have to live. No one knows whether "this night" his soul may be required (Luke 12:20).

55:9 higher. The gulf existing between human and divine nature is expressed here in graphic terms. God functions at the level of pure holiness, and He is motivated by complete love and service to others. The corruption of human nature by sin introduces carnal elements that are totally unknown to the nature of God, and by contrast are base both in character and execution. It is only when we are born again that we can understand the things of the Spirit, the ways of God (John 3:9–21).

56:3 foreigner. In speaking of the foreigner who joined himself to the Lord, Isaiah was not speaking of the foreign wives that the returning exiles would have married (Ezra 9:1–4). Those foreign wives were considered a corrupting influence because they had not become followers of the living God. The foreigners that Isaiah was prophesying about would be converted to worship the true Lord (44:5).

56:5 not be cut off. This phrase is an idiom for preserving one's name through one's offspring. The phrase links this passage with 55:13.

Are you not children of transgression,

For they will not profit you.

* 57:8 Literally hand, a euphemism

56:9 beasts. The unclean, ravenous beasts summoned to attack the ungodly community are hostile nations (Jer. 12:8–9; Ezek. 34:5,8).
56:11 dogs. The dog was not highly regarded in biblical culture, and to the Jews they were unclean. In Deuteronomy 23:18, a "dog" is discussed in the context of a prostitute.
57:5 Slaying the children. Killing the children was associated with the worship of Molech and with demon worship (30:33; 2 Kin. 23:10; Ps. 106:37–38; Jer. 7:31).
57:12 your righteousness. This phrase is stated in sarcasm or irony. The people had found a counterfeit life in idolatry and immorality that would only lead to death.

13 When you cry out,

And shall inherit My holy mountain."

Healing for the Backslider

14 And one shall say,
[q]"Heap it up! Heap it up!
Prepare the way,
Take the stumbling block out of the way of My people."

15 For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, [r]whose name is Holy:
[s]"I dwell in the high and holy place,
[t]With him who has a contrite and humble spirit,
[u]To revive the spirit of the humble,
And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
16 [v]For I will not contend forever,
Nor will I always be angry;
For the spirit would fail before Me,
And the souls [w]which I have made.
17 For the iniquity of [x]his covetousness
I was angry and struck him;
[y]I hid and was angry,
[z]And he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.
18 I have seen his ways, and [a]will heal him;
I will also lead him,
And restore comforts to him
And to [b]his mourners.

19 "I create [c]the fruit of the lips:
Peace, peace [d]to him who is far off and to him who is near,"
Says the LORD,
"And I will heal him."
20 [e]But the wicked are like the troubled sea,
When it cannot rest,
Whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 "There[f] is no peace,"
Says my God, "for the wicked."

Fasting that Pleases God

58 "Cry aloud, spare not;
Lift up your voice like a trumpet;
[a]Tell My people their transgression,
And the house of Jacob their sins.
2 Yet they seek Me daily,
And delight to know My ways,
As a nation that did righteousness,
And did not forsake the ordinance of their God.
They ask of Me the ordinances of justice;
They take delight in approaching God.
3 'Why[b] have we fasted,' they say, 'and You have not seen?
Why have we [c]afflicted our souls, and You take no notice?'

"In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure,
And exploit all your laborers.
4 [d]Indeed you fast for strife and debate,
And to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You will not fast as you do this day,
To make your voice heard on high.
5 Is [e]it a fast that I have chosen,
[f]A day for a man to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush,
And [g]to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
Would you call this a fast,
And an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 "Is this not the fast that I have chosen:
To [h]loose the bonds of wickedness,
[i]To undo the heavy burdens,
[j]To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke?
7 Is it not [k]to share your bread with the hungry,
And that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out;
[l]When you see the naked, that you cover him,
And not hide yourself from [m]your own flesh?
8 [n]Then your light shall break forth like the morning,
Your healing shall spring forth speedily,

57:14 Heap it up. This verse is based on 40:1–4. The phrase "heap it up" resembles "every valley shall be exalted."

57:16 will not contend forever. God was addressing the human failure to keep His good laws, but humans will always fail. God knew this, so He created a way of salvation, a way to heal the problem of sin (v. 18). He knew that they needed to be radically rescued, for the law was powerless to save them (Rom. 2–8).

58:2 delight to know My ways . . . delight in approaching God. Unfortunately, one can really enjoy all the religious ritual without really wanting to know God. God can always tell the difference between the heart that is turned toward Him and the heart that is devoted to religious form.

58:6 To loose . . . To undo . . . free. Love is right at the top of the list in relating to God and to other people (1 John 4:7–21). Once again, the Lord is defining true religion. It is always horizontal (directed toward other people) as well as vertical (directed toward God). If we love God, we will be just and merciful to other people (Mic. 6:8; James 1:26–27).

The pointing of the finger, and 10 If you extend your soul to the hungry

And satisfy the afflicted soul,
Then your light shall dawn in the

And your darkness shall be as the 11 The LORD will guide you continually,

And satisfy your soul in drought,
And strengthen your bones;
You shall be like a watered garden,
And like a spring of water, whose

[q]Shall build the old waste places;
You shall raise up the foundations of

And I will cause you to [t]ride on the

And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.
[u]The mouth of the LORD has spoken."

Separated from God

59 Behold, the LORD's hand is not [a]shortened,
That it cannot save;
Nor His ear heavy,
That it cannot hear.
2 But your iniquities have separated you from your God;
And your sins have hidden His face
from you,
So that He will [b]not hear.
3 For [c]your hands are defiled with
blood,
And your fingers with iniquity;
Your lips have spoken lies,
Your tongue has muttered
perversity.

4 No one calls for justice,
Nor does any plead for truth.
They trust in [d]empty words and speak lies;
[e]They conceive evil and bring forth
iniquity.
5 They hatch vipers' eggs and weave the
spider's web;
He who eats of their eggs dies,
And from that which is crushed a viper breaks out.

6 [f]Their webs will not become garments,
Nor will they cover themselves with their works;
Their works are works of iniquity,
And the act of violence is in their hands.
7 [g]Their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed
[h]innocent blood;
[i]Their thoughts are thoughts of
iniquity;
Wasting and [j]destruction are in their paths.
8 The way of [k]peace they have not known,
And there is no justice in their ways;
[l]They have made themselves crooked
paths;
Whoever takes that way shall not know peace.

59:2 The Effects of Sin—Sin, regardless of how serious, always has an effect—separation. Sin separates one from God. This separation from God is death. Adam was told that if he ate of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil he would die (Gen. 3:3). Adam ate of the tree anyway and immediately died spiritually—his soul was separated from God—and he then began to die physically. The entrance of sin into the world brought with it death (Rom. 5:12; 6:23). That man is a sinner is proven by the fact that he dies—where there is death, there is sin. Sin's penalty, death, can be remedied by life—union with God. This is achieved by belief in Jesus, who died to pay the penalty of man's sin (Rom. 5:21). For one who believes in Jesus, the penalty of sin is broken. He will die physically but physical death for him is only the doorway into the presence of God.

Sin has an effect upon the believer, for it mars his fellowship with God. Sin in the believer's life is a terrible thing and is not to be tolerated. While it is probable that the believer will sin, it is never necessary for him to do so (1 John 2:1).

59:5 vipers' eggs. The viper is a poisonous snake (Acts 28:3–6).

59:7–8 feet run to evil. This passage is cited in Romans 3:15–17 to document the universal aspect of sin.

Sin Confessed

9 Therefore justice is far from us,
Nor does righteousness overtake us;
[m]We look for light, but there is darkness!
For brightness, but we walk in blackness!
10 [n]We grope for the wall like the blind,
And we grope as if we had no eyes;
We stumble at noonday as at twilight;
We are as dead men in desolate places.
11 We all growl like bears,
And [o]moan sadly like doves;
We look for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far from us.
12 For our [p]transgressions are multiplied before You,
And our sins testify against us;
For our transgressions are with us,
And as for our iniquities, we know them:
13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD,
And departing from our God,
Speaking oppression and revolt,
Conceiving and uttering [q]from the heart words of falsehood.
14 Justice is turned back,
And righteousness stands afar off;
For truth is fallen in the street,
And equity cannot enter.
15 So truth fails,
And he who departs from evil makes himself a [r]prey.

The Redeemer of Zion

Then the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him
That there was no justice.
16 [s]He saw that there was no man,
And [t]wondered that there was no intercessor;
[u]Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him;
And His own righteousness, it sustained Him.
17 [v]For He put on righteousness as a breastplate,
And a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing,
And was clad with zeal as a cloak.
18 [w]According to their deeds, accordingly He will repay, Fury to His adversaries,
Recompense to His enemies;
The coastlands He will fully repay.
19 [x]So shall they fear
The name of the LORD from the west,
And His glory from the rising of the sun;
When the enemy comes in [y]like a flood,
The Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.
20 "The[z] Redeemer will come to Zion,
And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

21 "As[a] for Me," says the LORD, "this is My covenant with them: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants' descendants," says the LORD, "from this time and forevermore."

59:9 Therefore. "Therefore" links Israel's repentance with the prophet's reprimand. With the pronoun "us," Isaiah identified himself with his people's sins (Ezek. 9:6–7; Dan. 9:5).

59:16 no man. God's salvation does not depend on humans (Ezek. 22:30).

59:17 righteousness as a breastplate. This idea of the righteous warrior is repeated in Ephesians 6:13–17. Right standing with God is our protection, as surely as the warrior depends on the heavy body shield over his heart to protect him from the arrows of the enemy.

59:20 The Redeemer will come. The Redeemer comes in the person of Jesus Christ.

59:21 My Spirit. God promised that His Spirit and His Word would never be lost to His people. The covenant that He made with them affirms that the Word is firm and unshakable. It may not be performed immediately, but the hearers can be assured of its truth. He also promised that He would always be present with His people through the Spirit. This is a promise that continues to be comforting to the people of God, and it must have brought particular comfort to the people who lived in the "silent" years between the preaching of Malachi and the coming of John the Baptist.

59:21 Inspiration of God's Word—The word inspiration occurs only once in the New Testament, in 2 Timothy 3:16. Paul says there "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God," literally "God-breathed." God takes the initiative in communicating with us. Divine inspiration logically follows divine revelation. In revelation God speaks to man's ear, while by inspiration He guides the pen to ensure that the imparted message is correctly written down. God's intent is to give His people a right understanding of His revelation and a permanent record of His dealings with mankind. The authority of the Bible is from God Himself.

Bible authors understood that their writings were being guided by the Spirit of God, even as they wrote them. Peter said this was true of Old Testament authors (2 Pet. 1:20–21). He then stated his own letters were inspired by God (2 Pet. 3:1–2). Finally, he pointed out this was also true concerning Paul's writings (2 Pet. 3:15).

This means that the Bible is more than just the wise insights of men who desired to follow God. God worked in the thinking of the biblical writers so the message they wrote was also God's message. While the writings certainly display the individual

The Gentiles Bless Zion

60 Arise, [a]shine;
For your light has come!
And [b]the glory of the LORD is risen
upon you.
2 For behold, the darkness shall cover
the earth,
And deep darkness the people;
But the LORD will arise over you,
And His glory will be seen upon you.
3 The [c]Gentiles shall come to your light,
And kings to the brightness of your rising.

4 "Lift[d] up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather together, [e]they come
to you;
Your sons shall come from afar,
And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.
5 Then you shall see and become radiant,
And your heart shall swell with joy;
Because [f]the abundance of the sea
shall be turned to you,
The wealth of the Gentiles shall come
to you.
6 The multitude of camels shall cover
your land,
The dromedaries of Midian and [g]Ephah;
All those from [h]Sheba shall come;
They shall bring [i]gold and incense,
And they shall proclaim the praises of
the LORD.
7 All the flocks of [j]Kedar shall be gathered together to you,
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister
to you;
They shall ascend with [k]acceptance on My altar,
And [l]I will glorify the house of My glory.

8 "Who are these who fly like a cloud,
And like doves to their roosts?
9 [m]Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me;
And the ships of Tarshish will come first,
[n]To bring your sons from afar,
[o]Their silver and their gold with them,
To the name of the LORD your God,
And to the Holy One of Israel,
[p]Because He has glorified you.

10 "The[q] sons of foreigners shall build up your walls,
[r]And their kings shall minister to you;
For [s]in My wrath I struck you, [t]But in My favor I have had mercy on
you.
11 Therefore your gates [u]shall be open continually;
They shall not be shut day or night,
That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles,
And their kings in procession.
12 [v]For the nation and kingdom which will not serve you shall perish,
And those nations shall be utterly ruined.

13 "The[w] glory of Lebanon shall come to
you,
The cypress, the pine, and the box tree
together,
To beautify the place of My sanctuary;
And I will make [x]the place of My feet glorious.
14 Also the sons of those who afflicted
you
Shall come [y]bowing to you,
And all those who despised you shall [z]fall prostrate at the soles of your feet;
And they shall call you The City of the
LORD,
[a]Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 "Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,
So that no one went through you,
I will make you an eternal excellence,
A joy of many generations.
16 You shall drink the milk of the Gentiles,
[b]And milk the breast of kings;
You shall know that [c]I, the LORD, am your Savior
And your Redeemer, the Mighty One
of Jacob.

17 "Instead of bronze I will bring gold,
Instead of iron I will bring silver,
Instead of wood, bronze,
And instead of stones, iron.
I will also make your officers peace,
And your magistrates righteousness.

characteristics of all of the different authors, there is also an overall divine influence that unifies the Bible as no other book.

60:1 Arise, shine. This command is directed to Zion (v. 14), which is both the recipient of God's light and the reflector of it. It is difficult to imagine the world without the knowledge of Christ, yet each believer who remembers his life before he was born again can testify to the power of the light of the gospel. It is a great joy to come from the darkness of sin and doubt to the light of forgiveness and knowledge of Jesus Christ. What a joyful command, to "shine" for the Savior.

60:3 Gentiles. The Gentiles are the other nations.

60:9 ships of Tarshish. The reference to the ships of Tarshish alludes to the wealth of King Solomon (2:16; 1 Kin. 10:22).

60:12 not serve you shall perish. The nation and kingdom that does not serve Zion, where Christ now reigns (Acts 2:29–36), shall perish (John 3:18; Heb. 2:3; 9:27; 10:27).

God the Glory of His People

19 "The [e]sun shall no longer be your light
by day,
Nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you;
But the LORD will be to you an everlasting light,
And [f]your God your glory.
20 [g]Your sun shall no longer go down,
Nor shall your moon withdraw itself;
For the LORD will be your everlasting

And the days of your mourning shall 21 [h]Also your people shall all be righteous;

That I may be glorified.

And a small one a strong nation.
I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time."

The Good News of Salvation

61 "The [a]Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon
Me,
Because the LORD [b]has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me [c]to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim [d]liberty to the captives,
And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
2 [e]To proclaim the acceptable year of the
LORD,
And [f]the day of vengeance of our God;
[g]To comfort all who mourn,
3 To console those who mourn in Zion,
[h]To give them beauty for ashes,
The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
That they may be called trees of
righteousness,
[i]The planting of the LORD, [j]that He may be glorified."

4 And they shall [k]rebuild the old ruins,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
And they shall repair the ruined
cities,
The desolations of many generations.
5 [l]Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the foreigner Shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
6 [m]But you shall be named the priests of
the LORD,
They shall call you the servants of our
God.
[n]You shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory you shall boast.
7 [o]Instead of your shame you shall have double honor,
And instead of confusion they shall rejoice in their portion.
Therefore in their land they shall possess double;
Everlasting joy shall be theirs.

8 "For [p]I, the LORD, love justice;
[q]I hate robbery for burnt offering;
I will direct their work in truth, [r]And will make with them an everlasting covenant.
9 Their descendants shall be known among the Gentiles,
And their offspring among the people.
All who see them shall acknowledge
them,
[s]That they are the posterity whom the LORD has blessed."

10 [t]I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
My soul shall be joyful in my God;
For [u]He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
He has covered me with the robe of
righteousness,

60:18 Salvation . . . Praise. Judging from the figurative language in verses 15–22, especially verse 17, God's salvation and Israel's praise will be the city's defense (Zech. 2:4–5).

60:19–20 no longer. These verses form the basis for the description of the New Jerusalem in the new heaven and earth (Rev. 21:1,23; 22:5).

61:1 Me. The "Me" featured so prominently here is the same as the Servant in 42:1; 49:1; 50:4; 52:13. The Servant is the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ. This verse is the passage from Isaiah that Jesus read in the synagogue at the beginning of His ministry (Luke 4:16–21). When He finished reading it, He said, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

61:2 day of vengeance. The day of God's vengeance is yet to come. This is the "day" that the Book of Revelation is talking about (Rev. 11:14–19).

61:10 Christ's Righteousness—One of the most awesome requirements made upon men and women by God is that they be righteous, that is, conform to His ethical and moral standards (Ps. 15:2; Mic. 6:8). Since God is holy He cannot allow sinners into His presence (Is. 6:3–5). We sinners cannot save ourselves or make ourselves righteous. Only God's intervention can save us and make us righteous. God sent Christ,

As the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth,
So the Lord GOD will cause
[w]righteousness and [x]praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Assurance of Zion's Salvation

62 For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace,
And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
Until her righteousness goes forth as brightness,
And her salvation as a lamp that burns.
2 [a]The Gentiles shall see your righteousness,
And all [b]kings your glory.
[c]You shall be called by a new name,
Which the mouth of the LORD will name.
3 You shall also be [d]a crown of glory
In the hand of the LORD,
And a royal diadem
In the hand of your God.
4 [e]You shall no longer be termed [f]Forsaken,
Nor shall your land any more be termed [g]Desolate;
But you shall be called Hephzibah,*
and your land Beulah;*
For the LORD delights in you,
And your land shall be married.
5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
So shall your sons marry you;
And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
[h]So shall your God rejoice over you.
6 [i]I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
They shall never hold their peace day or night.
You who make mention of the LORD, do not keep silent,
7 And give Him no rest till He establishes
And till He makes Jerusalem [j]a praise in the earth.
8 The LORD has sworn by His right hand
And by the arm of His strength:
"Surely I will no longer [k]give your grain
As food for your enemies;
And the sons of the foreigner shall not drink your new wine,
For which you have labored.
9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it,
And praise the LORD;
Those who have brought it together shall drink it [l]in My holy courts."
10 Go through,
Go through the gates!
[m]Prepare the way for the people;
Build up,
Build up the highway!
Take out the stones,
[n]Lift up a banner for the peoples!
11 Indeed the LORD has proclaimed
To the end of the world:
[o]"Say to the daughter of Zion,
'Surely your salvation is coming;
Behold, His [p]reward is with Him,
And His work before Him.'"
12 And they shall call them The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the LORD;
And you shall be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

The LORD in Judgment and Salvation

63 Who is this who comes from Edom,
With dyed garments from Bozrah,
This One who is glorious in His apparel,
Traveling in the greatness of His strength?—
"I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

* 62:4 Literally My Delight Is in Her • Literally Married

who never sinned, to die for our sins and thus satisfy His own wrath towards us and our sin. God, at the cross, treated Christ as though He had committed our sins even though He was righteous. On the other hand, when we believe in Christ, He treats us as though we were as righteous as Himself (2 Cor. 5:21). It is as if God deposits in our spiritual account the very worth of Christ, much as though He were a banker adding an inexhaustible deposit to our bank account.
62:2 a new name. A new name, like new clothing, signified a new status (Gen. 17:5,15; 32:28; Rev. 2:17).
62:4 Hephzibah . . . Beulah. The name "Hephzibah" means "my delight is in her"—in this case, it is the Lord's delight—and "Beulah" means "married." Both of these names are symbolic, pointing to a time when Israel's relationship with the Lord is restored.
62:6 You who make mention of the LORD. The "watchmen," or prophets, were intercessors. They prayed that the Lord's promises would be fulfilled.
62:8 The LORD has sworn. When God made the promise to Abraham (Heb. 6:13), He swore by Himself; so here He again swears in His own name. There is no greater name than the name of the Lord, and He cannot lie—this is the surest promise man can receive.
63:1 Edom. Edom epitomized Israel's enemies (Ps. 137:7; Lam. 4:21–22; Ezek. 25:12; 35:1–5; Obad.

2 Why [a]is Your apparel red,
And Your garments like one who treads in the winepress?
3 "I have [b]trodden the winepress alone,
And from the peoples no one was
with Me.
For I have trodden them in My anger,
And trampled them in My fury;
Their blood is sprinkled upon My
garments,
And I have stained all My robes.
4 For the [c]day of vengeance is in My heart,
And the year of My redeemed has come.
5 [d]I looked, but [e]there was no one to help,
And I wondered
That there was no one to uphold;
Therefore My own [f]arm brought salvation for Me;
And My own fury, it sustained Me.
6 I have trodden down the peoples in My anger,
Made them drunk in My fury,
And brought down their strength to the earth."

God's Mercy Remembered

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of
the LORD
And the praises of the LORD,
According to all that the LORD has bestowed on us,
And the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
Which He has bestowed on them
according to His mercies,
According to the multitude of His lovingkindnesses.
8 For He said, "Surely they are My people,
Children who will not lie."
So He became their Savior.
9 [g]In all their affliction He was afflicted,
[h]And the Angel of His Presence saved
them;
[i]In His love and in His pity He redeemed them;
And [j]He bore them and carried them
All the days of old.
10 But they [k]rebelled and [l]grieved His Holy Spirit;
[m]So He turned Himself against them as an enemy,
And He fought against them.
11 Then he [n]remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying:
"Where is He who [o]brought them up out of the sea
With the shepherd of His flock?
[p]Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within them,
12 Who led them by the right hand of Moses,
[q]With His glorious arm,
[r]Dividing the water before them
To make for Himself an everlasting
name,
13 [s]Who led them through the deep,
As a horse in the wilderness,
That they might not stumble?"
14 As a beast goes down into the valley,
And the Spirit of the LORD causes him
to rest,
So You lead Your people,
[t]To make Yourself a glorious name.

A Prayer of Penitence

15 [u]Look down from heaven,
And see [v]from Your habitation, holy and glorious.
Where are Your zeal and Your strength,
The yearning [w]of Your heart and Your mercies toward me?
Are they restrained?
16 [x]Doubtless You are our Father,
Though Abraham [y]was ignorant of us,
And Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O LORD, are our Father;
Our Redeemer from Everlasting is
Your name.
17 O LORD, why have You [z]made us stray
from Your ways,
And hardened our heart from Your fear?
Return for Your servants' sake,
The tribes of Your inheritance.
18 [a]Your holy people have possessed it but a little while;
[b]Our adversaries have trodden down
Your sanctuary.
19 We have become like those of old, over whom You never ruled,
Those who were never called by Your name.

64 Oh, that You would rend the heavens!
That You would come down!
That the mountains might shake at Your [a]presence—

63:3 I. The pronoun "I" refers to Christ in Revelation 19:5.

63:11 put His Holy Spirit within them. This refers to the presence of the Holy Spirit on Moses and his helpers in the desert (Num. 11:17,25).

63:12 glorious arm. This verse refers to God dividing the Red Sea (Ex. 15:6; 14:16,21; Ps. 78:13). Isaiah is reminding his hearers of the mighty acts that God did in the past, as well as the things that He has promised to do in the future. Such perspective is often helpful when one is bearing difficult times in the present.

2 As fire burns brushwood,
As fire causes water to boil—
To make Your name known to Your adversaries,
That the nations may tremble at Your presence!
3 When [b]You did awesome things for which we did not look,
You came down,
The mountains shook at Your presence.
4 For since the beginning of the world
[c]Men have not heard nor perceived by the ear,
Nor has the eye seen any God besides You,
Who acts for the one who waits for Him.
5 You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness,
Who remembers You in Your ways.
You are indeed angry, for we have sinned—
[d]In these ways we continue;
And we need to be saved.

6 But we are all like an unclean thing,
And all [e]our righteousnesses are like filthy rags;
We all [f]fade as a leaf,
And our iniquities, like the wind,
Have taken us away.
7 And there is no one who calls on Your name,
Who stirs himself up to take hold of You;
For You have hidden Your face from us,
And have consumed us because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD,
You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our [g]potter;
And all we are the work of Your hand.
9 Do not be furious, O LORD,
Nor remember iniquity forever;
Indeed, please look—we all are Your people!
10 Your holy cities are a wilderness,
Zion is a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
11 Our holy and beautiful temple,
Where our fathers praised You,
Is burned up with fire;
And all [h]our pleasant things are laid waste.
12 [i]Will You restrain Yourself because of these things, O LORD?
[j]Will You hold Your peace, and afflict us very severely?

The Righteousness of God's Judgment

65 "I was [a]sought by those who did not ask for Me;
I was found by those who did not seek Me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am,'
To a nation that [b]was not called by My name.
2 [c]I have stretched out My hands all day long to a [d]rebellious people,
Who [e]walk in a way that is not good,
According to their own thoughts;
3 A people [f]who provoke Me to anger continually to My face;
[g]Who sacrifice in gardens,
And burn incense on altars of brick;
4 [h]Who sit among the graves,
And spend the night in the tombs;
[i]Who eat swine's flesh,
And the broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
5 [j]Who say, 'Keep to yourself,
Do not come near me,
For I am holier than you!'
These are smoke in My nostrils,
A fire that burns all the day.

6 "Behold, [k]it is written before Me:
[l]I will not keep silence, [m]but will repay—
Even repay into their bosom—
7 Your iniquities and [n]the iniquities of your fathers together,"
Says the LORD,
[o]"Who have burned incense on the mountains
[p]And blasphemed Me on the hills;
Therefore I will measure their former work into their bosom."

8 Thus says the LORD:

"As the new wine is found in the cluster,
And one says, 'Do not destroy it,
For [q]a blessing is in it,'
So will I do for My servants' sake,
That I may not destroy them [r]all.
9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
And from Judah an heir of My mountains;
My [s]elect shall inherit it,
And My servants shall dwell there.
10 [t]Sharon shall be a fold of flocks,
And [u]the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down,
For My people who have [v]sought Me.

64:4 Nor has the eye seen. Paul cites this verse with some changes in 1 Corinthians 2:9.
64:10 wilderness . . . desolation. The prophetic picture of devastation of the land is probably referring to the time of the Babylonian invasion.

And you shall all bow down to the slaughter;
[y]Because, when I called, you did not answer;
When I spoke, you did not hear,
But did evil before My eyes,
And chose that in which I do not delight."

13 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, My servants shall eat,
But you shall be hungry;
Behold, My servants shall drink,
But you shall be thirsty;
Behold, My servants shall rejoice,
But you shall be ashamed;
14 Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart,
But you shall cry for sorrow of heart,

For the Lord GOD will slay you,

Shall bless himself in the God of truth;
And [e]he who swears in the earth
Shall swear by the God of truth;
Because the former troubles are forgotten,
And because they are hidden from My eyes.

The Glorious New Creation

17 "For behold, I create [f]new heavens and a new earth;
And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind.
18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
For behold, I create Jerusalem as a rejoicing,
And her people a joy.
19 [g]I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
And joy in My people;
The [h]voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her,
Nor the voice of crying.
20 "No more shall an infant from there live but a few days,
Nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days;
For the child shall die one hundred years old,
[i]But the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.
21 [j]They shall build houses and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
22 They shall not build and another inhabit;
They shall not plant and [k]another eat;
For [l]as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people,
And [m]My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
23 They shall not labor in vain,
[n]Nor bring forth children for trouble;
For [o]they shall be the descendants of the blessed of the LORD,
And their offspring with them.
24 "It shall come to pass
That [p]before they call, I will answer;
And while they are still speaking, I will [q]hear.
25 The [r]wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
The lion shall eat straw like the ox,
[s]And dust shall be the serpent's food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,"
Says the LORD.

True Worship and False

66 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Heaven is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.

And where is the place of My rest?

65:20 child shall die one hundred years old. In the coming kingdom the life spans will be much greater. People will not be affected by disease and aging in the same way as in our present age. This time probably refers to the millennial kingdom (Rev. 20:1–6).

65:25 wolf . . . lamb. This picture is also presented in 11:6–9. It is a picture of regenerated nature that will occur in the new heavens and new earth.

66:1 Where is the house. No place on earth can accommodate the transcendent God. Even the temple built by Solomon, which was filled with the glory of the Lord (1 Kin. 8:11), did not really contain the Lord. He called it a "a temple for My name" (1 Kin. 8:18).

And who trembles at My word.

3 "He[d] who kills a bull is as if he slays a man;
He who sacrifices a lamb, as if he [e]breaks a dog's neck;

He who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol.
Just as they have chosen their own ways,
And their soul delights in their abominations,
4 So will I choose their delusions,
And bring their fears on them;
[f]Because, when I called, no one answered,
When I spoke they did not hear;
But they did evil before My eyes,

The LORD Vindicates Zion

5 Hear the word of the LORD,
You who tremble at His word:
"Your brethren who [g]hated you,
Who cast you out for My name's sake, said,
[h]'Let the LORD be glorified,
That [i]we may see your joy.'
But they shall be ashamed."

6 The sound of noise from the city!
A voice from the temple!
The voice of the LORD,
Who fully repays His enemies!

7 "Before she was in labor, she gave birth;
Before her pain came,
She delivered a male child.
8 Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Or shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labor,
She gave birth to her children.
9 Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD.
"Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.

10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem,
And be glad with her, all you who love her;
Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her;
11 That you may feed and be satisfied
With the consolation of her bosom,
That you may drink deeply and be delighted
With the abundance of her glory."

12For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [j]I will extend peace to her like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream.
Then you shall [k]feed;
On her sides shall you be [l]carried,
And be dandled on her knees.
13 As one whom his mother comforts,
So I will [m]comfort you;
And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."

The Reign and Indignation of God

14 When you see this, your heart shall rejoice,
And [n]your bones shall flourish like grass;
The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants,
And His indignation to His enemies.
15 [o]For behold, the LORD will come with fire
And with His chariots, like a whirlwind,
To render His anger with fury,
And His rebuke with flames of fire.
16 For by fire and by [p]His sword
The LORD will judge all flesh;
And the slain of the LORD shall be [q]many.

17 "Those[r] who sanctify themselves and purify themselves,
To go to the gardens
After an idol in the midst,
Eating swine's flesh and the abomination and the mouse,
Shall be consumed together," says the LORD.

18"For I know their works and their [s]thoughts. It shall be that I will [t]gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory. 19[u]I will set a sign among them; and those among them who escape

* 66:19 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint reads Put (compare Jeremiah 46:9).

The word picture promises judgment and punishment.

66:23 All flesh shall come to worship before Me. In the end, every person will bow to the Lord, whether they were followers of God or not. This idea is repeated in more detail in Romans 14:11, 1 Corinthians 15:24–25, Philippians 2:10, and Revelation 15:4.

66:24 And their fire is not quenched. This verse is cited by Jesus in Mark 9:44, 46, and 48. The imagery is drawn from the Valley of Hinnom that was Jerusalem's garbage dump, where unclean corpses decomposed and were burned. The final eternal punishment is the lake of fire (Rev. 20:1–15). Although the Book of Isaiah depicts God's coming salvation, it closes with a strong statement of the judgment of the wicked.

THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

▶ AUTHOR: Jeremiah was the son of Hilkiah the priest and lived just over two miles north of Jerusalem. The book clearly states that Jeremiah is its author, and that he dictated all his prophecies to his secretary Baruch. A first copy of the work was destroyed by the king, after which Jeremiah produced a more complete edition (36:32). The only segment of this book not credited to Jeremiah is chapter 52. This supplement is almost identical to 2 Kings 24:18—25:30, and may have been added by Baruch. Daniel alludes to Jeremiah's prophecy of the seventy-year captivity (25:11–14; 29:10; Dan. 9:2), and Jeremiah's authorship is also confirmed by Ecclesiasticus, Josephus, and the Talmud.

▶ THEME: In the Book of Jeremiah we get an intimate picture of this prophet's life and thoughts. He was constantly rejected for speaking God's message, often lamenting to God. For this fact he is often called the weeping prophet. His ministry begins in 627 B.C., during the reign of King Josiah, who brought about reform after finding the Book of Deuteronomy in the temple. By that time Judah was a weak kingdom that was subject to the major political forces of the day, which were Egypt and Babylon. While Josiah's reform was certainly a step in the right direction, many of the people didn't follow through on the implications of what the law taught. Jeremiah demonstrated God's perspective on the political upheaval going on throughout Judah in his day.

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were [a]in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, 2to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of [b]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, [c]in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3It came also in the days of [d]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [e]until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, [f]until the carrying away of Jerusalem captive [g]in the fifth month.

The Prophet Is Called

4Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

5 "Before I [h]formed you in the womb [i]I knew you;
Before you were born I [j]sanctified you;
I ordained you a prophet to the nations."

6Then said I:

[k]"Ah, Lord GOD!
Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth."

7But the LORD said to me:

"Do not say, 'I am a youth,'
For you shall go to all to whom I send you,
And [l]whatever I command you, you shall speak.
8 [m]Do not be afraid of their faces,
For [n]I am with you to deliver you,"
says the LORD.

1:1 Jeremiah. The name probably means either "the Lord exalts" or "the Lord establishes."

1:4 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying. This was a standard way of introducing a divine oracle at the beginning of a prophetic book. Jeremiah did not speak out of his own imagination. He spoke as God revealed His word and will.

1:5 Before I formed you in the womb I knew you. Jeremiah was keenly aware that the call of God in his life had been determined by God from before his conception. As God's word became a reality in his life, the prophet understood that God knew him and had called him to proclaim a critical message at a crucial point in the history of the nation. The word "knew" refers to an intimate knowledge that comes from relationship and personal commitment.

1:8 I am with you to deliver you. Twice in his call (v. 19), God reassured Jeremiah of His presence and protection. In moments of personal crisis, Jeremiah prays these words back to God (20:11).

9 Then the LORD put forth His hand and [o]touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me:

"Behold, I have [p]put My words in your mouth.
10 [q]See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms,
To [r]root out and to pull down,
To destroy and to throw down,
To build and to plant."

11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"
And I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."
12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word."
13 And the word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"
And I said, "I see [s]a boiling pot, and it is facing away from the north."
14 Then the LORD said to me:

"Out of the [t]north calamity shall break forth
On all the inhabitants of the land.
15 For behold, I am [u]calling
All the families of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD;
"They shall come and [v]each one set his throne
At the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,
Against all its walls all around,
And against all the cities of Judah.
16 I will utter My judgments
Against them concerning all their wickedness,
Because [w]they have forsaken Me,
Burned [x]incense to other gods,
And worshiped the works of their own [y]hands.

17 "Therefore [z]prepare yourself and arise,
And speak to them all that I command you.
[a]Do not be dismayed before their faces,
Lest I dismay you before them.
18 For behold, I have made you this day
[b]A fortified city and an iron pillar,
And bronze walls against the whole land—
Against the kings of Judah,
Against its princes,
Against its priests,
And against the people of the land.
19 They will fight against you,
But they shall not prevail against you.
For I am with you," says the LORD, "to deliver you."

God's Case Against Israel

2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Go and cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD:

"I remember you,
The kindness of your [a]youth,
The love of your betrothal,
[b]When you went after Me in the wilderness,
In a land not sown.
3 [c]Israel was holiness to the LORD,
[d]The firstfruits of His increase.
[e]All that devour him will offend;
Disaster will [f]come upon them," says the LORD.'"

4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel. 5 Thus says the LORD:

[g]"What injustice have your fathers found in Me,
That they have gone far from Me,
[h]Have followed idols,
And have become idolaters?
6 Neither did they say, 'Where is the LORD,
Who [i]brought us up out of the land of Egypt,
Who led us through [j]the wilderness,
Through a land of deserts and pits,
Through a land of drought and the shadow of death,
Through a land that no one crossed
And where no one dwelt?'

1:9 I have put My words in your mouth. This verse gives us an understanding of the dual nature of Scripture. The message is the Lord's; its expression is accomplished through His servants the prophets (Heb. 1:1).

1:10 I have this day set you over the nations. The nations were instruments in God's purpose of revealing Himself. The Lord would use Babylon to punish Judah, and then He would use the Persians to punish Babylon.

1:11 I see a branch of an almond tree. God confirmed His call to Jeremiah with two visions. The first vision involved an almond tree, which blossoms when other trees are still dormant. The almond tree served as a harbinger of spring, as though it watched over the beginning of the season. In a similar fashion, God was watching over His word, ready to bring judgment on Israel.

1:13 I see a boiling pot, and it is facing away from the north. This is the second vision God used to confirm Jeremiah's call. Judgment was coming from the north.

1:17 Therefore prepare yourself. This means tuck your robe into your belt so you can run, or "gird up your loins" (1 Sam. 2:4).

1:18 A fortified city. This military language indicates that God would fight for Jeremiah. His defense system could not be battered down or tunneled under by men and armies.

2:1–3 The love of your betrothal. Chapter 2 is

But when you entered, you [l]defiled My land
And made My heritage an abomination.
8 The priests did not say, 'Where is the LORD?'
And those who handle the [m]law did not know Me;
The rulers also transgressed against Me;
[n]The prophets prophesied by Baal,
And walked after things that do not profit.
9 "Therefore [o]I will yet bring charges against you," says the LORD,
"And against your children's children I will bring charges.

Send to Kedar* and consider diligently,
And see if there has been such a [p]thing.
11 [q]Has a nation changed its gods,
Which are [r]not gods?
[s]But My people have changed their Glory
For what does not profit.
12 Be astonished, O heavens, at this,
And be horribly afraid;
Be very desolate," says the LORD.
13 "For My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me, the [t]fountain of living waters,
And hewn themselves cisterns—broken cisterns that can hold no water.
14 "Is Israel [u]a servant?
Is he a homeborn slave?
Why is he plundered?
15 [v]The young lions roared at him, and growled;
They made his land waste;
His cities are burned, without inhabitant.
16 Also the people of Noph* and [w]Tahpanhes
Have broken the crown of your head.
17 [x]Have you not brought this on yourself,
In that you have forsaken the LORD your God
When [y]He led you in the way?
18 And now why take [z]the road to Egypt,
To drink the waters of [a]Sihor?
Or why take the road to [b]Assyria,
To drink the waters of the River?*
19 Your own wickedness will [c]correct you,
And your backslidings will rebuke you.
Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing
That you have forsaken the LORD your God,
And the fear of Me is not in you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.
20 "For of old I have [d]broken your yoke and burst your bonds;
And [e]you said, 'I will not transgress,'
When [f]on every high hill and under every green tree
You lay down, [g]playing the harlot.
21 Yet I had [h]planted you a noble vine, a seed of highest quality.
How then have you turned before Me
Into [i]the degenerate plant of an alien vine?
22 For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap,
Yet your iniquity is [j]marked before Me," says the Lord GOD.
23 "How[k] can you say, 'I am not polluted, I have not gone after the Baals'?
See your way in the valley;
Know what you have done:
You are a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways,
24 A wild donkey used to the wilderness,
That sniffs at the wind in her desire;
In her time of mating, who can turn her away?
All those who seek her will not weary themselves;
In her month they will find her.

2:8 priests . . . rulers . . . prophets. Those who should have known God most intimately did not know Him at all. The rulers transgressed against God and His covenant. The prophets prophesied in the name of Baal rather than God.

2:13 broken cisterns. The people could have chosen a "fountain of living waters." Instead they chose broken cisterns that would have been useless for sustaining life.

Have I been a wilderness to Israel,

Why do My people say, 'We are lords;

Or a bride her attire?
Yet My people [x]have forgotten Me days without number.

love?
Therefore you have also taught
The wicked women your ways.

[y]The blood of the lives of the poor innocents.
I have not found it by secret search,
But plainly on all these things.

Surely His anger shall turn from me.'
Behold, [a]I will plead My case against
you,
[b]Because you say, 'I have not sinned.' 36 [c]Why do you gad about so much to change your way?
Also [d]you shall be ashamed of Egypt
[e]as you were ashamed of Assyria.

With your hands on [f]your head;
For the LORD has rejected your trusted allies,
And you will [g]not prosper by them.

Israel Is Shameless

Would not that [b]land be greatly polluted?
But you have [c]played the harlot with many lovers;

Will He keep it to the end?'

2:32 Yet My people have forgotten Me. In the ancient world, those women who were not slaves normally possessed a variety of rings, bracelets, and ornaments made from gold, silver, or bronze. Many of these were exquisite in appearance and were frequently inlaid with semiprecious stones. Ornaments of this kind were commonly part of the wedding finery of a bride. The nation Israel, however, which was God's bride, had behaved in a completely unnatural fashion by presuming to forget the God to whom the people were so intimately bound by the Sinai covenant. In forgetting their God for so long a time they had actually rejected Him and His claims upon them, a prospect which Jeremiah found almost impossible to believe.

3:1 If a man divorces his wife. Deuteronomy 24:1–4 forbids a man to remarry his divorced wife if she has remarried and been divorced in the meantime. The implication is that the woman has been defiled by the second marriage. After forsaking God, Israel had taken many other lovers, that is, the nation worshiped many other gods. Yet the Lord in His mercy still extended His loving hand to His unfaithful bride.

3:3 showers . . . latter rain. There were two types of

A Call to Repentance

6 The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: "Have you seen what [m]backsliding Israel has done? She has [n]gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there played the harlot. 7 [o]And I said, after she had done all these things, 'Return to Me.' But she did not return. And her treacherous [p]sister Judah saw it. 8 Then I saw that [q]for all the causes for which backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had [r]put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; [s]yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also. 9 So it came to pass, through her casual harlotry, that she [t]defiled the land and committed adultery with [u]stones and trees. 10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me [v]with her whole heart, but in pretense," says the LORD.

11 Then the LORD said to me, [w]"Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. 12 Go and proclaim these words toward [x]the north,
and say:

'Return, backsliding Israel,' says the
LORD;
'I will not cause My anger to fall on
you.
For I am [y]merciful,' says the LORD;
'I will not remain angry forever.
13 [z]Only acknowledge your iniquity,
That you have transgressed against the LORD your God,
And have [a]scattered your charms
To [b]alien deities [c]under every green tree,
And you have not obeyed My voice,'
says the LORD.

14 "Return, O backsliding children," says the LORD; [d]"for I am married to you. I will take you, [e]one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to [f]Zion. 15 And I will give you [g]shepherds according to My heart, who will [h]feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 "Then it shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and [i]increased in the land in those days," says the LORD, "that they will say no more, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' [j]It shall not come to mind, nor shall they remember it, nor shall they visit it, nor shall it be made anymore.

17 "At that time Jerusalem shall be called The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, [k]to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. No more shall they [l]follow the dictates of their evil hearts.

18 "In those days [m]the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of [n]the north to [o]the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.

19 "But I said:

'How can I put you among the children
And give you [p]a pleasant land,
A beautiful heritage of the hosts of nations?'

"And I said:

'You shall call Me, [q]"My Father,"
And not turn away from Me.'
20 Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her husband,
So [r]have you dealt treacherously with
Me,
O house of Israel," says the LORD.

21 A voice was heard on [s]the desolate heights,
Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel.
For they have perverted their way;
They have forgotten the LORD their
God.

22 "Return, you backsliding
children,
And I will [t]heal your backslidings."

"Indeed we do come to You,
For You are the LORD our God.

rain that fell in Israel in the spring from March to early April. These were vital for the fields and crops.

3:6 in the days of Josiah the king. The reign of Josiah (640–609 B.C.) followed the idolatrous reigns of Manasseh (697–642 B.C.) and Amon (642–640 B.C.).

3:8 backsliding Israel had committed adultery. Because of Israel's adultery, the Lord presented her with a certificate of divorce based on Deuteronomy 24:1–4. As a consequence, in 722 B.C. Israel was taken captive by Assyria, and Samaria was destroyed. Judah looked on but did not learn from Israel's example.

3:15 And I will give you shepherds. Throughout the Bible God provides shepherds for His people to watch over them, guide them, care for them, and lead them. From Moses in the Old Testament to Jesus in the New, God provides faithful, devoted leaders after His own heart.

3:16 when you are multiplied and increased. God ordained that His shepherds would lead Israel through a time of blessing, increase in numbers, and material prosperity.

3:19 give you a pleasant land. The possession of the land was always dependent on the covenant faithfulness of Israel to their God. The Lord's desire has always been to bless His people.

23 [u]Truly, in vain is salvation hoped for
from the hills,
And from the multitude of mountains;
[v]Truly, in the LORD our God
Is the salvation of Israel.
24 [w]For shame has devoured
The labor of our fathers from our youth—
Their flocks and their herds,
Their sons and their daughters.
25 We lie down in our shame,
And our reproach covers us.
[x]For we have sinned against the LORD
our God,
We and our fathers,
From our youth even to this day,
And [y]have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

4 "If you will return, O Israel," says the LORD,
[a]"Return to Me;
And if you will put away your abominations out of My sight,
Then you shall not be moved.
2 [b]And you shall swear, 'The LORD lives,' [c]In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness;
[d]The nations shall bless themselves in Him,
And in Him they shall [e]glory."

3For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

[f]"Break up your fallow ground,
And [g]do not sow among thorns.
4 [h]Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
And take away the foreskins of your hearts,
You men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
Lest My fury come forth like fire,
And burn so that no one can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings."

An Imminent Invasion

5Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:

[i]"Blow the trumpet in the land;
Cry, 'Gather together,'
And say, [i]'Assemble yourselves,
And let us go into the fortified cities.'
6 Set up the standard toward Zion.
Take refuge! Do not delay!
For I will bring disaster from the [k]north,
And great destruction."

7 [l]The lion has come up from his thicket,
And [m]the destroyer of nations is on his way.
He has gone forth from his place
[n]To make your land desolate.
Your cities will be laid waste,
Without inhabitant.
8 For this, [o]clothe yourself with
sackcloth,
Lament and wail.
For the fierce anger of the LORD
Has not turned back from us.

9 "And it shall come to pass in that day,"
says the LORD,
"That the heart of the king shall
perish,
And the heart of the princes;
The priests shall be astonished,
And the prophets shall wonder."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD!
[p]Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem,
[q]Saying, 'You shall have peace,' Whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

11 At that time it will be said
To this people and to Jerusalem, [r]"A dry wind of the desolate heights
blows in the wilderness
Toward the daughter of My people—
Not to fan or to cleanse—12 A wind too strong for these will come for Me;
Now [s]I will also speak judgment against them."

3:23 from the multitude of mountains. The mountains were centers of idol worship and thus were strongholds of falsehood. True salvation or deliverance could be found only in the true God of Israel.

4:2 The LORD lives. This phrase was regularly used in oaths. When spoken by those faithful to the covenant, it should have been a sign of truth, judgment, and righteousness. Failure to be willing to owe God their faithfulness and worship brought terrible consequences to Israel, the northern kingdom, and then to Judah, and resulted in failure of the nations to be converted as well. Because Israel would not give glory to God, the rest of the world could not.

4:4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD. Circumcision was a sign of the covenant relationship between Israel and God (Gen. 17:10–14). The intent of God was always that the outward symbol should be a sign of a reality of total devotion to Him (Deut. 10:12–21).

4:5 Blow the trumpet in the land. Jeremiah announced the judgment of Judah and Jerusalem with the alarming sound of a trumpet, literally a shofar made of a ram's horn. This was the instrument used to sound the alarm when an enemy attacked a city.

4:7 from his thicket. Destruction would come as a terrible surprise, like a lion hiding and then pouncing on its prey. The desolation of the land and the deportation of the people would be the result.

4:8 clothe yourself with sackcloth. This material was a rough-textured fabric that was worn as a sign of mourning or distress (6:21).

13 "Behold, he shall come up like clouds,
And [t]his chariots like a whirlwind.
[u]His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are plundered!"

14 O Jerusalem, [v]wash your heart from wickedness,
That you may be saved.
How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?

15 For a voice declares [w]from Dan
And proclaims affliction from Mount Ephraim:

16 "Make mention to the nations,
Yes, proclaim against Jerusalem,
That watchers come from a [x]far country
And raise their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 [y]Like keepers of a field they are against her all around,
Because she has been rebellious against Me," says the LORD.

18 "Your[z] ways and your doings
Have procured these things for you.
This is your wickedness,
Because it is bitter,
Because it reaches to your heart."

Sorrow for the Doomed Nation

19 O my [a]soul, my soul!
I am pained in my very heart!
My heart makes a noise in me;
I cannot hold my peace,
Because you have heard, O my soul,
The sound of the trumpet,
The alarm of war.

20 [b]Destruction upon destruction is cried,
For the whole land is plundered.
Suddenly [c]my tents are plundered,
And my curtains in a moment.

21 How long will I see the standard,
And hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "For My people are foolish,
They have not known Me.
They are silly children,
And they have no understanding.
[d]They are wise to do evil,
But to do good they have no knowledge."

23 [e]I beheld the earth, and indeed it was [f]without form, and void;
And the heavens, they had no light.

24 [g]I beheld the mountains, and indeed they trembled,
And all the hills moved back and forth.

25 I beheld, and indeed there was no man,
And [h]all the birds of the heavens had fled.

26 I beheld, and indeed the fruitful land was a [i]wilderness,
And all its cities were broken down
At the presence of the LORD,
By His fierce anger.

27 For thus says the LORD:

"The whole land shall be desolate;
[j]Yet I will not make a full end.

28 For this [k]shall the earth mourn,
And [l]the heavens above be black,
Because I have spoken.
I have [m]purposed and [n]will not relent,
Nor will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and bowmen.
They shall go into thickets and climb up on the rocks.
Every city shall be forsaken,
And not a man shall dwell in it.

30 "And when you are plundered,
What will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
Though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold,
[o]Though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
In vain you will make yourself fair;
[p]Your lovers will despise you;
They will seek your life.

4:13 Behold, he shall come up like clouds. Judah had become the foe of God, and He would use the nation's international foes to discipline the nation. The imagery of clouds and chariots like a whirlwind portrays the thoroughness and swiftness of God's judgment.

4:15 Dan . . . Mount Ephraim. Dan was the most northern tribe of Israel. Ephraim was the southernmost region of the northern kingdom of Israel. The message is that just as Israel had been subjugated, Judah was also in danger.

4:19 my soul, my soul. "Soul" here means bowels or belly, a reference to the internal organs. In ancient Middle Eastern thought, the internal organs were the seat of emotions and feelings. The phrase describes Jeremiah's anguish over the destruction of Jerusalem.

4:23 it was without form, and void. This Hebrew phrase is the same one used in Genesis 1:2 to describe the chaos before the ordering of the cosmos. no light. The prophets spoke of darkness as part of God's judgment on the world. Here the lack of light describes the disastrous effects of sin on creation, particularly on the land of Judah.

4:24 they trembled. The symbols of stability and of strength would be shaken as by an earthquake. Birds would disappear as Hosea had proclaimed (Hos. 4:3). In Genesis 1, the creation of the birds of the heavens depicts the fulfillment of the creative process. In Jeremiah and Hosea, the removal of the birds symbolizes the reversal of creation.

4:28 the heavens above be black. The dark skies are associated with God's judgment.

31 "For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor,
The anguish as of her who brings forth her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion
bewailing herself;
She [q]spreads her hands, saying,
'Woe is me now, for my soul is weary
Because of murderers!'

The Justice of God's Judgment

5 "Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem;
See now and know;
And seek in her open places
[a]If you can find a man,
[b]If there is anyone who executes
judgment,
Who seeks the truth,
[c]And I will pardon her.
2 [d]Though they say, 'As [e]the LORD lives,' Surely they [f]swear falsely."

3 O LORD, are not [g]Your eyes on the truth?
You have [h]stricken them,
But they have not grieved;
You have consumed them,
But [i]they have refused to receive correction.
They have made their faces harder than rock;
They have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, "Surely these are poor.
They are foolish;
For [j]they do not know the way of the
LORD,
The judgment of their God.
5 I will go to the great men and speak to
them,
For [k]they have known the way of the
LORD,
The judgment of their God."
But these have altogether [l]broken the yoke
And burst the bonds.

6 Therefore [m]a lion from the forest shall slay them,
[n]A wolf of the deserts shall destroy them;
[o]A leopard will watch over their cities.
Everyone who goes out from there shall be torn in pieces,
Because their transgressions are many;
Their backslidings have increased.

7 "How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken Me
And [p]sworn by those [q]that are not gods.
[r]When I had fed them to the full,
Then they committed adultery
And assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
8 [s]They were like well-fed lusty stallions;
Every one neighed after his neighbor's wife.
9 Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"And shall I not [t]avenge Myself on such a nation as this?

10 "Go up on her walls and destroy,
But do not make a [u]complete end.
Take away her branches,
For they are not the LORD's.
11 For [v]the house of Israel and the house of Judah
Have dealt very treacherously with Me," says the LORD.

12 [w]They have lied about the LORD,
And said, [x]"It is not He.
[y]Neither will evil come upon us,
Nor shall we see sword or famine.
13 And the prophets become wind,
For the word is not in them.
Thus shall it be done to them."

14 Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts:

"Because you speak this word, [z]Behold, I will make My words in your mouth fire,
And this people wood,
And it shall devour them.

5:1 anyone who executes judgment. Similar to Abraham's plea that Sodom be saved on account of the few faithful people among its inhabitants (Gen. 18:16–33), so Jeremiah summoned the people to search the city of Jerusalem for one just and righteous person.

5:3 they have refused to receive correction. The Hebrew term translated correction means "chastisement" or "discipline." Sometimes it means "instruction." In the Prophets, it generally refers to God's attempt to teach His children faithfulness by means of discipline or punishment (7:28). But despite the words of Jeremiah and other prophets, Israel refused "correction" and continued down the path of self-destruction.

5:5 broken the yoke. Jeremiah paints a picture of Judah as oxen that are wandering aimlessly through the field, guided by their own desires. They are exposed to the elements and the wild animals of the forest and desert.

5:7 they committed adultery. The prophets generally refer to cultic prostitution as adultery. Such immoral behavior violated covenant law (Ex. 20:14) and set in motion the curses of the covenant.

5:9 Shall I not punish them for these things? The Hebrew word translated punish (9:9), literally meaning "to visit," can be used of the visitation of God in mercy (Ps. 65:9) or in wrath. Here it clearly refers to wrath.

5:13 the prophets become wind. False prophets like Hananiah (28:11) had foretold a time of peace

15 Behold, I will bring a [a]nation against you [b]from afar,
O house of Israel," says the LORD.
"It is a mighty nation,
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language you do not know,
Nor can you understand what they say.
16 Their quiver is like an open tomb;
They are all mighty men.
17 And they shall eat up your [c]harvest and your bread,
Which your sons and daughters should eat.
They shall eat up your flocks and your herds;
They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees;
They shall destroy your fortified cities,
In which you trust, with the sword.

18 "Nevertheless in those days," says the LORD, "I [d]will not make a complete end of you. 19 And it will be when you say, [e]'Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?' then you shall answer them, 'Just as you have [f]forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so [g]you shall serve aliens in a land that is not yours.'

20 "Declare this in the house of Jacob
And proclaim it in Judah, saying, 21 'Hear this now, O [h]foolish people,
Without understanding,
Who have eyes and see not,
And who have ears and hear not:
22 [i]Do you not fear Me?' says the LORD.
'Will you not tremble at My presence,
Who have placed the sand as the [j]bound of the sea,
By a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass beyond it?
And though its waves toss to and fro,
Yet they cannot prevail;
Though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it.
23 But this people has a defiant and rebellious heart;
They have revolted and departed.
24 They do not say in their heart,
"Let us now fear the LORD our God,
[k]Who gives rain, both the [l]former and the latter, in its season.
[m]He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."
25 [n]Your iniquities have turned these things away,
And your sins have withheld good from you.

26 'For among My people are found wicked men;
They [o]lie in wait as one who sets snares;
They set a trap;
They catch men.
27 As a cage is full of birds,
So their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become great and grown rich.
28 They have grown [p]fat, they are sleek;
Yes, they surpass the deeds of the wicked;
They do not plead [q]the cause,
The cause of the fatherless;
[r]Yet they prosper,
And the right of the needy they do not defend.
29 [s]Shall I not punish them for these things?' says the LORD.
'Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?'

30 "An astonishing and [t]horrible thing
Has been committed in the land:
31 The prophets prophesy [u]falsely,
And the priests rule by their own power;
And My people [v]love to have it so.
But what will you do in the end?

Impending Destruction from the North

6 "O you children of Benjamin,
Gather yourselves to flee from the midst of Jerusalem!
Blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
And set up a signal-fire in [a]Beth Haccerem;
[b]For disaster appears out of the north,
And great destruction.
2 I have likened the daughter of Zion
To a lovely and delicate woman.

and deliverance from the domination and destructiveness of their enemies. But their word was like an empty breeze. The very sword they denied would seal their fate.

5:17 they shall eat up. The word devour is used four times in this verse to paint an image of the enemy as consuming field, flock, and fortifications.

5:20 house of Jacob. Even after the northern kingdom had been destroyed, the prophets still spoke of Israel. There was not a complete destruction of the northern tribes, as is commonly thought.

5:26–28 wicked men. Those responsible for the welfare of the whole populace had abused their positions by exploiting the lesser elements of Israelite society. The picture presented is one of birds, or the poor, being ensnared by great men who were building wealth at the expense of orphans and the needy (Deut. 10:18).

5:31 prophets . . . priests. The deterioration of the leadership of the land reached the very people who were supposed to be the mainstays of righteousness among the people. Both offices had succumbed to the temptation of abusing their power, rejecting their responsible roles as messengers and servants of God.

4 "Prepare[d] war against her;
Arise, and let us go up [e]at noon.
Woe to us, for the day goes away,
For the shadows of the evening are lengthening.
5 Arise, and let us go by night,
And let us destroy her palaces."

6 For thus has the LORD of hosts said:

"Cut down trees,
And build a mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished.
She is full of oppression in her midst.
7 [f]As a fountain wells up with water,
So she wells up with her wickedness.
[g]Violence and plundering are heard in her.
Before Me continually are grief and wounds.
8 Be instructed, O Jerusalem,
Lest [h]My soul depart from you;
Lest I make you desolate,
A land not inhabited."

9 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They shall thoroughly glean as a vine
the remnant of Israel;
As a grape-gatherer, put your hand
back into the branches."

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning,
That they may hear?
Indeed their [i]ear is uncircumcised,
And they cannot give heed.
Behold, [j]the word of the LORD is a reproach to them;
They have no delight in it.
11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the
LORD.
[k]I am weary of holding it in.
"I will pour it out [l]on the children outside,
And on the assembly of young men
together;
For even the husband shall be taken
with the wife,
The aged with him who is full of days.
12 And [m]their houses shall be turned over to others,
Fields and wives together;
For I will stretch out My hand Against the inhabitants of the land,"
says the LORD.
13 "Because from the least of them even to the greatest of them,
Everyone is given to [n]covetousness;
And from the prophet even to the [o]priest,
Everyone deals falsely.
14 They have also [p]healed the hurt of My people slightly,
[q]Saying, 'Peace, peace!'
When there is no peace.
15 Were they [r]ashamed when they had committed abomination?
No! They were not at all ashamed;
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those
who fall;
At the time I punish them,
They shall be cast down," says the
LORD.

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Stand in the ways and see,
And ask for the [s]old paths, where the good way is,
And walk in it;
Then you will find [t]rest for your souls.
But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'
17 Also, I set [u]watchmen over you,
saying,
[v]'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'
But they said, 'We will not listen.'
18 Therefore hear, you nations,
And know, O congregation, what is among them.

6:4–5 Prepare war against her. Prepare can also be translated "make holy." It refers to ritual sanctification performed in preparation for battle. The words are overheard in the camps of the enemies who are about to come against Jerusalem. Sorcerers and diviners were called upon to perform sacrifices to determine the will of the gods and assure a successful outcome in battle.

6:6 Cut down trees, and build a mound. A siege mound was a ramp of wood, stone, and sand that sloped toward the wall of a city. Armored siege machines could go up the ramp and attack the city walls.

6:7 Violence and plundering. Jerusalem had once been a city that had peace, justice, and righteousness. Under the siege of the Babylonians in 588–586 B.C. conditions were unspeakable (see the Book of Lamentations).

6:11 I am full of the fury of the LORD. Jeremiah's own emotions reveal his identification with God's feelings about Judah. The prophet was both angry and weary with the entire nation, both young and old.

6:13 Everyone is given to covetousness. The accusation of covetousness suggests monetary gain by means of deception and fraud. Even those called to guide the nation in its covenant relationship had defrauded God and man.

6:15 Nor did they know how to blush. The people had lost all sense of what was right before God.

6:16–17 old paths. This phrase probably refers to 20 [z]For what purpose to Me

Comes frankincense [a]from Sheba,
And [b]sweet cane from a far country?
[c]Your burnt offerings are not

Nor your sacrifices sweet to Me."

21 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks
before this people,
And the fathers and the sons together
shall fall on them.
The neighbor and his friend shall perish."

22 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, a people comes from the

And a great nation will be raised from the farthest parts of the earth.
23 They will lay hold on bow and spear;
They are cruel and have no mercy;
Their voice [e]roars like the sea;
And they ride on horses,
As men of war set in array against you, O daughter of Zion."

24 We have heard the report of it;
Our hands grow feeble.
[f]Anguish has taken hold of us,
Pain as of a woman in labor.

Fear is on every side.

most bitter lamentation;
For the plunderer will suddenly come

That you may know and test their way.

They are [m]bronze and iron,

For the wicked are not drawn off.

Trusting in Lying Words

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2[a]"Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD!'" 3Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [b]"Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. 4[c]Do not trust in these lying words, saying, 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD are these.'

5"For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly [d]execute judgment between a man and his neighbor, 6*if* you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, [e]or walk after other gods to your hurt, 7[f]then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in [g]the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

the Sinai covenant and the Book of Deuteronomy, as Jeremiah called the people back to former days of steadfast devotion.

6:20 Your burnt offerings are not acceptable. There is a common misconception that in the Old Testament, prior to the cross, God was primarily interested in outward and formal religious rites, such as circumcision, Sabbath-day observance, and animal sacrifices. Nothing could be more removed from the truth. In both Testaments, God is basically concerned with the attitudes of the heart (Deut. 10:6).

6:26 roll about in ashes. This action symbolically expressed sorrow and despair.

6:27 I have set you as an assayer. Jeremiah would act as the nation's assayer, the one who tests or evaluates quality or purity.

6:29–30 The smelter refines in vain. Jeremiah assesses Judah as a refiner purifies silver, using lead to remove impurities (9:7). The lead is consumed, so the dross in the silver ore cannot be purged. This results in the refiner discarding the ore because it is so impure that the smelting process is not worth the energy it takes. Similarly God rejects those whose wickedness cannot be refined.

7:2 Stand in the gate. The parallel in 26:2 suggests the proclamation was made in the outer court of the temple, where Jeremiah would have been guaranteed a large audience.

7:4 Do not trust in these lying words. Trust conveys the sense of security and confidence that the people had in their holy place. They believed that since God had chosen Jerusalem as His dwelling, had promised that a Davidic king would remain on the throne forever, and had delivered the city from attack in the days of Hezekiah and Isaiah, He would never allow the city or the temple to be destroyed. The temple of the LORD. The Israelites believed that the building guaranteed their security whether or not they obeyed the provisions of the covenant. This false hope was a lie (3:23; 7:9).

8 "Behold, you trust in [h]lying words that cannot profit. 9 [i]Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and [j]walk after other gods whom you do not know, 10 [k]and then come and stand before Me in this house [l]which is called by My name, and say, 'We are delivered to do all these abominations'? 11 Has [m]this house, which is called by My name, become a [n]den of thieves in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says the LORD.
12 "But go now to [o]My place which was in Shiloh, [p]where I set My name at the first, and see [q]what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. 13 And now, because you have done all these works," says the LORD, "and I spoke to you, [r]rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I [s]called you, but you did not answer, 14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to this place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I have done to [t]Shiloh.
15 And I will cast you out of My sight, [u]as I have cast out all your brethren—[v]the whole posterity of Ephraim.
16 "Therefore [w]do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me; [x]for I will not hear you. 17 Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 [y]The children gather wood, the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes for the queen of heaven; and they [z]pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. 19 [a]Do they provoke Me to anger?"
says the LORD. "Do they not provoke themselves, to the shame of their own faces?"
20 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
"Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place—on man and on beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn and not be quenched."
21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [b]"Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat meat. 22 [c]For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices. 23 But this is what I commanded them, saying, [d]'Obey My voice, and [e]I will be your God, and you shall be My people.
And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.' 24 [f]Yet they did not obey or incline their ear,
but [g]followed the counsels and the dictates of their evil hearts, and [h]went backward and not forward. 25 Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have even [i]sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. 26 [j]Yet they did not obey Me or incline their ear, but [k]stiffened their neck. [l]They did worse than their fathers.
27 "Therefore [m]you shall speak all these words to them, but they will not obey you.
You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you.

Judgment on Obscene Religion

28 "So you shall say to them, 'This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the 7:10 stand before Me. This means "to place (oneself) in submissive service to someone." Entering the temple of God in such a manner, while worshiping other gods, was incomprehensible. Furthermore, for the people to think that they were secure enough to perform perverted abominations was the ultimate hypocrisy.

7:11 den of thieves. Like thieves hiding in a cave for safety, Judah attempted to hide behind the sanctuary of the temple for protection from the divine hand of judgment. But the Lord had seen the hypocrisy of Israel's ways. Jesus quoted this verse when He cleansed the second temple (Matt. 21:13).

7:16 do not pray for this people. God's instruction to Jeremiah indicates the extreme depravity of Jerusalem's inhabitants (11:14; 14:11). No manner of intercession was to be made on behalf of Judah. God would not hear Jeremiah's appeals.

7:18 the queen of heaven. This is a reference to the goddess Ishtar, who was worshiped in open-air cultic centers throughout the eastern Mediterranean region and Mesopotamia. Worship of Ishtar involved the preparation of special cakes that bore the goddess's image, as well as drink offerings (44:19). The family cooperation in the idolatrous worship of Ishtar stood in direct opposition to the covenant demands that a father instruct his children in the ways of the Lord (Deut. 6:4–9).

7:21 Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices. Because the people had missed the true meaning of the Lord's worship, they could multiply their offerings as much as they liked and it would do them no good. The Lord cared for none of their sacrifices. To Him they were simply meat.

7:23 that it may be well with you. God required that His people obey His voice. Obedience would bring blessing. When the prophets lashed out against sacrifice, it was not against the sacrificial system as God had established it, but against the corruption of that system as the people practiced it. The same thing is found in the New Testament passages that seemingly speak against the law. Both the New Testament writers and the Hebrew prophets denounce the abuses of divine systems in human hands.

7:26 or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. These phrases suggest a cold rebuff to the will and work of God. Jeremiah, like Isaiah before him (Is. 6:9–10), was told that the people would not respond to his message.

cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the desolate heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.' 30For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight," says the LORD.
[q]"They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to pollute it. 31And they have built the [r]high places of Tophet, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to [s]burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, [t]which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

32"Therefore behold, [u]the days are coming," says the LORD, "when it will no more be called Tophet, or the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; [v]for they will bury in Tophet until there is no room. 33The [w]corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. And no one will frighten them away. 34Then I will cause to [x]cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For [y]the land shall be desolate.

8 "At that time," says the LORD, "they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves. 2They shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and which they have served and after which they have walked, which they have sought and [a]which they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered [b]nor buried; they shall be like refuse on the face of the earth. 3Then [c]death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of those who remain of this evil family, who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

The Peril of False Teaching

4"Moreover you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD:

"Will they fall and not rise?
Will one turn away and not return?
5 Why has this people [d]slidden back,
Jerusalem, in a perpetual backsliding?
[e]They hold fast to deceit,
[f]They refuse to return.
6 [g]I listened and heard,
But they do not speak aright.
[h]No man repented of his wickedness,
Saying, 'What have I done?'
Everyone turned to his own course,
As the horse rushes into the battle.
7 "Even [i]the stork in the heavens
Knows her appointed times;
And the turtledove, the swift, and the swallow
Observe the time of their coming.
But [j]My people do not know the judgment of the LORD.
8 "How can you say, 'We are wise,
[k]And the law of the LORD is with us'?
Look, the false pen of the scribe certainly works falsehood.
9 [l]The wise men are ashamed,
They are dismayed and taken.
Behold, they have rejected the word of
the LORD;
So [m]what wisdom do they have?
10 Therefore [n]I will give their wives to others,
And their fields to those who will inherit them;
Because from the least even to the greatest
Everyone is given to [o]covetousness;
From the prophet even to the priest
Everyone deals falsely.
11 For they have [p]healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, Saying, [q]'Peace, peace!'
When there is no peace.
12 Were they [r]ashamed when they had
committed abomination?
No! They were not at all ashamed,
Nor did they know how to blush.
Therefore they shall fall among those
who fall;
In the time of their punishment
They shall be cast down," says the
LORD.

7:29 Cut off your hair. This practice was a way of expressing mourning and grief. The act may also have symbolized that Judah had rejected the covenant relationship just as if they had broken a Nazirite vow, a sign of personal devotion that required the hair not to be cut (Num. 6:1–21).

7:33 corpses of this people. Unburied corpses left to the elements and animals were regarded as a horrible desecration in the ancient Middle East.

8:1–3 the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven. The gods and goddesses to whom Jerusalem looked for deliverance would stand over the people's desecrated corpses, which are pictured here as dung. Those who survived the siege and attack as exiles and slaves would prefer death over life.

8:7 appointed times. Whereas the birds follow their instincts to migrate, the people of Israel refused to follow God's promptings to obey His covenant. Note that God still refers to the people of Judah as "my people" even though they continued to rebel against Him.

The city and those who dwell in it."

17 "For behold, I will send serpents among you,
Vipers which cannot be [a]charmed,
And they shall bite you," says the LORD.

The Prophet Mourns for the People

18 I would comfort myself in sorrow;
My heart is faint in me.
19 Listen! The voice,
The cry of the daughter of my people
From [b]a far country:
"Is not the LORD in Zion?
Is not her King in her?"

"Why have they provoked Me to anger
With their carved images—
With foreign idols?"

20 "The harvest is past,
The summer is ended,
And we are not saved!"

21 [c]For the hurt of the daughter of my people I am hurt.
I am [d]mourning;
Astonishment has taken hold of me.
22 Is there no [e]balm in Gilead,
Is there no physician there?
Why then is there no recovery
For the health of the daughter of my people?

9 Oh, [a]that my head were waters,
And my eyes a fountain of tears,
That I might weep day and night
For the slain of the daughter of my people!
2 Oh, that I had in the wilderness
A lodging place for travelers;
That I might leave my people,
And go from them!
For [b]they are all adulterers,
An assembly of treacherous men.

3 "And like their bow [c]they have bent their tongues for lies.
They are not valiant for the truth on the earth.
For they proceed from [d]evil to evil,
And they [e]do not know Me," says the LORD.
4 "Everyone[f] take heed to his neighbor,
And do not trust any brother;
For every brother will utterly supplant,
And every neighbor will [g]walk with slanderers.
5 Everyone will [h]deceive his neighbor,
And will not speak the truth;
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
They weary themselves to commit iniquity.
6 Your dwelling place is in the midst of deceit;
Through deceit they refuse to know Me," says the LORD.

7 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, [i]I will refine them and try them;
[j]For how shall I deal with the daughter of My people?

8:17 I will send serpents among you. Judgment by means of poisonous snakes is described in Numbers 21:6.

8:20 harvest is past. This proverb reflects the sense of helplessness in the early fall. The harvest was meager and the oppression persisted. Even Jeremiah was deeply hurt—this translates a Hebrew word derived from the verb meaning "to break," "to shatter"; in other words, the prophet's spirit was broken over the fate of his people.

8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead. The region of Gilead was known for its balsam ointment (Gen. 37:25). There is no healing, physical or spiritual, for a people intent on rebelling against God.

9:1 my eyes a fountain of tears. Jeremiah, who is known as the "weeping prophet," identified personally with the suffering of his people. Here he expresses his desire for a reserve of tears that would flow without stopping.

9:3 like their bow they have bent their tongues. Once falseness takes hold in a community or nation, it seems to pervade every area of life. Such a condition is what Jeremiah describes here. There was falsity in every relation. There was a lack of fidelity and trust.

9:4 Everyone take heed to his neighbor. The personal affairs of the people were characterized by

It speaks [k]deceit;
One speaks [l]peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth,
But in his heart he lies in wait.
9 [m]Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD.
"Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

10 I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains,
And [n]for the dwelling places of the wilderness a lamentation,
Because they are burned up,
So that no one can pass through;
Nor can men hear the voice of the cattle.
[o]Both the birds of the heavens and the beasts have fled;
They are gone.

11 "I will make Jerusalem [p]a heap of ruins, [q]a den of jackals.
I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant."

12 [r]Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish and burn up like a wilderness, so that no one can pass through?
13 And the LORD said, "Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have [s]not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it, 14 but they have [t]walked according to the dictates of their own hearts and after the Baals, [u]which their fathers taught them," 15 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will [v]feed them, this people, [w]with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. 16 I will [x]scatter them also among the Gentiles, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. [y]And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them."

The People Mourn in Judgment

17 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Consider and call for [z]the mourning women,
That they may come;
And send for skillful wailing women,
That they may come.
18 Let them make haste
And take up a wailing for us,
That [a]our eyes may run with tears,
And our eyelids gush with water.
19 For a voice of wailing is heard from Zion:
'How we are plundered!
We are greatly ashamed,
Because we have forsaken the land,
Because we have been cast out of [b]our dwellings.'"

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD,
O women,
And let your ear receive the word of His mouth;
Teach your daughters wailing,
And everyone her neighbor a lamentation.
21 For death has come through our windows,
Has entered our palaces,
To kill off [c]the children—no longer to be outside!
And the young men—no longer on the streets!

22 Speak, "Thus says the LORD:

'Even the carcasses of men shall fall [d]as refuse on the open field,
Like cuttings after the harvester,
And no one shall gather them.'"

23 Thus says the LORD:

[e]"Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom,
Let not the mighty man glory in his [f]might,
Nor let the rich man glory in his riches;
24 But [g]let him who glories glory in this,
That he understands and knows Me,
That I am the LORD, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth.
[h]For in these I delight," says the LORD.

deceit, slander, and mistrust. Ethical standards had collapsed.

9:8 Their tongue is an arrow shot out. Jeremiah returns to the imagery of bow and arrow to depict Judah's deceit (v. 3). The picture is of a person speaking peaceably to his neighbor while lying in wait to ambush him.

9:13 have not obeyed. The word "obey," which comes from the Hebrew word meaning "to hear," implies an active response to the hearing of God's word. Instead of walking according to God's law, the people walked according to the dictates or stubbornness of their own hearts.

9:18 Let them make haste. There is urgency in summoning the skilled mourners to lead the people in tearful lament over the imminent destruction of Judah.

9:21 death has come. The Canaanite god of death, Mot, was believed to enter a household through an open window to bring adversity, destruction, and death.

9:24 lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. True knowledge of God resulting from an intimate relationship with Him will be

Idols and the True God

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel.
2 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"Do not learn the way of the Gentiles;
Do not be dismayed at the signs of
heaven,
For the Gentiles are dismayed at them.
3 For the customs of the peoples are futile;
For [b]one cuts a tree from the forest,
The work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.
4 They decorate it with silver and gold;
They [c]fasten it with nails and hammers
So that it will not topple.
5 They are upright, like a palm tree,
And [d]they cannot speak;
They must be [e]carried,
Because they cannot go by themselves.
Do not be afraid of them,
For [f]they cannot do evil,
Nor can they do any good."

6 Inasmuch as there is none [g]like You,
O LORD
(You are great, and Your name is great in might),
7 [h]Who would not fear You, O King of the nations?
For this is Your rightful due.
For [i]among all the wise men of the
nations,
And in all their kingdoms,
There is none like You.
8 But they are altogether [j]dull-hearted and foolish;
A wooden idol is a worthless doctrine.
9 Silver is beaten into plates;
It is brought from Tarshish,
And [k]gold from Uphaz,
The work of the craftsman
And of the hands of the metalsmith;
Blue and purple are their clothing;
They are all [l]the work of skillful men.
10 But the LORD is the true God;
He is [m]the living God and the [n]everlasting King.
At His wrath the earth will tremble,
And the nations will not be able to endure His indignation.

11 Thus you shall say to them: [o]"The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth [p]shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens."

12 He [q]has made the earth by His power,
He has [r]established the world by His wisdom,
And [s]has stretched out the heavens at
His discretion.
13 [t]When He utters His voice,
There is a multitude of waters in the
heavens:
[u]"And He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain,
He brings the wind out of His
treasuries."*
14 [v]Everyone is [w]dull-hearted, without knowledge;
[x]Every metalsmith is put to shame by an image;
[y]For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
15 They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they shall perish.

demonstrated in a person's character. God demands these attributes of His followers.

10:2 the way of the Gentiles. The Gentiles worshiped natural phenomena by means of handmade icons and symbolic imagery. the signs of heaven. These were astral deities (8:1–3) worshiped in the days of Manasseh and reinstituted following the death of Josiah and the collapse of his reforms.

10:6–7 there is none like You, O LORD. This phrase expresses one of the great teachings of the prophets—the incomparability of God. God is not simply better than other gods; He alone is the living God.

10:9 the work of skillful men. No matter how skilled the idol makers were, the fabricated icons were lifeless, deteriorating, false gods who were no more powerful or wise than their makers.

10:10 the LORD is the true God. Jeremiah speaks of Israel's God not only as living, but also as being the true God and the nation's everlasting King. He thus governs His covenant people by principles of truth, and with a power that far surpasses the might of earthly kings. Whereas pagan gods cannot alter the course of nature in the slightest degree, even though their worshipers believed very much to the contrary, the God of Sinai is the Creator of nature. He can punish the wicked by storm, flood, earthquake, or pestilence, and strike terror into the hearts of all those who oppose Him.

10:12 He has made the earth. Jeremiah emphasizes the creative power of God, drawing on the imagery of Job 38 and Psalm 8. Jeremiah was reminding the people of Judah that their God not only created the universe but also governs its ongoing life.

The Coming Captivity of Judah

17 [c]Gather up your wares from the land,
O inhabitant of the fortress!

18 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will [d]throw out at this time
The inhabitants of the land,
And will distress them, [e]That they may find it so."

19 [f]Woe is me for my hurt!
My wound is severe.
But I say, [g]"Truly this is an infirmity,
And [h]I must bear it."
20 [i]My tent is plundered,
And all my cords are broken;
My children have gone from me,
And they are [j]no more.
There is no one to pitch my tent anymore,
Or set up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds have become dull-hearted,
And have not sought the LORD;
Therefore they shall not prosper,
And all their flocks shall be [k]scattered.
22 Behold, the noise of the report has come,
And a great commotion out of the [l]north country,
To make the cities of Judah desolate, a [m]den of jackals.

23 O LORD, I know the [n]way of man is not in himself;
It is not in man who walks to direct his own steps.
24 O LORD, [o]correct me, but with justice;
Not in Your anger, lest You bring me
to nothing.
25 [p]Pour out Your fury on the Gentiles,
[q]who do not know You,
And on the families who do not call on
Your name;
For they have eaten up Jacob,
[r]Devoured him and consumed him,
And made his dwelling place desolate.

The Broken Covenant

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2"Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; 3and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [a]"Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant 4which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [b]from the iron furnace, saying, [c]"Obey My voice, and do according to all that I command you; so shall you be My people, and I will be your God,' 5that I may establish the [d]oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them [e]a land flowing with milk and honey,'* as it is this day."' "

And I answered and said, "So be it, LORD."

6Then the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: 'Hear the words of this covenant [f]and do them. 7For I earnestly exhorted your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, until this day, [g]rising early and exhorting, saying, "Obey My voice." 8[h]Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but [i]everyone followed the dictates of his evil heart; therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they have not done.' "

9And the LORD said to me, [j]"A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10They have turned back to [k]the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words, and they have gone after other gods to serve them; the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers."

11 Therefore thus says the LORD: "Behold,

10:17 Gather up your wares from the land. The Assyrian stone reliefs of Shalmaneser III depict captives transporting household goods on their heads as they go into exile in the eastern reaches of the empire. Soon this would be the fate of the people of Judah.

10:19 Woe is me. Jeremiah personally identified with Judah and the destruction of Jerusalem. The injuries inflicted upon Judah were severe.

11:2 Hear the words of this covenant. Jeremiah's message from the Lord here is strongly associated with the Book of Deuteronomy. The term "words" is the Hebrew name of the Book of Deuteronomy; it is also used to refer to the terms of the covenant. A covenant is a legal treaty or relationship between individuals, between nations, or—in the case of Israel—between a nation and its God. The covenant specified rights, obligations, and responsibilities of the parties entering into the agreement.

11:4 iron furnace. This terminology comes directly from Deuteronomy 4:20, which is set in a context of a warning against worshiping idols.

11:5 that I may establish the oath. The blessing of land, as promised to Abraham, was dependent upon the covenant loyalty of the people.

11:11 bring calamity on them. Because the heart of the nation was evil, God would bring disaster upon

I will surely bring calamity on them which they will not be able to escape; and [l]though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.
12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and [m]cry out to the gods to whom they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. 13 For according to the number of your [n]cities were your gods, O Judah;
and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal.
14 "So [o]do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their trouble.

15 "What[p] has My beloved to do in My house,
Having [q]done lewd deeds with many?
And [r]the holy flesh has passed from
you.
When you do evil, then you [s]rejoice.
16 The LORD called your name,
[t]Green Olive Tree, Lovely and of Good Fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has kindled fire on it,
And its branches are broken.

17 "For the LORD of hosts, [u]who planted you, has pronounced doom against you for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense to Baal."

Jeremiah's Life Threatened

18 Now the LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I know it; for You showed me their doings. 19 But I was like a docile lamb brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had devised schemes against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, [v]and let us cut him off from [w]the land of the living, that his name may be remembered no more."

20 But, O LORD of hosts,
You who judge righteously,
[x]Testing the mind and the heart,
Let me see Your [y]vengeance on them,
For to You I have revealed my cause.

21 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of [z]Anathoth who seek your life, saying, [a]'Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD, lest you die by our hand'—
22 therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:
'Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall [b]die by famine; 23 and there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring catastrophe on the men of Anathoth, even [c]the year of their punishment.'"

Jeremiah's Question

12 Righteous [a]are You, O LORD, when I plead with You;
Yet let me talk with You about Your judgments.
[b]Why does the way of the wicked
prosper?
Why are those happy who deal so
treacherously?
2 You have planted them, yes, they have taken root;
They grow, yes, they bear fruit.
[c]You are near in their mouth
But far from their mind.
3 But You, O LORD, [d]know me;
You have seen me,
And You have [e]tested my heart toward
You.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
And prepare them for [f]the day of slaughter.
4 How long will [g]the land mourn,
And the herbs of every field wither?
[h]The beasts and birds are consumed,
[i]For the wickedness of those who dwell
there,
Because they said, "He will not see our final end."

the people. God's justice is inescapable when sin is intrinsic to one's character. Even if the people were to cry out in distress, God would not listen.

11:17 planted. This term recalls the theme of Jeremiah 2:21, the idea that God had established Israel as His choicest vine. However, here the context is the impending doom that would result from the evil done by the Lord's people.

11:20 Let me see Your vengeance on them. Jeremiah appealed for vindication to God as the one true righteous judge. "Heart" refers to the seat of intellect and will. "Vengeance" describes God's fury and anger against sin that demands punishment.

11:21–23 the men of Anathoth. These men insisted that Jeremiah not prophesy in the name of the Lord. If Jeremiah had yielded to their demand, he would have repudiated his calling, his person, and his God. The threat of death to Jeremiah was answered by punishment of the young men as well as their children. The prediction of death by famine was fulfilled when the city was besieged by the Babylonians in the days of Zedekiah.

12:4 How long will the land mourn. Jeremiah's question related to God's delay of judgment on the people of the land. "Land mourn . . . herbs of every field wither . . . beasts and birds are consumed" are phrases that are recurring themes in Jeremiah and other prophetic texts (4:28; 40:7; Zeph. 1:3). In spite of past chastisement, the people believed that God would not bring their country to an end.

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you,
Then how can you contend with horses?
And if in the land of peace,
In which you trusted, *they wearied
you,*
Then how will you do in [i]the floodplain* of the Jordan?
6 For even [k]your brothers, the house of your father,
Even they have dealt treacherously
with you;
Yes, they have called a multitude after
you.
[l]Do not believe them,
Even though they speak smooth words
to you.

7 "I have forsaken My house, I have left
My heritage;
I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.
8 My heritage is to Me like a lion in the forest;
It cries out against Me;
Therefore I have [m]hated it.
9 My heritage is to Me like a speckled vulture;
The vultures all around are against
her.
Come, assemble all the beasts of the field,
[n]Bring them to devour!

10 "Many [o]rulers* have destroyed [p]My vineyard,
They have [q]trodden My portion underfoot;
They have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
11 They have made it [r]desolate;
Desolate, it mourns to Me;
The whole land is made desolate,
Because [s]no one takes it to heart.
12 The plunderers have come On all the desolate heights in the wilderness,
For the sword of the LORD shall devour
From one end of the land to the other end of the land;
No flesh shall have peace.
13 [t]They have sown wheat but reaped thorns;
They have put themselves to pain but do not profit.
But be ashamed of your harvest
Because of the fierce anger of the
LORD."

14 Thus says the LORD: "Against all My evil neighbors who [u]touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit—behold, I will [v]pluck them out of their land and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. 15 [w]Then it shall be, after I have plucked them out, that I will return and have compassion on them [x]and bring them back, everyone to his heritage and everyone to his land. 16 And it shall be, if they will learn carefully the ways of My people, [y]to swear by My name, 'As the LORD lives,' as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they shall be [z]established in the midst of My people. 17 But if they do not [a]obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation," says the LORD.

Symbol of the Linen Sash

13 Thus the LORD said to me: "Go and get yourself a linen sash, and put it around your waist, but do not put it in water." 2 So I got a sash according to the word of the LORD, and put it around my waist.

* 12:5 Or thicket * 12:10 Literally shepherds or pastors

12:5–6 If you have run with the footmen. God's response to Jeremiah's question (v. 4) comes in the form of two metaphorical questions. The first metaphor of foot racing was designed to teach Jeremiah that the obstacles he faced in his hometown were meager compared to those he would encounter before the kings of Judah and Babylon (the horses).
land of peace. This second metaphor was designed to remind the prophet of the impending turmoil he would have to endure in proclaiming the message of judgment to an unrepentant leadership. The relatively peaceful setting of Anathoth, with its minor opposition from treacherous family members, served to prepare Jeremiah to struggle against greater antagonists.
12:10–11 Many rulers. This phrase refers to the foreign kings who had come as agents of God to judge Judah. The repetition of the word "desolate" describes the complete devastation of Judah (Is. 6:11). Because of sin, the land that once saw God's bounteous blessing would experience His devastating judgment.
12:15 after I have plucked them out. This verse offers a glimmer of hope in the middle of a prophecy of judgment. In the midst of His judgment, God would remember His covenant with Abraham. Eventually He would return and have compassion on His people.
12:16 swear by My name. Only the everlasting love of God provides an answer to what God will do in a life that turns from an oath to a false god to an oath to serve the Lord. What unfathomable blessing can be ours from a God like this when we pledge our allegiance to Him. He asks our allegiance, and He asks us to truly learn the ways that He has established for His people.
13:1–5 linen sash. This was an article of clothing that was like a short skirt or kilt worn by men. Jeremiah was not supposed to wash it.

3 And the word of the LORD came to me
the second time, saying, 4 "Take the sash that you acquired, which is around your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates,* and hide it there in a hole in the rock." 5 So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.
6 Now it came to pass after many days that the LORD said to me, "Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take from there the sash which I commanded you to hide there." 7 Then I went to the Euphrates and dug, and I took the sash from the place where I had hidden it; and there was the sash, ruined.
It was profitable for nothing.
8 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9 "Thus says the LORD: 'In this manner [a]I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great [b]pride of Jerusalem. 10 This evil people, who [c]refuse to hear My words, who [d]follow the dictates of their hearts, and walk after other gods to serve them and worship them, shall be just like this sash which is profitable for nothing. 11 For as the sash clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me,' says
the LORD, 'that [e]they may become My people, [f]for renown, for praise, and for [g]glory;
but they would [h]not hear.'

Symbol of the Wine Bottles

12 "Therefore you shall speak to them this word: 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel:
"Every bottle shall be filled with wine."'
"And they will say to you, 'Do we not certainly know that every bottle will be filled with wine?'
13 "Then you shall say to them, 'Thus says
the LORD: "Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—
[i]with drunkenness! 14 And [j]I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together," says the LORD. "I will not pity nor spare nor have mercy, but will destroy them."'"

Pride Precedes Captivity

15 Hear and give ear:
Do not be proud,
For the LORD has spoken.
16 [k]Give glory to the LORD your God
Before He causes [l]darkness,
And before your feet stumble
On the dark mountains,
And while you are [m]looking for light,
He turns it into [n]the shadow of death
And makes it dense darkness.
17 But if you will not hear it,
My soul will [o]weep in secret for your pride;
My eyes will weep bitterly
And run down with tears,
Because the LORD's flock has been taken captive.

18 Say to [p]the king and to the queen mother,
"Humble yourselves;
Sit down,
For your rule shall collapse, the crown of your glory."
19 The cities of the South shall be shut up,
And no one shall open them;
Judah shall be carried away captive,
all of it;
It shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes and see
Those who come from the [q]north.
Where is the flock that was given to
you,
Your beautiful sheep?
21 What will you say when He punishes
you?
For you have taught them
To be chieftains, to be head over you.
Will not [r]pangs seize you,
Like a woman in labor?
22 And if you say in your heart, [s]"Why have these things come upon
me?"
For the greatness of your iniquity
[t]Your skirts have been uncovered,
Your heels made bare.
23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots?
Then may you also do good who are accustomed to do evil.

13:6–7 profitable for nothing. Because Jeremiah's sash was dirty and then was exposed to the elements, it was ruined and useless.

13:8–11 refuse to hear My words . . . follow the dictates of their hearts . . . walk after other gods. As Jeremiah's sash was ruined, so Judah's pride would be reduced to ruin. Pride describes the self-exalting conduct that characterized Israel in its love for idols. This pride is explained in a triplet of verbal phrases.

13:14 I will dash them one against another. The wine jars of God's wrath would be smashed and broken together, a picture of a devastated nation.

13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God. This means exalt and worship Him. The verse warns of the consequences of failing to glorify God. Four Hebrew synonyms for darkness are found in this verse, deepening the impression of divine displeasure meted out against God's people.

13:20 Those who come from the north. This phrase refers to Babylon.

13:23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin. The negative rhetorical question confirmed Judah's inability

Sword, Famine, and Pestilence

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts.

2 "Judah mourns,
And [a]her gates languish;
They [b]mourn for the land,
And [c]the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.
3 Their nobles have sent their lads for water;
They went to the cisterns and found no water.
They returned with their vessels empty;
They were [d]ashamed and confounded
[e]And covered their heads.
4 Because the ground is parched,
For there was [f]no rain in the land,
The plowmen were ashamed;
They covered their heads.
5 Yes, the deer also gave birth in the field,
But left because there was no grass.
6 And [g]the wild donkeys stood in the desolate heights;
They sniffed at the wind like jackals;
Their eyes failed because there was no grass."
7 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,
Do it [h]for Your name's sake;
For our backslidings are many,
We have sinned against You.
8 [i]O the Hope of Israel, his Savior in time of trouble,
Why should You be like a stranger in the land,
And like a traveler who turns aside to tarry for a night?
9 Why should You be like a man astonished,
Like a mighty one [j]who cannot save?
Yet You, O LORD, [k]are in our midst,
And we are called by Your name;
Do not leave us!

10 Thus says the LORD to this people:

[l]"Thus they have loved to wander;
They have not restrained their feet.
Therefore the LORD does not accept them;
[m]He will remember their iniquity now,
And punish their sins."

11 Then the LORD said to me, [n]"Do not pray for this people, for their good. 12 [o]When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and [p]when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I will not accept them. But [q]I will consume them by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence."

13 [r]Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, the prophets say to them, 'You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured [s]peace in this place.'"

14 And the LORD said to me, [t]"The prophets prophesy lies in My name. [u]I have not sent them, commanded them, nor spoken to them; they prophesy to you a false vision, divination, a worthless thing, and the [v]deceit of their heart. 15 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, whom I did not send, [w]and who say, 'Sword and famine shall not be in this land'—'By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed! 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be to change its own ways. The nation had reinforced its habit of doing evil (4:22) for so long that it did not know how to do good.

13:26–27 your skirts over your face. This phrase meant public exposure (v. 22). Since Judah had lustfully sought adulterous relationships with foreign gods and goddesses, God would expose and bring to shame its actions.

14:2 mourn. This is a general word for grief over the dead. It describes the dark gloom of weeping and wailing.

14:8 Hope . . . Savior. Jeremiah pleaded with God on the basis of God's name and character. Instead of having an intimate relationship with Judah, God had become like a stranger or a traveler in the land, because the people worshiped other gods.

14:10 Thus they have loved to wander. "Loved" describes voluntary desire. "Wander" describes a repetitive back and forth movement—in this case, of seeking every possible occasion for sin. Because no one displayed any restraint from sin, God could not violate His holy character and accept the people of Judah.

14:13 I will give you assured peace. Jeremiah complained to the Lord about false prophets who were proclaiming a message of peace instead of war and pestilence. These pretentious prophets presumed

And let them not cease;
[z]For the virgin daughter of my people
Has been broken with a mighty stroke,
with a very severe blow.

Then behold, those slain with the sword!
And if I enter the city,
Then behold, those sick from famine!
Yes, both prophet and [b]priest go about

The People Plead for Mercy

19 [c]Have You utterly rejected Judah?
Has Your soul loathed Zion?
Why have You stricken us so that [d]there is no healing for us?
[e]We looked for peace, but there was no good;
And for the time of healing, and there was trouble.
20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness
And the iniquity of our [f]fathers,
For [g]we have sinned against You.
21 Do not abhor us, for Your name's sake;
Do not disgrace the throne of Your glory.
[h]Remember, do not break Your covenant with us.
22 [i]Are there any among [j]the idols of the nations that can cause [k]rain?
Or can the heavens give showers?
[l]Are You not He, O LORD our God?
Therefore we will wait for You,
Since You have made all these.

The LORD Will Not Relent

15 Then the LORD said to me, [a]"Even if [b]Moses and [c]Samuel stood before Me,
My mind would not be favorable toward this people. Cast them out of My sight, and let them go forth. 2And it shall be, if they say to you, 'Where should we go?' then you shall tell them, 'Thus says the LORD:

[d]"Such as are for death, to death;
And such as are for the sword, to the sword;
And such as are for the famine, to the famine;
And such as are for the [e]captivity, to the captivity."'

3 "And I will [f]appoint over them four forms of destruction," says the LORD: "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, [g]the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. 4I will hand them over to [h]trouble, to all kingdoms of the earth, because of [i]Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

5 "For who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Or who will bemoan you?
Or who will turn aside to ask how you are doing?
6 [j]You have forsaken Me," says the LORD,
"You have [k]gone backward.
Therefore I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you;
[l]I am weary of relenting!
7 And I will winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the land;
I will [m]bereave them of children;
I will destroy My people,
Since they [n]do not return from their ways.
8 Their widows will be increased to Me more than the sand of the seas;
I will bring against them,
Against the mother of the young men,
A plunderer at noonday;
I will cause anguish and terror to fall on them [o]suddenly.

upon God's mercy and promise of deliverance as demonstrated in the days of Hezekiah and Isaiah, when Jerusalem was miraculously rescued from the siege of Sennacherib's army.

14:21–22 for Your name's sake. The people's plea for God's mercy was based on His character. Entreaties based on divine character and attributes are common in the Psalms. At stake was God's reputation and the blessing that would come to the people, but here the obligations of the people to the Lord are disregarded.

15:2 death . . . sword . . . famine . . . captivity. These all would be the outcome of God's judgment. He would use foreign armies as instruments of judgment (14:11–12).

15:3–4 I will appoint over them four forms. The judgment of Judah is described. The imagery of dogs, birds, and beasts devouring human flesh vividly illustrates not only death, but desecration. The basis for this desecration is the defilement of Jerusalem that took place during the reign of Manasseh, when idolatry reigned in the temple courts and children were sacrificed to Molech (7:31).

15:7–8 winnow them with a winnowing fan. Like wheat chaff that is scattered by the winnowing fork and the wind, the people of Judah would be

She has breathed her last;
[q]Her sun has gone down
While it was yet day;
She has been ashamed and confounded.
And the remnant of them I will deliver to the sword
Before their enemies," says the LORD.

Jeremiah's Dejection

10 [r]Woe is me, my mother,
That you have borne me,
A man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
I have neither lent for interest,
Nor have men lent to me for interest.
Every one of them curses me.

11 The LORD said:

"Surely it will be well with your remnant;
Surely I will cause [s]the enemy to intercede with you
In the time of adversity and in the time of affliction.
12 Can anyone break iron,
The northern iron and the bronze?
13 Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as [t]plunder without price,
Because of all your sins,
Throughout your territories.
14 And I will make you cross over with* your enemies
[u]Into a land which you do not know;
For a [v]fire is kindled in My anger,
Which shall burn upon you."

15 O LORD, [w]You know;
Remember me and visit me,
And [x]take vengeance for me on my persecutors.
In Your enduring patience, do not take me away.
Know that [y]for Your sake I have suffered rebuke.
16 Your words were found, and I [z]ate
them,
And [a]Your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart;
For I am called by Your name,
O LORD God of hosts.

17 [b]I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers,
Nor did I rejoice;
I sat alone because of Your hand,
For You have filled me with indignation.
18 Why is my [c]pain perpetual
And my wound incurable,
Which refuses to be healed?
Will You surely be to me [d]like an unreliable stream,
As waters that fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

19 Therefore thus says the LORD:

[e]"If you return,
Then I will bring you back;
You shall [f]stand before Me;
If you [g]take out the precious from the vile,
You shall be as My mouth.
Let them return to you,
But you must not return to them.
20 And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze [h]wall;
And they will fight against you,
But [i]they shall not prevail against you;
For I am with you to save you
And deliver you," says the LORD.
21 "I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked,
And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible."

Jeremiah's Lifestyle and Message

16 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, 2"You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place." 3For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them and their fathers who begot them in this land: 4"They shall die [a]gruesome deaths; they shall not be [b]lamented nor shall they be [c]buried, but they shall be [d]like refuse on the face of the earth. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their [e]corpses dispersed. The population would be decimated. The further ravaging of the land is revealed in the numerous widows who would be left in the wake of the death of the men of Judah.

15:9 who has borne seven. The blessing of seven sons was the ultimate hope for ancient mothers and fathers. But the utmost horror was to lose all seven in death, resulting in the loss of an heir.

15:10 Every one of them curses me. To curse someone in ancient Israel was to invoke condemnation on that person with a prescribed formula.

15:16 Your words were found, and I ate them. Eating the words of the Lord means to internalize them and allow their meaning to become a reality in one's life.

15:17 I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers. Jeremiah's isolation was the result of his obedience to the word and calling of God.

15:18 As waters that fail. This simile is a vivid picture of the arid regions in the Middle East, where water is at a premium.

16:1–2 You shall not take a wife. In the case of Jeremiah, the prohibition against marriage was both shall be meat for the birds of heaven and for the beasts of the earth."

5For thus says the LORD: [f]"Do not enter the house of mourning, nor go to lament or bemoan them; for I have taken away My peace from this people," says the LORD,
"lovingkindness and mercies. 6Both the great and the small shall die in this land.
They shall not be buried; [g]neither shall men lament for them, [h]cut themselves, nor [i]make themselves bald for them. 7Nor shall men break bread in mourning for them, to comfort them for the dead; nor shall men give them the cup of consolation to [j]drink for their father or their mother. 8Also you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink."

9For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, [k]I will cause to cease from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom
and the voice of the bride.

10"And it shall be, when you show this people all these words, and they say to you, [l]'Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? Or what is our iniquity? Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?' 11then you shall say to them, [m]'Because your fathers have forsaken Me,' says
the LORD; 'they have walked after other gods and have served them and worshiped them, and have forsaken Me and not kept My law. 12And you have done [n]worse than your fathers, for behold, [o]each one follows the dictates of his own evil heart, so that no one listens to Me. 13[p]Therefore I will cast you out of this land [q]into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night, where I will not show you favor.'

God Will Restore Israel

14"Therefore behold, the [r]days are coming," says the LORD, "that it shall no more be said, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of Egypt,' 15but, 'The LORD lives who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the [s]north and from all the lands where He had driven them.' For [t]I will bring them back into their land which I gave to their fathers.

16"Behold, I will send for many [u]fishermen," says the LORD, "and they shall fish them; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. 17For My [v]eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes. 18And first I will repay [w]double for their iniquity and their sin, because [x]they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable idols."

19 O LORD, [y]my strength and my fortress,
[z]My refuge in the day of affliction,
The Gentiles shall come to You
From the ends of the earth and say,
"Surely our fathers have inherited
lies,
Worthlessness and [a]unprofitable
things."
20 Will a man make gods for himself,
[b]Which are not gods?

21 "Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know,
I will cause them to know
My hand and My might;
And they shall know that [c]My name is
the LORD.

a sign to the nation and a blight against his name among the people. Celibacy was abnormal; large families were indicative of God's blessing upon a household. Jeremiah faced life with God as his sole comfort and support.

16:10 Why has the LORD pronounced. The trio of questions posed by the people indicates their lack of understanding of God's word. The people of Judah had missed the purpose for which they were chosen, to manifest to the world the nature and character of God by living as the people of God.

16:16 many fishermen . . . many hunters. These words refer to the Babylonian armies that would scour the land for Judah's rebels. Hunting and fishing imagery as a metaphor for deportation is also found in Ezekiel 12:3 and Amos 4:2.

16:19–20 strength . . . fortress . . . refuge. Jeremiah knew that his only place of safety was in God. The scope of Jeremiah's hope is universal. The Gentiles, among whom the people of Judah would be exiled, would come to the God of Israel in fulfillment of the promise of Genesis 12:1–3.

4 And you, even yourself,
Shall let go of your heritage which I gave you;
And I will cause you to serve your enemies
In [e]the land which you do not know;
For [f]you have kindled a fire in My anger which shall burn forever."

5 Thus says the LORD:

[g]"Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes [h]flesh his strength,
Whose heart departs from the LORD.
6 For he shall be [i]like a shrub in the desert,
And [j]shall not see when good comes,
But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
[k]In a salt land which is not inhabited.

And whose hope is the LORD.
8 For he shall be [m]like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not fear* when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

9 "The [n]heart is deceitful above all things,
And desperately wicked;
Who can know it?
10 I, the LORD, [o]search the heart,
I test the mind,
[p]Even to give every man according to his ways,
According to the fruit of his doings.

And at his end he will be [r]a fool."

[t]All who forsake You shall be ashamed.

Jeremiah Prays for Deliverance

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed;
Save me, and I shall be saved,
For [w]You are my praise.
15 Indeed they say to me,
[x]"Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now!"
16 As for me, [y]I have not hurried away from being a shepherd who follows You,
Nor have I desired the woeful day;
You know what came out of my lips;
It was right there before You.
17 Do not be a terror to me;
[z]You are my hope in the day of doom.
18 [a]Let them be ashamed who persecute me,
But [b]do not let me be put to shame;
Let them be dismayed,
But do not let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of doom,
And [c]destroy them with double destruction!

* 17:8 Qere and Targum read see.

17:3 your high places of sin. Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah were demolished and plundered by the Babylonians. The remaining treasures of the temple of God were carried by Nebuchadnezzar's army to Babylon. Even the idolatrous cultic centers were destroyed (15:13–14).

17:4 let go of your heritage. This phrase, when used in the context of land, usually refers to letting the land lie fallow during the sabbatical year (Ex. 23:10–11). Judah's captivity would provide rest for the land from the idolatrous activities of its people.

17:5 Cursed is the man. One cannot trust in both God and humankind.

17:7 Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD. The basic element in a life of faith is stability. Man depending upon his own strength is unstable. But faith in God brings stability.

17:11 As a partridge that broods but does not hatch. The teaching of Jeremiah 17:1–10 is supported by a proverb based on the common belief that the partridge hatched eggs other than its own. When the young birds recognized that the partridge was not their mother, they would leave her. Similarly, a man who unjustly gains wealth will be abandoned by the wealth and then be known as a fool.

17:12–13 A glorious high throne. This phrase refers to the temple in Jerusalem and the ark of the covenant, the symbol of God's presence and sovereignty over the nations.

17:17 Do not be a terror to me. This refers to physical, emotional, or mental horror.

17:18 Let them be ashamed. Jeremiah called for his persecutors to be ashamed and dismayed, to be

Hallow the Sabbath Day

19 Thus the LORD said to me: "Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; 20 and say to them, [d]'Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates. 21 Thus says the LORD: [e]"Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; 22 nor carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but hallow the Sabbath day, as I [f]commanded your fathers. 23 [g]But they did not obey nor incline their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear nor receive instruction.
24 "And it shall be, [h]if you heed Me carefully," says the LORD, "to bring no burden through the gates of this city on the [i]Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, to do no work in it, 25 [j]then shall enter the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their princes, accompanied by the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. 26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah and from [k]the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from [l]the lowland, from the mountains and from [m]the South,
bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and incense, bringing [n]sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD.
27 "But if you will not heed Me to hallow the Sabbath day, such as not carrying a burden when entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then [o]I will kindle a fire in its gates, [p]and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be [q]quenched."'"

The Potter and the Clay

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: 2 "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words."
3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the wheel. 4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make.
5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 6 "O house of Israel, [a]can I not do with you as this potter?" says the LORD.
"Look, [b]as the clay is in the potter's hand,
so are you in My hand, O house of Israel!
7 The instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to [c]pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it, 8 [d]if that nation against whom I have spoken turns from its evil, [e]I will relent of the disaster that I thought to bring upon it. 9 And the instant I speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it, 10 if it does evil in My sight so that it does not obey My voice, then I will relent concerning the good with which I said I would benefit it.
11 "Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am fashioning a disaster and devising a plan against you. [f]Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings [g]good."'"

God's Warning Rejected

12 And they said, [h]"That is hopeless! So we will walk according to our own plans, and we will every one obey the [i]dictates of his evil heart."
13 Therefore thus says the LORD:

[j]"Ask now among the Gentiles,
Who has heard such things?
The virgin of Israel has done [k]a very horrible thing.
14 Will a man leave the snow water of Lebanon,
Which comes from the rock of the field?
Will the cold flowing waters be forsaken for strange waters?

dishonored and demoralized. The prophet also called upon the Lord to confirm the message of judgment in the day of doom and double destruction.

17:21–22 Take heed to yourselves. This same phrasing is used in Deuteronomy 4:15 in a warning against idolatry. The sanctity of the Sabbath was a most serious matter. The Sabbath stood as a sign of creation and the covenant relationship between God and Israel.

18:4–6 was marred in the hand of the potter. The potter's vessel was marred and thus unsuitable for its intended purpose. The potter's remolding of the clay into an acceptable and unblemished work symbolized God's action in reforming Israel. The people had become marred and defiled and had to be reformed into a vessel fit to be identified with the Lord.

18:13–14 Who has heard such things. Negative rhetorical questions show the absurdity of Israel's rebellion. snow water of Lebanon. This describes the Mount Hermon watershed that erupts in numerous springs, providing most of the water for the Jordan River. God's blessing was often demonstrated in the provision of water from rocks in arid regions (Ex. 17:6).

Jeremiah Persecuted

18 Then they said, [s]"Come and let us devise plans against Jeremiah; [t]for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us attack him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

19 Give heed to me, O LORD,
And listen to the voice of those who contend with me!
20 [u]Shall evil be repaid for good?
For they have [v]dug a pit for my life.
Remember that I [w]stood before You
To speak good for them,
To turn away Your wrath from them.
21 Therefore [x]deliver up their children to the famine,
And pour out their blood
By the force of the sword;
Let their wives become widows
And [y]bereaved of their children.
Let their men be put to death,
Their young men be slain
By the sword in battle.
22 Let a cry be heard from their houses,
When You bring a troop suddenly upon them;
For they have dug a pit to take me,
And hidden snares for my feet.
23 Yet, LORD, You know all their counsel
Which is against me, to slay me.
[z]Provide no atonement for their
iniquity,
Nor blot out their sin from Your sight;
But let them be overthrown before
You.
Deal thus with them
In the time of Your [a]anger.

The Sign of the Broken Flask

19 Thus says the LORD: "Go and get a potter's earthen flask, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests. 2 And go out to [a]the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate; and proclaim there the words that I will tell you, 3 [b]and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will bring such a catastrophe on this place, that whoever hears of it, his ears will [c]tingle.

4 "Because they [d]have forsaken Me and made this an alien place, because they have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with [e]the blood of the innocents 5 [f](they have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, [g]which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into My mind), 6 therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD, "that this place shall no more be called Tophet or [h]the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. 7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, [i]and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives; their [j]corpses I will give as meat for the birds of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. 8 I will make this city [k]desolate and a hissing; everyone who passes by

18:15 burned incense to worthless idols. Foreign deities such as Baal and Asherah were represented by empty and ineffective cultic figurines.

18:17 as with an east wind. This line refers to the scorching late-spring sirocco wind from the northern Arabian desert.

18:19–20 they have dug a pit for my life. Jeremiah reminded the Lord how he had interceded for the people and had asked God to turn away His wrath and judgment. But instead of showing their appreciation for Jeremiah's intervention, the people prepared his grave.

19:3 Hear the word of the LORD. This key word of the Deuteronomic code (Deut. 6:4) calls for a decision regarding the content of the message. his ears will tingle. This expression is used to refer to a harsh, ringing judgment announcement (1 Sam. 3:11).

19:4–5 the blood of the innocents. This phrase refers to the murderous act of child sacrifice (7:31). Human sacrifice was known among the Phoenicians, Moabites, and Canaanites. This abominable practice, performed in the name of religious worship, was explicitly forbidden in the covenant (Deut. 12:31).

10[m]“Then you shall break the flask in the sight of the men who go with you, 11and say to them, ‘Thus says the LORD of hosts: [n]“Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, which cannot be made whole again; and they shall [o]bury them in Tophet till there is no place to bury. 12Thus I will do to this place,” says the LORD, “and to its inhabitants, and make this city like Tophet. 13And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled [p]like the place of Tophet, because of all the houses on whose [q]roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and [r]poured out drink offerings to other gods.”’”

14Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in [s]the court of the Lord’s house and said to all the people, 15“Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all her towns all the doom that I have pronounced against it, because [t]they have stiffened their necks that they might not hear My words.’”

The Word of God to Pashhur

20 Now [a]Pashhur the son of [b]Immer, the priest who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. 2Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high [c]gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3And it happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.* 4For thus says the LORD: ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it. I will [d]give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon and slay them with the sword. 5Moreover I [e]will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its produce, and all its precious things; all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies, who will plunder them, seize them, and [f]carry them to Babylon. 6And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity. You shall go to Babylon, and there you shall die, and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have [g]prophesied lies.’”

Jeremiah’s Unpopular Ministry

7 O LORD, You induced me, and I was persuaded;
[h]You are stronger than I, and have prevailed.
[i]I am in derision daily;
Everyone mocks me.
8 For when I spoke, I cried out;
[j]I shouted, “Violence and plunder!”
Because the word of the LORD was made to me
A reproach and a derision daily.
9 Then I said, “I will not make mention of Him, Nor speak anymore in His name.”
But His word was in my heart like a [k]burning fire
Shut up in my bones;
I was weary of holding it back,
And [l]I could not.

*20:3 Literally Fear on Every Side

19:9 I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons. The gruesome practice of cannibalism appears, recalling the words of Deuteronomy 28:53. After years of siege resulting in severe famine, the people would resort to eating human flesh in order to survive. This prophecy was literally fulfilled in 586 B.C. when Nebuchadnezzar invaded Judah, and again in A.D. 70 when Titus destroyed Jerusalem.

20:1 Pashhur . . . chief governor. A person in this position had to be a priest. He had oversight of the temple, the temple guards, entry into the courts, and so on. Jeremiah’s proclamations against the city and the temple were of grave concern to Pashhur because of the threat to the continuation of the cult in which he was involved.

20:2 high gate of Benjamin. This portal provided access into the temple courtyards from the north, the direction of Benjamin’s territory.

20:3–4 Magor-Missabib. This means “terror on every side.” As Pashhur had been a terror to Jeremiah, so he would become a terror to himself, his family, and his associates.

20:6 Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house. Pashhur’s whole family and his close associates, who had opposed Jeremiah, would be deported to Babylon because Pashhur had prophesied lies. Pashhur apparently had announced that Jerusalem would not suffer destruction.

20:7 You induced me, and I was persuaded. A play on words is intended by using two forms of the same word, which means “to entice.” Jeremiah claimed that the Lord had seduced him and that he had succumbed to the temptation.

20:8 A reproach and a derision. Jeremiah had faithfully proclaimed the Lord’s word of judgment and Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and will not [p]prevail.

They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.
Their [q]everlasting confusion will never be forgotten.

From the hand of evildoers.

Let the day not be blessed in which my mother bore me!

That my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when [a]King Zedekiah sent to him [b]Pashhur the son of Melchiah, and [c]Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, 2[d]"Please inquire of the LORD for us, for Nebuchadnezzar* king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that the king may go away from us."

3Then Jeremiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to Zedekiah, 4'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans* who besiege you outside the walls; and [e]I will assemble them in the midst of this city. 5I [f]Myself will fight against you with an [g]outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger and fury and great wrath. 6I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they shall die of a great pestilence. 7And afterward," says the LORD, [h]"I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence and the sword and the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword. [i]He shall not spare them, or have pity or mercy."'

8"Now you shall say to this people, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, [j]I set before you the way of life and the way of death. 9He who [k]remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes out and defects to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall [l]live, and his life shall destruction, but the prophecy had not been fulfilled, thus opening the prophet up to criticism.

20:11 the LORD is with me. In order for a prophet to endure the pain and suffering that goes with the job, he needs to be aware of God's presence, power, and approval.

20:12 who test the righteous. God tests (6:27; 17:10) and judges the righteous, those who walk uprightly in His ways and truth.

20:14–15 Cursed be the day. In ancient Israel, to curse God or one's parents was an offense punishable by death. Jeremiah avoided committing a capital offense by cursing his conception and birth, and hence his call from God.

21:2 inquire of the LORD. This phrase means to seek His will.

21:5 with an outstretched hand. Because the people of Judah had become God's enemies, God would fight against them. The divine instruments by which Israel had gained freedom from Egypt (Ex. 15:6; Deut. 6:21) and deliverance from their enemies would be used against them.

21:8–9 the way of life and the way of death. Death would come to those who attempted to survive the siege of Jerusalem; life was possible through surrender to the Chaldeans (Babylonians).

Message to the House of David

11"And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, 12O house of David! Thus says the LORD:

[p]"Execute judgment [q]in the morning;
And deliver him who is plundered
Out of the hand of the oppressor,
Lest My fury go forth like fire
And burn so that no one can quench it,
Because of the evil of your doings.

13 "Behold, [r]I am against you,
O inhabitant of the valley,
And rock of the plain," says the LORD,
"Who say, [s]'Who shall come down against us?
Or who shall enter our dwellings?'
14 But I will punish you according to the [t]fruit of your doings," says the
LORD;
"I will kindle a fire in its forest,
And [u]it shall devour all things around
it."'"

22 Thus says the LORD: "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and there speak this word, 2and say, [a]'Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates! 3Thus says the LORD: [b]"Execute judgment and righteousness, and deliver the plundered out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong and do no violence to the stranger, the [c]fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place. 4For if you indeed do this thing, [d]then shall enter the gates of this house, riding on horses and in chariots, accompanied by servants and people, kings who sit on the throne of David. 5But if you will not hear these words, [e]I swear by Myself," says the LORD, "that this house shall become a desolation."'"

6For thus says the LORD to the house of the king of Judah:

"You are [f]Gilead to Me,
The head of Lebanon;
Yet I surely will make you a
wilderness,
Cities which are not inhabited.
7 I will prepare destroyers against you,
Everyone with his weapons;
They shall cut down [g]your choice cedars
[h]And cast them into the fire.

8And many nations will pass by this city; and everyone will say to his neighbor, [i]'Why has the LORD done so to this great city?' 9Then they will answer, [i]'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.'"

10 Weep not for [k]the dead, nor bemoan
him;
Weep bitterly for him [l]who goes
away,
For he shall return no more,
Nor see his native country.

Message to the Sons of Josiah

11For thus says the LORD concerning [m]Shallum* the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, [n]who went from this place: "He shall not return here anymore, 12but he shall die in the place where they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

* 22:11 Also called Jehoahaz

21:10 For I have set My face. This phrase describes the fixed intention of God, which in this context was against Jerusalem. The result would be adversity rather than good.

21:13 come down against us. Attacking armies generally approached Jerusalem from the north along an elevated ridge.

22:1 Go . . . king of Judah . . . speak this word. This is the first of three messages directed at specific kings of Judah. Shallum, the fourth son of Josiah, was placed on the throne by the people of Judah, but he was dethroned after three months by Pharaoh Necho. Shallum was imprisoned and taken captive to Egypt (2 Chr. 36:1–4). Eliakim (Jehoiakim), Shallum's brother, was placed on the throne as an Egyptian vassal. Necho maintained control of Palestine until Nebuchadnezzar defeated Egypt at the Battle of Carchemish in 605 B.C. Shallum died without returning from Egypt, in fulfillment of Jeremiah's prophecy.

22:2 who sit on the throne of David. Jeremiah's prophecy was addressed to three groups: the kings who are of David's lineage, the kings' servants, and "your people who enter these gates." The last phrase may refer to the citizens in general or to personnel who regularly entered the palace gates.

22:3 Execute judgment and righteousness. For all practical purposes these two terms are synonymous. One could not have one without the other.

22:6–7 Gilead . . . Lebanon. The territories were sources for timber for the royal palaces. These luxurious residences would be reduced to deserted wilderness and set ablaze if the kings disobeyed the covenant.

22:9 worshiped other gods. The pagan nations would recognize that the destruction of Jerusalem was the result of Judah's violation of its covenant with God. The people of Judah had exchanged their God for alien deities, whom they worshiped and served.

13 "Woe[o] to him who builds his house by unrighteousness
And his chambers by injustice,
[p]Who uses his neighbor's service without wages
And gives him nothing for his work,
14 Who says, 'I will build myself a wide house with spacious chambers,
And cut out windows for it,
Paneling it with cedar
And painting it with vermilion.'

15 "Shall you reign because you enclose yourself in cedar?
Did not your father eat and drink,
And do justice and righteousness?
Then [q]it was well with him.
16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy;
Then it was well.
Was not this knowing Me?" says the LORD.
17 "Yet[r] your eyes and your heart are for nothing but your covetousness,
For shedding innocent blood,
And practicing oppression and violence."

18 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

[s]"They shall not lament for him,
Saying, [t]'Alas, my brother!' or 'Alas, my sister!'
They shall not lament for him,
Saying, 'Alas, master!' or 'Alas, his glory!'

Dragged and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Cry from Abarim,
For all your lovers are destroyed.

But you said, 'I will not hear.'
[v]This has been your manner from your youth,
That you did not obey My voice.

Surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated
For all your wickedness.

Message to Coniah

24 "As I live," says the LORD, [y]"though Coniah* the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, [z]were the signet on My right hand, yet I would pluck you off; 25[a]and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear—the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of the Chaldeans. 26[b]So I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born; and there you shall die. 27But to the land to which they desire to return, there they shall not return.

28 "Is this man Coniah a despised, broken idol—
[c]A vessel in which is no pleasure?
Why are they cast out, he and his descendants,
And cast into a land which they do not know?
29 [d]O earth, earth, earth,
Hear the word of the LORD!
30 Thus says the LORD:
'Write this man down as [e]childless,
A man who shall not prosper in his days;
For [f]none of his descendants shall prosper,
Sitting on the throne of David,
And ruling anymore in Judah.'"

The Branch of Righteousness

23 "Woe [a]to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!" says the LORD. 2Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds who feed My people: "You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and not attended to them. [b]Behold, I will attend to

* 22:24 Also called Jeconiah and Jehoiachin

22:13 uses his neighbor's service without wages. The king was supposed to be the guardian of his people, but Jehoiakim enslaved his fellow Israelites to build his self-aggrandizing palaces.

22:18–19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey. A king of such despicable character as Jehoiakim deserved no lament. Instead of proper funeral rites due a king, Jehoiakim would receive an ignoble burial, like an animal, alone and unlamented.

22:22–23 The wind shall eat up all your rulers. The winds of adversity and invasion would carry off Judah's leaders and allies alike. The nation would be ashamed that it had entered into such futile associations.

22:24–27 Coniah. This was another name for Jehoiachin. He succeeded his father in 598 B.C. under the threat of siege from Babylon as a result of Jehoiakim's rebellion. Jehoiachin reigned for three months until he and his family were exiled to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar (2 Kin. 24:6–16). Eventually Jehoiachin was released from prison after the death of Nebuchadnezzar.

And they shall dwell in their own [l]land."

False Prophets and Empty Oracles

9 My heart within me is broken
Because of the prophets;
[m]All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
And like a man whom wine has overcome,
Because of the LORD,
And because of His holy words.
10 For [n]the land is full of adulterers;
For [o]because of a curse the land mourns.
[p]The pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up.
Their course of life is evil,
And their might is not right.
11 "For [q]both prophet and priest are profane;
Yes, [r]in My house I have found their wickedness," says the LORD.
12 "Therefore[s] their way shall be to them
Like slippery ways;
In the darkness they shall be driven on
And fall in them;
For I [t]will bring disaster on them,
The year of their punishment," says the LORD.
13 "And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria:
[u]They prophesied by Baal
And [v]caused My people Israel to err.
14 Also I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem:
[w]They commit adultery and walk in lies;
They also [x]strengthen the hands of evildoers,
So that no one turns back from his wickedness.
All of them are like [y]Sodom to Me,
And her inhabitants like Gomorrah.

15"Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

'Behold, I will feed them with [z]wormwood,
And make them drink the water of gall;
For from the prophets of Jerusalem
Profaneness has gone out into all the land.'"

16Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They make you worthless;
[a]They speak a vision of their own heart,
Not from the mouth of the LORD.

* 23:6 Hebrew YHWH Tsidkenu

23:3 I will gather the remnant. The kings of Israel had caused the dispersion of the nation; but the Lord would mercifully bring about the restoration of the remnant. This concept was a popular one with many of the prophets (Is. 1:9; 10:20–23). The blessing of restoration and prosperity as a consequence of repentance is outlined in Deuteronomy 30:1–10.

23:5 a Branch of righteousness. Beginning with Isaiah 4:2 this term is used of the promised Messiah (33:15; Zech. 3:8). This great king will reign with justice and righteousness. This ideal was founded on God's promise to David (2 Sam. 7:16).

23:7–8 the days are coming. The future restoration of Israel would exceed anything in the past; it would surpass even the first exodus, the deliverance from Egypt.

23:9–10 My heart within me is broken. Jeremiah's dismay over the false prophets weakened him mentally and physically, so much so that he felt drunken from the inner turmoil.

23:15 I will feed them with wormwood. This word refers to bitterness and death by poison. According to Deuteronomy 18:20, the consequence of false prophecy was death.

23:16 a vision of their own heart. Visions were commonly understood to be a means of receiving a message from God (or the gods). The term vision used here and in Jeremiah 14:14 is also found in Daniel 1:17 and 8:1; plus it is used in other prophetic books to describe a divine revelation (Is. 1:1; Mic. 3:6).

[d]'No evil shall come upon you.'"

18 For [e]who has stood in the counsel of
the LORD,
And has perceived and heard His
word?
Who has marked His word and heard
it?

19 Behold, a [f]whirlwind of the LORD has gone forth in fury—
A violent whirlwind!
It will fall violently on the head of the wicked.

20 The [g]anger of the LORD will not turn back Until He has executed and performed
the thoughts of His heart.
[h]In the latter days you will understand it perfectly.

21 "I[i] have not sent these prophets, yet they ran.
I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My counsel,
And had caused My people to hear My
words,
Then they would have [j]turned them
from their evil way
And from the evil of their doings.

23 "Am I a God near at hand," says the
LORD,
"And not a God afar off?

24 Can anyone [k]hide himself in secret places,
So I shall not see him?" says the LORD;
[l]"Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says
the LORD.

25"I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in My name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!' 26How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Indeed they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, 27who try to make My people forget
My name by their dreams which everyone tells his neighbor, [m]as their fathers forgot
My name for Baal.

28 "The prophet who has a dream, let him
tell a dream;
And he who has My word, let him
speak My word faithfully.
What is the chaff to the wheat?" says
the LORD.

29 "Is not My word like a [n]fire?" says the LORD,
"And like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

30"Therefore behold, [o]I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal My words every one from his neighbor. 31Behold, I am [p]against the prophets," says the LORD, "who use their tongues and say, 'He says.' 32Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD,
"and tell them, and cause My people to err
by their [q]lies and by [r]their recklessness.
Yet I did not send them or command them;
therefore they shall not [s]profit this people
at all," says the LORD.

33"So when these people or the prophet or the priest ask you, saying, 'What is [t]the oracle of the LORD?' you shall then say to them, 'What oracle?'* I will even forsake you," says the LORD. 34"And as for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, 'The oracle of the LORD!' I will even punish that man and his house. 35Thus every one of you shall say to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, 'What has the LORD answered?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 36And the oracle of the LORD you shall mention no more. For every man's word will be his oracle, for you have [u]perverted the words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. 37Thus you shall say to the prophet, 'What has the LORD answered you?' and, 'What has the LORD spoken?' 38But since you say, 'The oracle of the LORD!' therefore thus says the LORD:
'Because you say this word, "The oracle of the LORD!" and I have sent to you, saying,
"Do not say, 'The oracle of the LORD!'"

* 23:33 Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read 'You are the burden.'

23:19 a whirlwind of the LORD. This is a symbol of God's judgment (Is. 29:6).

23:21–22 I have not sent these prophets. A true prophet must be sent by God with a word from God. A true prophet of God calls people to repentance of sin or evil and to renewed faith.

23:26 the deceit of their own heart. The character of the false prophets was based on lies and deceit. Their deception was apparent because their goal was to draw the people into idolatry with their fanciful dreams, leading people to forget God and follow Baal (2:8).

23:28–29 What is the chaff to the wheat. This poetic interlude compares dream and word. A dream is fleeting, like chaff in the wind. God's word has the force of fire and a hammer.

23:38–40 The oracle of the LORD. False prophets could not speak an oracle. The disgrace that resulted from the false prophets would last for an extended period of time: Its memory would endure forever (20:11).

The Sign of Two Baskets of Figs

24 The [a]LORD showed me, and there were two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after Nebuchadnezzar [b]king of Babylon had carried away captive [c]Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.
2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten, they were so [d]bad. 3 Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

And I said, "Figs, the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad."

4 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 5 "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge those who are carried away captive from Judah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Chaldeans. 6 For I will set My eyes on them for good, and [e]I will bring them back to this land; [f]I will build them and not pull them down, and I will plant them and not pluck them up. 7 Then I will give them [g]a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they shall be [h]My people, and I will be their God, for they shall return to Me [i]with their whole heart.

8 'And as the bad [j]figs which cannot be eaten, they are so bad'—surely thus says
the LORD—'so will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes, the [k]residue of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and [l]those who dwell in the land of Egypt. 9 I will deliver them to [m]trouble into all the kingdoms of the earth, for their harm, [n]to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. 10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.'"

Seventy Years of Desolation

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, [a]in the fourth year of [b]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), 2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: 3 [c]"From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this is the twenty-third year in which the word of the LORD has come to me; and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, [d]but you have not listened. 4 And the LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, [e]rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear.
5 They said, [f]'Repent now everyone of his evil way and his evil doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers forever and ever. 6 Do not go after other gods to serve them and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will not harm you.' 7 Yet you have not listened to Me," says the LORD, "that you might [g]provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts:
'Because you have not heard My words,
9 behold, I will send and take [h]all the families of the north,' says the LORD, 'and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [i]My servant, and will bring them against this land, against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and will utterly destroy them, and [j]make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations.
10 Moreover I will take from them the [k]voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, [l]the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. 11 And this whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy [m]years.

12 'Then it will come to pass, [n]when seventy years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity,' says the LORD; [o]'and I will make it a perpetual desolation. 13 So I will bring on that land

24:4–7 Like these good figs. These are identified with the deported exiles, including Jeconiah's royal household, whom God set apart. God would bring back the captives, establish them in the land, and multiply their crops.

25:3 I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking. This phrase describes Jeremiah's diligence and persistence.

25:9 Nebuchadnezzar . . . My servant. This expression does not imply that the Babylonian monarch worshiped Israel's God, but simply that he was used by God to fulfill His purposes (as in the case of Cyrus, who is called the Lord's "anointed" in Is. 45:1).

Judgment on the Nations

15For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: "Take this [t]wine cup of fury from My hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. 16And [u]they will drink and stagger and go mad because of the sword that I will send among them."

17Then I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations drink, to whom the LORD had sent me: 18Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and its princes, to make them [v]a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and [w]a curse, as it is this day; 19Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his princes, and all his people; 20all the mixed multitude, all the kings of [x]the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the [y]Philistines (namely, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and [z]the remnant of Ashdod); 21[a]Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon; 22all the kings of [b]Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are across the [c]sea; 23[d]Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners; 24all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the [e]mixed multitude who dwell in the desert; 25all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of [f]Elam, and all the kings of the [g]Medes; 26[h]all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. Also the king of Sheshach* shall drink after them.

27"Therefore you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [i]"Drink, [j]be drunk, and vomit! Fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you."' 28And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "You shall certainly drink! 29For behold, [k]I begin to bring calamity on the city [l]which is called by My name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished, for [m]I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth," says the LORD of hosts.'

30"Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them:

'The LORD will [n]roar from on high,
And utter His voice from [o]His holy habitation;
He will roar mightily against [p]His fold.
He will give [q]a shout, as those who tread the grapes,
Against all the inhabitants of the earth.
31 A noise will come to the ends of the earth—
For the LORD has [r]a controversy with the nations;
[s]He will plead His case with all flesh.
He will give those who are wicked to the sword,' says the LORD."

32Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Behold, disaster shall go forth
From nation to nation,
And [t]a great whirlwind shall be raised up
From the farthest parts of the earth.

33[u]And at that day the slain of the LORD shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be [v]lamented, [w]or gathered, or buried; they shall become refuse on the ground.

34 "Wail,[x] shepherds, and cry!
Roll about in the ashes,
You leaders of the flock!
For the days of your slaughter and your dispersions are fulfilled;
You shall fall like a precious vessel.
35 And the shepherds will have no way to flee,
Nor the leaders of the flock to escape.

25:16 drink and stagger and go mad. This triad sequence depicts the judgment process by which the sword of the Lord subdues those opposed to Him. The state of drunkenness was condemned in the Old Testament: to drink the cup and stagger was to display one's guilt (Num. 5:19–28).

25:18 to make them a desolation, an astonishment. The list of nations that would be made to drink from the cup of the Lord's judgment begins with Judah and Jerusalem, which would be made a source of derision (19:8).

25:27–28 Drink, be drunk, and vomit. These terms for progressive inebriation emphasize the extent of judgment that would flow from God's cup of wrath. Those who refused the cup would be forced to drink.

25:30 The LORD will roar from on high. Generally this phrase refers to God's abode on Mount Zion (Joel 3:16; Amos 1:2).

25:31 A noise will come. This noise refers to a thunderous judgment resulting from God's "covenant lawsuit" against the nations. Though they had not received the law like Judah and Israel, the Gentiles would be judged because they were "wicked." The word "wicked" refers to the guilt associated with the

Jeremiah Saved from Death

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying, 2"Thus says the LORD: 'Stand in [a]the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, [b]all the words that I command you to speak to them. [c]Do not diminish a word. 3[d]Perhaps everyone will listen and turn from his evil way, that I may [e]relent concerning the calamity which I purpose to bring on them because of the evil of their doings.' 4And you shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: [f]"If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, 5to heed the words of My servants the prophets [g]whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them (but you have not heeded), 6then I will make this house like [h]Shiloh, and will make this city [i]a curse to all the nations of the earth."'"

7So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. 8Now it happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You will surely die! 9Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be [j]desolate, without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house. 11And the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and all the people, saying, "This man deserves to [k]die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and all the people, saying: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city with all the words that you have heard. 13Now therefore, [l]amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; then the LORD will relent concerning the doom that He has pronounced against you. 14As for me, here [m]I am, in your hand; do with me as seems good and proper to you. 15But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

16So the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man does not deserve to die. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17[n]Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying: 18[o]"Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[p]"Zion shall be plowed like a field, Jerusalem shall become [q]heaps of ruins,
And the mountain of the temple*
Like the bare hills of the forest."'*

* 26:18 Literally house • Compare Micah 3:12

breach of ethical standards, including violating the poor and needy and abusing the oppressed.

25:37 Because of the fierce anger of the LORD. Human anger is an emotion. God's anger is an aspect of the righteous administration of His laws—natural, moral, and spiritual.

26:2 Do not diminish a word. Jeremiah was told to speak unsparingly with unwavering boldness.

26:3 Perhaps everyone will listen. The introduction to the judgment oracle is expressed in conditional terms. If the people repented of evil, the Lord would relent from the calamity He was threatening to bring on them.

26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh. This city was not far from Jerusalem. The people could see the effects of its destruction by the Philistines in 1050 B.C., a destruction that overtook it even though it was the first resting place of the ark of the covenant. Jeremiah uses Shiloh as an illustration of the coming judgment of Jerusalem even though the temple of God had been built there.

26:13 obey the voice of the LORD your God. Jeremiah gives the Lord's assurance that if we, like Judah, turn to obey Him, our future will be changed from punishment to blessing.

26:15 if you put me to death. Jeremiah defended himself and pointed to the potential sin of shedding innocent blood. He had already accused the leaders of Jerusalem of child sacrifices in the Hinnom valley (2:34; 19:4).

26:18 Micah of Moresheth. In the reign of Hezekiah, Micah had announced the impending destruction of 20 Now there was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt. 22 Then Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt: Elnathan the son of Achbor, and other men who went with him to Egypt. 23 And they brought Urijah from Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless [v]the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Symbol of the Bonds and Yokes

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim* the son of Josiah, [a]king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,* 2 "Thus says the LORD to me: 'Make for yourselves bonds and yokes, [b]and put them on your neck, 3 and send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. 4 And command them to say to their masters, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel—thus you shall say to your masters: 5 [c]'I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are on the ground, by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and [d]have given it to whom it seemed proper to Me. 6 [e]And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [f]My servant; and [g]the beasts of the field I have also given him to serve him. 7 [h]So all nations shall serve him and his son and his son's son, [i]until the time of his land comes; [j]and then many nations and great kings shall make him serve them. 8 And it shall be, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and which will not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish,' says the LORD, 'with the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. 9 Therefore do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon." 10 For they prophesy a [k]lie to you, to remove you far from your land; and I will drive you out, and you will perish. 11 But the nations that bring their necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let them remain in their own land,' says the LORD, 'and they shall till it and dwell in it.'"'"

12 I also spoke to [l]Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live! 13 [m]Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14 Therefore [n]do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon,' for they prophesy [o]a lie to you; 15 for I have [p]not sent them," says the LORD, "yet they prophesy a lie in My name, that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you."

16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, "Behold, [q]the vessels of the LORD's house will now shortly be brought back from Babylon";

26:24 Ahikam the son of Shaphan. This man, along with his father, served as a scribe under Josiah when the Book of the Law was found in the temple (2 Kin. 22:8–14). Ahikam's brother Gemariah also opposed Jehoiakim's burning of Jeremiah's scroll (36:25). This faithful family was supportive of Jeremiah and was instrumental in saving his life.

27:2–3 bonds and yokes. These are wooden bars or beams that attach to a pair of oxen with leather bands. The symbolic act of wearing the yoke would communicate bondage, restraint, and enslavement.

27:7 all nations shall serve him and his son and his son's son. Following the death of Nebuchadnezzar in 562 B.C., his heirs and successors retained control of Babylon for only 24 years. Babylon fell without a battle to Cyrus and the Persian armies in 539 B.C., and later to Alexander the Great of Greece.

the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, in the house of the concerning the carts, and concerning the remainder of the vessels that remain in this city, 20which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take, when he carried away [s]captive Jeconiah the son of Je-and of Jerusalem: 22'They shall be [u]carried to Babylon, and there they shall be until the day that I [v]visit them,' says the LORD. 'Then [w]I will bring them up and restore them to

Hananiah's Falsehood and Doom

28 And [a]it happened in the same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the [b]fourth year and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of [c]Azur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, 2"Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'I have broken [d]the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3[e]Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [f]took away from this place and carried to Babylon. 4And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD,
'for I will break the yoke of the king of Bablon.'"

5Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, 6and the prophet Jeremiah said, [g]"Amen! The LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the LORD's house and all who were carried away captive, from Babylon to this place. 7Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: 8The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries and great kingdoms—of war and disaster and pestilence. 9As for [h]the prophet who prophesies of [i]peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, the prophet will be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent."

10Then Hananiah the prophet took the [j]yoke off the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it. 11And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says
the LORD: 'Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [k]from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years.'" And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13"Go and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD:
"You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made in their place yokes of iron."
14For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: [l]"I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon;
and they shall serve him. [m]I have given him
the beasts of the field also."'"

well known from the Book of Daniel (Dan. 2:2; 5:7). Besides prophets, there were diviners, like Balaam (Num. 22–24), who were prohibited from practicing their craft in Israel (Deut. 18:9–14). The collective effort of these diviners to determine the fate of their nations failed. Like the false prophets of Judah, they heralded a message of rebellion and resistance against Babylon. Only Jeremiah stood for the truth. The Lord would punish Judah through Nebuchadnezzar.

27:21–22 concerning the vessels. Jeremiah's message from the Lord is presented in detail. The remaining vessels in the temple, as well as in the king's palace, would be carried to Babylon until the Lord restored His people. In the midst of a prophetic message against the false prophets, Jeremiah spoke a message of hope and restoration. Destruction was imminent, but God does not forget His people. He would restore the righteous remnant.

28:1–4 Hananiah the son of Azur. This prophet believed that God's message for Judah was one of imminent deliverance—within two years—from servitude to the king of Babylon. Hananiah also prophesied the return of the holy vessels taken by Nebuchadnezzar from the temple. Furthermore, Hananiah espoused the popular belief that the kingship of Zedekiah was illegitimate and that God would restore Jeconiah (Jehoiachin) to the throne in Jerusalem.

28:7–9 war and disaster and pestilence. Hananiah's message of peace and prosperity ran contrary to the long tradition of the genuine Hebrew prophets. Amos, Hosea, Micah, Joel, and Nahum spoke words of judgment and destruction against the great kingdoms like Assyria and Egypt.

Hananiah the prophet, "Hear now, Hana-niah, the LORD has not sent you, but [n]you make this people trust in a [o]lie. 16 Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will cast you from the face of the earth. This year you shall [p]die, because you have taught [q]rebellion against the LORD.'" 17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Jeremiah's Letter to the Captives

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the elders who were [a]carried away captive—to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. 2 (This happened after [b]Jeconiah the king, the [c]queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.) 3 The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah
the son of [d]Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

4 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God
of Israel, to all who were carried away captive, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon:

5 Build houses and dwell in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit. 6 Take wives and beget sons and daughters;
and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters—that you may be increased there, and not diminished. 7 And seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, [e]and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you will have peace. 8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in your midst [f]deceive you, nor listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. 9 For they prophesy [g]falsely to you in My name; I have not sent them,
says the LORD.

10 For thus says the LORD: After [h]seventy years are completed at Babylon, I will visit you and perform My good word toward you, and cause you to [i]return to this place. 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. 12 Then you will [j]call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will [k]listen to you. 13 And [l]you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me [m]with all your heart.
14 [n]I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back from your captivity; [o]I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you to the place from which I cause you to be carried away captive.

28:15–16 you make this people trust in a lie. Hananiah had not been sent by God, but he had led the people astray with a lie. As a result, Hananiah would die that very year.

29:2 after. This parenthetical passage provides background from 2 Kings 24:12–16 concerning the deportation of Jeconiah (Jehoiachin) to Babylon in 597 B.C. This method of eliminating leaders and leaving the peasant population to pay taxes to the kingdom was learned from the Assyrians and was designed to reduce the likelihood of rebellion.

29:4 to all who were carried away captive. Jeremiah reminded the exiled community that ultimately it was God, not Nebuchadnezzar, who had caused them to be taken to Babylon.

29:10 After seventy years are completed. The concept of seventy years of Babylonian captivity is reiterated from Jeremiah 25:12. The number 70 symbolizes completion and fulfillment of God's sovereign plans for creation and human history. The completion of the years of the kingdom of Babylon would also be the completion of Judah's exile.

29:11 A Future and a Hope—This text comes from a letter from Jeremiah to the exiles from Judah who were living in Babylon (vv. 4–9). The exiles must have had a lot of questions about their situation before they heard from Jeremiah. Had God abandoned them forever? How could they serve God properly while under the domination of the nation of Babylon? When would the exile end? Would they ever see Jerusalem again? What was the plan?

The answer that Jeremiah wrote to them probably wasn't satisfactory for all. They still would have had questions. Many would have wanted more specific answers. They would have wanted to know how long they would be in Babylon. They would have asked if they could do anything to hasten their return. These are not unlike the questions we ask God on a daily basis.

Perhaps the best way to describe the content of Jeremiah's letter is to say that he is pointing to the fact that all the specifics are wrapped up in their relationship with God. The promises are ultimate promises. If we seek Him, we will find Him. God Himself is our hope. Shouldn't knowing this give us all the direction we need? Isn't this what our faith is all about? On the basis of knowing what God has done and what He has promised to do, we will move ahead in trust. We may not see the path clearly, but we know He does lead and He is leading us.

29:14 I will be found by you. Those who seek God with a whole heart will find Him and experience His renewal. I will bring you back. God was the captor, and He would restore His people from captivity.

15 Because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon"— 16 [p]therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, concerning all the people who dwell in this city, and concerning your brethren who have not gone out with you into captivity— 17 thus says the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like [q]rotten figs that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. 18 And I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence; and I [r]will deliver them to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth—to be [s]a curse, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, 19 because they have not heeded My words, says the LORD, which [t]I sent to them
by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; neither would you heed, says the LORD. 20 Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God
of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a [u]lie to you in My name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes. 22 [v]And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captivity of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "The LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, [w]whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire"; 23 because [x]they have done disgraceful things in Israel, have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them. Indeed I [y]know, and am a witness, says the LORD.

24 You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, 25 Thus speaks
the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: You have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, [z]to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 26 "The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, so that there should be [a]officers in the house of the LORD over every man who is [b]demented and considers himself a prophet, that you should [c]put him in prison and in the stocks. 27 Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who makes himself a prophet to you? 28 For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, 'This captivity is long; build houses and dwell in them,
and plant gardens and eat their fruit.'"

29 Now Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. 30 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: 31 Send to all those in captivity, saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite:
Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you,
[d]and I have not sent him, and he has caused you to trust in a [e]lie— 32 therefore thus says
the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his family; he shall not have anyone to dwell among this people, nor shall he see the good that I will do for My people, says the LORD, [f]because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

Restoration of Israel and Judah

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 2 "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, saying: 'Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you. 3 For behold, the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'that [a]I will bring back from captivity My people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD. [b]'And I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.'"

4 Now these are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah.

5 "For thus says the LORD:

'We have heard a voice of trembling,
Of fear, and not of peace.
6 Ask now, and see,
Whether a man is ever in labor with child?
So why do I see every man with his hands on his loins
[c]Like a woman in labor,
And all faces turned pale?

29:21 Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah. These two were the prophets spoken of in Jeremiah 29:15. They were accused by Jeremiah of a deplorable crime; prophesying the imminent collapse of Babylon and the restoration of the captives to Jerusalem. Such false prophecy urging rebellion against God was a capital offense (Deut. 14:5–10). The prophetic punishment of Ahab and Zedekiah was death by command of Nebuchadnezzar.

30:2 Write . . . all the words. The oracles of Jeremiah were recorded by the scribe Baruch (ch. 36). "Book" refers to any type of writing medium, from a clay tablet to a parchment scroll. Jeremiah's oracles were recorded on a scroll (36:2).

30:6 hands on his loins. This phrase symbolizes the agony of God's people who had become like

[e]So that none is like it;
And it is the time of Jacob's trouble,
But he shall be saved out of it.

8 'For it shall come to pass in that day,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'That I will break his yoke from your neck,
And will burst your bonds;
Foreigners shall no more enslave them.
9 But they shall serve the LORD their God,
And [f]David their king,
Whom I will [g]raise up for them.

10 'Therefore [h]do not fear, O My servant Jacob,' says the LORD,
'Nor be dismayed, O Israel;
For behold, I will save you from afar,
And your seed [i]from the land of their captivity.
Jacob shall return, have rest and be quiet,
And no one shall make him afraid.
11 For I am with [j]you,' says the LORD, 'to save you;
[k]Though I make a full end of all nations where I have scattered you,
[l]Yet I will not make a complete end of you.
But I will correct you [m]in justice,
And will not let you go altogether unpunished.'

12 "For thus says the LORD:

[n]'Your affliction is incurable,
Your wound is severe.
13 There is no one to plead your cause,
That you may be bound up;
[o]You have no healing medicines.
14 [p]All your lovers have forgotten you;
They do not seek you;
For I have wounded you with the wound [q]of an enemy,
With the chastisement [r]of a cruel one,
For the multitude of your iniquities,
[s]Because your sins have increased.
15 Why [t]do you cry about your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities,
Because your sins have increased,
I have done these things to you.

16 'Therefore all those who devour you [u]shall be devoured;
And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into [v]captivity;
Those who plunder you shall become [w]plunder,
And all who prey upon you I will make a [x]prey.
17 [y]For I will restore health to you
And heal you of your wounds,' says the LORD,
'Because they called you an outcast saying:
"This is Zion;
No one seeks her."'

18 "Thus says the LORD:

'Behold, I will bring back the captivity of Jacob's tents,
And [z]have mercy on his dwelling places;
The city shall be built upon its own mound,
And the palace shall remain according to its own plan.
19 Then [a]out of them shall proceed thanksgiving
And the voice of those who make merry;
[b]I will multiply them, and they shall not diminish;
I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.
20 Their children also shall be [c]as before,
And their congregation shall be established before Me;
And I will punish all who oppress them.
21 Their nobles shall be from among them, defenseless pregnant women in the midst of delivery before their enemies (4:31; 6:24).

30:8 it shall come to pass in that day. The day of the Lord was an ordained time of horror and distress for Israel and Judah, out of which the Lord would save them. Jeremiah expressed the hope of release from the bondage of the yoke of Babylon according to the Lord's timing (25:12) and not that of men (28:11).

30:12 Your affliction is incurable. God's hand of judgment had brought serious harm to the nation, a mortal wound unless God intervened.

30:13 That you may be bound up. This refers to the growth of new skin over an open wound.

30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you. Israel's lovers were the surrounding nations like Assyria, Egypt, Phoenicia, Ammon, and Edom, with whom it had made political and religious alliances. These nations had quickly forgotten Judah; they shrank back or were defeated by Nebuchadnezzar.

30:17 For I will restore health to you. Restoration and healing of Israel came in two forms: retribution against its enemies and healing of its wounds.

30:18 Jacob's tents . . . dwelling places . . . city . . . palace. These phrases emphasize God's work in rebuilding the homes and cities of His returning exiles, from the peasant population to the administration.

30:21 Their nobles shall be from among them. Israel's leaders would no longer be appointed by

23 Behold, the [g]whirlwind of the LORD
Goes forth with fury,
A continuing whirlwind;
It will fall violently on the head of the
wicked.
24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not return until He has done it,
And until He has performed the intents of His heart.

[h]In the latter days you will consider it.

The Remnant of Israel Saved

31 "At [a]the same time," says the LORD,
[b]"I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people."
2 Thus says the LORD:

"The people who survived the sword
Found grace in the wilderness—
Israel, when [c]I went to give him rest."

3 The LORD has appeared of old to me,
saying:
"Yes, [d]I have loved you with [e]an everlasting love;
Therefore with lovingkindness I have [f]drawn you.
4 Again [g]I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt,
O virgin of Israel!
You shall again be adorned with your [h]tambourines,
And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.
5 [i]You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria;
The planters shall plant and eat them
as ordinary food.
6 For there shall be a day
When the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim,
[j]'Arise, and let us go up to Zion,
To the LORD our God.'"

7 For thus says the LORD:

[k]"Sing with gladness for Jacob,
And shout among the chief of the
nations;
Proclaim, give praise, and say,
'O LORD, save Your people,
The remnant of Israel!'
8 Behold, I will bring them [l]from the north country,
And [m]gather them from the ends of
the earth,
Among them the blind and the lame,
The woman with child
And the one who labors with child,
together;
A great throng shall return there.
9 [n]They shall come with weeping,
And with supplications I will lead
them.
I will cause them to walk [o]by the rivers

In a straight way in which they shall not stumble;
For I am a Father to Israel,
And Ephraim is My [p]firstborn.

And declare it in the isles afar off, and say,
'He who scattered Israel [q]will gather
him,
And keep him as a shepherd does his flock.'
11 For [r]the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
And ransomed him [s]from the hand of one stronger than he.
12 Therefore they shall come and sing in [t]the height of Zion, Streaming to [u]the goodness of the
LORD—
For wheat and new wine and oil, foreign kings, and foreign rulers would not preside over Israel's lands.

31:3 everlasting love . . . lovingkindness. These strong words are in parallel and point toward a love characterized by loyalty, a king of covenant love. Out of His faithfulness to the covenants God established with Abraham and Moses, and out of His great love, God established the nation Israel for His glory and for hers. The Lord would also deliver His people from captivity and reestablish them by His love.

31:4 O virgin of Israel. Earlier in Jeremiah, this expression was used sadly in depicting the departure of Israel from faith in God (2:32; 14:17). Here the image is reversed. Israel is rebuilt in the manner of her former betrothal (2:2), having become again a virgin bride to God. go forth in the dances of those who rejoice. A joyful celebration of marriage and festival throughout villages is in view here (v. 13).

31:6 watchmen. This time the watchman's purpose is not to warn the people about oncoming armies but to call them to come with joy to the holy city.

31:9 I am a Father to Israel. This text is one of the few cases in the Old Testament where the fatherhood of God is portrayed directly (Deut. 32:6; Is. 63:16). Israel was familiar with the idea of God as Father, but it was not until the teaching of Jesus that the phrase took on the importance that we understand it to have in our lives today.

31:12 the goodness of the LORD. The blessings of the

Will comfort them,
And make them rejoice rather than sorrow.

And My people shall be satisfied with My goodness, says the LORD."

Mercy on Ephraim

15 Thus says the LORD:

[x]"A voice was heard in [y]Ramah,
Lamentation and bitter [z]weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted for her children,
Because [a]they are no more."

16 Thus says the LORD:

"Refrain your voice from [b]weeping,
And your eyes from tears;
For your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD,
And they shall come back from the land of the enemy.
17 There is [c]hope in your future, says the LORD,
That your children shall come back to their own border.

18 "I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself:
'You have [d]chastised me, and I was chastised,
Like an untrained bull;
[e]Restore me, and I will return,
For You are the LORD my God.
19 Surely, [f]after my turning, I repented;
And after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh;
I was [g]ashamed, yes, even humiliated,
Because I bore the reproach of my youth.'
20 Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a pleasant child?
For though I spoke against him,
I earnestly remember him still;
[h]Therefore My heart yearns for him;
[i]I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD.

21 "Set up signposts,
Make landmarks;
[j]Set your heart toward the highway,
The way in which you went.
Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
Turn back to these your cities.
22 How long will you [k]gad about,
O you [l]backsliding daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth—
A woman shall encompass a man."

Future Prosperity of Judah

23 Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "They shall again use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring back their captivity: [m]'The LORD bless you, O home of justice, and [n]mountain of holiness!' 24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and [o]in all its cities together, farmers and those going out with flocks. 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul."

26 After this I awoke and looked around, and my sleep was [p]sweet to me.

27 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that [q]I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. 28 And it shall come to pass, that as I have [r]watched over them [s]to pluck up, to break down, to throw down, to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them [t]to build and to plant, says the LORD. 29 [u]In those days they shall say no more:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children's teeth are set on edge.'

30 [v]But every one shall die for his own iniquity; every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.

goodness of the Lord are bountiful crops, flocks, and vineyards (Ps. 65).

31:14 I will satiate the soul of the priests with abundance. The theme of joy is summarized in God's intention to fill the priests and the people with abundance. Jeremiah gave the people hope and comfort in facing the poverty and oppression of exile and captivity.

31:19 I struck myself on the thigh. This indicates an outward demonstration of remorse over sin and change of life (Ezek. 21:12).

31:21 signposts . . . landmarks. These would point out the way to the people's homeland. More importantly, Israel was instructed to set its heart toward the way that is the path of faith in its God.

31:27 I will sow the house of Israel. God would plant and multiply the seed of man and animal in the land of Judah.

31:28 to build and to plant. These are the same terms used in Jeremiah's call (1:10).

A New Covenant

31 "Behold, the [w]days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— 32 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that [x]I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them,* says the LORD. 33 [y]But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: [z]I will put My law in their minds, and write it on their hearts; [a]and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 34 No more shall every man teach his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for [b]they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says the LORD. For [c]I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

35 Thus says the LORD,
[d]Who gives the sun for a light by day,
The ordinances of the moon and the stars for a light by night,
Who disturbs [e]the sea,
And its waves roar
[f](The LORD of hosts is His name):

36 "If [g]those ordinances depart
From before Me, says the LORD,
Then the seed of Israel shall also cease
From being a nation before Me forever."

37 Thus says the LORD:

[h]"If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also [i]cast off all the seed of Israel
For all that they have done, says the LORD.

38 "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, that the city shall be built for the LORD [j]from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. 39 [k]The surveyor's line shall again extend straight forward over the hill Gareb; then it shall turn toward Goath. 40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Brook Kidron, [l]to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, [m]shall be holy to the LORD. It shall not be plucked up or thrown down anymore forever."

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a]in the tenth year of

* 31:32 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint and Syriac read and I turned away from them.

31:31–34 The New Covenant—The new covenant is called "new" in contrast to the covenant with Moses which is called "old" (Jer. 31:32; Heb. 8:6–13) because it actually accomplishes what the Mosaic covenant could only point to, that is, the child of God living in a manner that is consistent with the character of God. Four provisions are made in this covenant: (1) Regeneration—God will put His law in their inward parts and write it in their hearts (31:33), (2) A national restoration—Yahweh will be their God and the nation will be His people (31:33), (3) Personal ministry of the Holy Spirit—they will all be taught individually by God (31:34), and (4) Full justification—their sins will be forgiven and completely removed (31:34). The new covenant is made sure by the blood that Jesus shed on Calvary's cross. The blood that guarantees to Israel its new covenant also provides for the forgiveness of sins for the believers who comprise the church. Jesus' payment for sin is more than adequate to pay for the sins of all who will believe in Him.

31:32 the covenant that I made with their fathers. The old covenant demanded adherence to stipulations (Ex. 19:1—23:33) which the people were unable to keep. Above all other commandments, the people were commanded to love and serve God and abandon all others (Deut. 6:4–5). This they did not do. From the wilderness period (Ex. 32:1–10; Num. 25:1–9) until the days of Manasseh, the history of Israel was permeated with idolatrous activity, only occasionally broken by periods of true faithfulness to God. The people seemed incapable of acting in sustained obedience to the covenant. husband. As Hosea was to Gomer, the Lord had been a faithful and devoted husband to Israel.

31:33 the covenant that I will make. The new covenant would be initiated by God Himself, assuring its effectiveness. after those days. This expression looks forward to the time of fulfillment of the new covenant, which found fruition in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

31:34 No more shall every man teach. No longer would intermediaries like priests or prophets be needed to show the people how to know the Lord. Knowledge of God is a major theme of Jeremiah (2:8; 4:22; 5:4; 8:7). This knowledge is an intimate relationship with God evidenced by faith, obedience, and devotion.

Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up [b]in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. 3For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you [c]prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: [d]"Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; 4and Zedekiah king of Judah [e]shall not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face,* and see him [f]eye to eye; 5then he shall [g]lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall be [h]until I visit him," says the LORD; [i]"though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed"'?"

6And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 7'Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my field which is in Anathoth, for the [j]right of redemption is yours to buy it."' 8Then Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. 9So I bought the field from Hanamel, the son of my uncle who was in Anathoth, and [k]weighed out to him the money—seventeen shekels of silver. 10And I signed the deed and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed the money on the scales. 11So I took the purchase deed, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open; 12and I gave the purchase deed to [l]Baruch the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the [m]witnesses who signed the purchase deed, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

13"Then I charged [n]Baruch before them, saying, 14'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Take these deeds, both this purchase deed which is sealed and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may last many days." 15For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards shall be [o]possessed again in this land."'

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

16"Now when I had delivered the purchase deed to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying: 17'Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, [p]You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. [q]There is nothing too hard for You. 18 You show [r]lovingkindness to thousands, and repay the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them—the Great, [s]the Mighty God, whose name is [t]the LORD of hosts. 19 You are [u]great in counsel and mighty in work, for Your [v]eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, [w]to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings. 20You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, to this day, and in Israel and among other men; and You have made Yourself [x]a name, as it is this day. 21You [y]have brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror; 22You have given them this land, of which You swore to their fathers to give them—[z]"a land flowing with milk and honey."* 23And they came in and took possession of it, but [a]they have not obeyed Your voice or walked in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this calamity to come upon them.

24'Look, the siege mounds! They have come to the city to take it; and the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of [b]the sword and famine and pestilence. What You have spoken has happened; there You see it! 25And You have said to me, O Lord GOD, "Buy the field for money, and take witnesses"!—yet the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans.'"

The Dead Sea Scrolls were also stored in ceramic vessels, aiding their preservation for almost two thousand years. The illustrated message of the purchase was assurance and confirmation that restoration of the land was certain.

32:20–21 signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. The great historical demonstration of God's loyal love was the exodus of Israel from Egypt. The miracles that accompanied the exodus made God known among the nations such as Moab (Num. 22–24).

God's Assurance of the People's Return

26 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 27 "Behold, I am the LORD, the [c]God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me? 28 Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. 29 And the Chaldeans who fight against this city shall come and [d]set fire to this city and burn it, with the houses [e]on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger; 30 because the children of Israel and the children of Judah [f]have done only evil before Me from their youth. For the children of Israel have provoked Me only to anger with the work of their hands,' says the LORD. 31 'For this city has been to Me a prov- ocation of My anger and My fury from the day that they built it, even to this day; [g]so I will remove it from before My face 32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke Me to anger—[h]they, their kings, their princes, their priests, [i]their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 And they have turned to Me the [j]back, and not the face; though I taught them, [k]rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. 34 But they [l]set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. 35 And they built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to [m]cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to [n]Molech, [o]which I did not command them, nor did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.'

36 "Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, 'It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: 37 Behold, I will [p]gather them out of all countries where I have driven them in My anger, in My fury, and in great wrath; I will bring them back to this place, and I will cause them [q]to dwell safely. 38 They shall be [r]My people, and I will be their God; 39 then I will [s]give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for the good of them and their children after them. 40 And [t]I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from doing them good; but [u]I will put My fear in their hearts so that they will not depart from Me.
41 Yes, [v]I will rejoice over them to do them good, and [w]I will assuredly plant them in this land, with all My heart and with all My soul.'

42 "For thus says the LORD: [x]'Just as I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. 43 And fields will be bought in this land [y]of which you say, "It is desolate, without man or beast; it has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans." 44 Men will buy fields for money, sign deeds and seal them, and take witnesses, in [z]the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South; for [a]I will cause their captives to return,' says the LORD."

Excellence of the Restored Nation

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still [a]shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD [b]who made it, the LORD who formed it to establish it [c](the LORD is His name): 3 [d]'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.'

4 "For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah, which have been pulled down *to fortify against [e]the siege mounds and the sword: 5 'They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but only to [f]fill their places* with the dead bodies

32:27 the God of all flesh. God was Lord over Israel and Judah, and Lord over the nations (27:11), including mighty Babylon (25:15–26).

32:39 one heart and one way. Because the Lord had written on the heart of the people a new covenant (31:33), no longer would they worship other deities and turn to foreign nations for help. The word "way" is often used in Jeremiah to denote the character of a person's life, whether evil (4:18) or good (7:23).

32:40 everlasting covenant. This expression is also found in Isaiah 55:3; Ezekiel 16:60; 37:26. In Ezekiel it is equated with a covenant of peace that God will establish with His people. This covenant will be everlasting, unlike the Sinai covenant which had been broken and ignored for so long.

10"Thus says the LORD: 'Again there shall be heard in this place—[m]of which you say, "It is desolate, without man and without beast"—in the cities of Judah, in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, 11the [n]voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who will say:

For His mercy endures forever"— and of those who will bring [p]the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captives of the land to return as at the first,' says the LORD.

12"Thus says the LORD of hosts: [q]'In this place which is desolate, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall again be a dwelling place of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. 13[r]In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks shall again [s]pass under the hands of him who counts them,' says the LORD.

And Jerusalem will dwell safely.

The Permanence of God's Covenant

19And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 20"Thus says the LORD: 'If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that there will not be day and night in their season, 21then [z]My covenant may also be broken with David My servant, so that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levites, the priests, My ministers. 22As [a]the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so will I [b]multiply the descendants of David My servant and the [c]Levites who minister to Me.'"

23Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, 24"Have you not considered what these people have spoken, saying, 'The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has also cast them off'? Thus they have [d]despised My people, as if they should no more be a nation before them.

25"Thus says the LORD: 'If [e]My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not [f]appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, 26[g]then I will [h]cast away the descendants of Jacob and David My servant, so that I will not take any of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will cause their captives to return, and will have mercy on them.'"

33:8 cleanse . . . pardon. Forgiveness is described with these two terms. The word "cleanse" describes ritual purification of what is physically or spiritually unclean or defiled, like Israel and Judah (2:23; 7:30). "Pardon" means "to forgive," and in the Old Testament is used only with God as the subject as He forgives man. This fact helps us understand the reaction of the scribes when they heard Jesus forgiving sins (Mark 2:7).

Zedekiah Warned by God

34 The word which came to Jeremiah
from the LORD, [a]when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, [b]all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying, 2"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Go and [c]speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, [d]I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. 3And [e]you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you [f]face to face,* and you shall go to Babylon.'"' 4Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword. 5You shall die in peace; as in [g]the ceremonies of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, [h]so they shall burn incense for you and [i]lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.'"

6Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 7when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only [j]these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

Treacherous Treatment of Slaves

8*This is* the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim [k]liberty to them: 9[l]that every man should set free his male and female slave—a Hebrew man or woman—[m]that no one should keep a Jewish brother in bondage. 10Now when all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should set free his male and female slaves, that no one should keep them in bondage anymore, they obeyed and let them go. 11But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves.

12Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 13"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I made a [n]covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14"At the end of [o]seven years let every man set free his Hebrew brother, who has been sold to him; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you." But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear. 15Then you recently turned and did what was right in My sight—every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor; and you [p]made a covenant before Me [q]in the house which is called by My name. 16Then you turned around and [r]profaned My name, and every one of you brought back his male and female slaves, whom you had set at liberty, at their pleasure, and brought them back into subjection, to be your male and female slaves.'

17"Therefore thus says the LORD: 'You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and every one to his neighbor. [s]Behold, I proclaim liberty to you,' says the LORD—[t]'to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine! And I will deliver you to [u]trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth. 18And I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have divine succession in overseeing the sacrificial system in the Jerusalem temple. Jesus, as Priest and King, fulfills both offices in the new covenant.

34:3 you shall not escape from his hand. Though Zedekiah attempted to flee to Jericho, Nebuchadnezzar's forces captured and brought him to Riblah for a face-to-face meeting with Nebuchadnezzar (32:3–4).

34:5 You shall die in peace. Jeremiah proclaimed the destruction of Jerusalem and the death of its inhabitants by sword, pestilence, and famine. The particular implications for Zedekiah are outlined here. He would not be executed by the sword. According to 2 Kings 25:6–7, his sons were killed before his eyes and then his eyes were put out before being taken to Babylon.

34:8 Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people. A legal agreement was made between Zedekiah and the people of Jerusalem during the Babylonian siege to release from bondage all Hebrew slaves.

34:12–14 Thus says the LORD. Jeremiah, a faithful steward of the word of God, began his attack against Judah's leaders by recounting the teaching of the law on the matter of emancipating slaves (Ex. 21:2–6; Deut. 15:12–15). He reminded the people that their forefathers were slaves in Egypt, and that God had freed them from slavery and oppression.

34:16 turned around and profaned My name. When the princes of Judah emancipated their Hebrew slaves, it demonstrated their covenant faithfulness and devotion to God (v. 10). But when the righteous decision was reversed (v. 11), the name of God was profaned. The name of God sums up and represents His attributes, character, and work. That name had been defiled by the breach of covenant in the same way that the people had defiled the land with their idolatry (16:18).

34:18–19 they cut the calf in two. The covenant ceremony is outlined. The main ritual of the two-party covenant began with cutting the sacrificial animal not performed the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when [v]they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it— 19the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf— 20I will [w]give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their [x]dead bodies shall be for meat for the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth. 21And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army [y]which has gone back from you. 22[z]Behold, I will command,' says the LORD, 'and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it [a]and take it and burn it with fire; and [b]I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.'"

The Obedient Rechabites

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2"Go to the house of the [a]Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of [b]the chambers, and give them wine to drink."

6But they said, "We will drink no wine, for [d]Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink [e]no wine, you nor your sons, forever. 7You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, nor have any of these; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, [f]that you may live many days in the land where you are sojourners.' 8Thus we have [g]obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters, 9nor to build ourselves houses to dwell in; nor do we have vineyard, field, or seed. 10But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. 11But it came to pass, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, 'Come, let us [h]go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Syrians.' So we dwell at Jerusalem."

12Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, 13"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not [i]receive instruction to obey My words?" says the LORD. 14"The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; for to this day they drink none, and obey their father's commandment. [j]But although I have spoken to you, [k]rising early and speaking, you did not obey Me. 15I have also sent to you all My [l]servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, [m]'Turn now everyone from his evil way, amend your doings, and do not go after other gods to serve them; then you will [n]dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.' But you have not inclined your ear, nor obeyed Me. 16Surely the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their [o]father, which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed Me."'

17"Therefore thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the doom that I have pronounced against them; [p]because I have spoken to them but they have not heard, and I have called to them but they have not answered.'"

18And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts and done according to all that he commanded you, 19therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the 35:2 the house of the Rechabites. This clan was a tightly knit group of descendants of the Kenites (Judg. 1:16; 1 Chr. 2:55). They lived as nomads, rejecting all forms of urban and agrarian life. They refused to drink wine or strong drink and would not cultivate vineyards. They also would not plant any other crops. They were invited by Jeremiah into one of the chambers surrounding the courtyard of the temple of God for a symbolic demonstration.

35:13–16 obey their father's commandment. The Rechabites held to the teaching of their forefather, while the Israelites continually rebelled against the teaching of God.

God of Israel: "Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not lack a man to [q]stand before Me forever."'"

The Scroll Read in the Temple

36 Now it came to pass in the [a]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: 2"Take a [b]scroll of a book and [c]write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, against Judah, and against [d]all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of [e]Josiah even to this day. 3It [f]may be that the house of Judah will hear all the adversities which I purpose to bring upon them, that everyone may [g]turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

4Then Jeremiah [h]called Baruch the son of Neriah; and [i]Baruch wrote on a scroll of a book, at the instruction of Jeremiah,* all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him. 5And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am confined, I cannot go into the house of the LORD. 6You go, therefore, and read from the scroll which you have written at my instruction,* the words of the LORD, in the hearing of the people in the LORD's house on [j]the day of fasting. And you shall also read them in the hearing of all Judah who come from their cities. 7It may be that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way. For great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people." 8And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading from the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. 10Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper court at the [k]entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house, in the hearing of all the people.

The Scroll Read in the Palace

11When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the book, 12he then went down to the king's house, into the scribe's chamber; and there all the princes were sitting—[l]Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, [m]Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. 13Then Michaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the hearing of the people. 14Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. 15And they said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing." So Baruch read it in their hearing.

16Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, that they looked in fear from one to another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." 17And they asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words—at his instruction?"*

18So Baruch answered them, "He proclaimed with his mouth all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19Then the princes said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no one know where you are."

The King Destroys Jeremiah's Scroll

20And they went to the king, into the court; but they stored the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the king. 21So the king sent Jehudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king. 22Now the king was sitting in [n]the

36:2 Take a scroll of a book and write on it. The usual material for a scroll was parchment (a kind of leather), though Egyptian papyrus was also available. The contents of the scroll were the oracles dating from the days of Josiah, at the advent of Jeremiah's ministry (626 B.C.).

36:6 read from the scroll. This scroll was to be read on a day of fasting, a time set aside by official declaration of the king or priests (v. 9) in a period of national crisis.

36:8 Baruch . . . did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him. As a faithful disciple, Baruch read from the book of God's words in the temple of the Lord. This act closely parallels the reading of the Book of the Law in the temple after it was discovered there under Josiah.

36:20–24 cut it with the scribe's knife. Jehoiakim showed no signs of fear or lamentation, unlike Josiah when the Book of the Law was read in his hearing (2 Kin. 22:11–13). Instead he cuts the scroll up and throws it into a fire.

winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning on the hearth before him. 23And it happened, when Jehudi had read three or four columns, that the king cut it with the scribe's knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. 24Yet they were [o]not afraid, nor did they [p]tear their garments, the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. 25Nevertheless Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah implored the king not to burn the scroll; but he would not listen to them. 26And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's* son, Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

27Now after the king had burned the scroll with the words which Baruch had written at the instruction of Jeremiah,* the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: 28"Take yet another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. 29And you shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'Thus says the LORD: "You have burned this scroll, saying, [q]'Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and cause man and beast to [r]cease from here?'" 30Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: [s]"He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be [t]cast out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. 31I will punish him, his family, and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the doom that I have pronounced against them; but they did not heed."'"

32Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the instruction of Jeremiah* all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And besides, there were added to them many similar words.

Zedekiah's Vain Hope

37 Now King [a]Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. 2[b]But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land gave heed to the words of the LORD which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

3And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and [c]Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, [d]"Pray now to the LORD our God for us." 4Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison. 5Then [e]Pharaoh's army came up from Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 7"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Thus you shall say to the king of Judah, [f]who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army which has come up to help you will return to Egypt, to their own land. 8[g]And the Chaldeans shall come back and fight against this city, and take it and burn it with fire."' 9Thus says the LORD: 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart. 10[h]For though you had defeated the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would rise up, every man in his tent, and burn the city with fire.'"

36:29–31 to Jehoiakim king of Judah. Indictment and judgment against Jehoiakim is pronounced. The indictment was declared because he destroyed the scroll of the Word of the Lord. First, the Davidic lineage would not continue through him. His son would rule for only three months before Nebuchadnezzar deported Jehoiachin to Babylon, where he died. Second, the king's body would be treated disgracefully after his death. As the king had cast the scroll into the fire, so his body would be cast from the royal palace. Third, the royal household would experience the destructive judgment that had been proclaimed in the words of the original scroll.

37:2 neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land gave heed. It is eminently possible and easy to reject God's message. As Zedekiah and all the people did, so can we deliberately refuse to heed the Lord, even when events have shown the truth of His message.

37:5 Pharaoh's army came up from Egypt. In late spring or early summer 588 B.C., Pharaoh Hophra led the Egyptian army into southern Palestine. The Babylonian forces withdrew their siege of Jerusalem to confront the Egyptians. Zedekiah hoped the Babylonians would be defeated, but his hopes proved to be in vain.

37:9 Do not deceive yourselves. To think that the brief respite caused by the Egyptian appearance in the southern coastal plain was proof of imminent deliverance, as the false prophets declared, was an exercise in self-deception and futile imagination.

Jeremiah Imprisoned

11 And it happened, when the army of the Chaldeans left the siege of Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people. 13 And when he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are defecting to the Chaldeans!"

14 Then Jeremiah said, "False! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans." But he did not listen to him.

So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the princes. 15 Therefore the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and they struck him [i]and put him in prison in the [j]house of Jonathan the scribe. For they had made that the prison.

16 When Jeremiah entered [k]the dungeon and the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days, 17 then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. The king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?"

And Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You shall be [l]delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon!"

18 Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What offense have I committed against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? 19 Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land'? 20 Therefore please hear now, O my lord the king. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah [m]to the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, [n]until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah in the Dungeon

38 Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, [a]Jucal* the son of Shelemiah, and [b]Pashhur
the son of Malchiah [c]heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD: [d]'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence; but he who goes over to the Chaldeans shall live; his life shall be as a prize to him, and he shall live.'* 3 Thus says the LORD: [e]'This city shall surely be [f]given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.'"

4 Therefore the princes said to the king,
"Please, [g]let this man be put to death, for thus he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their harm."

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, "Look, he is in your hand. For the king can do nothing against you." 6 [h]So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the dungeon of Malchi-ah the king's* son, which was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire. So Jeremiah sank in the mire.

7 [i]Now Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon. When the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin, 8 Ebed-Melech went out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying: 9 "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is. For there is [j]no more bread in the city." 10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, "Take from here thirty men with you, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies." 11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with 37:14–16 I am not defecting to the Chaldeans. Jeremiah denied the accusation of defection, but to no avail. Irijah arrested the prophet and arraigned him before the court of princes. Prison space was lacking in Jerusalem due to the crowded conditions of the siege, so a prison had to be devised.

37:17–19 then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. Fearing possible exposure and opposition from his courtiers, Zedekiah secretly summoned Jeremiah and asked of him a word from the Lord. He seems to have earnestly desired a word from God but could not come to grips with the reality and respond appropriately. Jeremiah appealed to Zedekiah's sense of justice and decency and asked to be released from prison. Zedekiah consented.

38:2–3 He who remains in this city. Verse 2 is almost an exact duplicate of 21:9. Jeremiah said the choice was between life under the Babylonians and death among the ruins of Jerusalem. Such a statement was treasonous, as was the statement that Jerusalem must fall.

38:7 Ebed-Melech. This man took special care to obtain rags for Jeremiah to cushion his armpits, preventing the ropes from cutting his skin. A foreigner, a once despised Cushite (from Egypt), cared more for the prophet of God than did the king and the princes of Jeremiah's own people.

him and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there old clothes and old rags, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Jeremiah. 12Then Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Jeremiah did so. 13So they pulled Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Jeremiah remained [k]in the court of the prison.

Zedekiah's Fears and Jeremiah's Advice

14Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance of the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will [l]ask you something. Hide nothing from me."

15Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

16So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, [m]who made our very souls, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

17Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you surely [n]surrender [o]to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live; this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live. 18But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's princes, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Chaldeans; they shall burn it with fire, and [p]you shall not escape from their hand.'"

19And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have [q]defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they [r]abuse me."

20But Jeremiah said, "They shall not deliver you. Please, obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you. So it shall be [s]well with you, and your soul shall live. 21But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me: 22'Now behold, all the [t]women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be surrendered to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say:

"Your close friends have set upon you
And prevailed against you;
Your feet have sunk in the mire,
And they have turned away again."

23'So they shall surrender all your wives and [u]children to the Chaldeans. [v]You shall not escape from their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon. And you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.'"

24Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die. 25But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king, and also what the king said to you; do not hide it from us, and we will not put you to death,' 26then you shall say to them, [w]'I presented my request before the king, that he would not make me return [x]to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

27Then all the princes came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, for the conversation had not been heard. 28Now [y]Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken. And he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 In the [a]ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it. 2In the [b]eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was penetrated.

3[c]Then all the princes of the king of Babylon came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris,* Nergal-Sarezer, Rabmag,* with the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

38:17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah. Jeremiah repeated to the king the message recorded in Jeremiah 38:2–3. Surrender would spare the life of the king, and the city's failure to surrender would bring death and destruction.

38:20–23 So it shall be well with you. Jeremiah tried to settle Zedekiah's fears and to resolve his moral and ethical dilemma by reassuring him that surrender would result in his personal safety. But if the king refused to surrender to Nebuchadnezzar, the word of judgment would fall. Women and children would be handed over to Nebuchadnezzar and Jerusalem would be destroyed.

39:1 king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it. The Babylonian siege began in December 589 B.C. and ended about 30 months later when the walls of Jerusalem were breached.

39:3–7 all the princes of the king of Babylon. When Zedekiah saw the Babylonian officers enter the gate on the north side of Jerusalem, he and his men left at night through another gate on the south side of the 4[d]So it was, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, that they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out by way of the plain.* 5But the Chaldean army pursued them and [e]overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had captured him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, to [f]Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him. 6Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his [g]eyes in Riblah; the king of Babylon also killed all the [h]nobles of Judah. 7Moreover [i]he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with bronze fetters to carry him off to Babylon. 8[j]And the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with [k]fire, and broke down the [l]walls of Jerusalem. 9[m]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who [n]defected to him, with the rest of the people who remained. 10But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left in the land of Judah the [o]poor people, who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

Jeremiah Goes Free

11Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, 12"Take him and look after him, and do him no [p]harm; but do to him just as he says to you." 13So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent Nebushasban, Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's chief officers; 14then they sent someone [q]to take Jeremiah from the court of the prison, and committed him [r]to Gedaliah the son of [s]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he dwelt among the people.

15Meanwhile the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 16"Go and speak to [t]Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, [u]I will bring My words upon this city for adversity and not for good, and they shall be performed in that day before you. 17But I will deliver you in that day," says the LORD, "and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. 18For I will surely deliver you, and you shall not fall by the sword; but [v]your life shall be as a prize to you, [w]because you have put your trust in Me," says the LORD.'"

Jeremiah with Gedaliah the Governor

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a]after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive from Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

2And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah and [b]said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this doom on this place. 3Now the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. [c]Because you people have sinned against the LORD, and not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you. 4And now look, I free you this day from the chains that were on your hand. [d]If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, remain here. See, [e]all the land is before you; wherever it seems good and convenient for you to go, go there."

5Now while Jeremiah had not yet gone back, Nebuzaradan said, "Go back to [f]Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, [g]whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems convenient for you to go." So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go. 6[h]Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to [i]Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

city. They were captured near Jericho and taken to Riblah to meet Nebuchadnezzar.

39:8–10 And the Chaldeans burned. In addition to the royal palace and homes of the inhabitants, Jeremiah 52:13 includes the "house of the LORD" among the buildings burned in Jerusalem. poor people. Typically the Babylonians deported the upper classes, such as court officials, merchants, artisans, and craftsmen, and left behind peasants to work the fields.

39:18 your life shall be as a prize . . . your trust in Me. Ebed-Melech experienced the power and grace of God in the deliverance of his life simply because he exercised faith.

40:2–3 the LORD has brought it, and has done just as He said. Prophets whose words were deemed verified were generally treated well by peoples of the ancient Middle East.

40:4–5 I free you this day from the chains. Jeremiah was released from bondage and given three options: (1) to go with Nebuzaradan to Babylon and enjoy special treatment and protection there; (2) to remain in the care of Gedaliah, the district governor at Mizpah; or (3) to live in the land as he chose.

7 [j]And when all the captains of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and [k]the poorest of the land who had not been carried away captive to Babylon, 8 then they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—[l]Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, [m]Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and [n]Jezaniah* the son of a [o]Maachathite, they and their men. 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be [p]well with you. 10 As for me, I will indeed dwell at Mizpah and serve the Chaldeans who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken." 11 Likewise, when all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, 12 then all the Jews [q]returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in abundance.

13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, 14 and said to him, "Do you certainly know that [r]Baalis the king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to murder you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke secretly to Gedaliah in Mizpah, saying, "Let me go, please, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he murder you, so that all the Jews who are gathered to you would be scattered, and the [s]remnant in Judah perish?"

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely concerning Ishmael."

Insurrection Against Gedaliah

41 Now it came to pass in the seventh month [a]that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family and of the officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at [b]Mizpah. And there they ate bread together in Mizpah. 2 Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and [c]struck Gedaliah the son of [d]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the king of Babylon had made [e]governor over the land. 3 Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with him, that is, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

4 And it happened, on the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, when as yet no one knew it, 5 that certain men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men [f]with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to [g]the house of the LORD. 6 Now Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went along; and it happened as he met them that he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam!" 7 So it was, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah [h]killed them and cast them into the midst of a pit, he and the men who were with him. 8 But ten men were found among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have treasures of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field." So he desisted and did not kill them among their brethren. 9 Now the pit into which Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedaliah, was [i]the same one Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain. 10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the [j]rest of the people who were in Mizpah, [k]the king's daughters and all the people who remained in Mizpah, [l]whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive and departed to go over to [m]the Ammonites.

40:7–10 the captains of the armies. This phrase refers to the surviving Jewish commanders of the armies in the towns throughout Judah who had fled into the rugged hill country. Among the list of escaped leaders was Ishmael, a member of the royal family and a court officer (41:1).

40:11–12 the Jews. Those who had escaped the Babylonian onslaught into neighboring states returned home and began working the fields, vineyards, and orchards.

40:13–16 Johanan. This man led a group of leaders to Gedaliah to warn him of a plot by Ishmael. He even asked for permission to kill the plotter, Ishmael. Unfortunately, Gedaliah was far too trusting of Ishmael and didn't take the warning seriously enough.

11But when [n]Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by [o]the great pool that is in Gibeon. 13So it was, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, that they were glad. 14Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

16Then Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took from Mizpah all the [p]rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah after he had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—
the mighty men of war and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. 17And
they departed and dwelt in the habitation of [q]Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, as they went on their way to [r]Egypt, 18because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Netha-niah had murdered Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, [s]whom the king of Babylon had made governor in the land.

The Flight to Egypt Forbidden

42 Now all the captains of the forces,
[a]Johanan the son of Kareah, Jezani-ah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near 2and said to Jeremiah the prophet, [b]"Please, let our petition be acceptable to you, and [c]pray for us to the LORD your God, for all this remnant (since we are left but [d]a few of many, as you can see), 3that the LORD your God may show us [e]the way in which we should walk and the thing we should do."

4Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard. Indeed, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and it shall be, that [f]whatever the LORD answers you, I will declare it to you.
I will [g]keep nothing back from you."

5So they said to Jeremiah, [h]"Let the LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not do according to everything which the LORD your God sends us by you.
6Whether it is pleasing or displeasing, we will [i]obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we send you, [j]that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD
our God."

7And it happened after ten days that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. 8Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, 9and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him: 10'If you will still remain in this land, then [k]I will build you and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up. For I [l]relent concerning the disaster that I have brought upon you. 11Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; do not be afraid of him,' says the LORD, [m]'for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand. 12And [n]I will show you mercy, that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.'

13"But if [o]you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' disobeying the voice of the LORD your God, 14saying, 'No, but we will go to the land of [p]Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor be hungry for bread, and there we will dwell'— 15Then hear now the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah! Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'If you [q]wholly set [r]your faces to enter Egypt, and go to dwell there, 16then it shall be that the [s]sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. 17So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go to Egypt to dwell there. They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.
And [t]none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon
them.'

41:11–12 they took all the men. After Ishmael assassinated Gedaliah, Johanan gathered forces to fight Ishmael's army at Gibeon. Then he started for Egypt and safety.

42:1–3 said to Jeremiah. The people asked Jeremiah to intercede with the Lord on their behalf.

42:4–6 I will pray. Jeremiah cautiously agreed to pray to God. He asked the people to agree to abide by the answer he received. The people responded with an oath of obedience, calling upon the Lord as witness.

42:15 set your faces. This expression indicates the fixed intentions of the people. The announcement of judgment against the disobedient evacuees echoes Jeremiah's earlier pronouncements against Judah. The very thing they were trying to escape from would meet them in Egypt.

of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. And [v]you shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place
no more.'
19"The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, [w]'Do not go to Egypt!' Know certainly that I have admonished you this day. 20For you were hypocrites in your hearts when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD
our God, and according to all that the LORD your God says, so declare to us and we will do it.' 21And I have this day declared it to you, but you have [x]not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, or anything which He has sent you by me. 22Now therefore, know certainly that you [y]shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence in the place where you desire to go to dwell."

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

43 Now it happened, when Jeremiah had stopped speaking to all the people all the [a]words of the LORD their God,
for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, all these words, 2[b]that Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to dwell there.' 3But [c]Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death or carry us away captive to Babylon." 4So Johanan the son of Kareah, all the captains of the forces, and all the people would [d]not obey
the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah. 5But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took [e]all the remnant of Judah who had returned to dwell in the land of Judah, from all nations where they had been driven— 6men,
women, children, [f]the king's daughters, [g]and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedali-ah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah. 7[h]So they went to the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they went as far as [i]Tahpanhes.
8Then the [j]word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, 9"Take large stones in your hand, and hide them in the sight of the men of Judah, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes; 10and say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: "Behold, I will send and bring Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [k]My servant, and will set his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he will spread his royal pavilion over them. 11[l]When he comes, he shall strike the land of Egypt and deliver to death [m]those appointed for death, and to captivity those appointed for captivity, and to the sword those appointed for the sword. 12I* will kindle a fire in the houses of [n]the gods of Egypt, and he shall burn them and carry them away captive. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace. 13He shall also break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh* that are in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire."'"

Israelites Will Be Punished in Egypt

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at [a]Migdol, at [b]Tahpanhes, at [c]Noph,* and in the country of [d]Pathros, saying, 2"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: 'You have seen all the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are [e]a desolation, and no one dwells in them, 3because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went [f]to burn incense and to [g]serve other gods whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers. 4However [h]I have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate!" 5But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. 6So My fury and My anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.'

7"Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: 'Why do you commit this great evil [i]against yourselves, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving none to remain, 8in that you [j]provoke Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to dwell, that you may cut yourselves off and be [k]a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? 9Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, the wickedness of the kings of Judah, the wickedness of their wives,
your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10They have not been [l]humbled, to this day, nor have they [m]feared; they have not walked in My law or in My statutes that I set before you and your fathers.'

11"Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts,
the God of Israel: 'Behold, [n]I will set My face against you for catastrophe and for cutting off all Judah. 12And I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to dwell there, and [o]they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They shall be consumed by the sword and by famine. They shall die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine; and [p]they shall be an oath, an astonishment, a curse and a reproach! 13[q]For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, 14so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to dwell there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Judah, to which they [r]desire to return and dwell. For [s]none shall return except those who escape.'"

15Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods, with all the women who stood by, a great multitude, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying: 16"As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, [t]we will not listen to you! 17But we will certainly do [u]whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the [v]queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, were well-off, and saw no trouble. 18But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine."

19*The women also said,* [w]"And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands' permission?"

20Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people—the men, the women, and all the people who had given him that answer—saying: 21"The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and did it not come into His mind? 22So the LORD could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings and because of the abominations which you committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, an astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, [x]as it is this day. 23Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD or walked in His law, in His statutes or in His testimonies, [y]therefore this calamity has happened to you, as at this day."

24Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt! 25Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: 'You and your wives have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, saying, "We will surely keep our vows that we have made,
to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her." You will surely keep your vows and perform your vows!' 26Therefore hear the word of the 44:10 They have not been humbled. The present generation of Jews had learned nothing from the past failures of the nation. The people were not broken in heart, only more stubborn.

44:13 I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt. The Jews in Egypt would suffer the same judgment as those in Jerusalem. Only a small remnant would survive to tell their story.

44:18 queen of heaven. The people reasoned that when they stopped worshiping the queen of heaven in the days of Josiah's reform, their king was killed and their land was overrun and destroyed.

44:24 and to all the women. The focus here is on the stubbornness of the women who persisted in their idolatry. Nothing could make them abandon their vows to worship Ishtar.

Assurance to Baruch

45 The [a]word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to [b]Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the instruction of Jeremiah,* in the [c]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2"Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: 3'You said, "Woe is me now! For the Lord has added grief to my sorrow. I [d]fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest."'

4"Thus you shall say to him, 'Thus says the Lord: "Behold, [e]what I have built I will break down, and what I have planted I will pluck up, that is, this whole land. 5And do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them; for behold, [f]I will bring adversity on all flesh," says the Lord. "But I will give your [g]life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go."'"

Judgment on Egypt

46 The word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the prophet against [a]the nations. 2Against [b]Egypt.

[c]Concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [d]defeated in the [e]fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

3 "Order the buckler and shield,
And draw near to battle!
4 Harness the horses,
And mount up, you horsemen!
Stand forth with your helmets,
Polish the spears,
[f]Put on the armor!
5 Why have I seen them dismayed and turned back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down;
They have speedily fled,
And did not look back,
For [g]fear was all around," says the Lord.
6 "Do not let the swift flee away,
Nor the mighty man escape;
They will [h]stumble and fall
Toward the north, by the River Euphrates.

7 "Who is this coming up [i]like a flood,
Whose waters move like the rivers?
8 Egypt rises up like a flood,
And its waters move like the rivers;
And he says, 'I will go up and cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.'
9 Come up, O horses, and rage, O chariots!
And let the mighty men come forth:
The Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield,
And the Lydians [j]who handle and bend the bow.
10 For this is [k]the day of the Lord God of hosts,
A day of vengeance,
That He may avenge Himself on His adversaries.
[l]The sword shall devour;
It shall be satiated and made drunk with their blood;
For the Lord God of hosts [m]has a sacrifice

* 45:1 Literally from Jeremiah's mouth

44:28 all the remnant of Judah. A small remnant would survive and see the fulfillment of God's word as revealed through Jeremiah. Their own hopes of prosperity in Egypt would vanish, and the sign of God's work against them would be the fall of Pharaoh Hophra of Egypt. In 570 B.C., Hophra was overthrown in a military coup by his own general, Amasis. Three years later he was executed in fulfillment of Jeremiah's prophecy.

45:2–3 to you, O Baruch. Jeremiah addressed Baruch in light of the scribe's sorrow. Baruch lamented his plight in the same manner that Jeremiah had done (15:10). He also suffered mental anguish and personal rejection from his people due to his association with Jeremiah (36:15–19).

46:1 against the nations. This verse introduces a collection of oracles. The text moves generally from the west—Egypt—to the east—Elam and Babylon. Scattered throughout the oracles are brief messages of the restoration of Israel and Judah. The main message of these oracles is the sovereignty of God over all the nations of the earth.

46:10–12 day of the Lord. This time the day is a day of vengeance in which Egypt is punished for the death of Josiah. The imagery of a devouring sword is also found in Jeremiah 2:30. Egypt's demise is

Babylonia Will Strike Egypt

13 The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon would come and [r]strike the land of Egypt.

14 "Declare in Egypt, and proclaim in [s]Migdol;
Proclaim in Noph* and in [t]Tahpanhes;
Say, 'Stand fast and prepare yourselves,
For the sword devours all around you.' 15 Why are your valiant men swept away?
They did not stand
Because the LORD drove them away.
16 He made many fall;
Yes, [u]one fell upon another.
And they said, 'Arise!
[v]Let us go back to our own people
And to the land of our nativity
From the oppressing sword.'
17 They cried there,
'Pharaoh, king of Egypt, is but a noise.
He has passed by the appointed time!'

18 "As I live," says the King,
[w]Whose name is the LORD of hosts,
"Surely as Tabor is among the mountains
And as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.
19 O [x]you daughter dwelling in Egypt,
Prepare yourself [y]to go into captivity!
For Noph* shall be waste and desolate,
without inhabitant.

20 "Egypt is a very pretty [z]heifer,
But destruction comes, it comes [a]from the north.
21 Also her mercenaries are in her midst
like fat bulls,
For they also are turned back,
They have fled away together.
They did not stand,
For [b]the day of their calamity had come upon them,
The time of their punishment.
22 [c]Her noise shall go like a serpent,
For they shall march with an army
And come against her with axes,
Like those who chop wood.

23 "They shall [d]cut down her forest," says
the LORD,
"Though it cannot be searched,
Because they are innumerable,
And more numerous than [e]grasshoppers.
24 The daughter of Egypt shall be ashamed;
She shall be delivered into the hand
Of [f]the people of the north."

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring punishment on Amon* of [g]No,* and Pharaoh and Egypt, [h]with their gods and their kings—Pharaoh and those who [i]trust in him. 26 [j]And I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the hand of his servants. [k]Afterward it shall be inhabited as in the days of old," says the LORD.

God Will Preserve Israel

27 "But[l] do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
And do not be dismayed, O Israel!
For behold, I will [m]save you from afar,
And your offspring from the land of their captivity;
Jacob shall return, have rest and be at ease;
No one shall make him afraid.
28 Do not fear, O Jacob My servant," says
the LORD,
"For I am with you;
For I will make a complete end of all the nations
To which I have driven you,
But I will not make [n]a complete end
of you.
I will rightly [o]correct you,
For I will not leave you wholly unpunished."

Judgment on Philistia

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet [a]against the Philistines, [b]before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

2 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [c]waters rise [d]out of the north,
And shall be an overflowing flood;
They shall overflow the land and all that is in it,
The city and those who dwell within;
Then the men shall cry,
And all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.
3 At the [e]noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses,
At the rushing of his chariots,
At the rumbling of his wheels,
The fathers will not look back for their children,
Lacking courage,
4 Because of the day that comes to plunder all the [f]Philistines,
To cut off from [g]Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains;
For the LORD shall plunder the Philistines,
[h]The remnant of the country of [i]Caphtor.
5 [j]Baldness has come upon Gaza,
[k]Ashkelon is cut off
With the remnant of their valley.
How long will you cut yourself?
6 "O you [l]sword of the LORD,
How long until you are quiet?
Put yourself up into your scabbard,
Rest and be still!
7 How can it be quiet,
Seeing the LORD has [m]given it a charge
Against Ashkelon and against the seashore?
There He has [n]appointed it."

Judgment on Moab

48 Against [a]Moab.
Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"Woe to [b]Nebo!
For it is plundered,
[c]Kirjathaim is shamed and taken;
The high stronghold* is shamed and dismayed—
2 [d]No more praise of Moab.
In [e]Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
'Come, and let us cut her off as a nation.'
You also shall be cut down,
O [f]Madmen!*
The sword shall pursue you;
3 A voice of crying shall be from [g]Horonaim:
'Plundering and great destruction!'
4 "Moab is destroyed;
Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard;*
5 [h]For in the Ascent of Luhith they ascend with continual weeping;
For in the descent of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.
6 "Flee, save your lives!
And be like the [i]juniper* in the wilderness.
7 For because you have trusted in your works and your [j]treasures,
You also shall be taken.
And [k]Chemosh shall go forth into captivity,
His [l]priests and his princes together.
8 And [m]the plunderer shall come against every city;
No one shall escape.
The valley also shall perish,
And the plain shall be destroyed,
As the LORD has spoken.
9 "Give[n] wings to Moab,
That she may flee and get away;
For her cities shall be desolate,
Without any to dwell in them.
10 [o]Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD deceitfully,
And cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood.
11 "Moab has been at ease from his* youth;
He [p]has settled on his dregs,
And has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
Nor has he gone into captivity.
Therefore his taste remained in him,
And his scent has not changed.
12 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,

47:6–7 sword of the LORD. This image is used often to portray divine judgment (12:2; 46:10,14,16).
48:6–8 the juniper. This tree ekes out its stunted growth in the wilderness, hiding in crevasses of rock. captivity. Taking a deity captive was a well-known Middle Eastern custom. The national statue of the patron deity was seized, and it was believed that the captured god could no longer protect its people.

Who will tip him over
And empty his vessels
And break the bottles.
13 Moab shall be ashamed of [q]Chemosh,
As the house of Israel [r]was ashamed of [s]Bethel, their confidence.

14 "How can you say, [t]'We are mighty
And strong men for the war'?
15 Moab is plundered and gone up from
her cities;
Her chosen young men have [u]gone down to the slaughter," says [v]the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

16 "The calamity of Moab is near at hand,
And his affliction comes quickly.
17 Bemoan him, all you who are around
him;
And all you who know his name,
Say, [w]'How the strong staff is broken,
The beautiful rod!'

18 "O [x]daughter inhabiting [y]Dibon,
Come down from your glory,
And sit in thirst;
For the plunderer of Moab has come
against you,
He has destroyed your strongholds.
19 O inhabitant of [z]Aroer,
[a]Stand by the way and watch;
Ask him who flees
And her who escapes;
Say, 'What has happened?'
20 Moab is shamed, for he is broken down.
[b]Wail and cry!
Tell it in [c]Arnon, that Moab is plundered.

21 "And judgment has come on the plain country:
On Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath, 22 On Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
23 On Kirjathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,
24 On [d]Kerioth and Bozrah,
On all the cities of the land of Moab,
Far or near.
25 [e]The horn of Moab is cut off,
And his [f]arm is broken," says the LORD.

26 "Make[g] him drunk,
Because he exalted himself against the
LORD.
Moab shall wallow in his vomit,
And he shall also be in derision.
27 For [h]was not Israel a derision to you?
[i]Was he found among thieves?
For whenever you speak of him,
You shake your head in [j]scorn.
28 You who dwell in Moab,
Leave the cities and [k]dwell in the rock,
And be like [l]the dove which makes her nest
In the sides of the cave's mouth.

29 "We have heard the [m]pride of Moab
(He is exceedingly proud),
Of his loftiness and arrogance and [n]pride,
And of the haughtiness of his heart."

30 "I know his wrath," says the LORD,
"But it is not right;
[o]His lies have made nothing right.
31 Therefore [p]I will wail for Moab,
And I will cry out for all Moab;
I* will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.
32 [q]O vine of Sibmah! I will weep for you with the weeping of [r]Jazer.
Your plants have gone over the sea,
They reach to the sea of Jazer.
The plunderer has fallen on your summer fruit and your vintage.
33 [s]Joy and gladness are taken
From the plentiful field
And from the land of Moab;
I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses;
No one will tread with joyous shouting—
Not joyous shouting!

34 "From[t] the cry of Heshbon to [u]Elealeh and to Jahaz
They have uttered their voice,
[v]From Zoar to Horonaim,
Like a three-year-old heifer;*
For the waters of Nimrim also shall be desolate.

35 "Moreover," says the LORD,
"I will cause to cease in Moab

high places
And burns incense to his gods.

* 48:31 Following Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Masoretic Text reads He. * 48:34 Or The Third Eglath, an unknown city (compare Isaiah 15:5)

48:17 Bemoan him, all you who are around him. A note of sarcasm is communicated. The nations around Moab, like Judah, who was attacked by Moab's mercenaries, were called upon to lament Moab's destruction.

48:18 Come down from your glory. The haughty Moab was shamed by the destruction of its fortresses.

48:26–29 Make him drunk. Judgment is portrayed in the form of drunkenness to the point of vomiting, the result of Moab's mockery of Israel (25:15–29).

48:33 Joy and gladness are taken. The joy once heard echoing from the vineyards and winepresses had vanished before the horrifying sound of horses' hoofbeats and clashing weapons.

36 Therefore [x]My heart shall wail like flutes for Moab,
And like flutes My heart shall wail
For the men of Kir Heres.
Therefore [y]the riches they have acquired have perished.

37 "For [z]every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped;
On all the hands shall be cuts, and [a]on the loins sackcloth—
38 A general lamentation
On all the [b]housetops of Moab,
And in its streets;
For I have [c]broken Moab like a vessel in which is no pleasure," says the
LORD.
39 "They shall wail:
'How she is broken down!
How Moab has turned her back with shame!'
So Moab shall be a derision
And a dismay to all those about her."

40 For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [d]one shall fly like an eagle,
And [e]spread his wings over Moab.
41 Kerioth is taken,
And the strongholds are surprised;
[f]The mighty men's hearts in Moab on that day shall be Like the heart of a woman in birth
pangs.
42 And Moab shall be destroyed [g]as a people,
Because he exalted himself against the
LORD.
43 [h]Fear and the pit and the snare shall be
upon you,
O inhabitant of Moab," says the LORD.
44 "He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit,
And he who gets out of the pit shall be caught in the [i]snare.
For upon Moab, upon it [j]I will bring
The year of their punishment," says
the LORD.

45 "Those who fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon
Because of exhaustion.
But [k]a fire shall come out of Heshbon,
A flame from the midst of [l]Sihon,
And [m]shall devour the brow of Moab,
The crown of the head of the sons of tumult.

46 [n]Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh perish;
For your sons have been taken captive,
And your daughters captive.

47 "Yet I will bring back the captives of Moab
[o]In the latter days," says the LORD.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Judgment on Ammon

49 Against the [a]Ammonites.
Thus says the LORD:

"Has Israel no sons?
Has he no heir?
Why then does Milcom* inherit [b]Gad,
And his people dwell in its cities?
2 [c]Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will cause to be heard an alarm
of war
In [d]Rabbah of the Ammonites;
It shall be a desolate mound,
And her villages shall be burned with fire.
Then Israel shall take possession of his inheritance," says the LORD.

3 "Wail, O [e]Heshbon, for Ai is plundered!
Cry, you daughters of Rabbah,
[f]Gird yourselves with sackcloth!
Lament and run to and fro by the walls;
For Milcom shall go into captivity
With his [g]priests and his princes
together.
4 Why [h]do you boast in the valleys,
Your flowing valley, O [i]backsliding daughter?
Who trusted in her [j]treasures, [k]saying,
'Who will come against me?'
5 Behold, I will bring fear upon you,"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts,
"From all those who are around you;
You shall be driven out, everyone headlong,
And no one will gather those who wander off.
6 But [l]afterward I will bring back
The captives of the people of Ammon,"
says the LORD.

* 49:1 Hebrew Malcam, literally their king, a god of the Ammonites; also called Molech (compare verse 3)

48:40–44 one shall fly like an eagle. The imagery is that of Babylon spreading its ravaging armies over Moab like an eagle spreading its wings. he exalted himself. Moab's chief sin was pride, considering itself greater than the God of Israel. Its pride would be turned to fear and terror, and then the nation would be taken captive.

49:1–2 Milcom. This was the patron deity of the Ammonites and is pictured here as taking possession of the land formerly belonging to the Gadites, a process that began in the days of the judges.

Judgment on Edom

7 [m]Against Edom.
Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[n]"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
[o]Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom [p]vanished?
8 Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths,
O inhabitants of [q]Dedan!
For I will bring the calamity of Esau
upon him,
The time that I will punish him.
9 [r]If grape-gatherers came to you,
Would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
If thieves by night,
Would they not destroy until they have enough?
10 [s]But I have made Esau bare;
I have uncovered his secret places,*
And he shall not be able to hide himself.
His descendants are plundered,
His brethren and his neighbors,
And [t]he is no more.
11 Leave your fatherless children,
I will preserve them alive;
And let your widows trust in Me."

12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, [u]those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who will altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink of it. 13 For [v]I have sworn by Myself," says the LORD, "that [w]Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all its cities shall be perpetual wastes."

14 [x]I have heard a message from the LORD,
And an ambassador has been sent to
the nations:
"Gather together, come against her,
And rise up to battle!

15 "For indeed, I will make you small among nations,
Despised among men.
16 Your fierceness has deceived you,
The [y]pride of your heart,
O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Who hold the height of the hill!
[z]Though you make your [a]nest as high as the eagle,
[b]I will bring you down from there," says
the LORD.*

17 "Edom also shall be an astonishment;
[c]Everyone who goes by it will be astonished
And will hiss at all its plagues.
18 [d]As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"No one shall remain there,
Nor shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 "Behold,[e] he shall come up like a lion from [f]the floodplain* of the Jordan Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will suddenly make him run away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For [g]who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And [h]who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

20 [i]Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against Edom,
And His purposes that He has proposed against the inhabitants of Teman:
Surely the least of the flock shall draw
them out;
Surely He shall make their dwelling places desolate with them.
21 [j]The earth shakes at the noise of their fall;
At the cry its noise is heard at the Red Sea.
22 Behold, [k]He shall come up and fly like
the eagle,
And spread His wings over Bozrah;
The heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be Like the heart of a woman in birth
pangs.

Judgment on Damascus

23 [l]Against Damascus.

[m]"Hamath and Arpad are shamed,
For they have heard bad news.
They are fainthearted;
[n]There is trouble on the sea;
It cannot be quiet.
24 Damascus has grown feeble;
She turns to flee,
And fear has seized her.
[o]Anguish and sorrows have taken her
like a woman in labor.

* 49:10 Compare Obadiah 5, 6 * 49:16 Compare Obadiah 3, 4 * 49:19 Or thicket

49:9–11 grape-gatherers. This imagery is derived from 6:9, but there was no real remnant left in Edom. The nation had been totally ravaged and stripped bare, with only women and children left alive to work the land.

49:17–19 astonishment. Like Israel, Judah, Egypt, Moab, and Ammon, Edom would be destroyed and would become an object of derision. Like the lion that emerges from the thickets along the lower Jordan and seizes its prey, God would attack the Edomites through His appointed instrument.

27 "I[r] will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus,
And it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad."*

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

28 [s]Against Kedar and against the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon shall strike.
Thus says the LORD:

"Arise, go up to Kedar,
And devastate [t]the men of the East!
29 Their [u]tents and their flocks they shall take away.
They shall take for themselves their curtains,
All their vessels and their camels;
And they shall cry out to them,
[v]'Fear is on every side!'

30 "Flee, get far away! Dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor!" says the LORD.
"For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,
And has conceived a plan against you.

31 "Arise, go up to [w]the wealthy nation that dwells securely," says the LORD,
"Which has neither gates nor bars,
[x]Dwelling alone.
32 Their camels shall be for booty,
And the multitude of their cattle for plunder.
I will [y]scatter to all winds those in the farthest corners,
And I will bring their calamity from all its sides," says the LORD.
33 "Hazor [z]shall be a dwelling for jackals,
a desolation forever;
No one shall reside there,
Nor son of man dwell in it."

Judgment on Elam

34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against [a]Elam, in the [b]beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, I will break [c]the bow of Elam,
The foremost of their might.
36 Against Elam I will bring the four winds
From the four quarters of heaven,
And scatter them toward all those winds;
There shall be no nations where the outcasts of Elam will not go.
37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies
And before those who seek their life.
[d]I will bring disaster upon them,
My fierce anger,' says the LORD;
'And I will send the sword after them
Until I have consumed them.
38 I will [e]set My throne in Elam,
And will destroy from there the king and the princes,' says the LORD.

39 'But it shall come to pass [f]in the latter days:
I will bring back the captives of Elam,'
says the LORD."

Judgment on Babylon and Babylonia

50 The word that the LORD spoke [a]against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 "Declare among the nations,
Proclaim, and set up a standard;
Proclaim—do not conceal it—
Say, 'Babylon is [b]taken, [c]Bel is shamed.
Merodach* is broken in pieces;
[d]Her idols are humiliated,
Her images are broken in pieces.'
3 [e]For out of the north [f]a nation comes up against her,
Which shall make her land desolate,
And no one shall dwell therein.
They shall move, they shall depart,
Both man and beast.

*49:27 Compare Amos 1:4 *50:2 A Babylonian god; sometimes spelled Marduk

49:30–33 Hazor shall be a dwelling for jackals. Nebuchadnezzar's destructive army would attack the tent villages of Kedar and Hazor. The oases would be left to the jackals for habitation (9:11; 10:22). The Bedouin peoples would be scattered afar, as if by the hot desert winds.

49:34–36 break the bow. The Elamites were famous for their skilled archers (Is. 22:6), who became an important part of the Persian army under Cyrus. four winds. This expression indicates the military might that the Lord musters against His enemies (Ezek. 37:9).

50:2–3 Bel is shamed. Bel was a title like Baal, meaning "Lord," another name for Babylon's patron deity, Marduk. The oracle begins with a defamation of the gods of Babylon. The term translated "images" means animal droppings. The Hebrew prophets are openly contemptuous of idols and speak of them with ridicule.

'Come and let us join ourselves to the LORD
In [j]a perpetual covenant
That will not be forgotten.'
6 "My people have been [k]lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them [l]astray;
They have turned them away on [m]the mountains.
They have gone from mountain to hill;
They have forgotten their resting place.
7 All who found them have [n]devoured them;
And [o]their adversaries said, [p]'We have not offended,
Because they have sinned against the LORD, [q]the habitation of justice,
The LORD, [r]the hope of their fathers.'
8 "Move[s] from the midst of Babylon,
Go out of the land of the Chaldeans;
And be like the rams before the flocks.
9 [t]For behold, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the north country,
And they shall array themselves against her;
From there she shall be captured.
Their arrows shall be like those of an expert warrior;*
[u]None shall return in vain.
10 And Chaldea shall become plunder;
[v]All who plunder her shall be satisfied," says the LORD.
11 "Because[w] you were glad, because you rejoiced,
You destroyers of My heritage,
Because you have grown fat [x]like a heifer threshing grain,
And you bellow like bulls,
12 Your mother shall be deeply ashamed;
She who bore you shall be ashamed.
Behold, the least of the nations shall be a [y]wilderness,
A dry land and a desert.
13 Because of the wrath of the LORD
She shall not be inhabited,
[z]But she shall be wholly desolate.
[a]Everyone who goes by Babylon shall be horrified
And hiss at all her plagues.
14 "Put[b] yourselves in array against Babylon all around,
All you who bend the bow;
Shoot at her, spare no arrows,
For she has sinned against the LORD.
15 Shout against her all around;
She has [c]given her hand,
Her foundations have fallen,
[d]Her walls are thrown down;
For [e]it is the vengeance of the LORD.
Take vengeance on her.
As she has done, so do to her.
16 Cut off the sower from Babylon,
And him who handles the sickle at harvest time.
For fear of the oppressing sword
[f]Everyone shall turn to his own people,
And everyone shall flee to his own land.
17 "Israel is like [g]scattered sheep;
[h]The lions have driven him away.
First [i]the king of Assyria devoured him;
Now at last this [j]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."
18 Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
"Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
As I have punished the king of [k]Assyria.
19 [l]But I will bring back Israel to his home,
And he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan;
His soul shall be satisfied on Mount Ephraim and Gilead.
20 In those days and in that time," says the LORD,
[m]"The iniquity of Israel shall be sought, but there shall be none;
And the sins of Judah, but they shall not be found;
For I will pardon those [n]whom I preserve.

* 50:9 Following some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, and Syriac; Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate read a warrior who makes childless.

50:11–13 You destroyers of My heritage. Babylon's plunder would be its punishment for gloating over Judah's demise and the abuse of God's heritage. Babylon would "be a wilderness." Defamation, drought, dehabitation, desolation, and derision were Babylon's destiny (18:16; 19:8; 49:17).

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, against it,
And against the inhabitants of [o]Pekod.
Waste and utterly destroy them," says
the LORD,
"And do [p]according to all that I have commanded you.
22 [q]A sound of battle is in the land,
And of great destruction.
23 How [r]the hammer of the whole earth has been cut apart and broken!
How Babylon has become a desolation
among the nations!
24 I have laid a snare for you;
You have indeed been [s]trapped,
O Babylon,
And you were not aware;
You have been found and also caught,
Because you have [t]contended against
the LORD.
25 The LORD has opened His armory,
And has brought out [u]the weapons of
His indignation;
For this is the work of the Lord GOD
of hosts
In the land of the Chaldeans.
26 Come against her from the farthest border;
Open her storehouses;
Cast her up as heaps of ruins,
And destroy her utterly;
Let nothing of her be left.
27 Slay all her [v]bulls,
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them!
For their day has come, the time of [w]their punishment.
28 The voice of those who flee and escape from the land of Babylon [x]Declares in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
The vengeance of His temple.
29 "Call together the archers against Babylon.
All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around;
Let none of them escape.*
[y]Repay her according to her work;
According to all she has done, do to
her;
[z]For she has been proud against the
LORD,
Against the Holy One of Israel.
30 [a]Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
And all her men of war shall be cut off
in that day," says the LORD.
31 "Behold, I am against you,
O most haughty one!" says the Lord
GOD of hosts;
"For your day has come,
The time that I will punish you.*
32 The most [b]proud shall stumble and
fall,
And no one will raise him up;
[c]I will kindle a fire in his cities,
And it will devour all around him."
33 Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"The children of Israel were oppressed,
Along with the children of Judah;
All who took them captive have held them fast;
They have refused to let them go.
34 [d]Their Redeemer is strong;
[e]The LORD of hosts is His name.
He will thoroughly plead their [f]case,
That He may give rest to the land,
And disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
35 "A sword is against the Chaldeans,"
says the LORD,
"Against the inhabitants of Babylon,
And [g]against her princes and [h]her wise men.
36 A sword is [i]against the soothsayers,
and they will be fools.
A sword is against her mighty men,
and they will be dismayed.
37 A sword is against their horses,
Against their chariots,
And against all [j]the mixed peoples
who are in her midst;
And [k]they will become like women.
A sword is against her treasures, and they will be robbed.
38 [l]A drought* is against her waters, and they will be dried up.
For it is the land of carved images,
And they are insane with their idols.
39 "Therefore[m] the wild desert beasts shall dwell there with the jackals,
And the ostriches shall dwell in it.
[n]It shall be inhabited no more forever, Nor shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

* 50:29 Qere, some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, and Targum add to her. * 50:31 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read The time of your punishment. * 50:38 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Syriac reads sword; Septuagint omits A drought is.

50:21–28 utterly destroy them. The tables would be turned on Babylon. The Lord God had launched His vengeful weapons upon the city through His anointed servant Cyrus (2 Chr. 36:22–23; Is 45:1).

50:34 Their Redeemer is strong. One who secured the freedom of a kinsman, protecting family rights, was called a kinsmen redeemer. Here God, the Redeemer of Israel (Is. 47:4), offers to obtain the legal freedom of His people from captivity.

40 [o]As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
And their neighbors," says the LORD,
"So no one shall reside there,
Nor son of man [p]dwell in it.

41 "Behold,[q] a people shall come from the north,
And a great nation and many kings Shall be raised up from the ends of the earth.
42 [r]They shall hold the bow and the lance;
[s]They are cruel and shall not show mercy.
[t]Their voice shall roar like the sea;
They shall ride on horses,
Set in array, like a man for the battle,
Against you, O daughter of Babylon.

43 "The king of Babylon has [u]heard the report about them,
And his hands grow feeble;
Anguish has taken hold of him,
Pangs as of a woman in [v]childbirth.

44 "Behold,[w] he shall come up like a lion from the floodplain* of the Jordan
Against the dwelling place of the strong;
But I will make them suddenly run
away from her.
And who is a chosen man that I may appoint over her?
For who is like Me?
Who will arraign Me?
And [x]who is that shepherd
Who will withstand Me?"

45 Therefore hear [y]the counsel of the LORD that He has taken against
Babylon,
And His [z]purposes that He has proposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
[a]Surely the least of the flock shall draw
them out;
Surely He will make their dwelling place desolate with them.
46 [b]At the noise of the taking of Babylon
The earth trembles,
And the cry is heard among the
nations.

The Utter Destruction of Babylon

51 Thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will raise up against [a]Babylon,
Against those who dwell in Leb Kamai,*
[b]A destroying wind.
2 And I will send [c]winnowers to Babylon,
Who shall winnow her and empty her
land.
[d]For in the day of doom
They shall be against her all around.
3 Against her [e]let the archer bend his bow,
And lift himself up against her in his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
[f]Utterly destroy all her army.
4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
[g]And those thrust through in her streets.
5 For Israel is [h]not forsaken, nor Judah,
By his God, the LORD of hosts,
Though their land was filled with sin
against the Holy One of Israel."

6 [i]Flee from the midst of Babylon,
And every one save his life!
Do not be cut off in her iniquity,
For [j]this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
[k]He shall recompense her.
7 [l]Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand,
That made all the earth drunk.
[m]The nations drank her wine;
Therefore the nations [n]are deranged.
8 Babylon has suddenly [o]fallen and been destroyed.
[p]Wail for her!
[q]Take balm for her pain;
Perhaps she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon,
But she is not healed.
Forsake her, and [r]let us go everyone to his own country;
[s]For her judgment reaches to heaven
and is lifted up to the skies.
10 The LORD has [t]revealed our
righteousness.
Come and let us [u]declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

* 50:44 Or thicket * 51:1 A code word for Chaldea (Babylonia); may be translated The Midst of Those Who Rise Up Against Me

51:6–10 Babylon was a golden cup. The imagery of Babylon's cup of fury from 25:15–19 is reversed. Here Babylon's cup is broken by the Lord. Take balm. As in the case of Judah (8:22), decadent Babylon was beyond healing and had to be abandoned. The destruction of Babylon was the vindication of the justice of God. Jeremiah's prediction (25:12–14) would be realized: Israel would be made righteous through God's work.

11 [v]Make the arrows bright!
Gather the shields!
[w]The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.
[x]For His plan is against Babylon to destroy it,
Because it is [y]the vengeance of the
LORD,
The vengeance for His temple.
12 [z]Set up the standard on the walls of Babylon;
Make the guard strong,
Set up the watchmen,
Prepare the ambushes.
For the LORD has both devised and done
What He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.
13 [a]O you who dwell by many waters, Abundant in treasures,
Your end has come,
The measure of your covetousness.
14 [b]The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself:
"Surely I will fill you with men, [c]as with locusts,
And they shall lift [d]up a shout against
you."

15 [e]He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His
wisdom,
And [f]stretched out the heaven by His understanding.
16 When He utters His voice—
There is a multitude of waters in the
heavens:
[g]"He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
He makes lightnings for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His
treasuries."*

17 [h]Everyone is dull-hearted, without knowledge;
Every metalsmith is put to shame by the carved image;
[i]For his molded image is falsehood,
And there is no breath in them.
18 They are futile, a work of errors;
In the time of their punishment they
shall perish.
19 The Portion of Jacob is not like them,
For He is the Maker of all things;
And Israel is the tribe of His inheritance.
The LORD of hosts is His name.

20 "You[j] are My battle-ax and weapons of war:
For with you I will break the nation in pieces;
With you I will destroy kingdoms;
21 With you I will break in pieces the horse and its rider;
With you I will break in pieces the chariot and its rider;
22 With you also I will break in pieces
man and woman;
With you I will break in pieces [k]old and young;
With you I will break in pieces the young man and the maiden; 23 With you also I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock;
With you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen;
And with you I will break in pieces
governors and rulers.

24 "And[l] I will repay Babylon
And all the inhabitants of Chaldea
For all the evil they have done
In Zion in your sight," says the LORD.

25 "Behold, I am against you,
[m]O destroying mountain,
Who destroys all the earth," says the
LORD.
"And I will stretch out My hand against
you,
Roll you down from the rocks,
[n]And make you a burnt mountain.
26 They shall not take from you a stone for a corner
Nor a stone for a foundation,
[o]But you shall be desolate forever," says
the LORD.

27 [p]Set up a banner in the land,
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
[q]Prepare the nations against her,
Call [r]the kingdoms together against
her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a general against her;
Cause the horses to come up like the bristling locusts.
28 Prepare against her the nations,
With the kings of the Medes,
Its governors and all its rulers,
All the land of his dominion.
29 And the land will tremble and sorrow;
For every [s]purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, [t]To make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.

* 51:16 Psalm 135:7

51:20–26 You are My battle-ax. Babylon had been God's implement for judgment against the nations, and Judah in particular.

51:29–32 The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting. The Nabonidus Chronicle, an ancient text describing the fall of Babylon, reports that "Cyrus entered Babylon without a battle." By the time Cyrus reached Babylon, he had conquered all of Babylonia

30 The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting,
They have remained in their strongholds;
Their might has failed,
[u]They became like women;
They have burned her dwelling places,
[v]The bars of her gate are broken.
31 [w]One runner will run to meet another,
And one messenger to meet another,
To show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on all sides;
32 [x]The passages are blocked,
The reeds they have burned with fire,
And the men of war are terrified.

33 For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

"The daughter of Babylon is [y]like a threshing floor
When [z]it is time to thresh her;
Yet a little while
[a]And the time of her harvest will come."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon
Has [b]devoured me, he has crushed me;
He has made me an [c]empty vessel,
He has swallowed me up like a monster;
He has filled his stomach with my delicacies,
He has spit me out.
35 Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,"
The inhabitant of Zion will say;
"And my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea!"
Jerusalem will say.

36 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, [d]I will plead your case and take vengeance for you.
[e]I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
37 [f]Babylon shall become a heap,
A dwelling place for jackals,
[g]An astonishment and a hissing,
Without an inhabitant.
38 They shall roar together like lions,
They shall growl like lions' whelps.
39 In their excitement I will prepare their feasts;
[h]I will make them drunk,
That they may rejoice,
And sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says the LORD.
40 "I will bring them down
Like lambs to the slaughter,
Like rams with male goats.
41 "Oh, how [i]Sheshach* is taken!
Oh, how [j]the praise of the whole earth is seized!
How Babylon has become desolate
among the nations!
42 [k]The sea has come up over Babylon;
She is covered with the multitude of its waves.
43 [l]Her cities are a desolation,
A dry land and a wilderness,
A land where [m]no one dwells,
Through which no son of man passes.
44 I will punish [n]Bel in Babylon,
And I will bring out of his mouth what he has swallowed;
And the nations shall not stream to him anymore.
Yes, [o]the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 "My[p] people, go out of the midst of her!
And let everyone deliver himself from the fierce anger of the LORD.
46 And lest your heart faint,
And you fear [q]for the rumor that will be heard in the land
(A rumor will come one year,
And after that, in another year
A rumor will come,
And violence in the land,
Ruler against ruler),
47 Therefore behold, the days are coming
That I will bring judgment on the carved images of Babylon;
Her whole land shall be ashamed,
And all her slain shall fall in her
midst.
48 Then [r]the heavens and the earth and all that is in them
Shall sing joyously over Babylon;
[s]For the plunderers shall come to her from the north," says the LORD.

49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,
So at Babylon the slain of all the earth shall fall.
50 [t]You who have escaped the sword,
Get away! Do not stand still!
[u]Remember the LORD afar off,
And let Jerusalem come to your mind.

* 51:41 A code word for Babylon (compare Jeremiah 25:26)

except for the capital city, cutting off roads and supply routes.

51:47–48 the days are coming. This expression usually introduces a message of divine intervention into history. judgment on the carved images of Babylon. The city was known for its thousands of images of its numerous gods and goddesses. As the king claimed to conquer nations in the name of his patron deity, so the gods of the defeated would be punished along with their worshipers. The devastation of decadent Babylon would be no cause for mourning among the nations. Instead, the nations would sing joyfully of Babylon's fall.

For strangers [w]have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 "Therefore behold, the days are coming," says the LORD,
"That I will bring judgment on her carved images,
And throughout all her land the wounded shall groan.
53 [x]Though Babylon were to mount up to heaven,
And though she were to fortify the height of her strength, Yet from Me plunderers would come to her," says the LORD.

54 [y]The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
And great destruction from the land of
the Chaldeans,
55 Because the LORD is plundering
Babylon
And silencing her loud voice,
Though her waves roar like great
waters,
And the noise of their voice is uttered, 56 Because the plunderer comes against her, against Babylon,
And her mighty men are taken.
Every one of their bows is broken;
[z]For the LORD is the God of recompense,
He will surely repay.

57 "And I will make drunk
Her princes and [a]wise men,
Her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men.
And they shall sleep a perpetual sleep
And not awake," says [b]the King,
Whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly [c]broken,
And her high gates shall be burned
with fire;
[d]The people will labor in vain,
And the nations, because of the fire;
And they shall be weary."

Jeremiah's Command to Seraiah

59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of [e]Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And Seraiah was the quartermaster. 60 So Jeremiah [f]wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon. 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you arrive in Babylon and see it, and read all these words, 62 then you shall say, 'O LORD, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that [g]none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but it shall be desolate forever.' 63 Now it shall be, when you have finished reading this book, [h]that you shall tie a stone to it and throw it out into the Euphrates. 64 Then you shall say, 'Thus Babylon shall sink and not rise from the catastrophe that I will bring upon her. And they shall be weary.'"

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

The Fall of Jerusalem Reviewed

52 Zedekiah was [a]twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of [b]Libnah. 2 He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 3 For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, till He finally cast them out from His presence. Then Zedekiah [c]rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 Now it came to pass in the [d]ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around. 5 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 6 By the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. 7 Then the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were near the city all around. And they went by way of the plain.*

8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him. 9 [e]So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he pronounced judgment on him. 10 [f]Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. And he killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah. 11 He also [g]put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in bronze fetters, took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

The Temple and City Plundered and Burned

12 [h]Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month ([i]which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), [j]Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 13He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire. 14And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. 15[k]Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poor people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. 16But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

17 [l]The [m]bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and the carts and the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried all their bronze to Babylon. 18They also took away [n]the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the bowls, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests
ministered. 19The basins, the firepans, the bowls, the pots, the lampstands, the spoons, and the cups, whatever was solid gold and whatever was solid silver, the captain of the guard took away. 20The two pillars, one Sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the carts, which King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—[o]the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. 21Now concerning the [p]pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, a measuring line of twelve cubits could measure its circumference, and its thickness was four fingers; it was hollow. 22A capital of bronze was on it;
and the height of one capital was five cubits, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. The second pillar, with pomegranates was the same. 23There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; [q]all the pomegranates, all around on the network, were one hundred.

The People Taken Captive to Babylonia

24 [r]The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, [s]Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. 25He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, seven men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the principal scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. 26And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath.
Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

28 [t]These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: [u]in the seventh year, [v]three thousand and twenty-three Jews; 29[w]in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons; 30in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five persons. All the persons were four thousand six hundred.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

31 [x]Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Evil-Merodach* king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, [y]lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison. 32And he spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 33So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, [z]and he ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life. 34And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

* 52:31 Or Awil-Marduk

52:13–16 burned the house of the LORD. The entire city of Jerusalem was burned, from the temple to the royal palace to the houses. The city walls were demolished. Leading citizens and some of the poor were deported under Nebuzaradan's command, leaving only a remnant of peasant farmers to work the fields, vineyards, and orchards.

52:31–34 Evil-Merodach. Nebuchadnezzar's son became king next but reigned for only two years. Jehoiachin was released from prison during his reign and pardoned. He was provided with food and given a seat of honor in Babylon. This restoration was symbolic of the future restoration of Israel and Judah to their homeland.

THE BOOK OF LAMENTATIONS

▶ AUTHOR: The universal consensus of early Jewish and Christian tradition attributes this book to Jeremiah. Even though the author is unnamed in the book, the superscription to Lamentations in the Septuagint states: "And it came to pass, after Israel had been carried away captive and Jerusalem had become desolate, that Jeremiah sat weeping, and lamented with this lamentation over Jerusalem saying. . . ." The Talmud, as well as many other ancient sources, also supports this position.

▶ TIME: c. 586 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Lam. 3:22–23

▶ THEME: A lament is a vehicle for working through sorrow. While grief is expressed in words, its resolution is in God and the hope He gives for the future. In a way, the lamentation process is one of coming to grips with all that God wants us to see about our present circumstances. For the people of Judah to lose a country meant not only the loss of the homeland, but the loss of God's presence and power to sustain the people in that land. It is hard for people who have never experienced such loss to understand the depth of grief expressed in this book.

Jerusalem in Affliction

1 How lonely sits the city
That was full of people!
[a]How like a widow is she,
Who was great among the nations!
The [b]princess among the provinces
Has become a slave!

2 She [c]weeps bitterly in the [d]night,
Her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers
She has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
They have become her enemies.

3 [e]Judah has gone into captivity,
Under affliction and hard servitude;
[f]She dwells among the nations,
She finds no [g]rest;
All her persecutors overtake her in dire straits.

4 The roads to Zion mourn
Because no one comes to the set feasts.
All her gates are [h]desolate;
Her priests sigh,
Her virgins are afflicted,
And she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries [i]have become the master,
Her enemies prosper;
For the LORD has afflicted her [j]Because of the multitude of her transgressions.
Her [k]children have gone into captivity
before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion
All her splendor has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
That find no pasture,
That flee without strength
Before the pursuer.

7 In the days of her affliction and roaming, Jerusalem [l]remembers all her pleasant
things
That she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,

1:1 How. This exclamatory word is used frequently in laments and funeral songs. It expresses astonishment, sorrow, and dismay (2:1; 4:1).
1:2 Among all her lovers. Verse 19 describes Judah's sin of turning away from God and toward the gods of Canaan (Jer. 3:1–6). Also, the sins of Judah often involved the sexual forms of pagan worship that characterized the Canaanite people.
1:4 The roads to Zion mourn. When the temple was built, Zion was used to describe the hill on which the temple was located. Later, the name came to stand for the whole city. The roads "mourned" because there would no longer be throngs of pilgrims traveling to Jerusalem to worship at the temple.
1:5 Her children have gone into captivity. God had warned Israel in Leviticus 26:41 that captivity in a foreign land would be the result of continued sinning.
1:7 In the days of her affliction and roaming. The emphasis is on Jerusalem's utter helplessness as her enemies ridiculed her miseries (v. 21).

With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her
And mocked at her downfall.*

8 [m]Jerusalem has sinned gravely,
Therefore she has become vile.*
All who honored her despise her Because [n]they have seen her nakedness;
Yes, she sighs and turns away.

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
She [o]did not consider her destiny;
Therefore her collapse was awesome;
She had no comforter.
"O LORD, behold my affliction,
For the enemy is exalted!"

10 The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her pleasant things;
For she has seen [p]the nations enter her sanctuary,
Those whom You commanded
[q]Not to enter Your assembly.

11 All her people sigh,
[r]They seek bread;
They have given their valuables for food to restore life.
"See, O LORD, and consider,
For I am scorned."

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass
by?
Behold and see
[s]If there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
Which has been brought on me,
Which the LORD has inflicted
In the day of His fierce anger.

13 "From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has [t]spread a net for my feet
And turned me back;
He has made me desolate
And faint all the day.

14 "The[u] yoke of my transgressions was bound;*
They were woven together by His hands,
And thrust upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
The Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.

15 "The Lord has trampled underfoot all my mighty men in my midst;
He has called an assembly against me
To crush my young men;
[v]The Lord trampled as in a winepress
The virgin daughter of Judah.

16 "For these things I weep;
My eye, [w]my eye overflows with water;
Because the comforter, who should restore my life,
Is far from me.
My children are desolate
Because the enemy prevailed."

17 [x]Zion spreads out her hands,
But no one comforts her;
The LORD has commanded concerning
Jacob
That those [y]around him become his adversaries;
Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

18 "The LORD is [z]righteous,
For I [a]rebelled against His commandment.
Hear now, all peoples,
And behold my sorrow;
My virgins and my young men
Have gone into captivity.

19 "I called for my lovers,
But they deceived me;
My priests and my elders
Breathed their last in the city,
While they sought food
To restore their life.

20 "See, O LORD, that I am in distress;
My [b]soul is troubled;
My heart is overturned within me,
For I have been very rebellious.
[c]Outside the sword bereaves,
At home it is like death.

21 "They have heard that I sigh,
But no one comforts me.

1:10 the nations enter her sanctuary. Since God's people had not preserved the sanctuary of their hearts from pollution, they had no reason to be amazed when their enemies desecrated the earthly sanctuary. As a rule, Gentiles were forbidden to enter the congregation of the Lord.
1:13 He has sent fire into my bones. Jerusalem's suffering is portrayed, using several metaphors: (1) fire from heaven, (2) a hunter's net spread to trap animals, (3) an animal yoke fastened about the head of a person, and (4) the crushing of grapes in a winepress. The purpose of Jerusalem's suffering was to bring about a turning or repentance.
1:15 The virgin daughter of Judah. Jerusalem (Judah) was supposed to be the chaste bride of God. Instead, she had become a polluted harlot because her people worshiped gods other than the God with whom they covenanted.
1:16 comforter. The real comforter of Judah is God. But because of Judah's sin, God would not come to their assistance.
1:21 All my enemies. Those who previously had been friends of Judah (v. 2) became Judah's enemies. Bring on the day. Several times the "day" of God's wrath is mentioned in the Book of Lamentations (2:1,21–22).

You,
And do to them as You have done to
me
For all my transgressions;

God's Anger with Jerusalem

2 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion
With a [a]cloud in His anger!
[b]He cast down from heaven to the earth
[c]The beauty of Israel,
And did not remember [d]His footstool
In the day of His anger.

2 The Lord has swallowed up and has [e]not pitied
All the dwelling places of Jacob.
He has thrown down in His wrath
The strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
He has brought them down to the ground;
[f]He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

3 He has cut off in fierce anger
Every horn of Israel;
[g]He has drawn back His right hand
From before the enemy.
[h]He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
Devouring all around.

4 [i]Standing like an enemy, He has bent
His bow;
With His right hand, like an adversary,
He has slain [j]all who were pleasing to
His eye;
On the tent of the daughter of Zion,
He has poured out His fury like fire.

5 [k]The Lord was like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel,
He has swallowed up all her palaces;
[l]He has destroyed her strongholds,
And has increased mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Judah.

6 He has done violence [m]to His tabernacle,
[n]As if it were a garden;
He has destroyed His place of assembly;
The LORD has caused
The appointed feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion.
In His burning indignation He has [o]spurned the king and the priest.

7 The Lord has spurned His altar,
He has [p]abandoned His sanctuary;
He has given up the walls of her
palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.
[q]They have made a noise in the house of the LORD
As on the day of a set feast.

8 The LORD has purposed to destroy
The [r]wall of the daughter of Zion.
[s]He has stretched out a line;
He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
Therefore He has caused the rampart
and wall to lament;
They languished together.

9 Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and [t]broken her bars.
[u]Her king and her princes are among
the nations;
[v]The Law is no more,
And her [w]prophets find no vision from
the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion
[x]Sit on the ground and keep silence;
They [y]throw dust on their heads
And [z]gird themselves with sackcloth.
The virgins of Jerusalem
Bow their heads to the ground.

The term is used to refer not only to the time of Jerusalem's fall in the past, but also to a future day when God would rectify all of the wrongs that the nations had committed against Israel and God.

2:1 His anger. This word is a firm expression of God's displeasure with wickedness and sin. Yet God's anger never shuts us off from His compassion (Ps. 77:9).

2:3 drawn back His right hand. Usually the right hand of God is understood as the instrument of help for God's people stretched out against their enemies (Ex. 15:6; Ps. 20:6). Here God's hand is withdrawn from the enemies, leaving the people of God at their mercy.

2:9 the Law is no more. These words do not suggest the end of the law, but rather the ceasing of the work of the law in the lives of the people for their blessing (Deut. 6:1–3).

2:10 They throw dust on their heads. This custom was a common sign of mourning in Israel and in other countries of the ancient world. virgins of Jerusalem. Their sadness was increased by the knowledge that this was not a time for marriage and family. Even though their lives had been spared, they had lost their futures.

Faint in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers,
"Where is grain and wine?"
As they swoon like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out
In their mothers' bosom.

13 How shall I [d]console you?
To what shall I liken you,

What shall I compare with you, that I may comfort you,

They hiss and gnash their teeth.
They say, [l]"We have swallowed her up!

17 The LORD has done what He [o]purposed;
He has fulfilled His word
Which He commanded in days of old.
He has thrown down and has not pitied,
And He has caused an enemy to [p]rejoice over you;
He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

18 Their heart cried out to the Lord,
"O wall of the daughter of Zion,
[q]Let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no relief;
Give your eyes no rest.

19 "Arise, [r]cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches;
[s]Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Who faint from hunger [t]at the head of every street."

20 "See, O LORD, and consider!

Should the priest and prophet be slain
In the sanctuary of the Lord?

My virgins and my young men
Have fallen by the [w]sword;
You have slain them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered and not pitied.

22 "You have invited as to a feast day
[x]The terrors that surround me.
In the day of the LORD's anger
There was no refugee or survivor.
[y]Those whom I have borne and brought up
My enemies have [z]destroyed."

The Prophet's Anguish and Hope

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of His wrath.
2 He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not in light.
3 Surely He has turned His hand against me
Time and time again throughout the day.

4 He has aged [a]my flesh and my skin,
And [b]broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me
And surrounded me with bitterness and woe.

* 2:20 Vulgate reads a span long.

2:15 shake their heads. This was a common expression of derision (Ps. 22:7; 109:25; Jer. 19:8). Losing face in the ancient Middle East was a terrible evil.
2:18 O wall. The wall of the people's hearts was more impenetrable than the wall of the city of Jerusalem (2:7–8).
2:19 Arise. The call is for people to awaken and scream for mercy from the Lord. Lift your hands. This refers to a posture of prayer (1:17; Ps. 134:2).
2:20 Should the women eat their offspring. So desperate were the scenes of starvation in Jerusalem that women actually fought over whose deceased child would be eaten next.

3:4 He has aged my flesh and my skin. This imagery suggests the ebbing and wasting away of Jeremiah's life and that of the nation.

6 [c]He has set me in dark places
Like the dead of long ago.
7 [d]He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
8 Even [e]when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has blocked my ways with hewn
stone;
He has made my paths crooked.
10 [f]He has been to me a bear lying in wait,
Like a lion in ambush.
11 He has turned aside my ways and [g]torn me in pieces;
He has made me desolate.
12 He has bent His bow
And [h]set me up as a target for the arrow.
13 He has caused [i]the arrows of His quiver
To pierce my loins.*
14 I have become the [j]ridicule of all my people—
[k]Their taunting song all the day.
15 [l]He has filled me with bitterness,
He has made me drink wormwood.
16 He has also broken my teeth [m]with gravel,
And covered me with ashes.
17 You have moved my soul far from
peace;
I have forgotten prosperity.
18 [n]And I said, "My strength and my hope Have perished from the LORD."
19 Remember my affliction and roaming,
[o]The wormwood and the gall.
20 My soul still remembers
And sinks within me.
21 This I recall to my mind,
Therefore I have [p]hope.
22 [q]Through the LORD's mercies we are not consumed,
Because His compassions [r]fail not.
23 They are new [s]every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.
24 "The LORD is my [t]portion," says my soul,
"Therefore I [u]hope in Him!"
25 The LORD is good to those who [v]wait for Him,
To the soul who seeks Him.
26 It is good that one should [w]hope [x]and wait quietly
For the salvation of the LORD.
27 [y]It is good for a man to bear
The yoke in his youth.
28 [z]Let him sit alone and keep silent,
Because God has laid it on him;
29 [a]Let him put his mouth in the dust—
There may yet be hope.
30 [b]Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him,
And be full of reproach.
31 [c]For the Lord will not cast off forever.
32 Though He causes grief,
Yet He will show compassion
According to the multitude of His mercies.
33 For [d]He does not afflict willingly,
Nor grieve the children of men.
34 To crush under one's feet
All the prisoners of the earth,
35 To turn aside the justice due a man
Before the face of the Most High,
36 Or subvert a man in his cause—
[e]The Lord does not approve.
37 Who is he [f]who speaks and it comes to pass,
When the Lord has not commanded it?
38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High
That [g]woe and well-being proceed?
39 [h]Why should a living man complain,
[i]A man for the punishment of his sins?
40 Let us search out and examine our ways,
And turn back to the LORD;

* 3:13 Literally kidneys

3:9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone. A common practice of the Assyrians was to wall up prisoners in extremely confined places and leave them to die.

3:15 drink wormwood. This was a bitter herb used to flavor some drinks.

3:16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel. The people had sensed that they were so associated with dust and sackcloth—symbols of mourning—that it was as though they fed on dirt. The dust became gravel which broke the people's teeth.

3:22 Because His compassions fail not. This verse seems to contradict all that had been written up to this point (2:1–5). Yet the very fact that there was a prophet left to write these words and a remnant left to read them showed that not every person in Jerusalem had been consumed.

3:23 Great is Your faithfulness. Here is the heart of the Book of Lamentations. The comforting, compassionate character of God dominates the wreckage of every other institution and office. God remains "full of grace and truth" in every situation (Ex. 34:6; John 1:14).

3:29 put his mouth in the dust. This expression is a figure of speech for conquest. The phrase pictures a captive lying face down with the conqueror's foot on his back.

41 [j]Let us lift our hearts and hands
To God in heaven.
42 [k]We have transgressed and rebelled;
You have not pardoned.

43 You have covered Yourself with anger
And pursued us;
You have slain and not pitied.
44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
That prayer should not pass through.
45 You have made us an [l]offscouring and refuse
In the midst of the peoples.

46 [m]All our enemies
Have opened their mouths against us.
47 [n]Fear and a snare have come upon us,
[o]Desolation and destruction.
48 [p]My eyes overflow with rivers of water
For the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 [q]My eyes flow and do not cease,
Without interruption,
50 Till the LORD from heaven
[r]Looks down and sees.
51 My eyes bring suffering to my soul
Because of all the daughters of my city.

52 My enemies [s]without cause
Hunted me down like a bird.
53 They silenced* my life [t]in the pit
And [u]threw stones at me.
54 [v]The waters flowed over my head;
[w]I said, "I am cut off!"

55 [x]I called on Your name, O LORD,
From the lowest [y]pit.
56 [z]You have heard my voice:
"Do not hide Your ear
From my sighing, from my cry for help."
57 You [a]drew near on the day I called on You,
And said, [b]"Do not fear!"

58 O Lord, You have [c]pleaded the case for my soul;
[d]You have redeemed my life.
59 O LORD, You have seen how I am wronged;
[e]Judge my case.
60 You have seen all their vengeance,
All their [f]schemes against me.

61 You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
All their schemes against me,
62 The lips of my enemies
And their whispering against me all the day.
63 Look at their [g]sitting down and their rising up;
I am their taunting song.

64 [h]Repay them, O LORD,
According to the work of their hands.
65 Give them a veiled* heart;
Your curse be upon them!
66 In Your anger,
Pursue and destroy them
[i]From under the heavens of the [j]LORD.

The Degradation of Zion

4 How the gold has become dim!
How changed the fine gold!
The stones of the sanctuary are scattered
At the head of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion,
Valuable as fine gold,
How they are regarded [a]as clay pots,
The work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the jackals present their breasts
To nurse their young;
But the daughter of my people is cruel,
[b]Like ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the infant clings
To the roof of its mouth for thirst;
[c]The young children ask for bread,
But no one breaks it for them.

5 Those who ate delicacies
Are desolate in the streets;
Those who were brought up in scarlet [d]Embrace ash heaps.

6 The punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the punishment of the [e]sin of Sodom,
Which was [f]overthrown in a moment,
With no hand to help her!

* 3:53 Septuagint reads put to death.
* 3:65 A Jewish tradition reads sorrow of.

3:44 with a cloud. So long as sin festered, God's wrath was a cloud or veil through which no prayer could penetrate—including the prayers of the people and the prayers of Jeremiah.

3:52–54 silenced my life in the pit. Jeremiah speaks not only of his own experience of being cast into a pit (Jer. 38:4–6), but also of his pain and grief over the wretched condition of his fellow countrymen. The pit is a metaphor for the grave or extreme danger (Ps. 28:1; 40:2).

3:64–66 Repay them. The request for divine vindication is an expression of a longing for God's righteousness and the success of His kingdom and His truth.

4:1–2 stones of the sanctuary are scattered. The Babylonian army looted the temple and overturned all its huge stones.

4:4 The tongue of the infant. The theme of thirsting and starving children is revisited (2:11–13).

8 Now their appearance is blacker than

They go unrecognized in the streets;
[g]Their skin clings to their bones,
It has become as dry as wood.

9 Those slain by the sword are better off

For these [h]pine away,
Stricken for lack of the fruits of the

They became [l]food for them
In the destruction of the daughter of 11 The LORD has fulfilled His fury,

[m]He has poured out His fierce anger.
[n]He kindled a fire in Zion,
And it has devoured its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth,
And all inhabitants of the world,
Would not have believed
That the adversary and the enemy
Could [o]enter the gates of Jerusalem—

13 [p]Because of the sins of her prophets
And the iniquities of her priests,
[q]Who shed in her midst
The blood of the just.

14 They wandered blind in the streets;
[r]They have defiled themselves with
blood,
[s]So that no one would touch their garments.

15 They cried out to them,
"Go away, [t]unclean!
Go away, go away,
Do not touch us!"
When they fled and wandered,
Those among the nations said,
"They shall no longer dwell here."

16 The face* of the LORD scattered
them;
He no longer regards them.
[u]The people do not respect the priests
Nor show favor to the elders.

17 Still [v]our eyes failed us,
Watching vainly for our help;
In our watching we watched
For a nation that could not save us.

18 [w]They tracked our steps
So that we could not walk in our streets.
[x]Our end was near;
Our days were over,
For our end had come.

19 Our pursuers were [y]swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They pursued us on the mountains
And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The [z]breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD,
[a]Was caught in their pits,
Of whom we said, "Under his shadow
We shall live among the nations."

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of [b]Edom,
You who dwell in the land of Uz!
[c]The cup shall also pass over to you And you shall become drunk and make yourself naked.

22 [d]The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished,
O daughter of Zion;
He will no longer send you into captivity.
[e]He will punish your iniquity,
O daughter of Edom;
He will uncover your sins!

Prayer for Restoration

5 Remember, [a]O LORD, what has come upon us;
Look, and behold [b]our reproach!
2 [c]Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens,
And our houses to foreigners.
3 We have become orphans and waifs,
Our mothers are like [d]widows.
4 We pay for the water we drink,
And our wood comes at a price.

* 4:7 Or nobles * 4:16 Targum reads anger.

4:10 cooked their own children. This verse describes the horrible effects of the long siege that were alluded to in 2:20. This unimaginable horror could only have occurred in the most inhumane conditions of human suffering.

5:2–3 Our inheritance. The Promised Land had been a gift from the Lord to Abraham. This inheritance was a kind of "down payment" on the future reign of God that would include the restoration of His people to that land. God demonstrated that He owned all nations and that Israel was to be His instrument for blessing all the nations on the earth. Yet in their present condition, the people of Israel seemed to be the most helpless of all peoples.

6 [f]We have given our hand [g]to the Egyptians
And the [h]Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
7 [i]Our fathers sinned and are no more,
But we bear their iniquities.
8 Servants rule over us;
There is none to deliver us from their hand.
9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives,
Because of the sword in the wilderness.
10 Our skin is hot as an oven,
Because of the fever of famine.
11 They [j]ravished the women in Zion,
The maidens in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes were hung up by their hands,
And elders were not respected.
13 Young men [k]ground at the millstones;
Boys staggered under loads of wood.
14 The elders have ceased gathering at the gate,
And the young men from their [l]music.
15 The joy of our heart has ceased;
Our dance has turned into [m]mourning.
16 [n]The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
17 Because of this our heart is faint;
[o]Because of these things our eyes grow dim;
18 Because of Mount Zion which is [p]desolate,
With foxes walking about on it.
19 You, O LORD, [q]remain forever;
[r]Your throne from generation to generation.
20 [s]Why do You forget us forever,
And forsake us for so long a time?
21 [t]Turn us back to You, O LORD, and we will be restored;
Renew our days as of old,
22 Unless You have utterly rejected us,
And are very angry with us!

* 5:5 Literally necks

5:10 Our skin is hot as an oven. Disease would have been rampant during the siege.
5:16 The crown has fallen from our head. This phrase expresses the loss of Judah's position of honor.
5:17 our heart is faint . . . our eyes grow dim. The normal zest for life was gone. Death would be better than a horrible existence during the siege of Jerusalem.
5:18 foxes walking about on it. The idea of wild animals roaming the holy city where the people of God once came in glad worship was the final indignity.
5:19 You, O LORD, remain forever. God's eternal rule and reign are a hope and support during the bleakest moments of suffering and despair (Ps. 80:1; 103:19).

THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL

▶ AUTHOR: There is strong evidence in favor of Ezekiel's authorship of this book. The first person singular is used throughout the book, indicating that it is the work of one person. This person is actually identified in 1:3 and 24:24 as Ezekiel. The unity and integrity of Ezekiel's prophetic record are supported and the style, language, and thematic development are consistent throughout the book. Like Jeremiah, Ezekiel was a priest who was called to be a prophet of the Lord. Ezekiel was privileged to receive a number of visions of the power and plan of God, and he was careful and artistic in his written presentation.

▶ TIME: c. 592–570 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Ezek. 36:33–35

▶ THEME: Ezekiel was an exilic prophet, meaning he prophesied to the exiles in Babylon. He was one of the 10,000 taken there by Nebuchadnezzar in 597 B.C. (2 Kin. 24:14). The book contains a series of prophetic messages, which represents a lifetime of ministry to the exiles in Babylon. Ezekiel sees himself as a watchman or lookout, compelled to warn people of coming danger and of the need for personal responsibility to an awesome, all-seeing, all-knowing God. The last half of the book is more concerned with encouraging the people to hope for God's promise of restoration back to the land of Israel. The restoration of the temple is a key element of chapters 40–48.

Ezekiel's Vision of God

1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by [a]the River Chebar, that [b]the heavens were opened and I saw [c]visions* of God. 2On the fifth day of the month, which was in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, 3the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans* by the River Chebar; and [d]the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

4Then I looked, and behold, [e]a whirlwind was coming [f]out of the north, a great cloud with raging fire engulfing itself; and brightness was all around it and radiating out of its midst like the color of amber, out of the midst of the fire. 5[g]Also from within it came the likeness of four living creatures. And [h]this was their appearance: they had [i]the likeness of a man. 6Each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.
7Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the soles of calves' feet.
They sparkled [i]like the color of burnished bronze. 8[k]The hands of a man were under their wings on their four sides; and each of the four had faces and wings. 9Their wings

* 1:1 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Syriac and Targum read a vision.
* 1:3 Or Babylonians, and so elsewhere in this book

1:1 in the thirtieth year. This most likely refers to Ezekiel's age. He was preparing to become a priest when the Babylonians attacked Judah in 597 B.C.
I saw visions of God. As with all the true prophets of ancient Israel, the visitation of God was at His initiative, calling certain people to special responsibilities. The word "vision" is derived from the common Hebrew verb meaning "to see," rather than from the specific verb used for prophetic vision as in Isaiah 1.
1:3 the word of the LORD. Ezekiel uses this introductory phrase 50 times in this book. It always introduces a divine message and sometimes a new section.
Ezekiel. The name comes from the verb meaning "to seize, to hold fast," coupled with the term meaning "God." Thus Ezekiel's name indicates that he was a man whom God had seized.
1:4 whirlwind . . . great cloud . . . fire engulfing itself. Compare the descriptions of divine appearance in Exodus 19:16–20; Psalm 18:7–15; and Micah 1:2–4.
1:5 four living creatures. These creatures are related to the cherubim—celestial beings associated with God's holiness and glory, and sometimes poetically with storm winds upon which God travels (Ps. 18:10). There are two basic approaches to understanding them: as a highly symbolic representation of deity, or as highly symbolic representations of angelic touched one another. The creatures did not turn when they went, but each one went straight [l]forward.

15Now as I looked at the living creatures, behold, [v]a wheel was on the earth beside each living creature with its four faces. 16[w]The appearance of the wheels and their workings was [x]like the color of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. The appearance of their workings was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel. 17When they moved, they went toward any one of four directions; they did not turn aside when they went. 18As for their rims, they were so high they were awesome; and their rims were [y]full of eyes, all around the four of them. 19[z]When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, because there the spirit went; and the wheels were lifted together with them, [a]for the spirit of the living creatures* was in the wheels. 21When those went, these went; when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures* was in the wheels.

22[b]The likeness of the firmament above the heads of the living creatures* was like the color of an awesome [c]crystal, stretched out [d]over their heads. 23And under the firmament their wings spread out straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body. 24[e]When they went, I heard the noise of their wings, [f]like the noise of many waters, like [g]the voice of the Almighty, a tumult like the noise of an army; and when they stood still, they let down their wings. 25A voice came from above the firmament that was over their heads; whenever they stood, they let down their wings.

26[h]And above the firmament over their heads was the likeness of a throne, [i]in appearance like a sapphire stone; on the likeness of the throne was a likeness with the appearance of a man high above [j]it. 27Also from the appearance of His waist and upward [k]I saw, as it were, the color of amber with the appearance of fire all around within it; and from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw, as it were, the appearance of fire with brightness all around. 28[l]Like the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. [m]This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD.

Ezekiel Sent to Rebellious Israel

beings who serve in God's presence. Probably they are angels, since God Himself is not revealed until the end of the section (v. 26).

1:10 man . . . lion . . . ox . . . eagle. Composite fantastic figures in these classic combinations have been found in Mesopotamian and Egyptian iconography. The idealized strengths of each figure were thus presumed to reside in these living beings.

1:18 rims . . . full of eyes. The wheels had an exquisite beauty and an animate intelligence.

1:19–21 spirit . . . in the wheels. The prophet stresses the association of the wheels with the living beings, as well as the beings' ability to travel where they wished. It appears that the wheels represented the flexibility and mobility of the living beings. This is a pictorial representation of God's omnipresence.

1:24 Almighty. This is the divine name Shaddai, most likely based on a word meaning "mountain," to suggest God's omnipotence and majesty (10:5).

1:26 throne. While Isaiah describes the elevation of the Lord's throne (Is. 6:1), Ezekiel focuses on its beauty.

1:27–28 glory of the LORD. The "glory" indicates the wonder, majesty, and worthiness of the living God. Amid the wheels, the beings, the colors, and the dazzling light was a figure who appeared like a man (v. 26). Compare the vision of Daniel who saw One "like the Son of Man" (Dan. 7:13). I fell on my face. The prophet's response was to fall down in worship and submission. All believers should recognize God's great glory and fall down in humble submission before Him (Phil. 2:10–11).

2 And He said to me, "Son of man, [a]stand on your feet, and I will speak to you."
2 Then [b]the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard Him who spoke to me. 3 And He said to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has [c]rebelled against Me; [d]they and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day. 4 [e]For they are impudent and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' 5 [f]As for them, whether they hear or whether they refuse—for they are a [g]rebellious house—yet they [h]will know that a prophet has been among them.

6 "And you, son of man, [i]do not be afraid of them nor be afraid of their words, though [j]briers and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions; [k]do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their looks, [l]though they are a rebellious house. 7 [m]You shall speak My words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious. 8 But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and [n]eat what I give you."

9 Now when I looked, there was [o]a hand stretched out to me; and behold, [p]a scroll of a book was in it. 10 Then He spread it before me; and there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.

3 Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find; [a]eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." 2 So I opened my mouth, and He caused me to eat that scroll.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I give you." So I [b]ate, and it was in my mouth [c]like honey in sweetness.

4 Then He said to me: "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them. 5 For you are not sent to a people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, but to the house of Israel, 6 not to many people of unfamiliar speech and of hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, [d]had I sent you to them, they would have listened to you. 7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you, [e]because they will not listen to Me; [f]for all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted. 8 Behold, I have made your face strong against their faces, and your forehead strong against their foreheads. 9 [g]Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I have made your forehead; [h]do not be afraid of them, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

10 Moreover He said to me: "Son of man, receive into your heart all My words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears. 11 And go, get to the captives, to the children of your people, and speak to them and tell them, [i]'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they hear, or whether they refuse."

12 Then [j]the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a great thunderous voice: "Blessed is the [k]glory of the LORD from His place!" 13 I also heard the [l]noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, and a great thunderous noise. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but [m]the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. 15 Then I came to the

2:1 Son of man. Ezekiel uses this phrase more than 90 times to refer to himself. It emphasizes his humanity in his God-given role as a spokesman for God. The meaning of the phrase is "human one." In the Old Testament, only Daniel 7:13 and 8:17 also employ this phrase. In the New Testament, "Son of Man" is used frequently by Jesus for Himself. With this phrase Jesus was calling Himself "the Human One"—the long-awaited Messiah who came as God in the flesh (Luke 21:27; John 1:14; 2 John 7).

2:2 the Spirit entered me. This reference to the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in God's prophet is of great importance. The visions and messages of Ezekiel were revelations from the living God.

2:5 they are a rebellious house. God told Ezekiel to take His Word to the sons of Israel. These people were to hear what the Lord Himself was to say to them. Listening or not listening, belief or unbelief, would not change what was spoken. Our belief or unbelief has no effect on what God tells us or what the Bible says. His word remains true. By its very nature, it is worthy of belief.

2:6 briers . . . thorns . . . scorpions. These images vividly portray the nature of the rebellious opponents of Ezekiel's warnings. God told Ezekiel not to allow fear to hinder his message, whether or not the message was wanted (v. 7).

2:10 lamentations and mourning and woe. The unusual feature of writing on both sides of a scroll indicates the magnitude of the nation's transgressions and its need for words of grief (Zech. 5:3; Rev. 5:1). Although Ezekiel would later bring words of comfort and consolation (chs. 33–48), his first prophecies from God contained only sorrow and sadness.

3:1–3 eat this scroll. The symbolic act of eating the scroll demonstrated that Ezekiel internalized the message in preparation for speaking to the people.

3:8–9 I have made your face strong against their faces. There may have been an intentional pun on Ezekiel's name, which means "strongly seized by God" (1:3) or "God strengthens." Double meanings in biblical names are common.

3:14 I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit. Ezekiel's human perspective caused him to focus on

Ezekiel Is a Watchman

16Now it [o]came to pass at the end of seven days that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 17[p]"Son of man, I have made you [q]a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them [r]warning from Me: 18When I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man [s]shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. 19Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; [t]but you have delivered your soul.

20"Again, when a [u]righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die; because you did not give him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand. 21Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man that the righteous should not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live because he took warning; also you will have delivered your soul."

22[v]Then the hand of the LORD was upon me there, and He said to me, "Arise, go out [w]into the plain, and there I shall talk with you."

23So I arose and went out into the plain, and behold, [x]the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I [y]saw by the River Chebar; [z]and I fell on my face. 24Then [a]the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25And you, O son of man, surely [b]they will put ropes on you and bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them. 26[c]I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be mute and [d]not be one to rebuke them, [e]for they are a rebellious house. 27[f]But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, [g]'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

4 "You also, son of man, take a clay tablet and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, Jerusalem. 2[a]Lay siege against it, build a [b]siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it; set camps against it also, and place battering rams against it all around. 3Moreover take for yourself an iron plate, and set it as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face against it, and it shall be [c]besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. [d]This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

4"Lie also on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5For I have laid on you the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; [e]so you shall bear the iniquity of the house

the distasteful calling of delivering a message that would not be well received. The prophet was angry and appalled. But God was present to help him deal with these feelings and then move him on to live and work among the captives.

3:17 a watchman. He stood on the city wall guarding against any external or internal threat. He would sound an alarm upon sighting impending danger (2 Sam. 18:24). God made Ezekiel a spiritual watchman over His people.

3:20 when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity. The prophet's responsibility was to warn, if he saw apostasy taking place. If he did not, he became culpable too. Even for the most devoted and the most saintly, righteousness can become something to spurn and iniquity can become something to embrace. God says that repudiation of righteousness leads to death.

3:26 not be one to rebuke them. This phrase qualified what was meant by Ezekiel's being mute. The idea may be better stated as "not be a legal mediator." During his "mute" period, Ezekiel would not be allowed to speak as a mediator on behalf of the people before God, their Judge.

3:27 He who hears, let him hear. Jesus used this warning often in His teaching (Mark 4:23). The phrasing emphasizes individual responsibility and readiness to accept the divine message.

4:1 take a clay tablet. The tablet would have been soft enough to inscribe with a stylus.

4:2 Lay siege. The city of Jerusalem would come under siege, meaning that the Babylonians would surround the city and cut off its outside supplies. The purpose was to starve its inhabitants into submission. By his symbolic drawing, Ezekiel may have been commanded to do what other "prophets" of the nations might do. That is, the hired "prophets" of pagan nations might use such a drawing as a device for invoking the gods to bring about the event graphically described. In Ezekiel's case, the drawing was the opposite of what the people wanted. As they sat in captivity, the worst news would have been that the holy city had been destroyed.

4:3 an iron plate. This was a plate that Ezekiel possessed as a priest; it was for baking grain for the grain offerings (Lev. 2:5; 6:21). Here its purpose was to represent a wall between Ezekiel and the city.

of Israel. 6And when you have completed them, lie again on your right side; then you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have laid on you a day for each year.

7"Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem; your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. 8[f]And surely I will restrain you so that you cannot turn from one side to another till you have ended the days of your siege.

9"Also take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them into one vessel, and make bread of them for yourself. During the number of days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it. 10And your food which you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time you shall eat it. 11You shall also drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin; from time to time you shall drink. 12And you shall eat it as barley cakes; and bake it using fuel of human waste in their sight."

13Then the LORD said, "So [g]shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, where I will drive them."

14So I said, [h]"Ah, Lord GOD! Indeed I have never defiled myself from my youth till now; I have never eaten [i]what died of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has [j]abominable flesh ever come into my mouth."

15Then He said to me, "See, I am giving you cow dung instead of human waste, and you shall prepare your bread over it."

16Moreover He said to me, "Son of man, surely I will cut off the [k]supply of bread in Jerusalem; they shall [l]eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and shall [m]drink water by measure and with dread, 17that they may lack bread and water, and be dismayed with one another, and [n]waste away because of their iniquity.

A Sword Against Jerusalem

5 "And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber's razor, [a]and pass it over your head and your beard; then take scales to weigh and divide the hair. 2[b]You shall burn with fire one-third in the midst of [c]the city, when [d]the days of the siege are finished; then you shall take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and one-third you shall scatter in the wind: I will draw out a sword after [e]them. 3[f]You shall also take a small number of them and bind them in the edge of your garment. 4Then take some of them again and [g]throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From there a fire will go out into all the house of Israel.

5"Thus says the Lord GOD: 'This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations and the countries all around her. 6She has rebelled against My judgments by doing wickedness more than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her; for they have refused My judgments, and they have not walked in My statutes.' 7Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have multiplied disobedience more than the nations that are all around you, have not walked in My statutes [h]nor kept My judgments, nor even done* according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you'— 8therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Indeed I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations. 9[i]And I will do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I will never do again, because of all your abominations. 10Therefore fathers [j]shall eat their sons in your midst, and sons shall

* 5:7 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate; many Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac read but have done (compare 11:12).

4:7 set your face toward the siege. As horrible as it was, the siege ultimately showed God's faithfulness to His covenant established in the days of Moses—that idolatry and disobedience would bring curses, which would include being conquered, captured and removed from the land (Deut. 28:15–68).

4:8 restrain you. Ezekiel was bound while lying on either side for the entire 430 days, but the activities described in Ezekiel 4:9–17 show that lying down and being tied up occurred only during parts of each day.

4:17 waste away because of their iniquity. The people had broken their covenant with God, and He had no choice but to bring upon them the promised consequences of their disobedience (Lev. 26:14–29).

5:1 a barber's razor, and pass it over your head and your beard. Shaving the head was an act showing shame or disgrace in Hebrew culture (7:18). It also represented a type of pagan mourning forbidden by the law (27:31). Shaving the head was a mark of defilement, making a priest like Ezekiel ritually unclean, and so unable to perform his duties in the temple (Lev. 21:5). This message was telling the people that they were about to be humiliated and defiled.

5:2 one-third. Each citizen of Jerusalem would suffer one of the three fates depicted by each of the three mounds of hair: (1) some would be burned along with the city or would die from plague, famine, or other siege conditions (5:12; 2 Kin. 25:9); (2) some would be murdered by the sword during the attack (5:12; 2 Kin. 25:18–21); and (3) some would be scattered in the wind—referring to the exile (5:12; 2 Kin. 25:11–17).

5:9–17 what I have never done. The elements in God's judgment on the people for their sins can be enumerated in this way: (1) a judgment that will be worse in extent than ever before; (2) a terrible famine that will lead to cannibalism; (3) pestilence, meaning plagues and diseases associated with famine; (4) violent death by sword or wild beasts; and (5) the scattering and killing of a remnant. [c]Pestilence and blood shall pass through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.'"

Judgment on Idolatrous Israel

6 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, [a]set your face toward the [b]mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, 3 and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys: "Indeed I, even I, will bring a sword against you, and [c]I will destroy your high places. 4 Then your altars shall be desolate, your incense altars shall be broken, and [d]I will cast down your slain men before your idols. 5 And I will lay the corpses of the children of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your bones all around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate, so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, your idols may be broken and made to cease, your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. 7 The slain shall fall in your midst, and [e]you shall know that I am the LORD.

8 [f]"Yet I will leave a remnant, so that you may have some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are [g]scattered through the countries. 9 Then those of you who escape will [h]remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, because [i]I was crushed by their adulterous heart which has departed from Me, and [j]by their eyes which play the harlot after their idols; [k]they will loathe themselves for the evils which they committed in all their abominations. 10 And they shall know that I am the LORD; I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them."

11 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [l]"Pound your fists and stamp your feet, and say, 'Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! [m]For they shall fall by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. 12 He who is far off shall die by the pestilence, he who is near shall fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine. [n]Thus will I spend My fury upon them. 13 Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain are among their idols all around their altars, [o]on every high hill, [p]on all the mountaintops, [q]under every green tree, and under every thick oak, wherever they offered sweet incense to all their idols.

punishments would come as the result of the people's idolatry.

6:2–3 high places. These were originally elevated locations for worship of the god Baal and other deities of the Canaanite pantheon. The term "high place" could be used of any location, whether hilltop or valley. Before entering the Promised Land, the Hebrews had been commanded to abolish all the high places where idols were worshiped (Num. 33:52).

6:4–6 cast down your slain men . . . lay the corpses . . . scatter your bones*. These phrases refer to God's judgment. Dead people lying unburied and bones scattered around signify the ultimate defilement of the land. God would bring this upon them because they had defiled and desecrated themselves by worshiping in the pagan high places.

6:13 Then you shall know that I am the LORD. As in verses 7 and 10, the Lord states the purpose of the coming destruction of His city and many of its people. The use of God's personal name further emphasizes the intent to bring His people back to a personal, intimate relationship with Himself.

6:13 God's Desire for Exclusiveness—God's point throughout the Book of Ezekiel is the same; His relationship with us is exclusive. He doesn't share that primary God-man relationship with anybody else or anything. As a model for exclusiveness, Ezekiel uses the marriage relationship. Exclusiveness is the

Judgment on Israel Is Near

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel:

[a]'An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.
3 Now the end has come upon you,
And I will send My anger against you;
I will judge you [b]according to your ways,
And I will repay you for all your
abominations.
4 [c]My eye will not spare you,
Nor will I have pity;
But I will repay your ways,
And your abominations will be in your
midst;
[d]Then you shall know that I am the LORD!'

5 "Thus says the Lord GOD:

'A disaster, a singular [e]disaster;
Behold, it has come!
6 An end has come,
The end has come;
It has dawned for you;
Behold, it has come!
7 [f]Doom has come to you, you who dwell
in the land;
[g]The time has come,
A day of trouble is near,
And not of rejoicing in the mountains.
8 Now upon you I will soon [h]pour out
My fury,
And spend My anger upon you;
I will judge you according to your ways,
And I will repay you for all your
abominations.

9 'My eye will not spare,
Nor will I have pity;
I will repay you according to your ways,
And your abominations will be in your
midst.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes.

10 'Behold, the day!
Behold, it has come!
[i]Doom has gone out;
The rod has blossomed,
Pride has budded.
11 [j]Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness;
None of them shall remain,
None of their multitude,
None of them;
[k]Nor shall there be wailing for them.
12 The time has come,
The day draws near.

'Let not the buyer [l]rejoice,
Nor the seller [m]mourn,
For wrath is on their whole multitude.
13 For the seller shall not return to what has been sold,
Though he may still be alive;
For the vision concerns the whole
multitude,
And it shall not turn back;
No one will strengthen himself
Who lives in iniquity.

14 'They have blown the trumpet and made everyone ready,
But no one goes to battle;
For My wrath is on all their multitude.
15 [n]The sword is outside,
And the pestilence and famine within.
Whoever is in the field
Will die by the sword;
And whoever is in the city,
Famine and pestilence will devour
him.

16 'Those who [o]survive will escape and be on the mountains
Like doves of the valleys,
All of them mourning,
Each for his iniquity.
17 Every [p]hand will be feeble,
And every knee will be as weak as water.
18 They will also [q]be girded with
sackcloth;
Horror will cover them;
Shame will be on every face,
Baldness on all their heads.

boundary that provides the shape to that relationship. It is the same with our relationship with God. When we violate God's desire for exclusiveness, we ruin our relationship with Him. God designed us for Himself alone. If we have anything less than an exclusive relationship with Him, we become less than what we were created to be.

7:2–3 the end. Three uses of this key word stressed that the fulfillment of the prophecy was at hand.

7:10 the rod has blossomed. The flowering of the rod indicates that the time to bring judgment was ripe. These words describe one whose time had come, a person marked by arrogance. In this case, it pictures the chosen instrument of God (Num. 17:5) with whom He would discipline Jerusalem and Judah—namely Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon and the characteristic representative of the arrogant and evil Babylonians.

7:12 Let not the buyer rejoice. The fact of coming judgment was so certain, and its effects would be so lasting and devastating, that transactions of buying and selling would be concluded improperly or not at all.

7:16–19 Those who survive will escape. Those left alive would hide in the hills and be characterized by

Because it became their stumbling block of iniquity.

Their detestable things;

I will do to them according to their way,

Abominations in the Temple

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house with [a]the elders of Judah sitting before me, that [b]the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there.
2 [c]Then I looked, and there was a likeness, like the appearance of fire—from the appearance of His waist and downward, fire; and from His waist and upward, like the appearance of brightness, [d]like the color of amber. 3 He [e]stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair; and [f]the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and [g]brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, [h]where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which [i]provokes to jealousy. 4 And behold, the [j]glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I [k]saw in the plain.

5 Then He said to me, "Son of man, lift your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the altar gate, was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

6 Furthermore He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great [l]abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations." 7 So He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, there was a hole in the wall.
8 Then He said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall"; and when I dug into the wall, there was a door.

9 And He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations which they are doing there." 10 So I went in and saw, and there—every [m]sort of [n]creeping thing, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed all around on the walls.
11 And there stood before them [o]seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan. Each man had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.
12 Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the room of his idols? For they say, [p]'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land.'" four things: (1) mourning; displaying their humiliation over sin by wearing sackcloth and shaving their heads (Is. 15:2); (2) weakness; (3) horror; and (4) disgust and disillusionment over wealth.

7:20 the beauty of his ornaments. The people had sinned horribly when they crafted idols out of the temple treasures and then worshiped what their hands had made (Rom. 1:25).

8:5–6 to make Me go far away from My sanctuary. The people thought that just because the temple stood among them, whatever wrong they might do could not bring ultimate disaster. They thought the temple guaranteed their security. They did not realize that their evil had caused God to leave His temple, which would then no longer be their protection.

8:11 seventy men. These men were the nation's leaders (Num. 11:16–25).

13And He said to me, "Turn again, and you will see greater abominations that they are doing." 14So He brought me to the door of the north gate of the LORD's house; and to my dismay, women were sitting there weeping for Tammuz.
15Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Turn again, you will see greater abominations than these." 16So
He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and there, at the door of the temple of the LORD, [q]between the porch and the altar, [r]were about twenty-five men [s]with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping [t]the sun toward the east.
17And He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abomi-nations which they commit here? For they have [u]filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger.
Indeed they put the branch to their nose.
18[v]Therefore I also will act in fury. My [w]eye will not spare nor will I have pity; and though they [x]cry in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

The Wicked Are Slain

9 Then He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, "Let those who have charge over the city draw near, each with a deadly weapon in his hand." 2And suddenly six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-ax in his hand. [a]One man among them was clothed with linen and had a writer's inkhorn at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.
3Now [b]the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the temple.* And He called to the man clothed with linen,
who had the writer's inkhorn at his side; 4and the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and put [c]a mark on the foreheads of the men [d]who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it."
5To the others He said in my hearing,
"Go after him through the city and [e]kill; [f]do not let your eye spare, nor have any pity.
6[g]Utterly slay old and young men, maidens and little children and women; but [h]do not come near anyone on whom is the mark;
and [i]begin at My sanctuary." [j]So they began with the elders who were before the temple. 7Then He said to them, "Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain.
Go out!" And they went out and killed in the city.
8So it was, that while they were killing them, I was left alone; and I [k]fell on my face and cried out, and said, [l]"Ah, Lord GOD!
Will You destroy all the remnant of Israel
in pouring out Your fury on Jerusalem?" 9Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and [m]the land is full of bloodshed,
and the city full of perversity; for they say, [n]'The LORD has forsaken the land, and [o]the LORD does not see!' 10And as for Me also,
My [p]eye will neither spare, nor will I have pity, but [q]I will recompense their deeds on their own head."
11Just then, the man clothed with linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

The Glory Departs from the Temple

10 And I looked, and there in the [a]firmament that was above the head of the cherubim, there appeared something like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2[b]Then He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said,
"Go in among the wheels, under the cherub, fill your hands with [c]coals of fire from among the cherubim, and [d]scatter them over the city." And he went in as I watched.
3Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple* when the man went in, and the [e]cloud filled the inner

8:13–14 Tammuz. This was a fertility god. The women were crying out to the idol because they had no children or because the crops were failing. In the sixth month, August-September, Tammuz was thought to "die" with the scorched land. Worshipers would wail over his death and cry for his resurgence.

8:17–18 they put the branch to their nose. This action is not mentioned elsewhere. In the context it appears to be (1) a ritualistic gesture used in idol worship, or (2) an action indicative of the extensive violence which was occurring in Judah as a result of idolatry.

9:5–6 Go after him through the city. The universality of this judgment is shocking to us; but this is in line with divine judgments from the time of the flood in Genesis to the final judgment described in Revelation.

9:6–7 My sanctuary. The corrupt spiritual leaders had been practicing idolatry and immorality in the temple itself (8:3–16). Judgment would begin with them because they had led the nation astray.

9:9 iniquity . . . bloodshed . . . perversity. These three reasons are given as the offenses that deserve this terrible outpouring of God's wrath. The people and especially rich rulers willfully chose to believe that God did not see or care what injustices went on.

10:3–5 the cloud filled the inner court. The cloud court. 4[f]Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and paused over the threshold of the temple; and [g]the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's [h]glory. 5And the [i]sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like [j]the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

6Then it happened, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim," that he went in and stood beside the wheels. 7And the cherub stretched out his hand from among the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and took some of it and put it into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out. 8[k]The cherubim appeared to have the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9[l]And when I looked, there were four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub and another wheel by each other cherub; the wheels appeared to have the color of a [m]beryl stone. 10*As for* their appearance, all four looked alike—as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel. 11[n]When they went, they went toward any of their four directions; they did not turn aside when they went, but followed in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went. 12And their whole body, with their back, their hands, their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were [o]full of eyes all around. 13As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "Wheel."

14[p]Each one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. 15And the cherubim were lifted up. This was [q]the living creature I saw by the River Chebar. 16[r]When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them. 17[s]When *the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when *one was lifted up, *the other lifted itself up, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18Then [t]the glory of the LORD [u]departed from the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim. 19And [v]the cherubim lifted their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them; and they stood at the door of the [w]east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

20[x]This is the living creature I saw under the God of Israel [y]by the River Chebar, and I knew they were cherubim. 21[z]Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22And [a]the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Chebar, their appearance and their persons. [b]They each went straight forward.

Judgment on Wicked Counselors

11 Then [a]the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to [b]the East Gate of the LORD's house, which faces eastward; and there [c]at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. 2And He said to me: "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and give wicked counsel in this city, 3who say, 'The time is not [d]near to build houses; [e]this city is the caldron, and we are the meat.' 4Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man!"

5Then [f]the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus says the LORD: "Thus you have said, O house of Israel; for [g]I know the things that come into your mind. 6[h]You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain." 7Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [i]"'Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this city is the caldron; [j]but I shall bring you out of the midst of it. 8You have represented God's glory (as in 1:4), which was seen moving from the inner court to the threshold of the temple. From there it filled the temple.

10:9–17 the first face was the face of a cherub. Whereas one of the four faces in 1:10 is an ox, here it is a cherub. These are ancient sculptures with animal bodies and wings but human faces. The difference of the faces between 1:10 and 10:14 should not be called an error; it is possible that the images that Ezekiel saw were changing from time to time.

10:20–22 and I knew they were cherubim. They sometimes serve as guardians (Gen. 3:24). They are associated with God's throne and presence (the mercy seat on the ark, Ex. 25:18–22; 1 Chr. 13:6). They are also associated with God's chariot-like throne (v. 1; 1:20–26; Ps. 18:10).

11:3 build houses. These officials were proclaiming that the inhabitants of Jerusalem were as secure behind the city's walls as meat was safe in its cooking pot. There was no impending doom, they said; therefore, new construction projects were encouraged.

I will judge you at [n]the border of Israel. [o]Then you shall know that I am the LORD. 11[p]This city shall not be your caldron, nor shall you be the meat in its midst. I will judge you at the border of Israel. 12And you shall know that I am the LORD; for you have not walked in My statutes nor executed My judgments, but [q]have done according to the customs of the Gentiles which are all around you."'"

13Now it happened, while I was prophesying, that [r]Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then [s]I fell on my face and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You make a complete end of the remnant of Israel?"

God Will Restore Israel

14Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 15"Son of man, your brethren, your relatives, your countrymen, and all the house of Israel in its entirety, are those about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Get far away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.' 16Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Although I have cast them far off among the Gentiles, and although I have scattered them among the countries, [t]yet I shall be a little sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone."' 17Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [u]"I will gather you from the peoples, assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel."' 18And they will go there, and they will take away all its [v]detestable things and all its abominations from there. 19Then [w]I will give them one heart, and I will put [x]a new spirit within them,* and take [y]the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, 20[z]that they may walk in My statutes and keep My judgments and do them; [a]and they shall be My people, and I will be their God. 21But as for those whose hearts follow the desire for their detestable things and their abominations, [b]I will recompense their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

22So the cherubim [c]lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high above them. 23And [d]the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood [e]on the mountain, [f]which is on the east side of the city.

24Then [g]the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea,* to those in captivity. And the vision that I had seen went up from me. 25So I spoke to those in captivity of all the things the LORD had shown me.

Judah's Captivity Portrayed

12 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 2"Son of man, you dwell in the midst of [a]a rebellious house, which [b]has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear; [c]for they are a rebellious house.

3"Therefore, son of man, prepare your belongings for captivity, and go into captivity by day in their sight. You shall go from your place into captivity to another place in their sight. It may be that they will consider, though they are a rebellious

* 11:19 Literally you * 11:24 Or Babylon, and so elsewhere in this book

11:13 Ah, Lord GOD. Ezekiel's reaction showed that Pelatiah, one of the corrupt city leaders (v. 1), was struck dead by God as undeniable proof that the prophet's message would come true. Ezekiel himself was awestruck and asked if this meant that God would not after all preserve a remnant.

11:15 your countrymen. The people in Jerusalem (representative of Judah) regarded the exiles as sinners because they had been deported to Babylon.

11:16 I shall be a little sanctuary. God explained to Ezekiel that the Hebrews taken captive and spread among foreign lands were actually the remnant whom God was protecting. God Himself would continue as their sanctuary—a word in Hebrew that literally means a "holy place."

11:18–20 they will take away all the detestable things. When the remnant returned to the land, they would abolish idolatry. At that time God would establish a new covenant with them (Jer. 31:31–34). Then God would pour out His Spirit (36:26–27; Joel 2:28–29) so that His people would become united in purpose and empowered to maintain their righteousness. They would finally and truly become His people (Ex. 6:6–8).

11:23 the glory of the LORD went up. The Hebrew term for "glory" literally means "weight" or "significance" and refers to the wonder and majesty of the living God.

11:24–25 Then the Spirit took me up. Ezekiel's visions are not merely dreams; they were inspired by God Himself and thus were prophetic. Chaldea. This is an alternative term for Babylon.

12:3–7 prepare your belongings for captivity. Ezekiel's next visual demonstration warned the captives already in Babylon that they should not expect a quick return to Jerusalem. He had already shown that the city would soon fall (chs. 4–5) and those not killed would be led into exile. These exiles should have understood Ezekiel's meaning.

house. 4By day you shall bring out your belongings in their sight, as though going into captivity; and at evening you shall go in their sight, like those who go into captivity. 5Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your belongings out through it. 6In their sight you shall bear them on your shoulders and carry them out at twilight; you shall cover your face, so that you cannot see the ground, [d]for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

7So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my belongings by day, as though going into captivity, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at twilight, and I bore them on my shoulder in their sight.

8And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9"Son of man, has not the house of Israel, [e]the rebellious house, said to you, [f]'What are you doing?' 10Say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "This [g]burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are among them."' 11Say, [h]'I am a sign to you. As I have done, so shall it be done to them; [i]they shall be carried away into captivity.' 12And [j]the prince who is among them shall bear his belongings on his shoulder at twilight and go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry them out through it. He shall cover his face, so that he cannot see the ground with his eyes. 13I will also spread My [k]net over him, and he shall be caught in My snare. [l]I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. 14[m]I will scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his troops; and [n]I will draw out the sword after them.

15[o]"Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. 16[p]But I will spare a few of their men from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the Gentiles wherever they go. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."

Judgment Not Postponed

17Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18"Son of man, [q]eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and anxiety. 19And say to the people of the land, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the land of Israel: "They shall eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with dread, so that her land may [r]be emptied of all who are in it, [s]because of the violence of all those who dwell in it. 20Then the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall become desolate; and you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

21And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 22"Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, which says, [t]'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails'? 23Tell them therefore, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will lay this proverb to rest, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel."' But say to them, [u]'"The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. 24For [v]no more shall there be any [w]false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. 25For I am the LORD. I speak, and [x]the word which I speak will come to pass; it will no more be postponed; for in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word and [y]perform it," says the Lord GOD.'"

26Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 27[z]"Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is [a]for many days from now, and he prophesies of times far off.' 28[b]Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "None of My words will be postponed any more, but the word which I speak [c]will be done," says the Lord GOD.'"

12:11–14 they shall be carried away into captivity. Speaking in 592 B.C., Ezekiel predicted the deportation of Jerusalem's population to Babylon six years later and prophesied exactly what would happen to their leader Zedekiah. The king would attempt to escape by night, secretly and in disguise; but he would be caught and blinded by the Babylonians, then carried off to Babylon where he would later die.

12:15–16 Then they shall know that I am the LORD. The defeat of God's people would not indicate the Lord's lack of strength, but the serious consequences of sin against Him. Yet He would demonstrate that His purpose had always been to restore His people to Himself (Heb. 12:1–11). Through the difficult experience, His people would learn that their God was both holy and loving. Sin offended Him, but He still would reach out to restore the sinner.

12:22 The days are prolonged, and every vision fails. This proverb among the exiles indicates how hardened they were to Ezekiel's prophecies. Although already captive, the people were cynical and apathetic, mistakenly thinking that a delay in judgment meant no judgment, at least in their lifetime (vv. 25,27–28; 2 Pet. 3:3–4).

12:23–25 The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. This proverb would replace the old one (v. 22), and false prophets opposing Ezekiel would cease to speak. The exiles would live to see the judgment on Jerusalem fulfilled.

Woe to Foolish Prophets

13 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, prophesy [a]against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to [b]those who prophesy out of their own [c]heart, 'Hear the word of the LORD!'"

8Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have spoken nonsense and envisioned lies, therefore I am indeed against you," says the Lord GOD. 9"My hand will be [h]against the prophets who envision futility and who [i]divine lies; they shall not be in the assembly of My people, [j]nor be written in the record of the house of Israel, [k]nor shall they enter into the land of Israel. [l]Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10"Because, indeed, because they have seduced My people, saying, [m]'Peace!' when there is no peace—and one builds a wall, and they [n]plaster it with untempered mortar— 11say to those who plaster it with untempered mortar, that it will fall. [o]There will be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it down. 12Surely, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the mortar with which you plastered it?'"

13Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it. 14So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. [p]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

15"Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, 'The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, 16that is,* the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who [q]see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,'" says the Lord GOD.

17"Likewise, son of man, [r]set your face against the daughters of your people, [s]who prophesy out of their own heart; prophesy against them, 18and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves* and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! Will you [t]hunt the souls of My people, and keep yourselves alive? 19And will you profane Me among My people [u]for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing people who should not die, and keeping people alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies?"

20'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against your magic charms by which you hunt souls there like birds. I will tear them from your arms, and let the souls go, the souls you hunt like birds. 21I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people out of your hand, and they shall no longer be as prey in your hand. [v]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

* 13:18 Literally over all the joints of My hands; Vulgate reads under every elbow; Septuagint and Targum read on all elbows of the hands.

13:2–4 foxes in the deserts. The word translated "deserts" conveys the idea of open, desolate places. In the immediate context (v. 5), the foxes are pictured roaming amid the rubble of ruined city walls. The prophets were fools because they confused their own thoughts with God's. They were like foxes among the ruins because they scavenged for themselves while causing, ignoring, and profiting from the human wreckage surrounding them.

13:5 the day of the LORD. This phrase refers to times when God triumphs (7:19; 30:3). It is particularly used by the prophets to describe those periods in which God is unusually active in the affairs of His people, either for deliverance or for judgment (Joel 2:1; Zeph. 1:7). In that day, God will actively bring about His purposes for the world; He will rescue the righteous and judge evildoers.

13:10–16 you shall be consumed in the midst of it. The false prophets would experience God's wrath—just as the walls of Jerusalem which were being constructed at that time would be destroyed. Jerusalem would be conquered and captured for the sins of its inhabitants. The preaching of a false peace had prompted people to build for a "certain" future, but only the opposite was certain. The false prophets had deceived the people with false hopes of comfort and prosperity (v. 10). Their deception placed them not only at odds with God's truth, but also with God Himself. Their destruction was certain.

13:17–19 set your face against the daughters of your people. The Hebrew women who were false prophetesses were confusing their own ideas with God's and casting magic death spells through sorcery or witchcraft (Lev. 19:26).

23Therefore [y]you shall no longer envision futility nor practice divination; for I will de-

Idolatry Will Be Punished

14 Now [a]some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. 2And
the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
3"Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their hearts, and put before them [b]that which causes them to stumble into iniquity. [c]Should I let Myself be inquired of at all by them?

4"Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols, 5that I may seize the house of Israel by their heart, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols."'

6"Therefore say to the house of Israel,
'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Repent, turn away from your idols, and [d]turn your faces away from all your abominations. 7For anyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who dwell in Israel, who separates himself from Me and sets up his idols in his heart and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, then comes to a prophet to inquire of him concerning
Me, I the LORD will answer him by Myself.
8[e]I will set My face against that man and make him a [f]sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of My people.
[g]Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

9"And if the prophet is induced to speak anything, I the LORD [h]have induced that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. 10And they shall bear their iniquity; the punishment of the prophet shall be the same as the punishment of the one who inquired, 11that the house of Israel may [i]no longer stray from Me, nor be profaned anymore with all their transgressions, [j]but that they may be My people and I may be their God," says the Lord GOD.'"

Judgment on Persistent Unfaithfulness

12The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: 13"Son of man, when a land sins against Me by persistent unfaithfulness, I will stretch out My hand against it;
I will cut off its [k]supply of bread, send famine on it, and cut off man and beast from it.
14[l]Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only themselves [m]by their righteousness," says
the Lord GOD.

15"If I cause [n]wild beasts to pass through the land, and they empty it, and make it so desolate that no man may pass through because of the beasts, 16*even* [o]though these three men were in it, as I live," says
the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters; only they would be delivered, and the land would be [p]desolate.

17"Or if [q]I bring a sword on that land, and say, 'Sword, go through the land,' and I [r]cut off man and beast from it, 18even [s]though
these three men were in it, as I live," says
the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but only they themselves would be delivered.

19"Or if I send [t]a pestilence into that land and [u]pour out My fury on it in blood, and cut off from it man and beast, 20even [v]though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness."

21For thus says the Lord GOD: "How much more it shall be when [w]I send My four severe judgments on Jerusalem—the sword and famine and wild beasts and pestilence—to cut off man and beast from it? 22[x]Yet behold, there shall be left in it a remnant who will be [y]brought out, both sons and daughters; surely they will come out to you, and [z]you will see their ways and 14:1–3 some of the elders of Israel. God revealed to Ezekiel that this group consisted of double-minded men (1 Kin. 18:21; Matt. 6:24; James 1:5–8). Outwardly, they came to seek a word from God through His true prophet Ezekiel, but in their hearts they harbored loyalties to other gods.

14:5 seize the house of Israel by their heart. These words announce God's restorative purpose (Prov. 3:12; Rev. 3:19) in allowing sin to run its course.

14:8 I will cut him off from the midst of My people. The unrepentant idolater would be separated not only from God, but also from God's people (13:9). This experience would be a strong visual warning and an international example—proverb—of God's absolute honoring of His promise to punish disobedience with cursing (Lev. 20:1–7).

14:9–11 they shall bear their iniquity. The relationship between God's sovereignty and human responsibility is implicit in these verses. God allows false preaching for His own inscrutable purposes,

Then you will be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought upon Jerusalem, all that I have brought upon it. 23And they will comfort you, when you see their ways and their doings; and you shall know that I have done nothing [a]without cause that I have done in it," says the Lord GOD.

The Outcast Vine

15 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 2"Son of man, how is the wood of the vine better than any other wood, the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3Is wood taken from it to make any object? Or can men make a peg from it to hang any vessel on? 4Instead, [a]it is thrown into the fire for fuel; the fire devours both ends of it, and its middle is burned. Is it useful for any work? 5Indeed, when it was whole, no object could be made from it. How much less will it be useful for any work when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned?

6"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem; 7and [b]I will set My face against them. [c]They will go out from one fire, but another fire shall devour them. [d]Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them. 8Thus I will make the land desolate, because they have persisted in unfaithfulness,' says the Lord GOD."

God's Love for Jerusalem

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, [a]cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, 3and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: "Your birth [b]and your nativity are from the land of Canaan; [c]your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. 4*As for* your nativity, [d]on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not rubbed with salt nor wrapped in swaddling cloths. 5No eye pitied you, to do any of these things for you, to have compassion on you; but you were thrown out into the open field, when you yourself were loathed on the day you were born.

6"And when I passed by you and saw you struggling in your own blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' 7[e]I made you thrive like a plant in the field; and you grew, matured, and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed, your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

8"When I passed by you again and looked upon you, indeed your time was the time of love; [f]so I spread My wing over you and covered your nakedness. Yes, I [g]swore an oath to you and entered into a [h]covenant with you, and [i]you became Mine," says the Lord GOD.

9"Then I washed you in water; yes, I thoroughly washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil. 10I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of badger skin; I clothed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. 11I adorned you with ornaments, [j]put bracelets on your wrists, [k]and a chain on your neck. 12And I put a jewel in your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen, but the preacher is held accountable for the content of the message. These were Israelite false prophets who deliberately ignored the truth and mixed it with falsehood.

15:6 the vine among the trees of the forest. Unlike an olive tree whose wood is also useful, the vine has only one use, to bear grapes.

15:6–8 another fire shall devour them. God had designed the people of Israel for a particular purpose, to bring glory to His name by living faithfully to His covenant and by bringing the nations to the knowledge of the Lord. Instead, Israel had become like the pagan nations around them.

16:2 cause Jerusalem to know her abominations. What follows is an animated development of the dreary story, designed to teach errant Jerusalem the real nature of her character in the eyes of God. The word "abominations" describes that which makes one physically ill.

16:3 your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. These shocking words refer to the cultural and moral origins of Jerusalem. Ancient Canaan was inhabited by Semitic and non-Semitic peoples. The Amorites and Hittites are associated in Scripture with the southern hill country, where Jerusalem is (Num. 13:29). The point is that non-Israelites founded this city. Jebusites controlled it when the Israelites entered the land under Joshua (Josh. 15:8). Israel did not obtain full control of the city until David conquered it (2 Sam. 5:6–7). In other words, Israel was not as pure as it thought it was.

16:4 you were not rubbed with salt. God reminds Jerusalem that He had rescued them from being like an abandoned newborn child—unwashed, unsanitary, and exposed to the elements to die. God alone has given her glory.

16:6 Live. Ezekiel warned the Jews remaining in Jerusalem to repent, reminding them that not merely their existence, but their living relation to God, was dependent upon His free grace. God alone is the Author of eternal life, just as He is Creator of all life (John 5:24).

16:7–9 Your breasts were formed. The city is compared to a young woman, mature and lovely. Yet it was naked and bare until God covered it with a relationship of covenantal love. This began when David moved the ark of the covenant there and silk, and embroidered cloth. [l]You ate pastry of fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly [m]beautiful, and succeeded to royalty. 14[n]Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor which I had bestowed on you," says the Lord GOD.

Jerusalem's Harlotry

15[o]"But you trusted in your own beauty, [p]played the harlot because of your fame, and poured out your harlotry on everyone passing by who would have it. 16[q]You took some of your garments and adorned multicolored high places for yourself, and played the harlot on them. Such things should not happen, nor be. 17You have also taken your beautiful jewelry from My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself male images and played the harlot with them. 18You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set My oil and My incense before them. 19Also [r]My food which I gave you—the pastry of fine flour, oil, and honey which I fed you—you set it before them as sweet incense; and so it was," says the Lord GOD.

20[s]"Moreover you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your acts of harlotry a small matter, 21that you have slain My children and offered them up to them by causing them to pass through the [t]fire? 22And in all your abominations and acts of harlotry you did not remember the days of your [u]youth, [v]when you were naked and bare, struggling in your blood.

23"Then it was so, after all your wickedness—'Woe, woe to you!' says the Lord GOD—24*that* [w]you also built for yourself a shrine, and [x]made a high place for yourself in every street. 25You built your high places [y]at the head of every road, and made your beauty to be abhorred. You offered yourself to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your acts of harlotry. 26You also committed harlotry with [z]the Egyptians, your very fleshly neighbors, and increased your acts of harlotry to [a]provoke Me to anger.

27"Behold, therefore, I stretched out My hand against you, diminished your allotment, and gave you up to the will of those who hate you, [b]the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd behavior. 28You also played the harlot with the [c]Assyrians, because you were insatiable; indeed you played the harlot with them and still were not satisfied. 29Moreover you multiplied your acts of harlotry as far as the land of the trader, [d]Chaldea; and even then you were not satisfied.

30"How degenerate is your heart!" says the Lord GOD, "seeing you do all these things, the deeds of a brazen harlot.

Jerusalem's Adultery

31[e]"You erected your shrine at the head of every road, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were not like a harlot, because you scorned [f]payment. 32*You are* an adulterous wife, who takes strangers instead of her husband. 33Men make payment to all harlots, but [g]you made your payments to all your lovers, and hired them to come to you from all around for your harlotry. 34You are the opposite of other women in your harlotry, because no one solicited you to be a harlot. In that you gave payment but no payment was given you, therefore you are the opposite."

Jerusalem's Lovers Will Abuse Her

35'Now then, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD! 36Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your harlotry with your lovers, and with all your abominable idols, and because of [h]the blood of your children which you gave to them, 37surely, therefore, [i]I will gather all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, and all those you hated; I will gather them from all around against you and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. 38And I will judge you as [j]women who break wedlock or [k]shed blood are judged; I will bring blood upon you in fury and jealousy. 39I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines and break down [l]your high places. [m]They

God established the covenant with David (2 Sam. 6:1—7:17).

16:15 you trusted in your own beauty. These words indict God's people for forgetting that their fame and fortune were God's gifts and not their own doing (v. 14). They relied on themselves and their gifts instead of on God. They came to believe that their material wealth and health as a nation absolutely demonstrated God's approval of their spiritual life, even though they were becoming spiritually corrupt.

16:27–29 played the harlot. Jerusalem's kings had sought political alliances with Assyria (2 Kin. 15:17–20) and Babylon (2 Kin. 20:12–19) instead of relying on their God for security. Probably a part of the treaty-making ceremonies was to worship the other nation's god. For Israel to do this would be a violation of the First Commandment.

16:36 your filthiness was poured out. Jerusalem was filthy spiritually because the city had soiled itself shall also strip you of your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

40 [n]"They shall also bring up an assembly against you, [o]and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords. 41 They shall [p]burn your houses with fire, and [q]execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will make you [r]cease playing the harlot, and you shall no longer hire lovers. 42 So [s]I will lay to rest My fury toward you, and My jealousy shall depart from you. I will be quiet, and be angry no more. 43 Because [t]you did not remember the days of your youth, but agitated Me* with all these things, surely [u]I will also recompense your deeds on y*our own* head," says the Lord GOD. "And you shall not commit lewdness in addition to all your abominations.

More Wicked than Samaria and Sodom

44 "Indeed everyone who quotes proverbs will use this proverb against you: 'Like mother, like daughter!' 45 You are your mother's daughter, loathing husband and children; and you are the [v]sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and children; [w]your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46 "Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells with her daughters to the north of you; and [x]your younger sister, who dwells to the south of you, is Sodom and her daughters. 47 You did not walk in their ways nor act according to their abominations; but, as if that were too little, [y]you became more corrupt than they in all your ways.

48 "As I live," says the Lord GOD, "neither [z]your sister Sodom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done. 49 Look, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughter had pride, [a]fullness of food, and abundance of idleness; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50 And they were haughty and [b]committed abomination before Me; therefore [c]I took them away as I saw fit.*

51 "Samaria did not commit [d]half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and [e]have justified your sisters by all the abominations which you have done. 52 You who judged your sisters, bear your own shame also, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs; they are more righteous than you. Yes, be disgraced also, and bear your own shame, because you justified your sisters.

53 [f]"When I bring back their captives, the captives of Sodom and her daughters, and the captives of Samaria and her daughters, then I will also bring back [g]the captives of your captivity among them, 54 that you may bear your own shame and be disgraced by all that you did when [h]you comforted them. 55 When your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters return to their former state, then you and your daughters will return to your former state. 56 For your sister Sodom was not a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered. It was like the time of the [i]reproach of the daughters of Syria* and all those around her, and of [j]the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you everywhere. 58 [k]You have paid for your lewdness and your abominations," says the LORD. 59 For thus says the Lord GOD: "I will deal with you as you have done, who [l]despised [m]the oath by breaking the covenant.

An Everlasting Covenant

60 "Nevertheless I will [n]remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish [o]an everlasting covenant with you. 61 Then [p]you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your

by worshiping foreign idols and practicing infanticide (vv. 20–21; Deut. 12:29–32).

16:41 I will make you cease playing the harlot. During the captivity, Israel would abandon idolatry and polytheism, as Ezekiel predicted. God's anger over the people's sin would be satisfied.

16:44–47 Samaria . . . Sodom. Along with Jerusalem, these three are presented as sisters in the religiously and morally corrupt cultures in Canaan. Ezekiel even makes the point that Jerusalem had become more corrupt than the other two.

16:53–59 who despised the oath by breaking the covenant. The punishment of the exile and captivity was appropriate. The clear promise of the covenant was that blessings and curses were dependent upon Israel's obedience or disobedience (Ex. 24; Lev. 26; Deut. 28–29).

16:60–63 Nevertheless I will remember. Despite Jerusalem's disobedience to the Mosaic covenant and the resulting punishment, the covenant with Abraham—My covenant—would still be honored. Fulfillment of the covenant with Abraham did not depend on the people's faithfulness; God had made

The Eagles and the Vine

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, pose a riddle, and speak a [q]parable to the house of Israel, 3and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[b]"A great eagle with large wings and long pinions,
Full of feathers of various colors,
Came to Lebanon
And [c]took from the cedar the highest branch.
4 He cropped off its topmost young twig
And carried it to a land of trade;
He set it in a city of merchants.
5 Then he took some of the seed of the land
And planted it in [d]a fertile field;
He placed it by abundant waters
And set it [e]like a willow tree.
6 And it grew and became a spreading vine [f]of low stature;
Its branches turned toward him,
But its roots were under it.
So it became a vine,
Brought forth branches,
And put forth shoots.

7 "But there was another* great eagle with large wings and many feathers;
And behold, [g]this vine bent its roots toward him,
And stretched its branches toward him,
From the garden terrace where it had been planted,
That he might water it.
8 It was planted in good soil by many waters,
To bring forth branches, bear fruit,
And become a majestic vine."'

9"Say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Will it thrive?
[h]Will he not pull up its roots,
Cut off its fruit,
And leave it to wither?
All of its spring leaves will wither,
And no great power or many people
Will be needed to pluck it up by its roots.
10 Behold, it is planted,
Will it thrive?
[i]Will it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it?
It will wither in the garden terrace where it grew."'"

11Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12"Say now to [j]the rebellious house: 'Do you not know what these things mean?' Tell them, 'Indeed [k]the king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and took its king and princes, and led them with him to Babylon. 13[l]And he took the king's offspring, made a covenant with him, [m]and put him under oath. He also took away the mighty of the land, 14that the kingdom might be [n]brought low and not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15But [o]he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, [p]that they might give him horses and many people. [q]Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and still be delivered?

the promise and He would keep it (Gen. 15; 17:7–8; Lev. 26:40–45; Ps. 145:13). The everlasting covenant had been made with Abraham before the Hebrew nation even existed. This covenant would be remembered and reestablished with the exiled Judeans. At that time, God's people would be ashamed by the contrast between their faithlessness and God's faithfulness and the fact that they were being exalted over those who were less sinful—Sodom and Samaria. The people of these other sinful nations would also inherit land, but only by God's grace, because no such covenant was made with them.

17:2–10 pose a riddle, and speak a parable. Both of these words can be used to refer to an allegory. The "parable" primarily refers to a comparison between two things. A "riddle" was sometimes used as a political contest of mental competition between kings, in which the loser would submit to the winner and be killed. The details of the allegory: great eagle is the king of Babylon (v. 12); Lebanon symbolizes Canaan, of which Jerusalem (v. 12) is the major city; the highest branch of the cedar is the king of Jerusalem and Judah (v. 12); the young twigs refers to the nobility of Judah; the city of merchants is Babylon; the seed is a member of the royal family (v. 13); the fertile field is the land where this royal offspring would rule (vv. 13–14); another great eagle is the king of Egypt (v. 15); and the vine is the remnant and ruler left in Judah. This remnant failed to prosper because they made a treaty with the Egyptian Pharaoh. As a result, even the remnant was slain and scattered by Babylon's army (vv. 15–21).

17:11–21 Say now to the rebellious house. Since Ezekiel had preached earlier about Jerusalem's past abominations (ch. 16), the people were likely

I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs [a]a tender one, and will [b]plant it on a high and prominent mountain. 23[c]On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it; and it will bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a majestic cedar. A False Proverb Refuted

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2"What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying:

'The [a]fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children's teeth are set on edge'?

3"As I live," says the Lord GOD, "you shall no longer use this proverb in Israel.

4 "Behold, all souls are [b]Mine;
The soul of the father
As well as the soul of the son is Mine;
[c]The soul who sins shall die.
5 But if a man is just

6 [d]If he has not eaten on the mountains,
Nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
Nor [e]defiled his neighbor's wife,
Nor approached [f]a woman during her impurity;
7 If he has not [g]oppressed anyone,
But has restored to the debtor his [h]pledge;
Has robbed no one by violence,
But has [i]given his bread to the hungry
And covered the naked with [j]clothing;
8 If he has not exacted [k]usury
Nor taken any increase,
But has withdrawn his hand from iniquity
And [l]executed true judgment between man and man;
9 If he has walked in My statutes
And kept My judgments faithfully—
He is just;
He shall surely [m]live!"
Says the Lord GOD.

charging God with unfairness in punishing the present population. Ezekiel points out that present and past sins make God's actions just and fair. In this section, the Lord explains His grounds for using Babylon to judge Judah.

17:22 I will take also. The Hebrew is emphatic: "I Myself will take." In contrast to human kings, God declared that He personally would pick out, plant, and make prominent "a tender one," that is a twig or a sprig. Cedar branches are symbolic of rulers on the Davidic throne (17:3–4,12–13) and elsewhere of a line of David's descendants prophesied to produce the Messiah (2 Sam. 7:16; Is. 11:1–5; Jer. 22:24–30; Zech. 6:9–13; Matt. 1:1–17).

17:23–24 made the dry tree flourish. What was accomplished in the restoration under Zerubbabel was a fulfillment of this promise. But as is often the case, in biblical prophecy, the greater fulfillment is still to come in the reign of the Savior King.

18:2–3 set on edge. The Hebrew word that is rendered here is literally "made dull" but can refer to a sour sensation. The main idea of the proverb is that children are affected by their parents' behavioral choices just as eating sour grapes produces a bitter taste. However, the people were interpreting and applying this proverb incorrectly; therefore, God said they should not use it any longer.

18:4 The soul who sins shall die. In this verse, the physical, earthly consequences of sinful behavior are being addressed (3:16–21; 33:12–20; Deut. 30:15–20).

18:6 approached a woman during her impurity. In ancient Israel, intimacy during the woman's menstrual period was prohibited. The Old Testament does not explain the reason for this, but it may be tied to the special role of blood for the atoning of sin (Lev. 15:19–33).

Not restored the pledge,
Lifted his eyes to the idols,
Or [o]committed abomination;

Or taken increase—
Shall he then live?
He shall not live!
If he has done any of these abominations,
He shall surely die;
[p]His blood shall be upon him.

14 "If, however, he begets a son
Who sees all the sins which his father has done,

But has given his bread to the hungry
And covered the naked with clothing;
17 Who has withdrawn his hand from the poor*
And not received usury or increase,
But has executed My judgments
And walked in My statutes—
He shall not die for the iniquity of his father;

18 "As for his father,
Because he cruelly oppressed,
Robbed his brother by violence,

Turn and Live

19 "Yet you say, 'Why [s]should the son not bear the guilt of the father?' Because the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and observed them, he shall surely live. 20 [t]The soul who sins shall die. [u]The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. [v]The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, [w]and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.

21 "But [x]if a wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is lawful and right, he shall surely live; he shall not die. 22 [y]None of the transgressions which he has committed shall be remembered against him; because of the righteousness which he has done, he shall [z]live. 23 [a]Do I have any pleasure at all that the wicked should die?" says the Lord GOD, "and not that he should turn from his ways and live?

24 "But [b]when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? [c]All the righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he shall die.

25 "Yet you say, [d]'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair? 26 [e]When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies. 27 Again, [f]when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does what is lawful and right, he preserves himself alive. 28 Because he [g]considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. 29 [h]Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair?

30 [i]"Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways," says the Lord GOD. [j]"Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin. 31 [k]Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a [l]new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel? 32 For [m]I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies," says the Lord GOD. "Therefore turn and [n]live!"

* 18:17 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads iniquity (compare verse 8).

18:19–32 Why should the son not bear the guilt of the father? In this passage, Ezekiel further clarifies his teaching on individual responsibility for sin by answering certain questions that reflect what his audience might be thinking in response to his previous message. God's response to their questions through Ezekiel is, in part, also composed of questions.

And [b]he became a young lion;
He learned to catch prey,
And he devoured men.
[4] The nations also heard of him;
He was trapped in their pit,
And they brought him with chains to the land of [c]Egypt.

And laid waste their cities;
The land with its fullness was desolated
By the noise of his roaring.
[8] [g]Then the nations set against him from the provinces on every side,
And spread their net over him;
[h]He was trapped in their pit.

They brought him in nets,

of rulers.
[m]She towered in stature above the thick
branches,
And was seen in her height amid the [12] But she was [n]plucked up in fury,

She was cast down to the ground,
And the [o]east wind dried her fruit.
Her strong branches were broken and withered;
The fire consumed them.
[13] And now she is planted in the wilderness,
In a dry and thirsty land.
[14] [p]Fire has come out from a rod of her
branches
And devoured her fruit,
So that she has no strong branch—
a scepter for ruling.'"

'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live," says the Lord GOD, [b]"I will not be inquired of by you."'
[4]Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Then [c]make known to them the abominations of their fathers.

of the house of Jacob, and made Myself raised My hand in an oath to them, saying, [f]'I am the LORD your God.' [6]On that day I raised My hand in an oath to them,

19:2–10 lioness . . . vine in your bloodline. Most likely both of these terms represented the nation of Israel since each was a "mother" of kings—the "cubs" and the "branches." The vine and lion images are common symbols for Hebrew royalty and nationality (15:1–6; 17:1–10; Gen. 49:9).

19:13 In a dry and thirsty land. To anyone who loved the covenantal promises focused on God's worship in Jerusalem, any alternative to Jerusalem was akin to living in the desert.

20:2–4 I will not be inquired of by you. God explains to Ezekiel that the elders of Israel had forfeited any right to inquire of Him due to the abominations of their fathers. All the people are responsible for their own sins, and this does not mean that these Hebrews were paying for sins their ancestors had committed. Instead, the present generation of Hebrews in exile had clearly shown their failure to learn practical lessons from history, and thus had condemned themselves to repeat many mistakes. These leaders came to God with questions, but the questions were foolish and demonstrated the people's sinfulness. God gives a remedial review of their past.

of all lands. 7Then I said to them, 'Each of you, [i]throw away [k]the abominations which are before his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with [l]the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.' 8But they rebelled against Me and would not obey Me. They did not all cast away the abominations which were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said, 'I will [m]pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.' 9[n]But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles among whom they were, in whose sight I had made Myself [o]known to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

10"Therefore I [p]made them go out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. 11[q]And I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgments, [r]'which, if a man does, he shall live by them.'* 12Moreover I also gave them My [s]Sabbaths, to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. 13Yet the house of Israel [t]rebelled against Me in the wilderness; they did not walk in My statutes; they [u]despised My judgments, [v]'which, if a man does, he shall live by them';* and they greatly [w]defiled My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them in the [x]wilderness, to consume them. 14[y]But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned before the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out. 15So [z]I also raised My hand in an oath to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, [a]'flowing with milk and honey,'* [b]the glory of all lands, 16[c]because they despised My judgments and did not walk in My statutes, but profaned My Sabbaths; for [d]their heart went after their idols. 17[e]Nevertheless My eye spared them from destruction. I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

18"But I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19I am the LORD your God: [f]Walk in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them; 20[g]hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God.'

21"Notwithstanding, [h]the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes, and were not careful to observe My judgments, [i]'which, if a man does, he shall live by them';* but they profaned My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury on them and fulfill My anger against them in the wilderness. 22Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and acted for My name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the Gentiles, in whose sight I had brought them out. 23Also I raised My hand in an oath to those in the wilderness, that [j]I would scatter them among the Gentiles and disperse them throughout the countries, 24[k]because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes, profaned My Sabbaths, and [l]their eyes were fixed on their fathers' idols.

25"Therefore [m]I also gave them up to statutes that were not good, and judgments by which they could not live; 26and I pronounced them unclean because of their ritual gifts, in that they caused all their firstborn to pass [n]through the fire, that I might make them desolate and that they [o]might know that I am the LORD."'

27"Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In this too your fathers have [p]blasphemed Me, by being unfaithful to Me. 28When I brought them into the land concerning which I had raised My hand in an oath to give them, and [q]they saw all the high hills and all the thick trees, there they offered their sacrifices and provoked Me with their offerings. There they also sent up their [r]sweet aroma and poured out their drink offerings. 29Then I said to them, 'What is this high place to which you go?' So its name is called Bamah* to this day."' 30Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you defiling yourselves in the manner of your

20:11 if a man does, he shall live by them. Following their exodus from slavery in Egypt, God began to sanctify the Israelites by revealing to them a code of law and entering a covenant relationship with them on a Creator-creature basis. This does not teach that eternal salvation can be earned by good works, but that the quality of the believer's physical and spiritual life on earth are related to his or her obedience to the living God.

20:12 gave them My Sabbaths. This is an important verse for understanding the Sabbath (Ex. 20:8–11; Deut. 5:12–15). Sabbath means "rest." That is, the Sabbath was a day to cease all ordinary work or labor, as clearly emphasized in Exodus 20:8–11. The Sabbath was to serve as a sign of God's covenantal relationship with His people, Israel.

20:20 hallow My Sabbaths. This word means "to treat as holy," "to observe as distinct," and "to consecrate." God commands that His Sabbaths be continually maintained by His people as sacred—distinct and separate from ordinary days.

God Will Restore Israel

33"As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely with a mighty hand, [x]with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out, I will rule over you. 34I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with fury poured out. 35And I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there [y]I will plead My case with you face to face. 36[z]Just as I pleaded My case with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will plead My case with you," says the Lord GOD.

37"I will make you [a]pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the [b]covenant; 38[c]I will purge the rebels from among you, and those who transgress against Me; I will bring them out of the country where they dwell, but [d]they shall not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

39"As for you, O house of Israel," thus says the Lord GOD: [e]"Go, serve every one of you his idols—and hereafter—if you will not obey Me; [f]but profane My holy name no more with your gifts and your idols. 40For [g]on My holy mountain, on the mountain height of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "there [h]all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, shall serve Me; there [i]I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the firstfruits of your sacrifices, together with all your holy things. 41I will accept you as a [j]sweet aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered; and I will be hallowed in you before the Gentiles. 42[k]Then you shall know that I am the LORD, [l]when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I raised My hand in an oath to give to your fathers. 43And [m]there you shall remember your ways and all your doings with which you were defiled; and [n]you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight because of all the evils that you have committed. 44[o]Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you [p]for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways nor according to your corrupt doings, O house of Israel," says the Lord GOD.'"

Fire in the Forest

45Furthermore the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 46[q]"Son of man, set your face toward the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest land, the South,* 47and say to the forest of the South, 'Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, [r]I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour [s]every green tree and every dry tree in you; the blazing flame shall not be quenched, and all faces [t]from the south to the north shall be scorched by it. 48All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched."'"

20:32 We will be like the Gentiles. Chosen to be a nation separate from sin and secular ways—a special instrument to reveal God's glory—Israel's consistent tendency was to identify with the neighboring ungodly nations and to take on their idolatrous ways (Ex. 19:5).

20:33–36 I will bring you out from the peoples. The judgment of captivity in Babylon had begun in the deportations of 605 and 597 B.C. and would be continued with Jerusalem's fall in 586 B.C. However, God also promised to restore Judah and to judge her enemies with fury (Deut. 4:34). This refers to the Persian conquest of Babylon in 539 B.C. and to the three returns of the Jews to their land and the rebuilding of their homeland (538–330 B.C.), yet Israel would again be taken captive and made to wander throughout the nations during the Roman occupation.

20:37 I will make you pass under the rod. This is the way a shepherd counts and controls his sheep (Lev. 27:32; Jer. 33:13).

20:39 Go, serve every one of you his idols. This is an ironic command; the rest of the verse indicates that God was giving the stubborn people over to what they had decided. God grants each one a destiny consistent with his or her decisions.

20:44 you shall know that I am the LORD. The promise of this verse is that the Lord will gather the nation of Israel from places where they have been dispersed and that they will repent because of the evil things they have done.

holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel; 3and say to the land of Israel, 'Thus says the LORD: "Behold, I am [c]against you, and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off both [d]righteous and wicked from you. 4Because I will cut off both righteous and wicked from you, therefore My sword shall go out of its sheath against all flesh [e]from south to north, 5that all flesh may know that I, the LORD, have drawn My sword out of its sheath; it [f]shall not return anymore."' 6[g]Sigh therefore, son of man, with a breaking heart, and sigh with bitterness before their eyes. 7And it shall be when they say to you, 'Why are you sighing?' that you shall answer, 'Because of the news; when it comes, every heart will melt, [h]all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it is coming and shall be brought to pass,' says the Lord GOD."

8Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 9"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD!' Say:

[i]'A sword, a sword is sharpened
And also polished!
10 Sharpened to make a dreadful slaughter,
Polished to flash like lightning!
Should we then make mirth?
It despises the scepter of My son,
As it does all wood.
11 And He has given it to be polished,
That it may be handled;
This sword is sharpened, and it is polished
To be given into the hand of [j]the slayer.'

12 "Cry and wail, son of man;
For it will be against My people,
Against all the princes of Israel.
Terrors including the sword will be against My people;
Therefore [k]strike your thigh.

13 "Because it is [l]a testing,
And what if the sword despises even the scepter?
[m]The scepter shall be no more,"

says the Lord GOD.

14 "You therefore, son of man, prophesy,
And [n]strike your hands together.
The third time let the sword do double damage.
It is the sword that slays,
The sword that slays the great men,
That enters their [o]private chambers.
15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates,
That the heart may melt and many may stumble.
Ah! [p]It is made bright;
It is grasped for slaughter:

16 "Swords[q] at the ready!
Thrust right!
Set your blade!
Thrust left—
Wherever your edge is ordered!

17 "I also will [r]beat My fists together,
And [s]I will cause My fury to rest;
I, the LORD, have spoken."

18The word of the LORD came to me again, saying: 19"And son of man, appoint for yourself two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to go; both of them shall go from the same land. Make a sign; put it at the head of the road to the city. 20Appoint a road for the sword to go to [t]Rabbah of the Ammonites, and to Judah, into fortified Jerusalem. 21For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the road, at the fork of the two roads, to use divination: he shakes the arrows, he consults the images, he looks at the liver. 22In his right hand is the divination for Jerusalem: to set up battering rams, to call for a slaughter, to [u]lift the voice with shouting, [v]to set battering rams against the gates, to heap up a siege mound, and to build a wall. 23And it will be to them like a false divination in the eyes of those who [w]have sworn oaths with them; but he will bring their iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

24"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear—because you have come to remembrance, you shall be taken in hand.

land of Judah—the southern kingdom—which had more trees then than now.

21:6 a breaking heart. This phrase translates words that literally mean "breaking loins," suggesting great emotional upheaval.

21:12 Cry and wail . . . strike your thigh. Ezekiel was told to add verbal groans and a physical gesture to his musical message. In that culture, these actions displayed great grief and sorrow (Jer. 31:19).

21:14–17 The third time . . . double damage. This was a numeric device (Prov. 6:16) used here to emphasize the extent and effectiveness of the sword's employment against Judah.

21:19–20 Make a sign. Ezekiel was to place a signpost at a fork in the road leading to the capital cities of Ammon and Judah.

21:21 shakes the arrows. There was a method of casting lots using arrows inscribed with names. They were shaken about in the quiver and then dropped to the ground like throwing dice. looks at the liver. Sheep livers from sacrificed animals were studied. The shades and shapes of various sections of the organ were the basis for a positive or negative prediction.

A Sword Against the Ammonites

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD [c]concerning the Ammonites and concerning their reproach,' and say:

'A sword, a sword is drawn,
Polished for slaughter,
For consuming, for flashing—
29 While they [d]see false visions for you,
While they divine a lie to you,
To bring you on the necks of the wicked, the slain
[e]Whose day has come,
Whose iniquity shall end.
30 'Return[f] it to its sheath.
[g]I will judge you
In the place where you were created,
[h]In the land of your nativity.
31 I will [i]pour out My indignation on you;
I will [j]blow against you with the fire of My wrath,
And deliver you into the hands of brutal men who are skillful to [k]destroy.
32 You shall be fuel for the fire;
Your blood shall be in the midst of the land.
[l]You shall not be remembered,
For I the LORD have spoken.'"

Sins of Jerusalem

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 "Now, son of man, [a]will you judge, will you judge [b]the bloody city? Yes, show her all her abominations! 3 Then say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The city sheds [c]blood in her own midst, that her time may come; and she makes idols within herself to defile herself. 4 You have become guilty by the blood which you have [d]shed, and have defiled yourself with the idols which you have made. You have caused your days to draw near, and have come to the end of your years; [e]therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mockery to all countries. 5 Those near and those far from you will mock you as infamous and full of tumult.

6 "Look, [f]the princes of Israel: each one has used his power to shed blood in you. 7 In you they have [g]made light of father and mother; in your midst they have [h]oppressed the stranger; in you they have mistreated the fatherless and the widow. 8 You have despised My holy things and [i]profaned My Sabbaths. 9 In you are [j]men who slander to cause bloodshed; [k]in you are those who eat on the mountains; in your midst they commit lewdness. 10 In you men [l]uncover their fathers' nakedness; in you they violate women who are [m]set apart during their impurity. 11 One commits abomination [n]with his neighbor's wife; [o]another lewdly defiles his daughter-in-law; and another in you violates his sister, his father's [p]daughter. 12 In you [q]they take bribes to shed blood; [r]you take usury and increase; you have made profit from your neighbors by extortion, and [s]have forgotten Me," says the Lord GOD.

13 "Behold, therefore, I [t]beat My fists at the dishonest profit which you have made, and at the bloodshed which has been in your midst. 14 [u]Can your heart endure, or can your hands remain strong, in the days when I shall deal with you? [v]I, the LORD, have spoken, and will do it. 15 [w]I will scatter you among the nations, disperse you throughout the countries, and [x]remove your filthiness completely from you. 16 You shall defile yourself in the sight of the nations; then [y]you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

21:26–27 turban . . . crown. These stand for the priesthood and kingship. Both would be removed from Judah.

21:28 concerning the Ammonites. The Ammonites joined other nations east of the Jordan in raiding Judean territory, in return for protection from Nebuchadnezzar. Later, during the reign of Zedekiah, Ammon, Moab, Edom, and others conspired against Babylon, but with false hopes of help from Egypt (Jer. 27:3–11).

22:1–5 You have caused your days to draw near. The city was ripe for judgment. When such hypocrisy is exposed and punishment is executed before the world, God's people become lasting objects of ridicule.

22:6–12 the princes of Israel. Jerusalem's princes had shed the blood of innocent people (7:27; 11:1; 12:10; 19:1; 21:13). These evil leaders had been (1) taking advantage of parents and the weak; (2) rejecting God and His covenant, leading to ungodliness and inhumanity; (3) murdering the innocent by slandering them; (4) preferring idolatrous religion and its immoral rituals; (5) engaging in sexual immorality with neighbors, family, and relatives; and (6) loving money and using it to get ahead of fellow citizens.

Israel in the Furnace

17 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 "Son of man, [z]the house of Israel has become dross to Me; they are all bronze, tin, iron, and lead, in the midst of a [a]furnace; they have become dross from silver.
19 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. 20 As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the midst of a furnace, to blow fire on it, to [b]melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will leave you there and melt you. 21 Yes,
I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. 22 As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so shall you be melted in its midst; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have [c]poured out My fury on you.'"

Israel's Wicked Leaders

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 "Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that is [d]not cleansed* or rained on in the day of indignation.' 25 [e]The conspiracy of her prophets* in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing the prey; they [f]have devoured people; [g]they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in her midst. 26 [h]Her priests have violated My law and [i]profaned My holy things; they have not [j]distinguished between the holy and unholy, nor have they made known the difference between the unclean and the clean; and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.
27 Her [k]princes in her midst are like wolves tearing the prey, to shed blood, to destroy people, and to get dishonest gain. 28 [l]Her prophets plastered them with untempered mortar, [m]seeing false visions, and divining [n]lies for them, saying, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' when the LORD had not spoken.
29 The people of the land have used oppressions, committed robbery, and mistreated
the poor and needy; and they wrongfully [o]oppress the stranger. 30 [p]So I sought for a man among them who would [q]make a wall, and [r]stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. 31 Therefore I have [s]poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; and I have recompensed [t]their deeds on their own heads," says the Lord GOD.

Two Harlot Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:

2 "Son of man, there were [a]two women,
The daughters of one mother.
3 [b]They committed harlotry in Egypt,
They committed harlotry in [c]their
youth;
Their breasts were there embraced,
Their virgin bosom was there pressed.
4 Their names: Oholah* the elder and Oholibah* [d]her sister;
[e]They were Mine,
And they bore sons and daughters.
As for their names,
Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

The Older Sister, Samaria

5 "Oholah played the harlot even though she was Mine;
And she lusted for her lovers, the neighboring [f]Assyrians, 6 Who were clothed in purple,
Captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young men,
Horsemen riding on horses.
7 Thus she committed her harlotry with
them,
All of them choice men of Assyria;
And with all for whom she lusted,
With all their idols, she defiled herself.
8 She has never given up her harlotry brought [g]from Egypt,
For in her youth they had lain with her,
Pressed her virgin bosom,
And poured out their immorality upon
her.
9 "Therefore I have delivered her
Into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the [h]Assyrians,
For whom she lusted.

22:26 Her priests. Those who were supposed to be leaders were not examples of separation from worldly ways (Ex. 19:6). Some at least were motivated by monetary gain (Mic. 3:11).

22:28 plastered them with untempered mortar. The false prophets were involved in "whitewashing" the sins of the nation's leaders.

22:30 sought for a man among them. God could not find a spiritual leader to guide the people in godliness.

23:4 Oholah. In Hebrew, Oholah means "her own tabernacle" and Oholibah means "My tabernacle is in her." These seem to refer to God's sanctuaries in each land or, in a distinct usage, to the tent shrines for Canaanite idols as opposed to God's true temple.

23:9–10 They uncovered her nakedness. This means to be stripped bare and so put to great shame.

10 They uncovered her nakedness,
Took away her sons and daughters,
And slew her with the sword;
She became a byword among women,
For they had executed judgment on her.

The Younger Sister, Jerusalem

11 "Now [i]although her sister Oholibah saw this, [j]she became more corrupt in her lust than she, and in her harlotry more corrupt than her sister's harlotry.

12 "She lusted for the neighboring [k]Assyrians,
[l]Captains and rulers,
Clothed most gorgeously,
Horsemen riding on horses,
All of them desirable young men.
13 Then I saw that she was defiled;
Both took the same way.
14 But she increased her harlotry;
She looked at men portrayed on the wall,
Images of [m]Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion,
15 Girded with belts around their waists,
Flowing turbans on their heads,
All of them looking like captains,
In the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea,
The land of their nativity.
16 [n]As soon as her eyes saw them,
She lusted for them
And sent [o]messengers to them in Chaldea.

17 "Then the Babylonians came to her,
into the bed of love,
And they defiled her with their immorality;
So she was defiled by them, [p]and alienated herself from them.
18 She revealed her harlotry and uncovered her nakedness.
Then [q]I [r]alienated Myself from her,
As I had alienated Myself from her sister.

19 "Yet she multiplied her harlotry
In calling to remembrance the days of her youth,
[s]When she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
20 For she lusted for her paramours, Whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys,
And whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21 Thus you called to remembrance the
lewdness of your youth,
When the [t]Egyptians pressed your bosom
Because of your youthful breasts.

Judgment on Jerusalem

22 "Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD:

[u]'Behold, I will stir up your lovers
against you,
From whom you have alienated yourself,
And I will bring them against you
from every side:
23 The Babylonians,
All the Chaldeans,
[v]Pekod, Shoa, Koa,
[w]All the Assyrians with them,
All of them desirable young men,
Governors and rulers,
Captains and men of renown,
All of them riding on horses.
24 And they shall come against you With chariots, wagons, and war-horses,
With a horde of people.
They shall array against you
Buckler, shield, and helmet all around.

'I will delegate judgment to them,
And they shall judge you according to their judgments.
25 I will set My [x]jealousy against you,
And they shall deal furiously with you;
They shall remove your nose and your ears,
And your remnant shall fall by the sword;
They shall take your sons and your daughters,
And your remnant shall be devoured
by fire.
26 [y]They shall also strip you of your clothes
And take away your beautiful jewelry.

27 'Thus [z]I will make you cease your lewdness and your [a]harlotry
Brought from the land of Egypt,
So that you will not lift your eyes to
them,
Nor remember Egypt anymore.'

Ezekiel is reminding his audience of how God already had judged Samaria through Assyrian conquest and captivity in 722 B.C. (2 Kin. 17:5–41).

23:14 She looked at men portrayed on the wall. These lines tell how Judean envoys to Babylon became enamored of Babylonian rulers and their power through pictures (Jer. 22:14) on their palace and temple walls.

23:17–18 she was defiled by them. This is an allusion to Judah's turning in disappointment and disgust from relying on Babylon to relying on Egypt (2 Kin. 23:28—24:1). God's alienation from Jerusalem is an allusion to the city's coming defeat by Nebuchadnezzar.

23:24 Buckler. This was a large rectangular shield.

28"For thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I will deliver you into the hand of [b]those you hate, into the hand of those [c]from whom you alienated yourself. 29[d]They will deal hatefully with you, take away all you have worked for, and [e]leave you naked and bare.
The nakedness of your harlotry shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotry. 30I will do these things to you because you have [f]gone as a harlot after the Gentiles, because you have become defiled by their idols. 31You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will put her [g]cup in your hand.'

32"Thus says the Lord GOD:

'You shall drink of your sister's cup,
The deep and wide one;
[h]You shall be laughed to scorn
And held in derision;
It contains much.
33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
The cup of horror and desolation,
The cup of your sister Samaria.
34 You shall [i]drink and drain it,
You shall break its shards,
And tear at your own breasts;
For I have spoken,'
Says the Lord GOD.

35"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

'Because you [j]have forgotten Me and [k]cast Me behind your back,
Therefore you shall bear the penalty
Of your lewdness and your harlotry.'"

Both Sisters Judged

36The LORD also said to me: "Son of man, will you [l]judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then [m]declare to them their abominations. 37For
they have committed adultery, and [n]blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and even sacrificed their sons [o]whom they bore to Me, passing them through the fire, to devour them. 38Moreover they have done this to Me: They have [p]defiled My sanctuary on the same day and [q]profaned My Sabbaths.
39For after they had slain their children for their idols, on the same day they came into My sanctuary to profane it; and indeed [r]thus they have done in the midst of My house.

40"Furthermore you sent for men to come from afar, [s]to whom a messenger was sent;
and there they came. And you [t]washed yourself for them, [u]painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments. 41You sat on a stately [v]couch, with a table prepared before it, [w]on which you had set My incense and My oil. 42The sound of a carefree multitude was with her, and Sabeans were brought from the wilderness with men of the common sort, who put bracelets on their wrists and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43Then I said concerning her who had grown old in adulteries, 'Will they commit harlotry with her now, and she with them?' 44Yet they went in to her, as men go in to a woman who plays the harlot;
thus they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, the lewd women. 45But righteous men will [x]judge them after the manner of adulter-esses, and after the manner of women who shed blood, because they are adulteresses, and [y]blood is on their hands.

46"For thus says the Lord GOD: [z]'Bring up an assembly against them, give them up to trouble and plunder. 47[a]The assembly shall stone them with stones and execute them with their swords; [b]they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn their houses with fire. 48Thus [c]I will cause lewdness to cease from the land, [d]that all women may be taught not to practice your lewdness. 49They shall repay you for your lewdness, and you shall [e]pay for your idolatrous sins. [f]Then you shall know that I am
the Lord GOD.'"

Symbol of the Cooking Pot

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month,
the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2"Son of man, write down the name of the day, this very day—the king of Babylon started his siege against Jerusalem [a]this very day. 3[b]And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, 'Thus says
the Lord GOD:

[c]"Put on a pot, set it on,
And also pour water into it.
4 Gather pieces of meat in it,
Every good piece,
The thigh and the shoulder.
Fill it with choice cuts;
5 Take the choice of the flock.
Also pile fuel bones under it,
Make it boil well,
And let the cuts simmer in it."

23:32–34 You shall drink of your sister's cup. The cup is often symbolic of God's judgment (Ps. 75:7–8; Jer. 25:15–29). The phrase portrays how completely Judah would drink the cup of wrath, breaking what was already broken. tear at your own breasts. This image gives a picture of the resultant agony and anguish.

24:1–2 write down the name of the day. This would be a bitter reminder of God's trustworthiness to do what He promised through the prophets.

6 ‘Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“Woe to [d]the bloody city,
To the pot whose scum is in it,
And whose scum is not gone from it!
Bring it out piece by piece,
On which no [e]lot has fallen.
7 For her blood is in her midst;
She set it on top of a rock;
[f]She did not pour it on the ground,
To cover it with dust.
8 That it may raise up fury and take vengeance,
[g]I have set her blood on top of a rock,
That it may not be covered.”

9 ‘Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

[h]“Woe to the bloody city!
I too will make the pyre great.
10 Heap on the wood,
Kindle the fire;
Cook the meat well,
Mix in the spices,
And let the cuts be burned up.
11 “Then set the pot empty on the coals,
That it may become hot and its bronze may burn,
That [i]its filthiness may be melted in it,
That its scum may be consumed.
12 She has grown weary with lies,
And her great scum has not gone from her.
Let her scum be in the fire!
13 In your [j]filthiness is lewdness.
Because I have cleansed you, and you were not cleansed,
You will [k]not be cleansed of your filthiness anymore,
[l]Till I have caused My fury to rest upon you.
14 [m]I, the LORD, have spoken it;
[n]It shall come to pass, and I will do it;
I will not hold back,
[o]Nor will I spare,
Nor will I relent;
According to your ways
And according to your deeds
They* will judge you,”
Says the Lord GOD.’”

The Prophet’s Wife Dies

15 Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 16 “Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with one stroke; yet you shall [p]neither mourn nor weep, nor shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh in silence, [q]make no mourning for the dead; [r]bind your turban on your head, and [s]put your sandals on your feet; [t]do not cover your lips, and do not eat man’s bread of sorrow.”

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died; and the next morning I did as I was commanded.

19 And the people said to me, [u]“Will you not tell us what these things signify to us, that you behave so?”

20 Then I answered them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 ‘Speak to the house of Israel, “Thus says the Lord GOD: ‘Behold, [v]I will profane My sanctuary, your arrogant boast, the desire of your eyes, the delight of your soul; [w]and your sons and daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword. 22 And you shall do as I have done; [x]you shall not cover your lips nor eat man’s bread of sorrow. 23 Your turbans shall be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; [y]you shall neither mourn nor weep, but [z]you shall pine away in your iniquities and mourn with one another. 24 Thus [a]Ezekiel is a sign to you; according to all that he has done you shall do; [b]and when this comes, [c]you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.’”

25 ‘And you, son of man—will it not be in the day when I take from them [d]their stronghold, their joy and their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters: 26 that on that day [e]one who escapes will come to you to let you hear it with your ears? 27 [f]On that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you shall speak and no longer be mute. Thus you will be a sign to them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.’”

people (ch. 34). bones. Bones were sometimes used as fuel for fire.

24:6 no lot has fallen. God does not play favorites; His judgment would fall equally on all inhabitants of the city, for they all had sinned.

24:16 you shall neither mourn nor weep. This command of God may be one of the hardest ever given to one of His servants. The picture of Ezekiel’s wife dying and Ezekiel not being allowed to grieve illustrated God’s pain over the death of His wife—Jerusalem—and His inability to mourn because the nation deserved the punishment. Ezekiel was called by God to be a sign to the exiles by demonstrating what they should do in response to the “death” of their desire and delight—their nation and its capital city. What Ezekiel was commanded to accept and do illustrated the degree of personal sacrifice and separation from ordinary life that the prophetic ministry often required. A long period of mourning was normal in the ancient Middle East.

24:21 the delight of your soul. The entire phrase means something like the “object of your affections.” The Judeans had the wrong kind of pride about the temple. Instead of the temple being a place of worship and the house of God, the Judeans took pride in the building as a sign of their importance.

24:22–24 sign. When Jerusalem fell, God would

Proclamation Against Ammon

25 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, [a]set your face [b]against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them. 3Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD: [c]"Because you said, 'Aha!' against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity, 4indeed, therefore, I will deliver you as a possession to the men of the East, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings among you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. 5And I will make [d]Rabbah [e]a stable for camels and Ammon a resting place for flocks. [f]Then you shall know that I am the LORD."

6'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you [g]clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and [h]rejoiced in heart with all your disdain for the land of Israel, 7indeed, therefore, I will [i]stretch out My hand against you, and give you as plunder to the nations; I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish from the countries; I will destroy you, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

Proclamation Against Moab

8'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because [j]Moab and [k]Seir say, 'Look! The house of Judah is like all the nations,' 9therefore, behold, I will clear the territory of Moab of cities, of the cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and [l]Kirjathaim. 10[m]To the men of the East I will give it as a possession, together with the Ammonites, that the Ammonites [n]may not be remembered among the nations. 11And I will execute judgments upon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Proclamation Against Edom

12'Thus says the Lord GOD: [o]"Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them," 13therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword. 14[p]I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance," says the Lord GOD.

Proclamation Against Philistia

15'Thus says the Lord GOD: [q]"Because [r]the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the old hatred," 16therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [s]"I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the [t]Cherethites [u]and destroy the remnant of the seacoast. 17I will [v]execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; [w]and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I lay My vengeance upon them."'"

Proclamation Against Tyre

26 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, [a]because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, [b]'Aha! She is broken who was the gateway of the peoples; now she is turned over to me; I shall be filled; she is laid waste.'

3"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers; I will also scrape her dust from her, and [c]make her like the top of a rock. 5It shall be a place for spreading nets [d]in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken,' says the Lord GOD; 'it shall become plunder for the nations. 6Also her daughter villages which are in the fields shall be slain by the sword. [e]Then they shall know that I am the LORD.'

prove Himself as trustworthy and righteous, and Ezekiel as His true prophet (v. 27). you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. The trials that the Israelites were going through would prompt them to depend on the Lord and know that He is holy.

25:2 set your face against the Ammonites. This country corresponds roughly to the present-day country of Jordan with its capital Amman.

25:4 men of the East. This is another title for the Babylonians (21:31). Ancient historical records mention Ammon's subjugation by Nebuchadnezzar five years after the fall of Jerusalem. Arab invaders came to dominate the territory, and Persian control began about 530 B.C.

25:8–12 Moab and Seir. Moab was south of Ammon and east of the Dead Sea. Seir (Edom) was located south of Moab. They were the descendants of Esau.

25:15 Philistines. The Philistines were along the Mediterranean coast in southwest Palestine.

I will bring against Tyre from the north [f]Nebuchadnezzar* king of Babylon, [g]king of kings, with horses, with chariots, and with horsemen, and an army with many people. 8 He will slay with the sword your daughter villages in the fields; he will [h]heap up a siege mound against you, build a wall against you, and raise a defense against you. 9 He will direct his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. 10 Because of the abundance of his horses, their dust will cover you; your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen, the wagons, and the chariots, when he enters your gates, as men enter a city that has been breached. 11 With the hooves of his [i]horses he will trample all your streets; he will slay your people by the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground. 12 They will plunder your riches and pillage your merchandise; they will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses; they will lay your stones, your timber, and your soil in the [j]midst of the water. 13 [k]I will put an end to the sound of [l]your songs, and the sound of your harps shall be heard no more. 14 [m]I will make you like the top of a rock; you shall be *a place

the Lord GOD.

15 "Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: 'Will the coastlands not [n]shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded cry, when slaughter is made in the midst of you?
16 Then all the [o]princes of the sea will [p]come down from their thrones, lay aside their robes, and take off their embroidered garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; [q]they will sit on the ground, [r]tremble every moment, and [s]be astonished at you. 17 And they will take up a [t]lamentation for you, and say to you:

"How you have perished,
O one inhabited by seafaring men,
O renowned city,
Who was [u]strong at sea,
She and her inhabitants,
Who caused their terror to be on all her inhabitants!
18 Now [v]the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall;
Yes, the coastlands by the sea are troubled at your departure."'

19 "For thus says the Lord GOD: 'When I make you a desolate city, like cities that are not inhabited, when I bring the deep upon you, and great waters cover you, 20 then I will bring you down [w]with those who descend into the Pit, to the people of old, and I will make you dwell in the lowest part of the earth, in places desolate from antiquity, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you may never be inhabited; and I shall establish glory [x]in the land of the living. 21 [y]I will make you a terror, and you shall be no more; [z]though you are sought for, you will never be found again,'
says the Lord GOD."

Lamentation for Tyre

27 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, 2 "Now, son of man, [a]take up a lamentation for Tyre, 3 and say to Tyre, [b]'You who are situated at the entrance of the sea, [c]merchant of the peoples on many coastlands, thus says the Lord GOD:

"O Tyre, you have said,
[d]'I am perfect in beauty.'

seas.
Your builders have perfected your beauty.
5 They made all your planks of fir trees
from [e]Senir;
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make you a mast.

your planks

26:7–14 I will make you like the top of a rock. This prophecy of Tyre's fate had two steps. First the Babylonian army under Nebuchadnezzar laid siege to it, and Persia defeated it in about 525 B.C. Then in 322 B.C. Alexander the Great defeated it again when his army built a causeway a half mile long between the shore and the city on its island. He tore down defensive walls to build the causeway.

27:1–25 take up a lamentation for Tyre. Prosperity often leads to pride, which results in the abandonment of God (Deut. 18:11–14). Jerusalem and Tyre both claimed to be unique, the former because of her exclusive claim to true religion and the latter because of the exclusive emphasis on material gain. Yet the wealth of Tyre vanished quickly.

27:14 Togarmah. This phrase may refer to the people of Armenia in eastern Asia Minor (38:6).

27:15 Dedan. This may have been "Redan" or Rhodes, which was a major trading center in the southern Aegean Sea.

27:17 balm. Balm was an aromatic resin or other gummy substance that may have had medicinal value (Jer. 8:22).

27:19 cassia. Cassia was either a type of cinnamon tree or a plant from which perfume and incense were made. cane. This refers to an oil-producing reed found in swamps.

27:21 Kedar. Kedar was a nomadic tribe in Arabia.

27:22 Sheba and Raamah. These places were located near Arabia (Gen. 10:6–7).

27:23 Canneh, Eden . . . Chilmad. These three places were probably in Mesopotamia, most likely south of Haran.

They will [e]take up a lamentation,
And lament for you:
[f]'What city is like Tyre,
Destroyed in the midst of the sea?
33 'When[g] your wares went out by sea,
You satisfied many people;
You enriched the kings of the earth
With your many luxury goods and [i]Your merchandise and the entire

Their kings will be greatly afraid,
And their countenance will be troubled.
36 The merchants among the peoples

[l]You will become a horror, and be no

Proclamation Against the King of Tyre

28 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2"Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because your heart is [a]lifted up,
And [b]you say, 'I am a god,
I sit in the seat of gods,
[c]In the midst of the seas,'
[d]Yet you are a man, and not a god,
Though you set your heart as the heart of a god
3 (Behold, [e]you are wiser than Daniel!
There is no secret that can be hidden
from you!
4 With your wisdom and your understanding
You have gained [f]riches for yourself,
And gathered gold and silver into your
treasuries;
5 [g]By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches,
And your heart is lifted up because of your riches),"

6'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"Because you have set your heart as the heart of a god,
7 Behold, therefore, I will bring
[h]strangers against you,
[i]The most terrible of the nations;
And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom,
And defile your splendor.
8 They shall throw you down into the [j]Pit,
And you shall die the death of the slain
In the midst of the seas.

9 "Will you still [k]say before him who slays you,
'I am a god'?
But you shall be a man, and not a god,
In the hand of him who slays you.
10 You shall die the death of [l]the uncircumcised
By the hand of aliens;
For I have spoken," says the Lord GOD.'"

Lamentation for the King of Tyre

11Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12"Son of man, [m]take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[n]"You were the seal of perfection,
Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
13 You were in [o]Eden, the garden of God;
Every precious stone was your covering:
The sardius, topaz, and diamond,
Beryl, onyx, and jasper,
Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold.
The workmanship of [p]your timbrels
and pipes
Was prepared for you on the day you were created.

14 "You were the anointed [q]cherub who

I established you;
You were on [r]the holy mountain of
God;
You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones.

28:2 Because your heart is lifted up. Ezekiel rebuked the king of Tyre for imagining that by his wisdom he had acquired his riches of silver and gold. He had filled the city with violence because of the abundance and unrighteousness of his trade. God would therefore bring a ruthless nation against him.
28:10 the death of the uncircumcised. This term denotes a disgraceful death (31:18).
28:12 king of Tyre. The lamentation is for the king of Tyre because he is exhibiting the character and attitudes of Satan. seal of perfection. This is more literally "the one sealing a plan." In effect, the king affixed the official seal of his signet ring to the plans that made Tyre one of the leading centers of commerce in that day.

28:14 cherub. Satan was a created being (v. 13). He does not have the characteristics of God. He belonged to the order of angels called cherubim. the

Proclamation Against Sidon

20 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, [x]set your face [y]toward Sidon, and prophesy against her,
22 and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[z]"Behold, I am against you, O Sidon;
I will be glorified in your midst;
And [a]they shall know that I am the
LORD,
When I execute judgments in her and am [b]hallowed in her.
23 [c]For I will send pestilence upon her,
And blood in her streets;
The wounded shall be judged in her
midst
By the sword against her on every side;
Then they shall know that I am the
LORD.

24 "And there shall no longer be a pricking brier or [d]a painful thorn for the house of Israel from among all who are around them, who [e]despise them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

Israel's Future Blessing

25 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "When I have [f]gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am [g]hallowed in them in the sight of the Gentiles, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob.
26 And they will [h]dwell safely there, [i]build houses, and [j]plant vineyards; yes, they will dwell securely, when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God."'"

Proclamation Against Egypt

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
2 "Son of man, [a]set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and [b]against all Egypt. 3 Speak, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[c]"Behold, I am against you,
O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
O great [d]monster who lies in the midst of his rivers,
[e]Who has said, 'My River* is my own;
I have made it for myself.'
4 But [f]I will put hooks in your jaws,
And cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales;
I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,
And all the fish in your rivers will stick to your scales.

* 29:3 That is, the Nile

holy mountain of God. The focus here seems to be on the king of Tyre's attempt to enter into the council of the gods. So instead of the verse referring to the king's presence in Jerusalem, it could refer more logically to a Phoenician ritual, the celebration of their patron god Melqart's fiery resurrection. This king wanted to imitate Melqart.

28:15 perfect. Satan was not created evil. iniquity. The Bible does not say where this iniquity came from, but his sin was pride (1 Tim. 3:6).

28:16–19 the abundance of your trading. The expression is most easily and appropriately applied to the human king who was the driving force behind the development of Tyre's commercial empire.

28:17 because of your beauty. This was part of the sin of pride, which made Satan want to be like the Most High (Is. 14:13–14). cast you to the ground. Jesus said that He saw Satan fall (Luke 10:18).

28:24 a pricking brier or a painful thorn. These words refer to the nations around Israel who had been enemies and evil influences. When the judgments were executed fully, these nations would no longer be able to harass and oppress Israel.

29:3 great monster. The Pharaoh is pictured here as a crocodile. Pharaoh's arrogant pride is described by his words about the Nile River, "I have made it for myself."

29:4–5 I will put hooks in your jaws. Whereas verse 3 explains why Pharaoh would be punished, these

You shall fall on the open [g]field;

And to the birds of the heavens.

6 "Then all the inhabitants of Egypt
Shall know that I am the LORD,
Because they have been a [j]staff of reed to the house of Israel.
7 [k]When they took hold of you with the hand,
You broke and tore all their shoulders;*
When they leaned on you,
You broke and made all their backs quiver."

8 'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
"Surely I will bring [l]a sword upon you and cut off from you man and beast. 9And the land of Egypt shall become [m]desolate and waste; then they will know that I am the LORD, because he said, 'The River is mine, and I have made it.' 10Indeed, therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, [n]and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, [o]from Migdol* to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia. 11[p]Neither foot of man shall pass through it nor foot of beast pass through it, and it shall be uninhabited forty years. 12[q]I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and among the cities that are laid waste, her cities shall be desolate forty years; and I will [r]scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries."

13 'Yet, thus says the Lord GOD: "At the [s]end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples among whom they were scattered. 14I will bring back the captives of Egypt and cause them to return to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin, and there they shall be a [t]lowly kingdom. 15It shall be the lowliest of kingdoms; it shall never again exalt itself above the nations, for I will diminish them so that they will not rule over the nations anymore. 16No longer shall it be [u]the confidence of the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity when they turned to follow them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD."'"

Babylonia Will Plunder Egypt

17And it came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18"Son of man, [v]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor strenuously against Tyre; every head was made [w]bald, and every shoulder rubbed raw; yet neither he nor his army received wages from Tyre, for the labor which they expended on it. 19Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I will give the land of Egypt to [x]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he shall take away her wealth, carry off her spoil, and remove her pillage; and that will be the wages for his army. 20I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor, because they [y]worked for Me,' says the Lord GOD.

21 'In that day [z]I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to spring forth, and I will [a]open your mouth to speak in their midst. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.'"

Egypt and Her Allies Will Fall

30 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, 2"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

[a]"Wail, 'Woe to the day!'
3 For [b]the day is near,
Even the day of the LORD is near;
It will be a day of clouds, the time of the Gentiles.
4 The sword shall come upon Egypt,
And great anguish shall be in Ethiopia,
When the slain fall in Egypt,
And they [c]take away her wealth,
And [d]her foundations are broken down.

verses explain how the punishment would be accomplished. The imagery pictures a crocodile being caught, carried out of the water onto land, and left as carrion.

29:8 sword. Here is another reference to the Babylonian army under Nebuchadnezzar, the predicted human instrument of God's coming wrath (21:1–7, 9–11,19–20).

29:10 Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia. This phrase refers to places most likely near the northern and southern boundaries of ancient Egypt, indicating the totality of the land (Judg. 20:1). The desolation would extend to the land south of Egypt—ancient Nubia, which is modern Sudan.

29:14–15 land of Pathros. This was southern Egypt. It would thereafter never again dominate other nations.

29:18 every head was made bald. The siege of Tyre was protracted, lasting about 13 years.

29:21 In that day. This refers to the day when Egypt would fall to Babylon, and a prophecy about the Messiah should not be read into this text.

Those within her shall fall by the sword,"
Says the Lord GOD.

7 "They[g] shall be desolate in the midst of the desolate countries,

By the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him, [j]the most terrible of the nations,
Shall be brought to destroy the land;
They shall draw their swords against Egypt,
And fill the land with the slain.
12 [k]I will make the rivers dry,
And [l]sell the land into the hand of the wicked;
I will make the land waste, and all that is in it,
By the hand of aliens.
I, the LORD, have spoken."

13 Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will also [m]destroy the idols,
And cause the images to cease from Noph;*
[n]There shall no longer be princes from the land of Egypt;
[o]I will put fear in the land of Egypt.
14 I will make [p]Pathros desolate,

15 I will pour My fury on Sin,* the strength of Egypt;

Then they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

Proclamation Against Pharaoh

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 "Son of man, I have [w]broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, [x]it has not been bandaged for healing, nor a splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword. 22 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Surely I am [y]against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will [z]break his arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand. 23[a]I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries. 24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings

30:9 day of Egypt. This was the day that Egypt and her allies would be conquered. It was part of a larger period of God's judgment on the nations outside Israel by means of Babylon; in fact, Ezekiel describes the Babylonians as "messengers" sent from God Himself.

30:21 I have broken the arm of Pharaoh. The prophecy refers to Pharaoh Hophra's unsuccessful attempt to relieve the siege of Jerusalem just a few months earlier (29:2,6–7). God used Nebuchadnezzar to defeat the Egyptian army.

Egypt Cut Down Like a Great Tree

31 Now it came to pass in the [a]eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

[b]'Whom are you like in your greatness?
3 [c]Indeed Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon,
With fine branches that shaded the
forest,
And of high stature;
And its top was among the thick boughs.
4 [d]The waters made it grow;
Underground waters gave it height,
With their rivers running around the place where it was planted,
And sent out rivulets to all the trees of
the field.
5 'Therefore [e]its height was exalted above all the trees of the field;
Its boughs were multiplied,
And its branches became long because of the abundance of water,
As it sent them out.
6 All the [f]birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs;
Under its branches all the beasts of the field brought forth their young;
And in its shadow all great nations made their home.
7 'Thus it was beautiful in greatness and in the length of its branches, Because its roots reached to abundant
waters.
8 The cedars in the [g]garden of God
could not hide it;
The fir trees were not like its boughs,
And the chestnut* trees were not like its branches;
No tree in the garden of God was like
it in beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with a multitude of
branches,
So that all the trees of Eden envied it,
That were in the garden of God.'

10"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: 'Because you have increased in height, and it set its top among the thick boughs, and [h]its heart was lifted up in its height, 11therefore I will deliver it into the hand of the [i]mighty one of the nations, and he shall surely deal with it; I have driven it out for its wickedness. 12And aliens, [j]the most terrible of the nations, have cut it down and left it; its branches have fallen [k]on the mountains and in all the valleys; its boughs lie [l]broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the peoples of the earth have gone from under its shadow and left it.

13 'On [m]its ruin will remain all the birds of the heavens,
And all the beasts of the field will come to its branches—

14'So that no trees by the waters may ever again exalt themselves for their height, nor set their tops among the thick boughs, that no tree which drinks water may ever be high enough to reach up to them.

'For [n]they have all been delivered to death,
[o]To the depths of the earth,
Among the children of men who go down to the Pit.'

15"Thus says the Lord GOD: 'In the day when it [p]went down to hell, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it. I restrained its rivers, and the great waters were held back. I caused Lebanon to mourn for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it. 16I made the nations [q]shake at the sound of its fall, when I [r]cast it down to hell together with those who descend into the Pit; and [s]all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, [t]were comforted in the depths of the earth. 17They also went down to hell with it, with those slain by the sword; and those who were its strong arm [u]dwelt in its shadows among the nations.

18[v]'To which of the trees in Eden will you then be likened in glory and greatness? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth; [w]you shall

Lamentation for Pharaoh and Egypt

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the [a]twelfth month, on the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, [b]take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him:

[c]'You are like a young lion among the nations,
And [d]you are like a monster in the seas,
[e]Bursting forth in your rivers,
Troubling the waters with your feet,
And [f]fouling their rivers.

3'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"I will therefore [g]spread My net over you with a company of many people,
And they will draw you up in My net.
4 Then [h]I will leave you on the land;
I will cast you out on the open fields,
[i]And cause to settle on you all the birds of the heavens.
And with you I will fill the beasts of the whole earth.
5 I will lay your flesh [j]on the mountains,
And fill the valleys with your carcass.
6 "I will also water the land with the flow of your blood,
Even to the mountains;
And the riverbeds will be full of you.
7 When I put out your light,
[k]I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark;
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
And the moon shall not give her light.
8 All the bright lights of the heavens I will make dark over you,
And bring darkness upon your land,"
Says the Lord GOD.

9'I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. 10Yes, I will make many peoples astonished at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid of you when I brandish My sword before them; and [l]they shall tremble every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.

11[m]'For thus says the Lord GOD: "The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you. 12By the swords of the mighty warriors, all of them [n]the most terrible of the nations, I will cause your multitude to fall.

[o]"They shall plunder the pomp of Egypt,
And all its multitude shall be destroyed.
13 Also I will destroy all its animals
From beside its great waters;
[p]The foot of man shall muddy them no more,
Nor shall the hooves of animals muddy them.
14 Then I will make their waters clear,
And make their rivers run like oil,"
Says the Lord GOD.

15 "When I make the land of Egypt desolate,
And the country is destitute of all that once filled it,
When I strike all who dwell in it,
[q]Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

16 "This is the [r]lamentation
With which they shall lament her;
The daughters of the nations shall lament her;
They shall lament for her, for Egypt,
And for all her multitude,"
Says the Lord GOD.'"

Egypt and Others Consigned to the Pit

17It came to pass also in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, [s]that the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

18 "Son of man, wail over the multitude of Egypt,
And [t]cast them down to the depths of the earth,
Her and the daughters of the famous nations,
With those who go down to the Pit:
19 'Whom [u]do you surpass in beauty?
[v]Go down, be placed with the uncircumcised.'

20 "They shall fall in the midst of those slain by the sword;
She is delivered to the sword,
[w]Drawing her and all her multitudes.
21 [x]The strong among the mighty Shall speak to him out of the midst of hell
With those who help him:
'They have [y]gone down,
They lie with the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.'

And he shall be placed in the midst of the uncircumcised
With those slain by the sword,
Pharaoh and all his multitude,"
Says the Lord GOD.

The Watchman and His Message

33 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, speak to [a]the children of your people, and say to them: [b]'When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and make him their [c]watchman, 3when he sees the sword coming upon the land, if he blows the trumpet and warns the people, 4then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does [d]not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, [e]his blood shall be on his own head. 5He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning will save his life. 6But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, [f]he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.'

7[g]"So you, son of man: I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and 32:24 There is Elam. Elam was east and southeast of Assyria in what is now Iran. The people of Elam were descended from one of the sons of Shem (Gen. 10:22; 1 Chr. 1:17).

32:30 princes of the north. This is a reference to lands that are north of Israel like Tyre and Sidon.

32:31 Pharaoh will see. Now the message (vv. 17–32) comes full circle. The point is that Egypt and Pharaoh will die like the other nations at the hand of the living God who judges every nation with justice.

33:2 the children of your people. This phrase refers to fellow Israelites in exile with Ezekiel, now including the people of Judah deported to Babylon after Nebuchadnezzar's third invasion.

warn them for Me. 8When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you shall surely die!' and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. 9Nevertheless if you warn the wicked to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.

10"Therefore you, O son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'Thus you say, "If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we [h]pine away in them, [i]how can we then live?"' 11Say to them: 'As I live,' says the Lord GOD, [j]'I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked [k]turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For [l]why should you die, O house of Israel?'

The Fairness of God's Judgment

12"Therefore you, O son of man, say to the children of your people: 'The [m]righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, [n]he shall not fall because of it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; nor shall the righteous be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.' 13When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, [o]but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous works shall be remembered; but because of the iniquity that he has committed, he shall die. 14Again, [p]when I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' if he turns from his sin and does what is lawful and right, 15*if* the wicked [q]restores the pledge, [r]gives back what he has stolen, and walks in [s]the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live; he shall not die. 16[t]None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered against him; he has done what is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17[u]"Yet the children of your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' But it is their way which is not fair! 18[v]When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die because of it. 19But when the wicked turns from his wickedness and does what is lawful and right, he shall live because of it. 20Yet you say, [w]'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his own ways."

The Fall of Jerusalem

21And it came to pass in the twelfth year [x]of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, [y]that one who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, [z]"The city has been captured!"

22Now [a]the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the man came who had escaped. And He had [b]opened my mouth; so when he came to me in the morning, my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

The Cause of Judah's Ruin

23Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 24"Son of man, [c]they who inhabit those [d]ruins in the land of Israel are saying, [e]'Abraham was only one, and he inherited the land. [f]But we are many; the land has been given to us as a [g]possession.'

25"Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [h]"You eat meat with blood, you [i]lift up your eyes toward your idols, and [j]shed blood. Should you then possess the [k]land? 26You rely on your sword, you commit abominations, and you [l]defile one another's wives. Should you then possess the land?"'

27"Say thus to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "As I live, surely [m]those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and the one who is in the open field [n]I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the strongholds and [o]caves shall die of the pestilence. 28[p]For I will make the land most desolate, her [q]arrogant strength shall cease, and [r]the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that no one will pass through. 29Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed."'

33:12–20 I will judge every one of you according to his own ways. God presents His rationale in these verses for deciding who would be rewarded with life and who would suffer death; He would save those who repent and turn to Him, but would condemn those who trust in themselves and do evil. After presenting His rationale, God declares that His judgment is just and fair—certainly more just than the practices of the Israelites.

33:25–26 Should you then possess the land. Ezekiel confronted his people with specific examples of their past and present refusal to obey God's revealed will for their lives (18:6,10; 22:11; Ex. 20:4–5,13; Lev. 7:26–27; 17:10–14; Deut. 12:16,23). Was it not then reasonable that God would punish the present generation by removing them from the land, at least temporarily? The writer of Hebrews, after using the example of Israel's failure to enter the land, admonished the church in a similar way (Heb. 4:1).

Hearing and Not Doing

30"As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses;
and they [s]speak to one another, everyone saying to his brother, 'Please come and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.' 31So [t]they come to you as people do, they [u]sit before you as My people, and they [v]hear your words, but they do not do them;
[w]for with their mouth they show much love,
but [x]their hearts pursue their own gain.
32Indeed you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do [y]not do them.
33[z]And when this comes to pass—surely it will come—then [a]they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Irresponsible Shepherds

34 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: [a]"Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? 3[b]You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool;
you [c]slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. 4[d]The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away,
nor [e]sought what was lost; but with [f]force and cruelty you have ruled them. 5[g]So they were [h]scattered because there was no shepherd; [i]and they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered. 6My sheep [j]wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill;
yes, My flock was scattered over the whole face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them."

7'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8"As I live," says the Lord GOD, "surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock [k]became food for every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, [l]but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock"— 9therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! 10Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am [m]against the shepherds, and [n]I will require My flock at their hand; I will cause them to cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall [o]feed themselves
no more; for I will [p]deliver My flock from their mouths, that they may no longer be food for them."

God, the True Shepherd

11'For thus says the Lord GOD: "Indeed I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. 12As a [q]shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered on [r]a cloudy and dark day.
13And [s]I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land; I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the valleys and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14[t]I will feed them in good pasture, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of Israel. [u]There they shall lie down in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. 15I will feed
My flock, and I will make them lie down," says the Lord GOD. 16[v]"I will seek what was lost and bring back what was driven away, bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick; but I will destroy [w]the fat and the strong, and feed them [x]in judgment."

17'And as for you, O My flock, thus says the Lord GOD: [y]"Behold, I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats. 18*Is it* too little for you to have eaten up the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture—and to have drunk of the clear waters, that you must foul the residue with your feet? 19And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have fouled with your feet."

20'Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: [z]"Behold, I Myself will judge between 33:30–33 they hear your words, but they do not do them. This section contrasts the actions and attitudes of the exiles with the life of God's prophet Ezekiel. The exiles had claimed to go to the prophet to receive God's revelation, but their behavior was inconsistent with their stated beliefs. Their true desire was for entertainment, not for divine enlightenment. If the fall of Jerusalem failed to awaken them spiritually, nothing would. Yet it certainly would open their eyes to the divine truth of Ezekiel's preaching. In these verses then, God also comforted and consoled Ezekiel.

34:7–10 did not feed My flock. The crimes of Israel's leaders come under review before their punishment is pronounced.

34:11–16 a cloudy and dark day. This was the day Jerusalem fell (30:1–5). It may also speak of the future day of deliverance when God will seek out His sheep. Israel, though guilty and misguided, would eventually be rescued by the divine Good Shepherd and restored to the Promised Land (chs. 33–39).

the fat and the lean sheep. 21Because you have pushed with side and shoulder, butted all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad, 22therefore I will save My flock, and they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23I will establish one [a]shepherd over them, and he shall feed them—[b]My servant David. He shall feed them and be their shepherd. 24And [c]I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David [d]a prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

25[e]"I will make a covenant of peace with them, and [f]cause wild beasts to cease from the land; and they [g]will dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. 26I will make them and the places all around [h]My hill [i]a blessing; and I will [j]cause showers to come down in their season; there shall be [k]showers of blessing. 27Then [l]the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase. They shall be safe in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have [m]broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them from the hand of those who [n]enslaved them. 28And they shall no longer be a prey for the nations, nor shall beasts of the land devour them; but [o]they shall dwell safely, and no one shall make them afraid. 29I will raise up for them a [p]garden of renown, and they shall [q]no longer be consumed with hunger in the land, [r]nor bear the shame of the Gentiles anymore. 30Thus they shall know that [s]I, the LORD their God, am with them, and they, the house of Israel, are [t]My people," says the Lord GOD.'

31"You are My [u]flock, the flock of My pasture; you are men, and I am your God," says the Lord GOD.

Judgment on Mount Seir

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2"Son of man, set your face against [a]Mount Seir and [b]prophesy against it, 3and say to it, 'Thus says the Lord GOD:

"Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you;
[c]I will stretch out My hand against you,
And make you most desolate;
4 I shall lay your cities waste,
And you shall be desolate.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

5[d]"Because you have had an ancient hatred, and have shed the blood of the children of Israel by the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, [e]when their iniquity came to an end, 6therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will prepare you for [f]blood, and blood shall pursue you; [g]since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. 7Thus I will make Mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it the [h]one who leaves and the one who returns. 8And I will fill its mountains with the slain; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those who are slain by the sword shall fall. 9[i]I will make you perpetually desolate, and your cities shall be uninhabited; [j]then you shall know that I am the LORD.

10"Because you have said, 'These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will [k]possess them,' although [l]the LORD was there, 11therefore, as I live," says the Lord GOD, "I will do [m]according to your anger and according to the envy which you showed in your hatred against them; and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you. 12[n]Then you shall know that I am the LORD. I have [o]heard all your [p]blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to consume.' 13Thus [q]with your mouth you have boasted against Me and multiplied your [r]words against Me; I have heard them."

14'Thus says the Lord GOD: [s]"The whole earth will rejoice when I make you desolate. 15[t]As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Israel was desolate, [u]so I will do to you; you shall be desolate, O Mount Seir, as well as all of Edom—all of it! Then they shall know that I am the LORD."'

34:23–24 I will establish . . . he shall feed. The change from the pronoun I to he in this verse indicates that God would continue operating as the Chief Shepherd through this chosen future ruler from the Davidic line. He is the Messiah—God's only Son and His servant.

34:25–31 covenant of peace. These exiles were encouraged through these promises (37:26–28; 38:11–13; 39:25–29; Is. 54:10): (1) security from foreign aggressor nations; (2) showers of blessing, meaning productivity and prosperity; and (3) the certainty that the Lord is Israel's God and desires reunion with His people and a lasting relationship built on a new covenant (Jer. 31:31–34; Heb. 8:6).

35:6–9 perpetually desolate. Having stated why Edom deserved judgment, Ezekiel explained how the nation would be punished. The punishment would include widespread death and unrelieved destruction (Is. 34:6–8; 63:1–6; Jer. 49:7–13).

Blessing on Israel

36 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the [a]mountains of Israel, and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD! 2Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because [b]the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! [c]The ancient heights [d]have become our possession,'"' 3therefore prophesy, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, [e]and you are taken up by the lips of [f]talkers and slandered by the people"— 4therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that have been forsaken, which [g]became plunder and [h]mockery to the rest of the nations all around— 5therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [i]"Surely I have spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, [j]who gave My land to themselves as a possession, with wholehearted joy and spiteful minds, in order to plunder its open country."'

6"Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains, the hills, the rivers, and the valleys, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I have spoken in My jealousy and My fury, because you have [k]borne the shame of the nations." 7Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I have [l]raised My hand in an oath that surely the nations that are around you shall [m]bear their own shame. 8But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to My people Israel, for they are about to come. 9For indeed I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. 10I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited and [n]the ruins rebuilt. 11[o]I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bear young; I will make you inhabited as in former times, and do [p]better for you than at your beginnings. [q]Then you shall know that I am the LORD. 12Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, My people Israel; [r]they shall take possession of you, and you shall be their inheritance; no more shall you [s]bereave them of children."

13'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Because they say to you, [t]'You devour men and bereave your nation of children,' 14therefore you shall devour men no more, nor bereave your nation anymore," says the Lord GOD. 15[u]"Nor will I let you hear the taunts of the nations anymore, nor bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor shall you cause your nation to stumble anymore," says the Lord GOD.'"

The Renewal of Israel

16Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 17"Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, [v]they defiled it by their own ways and deeds; to Me their way was like [w]the uncleanness of a woman in her customary impurity. 18Therefore I poured out My fury on them [x]for the blood they had shed on the land, and for their idols with which they had defiled it. 19So I [y]scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries; I judged them [z]according to their ways and their deeds. 20When they came to the nations, wherever they went, they [a]profaned My holy name—when they said of them, 'These are the people of the LORD, and yet they have gone out of His land.' 21But I had concern [b]for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

22"Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "I do not do this for your sake, O house of Israel, [c]but for My holy name's sake, which you have profaned among the nations wherever you went. 23And I will sanctify My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD," says the Lord GOD, "when I am [d]hallowed in you before their eyes. 24For [e]I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all countries, and

36:1–7 The ancient heights. This was a term for Israel because the hill country was central to the country's geography. God is glorified and the exiles comforted by the following: (1) exposing the crimes of the enemies of His nation; (2) exonerating His land from false charges; and (3) executing judgment and justice against the foreign nations.

36:12 My people Israel. Despite all their sinfulness, which the book has taken enormous pains to detail and describe, the nation was still referred to as the people of God. They would finally and forever take possession of their land, symbolized by the mountains and the central hills of Palestine, which are personified as "you" in this verse.

36:19 according to their ways and their deeds. Israel had been hypocritical and unholy; they had not separated themselves or made themselves distinct from the pagan world around them (v. 18). God had given His people the Promised Land as a place where they could show the world the difference it makes to follow the true God (Deut. 7:1–11). They failed to follow God, so He forced them out of the land. Through either their obedience or their disobedience, God would demonstrate to the watching world His personality, power, and plans.

bring you into your own land. 25[f]Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean; I will cleanse you [g]from all your filthiness and from all your idols. 26I will give you a [h]new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27I will put My [i]Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them. 28[j]Then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; [k]you shall be My people, and I will be your God. 29I will [l]deliver you from all your uncleannesses. [m]I will call for the grain and multiply it, and [n]bring no famine upon you. 30[o]And I will multiply the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of famine among the nations. 31Then [p]you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good; and you [q]will loathe yourselves in your own sight, for your iniquities and your abominations. 32[r]Not for your sake do I do this," says the Lord GOD, "let it be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel!"

33'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will also enable you to dwell in the cities, [s]and the ruins shall be rebuilt. 34The desolate land shall be tilled instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by. 35So they will say, 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of [t]Eden; and the wasted, desolate, and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.' 36Then the nations which are left all around you shall know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruined places and planted what was desolate. [u]I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it."

37'Thus says the Lord GOD: [v]"I will also let the house of Israel inquire of Me to do this for them: I will [w]increase their men like a flock. 38Like a flock offered as holy sacrifices, like the flock at Jerusalem on its feast days, so shall the ruined cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."'"

The Dry Bones Live

37 The [a]hand of the LORD came upon me and brought me out [b]in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2Then He caused me to pass by them all around, and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and indeed they were very dry. 3And He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

So I answered, "O Lord GOD, [c]You know."

4Again He said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them, 'O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! 5Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: "Surely I will [d]cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. 6I will put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, cover you with skin and put breath in you; and you shall live. [e]Then you shall know that I am the LORD."'"

7So I prophesied as I was commanded; and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and suddenly a rattling; and the bones came together, bone to bone. 8Indeed, as I looked, the sinews and the flesh came upon them, and the skin covered them over; but there was no breath in them.

9Also He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [f]"Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live."'" 10So I prophesied as He commanded me, [g]and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.

36:25 sprinkle clean water on you. This symbolized cleansing from sin.

36:27 I will put My Spirit within you. The regenerating and empowering work of the Holy Spirit on individuals would not only restore the people physically to the land, but would restore them spiritually, by giving them a new heart and new spirit to help them follow Him and do His will (11:19–20; 18:31; 37:14; Jer. 31:31–34; Joel 2:28–29; Rom. 7:7—8:11).

36:28–30 you shall be My people. The purpose of the Mosaic covenant would finally be realized (Deut. 26:16–19; 29:13; 30:8). The Israelites would become a people dedicated to God's ways.

36:31–32 Not for your sake do I do this. The restoration from the exile would recover God's glorious reputation among the nations and erase the guilt of the Israelites' sin. This is all a product of God's favor on the Israelites—even though they had done nothing to merit such mercy.

37:4 Prophesy to these bones. Ezekiel's prophecies had often been directed to people as deaf as these old, dry bones.

37:5 breath. This word is translated as wind or spirit in other places. The breath sent by God into the lifeless bodies symbolizes the Holy Spirit who brings renewal, regeneration, and rebirth (John 3:5–8; 6:44; 7:37–39; Rom. 8:9–11).

37:6 you shall live. This passage is not about resurrection from physical death, but rebirth from spiritual death brought about by divine power. Psalm 87 is another text that speaks of spiritual rebirth. The point of Jesus' words to Nicodemus in John 3 was that he should have known and understood the concept of a second birth.

37:10 an exceedingly great army. The dead bones bones are the [h]whole house of Israel. They indeed say, [i]'Our bones are dry, our hope is fore prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, [j]O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up from your graves, and [k]bring you into the land of Israel. 13 Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up

you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed

One Kingdom, One King

15 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 16 "As for you, son of man, [m]take a stick for yourself and write on it:
'For Judah and for [n]the children of Israel,
his companions.' Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel, his companions.' 17 Then [o]join them one to another for yourself into one stick, and they will become one in your hand.

18 "And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, [p]'Will you not show us what you mean by these?'— 19 [q]say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely I will take [r]the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel, his companions; and I will join them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in My hand."' 20 And the sticks on which you write will be in your hand [s]before their eyes.

21 "Then say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Surely [t]I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, wherever they have gone, and will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land; 22 and [u]I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and [v]one king shall be king over them all; they shall no longer be two nations, nor shall they ever be divided into two kingdoms again. 23 [w]They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but [x]I will deliver them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them.
Then they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

24 [y]"David My servant shall be king over them, and [z]they shall all have one shepherd;
[a]they shall also walk in My judgments and observe My statutes, and do them. 25 [b]Then they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, where your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell there, they, their children, and their children's children, [c]forever; and [d]My servant David shall be their prince forever. 26 Moreover I will make [e]a covenant of peace with them, and it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; I will establish them and [f]multiply them, and I will set My [g]sanctuary in their midst forevermore. 27 [h]My tabernacle also shall be with them; indeed I will be [i]their God, and they shall be My people. 28 [j]The nations also will know that I, the LORD, [k]sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore."'"

Gog and Allies Attack Israel

38 Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 [a]"Son of man, [b]set your face against [c]Gog, of the land of [d]Magog,
the prince of Rosh,* [e]Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, 3 and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech,

in the valley (vv. 1–2) must have looked like the aftermath of a horrible military defeat in which there were no survivors even to bury the dead.

37:11–14 these bones. The bones symbolize the whole house of Israel. This identification picks up on imagery already used: (1) those identified as dry or spiritually dead; (2) those identified as despondent and dejected, with no apparent hope of being "resurrected" as the people of the living God; and (3) those described as disassembled and dispersed before being rejoined and rebuilt. The major thrust of this passage is the coming spiritual rebirth of God's chosen people through the agency of His Spirit.

37:24–25 David my servant. This title refers to the Messiah and King who would come from David's line to save Israel (2 Sam. 7:8–16).

37:26–28 My sanctuary in their midst. The sanctuary or holy place of the living God is His dwelling place among His people (Zeph. 3:15–18). My tabernacle. This is a synonym for sanctuary. Both can be used of God's dwelling in the midst of His people in the wilderness. Here they point to the future dwelling of the living God in the midst of His people forevermore.

38:2 Son of man. This is a title for Ezekiel emphasizing his humanity, even though his message was from God. The proper names in this prophecy do not have to be specifically identified for an understanding of the main message.

38:3 Gog. This leader or king only appears in Scripture here and in Revelation 20:8. Several ideas about and Tubal. 4[f]I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and [g]lead you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen, [h]all splendidly clothed, a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords. 5Persia, Ethiopia,* and Libya* are with them, all of them with shield and helmet; 6[i]Gomer and all its troops; the house of [j]Togarmah from the far north and all its troops—many people are with you.

7[k]"Prepare yourself and be ready, you and all your companies that are gathered about you; and be a guard for them. 8[l]After many days [m]you will be visited. In the latter years you will come into the land of those brought back from the sword [n]and gathered from many people on [o]the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate; they were brought out of the nations, and now all of them [p]dwell safely. 9You will ascend, coming [q]like a storm, covering the [r]land like a cloud, you and all your troops and many peoples with you."

10'Thus says the Lord GOD: "On that day it shall come to pass that thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will make an evil plan: 11You will say, 'I will go up against a land of [s]unwalled villages; I will [t]go to a peaceful people, [u]who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates'— 12to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the waste places that are again inhabited, [v]and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the land. 13[w]Sheba, [x]Dedan, the merchants [y]of Tarshish, and all [z]their young lions will say to you, 'Have you come to take plunder? Have you gathered your army to take booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?'"'

14"Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: [a]"On that day when My people Israel [b]dwell safely, will you not know it? 15[c]Then you will come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. 16You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud, to cover the land. It will be in the latter days that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may [d]know Me, when I am [e]hallowed in you, O Gog, before their eyes." 17Thus says the Lord GOD: "Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied for years in those days that I would bring you against them?

Judgment on Gog

18"And it will come to pass at the same time, when Gog comes against the land of Israel," says the Lord GOD, "that My fury will show in My face. 19For [f]in My jealousy [g]and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: [h]'Surely in that day there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel, 20so that [i]the fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth shall shake at My presence. [j]The mountains shall be thrown down, the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.' 21I will [k]call for [l]a sword against Gog throughout all My mountains," says the Lord GOD. [m]"Every man's sword will be against his brother. 22And I will [n]bring him to judgment with [o]pestilence and bloodshed; [p]I will rain down on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples who are with him, flooding rain, [q]great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. 23Thus I will magnify Myself and [r]sanctify Myself, [s]and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD."'

Gog's Armies Destroyed

39 "And [a]you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh,* Meshech, and Tubal; 2and I will [b]turn you around and lead you on, [c]bringing you up from 38:8 After many days . . . In the latter years. The first phrase usually denotes an indefinite time period, sometimes extending into the distant future or the end times (Dan. 8:26). The second phrase frequently points to messianic times or to the times when Israel is regathered. From Ezekiel's viewpoint, he was predicting a time in the very distant future—the end times. Unless the passage refers to spiritual warfare, the invasion of Israel and the subsequent time of confident and carefree peace are still future events.

dwell safely. This phrase indicates that the Israel of this passage is secure; the nation is not safe from attack, but it is safe from defeat.

38:18–23 My fury will show in My face. These verses speak of God defending His nation against Gog and his army with supernatural and earthshaking methods. Unusually strong language concerning the wrath of God is found in these verses.

the far north, and bring you against the mountains of Israel. 3Then I will knock the bow out of your left hand, and cause the arrows to fall out of your right hand. 4[d]You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you; [e]I will give you to birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. 5You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken," says the Lord GOD. 6[f]"And I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in security in [g]the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD. 7[h]So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel, and I will not let them [i]profane My holy name anymore. [j]Then the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. 8[k]Surely it is coming, and it shall be done," says the Lord GOD. "This is the day [l]of which I have spoken.

9"Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and bucklers, the bows and arrows, the javelins and spears; and they will make fires with them for seven years. 10They will not take wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons; [m]and they will plunder those who plundered them, and pillage those who pillaged them," says the Lord GOD.

The Burial of Gog

11"It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.* 12For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, [n]in order to cleanse the land. 13Indeed all the people of the land will be burying, and they will gain [o]renown for it on the day that [p]I am glorified," says the Lord GOD. 14"They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party,* to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order [q]to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search. 15The search party will pass through the land; and when anyone sees a man's bone, he shall set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. 16*The* name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they shall [r]cleanse the land."'

A Triumphant Festival

17"And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD, [s]'Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field:

[t]"Assemble yourselves and come;
Gather together from all sides to My [u]sacrificial meal
Which I am sacrificing for you,
A great sacrificial meal [v]on the mountains of Israel,
That you may eat flesh and drink blood.
18 [w]You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, Drink the blood of the princes of the earth,
Of rams and lambs,
Of goats and bulls,
All of them [x]fatlings of Bashan.
19 You shall eat fat till you are full,
And drink blood till you are drunk,
At My sacrificial meal
Which I am sacrificing for you.
20 [y]You shall be filled at My table
With horses and riders,
[z]With mighty men
And with all the men of war," says the Lord GOD.

Israel Restored to the Land

21[a]"I will set My glory among the nations; all the nations shall see My judgment which I have executed, and [b]My hand which I have laid on them. 22[c]So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day forward. 23[d]The Gentiles shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they were unfaithful to Me, therefore [e]I hid My face from them. 39:6 I will send fire. Often fire from the Lord has the form of lightning bolts (1 Kin. 18:38).

39:12 cleanse the land. The law of Moses prescribed the sacrifice of a heifer to cleanse the land if a murdered person was found in a region (Deut. 21:1–9).

39:17–20 Speak to every sort of bird. A poem or song is addressed to the scavenging birds and beasts who come to the multitude of dead bodies (vv. 14–16). Whether figurative or not, the passage powerfully pictures God's sovereign control over the complete conquest of Israel's future and most ferocious enemies (Rev. 19:11–21). The meal would be a divinely prepared sacrifice served at God's table.

39:21–22 My glory among the nations. The universal knowledge of the living God of Israel will be based finally on the outcome of the battle described in chapters 38 and 39. Ezekiel followed the great theme of biblical theology begun in Genesis 12:3 that the ultimate purpose of God in His choice of Abraham and Sarah was to make His blessings known to all the families of the earth. God will demonstrate His glory both among the nations and among His chosen people Israel.

25"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: [h]'Now I will bring back the captives of Jacob, and have mercy on the [i]whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for My holy name— 26[j]after they have borne their shame, and all their unfaithfulness in which they were unfaithful to Me, when they [k]dwelt safely in their own land and no one made them afraid. 27[l]When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and I [m]am hallowed in them in the sight of many nations, 28[n]then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who sent them into captivity among the nations, but also brought them back to their land, and left none of them captive any longer. 29[o]And I will not hide My face from them anymore; for I shall have [p]poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel,' says the Lord GOD."

A New City, a New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after [q]the city was captured, on the very same day [b]the hand of the LORD was upon me; and He took me there. 2[c]In the visions of God He took me into the land of Israel and [d]set me on a very high mountain; on it toward the south was something like the structure of a city. 3He took me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was [e]like the appearance of bronze. [f]He had a line of flax [g]and a measuring rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

4And the man said to me, [h]"Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears, and fix your mind on everything I show you; for you were brought here so that I might show them to you. [i]Declare to the house of Israel everything you see." 5Now there was [j]a wall all around the outside of the temple.* In the man's hand was a measuring rod six cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth; and he measured the width of the wall structure, one rod; and the height, one rod.

The Eastern Gateway of the Temple

6Then he went to the gateway which faced [k]east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gateway, which was one rod wide, and the other threshold was one rod wide. 7Each gate chamber was one rod long and one rod wide; between the gate chambers was a space of five cubits; and the threshold of the gateway by the vestibule of the inside gate was one rod. 8He also measured the vestibule of the inside gate, one rod. 9Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and the gateposts, two cubits. The vestibule of the gate was on the inside. 10In the eastern gateway were three gate chambers on one side and three on the other; the three were all the same size; also the gateposts were of the same size on this side and that side.

11He measured the width of the entrance to the gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. 12*There was* a space in front of the gate chambers, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side; the gate chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. 13Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one gate chamber to the roof of the other; the width was twenty-five cubits, as door faces door. 14He measured the gateposts, sixty cubits high, and the court all around the gateway extended to the gatepost. 15*From* the front of the entrance gate to the front of the vestibule of the inner gate was fifty cubits. 16*There were* [l]beveled window frames in the gate chambers and in their intervening archways on the inside of the gateway all around, and likewise in the vestibules. There were windows all around on the inside. And on each gatepost were [m]palm trees.

* 40:5 Literally house, and so elsewhere in this book

40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity. The actual date would have been about 573 B.C. This final vision of the temple in the book is one of God returning to dwell in the midst of His people who are now restored in their homeland. These are difficult chapters to interpret because of how easy it is to get bogged down in the architectural details. The writing is apocalyptic in style and expresses in symbolic manner how God would restore Israel in the future.

40:3–5 a line of flax and a measuring rod in his hand. This man with a measuring rod is a kind of angelic architect who serves as both a guide and an interpreter for Ezekiel. Declare to the house of Israel everything you see. The details of the temple would have been of great importance and enormous interest to the exiles because the temple was the focal point of all of their worship.

40:7 cubits . . . rod. A cubit was about 18 inches long. A measuring rod was six cubits or nine feet in length.

40:16 palm trees. These were common decorations that were also found in Solomon's temple (1 Kin. 6:29–35).

The Outer Court

17 Then he brought me into [n]the outer court; and there were [o]chambers and a pavement made all around the court; [p]thirty chambers faced the pavement. 18 The pavement was by the side of the gateways, corresponding to the length of the gateways; this was the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gateway to the front of the inner court exterior, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

The Northern Gateway

20 On the outer court was also a gateway facing north, and he measured its length and its width. 21 Its gate chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its gateposts and its archways, had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits. 22 Its windows and those of its archways, and also its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gateway facing east; it was ascended by seven steps, and its archway was in front of it. 23 A gate of the inner court was opposite the northern gateway, just as the eastern gateway; and he measured from gateway to gateway, one hundred cubits.

The Southern Gateway

24 After that he brought me toward the south, and there a gateway was facing south; and he measured its gateposts and archways according to these same measurements. 25 There were windows in it and in its archways all around like those windows; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits. 26 Seven steps led up to it, and its archway was in front of them; and it had palm trees on its gate-posts, one on this side and one on that side.
27 There was also a gateway on the inner court, facing south; and he measured from gateway to gateway toward the south, one hundred cubits.

Gateways of the Inner Court

28 Then he brought me to the inner court through the southern gateway; he measured the southern gateway according to these same measurements. 29 Also its gate
chambers, its gateposts, and its archways
were according to these same measurements; there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. 30 There were archways all around, [q]twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide. 31 Its archways faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts, and going up to it were eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court facing east; he measured the gateway according to these same measurements.
33 Also its gate chambers, its gateposts, and its archways were according to these same measurements; and there were windows in it and in its archways all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. 34 Its archways faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side; and going up to it were eight steps.

35 Then he brought me to the north gateway and measured it according to these same measurements— 36 also its gate
chambers, its gateposts, and its archways.
It had windows all around; its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.
37 Its gateposts faced the outer court, palm trees were on its gateposts on this side and on that side, and going up to it were eight steps.

Where Sacrifices Were Prepared

38 There was a chamber and its entrance by the gateposts of the gateway, where they [r]washed the burnt offering. 39 In the vestibule of the gateway were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slay the burnt offering, [s]the sin offering, and [t]the trespass offering. 40 At the outer side of the vestibule, as one goes up to the entrance of the northern gateway, were two tables; and on the other side of the vestibule of the gateway were two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gateway, eight tables on which they slaughtered the sacrifices. 42 There were also four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, one cubit and a half long, one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; on these they laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 Inside were hooks, a handbreadth wide, fastened all around; and the flesh of the sacrifices was on the tables.

Chambers for Singers and Priests

44 Outside the inner gate were the chambers for [u]the singers in the inner court,

40:22 ascended by seven steps. This would indicate that the temple area is a huge raised area, built up above the level of the surrounding land.

40:38–43 Four tables were on this side . . . on which they slaughtered the sacrifices. Ezekiel observes a room where the animals are slaughtered and washed for sacrificial offerings. These sacrifices point to the ultimate sacrifice; the sacrifice of God's only Son on the cross once for all (Heb. 7:20–28; 9:25–30).

40:44–47 chamber . . . for the priests. The guide explains that the chamber on the north side is for the priests who run the day-to-day operations of the

Dimensions of the Inner Court and Vestibule

47And he measured the court, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, foursquare. The altar was in front of the temple. 48Then he brought me to the [y]vestibule of the temple and measured the doorposts of the vestibule, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the width of the gateway was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49[z]The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; and by the steps which led up to it there were [a]pillars by the doorposts, one on this side and another on that side.

Dimensions of the Sanctuary

41 Then he [a]brought me into the sanctuary* and measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side—the width of the tabernacle. 2The width of the entryway was ten cubits, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits, and its width, twenty cubits.

3Also he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits high; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. 4[b]He measured the length, twenty cubits; and the width, twenty cubits, beyond the sanctuary; and he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

The Side Chambers on the Wall

5Next, he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits. The width of each side chamber all around the temple was four cubits on every side. 6[c]The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty chambers in each story; they rested on ledges which were for the side chambers all around, that they might be supported, but [d]not fastened to the wall of the temple. 7As one went up from story to story, the side chambers [e]became wider all around, because their supporting ledges in the wall of the temple ascended like steps; therefore the width of the structure increased as one went up from the lowest story to the highest by way of the middle one. 8I also saw an elevation all around the temple; it was the foundation of the side chambers, [f]a full rod, that is, six cubits high. 9The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits, and so also the remaining terrace by the place of the side chambers of the temple. 10And between it and the wall chambers was a width of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side. 11The doors of the side chambers opened on the terrace, one door toward the north and another toward the south; and the width of the terrace was five cubits all around.

The Building at the Western End

12The building that faced the separating courtyard at its western end was seventy cubits wide; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

Dimensions and Design of the Temple Area

13So he measured the temple, one [g]hundred cubits long; and the separating courtyard with the building and its walls was one hundred cubits long; 14also the width of the eastern face of the temple, including the separating courtyard, was one hundred cubits. 15He measured the length of the building behind it, facing the separating courtyard, with its [h]galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner temple and the porches of the court, 16their doorposts and [i]the beveled window frames. And the galleries all around their three stories opposite the threshold were paneled with [j]wood from the ground to the windows—the windows were covered— 17from the space above the door, even to the inner room,*

* 40:44 Following Septuagint; Masoretic Text and Vulgate read eastern. * 41:1 Hebrew heykal, here the main room of the temple, sometimes called the holy place (compare Exodus 26:33) * 41:17 Literally house, here the Most Holy Place temple. The chamber on the south side is for the priests who perform the sacrifices.

41:1–4 Then he brought me into the sanctuary. The basic temple has three areas: the outer area, the holy place or "nave," and the inner area or the "Most Holy Place." The innermost room is the focal point of the whole structure. Only the high priest could enter it and then only once a year on the Day of Atonement.

41:13–15 So he measured the temple. Ezekiel would have found pleasure in the symmetrical precision of the temple. It would have meant that it all fit together perfectly. There was nothing that was out of place. This may represent the order and harmony in God's future kingdom.

as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.
18 And it was made [k]with cherubim and [l]palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Each cherub had two faces,
19 [m]so that the face of a man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side; thus it was made throughout the temple all around. 20 From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the sanctuary, cherubim and palm trees were carved.
21 The [n]doorposts of the temple were square, as was the front of the sanctuary; their appearance was similar. 22 [o]The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its sides were of wood; and he said to me, "This is [p]the table that is [q]before the LORD."
23 [r]The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24 The doors had two [s]panels apiece, two folding panels: two panels for one door and two panels for the other door. 25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple just as they were carved on the walls. A wooden canopy was on the front of the vestibule outside. 26 There were [t]beveled window frames and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the vestibule—also on the side chambers of the temple and on the canopies.

The Chambers for the Priests

42 Then he [a]brought me out into the outer court, by the way toward the [b]north; and he brought me into [c]the chamber which was opposite the separating courtyard, and which was opposite the building toward the north. 2 Facing the length, which was one hundred cubits (the width was fifty cubits), was the north door. 3 Opposite the inner court of twenty cubits, and opposite the [d]pavement of the outer court, was [e]gallery against gallery in three stories. 4 In front of the chambers, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, at a distance of one cubit; and their doors faced north. 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle stories of the building. 6 For they were in three stories and did not have pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was shortened more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up. 7 And a wall which was outside ran parallel to the chambers, at the front of the chambers, toward the outer court; its length was fifty cubits. 8 The length of the chambers toward the outer court was fifty cubits, whereas that facing the temple was one [f]hundred cubits. 9 At the lower chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.
10 Also there were chambers in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separating courtyard and opposite the building. 11 [g]There was a walk in front of them also, and their appearance was like the chambers which were toward the north; they were as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to plan. 12 And corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south, as one enters them, there was a door in front of the walk, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east.
13 Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are opposite the separating courtyard, are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD [h]shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall lay the most holy offerings—[i]the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering—for the place is holy. 14 [j]When the priests enter them, they shall not go out of the holy chamber into the outer court; but there they shall leave their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments; then they may approach that which is for the people."

Outer Dimensions of the Temple

15 Now when he had finished measuring the inner temple, he brought me out through the gateway that faces toward the [k]east, and measured it all around.
16 He measured the east side with the 41:22 This is the table that is before the LORD. This is a reference to the table that held the showbread or bread of the Presence (Ex. 25:23–30), a reminder that man lives his whole life constantly in the divine presence. When God is not present to bless His people, their worship is unacceptable, because such worship will inevitably be merely formal and devoid of blessing. When God is present with His people in worship, they are then enabled to worship.

42:1–14 Then he brought me out into the outer court. At this point the text has given us many details of the physical descriptions of the temple. No references have been made to God's spiritual presence. Ezekiel has set the scene for the return of the Lord to His temple and city.
42:13–14 holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat. This chapter focuses on the buildings designed for the use of the priests. They were used for storage, changing, and eating.
42:15–20 he brought me out. After seeing the inside of the temple area, the guide takes Ezekiel to see the surrounding grounds.

The Temple, the LORD's Dwelling Place

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate [a]that faces toward the east. 2[b]And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. [c]His voice was like the sound of many waters; [d]and the earth shone with His glory. 3*It was* [e]like the appearance of the vision which I saw—like the vision which I saw when I* came [f]to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision which I saw [g]by the River Chebar; and I fell on my face. 4[h]And the glory of the LORD came into the temple by way of the gate which faces toward the east. 5[i]The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, [j]the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

6Then I heard Him speaking to me from the temple, while [k]a man stood beside me. 7And He said to me, "Son of man, this is [l]the place of My throne and [m]the place of the soles of My feet, [n]where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. [o]No more shall the house of Israel defile My holy name, they nor their kings, by their harlotry or with [p]the carcasses of their kings on their high places. 8[q]When they set their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they defiled My holy name by the abominations which they committed; therefore I have consumed them in My anger. 9Now let them put their harlotry and the carcasses of their kings far away from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

10"Son of man, [r]describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. 11And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple and its arrangement, its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its [s]ordinances, all its forms and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its whole design and all its ordinances, and [t]perform them. 12This is the law of the temple: The whole area surrounding [u]the mountaintop is most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple.

Dimensions of the Altar

13"These are the measurements of the [v]altar in cubits [w](the cubit is one cubit and a handbreadth): the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one span. This is the height of the altar: 14from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits; the width of the ledge, one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits; and the width of the ledge, one cubit. 15The altar hearth is four cubits high, with four [x]horns extending upward from the hearth. 16The altar hearth is twelve cubits long, twelve wide, [y]square at its four corners; 17the ledge, fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it; its base, one cubit all around; and [z]its steps face toward the east."

Consecrating the Altar

18And He said to me, "Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: 'These are the ordinances for the altar on the day when it is made, for sacrificing [a]burnt offerings on it, and for [b]sprinkling blood on it. 19You shall give [c]a young bull for a sin offering to [d]the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of [e]Zadok, who approach Me to minister to Me,' says the Lord GOD. 20'You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it; thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. 21Then you shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and [f]burn it in the appointed place of the temple, [g]outside the 43:2 the glory of the God of Israel came. Nineteen years before, Ezekiel had a vision of the Lord leaving His temple (10:18–22; 11:22–24). Now he gets a chance to see His return. Ezekiel's response is one of being overwhelmed with awe.

43:7–12 I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. When God left Jerusalem, it rapidly moved towards destruction. Here, when God returned, everything was rebuilt as a permanent dwelling. The Lord stipulated that Israel was not to defile God's holiness as it had done in the past.

43:20–23 cleanse . . . sin offering. These suggest purification and cleansing from sin. Because of the sinlessness—without blemish—of the sacrifice, the

The East Gate and the Prince

44 Then He brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary [a]which faces toward the east, but it was shut. 2And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, [b]because the LORD God of Israel has entered by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3*As for* the [c]prince, because he is the prince, he may sit in it to [d]eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way."

Those Admitted to the Temple

4Also He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple; so I looked, and [e]behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD; [f]and I fell on my face. 5And the LORD said to me, [g]"Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the [h]ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. Mark well who may enter the house and all who go out from the sanctuary.

6"Now say to the [i]rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "O house of Israel, [j]let Us have no more of all your abominations. 7[k]When you brought in [l]foreigners, [m]uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to defile it—My house—and when you offered [n]My food, [o]the fat and the blood, then they broke My covenant because of all your abominations. 8And you have not [p]kept charge of My holy things, but you have set others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you." 9Thus says the Lord GOD: [q]"No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary, including any foreigner who is among the children of Israel.

Laws Governing Priests

10[r]"And the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. 11Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, [s]as gatekeepers of the house and ministers of the house; [t]they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and [u]they shall stand before them to minister to them. 12Because they ministered to them before their idols and [v]caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have [w]raised My hand in an oath against them," says the Lord GOD, "that they shall bear their iniquity. 13[x]And they shall not come near Me to minister to Me as priest, nor come near any of My holy things, nor into the Most Holy Place; but they shall [y]bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. 14Nevertheless I will make them [z]keep charge of the temple, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.

15[a]"But the priests, the Levites, [b]the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary [c]when the children of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near Me to minister to Me; and they [d]shall stand before Me to offer to Me the [e]fat and the blood," says the Lord GOD. 16"They shall [f]enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near [g]My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge. 17And it shall be, whenever they enter the gates of the inner court, that [h]they shall put on linen garments; no wool shall 44:1–3 This gate shall be shut. Today this is known as the "Golden Gate" and dates from several centuries after Christ. It is walled shut today in accordance with an Islamic tradition.

44:4–9 I looked . . . I fell on my face. Ezekiel experiences another awe-inspiring vision of God's glory leading him to bow in worship (1:28—2:1). God demands that His renewed people follow His regulations exactly. He emphasizes the necessity of holiness and righteousness, especially in light of Israel's past.

44:11–14 Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary. God explains to Ezekiel why the Levites would be limited to certain types of temple ministry. The Levites (with the exception of the sons of Zadok; v. 15) could not be priests but could be ministers (servants or attendants). They could not serve in the inner court or temple, where the holy things are located; but they could oversee the general operation of the temple complex.

20[l]"They shall neither shave their heads nor let their hair grow [m]long, but they shall keep their hair well trimmed. 21[n]No priest shall drink wine when he enters the inner court. 22They shall not take as wife a [o]widow or a divorced woman, but take virgins of the descendants of the house of Israel, or widows of priests.

23"And [p]they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the unholy, and cause them to [q]discern between the unclean and the clean. 24[r]In controversy they shall stand as judges, and judge it according to My judgments. They shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My appointed meetings, [s]and they shall hallow My Sabbaths.

25"They shall not defile themselves by coming near a dead person. Only for father or mother, for son or daughter, for brother or unmarried sister may they defile themselves. 26[t]After he is cleansed, they shall count seven days for him. 27And on the day that he goes to the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, [u]he must offer his sin offering [v]in the inner court," says the Lord GOD.

28"It shall be, in regard to their inheritance, that I [w]am their inheritance. You shall give them no [x]possession in Israel, for I am their possession. 29[y]They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; [z]every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. 30The [a]best of all firstfruits of any kind, and every sacrifice of any kind from all your sacrifices, shall be the priest's; also you [b]shall give to the priest the first of your ground meal, [c]to cause a blessing to rest on your house. 31The priests shall not eat anything, bird or beast, that [d]died naturally or was torn by wild beasts.

The Holy District

45 "Moreover, when you [a]divide the land by lot into inheritance, you shall [b]set apart a district for the LORD, a holy section of the land; its length shall be twenty-five thousand cubits, and the width ten thousand. It shall be holy throughout its territory all around. 2Of this there shall be a square plot for the sanctuary, [c]five hundred by five hundred rods, with fifty cubits around it for an open space. 3So this is the district you shall measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide; [d]in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. 4It shall be [e]a holy section of the land, belonging to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5[f]An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide shall belong to the Levites, the ministers of the temple; they shall have [g]twenty chambers as a possession.*

Properties of the City and the Prince

6[h]"You shall appoint as the property of the city an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, adjacent to the district of the holy section; it shall belong to the whole house of Israel.

7[i]"The prince shall have a section on one side and the other of the holy district and the city's property; and bordering on the holy district and the city's property,

44:23 they shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the unholy. These verses speak of holiness in conduct. These regulations continued practices already prescribed in the law of Moses (Lev. 10:6,9; 21:1–7,10,14). Their aim was to help the priests avoid conformity to the immoral and idolatrous religious rituals and conduct among the pagan nations. The priests, then and in the future, have the responsibility of modeling and maintaining the highest standards of morality, self-control, self-denial, discipline, and obedience to God's will.

44:28 I am their possession. God was to be the priests' inheritance in all respects; they were not to inherit land or cities.

45:1–5 a holy section of the land. A distinct or holy section was to be allocated for God. This area would be divided into two equal sections. One would be the portion for the Zadokites. In the center of this part of the holy district is the holy square-mile environs for the temple. The other half of the holy district would be the portion given to the Levites. All this is holy; God owns it.

45:6 the city. Most likely the city is Jerusalem.

45:7–8 The prince . . . My princes. Their identity is unknown (44:3), but the allotted area is on both sides of the holy district. The prince and God's princes of the messianic period—in contrast to previous leaders of Israel (11:1–13; 14:1–11,20–22; 34:1–10)—will extending westward on the west side and eastward on the east side, the length shall be side by side with one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border. 8The land shall be his possession in Israel; and [j]My princes shall no more oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes."

Laws Governing the Prince

9'Thus says the Lord GOD: [k]"Enough, O princes of Israel! [l]Remove violence and plundering, execute justice and righteousness, and stop dispossessing My people," says the Lord GOD. 10"You shall have [m]honest scales, an honest ephah, and an honest bath. 11The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-tenth of a homer, and the ephah one-tenth of a homer; their measure shall be according to the homer. 12The [n]shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina.

13"This is the offering which you shall offer: you shall give one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley. 14The ordinance concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a kor. A kor is a homer or ten baths, for ten baths are a homer. 15And one lamb shall be given from a flock of two hundred, from the rich pastures of Israel. These shall be for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, [o]to make atonement for them," says the Lord GOD. 16"All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel. 17Then it shall be the [p]prince's part to give burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the New Moons, the Sabbaths, and at all the appointed seasons of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel."

Keeping the Feasts

18'Thus says the Lord GOD: "In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and [q]cleanse the sanctuary. 19[r]The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the gate of the inner court. 20And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month [s]for everyone who has sinned unintentionally or in ignorance. Thus you shall make atonement for the temple.

21[t]"In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land [u]a bull for a sin offering. 23On the [v]seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish, daily for seven days, [w]and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. 24[x]And he shall prepare a grain offering of one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.

25"In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the [y]feast, he shall do likewise for seven days, according to the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil."

The Manner of Worship

46 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "The gateway of the inner court that faces toward the east shall be shut the six [a]working days; but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and on the day of the New Moon it shall be opened. 2[b]The prince shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gateway from the outside, and stand by the gatepost. The priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. He shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening. 3Likewise the people of the land shall not be greedy for riches and real estate but will give the land that remains to the people.

---

45:10–11 You shall have honest scales. The merchants were exhorted to use accurate measures. They must not cheat anymore when weighing produce (Lev. 19:35; Amos 8:5; Mic. 6:10–12). God called for an end to dishonesty and deceit; a time is coming when all such scheming will end (37:15–28).

45:18 In the first month, on the first day of the month. This is an annual day of purifying the temple sanctuary. In the light of Jesus' death on the cross, the actions of the prince symbolize and emphasize that God has made atonement for all through the sacrifice of the Messiah. The prince represents the people in these actions of worship.

45:21 you shall observe the Passover, a feast of seven days. In this passage the Feasts of Passover and Tabernacles are observed (Ex. 12:1–14; Lev. 23:5–8,33–43; Num. 28:16–25). The dates are in relation to the Levitical calendar, the Jewish religious year. The procedures as well are very similar to those of the Mosaic system. These feasts commemorate God's faithfulness to His promises.

46:1–8 The prince shall enter. What the rituals signified under the law was fulfilled by the Messiah. At the time of this prince, certain promises were being fulfilled and the covenants consummated in the messianic age (40:6–16,28–37; 43:18–27; Ex. 20:8–11).

worship at the entrance to this gateway before the LORD on the Sabbaths and the New Moons. 4The burnt offering that [c]the prince offers to the LORD on the [d]Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish; 5[e]and the grain offering shall be one ephah for a ram, and the grain offering for the lambs, as much as he wants to give, as well as a hin of oil with every ephah. 6On the day of the New Moon
it shall be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish. 7He shall prepare a grain offering of an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram,
as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah. 8[f]When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the vestibule of the gateway, and go out the same way.

9"But when the people of the land [g]come before the LORD on the appointed feast days, whoever enters by way of the north [h]gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate; and whoever enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. He shall not return by way of the gate through which he came, but shall go out through the opposite gate. 10The prince shall then be in their midst. When they go in, he shall go in; and when they go out, he shall go out. 11At the festivals and the appointed feast days [i]the grain offering shall be an ephah for a bull, an ephah for a ram, as much as he wants to give for the lambs, and a hin of oil with every ephah.

12"Now when the prince makes a voluntary burnt offering or voluntary peace offering to the LORD, the gate that faces toward the east [j]shall then be opened for him;
and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he goes out the gate shall be shut.

13[k]"You shall daily make a burnt offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish; you shall prepare it every morning. 14And you shall prepare a grain offering with it every morning, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour. This grain offering is a perpetual ordinance, to be made regularly to the LORD. 15Thus they shall prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, as a [l]regular burnt offering every morning."

The Prince and Inheritance Laws

16'Thus says the Lord GOD: "If the prince gives a gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it shall belong to his sons;
it is their possession by inheritance. 17But if he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, it shall be his until [m]the year of liberty, after which it shall return to the prince. But his inheritance shall belong to his sons; it shall become theirs. 18More-over [n]the prince shall not take any of the people's inheritance by evicting them from their property; he shall provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people may be scattered from his property."'"

How the Offerings Were Prepared

19Now he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy [o]chambers of the priests which face toward the north; and there a place was situated at their extreme western end. 20And he said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall [p]boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall [q]bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out into the outer court [r]to sanctify the people."

21Then he brought me out into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and in fact, in every corner of the court there was another court. 22In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty wide; all four corners were the same size. 23*There was* a row of building stones
all around in them, all around the four of them; and cooking hearths were made under the rows of stones all around. 24And he said to me, "These are the kitchens where the ministers of the temple shall [s]boil the sacrifices of the people."

The Healing Waters and Trees

47 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple; and there was [a]water, flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar. 2He brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gateway that

46:9 He shall not return by the way of the gate through which he came. The prescribed protocol was probably to ensure an orderly procession and service. Such regulations would be needed on the special feast days due to the participation of large numbers of people.

46:14 a perpetual ordinance. This is a change from the provisions in the law (Num. 28:5). God's people cannot be reminded too often of God's provisions for them; nor can they thank Him too much or too frequently.

46:24 These are the kitchens. These were kitchen areas for the people to boil their sacrifices. The temple was a place for sacrificing, cooking, and eating. To combine the two elements is healthy for spiritual fellowship.

3And when [c]the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the water came up to my ankles. 4Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters; the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through; the water came up to my waist. 5Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross; for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that could not be crossed. 6He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he brought me and returned me to the bank of the river.
7When I returned, there, along the bank of the river, were very many [d]trees on one side and the other. 8Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed. 9And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes. 10It shall be that fishermen will stand by it from En Gedi to En Eglaim; they will be places for spreading their nets. Their fish will be of the same kinds as the fish [e]of the Great Sea, exceedingly many. 11But its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be given over to salt. 12[f]Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food; [g]their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for [h]medicine."

Borders of the Land

13Thus says the Lord GOD: "These are the [i]borders by which you shall divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. [j]Joseph shall have two portions. 14You shall inherit it equally with one another; for I [k]raised My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land shall [l]fall to you as your inheritance.
15"This shall be the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, by [m]the road to Hethlon, as one goes to [n]Zedad, 16[o]Hamath, [p]Berothah, Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), to Hazar Hatticon (which is on the border of Hauran). 17Thus the boundary shall be from the Sea to [q]Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus; and as for the north, northward, it is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.
18"On the east side you shall mark out the border from between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, along the Jordan, and along the eastern side of the sea. This is the east side.
19"The south side, toward the South,* shall be from Tamar to [r]the waters of Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the Great Sea. This is the south side, toward the South.
20"The west side shall be the Great Sea, from the southern boundary until one comes to a point opposite Hamath. This is the west side.
21"Thus you shall [s]divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22It shall be that you will divide it by [t]lot as an inheritance for yourselves, [u]and for the strangers who dwell among you and who bear children among you. [v]They shall be to you as native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. 23And it shall be that in whatever tribe the stranger dwells, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord GOD.

Division of the Land

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes: [a]From the northern border along the road to Hethlon at the entrance of Hamath, to Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus northward, in the direction of Hamath, there shall be one section for [b]Dan from its east to its west side; 2by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, one section for [c]Asher; 3by the border of Asher, from the east side to the west, one section for [d]Naphtali; 4by the border

47:14 You shall inherit it equally. Equality of inheritance is stressed. The unilateral and unconditional nature of the Abrahamic covenant is suggested; this inheritance is a free gift of God's grace which God's people did and could do nothing to deserve.
47:21–23 and for the strangers. Non-Israelites who married and settled within the Jewish communities were to be accepted as native Israelites, qualified to share in the territorial inheritance of whatever tribe they joined (Lev. 19:34).

The sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the center. 11[k]It shall be for the priests of the sons of Zadok, who are sanctified, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the children of Israel went astray, [l]as the Levites went astray. 12And this district of land that is set apart shall be to them a thing most [m]holy by the border of the Levites.

13"Opposite the border of the priests, the [n]Levites shall have an area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; its entire length shall be twenty-five thousand and its width ten thousand. 14[o]And they shall not sell or exchange any of it; they may not alienate this best part of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

It shall be adjacent to the district of the holy section, and its produce shall be food for the workers of the city. 19[r]The workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. 20The entire district shall be twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits, foursquare. You shall set apart the holy district with the property of the city.

21[s]"The rest shall belong to the prince, on one side and on the other of the holy district and of the city's property, next to the twenty-five thousand cubits of the holy district as far as the eastern border, and westward next to the twenty-five thousand as far as the western border, adjacent to the tribal portions; it shall belong to the prince. It shall be the holy district, [t]and the sanctuary of the temple shall be in the center. 22Moreover, apart from the possession of the Levites and the possession of the city which are in the midst of what belongs to the prince, the area between the border of Judah and the border of [u]Benjamin shall belong to the prince.

23"As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west, Benjamin shall have one section; 24by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west, [v]Simeon shall have one section; 25by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west, [w]Issachar shall have one section; 26by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west, [x]Zebulun shall have one section; 27by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west, [y]Gad shall have one section; 28by the border of Gad, on the south side, toward the South,* the border shall be from Tamar to [z]the waters of Meribah by Kadesh, along the brook to the [a]Great Sea. 29[b]This is the land which you shall divide by lot as an inheritance among the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions," says the Lord GOD.

The Gates of the City and Its Name

48:35 THE LORD IS THERE. This return of the Lord and the regathering of His people are predicted by Ezekiel in 11:17; 20:33–44; 37:15–28; and 39:21–29. The Lord was forced to depart from the city and the temple because of the wickedness of the Israelites (8:6; 10:18). But here, Ezekiel foresees the return of God in all His glory to His people, His temple, and His land. This was a powerful message in its context. Ezekiel and his immediate audience were far away from their homeland. This vision of the coming restoration would have inspired much hope in the faithful.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL

▶ AUTHOR: Daniel's life and ministry bridge the entire seventy-year period of Babylonian captivity. This claims Daniel as author, and it uses the first person from 7:2 onward. The Jewish Talmud supports this claim, and Christ attributed a quote from 9:27 to "Daniel the prophet" (Matt. 24:15). Daniel's wisdom and divinely given interpretive abilities brought him into a position of prominence, especially in the courts of Nebuchadnezzar and Darius.

▶ TIME: c. 605–536 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Dan. 2:20–22

▶ THEME: Daniel is one of very few heroes in the Bible whose record is flawless. He is an example of how to live and work as a believer in a hostile environment; a man of action while at the same time fully aware of his dependence on God. The important prophecies in Daniel have inspired many interpretations over the years. Many have attempted to identify the various elements of the prophecies and apply them to contemporary figures.

Daniel and His Friends Obey God

1 In the third year of the reign of [a]Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with [b]some of the articles of the house of God, which he carried [c]into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; [d]and he brought the articles into the treasure house of his god.

3Then the king instructed Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, to bring [e]some of the children of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles, 4young men [f]in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, gifted in all wisdom, possessing knowledge and quick to understand, who had ability to serve in the king's palace, and [g]whom they might teach the language and literature of the Chaldeans. 5And the king appointed for them a daily provision of the king's delicacies and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end of that time they might [h]serve before the king. 6Now from among those of the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 7[i]To them the chief of the eunuchs gave names: [j]he gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abed-Nego.

1:1 Jehoiakim king of Judah. Jehoiakim was an evil king who sided first with the Egyptians and then with the Babylonians, until he finally decided to rebel. His independence was short-lived, however, and he remained under Babylonian domination until his death (2 Kin. 23:34—24:6).

1:2 the treasure house of his god. These articles taken from the temple appear later, on the night of Belshazzar's feast (ch. 5). Eventually they were returned to Zerubbabel, who brought them back to Israel (Ezra 1:7).

1:3 master of his eunuchs. A term which became synonymous with "official." In ancient Middle Eastern monarchies, royal harems were typically superintended by men who had been emasculated and were considered reliable to serve in that capacity. A eunuch was often regarded as a privileged official. Some have speculated that Daniel and his friends were eunuchs, but there is no specific statement in the book to this effect.

1:4 language and literature. The language of most of Mesopotamia was Akkadian, which was written in cuneiform script. Over the centuries the Babylonians and Assyrians produced a massive body of literature of all types. Though Aramaic had begun to replace Akkadian by the time of Nebuchadnezzar, scholars continued to study and write literature in their classical tongue. Chaldeans. This name was commonly applied to Babylonians in general, and also to the guild of astrologers, diviners, and other practitioners of wisdom to which Daniel was being introduced (1:17; 2:2; 3:8).

1:7 names. Daniel means "God is my judge"; Belteshazzar means "lady protect the king," referring to the goddess Sarpanitu, wife of the god Marduk. Hananiah means "the Lord is gracious"; Shadrach means "I am fearful of the God." Mishael means "who is what God is?" Meshach means "I am of little

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself [k]with the portion of the king's delicacies, nor with the wine which he drank; therefore he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now [l]God had brought Daniel into the favor and goodwill of the chief of the eunuchs. 10 And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are your age? Then you would endanger my head before the king."
11 So Daniel said to the steward* whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days,
and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then let our appearance be examined before you, and the appearance of the young men who eat the portion of the king's delicacies; and as you see fit,
so deal with your servants." 14 So he consented with them in this matter, and tested them ten days.
15 And at the end of ten days their features appeared better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the king's delicacies. 16 Thus the steward took away their portion of delicacies and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.
17 As for these four young men, [m]God gave them [n]knowledge and skill in all literature and wisdom; and Daniel had [o]understanding in all visions and dreams.
18 Now at the end of the days, when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 Then the king interviewed* them, and among them all none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore [p]they served before the king. 20 [q]And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. 21 [r]Thus Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 Now in the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; [a]and his spirit was so troubled that [b]his sleep left him. 2 [c]Then the king gave the command to call the magicians, the astrologers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. 3 And the king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to know the dream."
4 Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic,* [d]"O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."
5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "My decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream to me, and its interpretation, you shall be [e]cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made an ash heap. 6 [f]However, if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts, rewards, and great honor.
Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."
7 They answered again and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give its interpretation." 8 The king answered and said, "I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm: 9 if you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the time has changed.
Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can give me its interpretation."
10 The Chaldeans answered the king, and said, "There is not a man on earth who can tell the king's matter; therefore no king, lord, or ruler has ever asked such things of any magician, astrologer, or Chaldean. 11 It is a difficult thing that the king requests, and there is no other who can tell it to the king [g]except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."
12 For this reason the king was angry and very furious, and gave the command to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. 13 So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise men; and they sought [h]Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

account." Azariah means "the Lord has helped me"; Abed-Nego means "servant of [the god] Nebo."

1:8 defile himself. The issue here was not the richness of the food or the alcohol. The king's table no doubt included unclean meats and food which had not been prepared according to the law. In addition, both meat and wines may well have already been offered to idols.

2:2 magicians. The word translated "magicians" refers to those who use a pen—most likely, those learned in the sacred writings of the Babylonians.

2:4 in Aramaic. Daniel 2:4b—7:28 is written in Aramaic, the common language of the day.

2:8 gain time. Nebuchadnezzar obviously did not have any faith in the integrity of his wise men or in the reality of their wisdom. He wanted to know for sure that the interpretation of his dream was a supernatural revelation, not just a clever story to please a king.

God Reveals Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

14 Then with counsel and wisdom Daniel answered Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon; 15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Ari-och made the decision known to Daniel.
16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him time, that he might tell the king the interpretation. 17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, 18 *i*that they might seek mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel *j*in a night vision. So Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
20 Daniel answered and said:

k"Blessed be the name of God forever
and ever,
*l*For wisdom and might are His.
21 And He changes *m*the times and the seasons;
*n*He removes kings and raises up kings;
*o*He gives wisdom to the wise
And knowledge to those who have understanding.
22 *p*He reveals deep and secret things;
*q*He knows what is in the darkness,
And *r*light dwells with Him.

23 "I thank You and praise You,
O God of my fathers;
You have given me wisdom and might,
And have now made known to me
what we *s*asked of You,
For You have made known to us the king's demand."

Daniel Explains the Dream

24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; take me before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation." 25 Then Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king, and said thus to him, "I have found a man of the captives* of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation."
26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?" 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot declare to the king. 28 *t*But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar *u*what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these: 29 As for you, O king, thoughts came to your mind while on your bed, about what would come to pass after this; *v*and He who reveals secrets has made known to you what will be. 30 *w*But as for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the king, *x*and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.
31 "You, O king, were watching; and behold, a great image! This great image, whose splendor was excellent, stood before you; and its form was awesome. 32 *y*This image's head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs* of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.* 34 You watched while a stone was cut out *z*without hands, which struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. 35 *a*Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became *b*like chaff from the summer threshing floors; the wind carried them away so that *c*no trace of them was found. And the stone that struck the image *d*became a great mountain *e*and filled the whole earth.
36 "This is the dream. Now we will tell the interpretation of it before the king. 37 *f*You,
O king, are a king of kings. *g*For the God

2:11 except the gods. The wise men were forced to acknowledge their own limitations. As far as they knew, they were doomed because the gods who had the answers did not speak with men.

2:18 that they might seek mercies from the God of heaven. Daniel and his friends knew the same thing that the other wise men did: only God could possibly reveal the king's dream. But, unlike the other wise men, they knew that their God would answer when they called on Him.

2:28 the latter days. This is an expression used frequently for the end times when God will intervene in human history to establish His eternal kingdom (Is. 2:2; Hos. 3:5; Mic. 4:1–3).

2:31 a great image. The image that Nebuchadnezzar saw represented four kingdoms that would rule over all the earth.

2:37 the God of heaven has given you a kingdom. The rulers of the nations of the world may not recognize God's authority, but that does not alter the fact that they have their positions only through His permission.

The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure."

Daniel and His Friends Promoted

46 [r]Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, prostrate before Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering [s]and incense to him. 47 The king answered Daniel, and said, "Truly [t]your God is the God of [u]gods, the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret." 48 [v]Then the king promoted Daniel [w]and gave him many great gifts; and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and [x]chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Also Daniel petitioned the king, [y]and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel [z]sat in the gate* of the king.

The Image of Gold

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. 2 And King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to gather together the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 3 So the satraps, the administrators, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then a herald cried aloud:

* 2:49 That is, the king's court

2:38 head of gold. The first worldwide empire, the head of gold, was Babylon.

2:39 another kingdom inferior to yours. The second empire, the chest and arms of silver, was Medo-Persia. Just as silver is inferior to gold, Medo-Persia was inferior to Babylon, not in size but in its effectiveness in governing its people. third kingdom of bronze. The third kingdom would be the Greek Empire.

2:40 fourth kingdom . . . strong as iron. The fourth kingdom, the legs of iron, is the only one not specifically identified within the Book of Daniel. Rome is the most likely choice, for it succeeded Greece, and was certainly a very strong empire.

2:41–45 the kingdom shall be divided. Some believe that this is a reference to the Roman Empire's decline, when the kingdom was divided and the fabric of the empire was weakening in the early centuries after Christ. In this case the "kingdom which shall never be destroyed" (obviously the kingdom of God) is a spiritual kingdom introduced by Christ at His first coming, and the mountain that grew from the rock would be a reference to the spread of Christianity, which eventually was named the state religion of the Roman Empire.

Others believe that verses 41–45 point to future events that have not yet been fulfilled. When this vision is compared with the four beasts of chapter 7, it seems clear that the fourth kingdom is yet to come. It is theorized that the kingdom of iron does actually refer to the Roman Empire, which will be revived in some form in the last days, perhaps as a ten-nation confederacy (the ten toes, or the ten horns of the beast of chapter 7). In this case, the "kingdom which shall never be destroyed" is a literal kingdom to be established by Jesus Christ at the second coming, at which time He will destroy the kingdoms of the world (Rev. 19:15).

3:1 cubits. A cubit in Israel was approximately 18 inches; in Babylon it was about 20 inches. Nebuchadnezzar's image was 90 to 100 feet tall. The odd proportions of this figure (a normal human height-to-width ratio is about 4:1 rather than 10:1) may indicate that the height includes a base or pedestal.

3:2 satraps. Satraps were the chief officials of the provinces of the empire.

7So at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, and lyre, in symphony with all kinds of music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the gold image which King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Daniel's Friends Disobey the King

8Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans [c]came forward and accused the Jews. 9They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, [d]"O king, live forever! 10You, O king, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the gold image; 11and whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12[e]There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have [f]not paid due regard to you. They do not serve your gods or worship the gold image which you have set up."

13Then Nebuchadnezzar, in [g]rage and fury, gave the command to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. So they brought these men before the king. 14Nebuchadnezzar spoke, saying to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold image which I have set up? 15Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, and psaltery, in symphony with all kinds of music, and you fall down and worship the image which I have made, [h]good! But if you do not worship, you shall be cast immediately into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. [i]And who is the god who will deliver you from my hands?"

16Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, [j]we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17If that is the case, our [k]God whom we serve is able to [l]deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king. 18But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we do not serve your gods, nor will we [m]worship the gold image which you have set up."

Saved in Fiery Trial

19Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. He spoke and commanded that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. 20And he commanded certain mighty men of valor who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, and cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21Then these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22Therefore, because the king's command was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. 23And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished; and he rose in haste and spoke, saying to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?"

They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

25"Look!" he answered, "I see four men loose, [n]walking in the midst of the fire; and they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like [o]the Son of God."*

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

26Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the mouth of the burning fiery furnace and spoke, saying, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, servants of the [p]Most High God, come out, and come here." Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came from the midst of the fire. 27And the satraps, administrators, governors, and the king's counselors gathered together, and they saw these men [q]on whose bodies the fire had no power; the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments affected, and the smell of fire was not on them.

* 3:25 Or a son of the gods

3:18 But if not. The faithful men knew that God could deliver them (v. 17), yet they were also aware that God could have chosen not to do so. Faith in God may not translate into victory in every circumstance (Heb. 11:32–39). To these men the outcome was irrelevant, for what was at stake was not God's ability or their own lives, but their faith and obedience to serve Him regardless of the cost.

3:25 I see four men loose. The fourth man walking with the three friends in the furnace may have been an angel. Many believe that this was an appearance of the preincarnate Christ.

and they have frustrated the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they should not serve nor worship any god except their that any people, nation, or language which speaks anything amiss against the [t]God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego shall er God who can deliver like this."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego in the province
of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king,

[a]To all peoples, nations, and languages
that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

2 I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders [b]that the Most High God has worked for me.

3 [c]How great are His signs,
And how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is [d]an everlasting kingdom,
And His dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.
5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, [e]and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head [f]troubled me.
6 Therefore I issued a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7 [g]Then the magicians, the astrologers, the Chal-deans, and the soothsayers came in,
and I told them the dream; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. 8 But at last Daniel came before me [h](his name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god; [i]in him is the Spirit of the Holy God), and I told the dream before him, saying: 9 "Belteshazzar, [j]chief of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy God is in you, and no secret troubles you, explain to me the visions of my dream
that I have seen, and its interpretation.

10 "These were the visions of my head
while on my bed:

I was looking, and behold,
[k]A tree in the midst of the earth,
And its height was great.
11 The tree grew and became strong;
Its height reached to the heavens,
And it could be seen to the ends of all
the earth.
12 Its leaves were lovely,
Its fruit abundant,
And in it was food for all.
[l]The beasts of the field found shade
under it,
The birds of the heavens dwelt in its
branches,
And all flesh was fed from it.

13 "I saw in the visions of my head while on my bed, and there was [m]a watcher, [n]a holy one, coming down from heaven.
14 He cried aloud and said thus:

[o]'Chop down the tree and cut off its
branches,
Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
[p]Let the beasts get out from under it,
And the birds from its branches.
15 Nevertheless leave the stump and roots in the earth,
Bound with a band of iron and bronze,
In the tender grass of the field.
Let it be wet with the dew of heaven,
And let him graze with the beasts
On the grass of the earth.
16 Let his heart be changed from that of a man,
Let him be given the heart of a beast,
And let seven [q]times* pass over him.

* 3:28 Or angel * 4:16 Possibly seven years, and so in verses 23, 25, and 32

3:28 Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego. Pagan cultures did not deny the existence of other gods, even those of other peoples. Nebuchadnezzar was impressed with the God of Israel, but that did not mean that he recognized that God is the only true god.

4:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king. These verses are a royal proclamation by Nebuchadnezzar concerning the God of Israel, in which the king celebrated what God had done for him and extolled His power and dominion.

4:8 my god. This refers to Marduk. Nebuchadnezzar was still a pagan, but he also recognized that Daniel had the spirit of his God, and that Daniel's God was different from other gods.

4:9 chief of the magicians. Daniel's position as head magician did not mean that he practiced sorcery or witchcraft, a thing clearly forbidden by the law (Deut. 18:10–11). In the pluralistic Babylonian society, Daniel's relationship with the God of Israel would automatically have been categorized as another form of magic, or astrology, or divination, the "wisdom" of the day. He received the honor and position of one who has favor with the gods.

4:16 seven times. These times could refer to years, months, weeks, days, or hours. Most take them as years, as elsewhere in the book (7:25).

18 "This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, [v]since all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able, [w]for the Spirit of the Holy God is in you."

Daniel Explains the Second Dream

19 Then Daniel, [x]whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for a time, and his thoughts [y]troubled him. So the king spoke, and said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation trouble you."

Belteshazzar answered and said, "My lord, may [z]the dream concern those who hate you, and its interpretation concern your enemies!

20 [a]"The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, whose height reached to the heavens and which could be seen by all the earth, 21whose leaves were lovely and its fruit abundant, in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and in whose branches the birds of the heaven had their home— 22[b]it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, [c]and your dominion to the end of the earth.

23 [d]"And inasmuch as the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its stump and roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field; let it be wet with the dew of heaven, [e]and let him graze with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him'; 24this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king: 25They shall [f]drive you from men, your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make you [g]eat grass like oxen. They shall wet you with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you, [h]till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and [i]gives it to whomever He chooses.

26 "And inasmuch as they gave the command to leave the stump and roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be assured to you, after you come to know that [j]Heaven rules. 27Therefore, O king, let my advice be acceptable to you; [k]break off your sins by being righteous, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. [l]Perhaps there may be [m]a lengthening of your prosperity."

Nebuchadnezzar's Humiliation

28 All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. 29At the end of the twelve months he was walking about the royal palace of Babylon. 30The king [n]spoke, saying, "Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for a royal dwelling by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?"

31 [o]While the word was still in the king's mouth, [p]a voice fell from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the kingdom has departed from you! 32And [q]they shall drive you from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. They shall make you eat grass like oxen; and seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses."

33 That very hour the word was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar; he was driven from men and ate grass like oxen; his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

4:32 until you know that the Most High rules. Nebuchadnezzar would become insane, yet in his animal-like state he would learn more of God than he ever had before. The chastisement of God is always for a holy and helpful purpose, if we will accept it.

Belshazzar's Feast

5 Belshazzar the king [a]made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand.
2 While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar gave the command to bring the gold and silver vessels [b]which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple which had been in Jerusalem, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. 3 Then they brought the gold [c]vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God which had been in Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. 4 They drank wine, [d]and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.
5 [e]In the same hour the fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace; and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6 Then the king's countenance changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his [f]knees knocked against each other. 7 [g]The king cried aloud
to bring in [h]the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke, saying to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and tells me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck; [i]and he shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." 8 Now all the king's wise men came, [j]but they could not read the writing, or make known to the king its interpretation. 9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly [k]troubled, his countenance was changed, and his lords were astonished.
10 The queen, because of the words of the king and his lords, came to the banquet hall. The queen spoke, saying,
"O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance change. 11 [l]There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God. And in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him;
and King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king—made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers. 12 Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas* were found in this Daniel, [m]whom the king named Belte-shazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

The Writing on the Wall Explained

13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke, and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives* from Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah? 14 I have heard of you, that [n]the Spirit of God is in you, and

* 5:13 Literally of the sons of the captivity

5:1 Belshazzar the king. Belshazzar is called the king and the son of Nebuchadnezzar. Other ancient records, however, seem to dispute both facts. These records indicate that Belshazzar was the son of Nabonidus, the last king of Babylon. It is possible that Belshazzar was the grandson of Nebuchadnezzar. In ancient writings, the term father is often used to indicate ancestry rather than immediate family (2 Kin. 14:3). Belshazzar may have served as vice-regent while his father was still living (Nabonidus seems to have spent a number of the years of his reign in Arabia). Thus, he would have been acting as king, even if he was not officially king. Note that Darius the Mede was also called king, even though he served Cyrus (5:31; 6:6).

5:7 third ruler. Assuming that Belshazzar was acting as regent for his father Nabonidus, the "third ruler" would have been next in line for the throne.

5:11 the Spirit of the Holy God. This is the same expression used by Nebuchadnezzar (4:8–9,18).

5:13 that Daniel who is one of the captives. Daniel was an old man by this time, possibly 80 years old or older.

[p]Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

17Then Daniel answered, and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another; yet I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18O king, [q]the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty, glory and honor. 19And because of the majesty that He gave him, [r]all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished, he [s]executed; whomever he wished, he kept alive; whomever he wished, he set up; and whomever he wished, he put down. 20[t]But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. 21Then he was [u]driven from the sons of men, his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. They fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, [v]till he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and appoints over it whomever He chooses.

22"But you his son, Belshazzar, [w]have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this. 23[x]And you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the [y]vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, [z]which do not see or hear or know; and the God who holds your breath in His hand [a]and owns all your ways, you have not glorified. 24Then the fingers* of the hand were sent from Him, and this writing was written.

25"And this is the inscription that was written:

MENE,* MENE, TEKEL,* UPHARSIN.*

26This is the interpretation of each word. MENE: God has numbered your kingdom, and finished it; 27TEKEL: [b]You have been weighed in the balances, and found wanting; 28PERES: Your kingdom has been divided, and given to the [c]Medes and [d]Persians."* 29Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him [e]that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

Belshazzar's Fall

30[f]That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain. 31[g]And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

The Plot Against Daniel

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty satraps, to be over the whole kingdom; 2and over these, three governors, of whom Daniel was one, that the satraps might give account to them, so that the king would suffer no loss. 3Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, [a]because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm. 4[b]So the governors and satraps sought to find some charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful; nor was there any error or

5:25–28 Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin. MENE means "numbered." The repetition is for emphasis. God had numbered the days of Belshazzar's kingdom, and the time was up. TEKEL means "weighed." God had weighed Belshazzar's character, and he did not measure up. UPHARSIN (the plural of PERES) means "divided." That very night Babylon would be divided and defeated by the Medes and the Persians.

5:30 That very night. That very evening (October 12, 539 B.C.), Babylon fell to the Persian army commanded by Gubaru.

5:31 Darius the Mede. Darius the Mede is mentioned by name only in the Book of Daniel. He cannot be the famous Darius I Hystaspes because Darius I was not a Mede, and he lived too late (522–486 B.C.) to be a contemporary of Daniel. It is believed that "Darius the Mede" was Gubaru, a governor appointed by Cyrus. Ancient literary sources indicate that this official took over immediately in Babylon until Cyrus appointed his own son Cambyses as co-ruler around 538 B.C. Why Gubaru might have been called Darius is uncertain, though ancient rulers often took other names for themselves.

6:3 an excellent spirit. This probably refers to Daniel's surpassing ability to do his job well and perhaps also indicates a commendable attitude.

fault found in him. 5Then these men said, "We shall not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

6So these governors and satraps thronged before the king, and said thus to him: [c]"King Darius, live forever! 7All the governors of the kingdom, the administrators and satraps, the counselors and advisors, have [d]consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever petitions any god or man for thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions. 8Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, so that it cannot be changed, according to the [e]law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter." 9Therefore King Darius signed the written decree.

Daniel in the Lions' Den

10Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open [f]toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees [g]three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.

11Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. 12[h]And they went before the king, and spoke concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree that every man who petitions any god or man within thirty days, except you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?"

The king answered and said, "The thing is true, [i]according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not alter."

13So they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, [j]who is one of the captives* from Judah, [k]does not show due regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

14And the king, when he heard these words, [l]was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to deliver him. 15Then these men approached the king, and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is [m]the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

16So the king gave the command, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. But the king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, He will deliver you." 17[n]Then a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, [o]and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signets of his lords, that the purpose concerning Daniel might not be changed.

Daniel Saved from the Lions

18Now the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and no musicians* were brought before him. [p]Also his sleep went from him. 19Then the [q]king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions. 20And when he came to the den, he cried out with a lamenting voice to Daniel. The king spoke, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, [r]has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

21Then Daniel said to the king, [s]"O king, live forever! 22[t]My God sent His angel and [u]shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not hurt me, because I was found innocent before Him; and also, O king, I have done no wrong before you."

23Now the king was exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, [v]because he believed in his God.

Darius Honors God

24And the king gave the command, [w]and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions—them, [x]their children, and their wives; and the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they ever came to the bottom of the den.

6:5 the law of his God. Daniel had such integrity that, even after a life spent in government circles, his enemies could find nothing against him. His devotion to God was so well known that these men were confident that Daniel would obey His law even if it would cost him his life.

6:13 who is one of the captives from Judah. Daniel's accusers did not describe him as governor (v. 2), but as a captive from another land, in order to implicate him as a treasonous and dangerous person.

6:14 was greatly displeased. It is clear that Darius had not factored Daniel into the situation in the beginning. He never had the intention of harming him.

6:23 he believed in his God. Daniel's faithfulness got him into trouble; faith got him out of it (Heb. 11:33).

6:24 their children, and their wives. The entire families of the wicked conspirators were destroyed because the Persians, like the Hebrews and other peoples, considered guilt a collective responsibility (Num. 16:1–35; Josh. 7).

25 [y]Then King Darius wrote:

To all peoples, nations, and languages
that dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

26 [z]I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men must [a]tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.

[b]For He is the living God,
And steadfast forever;
His kingdom is the one which shall not be [c]destroyed,
And His dominion shall endure to the end.
27 He delivers and rescues,
[d]And He works signs and wonders
In heaven and on earth,
Who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius [e]and in the reign of [f]Cyrus the Persian.

Vision of the Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, [a]Daniel had a dream and [b]visions of his head while on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, telling the main facts.*

2 Daniel spoke, saying, "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the Great Sea.
3 And four great beasts [c]came up from the sea, each different from the other. 4 The first was [d]like a lion, and had eagle's wings. I watched till its wings were plucked off; and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and a [e]man's heart was given to it.

5 [f]"And suddenly another beast, a second,
like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said thus to it: 'Arise, devour much flesh!'

6 "After this I looked, and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had [g]four heads, and dominion was given to it.

7 "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, [h]a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, exceedingly strong. It had huge iron teeth; it was devouring, breaking in pieces, and trampling the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, [i]and it had ten horns. 8 I was considering the horns, and [j]there was another horn, a little one, coming up among them, before whom three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes [k]of a man, [l]and a mouth speaking pompous words.

Vision of the Ancient of Days

9 "I[m] watched till thrones were put in place,
And [n]the Ancient of Days was seated;
[o]His garment was white as snow,
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was a fiery flame,
[p]Its wheels a burning fire;
10 [q]A fiery stream issued
And came forth from before Him.
[r]A thousand thousands ministered to
Him;
Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
[s]The court* was seated,
And the books were opened.

11 "I watched then because of the sound of the pompous words which the horn was speaking; [t]I watched till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning flame. 12 As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

* 7:10 Or judgment

6:28 and in the reign of Cyrus. Gubaru, or Darius, served Cyrus for about one year, after which Cyrus appointed his son Cambyses as regent over Babylon.
7:1 the first year of Belshazzar. Chapter 5 records Belshazzar's death, indicating that the Book of Daniel is not arranged chronologically.
7:3 four great beasts. These four beasts represent kings or kingdoms, like the four metals of the statue in chapter 2.
7:4 like a lion, and had eagle's wings. There has been almost universal agreement from the early centuries until today that this beast represents Babylon. It is also agreed that the visions of chapters 2 and 7 speak of the same four kingdoms.
7:5 like a bear. The bear seems to represent Babylon's successor, the Medo-Persian Empire (2:38–39). The three ribs may represent the three kingdoms that Medo-Persia devoured—Babylon, Libya, and Egypt.
7:6 like a leopard. The leopard is believed to represent Greece. The Greeks, under the leadership of Alexander the Great, rapidly conquered the known world. four heads. After Alexander's death, his empire was divided into four different parts (8:8–22)—Macedonia, Egypt, Syria, and Thracia.
7:7 fourth beast. The last of the beasts may represent Rome (2:40).
7:9 Ancient of Days. "Ancient of Days" is a reference to God the Father as certified by the submission of the "One like the Son of Man" (vv. 13–14) and His role in judgment (v. 22).
7:10 And the books were opened. The books record the names and deeds of those who will be judged (Rev. 20:12).

Daniel's Visions Interpreted

15 "I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things: 17 'Those great beasts, which are four, are four kings* which arise out of the earth.
18 But [y]the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.' 19 "Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; 20 and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.
21 "I was watching; [z]and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, 22 until the Ancient of Days came, [a]and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.
23 "Thus he said:

'The fourth beast shall be [b]A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole earth,
Trample it and break it in pieces.
24 [c]The ten horns are ten kings
Who shall arise from this kingdom.
And another shall rise after them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.
25 [d]He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, Shall [e]persecute* the saints of the Most High,
And shall [f]intend to change times and law.
Then [g]the saints shall be given into his hand
[h]For a time and times and half a time.

26 'But[i] the court shall be seated,
And they shall [j]take away his dominion,
To consume and destroy it forever.
27 Then the [k]kingdom and dominion,
And the greatness of the kingdoms
under the whole heaven,
Shall be given to the people, the saints
of the Most High.
[l]His kingdom is an everlasting
kingdom,
[m]And all dominions shall serve and obey Him.'

28 "This is the end of the account.* As for me, Daniel, [n]my thoughts greatly troubled me, and my countenance changed; but I [o]kept the matter in my heart."

* 7:17 Representing their kingdoms (compare verse 23) * 7:25 Literally wear out * 7:28 Literally the word

7:13 with the clouds of heaven. John uses the same expression to speak of Jesus coming in judgment (Rev. 1:7). One like the Son of Man. The term "son of man" is an expression meaning "human," but clearly this "One like the Son of Man" was no ordinary human. Jewish and Christian expositors have both identified this individual as the Messiah. Jesus Himself used this name to emphasize His humanity (Matt. 9:6; 10:23).

7:14 to Him was given dominion. Jesus will reign over all things (1 Cor. 15:27–28; Eph. 1:20–23; Phil. 2:9–11; Rev. 17:14; 19:10).

7:21 the same horn was making war. The little horn's militaristic character is seen also in 11:38–39 and particularly in Revelation 13:1–10. There, in the guise of a beast, this blasphemous enemy of the saints prevails for 42 months. The connection between Daniel's little horn and John's beast from the sea is unmistakable.

7:24 The ten horns. Some perceive the fourth beast as representing Rome, and the ten horns as the fragments of the Roman Empire. Others see the fourth beast as a revived Roman Empire and the ten horns as kings of a future realm.

7:25 a time and times and half a time. If the expression "time" is taken to mean a year, and "times" as two years, the three and a half years would exactly equal the 42 months mentioned in the Book of Revelation (Rev. 13:1–10), half of the 70th "week" of years of 9:27. Some also believe that the expression does not indicate a specific number of years but instead a period of time that God in His mercy would shorten.

Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me—to me, Daniel—after the one that appeared to me [a]the first time. 2I saw in the vision, and it so happened while I was looking, that I was in [b]Shushan, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision that I was by the River Ulai. 3Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and there, standing beside the river, was a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high; but one was [c]higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. 4I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward, so that no animal could withstand him; nor was there any that could deliver from his hand, [d]but he did according to his will and became great.

5And as I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west, across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable [e]horn between his eyes. 6Then he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him with furious power. 7And I saw him confronting the ram; he was moved with rage against him, attacked the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram from his hand.

8Therefore the male goat grew very great; but when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it [f]four notable ones came up toward the four winds of heaven. 9[g]And out of one of them came a little horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, [h]toward the east, and toward the [i]Glorious Land. 10[j]And it grew up to [k]the host of heaven; and [l]it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the ground, and trampled them. 11[m]He even exalted himself as high as [n]the Prince of the host; [o]and by him [p]the daily sacrifices were taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. 12Because of transgression, [q]an army was given over to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifices; and he cast [r]truth down to the ground. He [s]did all this and prospered.

13Then I heard [t]a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who was speaking, "How long will the vision be, concerning the daily sacrifices and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trampled underfoot?"

14And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days;* then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."

Gabriel Interprets the Vision

15Then it happened, when I, Daniel, had seen the vision and [u]was seeking the meaning, that suddenly there stood before me [v]one having the appearance of a man. 16And I heard a man's voice [w]between the banks of the Ulai, who called, and said, [x]"Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." 17So he came near where I stood, and when he came I was afraid and [y]fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision refers to the time of the end."

18[z]Now, as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground; [a]but he touched me, and stood me upright. 19And he said, "Look, I am making known to you what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation; [b]for at the appointed time the end shall be. 20The ram which you saw, having the two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia. 21And the male goat is the kingdom* of Greece. The large horn that is between its eyes [c]is the first king. 22[d]As for the broken horn and the four that stood up in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of that nation, but not with its power.

* 8:14 Literally evening-mornings * 8:21 Literally king, representing his kingdom (compare 7:17, 23)

8:1 In the third year. After writing in Aramaic from 2:4—7:28, Daniel returns to writing in Hebrew.

8:3 a ram which had two horns. The ram represents Medo-Persia (v. 20). The two horns symbolize the peoples of Media and Persia.

8:5 a male goat. The goat represents Greece (v. 21). The notable horn symbolizes Alexander the Great (v. 21) who launched his attack against Persia in 334 B.C. Within two years, he had essentially subdued the Persian Empire. His conquest was so rapid that it seemed as if he never touched the ground.

8:8 the large horn was broken. Alexander the Great died at the height of his career, before he was 33 years old. After his death, his empire was divided among his four generals (11:4).

8:9 a little horn. This horn is Antiochus Epiphanes, who ruled part of the Greek Empire from 175 to 164 B.C.

8:11 Prince of the host. This is clearly God Himself. The "host" refers to God's people (12:3; Gen. 15:5).

Antiochus is remembered in infamy by the Jews because he desecrated the temple by setting up a statue of Zeus and sacrificing a pig on the holy altar.

8:14 two thousand three hundred days. This was the amount of time between Antiochus' pollution of the temple and the Maccabees' cleansing of it.

8:16 Gabriel. This is the first mention of the angel Gabriel. This angel is mentioned by name three other times (9:21; Luke 1:19,26).

Daniel's Prayer for the People

9 In the first year [a]of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans— 2in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the LORD through [b]Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3[c]Then I set my face toward the Lord God to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. 4And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, "O [d]Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him, and with those who keep His commandments, 5[e]we have sinned and committed iniquity, we have done wickedly and rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and Your judgments. 6[f]Neither have we heeded Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings and our princes, to our fathers and all the people of the land. 7O Lord, [g]righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, those near and those far off in all the countries to which You have driven them, because of the unfaithfulness which they have committed against You.

8"O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You. 9[h]To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him. 10We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets. 11Yes, [i]all Israel has transgressed Your law, and has departed so as not to obey Your voice; therefore the curse and the oath written in the [j]Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against Him. 12And He has [k]confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great disaster; [l]for under the whole heaven such

8:24 not by his own power. Like the antichrist (2 Thess. 2:9), Antiochus would be energized by Satan.

8:25 broken without human means. According to the book of 2 Maccabees, Antiochus died of a painful disease.

9:2 by the books. The "books" were the Scriptures, specifically the Book of Jeremiah, which states that the captivity would last 70 years (Jer. 25:11–12; 29:10–14). By this time, Daniel himself had been in captivity for about 67 years, and he knew that the punishment was nearly over.

9:3–4 Prayer and Fasting—There are many examples in Scripture of people who pray to learn the will of God. There are also some examples of people who do not pray and find themselves in trouble (Josh. 9). Most Christians quickly learn that one of the most important ways we learn the will of God for our lives is through prayer. "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him" (James 1:5). See also Psalm 143:8–10 and James 4:2.

Other verses in the Bible link prayer with fasting. To fast is to abstain for a period of time from some important and necessary activity in our lives. The purpose of fasting is to be able to spend that time in prayer before God. Different kinds of fasting are possible. One may for a time refrain from sleep (2 Cor. 6:5; 11:27), marital sex (1 Cor. 7:1–5), or food (Matt. 4:1–2). There are also many examples of fasting in the Word: Moses in Deuteronomy 9:9, Elijah in 1 Kings 19:8, Daniel in Daniel 9:3, Ezra in Ezra 10:6, and Nehemiah in Nehemiah 1:4.

9:11 the curse and the oath. Covenant documents typically contained statements concerning the penalties for covenant violation (Lev. 26:3–45; Deut. 27–28). The most feared and devastating curse of all had come to pass when the people were deported from the land.

O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name."

The Seventy-Weeks Prophecy

20 Now while I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, 21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man [d]Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, reached me about the time of the evening offering. 22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, "O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you skill to understand. 23 At the beginning of your supplications the command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly [e]beloved; therefore [f]consider the matter, and understand the vision:

24 "Seventy weeks* are determined
For your people and for your holy city,
To finish the transgression,
To make an end of* sins,
[g]To make reconciliation for iniquity,
[h]To bring in everlasting righteousness,
To seal up vision and prophecy,
[i]And to anoint the Most Holy.

25 "Know therefore and understand,
That from the going forth of the command
To restore and build Jerusalem
Until [j]Messiah [k]the Prince,
There shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks;
The street* shall be built again, and the wall,*
Even in troublesome times.

26 "And after the sixty-two weeks
[l]Messiah shall be cut off, [m]but not for Himself;
And [n]the people of the prince who is to come [o]Shall destroy the city and the sanctuary.
The end of it shall be with a flood,
And till the end of the war desolations are determined.
27 Then he shall confirm [p]a covenant with [q]many for one week;
But in the middle of the week
He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.
And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate,
[r]Even until the consummation, which is determined,
Is poured out on the desolate."

9:21 the time of the evening offering. The temple was in ruins, and regular daily sacrifices were impossible. Nevertheless, Daniel observed the ritual of worship by praying at the hour of the evening sacrifice. Daniel's prayer was his evening offering.
9:24 Seventy weeks. The word "weeks" can also be translated "sevens." Many scholars agree that the "sevens" are periods of seven years.
9:25 the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem. This may refer to the decree of Cyrus in Ezra 1, the decree of Darius in Ezra 6, the decree of Artaxerxes in Ezra 7, or the decree of Artaxerxes in Nehemiah 2.
9:26 sixty-two weeks. When the 7 weeks and 62 weeks (v. 25) are added together, they equal 483 years. If these years are added to the date of the decree of Artaxerxes in Nehemiah 2 (445 B.C.), with an adjustment to allow for a 360-day year, the end of the 69 weeks coincides with the date of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem just before the crucifixion. the prince who is to come. This seems to be a reference to the antichrist.
9:27 in the middle of the week. That is, 3-1/2 years later. These 3-1/2 years of the rule of the antichrist

Vision of the Glorious Man

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose [a]name was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, but the appointed time was long;* and he understood the message, and had understanding of the vision. 2In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks. 3I ate no pleasant food, no meat or wine came into my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4Now on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, that is, the Tigris,* 5I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a certain man clothed in [b]linen, whose waist was [c]girded with gold of Uphaz! 6His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like torches of fire, his arms and feet like burnished bronze in color, [d]and the sound of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great terror fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. 8Therefore I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my vigor was turned to frailty in me, and I retained no strength. 9Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words I was in a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

Prophecies Concerning Persia and Greece

10[e]Suddenly, a hand touched me, which made me tremble on my knees and on the palms of my hands. 11And he said to me, "O Daniel, [f]man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you." While he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.

12Then he said to me, [g]"Do not fear, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, [h]your words were heard; and I have come because of your words. 13[i]But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; and behold, [j]Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the kings of Persia. 14Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people [k]in the latter days, [l]for the vision refers to many days yet to come."

15When he had spoken such words to me, [m]I turned my face toward the ground and became speechless. 16And suddenly, [n]one having the likeness of the sons* of men [o]touched my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, saying to him who stood before me, "My lord, because of the vision [p]my sorrows have overwhelmed me, and I have retained no strength. 17For how can this servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me."

18Then again, the one having the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me. 19[q]And he said, "O man greatly beloved, [r]fear not! Peace be to you; be strong, yes, be strong!"

So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? And now I must return to fight [s]with the prince of Persia; and when I have gone forth, indeed the prince of Greece will come. 21But I will tell you seem to correspond with the "time and times and half a time" when the fourth beast rules (7:25) and with the 42-month rule of the beast from the sea (Rev. 13:1–10). one who makes desolate. Antiochus committed an abomination by setting up an altar to the god Zeus in the holy place in the temple in Jerusalem (11:31). The antichrist will also commit an abomination of desolation against the living God. Jesus' reference to "the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet" (Matt. 24:15) occurred long after the desolation caused by Antiochus and indicates that this verse is describing the abomination of the antichrist and not that of Antiochus.

10:2 three full weeks. This period of time refers to Daniel's observance of the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which took place during the first month of the year (Ex. 12:1–20).

10:6 his face like the appearance of lightning. The description of this man is very much like Ezekiel's description of the glory of God (Ezek. 1:4–28) and John's description of the risen Christ (Rev. 1:9–20).

10:13 the prince of the kingdom of Persia. This prince cannot be a human ruler because the conflict referred to here is in the spiritual, heavenly realm, as the allusion to the angel Michael (also referred to as a prince) makes clear. This prince, therefore, must be understood as a satanic figure who was to supervise the affairs of Persia, inspiring its religious, social, and political structures to evil. The apostle Paul refers to "spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Eph. 6:12). The prince of Persia apparently sought to detain the angel so that Daniel would be prevented from hearing more of God's revelation (vv. 12–14).

Michael. Michael seems to be one of the most powerful angels. He is mentioned three times in the Old Testament, all in the Book of Daniel (v. 21; 12:1), and twice in the New Testament (Jude 9; Rev. 12:7).

10:20 with the prince of Persia. Persia was under what is noted in the Scripture of Truth. (No one upholds me against these, [t]except Michael your prince.

11 "Also [a]in the first year of [b]Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood up to confirm and strengthen him.) 2And now I will tell you the truth: Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than them all; by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. 3Then [c]a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion, and [d]do according to his will. 4And when he has arisen, [e]his kingdom shall be broken up and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not among his posterity [f]nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.

Warring Kings of North and South

5"Also the king of the South shall become strong, as well as one of his princes; and he shall gain power over him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a great dominion. 6And at the end of some years they shall join forces, for the daughter of the king of the South shall go to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of her authority,* and neither he nor his authority* shall stand; but she shall be given up, with those who brought her, and with him who begot her, and with him who strengthened her in those times. 7But from a branch of her roots one shall arise in his place, who shall come with an army, enter the fortress of the king of the North, and deal with them and prevail. 8And he shall also carry their gods captive to Egypt, with their princes* and their precious articles of silver and gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the North.

9"Also the king of the North shall come to the kingdom of the king of the South, but shall return to his own land. 10However his sons shall stir up strife, and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one shall certainly come [g]and overwhelm and pass through; then he shall return [h]to his fortress and stir up strife.

11"And the king of the South shall be [i]moved with rage, and go out and fight with him, with the king of the North, who shall muster a great multitude; but the [j]multitude shall be given into the hand of his enemy. 12When he has taken away the multitude, his heart will be lifted up; and he will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not prevail. 13For the king of the North will return and muster a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come at the end of some years with a great army and much equipment.

14"Now in those times many shall rise up against the king of the South. Also, violent men* of your people shall exalt themselves in fulfillment of the vision, but they shall [k]fall. 15So the king of the North shall come and [l]build a siege mound, and take a fortified city; and the forces* of the South shall not withstand him. Even his choice troops shall have no strength to resist. 16But he who comes against him [m]shall do according to his own will, and [n]no one shall stand against him. He shall stand in the Glorious Land with destruction in his power.*

17"He shall also [o]set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones* with him; thus shall he do. And he shall give him the daughter of women to destroy it; but she shall not stand with him, the ultimate dominion of an evil spirit from Satan (vv. 13–14), and so also was Greece. The succession of world powers follows the pattern of Daniel's second vision (8:20–22).

11:1 the first year of Darius. This is the same year as that of the revelation of the 70 weeks, 539 B.C.

11:2 three more kings. Darius (under Cyrus) was followed by Cambyses (530–522 B.C.), Gaumata (522 B.C.), Darius I (522–486 B.C.), and Xerxes (486–465 B.C.)—who was the richest king of all, due to the extent of the empire's conquests and the severe taxation.

11:4 but not among his posterity. The "mighty king" of verse 3 fits with Alexander the Great, the first ruler of the Greek Empire. When Alexander died, his four generals carved up the Macedonian Empire. Antigonus ruled from southern Syria to central Asia; Cassander ruled over Macedonia; Ptolemy ruled in Egypt and southern Syria, including Palestine; Lysimachus ruled over Thrace.

11:5 the king of the South. Alexander's general Ptolemy I Soter was the first king of the southern kingdom—that is, Egypt.

11:6–15 at the end of some years. The events described in these verses fit with the actual history of the divided Greek Empire. the daughter of the king. This refers to Berenice, the daughter of Ptolemy Philadelphus (285–246 B.C.) of Egypt. the king of the North. This is Antiochus II Theos (261–246 B.C.) of Syria. a branch of her roots. This is Berenice's brother, Ptolemy III Eurgetes (246–221 B.C.), who conquered Seleucus Callinicus (246–226 B.C.) of Syria (the king of the North). Seleucus did attempt a return attack on Egypt, but returned to Syria without accomplishing his goal. The kings of Egypt and Syria (the south and the north) continued to war against each other in the manner described in the prophecy. take a fortified city. Antiochus of Syria defeated the fortified city of Sidon in 198 B.C.

11:17 the daughter of women. Antiochus III's daughter Cleopatra was given in marriage to Ptolemy V Epiphanes of Egypt in order to destroy or undermine

25"He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand, for they shall devise plans against him. 26Yes, those who eat of the portion of his delicacies shall destroy him; his army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain. 27Both these kings' hearts shall be bent on evil, and they shall speak lies at the same table; but it shall not prosper, for the end will still be at the [w]appointed time. 28While returning to his land with great riches, his heart shall be moved against the holy covenant; so he shall do damage and return to his own land.

"So he shall return and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant. 31And forces* shall be mustered by him, [y]and they shall defile the sanctuary fortress; then they shall take away the daily sacrifices, and place there the abomination of desolation. 32Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits. 33And those of the people who understand shall instruct many; yet for many days they shall fall by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering. 34Now when they fall, they shall be aided with a little help; but many shall join with them by intrigue. 35And some of those of understanding shall fall, [z]to refine them, purify them, and make them white, until the time of the end; because it is still for the appointed time.

Egypt, but Cleopatra sided with her husband over her father.

11:18–19 the coastlands . . . his own land. Antiochus III undertook a vigorous campaign into Asia Minor and the Aegean region. The Roman Lucius Cornelius Scipio defeated Antiochus. Having lost all that he had gained, Antiochus returned to his own land, where he was defeated and killed while trying to plunder a temple.

11:21 a vile person. Antiochus IV Epiphanes seized the throne through treachery and later defiled the temple in Jerusalem (v. 31; 9:27).

11:29 he shall return and go toward the south. After learning that Ptolemy VI and Ptolemy VII had formed a union against him, Antiochus returned to Egypt in 168 B.C., but he was driven out by the Romans.

11:31 abomination of desolation. Antiochus defiled the sanctuary by sacrificing a pig on the altar. He put a stop to the daily sacrifices, and he set up an image of Zeus in the holy place. Jesus said that a similar thing would happen just prior to His return (Matt. 24:15).

11:32 the people who know their God. The books of Maccabees record the story of Mattathias, the father of five sons, who refused to offer profane sacrifices and killed the king's agents. He and his sons then fled to the mountains and began the famous Maccabean revolt.

11:32 Know God Through His Word—The highest knowledge to which men and women can attain is personal knowledge of God (Jer. 9:24). One of the most valuable teachings of Scripture is that we can actually know God through His Word. To know God personally is to be saved and have eternal life (Job 17:3). We gain this knowledge primarily through interaction with His Word in four ways: First, we listen to and receive God's Word as the Holy Spirit interprets it and applies it to our hearts. Second, Scripture reveals God's nature and character. We know God through understanding of the works He has done, which are explained in Scripture. Third, our knowledge of God moves from intellectual to personal when we accept the invitation He has given us and do what He commands. Fourth, our personal knowledge of God grows as we rejoice in the love He shows us in Scripture and express joy in response to what He has done for us and given us. The Word leads to knowledge of all that is true about God. This knowledge of God then produces fellowship with Him.

11:35 it is still for the appointed time. Clearly, the trouble and wickedness of Antiochus' reign was not the end. That is yet to come.

his own will: he shall [a]exalt and magnify himself above every god, shall speak blasphemies against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the wrath has been accomplished; for what has been determined shall be done. 37He shall regard neither the God* of his fathers nor the desire of women, [b]nor regard any god; for he shall exalt himself above them all. 38But in their place he shall honor a god of fortresses; and a god which his fathers did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and pleasant things. 39Thus he shall act against the strongest fortresses with a foreign god, which he shall acknowledge, and advance its glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

The Northern King's Conquests

40"At the [c]time of the end the king of the South shall attack him; and the king of the North shall come against him [d]like a whirlwind, with chariots, [e]horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter the countries, overwhelm them, and pass through. 41He shall also enter the Glorious Land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape from his hand: [f]Edom, Moab, and the prominent people of Ammon. 42He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of [g]Egypt shall not escape. 43He shall have power over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; also the Libyans and Ethiopians shall follow [h]at his heels. 44But news from the east and the north shall trouble him;
therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. 45And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the seas and [i]the glorious holy mountain;
[j]yet he shall come to his end, and no one will help him.

Prophecy of the End Time

12 "At that time Michael shall stand up,
The great prince who stands watch
over the sons of your people;
[a]And there shall be a time of trouble,
Such as never was since there was a nation,
Even to that time.
And at that time your people [b]shall be delivered,
Every one who is found [c]written in the book.
2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake,
[d]Some to everlasting life,
Some to shame [e]and everlasting contempt.
3 Those who are wise shall [f]shine
Like the brightness of the firmament,
[g]And those who turn many to righteousness
[h]Like the stars forever and ever.

4"But you, Daniel, [i]shut up the words,
and seal the book until the time of the end;
many shall [j]run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase."

5Then I, Daniel, looked; and there stood two others, one on this riverbank and the other on that [k]riverbank. 6And one said to the man clothed in [l]linen, who was above the waters of the river, [m]"How long shall the fulfillment of these wonders be?"

7Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he [n]held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by Him [o]who lives forever, [p]that it shall be for a time, times, and half a time; [q]and when the power of [r]the holy people has been completely shattered, all these things shall be finished.

* 11:37 Or gods

11:36 Then the king. Many ancient and modern interpreters have concluded that at this point a new person, the antichrist, is introduced. This king is distinguished from the king of the North (v. 40); therefore, he cannot be Antiochus Epiphanes. It appears that there is a gap of many years between verses 35 and 36, and this refers back to "the time of the end" which will come at the "appointed time" (v. 35).

11:38 a god which his fathers did not know. This is probably a reference to self-worship (v. 37; 2 Thess. 2:4).

11:40 time of the end. This is the period just before the return of Christ (Matt. 24:14).

11:45 no one will help him. The end of the king is sealed at Christ's second coming (Rev. 19:11–21).

12:1 written in the book. The Book of Life is God's record of those who are justified by faith (Ex. 32:32; Ps. 69:28; Luke 10:20; Rev. 20:12).

12:2 many . . . who sleep . . . shall awake. This passage appears to refer to a general resurrection, while other passages suggest that there is more than one (John 5:25). It is not unusual for prophecy in the Old Testament to present events separated by a considerable span of time as if they occurred in immediate relationship to each other (see, for example, Is. 61:1–2).

12:6 How long. This question refers to the duration of the trials, not the dates of the events.

12:7 a time, times, and half a time. If a "time" is a year, this adds up to 3-1/2 years (7:25), which may refer to the period immediately preceding the second coming of Christ (7:27). Some believe that this expression is not meant to indicate anything more specific than a length of time.

8 Although I heard, I did not understand.
Then I said, "My lord, what shall be the end of these things?"
9 And he said, "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. 10 [s]Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, [t]but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but [u]the wise shall understand.
11 "And from the time that the daily sacrifice is taken away, and the abomination of desolation is set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred and ninety days.
12 Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.
13 "But you, go your way till the end; [v]for you shall rest, [w]and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days."

12:11 one thousand two hundred and ninety days. Various interpretations have been suggested. One significant interpretation is that these days refer to the time following a point halfway through a seven-year period of tribulation prior to the coming of Christ (9:27).

12:12 the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days. The extra 45 days may be the amount of time that the last battles will take before the victory is completely established.

12:13 you shall rest, and will arise to your inheritance. Daniel died before these things came to pass, but at the end he will be among those resurrected (v. 2).

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

▶ AUTHOR: Few critics argue with the claim in 1:1 that Hosea is the author of this book. The author's place of birth is not given but his familiarity and obvious concern with the northern kingdom point to his living in Israel, rather than Judah. Hosea had a real compassion for his people. His personal suffering because of his wife, Gomer, gave him some understanding of God's grief over the people's sin, and this grief becomes the source of the unique tenderness and hope that characterizes Hosea's book.

▶ TIME: c. 755–710 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Hos. 4:1

▶ THEME: Hosea was a contemporary of Isaiah, prophesying near the end of Israel's existence. It is clear from reading the text that Assyria was about to take over. In the second verse of Hosea, God tells Hosea to marry a prostitute named Gomer to provide a living illustration of God's faithfulness and Israel's unfaithfulness. By this, Hosea demonstrates that God loves us, as He did Israel, knowingly and in spite of all our propensities to reject His love for us.

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of [a]Uzziah, [b]Jotham, [c]Ahaz, and [d]Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [e]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The Family of Hosea

2 When the LORD began to speak by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea:

[f]"Go, take yourself a wife of harlotry
And children of harlotry,
For [g]the land has committed great harlotry
By departing from the LORD."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. 4 Then the LORD said to him:

"Call his name Jezreel,
For in a little while
[h]I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu,
[i]And bring an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 [j]It shall come to pass in that day
That I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

6 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. Then God said to him:

"Call her name Lo-Ruhamah,*
[k]For I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,
But I will utterly take them away.*
7 [l]Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah,
Will save them by the LORD their God,
And [m]will not save them by bow,
Nor by sword or battle,
By horses or horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. 9 Then God said:

* 1:6 Literally No-Mercy • Or That I may forgive them at all

1:2–3 wife of harlotry. Gomer may have been a common prostitute at the time Hosea married her, or perhaps she had participated in a ritual sexual act as part of a Baal cult. However, it is more likely that the descriptive phrase anticipates what Gomer would become following her marriage to Hosea. children of harlotry. If Gomer was a prostitute when she married Hosea, this could refer to children that Gomer already had and that Hosea adopted at the time of marriage. A more likely possibility is that the title anticipates children born to a mother whose reputation and escapades would make their lineage suspect. Gomer's marital infidelity is a picture of Israel's idolatry and unfaithfulness to its covenant with God.

1:5 break the bow. This phrase means to destroy an opponent's military strength (1 Sam. 2:4; Ps. 46:9; Jer. 49:35).

1:6 Lo-Ruhamah. This means "no mercy" or "not loved," foreshadowing the Lord's rejection of Israel.

1:9 Lo-Ammi. This means "not my people,"

The Restoration of Israel

10 "Yet [n]the number of the children of Israel
Shall be as the sand of the sea,
Which cannot be measured or numbered.
[o]And it shall come to pass
In the place where it was said to them,
'You are not My [p]people,'*
There it shall be said to them,
'You are [q]sons of the living God.' 11 [r]Then the children of Judah and the children of Israel
Shall be gathered together,
And appoint for themselves one head;
And they shall come up out of the
land,
For great will be the day of Jezreel!
2 Say to your brethren, 'My people,'*
And to your sisters, 'Mercy* is shown.'

God's Unfaithful People

2 "Bring charges against your mother,
bring charges;
For [a]she is not My wife, nor am I her Husband!
Let her put away her [b]harlotries from her sight,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;
3 Lest [c]I strip her naked
And expose her, as in the day she was [d]born,
And make her like a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,
And slay her with [e]thirst.
4 "I will not have mercy on her children,
For they are the [f]children of harlotry.
5 For their mother has played the
harlot;
She who conceived them has behaved
shamefully.
For she said, 'I will go after my lovers,
[g]Who give me my bread and my water,
My wool and my linen,
My oil and my drink.'
6 "Therefore, behold,
[h]I will hedge up your way with thorns,
And wall her in,
So that she cannot find her paths.
7 She will chase her lovers,
But not overtake them;
Yes, she will seek them, but not find
them.
Then she will say,
[i]'I will go and return to my [j]first
husband,
For then it was better for me than now.'
8 For she did not [k]know That I gave her grain, new wine, and oil,
And multiplied her silver and gold—
Which they prepared for Baal.
9 "Therefore I will return and take away
My grain in its time
And My new wine in its season,
And will take back My wool and My linen,
Given to cover her nakedness.
10 Now [l]I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers,
And no one shall deliver her from My hand.
11 [m]I will also cause all her mirth to cease,
Her feast days,
Her New Moons,
Her Sabbaths—
All her appointed feasts.
12 "And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees,
Of which she has said,
'These are my wages that my lovers
have given me.'
So I will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat
them.
13 I will punish her For the days of the Baals to which she burned incense.
She decked herself with her earrings
and jewelry,
And went after her lovers;
But Me she forgot," says the LORD.

threatening the termination of the Lord's covenant relationship with His people (Lev. 26:12).

1:10 Shall be as the sand of the sea. The Lord would not reject His people forever. God would fulfill His promise to Abraham (Gen. 22:17; 32:12).

2:2 she is not My wife. This may be a formal announcement of divorce or a realistic confession that the relationship between God and Israel had lost its vitality.

2:3 And make her like a wilderness. This simile pictures the loss of fertility, an appropriate punishment for a nation that had sought fertility by worshiping another god.

2:6–7 She will chase her lovers. This word draws attention to the strong passion the people of Israel felt for Baal. These verses anticipate the exile, when Israel would be separated from the idols of Baal.

2:12 beasts of the field. The Lord would break down the nation's defenses and turn them into overgrown thickets inhabited by wild animals.

God's Mercy on His People

14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
Will bring her into the wilderness,
And speak comfort to her.
15 I will give her her vineyards from there,
And [n]the Valley of Achor as a door of hope;
She shall sing there,
As in [o]the days of her youth,
[p]As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

16 "And it shall be, in that day,"
Says the LORD,
"That you will call Me 'My Husband,'*
And no longer call Me 'My Master,'*
17 For [q]I will take from her mouth the names of the Baals,
And they shall be remembered by their name no more.
18 In that day I will make a [r]covenant for them
With the beasts of the field,
With the birds of the air,
And with the creeping things of the ground.
Bow and sword of battle [s]I will shatter from the earth,
To make them [t]lie down safely.

19 "I will betroth you to Me forever;
Yes, I will betroth you to Me
In righteousness and justice,
In lovingkindness and mercy;
20 I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness,
And [u]you shall know the LORD.

21 "It shall come to pass in that day
That [v]I will answer," says the LORD;
"I will answer the heavens,
And they shall answer the earth.
22 The earth shall answer
With grain,
With new wine,
And with oil;
They shall answer Jezreel.*
23 Then [w]I will sow her for Myself in the earth,
[x]And I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;*
Then [y]I will say to those who were not My people,*
'You are My people!'
And they shall say, 'You are my God!'"

Israel Will Return to God

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by a [a]lover* and is committing adultery, just like the love of the LORD for the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love the raisin cakes of the pagans."

2So I bought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley. 3And I said to her, "You shall [b]stay with me many days; you shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a man—so, too, will I be toward you."

4For the children of Israel shall abide many days [c]without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, without [d]ephod or [e]teraphim. 5Afterward the children of Israel shall return and [f]seek the LORD their God and [g]David their king. They shall fear the LORD and His goodness in the [h]latter days.

2:14 I will allure her. Having separated Israel from her lovers, the Lord would seek to win her back by making romantic overtures and wooing her with tender words of love.

2:15 Valley of Achor. This meant "valley of trouble." It was a reminder of the sin of Achan and God's discipline of the nation of Israel for his sin (Josh. 7:24–26).

2:19–20 betroth. Betrothal was a binding commitment, the last step before the wedding and consummation of the marriage.

3:1–2 I bought her. Gomer had become the property of another man. Hosea's purchase of Gomer symbolized God's great devotion, which moves Him to seek reconciliation even if it means subjecting Himself to humiliation (Phil. 2:8). One of the great truths presented in the Old Testament is God's undying love for Israel. From among all the ancient nations on earth, He had chosen Israel.

3:1 The Extent of God's Love—People who think of the God of the Old Testament as a God of judgment and the God of the New Testament as a God of love should spend some time studying Hosea. In the book God instructs Hosea to marry a woman named Gomer who is consistently unfaithful. The Book of Hosea is a living parable about how far God will go to love Israel. While there is definitely judgment in Hosea, the consistent ongoing message is God will go to any extreme to demonstrate His love.

He is even willing to play the betrayed spouse in order to save us. He is willing to be an object of scorn and disrespect if that is what it takes to win us back to Him. God's own given law allows for the execution of both parties in an adulterous affair (Lev. 20:10). God cares deeply about this sin. He cares more deeply about His people.

It is important to understand how much He takes the initiative. He does not wait passively for us to come to Him. He is faithful about the task of going after us. Even though there is every reason to reject and ignore us, God is right there working to win us in spite of the fact that we reject Him at every turn.

3:4 sacred pillar. These were stone pillars used by the Canaanites in their worship of Baal and other gods (2 Kin. 3:2; 10:26–27; 17:10). ephod. This was a priestly garment.

God's Charge Against Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD,
You children of Israel,
For the LORD brings a [a]charge against
the inhabitants of the land:

"There is no truth or mercy
Or [b]knowledge of God in the land.
2 By swearing and lying,
Killing and stealing and committing adultery,
They break all restraint,
With bloodshed upon bloodshed.
3 Therefore [c]the land will mourn;
And [d]everyone who dwells there will waste away
With the beasts of the field
And the birds of the air;
Even the fish of the sea will be taken away.

4 "Now let no man contend, or rebuke
another;
For your people are like those [e]who contend with the priest.
5 Therefore you shall stumble [f]in the day;
The prophet also shall stumble with you in the night;
And I will destroy your mother.
6 [g]My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being priest
for Me;
[h]Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

7 "The more they increased,
The more they sinned against Me;
[i]I will change* their glory* into shame.
8 They eat up the sin of My people;
They set their heart on their iniquity.
9 And it shall be: [j]like people, like priest.
So I will punish them for their ways,
And reward them for their deeds.
10 For [k]they shall eat, but not have enough;
They shall commit harlotry, but not increase;
Because they have ceased obeying the
LORD.

The Idolatry of Israel

11 "Harlotry, wine, and new wine [l]enslave
the heart.
12 My people ask counsel from their
[m]wooden idols,
And their staff informs them.
For [n]the spirit of harlotry has caused them to stray,
And they have played the harlot against their God.
13 [o]They offer sacrifices on the mountaintops,
And burn incense on the hills,
Under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
Because their shade is good.
[p]Therefore your daughters commit harlotry,
And your brides commit adultery.

14 "I will not punish your daughters when they commit harlotry, Nor your brides when they commit
adultery;
For the men themselves go apart with harlots,
And offer sacrifices with a [q]ritual
harlot.*
Therefore people who do not understand will be trampled.

15 "Though you, Israel, play the harlot,
Let not Judah offend.
[r]Do not come up to Gilgal,
Nor go up to [s]Beth Aven, [t]Nor swear an oath, saying, 'As the LORD lives'—

16 "For Israel [u]is stubborn
Like a stubborn calf;
Now the LORD will let them forage
Like a lamb in open country.

4:1 charge. The Hebrew word refers to a formal complaint charging Israel with breaking the covenant. mercy. This means loyalty or devotion. knowledge. This does not refer to intellectual awareness, but to recognition of God's authority as Israel's covenant Lord.

4:2 swearing and lying, killing and stealing and committing adultery. Five of the Ten Commandments are mentioned here.

4:5–6 lack of knowledge. The priests had failed to teach God's law to the people (Mal. 2:7). As a result, the priests would be the special object of God's judgment. He would terminate the priestly line.

4:7–8 They eat up the sin of My people. The priests greedily accepted the meat from the people's hypocritical and empty sacrifices (6:6; 8:11–13).

4:10 harlotry. This refers to religious prostitution associated with Baal worship, not to immorality in general. The Israelites worshiped Baal in order to have good crops and many children, but they still would not have enough to eat, nor would they multiply in number.

4:12 their staff. This refers to wooden idols that Baal worshipers consulted for guidance.

4:15 Gilgal. This was an important religious center in the north, known in Hosea's time for its hypocritical religious practices (9:15; 12:11; Amos 4:4). Beth Aven. This means "house of iniquity," and is a sarcastic reference to the important religious center Bethel, which means "house of God" (Amos 5:5).

Impending Judgment on Israel and Judah

5 "Hear this, O priests!
Take heed, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!
For yours is the judgment,
Because [a]you have been a snare to Mizpah
And a net spread on Tabor.
2 The revolters are [b]deeply involved in slaughter,
Though I rebuke them all.
3 [c]I know Ephraim,
And Israel is not hidden from Me;
For now, O Ephraim, [d]you commit harlotry;
Israel is defiled.
4 "They do not direct their deeds
Toward turning to their God,
For [e]the spirit of harlotry is in their midst,
And they do not know the LORD.
5 The [f]pride of Israel testifies to his face;
Therefore Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;
Judah also stumbles with them.
6 "With their flocks and herds
[g]They shall go to seek the LORD,
But they will not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself from them.
7 They have [h]dealt treacherously with the LORD,
For they have begotten pagan children.
Now a New Moon shall devour them and their heritage.
8 "Blow[i] the ram's horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah!
[j]Cry aloud at [k]Beth Aven,
'Look behind you, O Benjamin!'
9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke;
Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.
10 "The princes of Judah are like those who [l]remove a landmark;
I will pour out My wrath on them like water.
11 Ephraim is [m]oppressed and broken in judgment,
Because he willingly walked by [n]human precept.
12 Therefore I will be to Ephraim like a moth,
And to the house of Judah [o]like rottenness.
13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah saw his [p]wound,
Then Ephraim went [q]to Assyria
And sent to King Jareb;
Yet he cannot cure you,
Nor heal you of your wound.
14 For [r]I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
And like a young lion to the house of Judah.
[s]I, even I, will tear them and go away;
I will take them away, and no one shall rescue.
15 I will return again to My place
Till they acknowledge their offense.
Then they will seek My face;
In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me."

A Call to Repentance

6 Come,[a] and let us return to the LORD;
For [b]He has torn, but [c]He will heal us;
He has stricken, but He will bind us up.
2 [d]After two days He will revive us;
On the third day He will raise us up,
That we may live in His sight.

* 4:18 Hebrew is difficult; a Jewish tradition reads Her rulers shamefully love, 'Give!'

4:17–19 Ephraim. This tribe was one of the largest tribes of Israel. It is used here to represent the entire northern kingdom.
5:4 spirit of harlotry. The people had an uncontrollable desire to worship other gods.
5:8–9 Blow the ram's horn. This act signaled an emergency and mustered the fighting men to defend the land. The towns mentioned were north of Jerusalem, within or near the borders of Benjamin. The implication is that the enemy army had already swept through the north and was ready to invade Judah.
5:10 remove a landmark. Stones were used to mark the boundaries of property. A thief could steal a part of someone's land by moving one. The law warned that altering a boundary in this way would bring a special judgment from God (Deut. 19:14; 27:17; Prov. 22:28).
5:12 I will be to Ephraim like a moth. As a moth slowly destroys clothing, so the Lord would destroy Israel (Job 13:28; Is. 50:9; 51:8). rottenness. Elsewhere this word refers to bone or to decay (Prov. 12:4; 14:30; Hab. 3:16).
5:14–15 like a young lion. God would scatter His people as judgment for their treachery. But the purpose of the Lord's discipline was to drive the people to earnestly seek Him.

Like the latter and former rain to the earth.

Impenitence of Israel and Judah

4 "O Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
O Judah, what shall I do to you?
For your faithfulness is like a morning cloud,
And like the early dew it goes away.
5 Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets,
I have slain them by [i]the words of My mouth;
And your judgments are like light that goes forth.
6 For I desire [j]mercy and [k]not sacrifice,
And the [l]knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
7 "But like men* they transgressed the covenant;
There they dealt treacherously with Me.
8 [m]Gilead is a city of evildoers
And defiled with blood.
9 As bands of robbers lie in wait for a man,
So the company of [n]priests [o]murder on the way to Shechem;
Surely they commit [p]lewdness.
10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel:
There is the harlotry of Ephraim;
Israel is defiled.
11 Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you,
When I return the captives of My people.

7 "When I would have healed Israel,
Then the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered,
And the wickedness of Samaria.
For [a]they have committed fraud;
A thief comes in;
A band of robbers takes spoil outside.
2 They do not consider in their hearts
That [b]I remember all their wickedness;
Now their own deeds have surrounded them;
They are before My face.
3 They make a [c]king glad with their wickedness,
And princes [d]with their lies.
4 "They[e] are all adulterers.
Like an oven heated by a baker—
He ceases stirring the fire after kneading the dough,
Until it is leavened.
5 In the day of our king
Princes have made him sick, inflamed with [f]wine;
He stretched out his hand with scoffers.
6 They prepare their heart like an oven,
While they lie in wait;
Their baker* sleeps all night;
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.
7 They are all hot, like an oven,
And have devoured their judges;
All their kings have fallen.
[g]None among them calls upon Me.
8 "Ephraim [h]has mixed himself among the peoples;
Ephraim is a cake unturned.
9 [i]Aliens have devoured his strength,
But he does not know it;
Yes, gray hairs are here and there on him,
Yet he does not know it.
10 And the [j]pride of Israel testifies to his face,
But [k]they do not return to the LORD their God,
Nor seek Him for all this.

* 7:6 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Syriac and Targum read Their anger; Septuagint reads Ephraim.

6:3 like the latter and former rain. Two periods of rain are alluded to here. The former rains came in the autumn and softened the ground for plowing and sowing. The latter rains came in the spring and caused the plants to grow.

6:5 judgments are like light that goes forth. This comparison suggests that God's judgment, like bright sunlight, was obvious to all; or that, like a bolt of lightning or a blinding flash of light, it came swiftly.

6:11 a harvest is appointed for you. The comparison of God's judgment to a harvest indicates that the judgment was inevitable and implies that it would be thorough in its destruction.

7:4–7 Like an oven. The background for these verses is the political turmoil of the northern kingdom. During a 20-year period (752–732 B.C.), four Israelite kings were assassinated (2 Kin. 15). The dangerous, uncontrollable perpetuators of these crimes are described here. These conspirators were like a large baker's oven that has been heating up for several hours while the bread dough rises. By morning the fire in the oven can be destructive.

7:8 Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples. Instead of depending on the Lord for political stability, Israel formed alliances with surrounding nations. The destructive outcome of this policy is compared to a cake that has been placed over a fire and left unturned.

7:9–10 gray hairs. Israel did not recognize that its power was declining and its freedom was slipping

Futile Reliance on the Nations

11 "Ephraim[l] also is like a silly dove, without sense—
[m]They call to Egypt,
They go to [n]Assyria.
12 Wherever they go, I will [o]spread My
net on them;
I will bring them down like birds of

I will chastise them

Destruction to them,
Because they have transgressed

Though [q]I redeemed them,
Yet they have spoken lies against Me.

When they wailed upon their beds.

"They assemble together for* grain and

They rebel against Me;*
15 Though I disciplined and strengthened their arms,
Yet they devise evil against Me;
16 They return, but not to the Most High;*
[t]They are like a treacherous bow.
Their princes shall fall by the sword
For the [u]cursings of their tongue.
This shall be their derision [v]in the land of Egypt.

The Apostasy of Israel

8 "Set the trumpet* to your mouth!
He shall come [q]like an eagle against the house of the LORD, Because they have transgressed My covenant
And rebelled against My law.
2 [b]Israel will cry to Me,
'My God, [c]we know You!'
3 Israel has rejected the good;
The enemy will pursue him.

4 "They[d] set up kings, but not by Me;
They made princes, but I did not acknowledge them.
From their silver and gold
They made idols for themselves—
That they might be cut off.
5 Your calf is rejected, O Samaria!
My anger is aroused against them—[e]How long until they attain to innocence?
6 For from Israel is even this:
A [f]workman made it, and it is not God;
But the calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces.

7 "They[g] sow the wind,
And reap the whirlwind.
The stalk has no bud;
It shall never produce meal.
If it should produce,
[h]Aliens would swallow it up.
8 [i]Israel is swallowed up;
Now they are among the Gentiles
[j]Like a vessel in which is no pleasure.
9 For they have gone up to Assyria,
Like [k]a wild donkey alone by itself;
Ephraim [l]has hired lovers.
10 Yes, though they have hired among

Now [m]I will gather them;
And they shall sorrow a little,*

princes.

away, like an aging man who is gradually overtaken by the signs of old age.

7:11–12 Egypt . . . Assyria. Israel was caught between these two superpowers. It tried to maintain its independence by playing one power against the other, but this vacillating policy didn't work. Israel was like a silly dove, flitting about from place to place.

7:13 Woe to them. When prophets spoke this way, they were saying a funeral dirge for those under the sentence of God's judgment.

7:14 grain and new wine. God sent a drought on Israel, but instead of the people turning to Him in repentance, the idolatrous Israelites demonstrated their devotion to Baal. According to Canaanite religious beliefs, prolonged drought was a signal that the storm god Baal had been temporarily defeated by the god of death and was imprisoned by the underworld. Baal's worshipers would mourn his death in hopes that their tears might facilitate his resurrection and the restoration of crops.

8:1–3 like an eagle. As a bird of prey would do, Assyria would invade Israel and take its people into captivity. we know You. Though Israel claimed to acknowledge the Lord's authority, it had violated His covenant and rejected the qualities the Lord regarded as good, such as justice, loyalty, and humility (Amos 5:14–15; Mic. 6:8).

8:4 They set up kings. This phrase alludes to the political turmoil surrounding the throne of the northern kingdom during the eighth century B.C., when four kings were assassinated during a 20-year period (7:4–7).

8:6 A workman made it. Hosea reasoned that anything that is made with human hands cannot possibly qualify as a god.

8:9–10 a wild donkey. This comparison draws attention to Israel's free-spirited attitude and desire to live unrestrained by God's standards.

Judgment of Israel's Sin

9 Do[a] not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like other peoples,
For you have played the harlot against
your God.
You have made love for [b]hire on every threshing floor.
2 The threshing floor and the winepress
Shall not feed them,
And the new wine shall fail in her.
3 They shall not dwell in [c]the LORD's
land,
[d]But Ephraim shall return to Egypt,
And [e]shall eat unclean things in Assyria.
4 They shall not offer wine offerings to
the LORD,
Nor [f]shall their [g]sacrifices be pleasing to Him.
It shall be like bread of mourners to
them;
All who eat it shall be defiled.
For their bread shall be for their own life;
It shall not come into the house of the
LORD.
5 What will you do in the appointed day,
And in the day of the feast of the
LORD?
6 For indeed they are gone because of destruction.
Egypt shall gather them up;
Memphis shall bury them.
[h]Nettles shall possess their valuables of silver;
Thorns shall be in their tents.
7 The [i]days of punishment have come;
The days of recompense have come.
Israel knows!
The prophet is a [j]fool,
[k]The spiritual man is insane,
Because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity.
8 The [l]watchman of Ephraim is with my God;
But the prophet is a fowler's* snare in all his ways—
Enmity in the house of his God.
9 [m]They are deeply corrupted,
As in the days of [n]Gibeah.
He will remember their iniquity;
He will punish their sins.
10 "I found Israel
Like grapes in the [o]wilderness;
I saw your fathers
As the [p]firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season.
But they went to [q]Baal Peor,
And separated themselves to that
shame;
[r]They became an abomination like the thing they loved.
11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird—
No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!
12 Though they bring up their children,
Yet I will bereave them to the last man.
Yes, [s]woe to them when I depart from
them!

* 8:14 Or palaces * 9:8 That is, one who catches birds in a trap or snare

8:14 temples . . . multiplied fortified cities. True security comes from the Creator, but God's people trusted instead in their own efforts, symbolized by their important buildings.

9:1–2 threshing floor. Because of their association with the harvest, threshing floors were the site of agricultural festivals in which Israel offered up sacrifices to Baal. The Lord would take away the joy of the harvest by destroying the crops and leaving the threshing floors and wine vats empty.

9:3 the LORD's land. Israel had forgotten that their land belonged to the Lord. He alone decided who would or would not live in it (Lev. 25:23).

9:7 the spiritual man is insane. The word translated "insane" is used in 1 Samuel 21:15 of David when he pretended to be insane before the Philistine king.

9:8 watchman. He would look for approaching armies and then warn the people so that they could secure the city and prepare for battle (Ezek. 33:6). The prophets were like watchmen because they were sent by God to warn the people of judgment and urge them to repent (Ezek. 3:17).

9:9 As in the days of Gibeah. The reference here is to the rape and murder of a young woman by men of Gibeah, an event that started a civil war (Judg. 19). Those who witnessed this violent deed remarked that it was the worst crime committed in Israel's history until that time. However, the sins of Hosea's generation rivaled the infamous Gibeah.

15 "All their wickedness is in [v]Gilgal,

17 My God will [y]cast them away,
Because they did not obey Him;
And they shall be [z]wanderers among

Israel's Sin and Captivity

10 Israel [a]empties his vine;
He brings forth fruit for himself.
According to the multitude of his fruit
[b]He has increased the altars;
According to the bounty of his land
They have embellished his sacred pillars.

2 Their heart is [c]divided;
Now they are held guilty.
He will break down their altars;
He will ruin their sacred pillars.

3 For now they say,
"We have no king,
Because we did not fear the LORD.
And as for a king, what would he do for us?"

4 They have spoken words,
Swearing falsely in making a covenant.
Thus judgment springs up [d]like hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria fear
Because of the [e]calf* of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
And its priests shriek for it—
Because its [f]glory has departed from it.

6 The idol also shall be carried to Assyria
As a present for King [g]Jareb.
Ephraim shall receive shame,
And Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off
Like a twig on the water.

8 Also the [h]high places of Aven, [i]the sin
of Israel,
Shall be destroyed.
The thorn and thistle shall grow on their altars;
[j]They shall say to the mountains,
"Cover us!"
And to the hills, "Fall on us!"

9 "O Israel, you have sinned from the days of [k]Gibeah;
There they stood.
The [l]battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity*
Did not overtake them.

10 When it is My desire, I will chasten
them.
[m]Peoples shall be gathered against
them
When I bind them for their two transgressions.*

11 Ephraim is [n]a trained heifer
That loves to thresh grain;
But I harnessed her fair neck,
I will make Ephraim pull a plow.
Judah shall plow;
Jacob shall break his clods."

12 Sow for yourselves righteousness;
Reap in mercy;
[o]Break up your fallow ground,
For it is time to seek the LORD,
Till He [p]comes and rains righteousness on you.

9:14 miscarrying womb. Some women of Israel would be barren (v. 11); others would bear children, only to lose them to the invader's sword (vv. 12–13). Still others would conceive but miscarry.

10:1 Israel empties his vine. This refers to God's blessings upon the nation, which contrast with the nation's ingratitude and idolatry.

10:4 judgment springs up like hemlock in the furrows of the field. In much the same way judgment would replace God's blessings.

10:11 loves to thresh grain. Israel preferred to be unrestrained, like an unmuzzled heifer at the threshing floor that can simply lean down and eat grain. I will make Ephraim pull a plow. Israel's rebellious spirit necessitated harsh treatment, compared here to a farmer binding his calf to the yoke and forcing it to do hard labor. Threshing in this context refers to Israel's service to the Lord; plowing refers to the discipline that Israel had to acquire through judgment and exile.

10:12 Break up your fallow ground. Plowing and planting are necessary preliminary steps for growing a crop, which eventually sprouts when the rain falls

13 [q]You have plowed wickedness;
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
Because you trusted in your own way,
In the multitude of your mighty men.
14 Therefore tumult shall arise among your people,
And all your fortresses shall be plundered
As Shalman plundered Beth Arbel in the day of battle—
A mother dashed in pieces upon her children.
15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel,
Because of your great wickedness.
At dawn the king of Israel
Shall be cut off utterly.

God's Continuing Love for Israel

11 "When Israel was a child, I loved him,
And out of Egypt [a]I called My [b]son.
2 As they called them,*
So they [c]went from them;*
They sacrificed to the Baals,
And burned incense to carved images.
3 "I[d] taught Ephraim to walk,
Taking them by their arms;*
But they did not know that [e]I healed them.
4 I drew them with gentle cords,*
With bands of love,
And [f]I was to them as those who take the yoke from their neck.*
[g]I stooped and fed them.
5 "He shall not return to the land of Egypt;
But the Assyrian shall be his king,
Because they refused to repent.
6 And the sword shall slash in his cities,
Devour his districts,
And consume them,
Because of their own counsels.
7 My people are bent on [h]backsliding from Me.
Though they call to the Most High,*
None at all exalt Him.
8 "How[i] can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like [j]Admah?
How can I set you like Zeboiim?
My heart churns within Me;
My sympathy is stirred.
9 I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
[k]For I am God, and not man,
The Holy One in your midst;
And I will not come with terror.*
10 "They shall walk after the LORD.
[l]He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
Then His sons shall come trembling from the west;
11 They shall come trembling like a bird from Egypt,
[m]Like a dove from the land of Assyria.
[n]And I will let them dwell in their houses,"
Says the LORD.

God's Charge Against Ephraim

12 "Ephraim has encircled Me with lies,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
But Judah still walks with God,
Even with the Holy One* who is faithful.

12 "Ephraim [a]feeds on the wind,
And pursues the east wind;
He daily increases lies and desolation.
[b]Also they make a covenant with the Assyrians,
And [c]oil is carried to Egypt.
2 "The[d] LORD also brings a charge against Judah,
And will punish Jacob according to his ways;
According to his deeds He will recompense him.

in season. In the same way, repentance would set the stage for restored blessing, which God would eventually rain down on His people.

11:3 I taught Ephraim to walk. Like a father teaching his child to walk, the Lord patiently gave the people of Israel direction and cared for them tenderly when they experienced pain or injury.

11:4 cords . . . bands. The Lord had placed restraints on Israel, but His regulations, rather than being overly strict or harsh, reflected His concern for the people's well-being. God did not drive them mercilessly but provided for their needs, like a farmer who periodically removes the yoke from an animal's neck so that it can eat.

11:6 consume. This is the same Hebrew word translated "fed" in verse 4. The people of Israel had rejected the gentle Master who fed them and provided for their needs. As a result, they would be devoured by the swords of the invading Assyrians.

11:9 For I am God, and not man. When human beings get angry, they are often incapable of tempering their anger with compassion, but God's emotions operate in perfect balance.

12:1 oil is carried to Egypt. Oil may have been used

4 Yes, he struggled with the Angel and prevailed;
He wept, and sought favor from Him.
He found Him in [g]Bethel,
And there He spoke to us—
5 That is, the LORD God of hosts.
The LORD is His [h]memorable name.
6 [i]So you, by the help of your God, return;
Observe mercy and justice,
And wait on your God continually.

7 "A cunning Canaanite!
[j]Deceitful scales are in his hand;
He loves to oppress.
8 And Ephraim said,
[k]'Surely I have become rich,
I have found wealth for myself;
In all my labors
They shall find in me no iniquity that is sin.'

9 "But I am the LORD your God,
Ever since the land of Egypt;
[l]I will again make you dwell in tents,
As in the days of the appointed feast.
10 [m]I have also spoken by the prophets,
And have multiplied visions;
I have given symbols through the witness of the prophets."

11 Though [n]Gilead has idols—
Surely they are vanity—
Though they sacrifice bulls in [o]Gilgal,
Indeed their altars shall be heaps in the furrows of the field.

12 Jacob [p]fled to the country of Syria;
[q]Israel served for a spouse,
And for a wife he tended sheep.
13 [r]By a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt,
And by a prophet he was preserved.
14 Ephraim [s]provoked Him to anger most bitterly;
Therefore his Lord will leave the guilt of his bloodshed upon him, [t]And return his reproach upon him.

Relentless Judgment on Israel

13 When Ephraim spoke, trembling,
He exalted himself in Israel;
But when he offended through Baal worship, he died.
2 Now they sin more and more,
And have made for themselves molded images,
Idols of their silver, according to their skill;
All of it is the work of craftsmen.
They say of them,
"Let the men who sacrifice* kiss the calves!"
3 Therefore they shall be like the morning cloud
And like the early dew that passes away,
[a]Like chaff blown off from a threshing floor
And like smoke from a chimney.

4 "Yet [b]I am the LORD your God
Ever since the land of Egypt,
And you shall know no God but Me;
For [c]there is no savior besides Me.
5 [d]I knew you in the wilderness,
[e]In the land of great drought.
6 [f]When they had pasture, they were filled;
They were filled and their heart was exalted;
Therefore they forgot Me.

7 "So [g]I will be to them like a lion;
Like [h]a leopard by the road I will lurk;
8 I will meet them [i]like a bear deprived of her cubs;
I will tear open their rib cage,
And there I will devour them like a lion.
The wild beast shall tear them.

9 "O Israel, you are destroyed,*
But your help* is from Me.
10 I will be your King;*
[j]Where is any other,
That he may save you in all your cities?
And your judges to whom [k]you said,
'Give me a king and princes'?

in a ritual ratifying a treaty or given as a sign of loyalty.

12:7 Deceitful scales are in his hand. In violation of the Old Testament law (Lev. 19:36), dishonest merchants sometimes rigged their scales so that they could give buyers less than what they thought they were purchasing (Prov. 11:1; 16:11).

12:9 I will again make you dwell in tents. During the Feast of the Tabernacles people lived in tents to commemorate the wilderness wandering (Lev. 23:33–43).

13:2 kiss the calves. This is a reference to the idolatrous practice of kissing images as a sign of homage (1 Kin. 19:18).

13:6–9 I will be to them like a lion. God provided for Israel's needs and richly blessed the people, like a shepherd leading his flock to lush pasturelands. In return, Israel forgot the Lord. The Lord's relationship with Israel would change drastically from caring Shepherd to ravaging Predator. Ironically and

Israel Restored at Last

14 O Israel, [a]return to the LORD your
God,
For you have stumbled because of your
iniquity;
2 Take words with you,
And return to the LORD.
Say to Him,
"Take away all iniquity;
Receive us graciously,
For we will offer the [b]sacrifices* of our lips.
3 Assyria shall [c]not save us,
[d]We will not ride on horses,
Nor will we say anymore to the work of our hands, 'You are our gods.'
[e]For in You the fatherless finds mercy."

4 "I will heal their [f]backsliding,
I will [g]love them freely,
For My anger has turned away from
him.
5 I will be like the [h]dew to Israel;
He shall grow like the lily,
And lengthen his roots like Lebanon.
6 His branches shall spread;
[i]His beauty shall be like an olive tree,
And [j]his fragrance like Lebanon.
7 [k]Those who dwell under his shadow shall return;
They shall be revived like grain,
And grow like a vine.
Their scent* shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 "Ephraim shall say, 'What have I to do anymore with idols?'
I have heard and observed him.
I am like a green cypress tree;
[l]Your fruit is found in Me."

9 Who is wise?
Let him understand these things.
Who is prudent?
Let him know them.
For [m]the ways of the LORD are right;
The righteous walk in them,
But transgressors stumble in them.

tragically, Israel's rebellion had turned its Helper into a Destroyer.

13:12 bound up . . . stored up. God had kept a careful record of Israel's sins, to be revealed as evidence of guilt in the day of judgment.

13:13 The sorrows of a woman in childbirth. This metaphor illustrates Israel's spiritual insensitivity. When the crucial time of judgment arrived, Israel would respond unwisely, resulting in death. The nation's failure to repent is compared to a baby that is not positioned properly during labor and jeopardizes the life of both mother and child.

14:1–3 Take away all iniquity. The final section of Hosea's prophecy begins with a call to repentance that includes a model prayer. The people of Israel were to pray for God's gracious forgiveness and renew their allegiance to Him by renouncing foreign alliances, their own military strength, and artificial gods.

14:4 I will heal their backsliding. The grief-stricken Hosea does not tell us whether a reconciliation took place between him and his adulterous wife Gomer. But there is no question concerning the outcome between God and faithless Israel. Several beautiful figures of speech are employed by Hosea to describe the results and effects of God's love for Israel.

14:9 For the ways of the LORD are right. God's demands and principles are completely true. The wise person will choose to obey them, but the foolish person will ignore them and consequently stumble into judgment.

THE BOOK OF JOEL

▶ AUTHOR: Although there are several other Joels in the Bible, the prophet Joel is known only from this book. It has been suggested that he lived not far from Jerusalem and some think that Joel was possibly a priest as well as a prophet on account of references to the priesthood throughout the book (1:13–14; 2:17).

▶ TIME: c. 835 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Joel 2:11

▶ THEME: For the true agrarian society, crops are life itself. It is hard to imagine how devastating the natural disasters described in Joel are, and he uses these painful events as a megaphone to get the attention of the people. There is urgency in this call, because the day of the Lord is coming. This day will be a day of judgment or a day of blessing depending on where one stands with God.

1 The word of the LORD that came to [a]Joel the son of Pethuel.

The Land Laid Waste

2 Hear this, you elders,
And give ear, all you inhabitants of the land!
[b]Has anything like this happened in your days,
Or even in the days of your fathers?
3 [c]Tell your children about it,
Let your children tell their children,
And their children another generation.

4 [d]What the chewing locust* left, the [e]swarming locust has eaten;
What the swarming locust left, the crawling locust has eaten;
And what the crawling locust left, the consuming locust has eaten.

5 Awake, you [f]drunkards, and weep;
And wail, all you drinkers of wine,
Because of the new wine,
[g]For it has been cut off from your mouth.
6 For [h]a nation has come up against My land,
Strong, and without number;
[i]His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
And he has the fangs of a fierce lion.
7 He has [j]laid waste My vine,
And ruined My fig tree;
He has stripped it bare and thrown it away;
Its branches are made white.

8 [k]Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth
For [l]the husband of her youth.
9 [m]The grain offering and the drink offering
Have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
The priests [n]mourn, who minister to the LORD.
10 The field is wasted,
[o]The land mourns;
For the grain is ruined,
[p]The new wine is dried up,
The oil fails.

11 [q]Be ashamed, you farmers,
Wail, you vinedressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the harvest of the field has perished.

* 1:4 Exact identity of these locusts is unknown.

1:2 happened in your days. The calamity of recent days was unprecedented in the memory of the people.
1:4 locust. Many interpreters have viewed these locusts as foreign armies that attacked Judah in successive waves—Assyria, Babylon, Greece, and Rome. Yet literal locust plagues were one of the judgments promised if the people disobeyed God and broke their covenant with Him (Deut. 28:38–42). Further, Joel's description of the damage done by the locusts compares with eyewitness reports. The impression given is one of overwhelming devastation.
1:9 The grain offering and the drink offering. This phrase refers to the wine offerings that accompanied the priests' morning and evening sacrifices (Ex. 29:38–41). The devastation of the locust meant that no sacrifice could be offered.
1:10 The land mourns. The land is personified as mourning because the three principal crops it produced—grain, grapes, and olives—had been destroyed (Deut. 7:13; Ps. 104:15).

And the fig tree has withered;
The pomegranate tree,
The palm tree also,
And the apple tree—
All the trees of the field are withered;
Surely [s]joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Mourning for the Land

13 [t]Gird yourselves and lament, you
priests;
Wail, you who minister before the altar;
Come, lie all night in sackcloth,
You who minister to my God;
For the grain offering and the drink offering
Are withheld from the house of your God.
14 [u]Consecrate a fast,
Call [v]a sacred assembly;
Gather the elders
And [w]all the inhabitants of the land
Into the house of the LORD your God,
And cry out to the LORD.

15 [x]Alas for the day!
For [y]the day of the LORD is at hand;
It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.
16 Is not the food [z]cut off before our eyes,
[a]Joy and gladness from the house of
our God?
17 The seed shrivels under the clods,
Storehouses are in shambles;
Barns are broken down,
For the grain has withered.
18 How [b]the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are restless,
Because they have no pasture;
Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.*

19 O LORD, [c]to You I cry out;
For [d]fire has devoured the open pastures,
And a flame has burned all the trees of
the field.
20 The beasts of the field also [e]cry out to
You,
For [f]the water brooks are dried up,
And fire has devoured the open pastures.

The Day of the LORD

2 Blow [a]the trumpet in Zion,
And [b]sound an alarm in My holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land
tremble;
For [c]the day of the LORD is coming,
For it is at hand:
2 [d]A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
Like the morning clouds spread over the mountains.
[e]A people come, great and strong,
[f]The like of whom has never been;
Nor will there ever be any such after
them,
Even for many successive generations.

3 A fire devours before them,
And behind them a flame burns;
The land is like [g]the Garden of Eden
before them,
[h]And behind them a desolate wilderness;
Surely nothing shall escape them.
4 [i]Their appearance is like the appearance of horses;
And like swift steeds, so they run.
5 [j]With a noise like chariots
Over mountaintops they leap,
Like the noise of a flaming fire that devours the stubble,
Like a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before them the people writhe in pain;
[k]All faces are drained of color.*
7 They run like mighty men,
They climb the wall like men of war;
Every one marches in formation,
And they do not break [l]ranks.
8 They do not push one another;
Every one marches in his own column.*
Though they lunge between the weapons,
They are not cut down.*
9 They run to and fro in the city,
They run on the wall;
They climb into the houses,
They [m]enter at the windows [n]like a thief.

1:15 the day of the LORD. This phrase refers to a time of judgment and deliverance. Joel views the locust plague as a contemporary day of judgment that was serving as a token or forewarning of an even greater, future "day of the LORD."

1:17 The seed shrivels. This indicated further devastation in the land and an inability to replant the following year.

2:1 at hand. The Bible presents the day of the Lord as an imminent reality. It is not something that we are gradually moving toward; rather, it is ever ready to burst in on us. At any moment, the day that is "at hand" may become present.

2:2 darkness and gloominess. This phrase is used as a figure for misery, distress, and judgment (Is. 8:22; 60:2; Jer. 13:16).

2:4 the appearance of horses. Joel compared the speed and strength of the invaders to galloping horses.

The heavens tremble;
[p]The sun and moon grow dark,
And the stars diminish their brightness.
11 [q]The LORD gives voice before His army,
For His camp is very great;
[r]For strong is the One who executes
His word.
For the [s]day of the LORD is great and very terrible;
[t]Who can endure it?

A Call to Repentance

12 "Now, therefore," says the LORD,
[u]"Turn to Me with all your heart,
With fasting, with weeping, and with mourning."
13 So [v]rend your heart, and not [w]your
garments;
Return to the LORD your God,
For He is [x]gracious and merciful,
Slow to anger, and of great kindness;
And He relents from doing harm.
14 [y]Who knows if He will turn and relent,
And leave [z]a blessing behind Him—
[a]A grain offering and a drink offering For the LORD your God?

15 [b]Blow the trumpet in Zion,
[c]Consecrate a fast,
Call a sacred assembly;
16 Gather the people,
[d]Sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children and nursing babes;
[e]Let the bridegroom go out from his chamber,
And the bride from her dressing room.
17 Let the priests, who minister to the
LORD,
Weep [f]between the porch and the altar;
Let them say, [g]"Spare Your people,
O LORD,
And do not give Your heritage to reproach,
That the nations should rule over them.
[h]Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"

The Land Refreshed

18 Then the LORD will [i]be zealous for His
land,
And pity His people.
19 The LORD will answer and say to His
people,
"Behold, I will send you [j]grain and new wine and oil,
And you will be satisfied by them;
I will no longer make you a reproach
among the nations.

20 "But [k]I will remove far from you [l]the northern army,
And will drive him away into a barren
and desolate land,
With his face toward the eastern sea
And his back [m]toward the western sea;
His stench will come up,
And his foul odor will rise,
Because he has done monstrous
things."

21 Fear not, O land;
Be glad and rejoice,
For the LORD has done marvelous
things!
22 Do not be afraid, you beasts of the field;
For [n]the open pastures are springing up,
And the tree bears its fruit;
The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.
23 Be glad then, you children of Zion,
And [o]rejoice in the LORD your God;
For He has given you the former rain
faithfully,*
And He [p]will cause the rain to come down for you—
The former rain,
And the latter rain in the first month.

* 2:23 Or the teacher of righteousness

2:11 Who can endure it. Nothing will be able to withstand the wrath of God (Matt. 24:21–22).

2:13 rend your heart. God is not satisfied with outward acts of repentance. Tearing one's garments was a customary way of expressing grief or remorse (Josh. 7:6; 1 Sam. 4:12). However, like all outward acts, the tearing of a garment could be done without true sorrow or repentance. God required more than mere external words or actions; He wanted a change of heart and sorrow over sin.

2:14 Who knows. These words suggest that even at the last moment, the Lord would withhold His wrath and display His grace if the people would truly repent. As a result, agriculture would be restored and productivity would return. There would be food and drink for the people and for offerings to the Lord.

2:16 bridegroom . . . bride. According to Jewish tradition codified in the Mishnah, a couple could be excused from reciting daily prayers on their wedding day. But Joel excused no one from prayer at this time of spiritual emergency.

2:17 Why should they say among the peoples. This rhetorical question was designed to move God to intervene. Failure to come to Judah's aid might encourage the nations to make a mockery of Judah's God.

2:18–19 zealous for His land. The deep love of God for the land of Israel is coupled with His abiding love for the people. On every occasion in which God brought judgment on the land, there was the hope that one day His zeal for the land would lead to a renewal of blessing. Genuine repentance is the prerequisite for God's blessing. In response to repentance, God would bring restoration and blessing.

God's Spirit Poured Out

28 "And[v] it shall come to pass afterward
That [w]I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh;
[x]Your sons and your [y]daughters shall prophesy,
Your old men shall dream dreams,
Your young men shall see visions.

I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

30 "And [a]I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth:
Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.
31 [b]The sun shall be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
[c]Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
32 And it shall come to pass
That [d]whoever calls on the name of the LORD
Shall be saved.
For [e]in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be deliverance,
As the LORD has said,
Among [f]the remnant whom the LORD calls.

God Judges the Nations

3 "For behold, [a]in those days and at that time,
When I bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem,
2 [b]I will also gather all nations,
And bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;
And I [c]will enter into judgment with them there
On account of My people, My heritage Israel,
Whom they have scattered among the nations;
They have also divided up My land.
3 They have [d]cast lots for My people,
Have given a boy as payment for a harlot,
And sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

4 "Indeed, what have you to do with Me,
[e]O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coasts of Philistia?
Will you retaliate against Me?
But if you retaliate against Me,
Swiftly and speedily I will return your retaliation upon your own head;
5 Because you have taken My silver and My gold,
And have carried into your temples My prized possessions.
6 Also the people of Judah and the people of Jerusalem
You have sold to the Greeks,
That you may remove them far from their borders.

7 "Behold, [f]I will raise them
Out of the place to which you have sold them,
And will return your retaliation upon your own head.
8 I will sell your sons and your daughters
Into the hand of the people of Judah,
And they will sell them to the [g]Sabeans,*
To a people [h]far off;
For the LORD has spoken."

bears its fruit. The renewal of agriculture would be a sign that God had renewed prosperity and peace to His land.

2:28–32 I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Peter quotes this passage on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2:17–21) to explain the miracle of speaking in tongues. There are three main viewpoints regarding how Peter uses Joel's prophecy: (1) Some interpreters see a complete fulfillment of Joel's prophecy in the experience of the first believers on the Day of Pentecost. The outpouring of the Spirit ushered in the kingdom age; (2) some interpreters believe that Peter was simply using Joel's prophecy as an illustration of what was happening. In effect, Peter was saying, "This is that same Holy Spirit which was spoken of by Joel"; (3) some others suggest that Joel's prophecy was partially fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost. The gift of the Holy Spirit was given, but the signs mentioned in verses 30–32 will be fulfilled later in connection with the return of Christ in great glory.

3:2 Valley of Jehoshaphat. The name Jehoshaphat means "the Lord judges." The location of this valley is not known. Perhaps this was merely a symbolic name for the location of the great battle in the end times.

[k]Let the weak say, 'I am strong.'"
11 Assemble and come, all you nations,
And gather together all around.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For [q]the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
15 The sun and moon will grow dark,
And the stars will diminish their brightness.
16 The LORD also will roar from Zion,
And utter His voice from Jerusalem;
The heavens and earth will shake;
[r]But the LORD will be a shelter for His people,
And the strength of the children of Israel.

17 "So you shall know that I am the LORD your God, Dwelling in Zion My [s]holy mountain.
Then Jerusalem shall be holy,
And no aliens shall ever pass through her again."

God Blesses His People

18 And it will come to pass in that day
That the mountains shall drip with new wine,
The hills shall flow with milk,
And all the brooks of Judah shall be flooded with water;
A [t]fountain shall flow from the house of the LORD
And water the Valley of Acacias.

19 "Egypt shall be a desolation,
And Edom a desolate wilderness,
Because of violence against the people of Judah,
For they have shed innocent blood in their land.
20 But Judah shall abide forever,
And Jerusalem from generation to generation.
21 For I will [u]acquit them of the guilt of bloodshed, whom I had not acquitted;
For the LORD dwells in Zion."

3:11 nations . . . mighty ones. Joel saw two different armies assembling for battle (Mark 8:38; Rev. 19:14).

3:14 the valley of decision. This may be a symbolic name for the Valley of Jehoshaphat (3:2), or it may refer to the option before the people to continue toward certain judgment or to turn to God in repentance (vv. 12–13).

3:18 in that day. These words indicate the prophetic future. Joel uses poetic imagery to describe the productivity of the land in the messianic age. The Valley of Acacias was the location of the last encampment before the Israelites entered Canaan (Num. 25:1; Josh. 3:1).

THE BOOK OF AMOS

▶ AUTHOR: The only Old Testament appearance of the name Amos is in this book. Amos's objective appraisal of Israel's spiritual condition was not well received, not least because he was just a farmer from Judah. The author said of his background, "I was no prophet, nor was I a son of a prophet, but I was a sheepbreeder and a tender of sycamore fruit" (7:14). He delivered his message in Bethel because it was the residence of the king of Israel and a center of idolatry.

▶ TIME: c. 760–753 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Amos 3:1–2

▶ THEME: Amos was a contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea. The unusual aspect of his ministry is that he was a farmer and herdsman from Judah prophesying to the northern kingdom of Israel. The issues he addresses are the usual prophetic concerns, but with a heavy emphasis on social justice. When injustice is rampant, expect God's judgment. No one is immune. In fact, the more God has given, the more God expects in response.

1 The words of Amos, who was among the [a]sheepbreeders* of [b]Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of [c]Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of [d]Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the [e]earthquake.

2 And he said:

"The LORD [f]roars from Zion,
And utters His voice from Jerusalem;
The pastures of the shepherds mourn,
And the top of [g]Carmel withers."

Judgment on the Nations

3 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [h]Damascus, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they have [i]threshed Gilead with implements of iron.

4 [j]But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael,
Which shall devour the palaces of [k]Ben-Hadad.

5 I will also break the gate [l]bar of Damascus,
And cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven,
And the one who holds the scepter from Beth Eden.
The people of Syria shall go captive to Kir,"
Says the LORD.

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [m]Gaza, and for four,

* 1:1 Compare 2 Kings 3:4

1:1—2:16 The words of Amos. The Lord sent Amos, a Judean, to Bethel to prophesy of coming judgment on Israel. But in Bethel, Amos faced a hostile audience. Israel's first king, Jeroboam I, had made the town a center of pagan worship. Because the temple in Jerusalem was in Judah and not in the nation of Israel, Jeroboam had encouraged the Israelites to worship at Bethel instead of Jerusalem. Thus the Israelites who gathered at Bethel would regard Amos, a Judean, with suspicion. Yet Amos bravely condemned there the sins of Israel's neighbors. He also points to the iniquity of Israel and Judah. They both had rejected the God who had covenanted with them.

1:1 Tekoa. This town was about ten miles south of Jerusalem, in a region well suited for raising sheep and goats.

1:3 For three . . . and for four. This stylistic device indicated the exhaustion of God's patience—the Syrians had continued to sin, again and again. This device is repeated as Amos speaks God's words against nation after sinful nation. Gilead. This was the region on the east side of the Jordan from the Yarmuk River to the Dead Sea.

1:4 I will send a fire . . . devour the palaces. Fire in an ancient city was a real threat. Cities were crowded with houses close together on very narrow streets; there was too little water to effectively fight them.

1:5 the gate bar. This was a large timber that barred the city gate from the inside. If it was broken, the city would lose its security and could be captured easily.

1:6 Gaza. This was one of the five principal cities of the Philistines.

1:1 [a] 2 Kin. 3:4; Amos 7:14 [b] 2 Sam. 14:2 [c] 2 Chr. 26:1–23 [d] Amos 7:10 [e] Zech. 14:5 1:2 [f] Joel 3:16 [g] 1 Sam. 25:2 1:3 [h] Is. 8:4; 17:1–3 [i] 2 Kin. 10:32, 33 1:4 [j] Jer. 49:27; 51:30 [k] 2 Kin. 6:24 1:5 [l] Jer. 51:30 1:6 [m] Jer. 47:1, 5

I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they took captive the whole captivity
To deliver them up to Edom.
7 [n]But I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza,
Which shall devour its palaces.
8 I will cut off the inhabitant [o]from Ashdod,
And the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
I will [p]turn My hand against Ekron,
And [q]the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,"
Says the Lord GOD.

9 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [r]Tyre, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom,
And did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.
10 But I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre,
Which shall devour its palaces."

11 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [s]Edom, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he pursued his [t]brother with the sword,
And cast off all pity;
His anger tore perpetually,
And he kept his wrath forever.
12 But [u]I will send a fire upon Teman,
Which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [v]the people of Ammon, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because they ripped open the women with child in Gilead,
That they might enlarge their territory.
14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of [w]Rabbah,
And it shall devour its palaces,
[x]Amid shouting in the day of battle,
And a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.
15 [y]Their king shall go into captivity,
He and his princes together,"
Says the LORD.

2 Thus says the LORD:

[a]"For three transgressions of Moab, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because he [b]burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.
2 But I will send a fire upon Moab,
And it shall devour the palaces of [c]Kerioth;
Moab shall die with tumult,
With shouting and trumpet sound.
3 And I will cut off [d]the judge from its midst,
And slay all its princes with him,"
Says the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

4 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [e]Judah, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
[f]Because they have despised the law of the LORD,
And have not kept His commandments.
[g]Their lies lead them astray,
Lies [h]which their fathers followed.
5 [i]But I will send a fire upon Judah,
And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

Judgment on Israel

6 Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of [j]Israel, and for four,
I will not turn away its punishment,
Because [k]they sell the righteous for silver,
And the [l]poor for a pair of sandals.

1:11 Edom. This nation was located southeast of the Dead Sea. It controlled important caravan trade routes, and thus was deeply involved in commerce. Its citizens were descendants of Esau.

1:13 Ammon. The nation of Ammon was located east of Gilead on the edge of the desert. Its people were descended from one of the sons of Lot (Gen. 19:36–38).

2:1 burned the bones. This act was believed to desecrate the remains of a deceased person, a heinous act in ancient times and a great dishonor to the person's memory.

2:6 sell the righteous for silver. In His law, God had instructed the Israelites to work off their debts through indentured service—administered humanely and for a strictly limited time (Lev. 25:39–43; Deut. 15:12). By Amos's day, those in power in Israel were taking advantage of the courts to sell debtors as slaves, termed "the righteous" here because they were the innocent victims of the corruption of the courts. for a pair of sandals. This means for little or nothing.

To possess the land of the Amorite.
11 I raised up some of your sons as [w]prophets,
And some of your young men as [x]Nazirites.
Is it not so, O you children of Israel?"
Says the LORD.
12 "But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink,
And commanded the prophets [y]saying,
'Do not prophesy!'
13 "Behold,[z] I am weighed down by you,
As a cart full of sheaves is weighed down.
14 [a]Therefore flight shall perish from the swift,
The strong shall not strengthen his power,
[b]Nor shall the mighty deliver himself;
15 He shall not stand who handles the bow,
The swift of foot shall not escape,
Nor shall he who rides a horse deliver himself.
16 The most courageous men of might Shall flee naked in that day,"
Says the LORD.

Authority of the Prophet's Message

3 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:
2 "You[a] only have I known of all the families of the earth;
[b]Therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities."
3 Can two walk together, unless they are agreed?
4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey?
Will a young lion cry out of his den, if he has caught nothing?
5 Will a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no trap for it?
Will a snare spring up from the earth, if it has caught nothing at all?
6 If a trumpet is blown in a city, will not the people be afraid?
[c]If there is calamity in a city, will not the LORD have done it?
7 Surely the Lord GOD does nothing,
Unless [d]He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.

* 2:7 Or trample on

2:7 humble. Those without power or influence should have been able to depend on the justice due them. Instead, justice was denied them. As a result, their lives were turned to poverty, oppression, and insecurity.
2:8 clothes taken in pledge. Clothing taken as security for a loan was supposed to be returned in the evening so that it could be used as bedding for the poor (Ex. 22:26–27). The powerful in Israel were spreading the clothes out as beds for themselves beside the altars, in a show of empty, merciless piety.
2:9 it was I who destroyed. This emphatic statement underscores the fact that God had been Israel's champion, and the nation's success had not been its own doing. the Amorite. This refers to the previous inhabitants of the land of Canaan.
2:13 I am weighed down by you. This is a powerful metaphor of the burden of Israel's sin on the Lord. This is the same God Isaiah describes as measuring the waters of the earth in the hollow of His hand, measuring the heavens with the span of His hand, and weighing the mountains in His balance (Is. 40:12).
3:1 the whole family which I brought up. This phrase emphasizes the personal, intimate relationship that God had with Israel.
3:2 You only have I known. God's relationship with Israel was not only intimate, it was exclusive. God had been faithful to Israel, yet Israel had not been faithful to God. For this reason, the nation would be judged.
3:2 Selection of Israel—The selection of Israel as a special nation to God was part of God's plan (Rom. 11:2). Historically, the selection of Israel began with the Lord's promise to Abraham, "I will make you a great nation" (Gen. 12:2). The name Israel actually comes from the new name which God gave to Abraham's grandson Jacob when they fought at the ford of Jabbok (Gen. 32:28). This fact explains why his descendants are often called the children of Israel.
The motivation for the Lord's choice of Israel as His select nation did not lie in any special attraction the nation possessed. Its people were, in fact, the least in number among all the nations (Deut. 7:6–8). Rather, the Lord chose them because of His love for them and because of His covenant with Abraham. This fact does not mean that God did not love other nations, because it was through Israel that He blessed all nations in Christ.
3:3–6 Can two walk together. This series of rhetorical questions illustrates the seriousness, certainty, and righteousness of God's impending action against

Punishment of Israel's Sins

9 "Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod,*
And in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say:
'Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
See great tumults in her midst,
And the oppressed within her.
10 For they [f]do not know to do right,'
Says the LORD,
'Who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.'"

11 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

"An adversary shall be all around the
land;
He shall sap your strength from you,
And your palaces shall be plundered."

12 Thus says the LORD:

"As a shepherd takes from the mouth of a lion
Two legs or a piece of an ear,
So shall the children of Israel be taken out
Who dwell in Samaria—
In the corner of a bed and on the edge* of a couch!
13 Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,"
Says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 "That in the day I punish Israel for their
transgressions,
I will also visit destruction on the altars of [g]Bethel;
And the horns of the altar shall be cut off
And fall to the ground.
15 I will destroy [h]the winter house along with [i]the summer house;
The [j]houses of ivory shall perish,
And the great houses shall have an end,"
Says the LORD.

4 Hear this word, you [a]cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,
Who oppress the [b]poor,
Who crush the needy,
Who say to your husbands,* "Bring wine, let us [c]drink!"
2 [d]The Lord GOD has sworn by His
holiness:
"Behold, the days shall come upon you
When He will take you away [e]with fishhooks,
And your posterity with fishhooks.
3 [f]You will go out through broken walls,
Each one straight ahead of her,
And you will be cast into Harmon,"
Says the LORD.

4 "Come[g] to Bethel and transgress,
At [h]Gilgal multiply transgression;
[i]Bring your sacrifices every morning,
[j]Your tithes every three days.*
5 [k]Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven,
Proclaim and announce [l]the freewill offerings;
For this you love,
You children of Israel!"
Says the Lord GOD.

Israel Did Not Accept Correction

Israel. Each question is framed so as to require a resounding "no" as its answer.

3:11 An adversary shall be all around the land. This verse pictures a formal sentencing of Israel in the presence of the witnesses whom God had called (v. 9). Sapping Israel's strength was exactly what Assyria did in the years following Amos's prophecies, finally putting an end to the nation in 722 B.C.

3:12 As a shepherd takes from the mouth of a lion. The hired shepherd was responsible to the owner for the safety of the sheep. He had to make good any loss, unless he could prove it was unavoidable. A lion taking a sheep was an unavoidable loss, but the shepherd had to prove that the lion had taken it. A couple of small bones or a piece of an ear was sufficient; the owner would recognize the lion's work. As complete as the destruction of a sheep by a lion would be the destruction of Israel that God would bring.

3:15 the great houses shall have an end. The four houses mentioned here were all symbols of oppression. Many small inheritances had been stolen to form the large estates of the wealthy and powerful, where they built their opulent houses.

4:1 cows of Bashan. This phrase refers to the well-fed women of Samaria. Bashan, the region east and northeast of the Sea of Galilee, was a prime grassland area renowned for its cattle.

4:3 broken walls. These were a symbol of the thoroughness of the destruction of the city and the homes that the people held so dear. In an undamaged city, the usual way in and out was the one main gate. But Samaria would be so ruined that the deportees would be driven straight through the breaches in the walls of their houses and their city.

4:6–11 you have not returned to Me. This passage describes a series of five calamities that God had already sent upon the Israelites in an effort to drive them to repentance. A striking feature of this narrative is God's emphatic claim that the Israelites had brought these disasters on themselves. They had

7 "I also withheld rain from you,
When there were still three months to the harvest.
I made it rain on one city,
I withheld rain from another city.
One part was rained upon,
And where it did not rain the part withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water,
But they were not satisfied;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

9 "I[n] blasted you with blight and mildew.
When your gardens increased,
Your vineyards,
Your fig trees,
And your olive trees,
[o]The locust devoured them;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

10 "I sent among you a plague [p]after the manner of Egypt;
Your young men I killed with a sword,
Along with your captive horses;
I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

11 "I overthrew some of you,
As God overthrew [q]Sodom and Gomorrah,
And you were like a firebrand plucked from the burning;
Yet you have not returned to Me,"
Says the LORD.

12 "Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel;
Because I will do this to you,
[r]Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

A Lament for Israel

5 Hear this word which I [q]take up against you, a lamentation, O house of Israel:

2 The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She will rise no more.
She lies forsaken on her land;
There is no one to raise her up.

3For thus says the Lord GOD:

"The city that goes out by a thousand
Shall have a hundred left,
And that which goes out by a hundred Shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

A Call to Repentance

4For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:

[b]"Seek Me [c]and live;
5 But do not seek [d]Bethel,
Nor enter Gilgal,
Nor pass over to [e]Beersheba;
For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
And [f]Bethel shall come to nothing.
6 [g]Seek the LORD and live,
Lest He break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
And devour it,
With no one to quench it in Bethel—
7 You who [h]turn justice to wormwood,
And lay righteousness to rest in the earth!"

8 He made the [i]Pleiades and Orion;
He turns the shadow of death into morning
[j]And makes the day dark as night;
He [k]calls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the face of the earth;
[l]The LORD is His name.

* 4:13 Or His

repeatedly failed to understand the implications of the disasters.

4:10 after the manner of Egypt. This fourth calamity suggests that God was reminding Israel of the ten plagues that preceded their exodus from Egypt; these included epidemic diseases and other disasters.

4:11 like a firebrand plucked from the burning. This refers to a stick snatched from a fire with one end already ablaze. Here it was a vivid metaphor for God's last-minute rescue of most of Israel from the fate He brought upon some of its cities and territories.

4:12 Prepare to meet your God. Because Israel had not returned to God through these five calamities, it would have to meet God Himself. To be confronted—inescapably—by the God it had scorned and rejected would be a fate more terrible than Israel could imagine.

5:2 The virgin of Israel. This term depicts the nation as a young maiden, cut off from her life before it had really begun. on her land. This is a reminder that the land had been God's gift to Israel. By their faithlessness, the people had turned God's gift into the place of their death and burial.

5:6 in the house of Joseph. This phrase refers to the whole nation.

5:8 the Pleiades. This refers to a cluster of stars within the constellation Taurus, one of the twelve signs of the Zodiac. One of Israel's idolatries was astral worship. Far from being deities, Amos asserted,

10 [m]They hate the one who rebukes in the gate,
And they [n]abhor the one who speaks uprightly.
11 [o]Therefore, because you tread down the poor
And take grain taxes from him,
Though [p]you have built houses of hewn stone,
Yet you shall not dwell in them;
You have planted pleasant vineyards,
But you shall not drink wine from them.
12 For I [q]know your manifold transgressions
And your mighty sins:
[r]Afflicting the just and taking bribes;
[s]Diverting the poor from justice at the gate.
13 Therefore [t]the prudent keep silent at that time,
For it is an evil time.

14 Seek good and not evil,
That you may live;
So the LORD God of hosts will be with you,
[u]As you have spoken.
15 [v]Hate evil, love good;
Establish justice in the gate.
[w]It may be that the LORD God of hosts
Will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

The Day of the LORD

16 Therefore the LORD God of hosts, the Lord, says this:

"There shall be wailing in all streets,
And they shall say in all the highways,
'Alas! Alas!'
They shall call the farmer to mourning,
[x]And skillful lamenters to wailing.
17 In all vineyards there shall be wailing,
For [y]I will pass through you,"
Says the LORD.

18 [z]Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
For what good is [a]the day of the LORD to you?
It will be darkness, and not light.
19 It will be [b]as though a man fled from a lion,
And a bear met him!
Or as though he went into the house,
Leaned his hand on the wall,
And a serpent bit him!
20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light?
Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?

21 "I[c] hate, I despise your feast days,
And [d]I do not savor your sacred assemblies.
22 [e]Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
Nor will I regard your fattened peace offerings.

the constellations also were God's creations. Orion. This is a reference to a prominent constellation in the southern sky in the shape of a hunter.

5:10 the gate. This was the location of the town court, where justice was to be upheld in all legal proceedings whether civil or criminal.

5:11–15 God's Justice—The Israelites in Amos's day had lost sight of God's commands to treat the poor compassionately. There is no record that Israel ever practiced the year of Jubilee (Lev. 25:11) that is part of Old Testament law, for instance.

As many of the prophets did, Amos called on the Israelites to practice justice and see to it that the poor were not abused. He made it clear that the rich in his day were taking advantage of the poor. The justice system was ineffective because of rampant bribery. The prophets repeatedly made the point that the sacrifices were not enough. The sacrificial process needed to be connected with a response in behavior. God's justice demanded more than the sacrifices. It demanded obedience.

Amos teaches us to be observant about where this injustice is being practiced. He teaches us to look for movements, forces, or programs that can work against the accumulation of power and unjustly gained wealth.

One of the first things the Jerusalem church did when it formed was to put in place a system of some kind to care for the widows and orphans (Acts 6:1–4). Belief in God included an understanding of His desire for justice and the believer's need to act on it.

5:11 grain taxes. To take grain taxes from the poor was to put them at risk of starvation if the harvest had not been bountiful. Yet the rich and powerful had sufficient resources to build luxurious houses for themselves. God promised that the rich would not enjoy their luxury stolen from the lifeblood of the poor and powerless.

5:12 your mighty sins. Israel's leaders did not sin incidentally or furtively; they sinned brazenly and habitually, as though God had never revealed Himself and His standards of justice and mercy.

5:18 the day of the LORD. The popular theology of Amos's time apparently looked forward to this day as the time of Israel's restoration to military, political, and economic greatness, perhaps to the greatness of the reigns of David and Solomon. Amos declared such hopes futile, even pitiable. What the people looked forward to as a day of light and triumph would rise upon them instead as a day of darkness and ruin.

5:19 bear . . . serpent. These images evoke the terror that follows when a person escapes a terrible danger and is exhausted and relieved, only to find a worse danger so close at hand that it is inescapable.

5:21–23 feast days . . . sacred assemblies. By stating He would no longer accept Israel's sacrifices or

Warnings to Zion and Samaria

6 Woe [a]to you who are at [b]ease in Zion,
And [c]trust in Mount Samaria,
Notable persons in the [d]chief nation,
To whom the house of Israel comes!
2 [e]Go over to [f]Calneh and see;
And from there go to [g]Hamath the great;
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
[h]Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory greater than your territory?

3 Woe to you who [i]put far off the day of [j]doom, [k]Who cause [l]the seat of violence to come near;
4 Who lie on beds of ivory,
Stretch out on your couches,
Eat lambs from the flock
And calves from the midst of the stall;
5 [m]Who sing idly to the sound of stringed instruments,
And invent for yourselves [n]musical instruments [o]like David;
6 Who [p]drink wine from bowls,
And anoint yourselves with the best ointments,
[q]But are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

7 Therefore they shall now go [r]captive as the first of the captives,
And those who recline at banquets shall be removed.

8 [s]The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself,
The LORD God of hosts says:
"I abhor [t]the pride of Jacob,
And hate his palaces;
Therefore I will deliver up the city
And all that is in it."

9 Then it shall come to pass, that if ten men remain in one house, they shall die. 10 And when a relative of the dead, with one who will burn the bodies, picks up the bodies* to take them out of the house, he will say to one inside the house, "Are there any more with you?"
Then someone will say, "None."
And he will say, [u]"Hold your tongue! [v]For we dare not mention the name of the LORD."

11 For behold, [w]the LORD gives a command:
[x]He will break the great house into bits,
And the little house into pieces.

12 Do horses run on rocks?
Does one plow there with oxen?
Yet [y]you have turned justice into gall,
And the fruit of righteousness into wormwood,
13 You who rejoice over Lo Debar,*
Who say, "Have we not taken Karnaim* for ourselves
By our own strength?"

14 "But, behold, [z]I will raise up a nation against you, O house of Israel,"
Says the LORD God of hosts;
"And they will afflict you from the [a]entrance of Hamath
To the Valley of the Arabah."

5:25 Did you offer Me. This verse is a rhetorical question with "yes" as the expected answer.

6:3 you who put far off the day of doom. This refers to those who insisted that Israel was too strong for destruction to fall upon the nation any time soon.

6:4–6 lambs . . . calves. This passage describes the extravagant living indulged in by the rich and paid for with the wealth stolen from the poor. Meat was a luxury for most families of the ancient Middle East, consumed only on special occasions. Meat on a daily basis was the privilege only of the rich and powerful. The upper classes of Israel were so engrossed in their own privileges and luxuries that they cared nothing for the affliction of their fellow Israelites, though it was their transgressions that had caused it.

was, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said:

"O Lord GOD, forgive, I pray!
[a]Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
3 So [b]the LORD relented concerning
this.
"It shall not be," said the LORD.

Vision of the Fire

4Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, the Lord GOD called for conflict by fire, and it consumed the great deep and devoured the territory. 5Then I said:

"O Lord GOD, cease, I pray!
[c]Oh, that Jacob may stand,
For he is small!"
6 So the LORD relented concerning this.
"This also shall not be," said the Lord
GOD.

Vision of the Plumb Line

7Thus He showed me: Behold, the Lord stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand. 8And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"
And I said, "A plumb line."
Then the Lord said:

"Behold, [d]I am setting a plumb line
In the midst of My people Israel;
[e]I will not pass by them anymore.
9 [f]The high places of Isaac shall be desolate,
And the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste.
[g]I will rise with the sword against the house of Jeroboam."

Amaziah's Complaint

10Then Amaziah the [h]priest of [i]Bethel sent to [j]Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11For thus Amos has said:

'Jeroboam shall die by the sword,
And Israel shall surely be led away
[k]captive
From their own land.'"

12Then Amaziah said to Amos:

"Go, you seer!
Flee to the land of Judah.
There eat bread,
And there prophesy.
13 But [l]never again prophesy at Bethel,
[m]For it is the king's sanctuary,
And it is the royal residence."

14Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah:

"I was no prophet,
Nor was I [n]a son of a prophet,
But I was a [o]sheepbreeder*
And a tender of sycamore fruit.
15 Then the LORD took me as I followed the flock,
And the LORD said to me,
'Go, [p]prophesy to My people Israel.'
16 Now therefore, hear the word of the
LORD:
You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel,
And [q]do not spout against the house of Isaac.'

* 7:14 Compare 2 Kings 3:4

the king took the first harvest of hay as a tax. Thus a swarm of locusts devouring the late crop would leave the people with nothing for themselves, inflicting a crippling economic blow.

7:2–3 that Jacob may stand. If God carried out the threatened punishment, Jacob (the nation of Israel) might be destroyed. One function of the prophet was to serve as intercessor for the people before God. Amos prayed that the vision decreed in heaven might be halted before it was accomplished on earth. The basis of Amos's petition lay in the true assessment of Israel's position. They were not large and strong, as they thought; rather they were small and weak. In response to Amos's intercession, and out of His own love for Israel, God stayed His decree.

7:7–9 a plumb line. This apparatus is a string with a weight tied to one end, used to establish a vertical line so that a wall can be built straight. what do you see. Unlike the first two visions of natural disasters, the visions of the plumb line and the basket of summer fruit were not self-explanatory. God asked Amos what he saw, then explained the visions' meaning. Also unlike the first two visions, God did not give Amos opportunity to intercede, nor did He relent. These judgments would be executed. the house of Jeroboam. This is a metaphor for the nation.

7:10–11 Amaziah. Amaziah was the priest in charge of the temple at Bethel, who informed the king about the prophet who was making threats against the king's house. Amaziah was reacting to Amos's third vision which ended with God's promise to bring the sword against the house of Jeroboam. Amaziah regarded Amos's words as a political threat, and reported them not as a prophecy from God, but as Amos's call to revolt.

7:14–17 Nor was I a son of a prophet. Amos's answer to Amaziah came in two parts. First, he denied being a prophet by profession. He did not come from a family of prophets, nor had he been trained in prophecy. Amos made it clear that he had neither desired nor sought his prophetic task. Your wife shall be a harlot. The only way the spouse of an important official like Amaziah would be reduced to prostitution would be if all her family and all her resources were taken away and she were left to fend entirely for herself.

From his own land.'"

Vision of the Summer Fruit

8 Thus the Lord GOD showed me: Behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 And He said, "Amos, what do you see?"

So I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me:

"The end has come upon[a] My people Israel;
[b]I will not pass by them anymore.
3 And [c]the songs of the temple
Shall be wailing in that day,"
Says the Lord GOD—
"Many dead bodies everywhere,
[d]They shall be thrown out in silence."

4 Hear this, you who swallow up* the needy,
And make the poor of the land fail,

5 Saying:

"When will the New Moon be past,
That we may sell grain?
And [e]the Sabbath,
That we may trade wheat?
[f]Making the ephah small and the shekel large,
Falsifying the scales by [g]deceit,
6 That we may buy the poor for [h]silver,
And the needy for a pair of sandals—
Even sell the bad wheat?"

7 The LORD has sworn by [i]the pride of Jacob:
"Surely [j]I will never forget any of their works.
8 [k]Shall the land not tremble for this,
And everyone mourn who dwells in it?
All of it shall swell like the River,*
Heave and subside
[l]Like the River of Egypt.

9 "And it shall come to pass in that day," says the Lord GOD,

[m]"That I will make the sun go down at noon,
And I will darken the earth in broad daylight;
10 I will turn your feasts into [n]mourning,
[o]And all your songs into lamentation;
[p]I will bring sackcloth on every waist,
And baldness on every head;
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
And its end like a bitter day.

11 "Behold, the days are coming," says the Lord GOD,
"That I will send a famine on the land,
Not a famine of bread,
Nor a thirst for water,
But [q]of hearing the words of the LORD.
12 They shall wander from sea to sea,
And from north to east;
They shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the LORD,
But shall [r]not find it.

13 "In that day the fair virgins
And strong young men
Shall faint from thirst.
14 Those who [s]swear by [t]the sin* of Samaria,
Who say,
'As your god lives, O Dan!'
And, 'As the way of [u]Beersheba lives!'
They shall fall and never rise again."

The Destruction of Israel

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and He said:

"Strike the doorposts, that the thresholds may shake,
And [a]break them on the heads of them all.
I will slay the last of them with the sword.
[b]He who flees from them shall not get away,
And he who escapes from them shall not be delivered.

8:1–3 a basket of summer fruit. The fruits that came at the end of the harvest in late summer included grapes, pomegranates, and figs. The end has come. Amos could not have discerned the meaning of this vision until God's pronouncement. Israel's wickedness was about to result in a harvest of judgment.
8:5 Making the ephah small. This was a way of cheating the customer of value received for price paid. shekel. This was a unit of money so making it "great" was also a way of cheating.
8:12–13 sea to sea. This meant from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean. fair virgins . . . young men. This refers to those who are most vigorous to survive.
8:14 Dan . . . Beersheba. This was a phrase that indicated the limits of the Israelite territory. In Amos's day, Beersheba was in the kingdom of Judah. Israel could swear oaths by the Lord, claiming they loyally worshiped Him from the extreme north to the extreme south of His land, but that would not relieve the famine of God's word.

From there I will search and take them;
Though they hide from My sight at the bottom of the sea,
From there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them;
4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies,
From there [f]I will command the sword,
And it shall slay them.
[g]I will set My eyes on them for harm and not for good."

5 The Lord GOD of hosts,
He who touches the earth and it [h]melts,
[i]And all who dwell there mourn;
All of it shall swell like the River,*
And subside like the River of Egypt.
6 He who builds His [j]layers in the sky,
And has founded His strata in the earth;
Who [k]calls for the waters of the sea,
And pours them out on the face of the earth—

7 "Are you not like the people of Ethiopia to Me, O children of Israel?" says the LORD.
"Did I not bring up Israel from the land of Egypt,
The [m]Philistines from [n]Caphtor,
And the Syrians from [o]Kir?

8 "Behold, [p]the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom,
And I [q]will destroy it from the face of the earth;
Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,"
Says the LORD.

9 "For surely I will command,
And will sift the house of Israel among all nations,
As grain is sifted in a sieve;
[r]Yet not the smallest grain shall fall to the ground.
10 All the sinners of My people shall die by the sword,
[s]Who say, 'The calamity shall not overtake nor confront us.'

Israel Will Be Restored

And repair its damages;
I will raise up its ruins,
And rebuild it as in the days of old;
12 [u]That they may possess the remnant of [v]Edom,*
And all the Gentiles who are called by My name,"
Says the LORD who does this thing.

13 "Behold, [w]the days are coming," says the LORD,
"When the plowman shall overtake the reaper,
And the treader of grapes him who sows seed;
[x]The mountains shall drip with sweet wine,
And all the hills shall flow with it.
14 [y]I will bring back the captives of My people Israel;
[z]They shall build the waste cities and inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them;
They shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them.
15 I will plant them in their land,
[a]And no longer shall they be pulled up
From the land I have given them,"
Says the LORD your God.

* 9:2 Or Sheol * 9:5 That is, the Nile * 9:11 Literally booth, figure of a deposed dynasty
* 9:12 Septuagint reads mankind.

9:2 hell . . . heaven. In this imagery, Israel's fugitives from God's judgment could escape neither up nor down; God would find them no matter where in the universe they fled.
9:3 top of Carmel. This peak represented the highest point on earth. Whether as high as that, or as low as the bottom of the sea, the earth would provide no escape.
9:8 the sinful kingdom. This is Israel. I will not utterly destroy. This was a glimmer of hope in a long passage of judgment and doom. God's judgment would be thorough, but a remnant would survive.
9:9 As grain is sifted in a sieve. Sifting grain was the final operation in cleaning it before gathering it into storage. In winnowing, all the chaff was blown away; only pebbles and small clumps of mud remained with the grain. The sieve was constructed with holes that were sized so debris were retained in the sieve.
9:13 the plowman shall overtake the reaper. For this to happen it would mean such an abundant harvest that it would last all summer and would not be gathered until the plowing had started again. Grapes were harvested from mid-summer to early fall. The grain crop was sown after the plowing in late fall.
9:15 plant them in their land. God does not abandon His promises or His covenant, nor does He leave His people without hope. God's punishment is certain, but His restoration is just as certain. The word of hope for God's people of old is valid also for God's people of today.

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

▶ AUTHOR: Obadiah was an obscure prophet who probably lived in the southern kingdom of Judah. It is assumed, however, that he was not a priest, since his father is not mentioned and nothing is given of his background. There are 13 Obadiahs in the Old Testament. Four of the better prospects for this Obadiah are: (1) the officer in Ahab's palace that hid God's prophets in a cave (1 Kin. 18:3); (2) one of the officials sent out by Jehoshaphat to teach the law in the cities of Judah (2 Chr. 17:7); (3) one of the overseers who took part in repairing the temple under Josiah (2 Chr. 34:12); or (4) a priest in the time of Nehemiah (Neh. 10:5).

▶ TIME: c. 840 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Obad. 10

▶ THEME: Obadiah is a prophecy against Edom, the nation that descended from Esau. Edom included the area south and east of the Dead Sea. Throughout most of Old Testament history, if Edom is mentioned, it is in the context of some kind of skirmish. This friction started when the king of Edom refused to let the Israelites cross his territory as they journeyed towards the Promised Land in Numbers 20:14–21. When Israel and Judah were taken into exile, Edom stood by and watched. The purpose of Obadiah seems clear. He is out to encourage the Israelites in the context of captivity. God will rescue His people.

The Coming Judgment on Edom

The vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord GOD [a]concerning Edom
[b](We have heard a report from the LORD,
And a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying,
"Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle"):

2 "Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
You shall be greatly despised.
3 The [c]pride of your heart has deceived you,
You who dwell in the clefts of the rock,
Whose habitation is high;
[d]You who say in your heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?'
4 [e]Though you ascend as high as the eagle,
And though you [f]set your nest among the stars,
From there I will bring you down," says the LORD.

5 "If [g]thieves had come to you,
If robbers by night—
Oh, how you will be cut off!—
Would they not have stolen till they had enough?
If grape-gatherers had come to you,
[h]Would they not have left some gleanings?

6 "Oh, how Esau shall be searched out!
How his hidden treasures shall be sought after!
7 All the men in your confederacy
Shall force you to the border;
[i]The men at peace with you Shall deceive you and prevail against you.
Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap* for you.
[j]No one is aware of it.

* 1:7 Or wound, or plot

2 I will make you small. God would bring about a reversal of Edom's inflated self-importance.
3 Whose habitation is high. Some of the mountain peaks of Edom reached over 6,000 feet. Jerusalem is about 2,300 feet above sea level. Who will bring me down to the ground? Edom's presumed physical safety led the Edomites to become haughty; this would be their downfall.
4 ascend as high as the eagle. Edom's physical location became a metaphor of the proud and haughty spirit that the nation had displayed at the time of Judah's distress. Trusting in its high places and mountainous strongholds, Edom reckoned that no one could bring it to account for its actions.

8 "Will[k] I not in that day," says the LORD,
"Even destroy the wise men from Edom,
And understanding from the mountains of Esau?
9 Then your [l]mighty men, O [m]Teman, shall be dismayed,
To the end that everyone from the mountains of Esau
May be cut off by slaughter.

Edom Mistreated His Brother

10 "For [n]violence against your brother Jacob, Shame shall cover you,
And [o]you shall be cut off forever.
11 In the day that you [p]stood on the other side—
In the day that strangers carried captive his forces,
When foreigners entered his gates
And [q]cast lots for Jerusalem—
Even you were as one of them.

12 "But you should not have [r]gazed on the day of your brother
In the day of his captivity;*
Nor should you have [s]rejoiced over the children of Judah
In the day of their destruction;
Nor should you have spoken proudly
In the day of distress.
13 You should not have entered the gate of My people
In the day of their calamity.
Indeed, you should not have gazed on their affliction
In the day of their calamity,
Nor laid hands on their substance
In the day of their calamity.
14 You should not have stood at the crossroads
To cut off those among them who escaped;
Nor should you have delivered up those among them who remained
In the day of distress.

15 "For[t] the day of the LORD upon all the nations is near;
[u]As you have done, it shall be done to you;
Your reprisal shall return upon your own head.
16 [v]For as you drank on My holy mountain,
So shall all the nations drink continually;
Yes, they shall drink, and swallow,
And they shall be as though they had never been.

Israel's Final Triumph

17 "But on Mount Zion there [w]shall be deliverance,
And there shall be holiness;
The house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
18 The house of Jacob shall be a fire,
And the house of Joseph [x]a flame;
But the house of Esau shall be stubble;
They shall kindle them and devour them,
And no survivor shall remain of the house of Esau,"
For the LORD has spoken.

19 The South* [y]shall possess the mountains of Esau,
[z]And the Lowland shall possess Philistia.
They shall possess the fields of Ephraim
And the fields of Samaria.
Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel
Shall possess the land of the Canaanites
As [a]far as Zarephath.
The captives of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad

8 destroy the wise men from Edom. The nation had a reputation for having many wise men among its citizens (Jer. 49:7).
9 O Teman. This name comes from a son of Eliphaz, who was the firstborn son of Esau (Gen. 36:9–11).
11 In the day. This refers to the time of Judah's distress. strangers . . . foreigners. These words are used to describe Judah's principal enemies, contrasted with the words of verse 10, "your brother." It was one thing for the Babylonians to attack Judah; for a nation like Edom to join the Babylonians against their own brothers was unthinkable.
13 the day of their calamity. This phrase is repeated three times in this verse. It refers to the day of God's judgment upon Judah, carried out by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.
15 the day of the LORD. This is a technical term used by the prophets to indicate the day of God's judgment (Amos 5:18–20). Here the term likely refers to the time when God would judge all the nations, including Edom, that had participated in Judah's destruction.
18 house of Jacob . . . house of Joseph. Together these signify a unified Israel. God intends to rejoin the kingdoms of Israel and Judah as one people again.
20 Zarephath. This was a Phoenician city 14 miles north of Tyre (1 Kin. 17:8–24). Sepharad. This was a city to which some Judeans were exiled. The restoration of Judah from exile, which these verses predict, was a sign to Judah and all nations that the God of Israel was not just a local God. He had not been defeated by the Babylonian god Marduk. The fact that He could allow His people to be carried into captivity in a foreign land and then bring them back

Edom had thought itself indestructible; but the Lord humbled that nation and restored the fallen Judah. Many people are tempted to consider themselves beyond the reach of God. But God will bring them low, just as He will lift those who humble themselves before Him. And one great day, He will establish His just rule over all.

THE BOOK OF JONAH

▶ AUTHOR: Jonah was "the son of Amittai" and nothing more would be known about him were it not for a reference in 2 Kings 14:25 calling him a prophet in the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel. Jonah was a Galilean, contrary to the Pharisees' claim that "no prophet has arisen out of Galilee" (John 7:52). One Jewish tradition says that Jonah was the son of the widow of Zarephath whom Elijah raised from the dead (1 Kin. 17:8–24).

▶ TIME: c. 760 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Jon. 2:8–9

▶ THEME: The Book of Jonah directs us towards God's greatness and mercy. He will go to any lengths in order to assure that His message is heard. He makes it possible for people to repent and be redeemed no matter how decadent and far away from God they are. Jonah himself is a prime example of the power of storytelling, as he gives us an amazingly visual and memorable image of God's far-reaching grace and His involvement in individual lives to accomplish His purposes.

Jonah's Disobedience

1 Now the word of the LORD came to [a]Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, 2"Arise, go to [b]Nineveh, that [c]great city, and cry out against it; for [d]their wickedness has come up before Me." 3But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to [e]Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to [f]Tarshish [g]from the presence of the LORD.

The Storm at Sea

4But [h]the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken up.

5Then the mariners were afraid; and every man cried out to his god, and threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten the load.* But Jonah had gone down [i]into the lowest parts of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep.

6So the captain came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, [j]call on your God; [k]perhaps your God will consider us, so that we may not perish."

7And they said to one another, "Come, let us [l]cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this trouble has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. 8Then they said to him, [m]"Please tell us! For whose cause is this trouble upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"

9So he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, [n]who made the sea and the dry land."

Jonah Thrown into the Sea

10Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "Why have you done this?" For the men knew that he fled

* 1:5 Literally from upon them

1:1 the word of the LORD. This phrase affirms the divine source of the message to Jonah (Jer. 1:4; Hos. 1:1; Joel 1:1; Mic. 1:1). The name "Jonah" means "dove."

1:2 Nineveh. Nineveh is located on the Tigris River, the capital of ancient Assyria (2 Kin. 19:36) for about a century. It was over 500 miles from Jonah's home near Nazareth.

1:3 a ship going to Tarshish. The location of this port city is uncertain, but it could be Tartessus on the southeast coast of Spain. The city represents the most distant place known to the Israelites. Joppa was about 50 miles southwest of Jonah's hometown in the opposite direction from Nineveh.

1:4–5 the LORD sent out a great wind. Throughout the Book of Jonah, the Lord shows Himself sovereign over every aspect of creation. In this case, the storm at sea was so ferocious that even the experienced mariners were afraid.

1:9 I am a Hebrew. With these words, Jonah identified himself with the people of the Lord's covenant (Gen. 14:13). I fear the LORD. Fear here indicates an ongoing activity of awe before the Lord, of piety in His presence, of obedience to His word, and of saving faith (Gen. 22:12; Ex. 20:20; Prov. 1:7). Yet Jonah's actions contradicted his words.

1:10 exceedingly afraid. This is the same term for

1:1 [a] 2 Kin. 14:25 1:2 [b] Is. 37:37 [c] Gen. 10:11, 12 [d] Gen. 18:20 1:3 [e] Josh. 19:46 [f] Is. 23:1 [g] Gen. 4:16 1:4 [h] Ps. 107:25 1:5 [i] 1 Sam. 24:3 1:6 [j] Ps. 107:28 [k] Joel 2:14 1:7 [l] Josh. 7:14 1:8 [m] Josh. 7:19 1:9 [n] [Neh. 9:6]

from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. 11Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you that the sea may be calm for us?"—for the sea was growing more tempestuous.

12And he said to them, [o]"Pick me up and throw me into the sea; then the sea will become calm for you. For I know that this great tempest is because of me."

13Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to land, [p]but they could not, for the sea continued to grow more tempestuous against them. 14Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, "We pray, O LORD, please do not let us perish for this man's life, and [q]do not charge us with innocent blood; for You, O LORD, [r]have done as it pleased You." 15So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, [s]and the sea ceased from its raging. 16Then the men [t]feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to the LORD and took vows.

Jonah's Prayer and Deliverance

17Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. And [u]Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the fish's belly. 2And he said:

"I [a]cried out to the LORD because of my affliction, [b]And He answered me.
"Out of the belly of Sheol I cried,
And You heard my voice.
3 [c]For You cast me into the deep,
Into the heart of the seas,
And the floods surrounded me;
[d]All Your billows and Your waves passed over me.
4 [e]Then I said, 'I have been cast out of Your sight;
Yet I will look again [f]toward Your holy temple.'
5 The [g]waters surrounded me, even to my soul;
The deep closed around me;
Weeds were wrapped around my head.
6 I went down to the moorings of the mountains;
The earth with its bars closed behind me forever;
Yet You have brought up my [h]life from the pit,
O LORD, my God.
7 "When my soul fainted within me,
I remembered the LORD;
[i]And my prayer went up to You,
Into Your holy temple.
8 "Those who regard [j]worthless idols
Forsake their own Mercy.
9 But I will [k]sacrifice to You
With the voice of thanksgiving;
I will pay what I have [l]vowed.
[m]Salvation is of the [n]LORD."

10So the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah Preaches at Nineveh

3 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you." 3So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was

---

"fear" that Jonah used in his statement of piety (v. 9). But here the word means to be in terror; it refers to overwhelming dread (v. 16). God, the Creator of the universe, was after Jonah. And because God was after Jonah, He was after the sailors as well. They had every right to be afraid (Gen. 12:18; Judg. 15:11).

1:14 they cried out to the LORD. Ironically, the pagan sailors prayed to the Lord on behalf of the Lord's rebellious prophet. Jonah needed God's grace as much as Nineveh did. as it pleased You. The narrator skillfully uses the sailors' words to express one of the book's themes: the Lord is free to act as He wills.

1:17 the LORD had prepared a great fish. God sent the fish—not a whale, as is commonly thought—to rescue Jonah from drowning, not to punish him (ch. 2). Three days and three nights may refer to one full day and portions of two more (Gen. 30:36; Ex. 3:18; 1 Sam. 30:12). Jesus Christ said that His death and resurrection were foreshadowed by Jonah's experience (Matt. 12:39–40; 16:4; Luke 11:29).

2:2 I cried . . . I cried. These terms come from two different verbs. The first is a more general term meaning "to call aloud," with a wide range of usage in the Bible. The second is a term that means a "cry for help," particularly as a scream to God (Ps. 5:2; 18:6; 22:24; 88:13; 119:146).

2:4 I will look again toward Your holy temple. The man who had run from God's presence was alone, yet he clung to the hope that God would not abandon him. The temple, the sanctuary in Jerusalem (Deut. 12:5–7; Ps. 48; 79:1; Heb. 9:24), was the symbol of God's presence.

2:6 the moorings of the mountains. Jonah pictures himself so deep in the sea that it is as if he had found the deepest place possible. pit. This term, along with hell (v. 2), is used to describe the realm of the dead (Job 33:24; Ps. 30:9; 49:9).

2:9 I will sacrifice to You . . . voice of thanksgiving. This vow is common in the Psalms (Ps. 13:6; 142:7). I will pay what I have vowed. Jonah declares that he will keep his promise, a pledge both to sacrifice and to acknowledge God's help (Job 22:27; Ps. 50:14; 66:13; Rom. 6:13; 1 Pet. 2:5).

2:10 the LORD spoke to the fish. The focus in the story of Jonah is on the Lord's sovereign control over creation to bring about His purpose.

3:1–2 the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time. Jonah's new commission was essentially the same as the one he had received in 1:1.

an exceedingly great city, a three-day journey* in extent. 4And Jonah began to enter the city on the first day's walk. Then [a]he cried out and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

The People of Nineveh Believe

5So the [b]people of Nineveh believed God, proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them. 6Then word came to the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne and laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth [c]and sat in ashes. 7[d]And he caused it to be proclaimed and published throughout Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying,

> Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; do not let them eat, or drink water. 8But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God; yes, [e]let every one turn from his evil way and from [f]the violence that is in his hands. 9[g]Who can tell if God will turn and relent, and turn away from His fierce anger, so that we may not perish?

10[h]Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God relented from the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

Jonah's Anger and God's Kindness

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he became angry. 2So he prayed to the LORD, and said, "Ah, LORD, was not this what I said when I was still in my country? Therefore I [a]fled previously to Tarshish; for I know that You are a [b]gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, One who relents from doing harm. 3[c]Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for [d]it is better for me to die than to live!"

4Then the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

5So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made himself a shelter and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city. 6And the LORD God prepared a plant* and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be shade for his head to deliver him from his misery. So Jonah was very grateful for the plant. 7But as morning dawned the next day God prepared a worm, and it so damaged the plant that it withered. 8And it happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he grew faint. Then he wished death for himself, and said, [e]"It is better for me to die than to live."

9Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?"

And he said, "It is right for me to be angry, even to death!"

10But the LORD said, "You have had pity on the plant for which you have not labored, nor made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night. 11And should I not pity Nineveh, [f]that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons [g]who cannot discern between their right hand and their left—and much livestock?"

3:5 the people of Nineveh believed God. The term used for God here is the general term for deity. In contrast, the sailors in chapter 1 proclaimed faith in the Lord, using the personal, covenant name for God (1:16). The fact that the writer does not use the personal name for God here may suggest that the Ninevites had a short-lived or imperfect understanding of God's message. History bears this out. We have no historical record of a lasting period of belief in Nineveh. Eventually the city was destroyed in 612 B.C.

3:10 God relented. The Ninevites' repentance moved the Lord to extend grace and mercy to them.

4:1 displeased. Jonah's irritation belied the good news that the city would be spared God's judgment, but he was unable to appreciate the parallel.

Jonah . . . became angry. In contrast to God, Jonah had no compassion on the people of Nineveh.

4:5 till he might see what would become of the city. In his continuing stubbornness and lack of compassion, Jonah held out hope that God would judge Nineveh. This was God's chief complaint against him (Ps. 58).

4:7 God prepared a worm. The Book of Jonah depicts the Lord as both sovereign and free to act in creation. God placed the worm in the plant to serve as His agent in Jonah's life.

4:9 right for me to be angry. Jonah's anger (v. 1) did not arise from a desire for justice, but from his own selfishness. He continued to justify his rebellious attitude. And again, God was merciful.

4:11 pity. The same word used to describe Jonah's feeling toward the plant in verse 10 is used for God's feeling toward the people of Nineveh. People are of more value than animals and animals of more value than plants, but the Lord has a concern that extends to all of His creation. The Lord's compassion comes from His character (v. 2; Joel 2:13–14).

THE BOOK OF MICAH

▶ AUTHOR: Micah was from Moresheth Gath (1:14) which was located about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem, near Gath. Although Micah was not as politically aware as Isaiah or Daniel, he showed a profound concern for the suffering of the people and had a clear sense of his prophetic calling. A contemporary of Isaiah and Hosea, Micah may have been a farmer-turned-prophet like Amos.

▶ TIME: c. 735–710 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Mic. 6:8

▶ THEME: Micah was from a town in southwestern Judah. His message was directed at both capital cities, Samaria and Jerusalem. He was probably around when the Assyrians destroyed Samaria in 722 B.C., and may have even lived through the siege of Jerusalem by Assyria. Micah's message comes out of unique visions from God. In effect he saw things that others couldn't, such as the prophecy of Bethlehem as the birthplace of Christ.

1 The word of the LORD that came to [a]Micah of Moresheth in the days of [b]Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

The Coming Judgment on Israel

2 Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, O earth, and all that is in it!
Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,
The Lord from [c]His holy temple.

3 For behold, the LORD is coming out of His place;
He will come down
And tread on the high places of the earth.

4 [d]The mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will split
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep place.

5 All this is for the transgression of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what are the [e]high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?

6 "Therefore I will make Samaria [f]a heap of ruins in the field,
Places for planting a vineyard;
I will pour down her stones into the valley,
And I will [g]uncover her foundations.

7 All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces,
And all her [h]pay as a harlot shall be burned with the fire;
All her idols I will lay desolate,
For she gathered it from the pay of a harlot,
And they shall return to the [i]pay of a harlot."

1:1 Micah. The name means "who is like the Lord?" The question presents a major biblical theme, the idea that God is incomparable (7:18; Deut. 4:32–40; Ps. 113:4–6). Micah's ministry centered on the Assyrian threat to Samaria, the capital of Israel, that was destroyed in 722 B.C. and Jerusalem, the capital of Judah.
1:3 the LORD is coming. This is the language of epiphany, the dramatic coming of God to earth, here in a solemn procession of judgment. In other texts the language of epiphany is used to describe God's dramatic acts of deliverance (Ps. 18:7–19).
1:5 Jacob. The name is used to refer to the northern kingdom of Israel, whose transgression was centered in its capital Samaria. high places. Jerusalem, which was once "beautiful in elevation" (Ps. 48:2), was nothing more than another platform of pagan worship, like the "high places" of the Canaanites.
1:7 she gathered it from the pay of a harlot. Idolatry is often described in the Hebrew Bible as spiritual adultery (Jer. 3:1; Hos. 4:15). Israel is pictured here as a wife who is unfaithful to her husband. This is not just a metaphor, however; the worship system of Canaan was sexual in nature.

Mourning for Israel and Judah

8 Therefore I will wail and howl,
I will go stripped and naked;
[j]I will make a wailing like the jackals
And a mourning like the ostriches,
9 For her wounds are incurable.
For [k]it has come to Judah;
It has come to the gate of My people—
To Jerusalem.

10 [l]Tell it not in Gath,
Weep not at all;
In Beth Aphrah*
Roll yourself in the dust.
11 Pass by in naked shame, you inhabitant of Shaphir;
The inhabitant of Zaanan* does not go out.
Beth Ezel mourns;
Its place to stand is taken away from you.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth pined* for good,
But [m]disaster came down from the LORD
To the gate of Jerusalem.
13 O inhabitant of [n]Lachish,
Harness the chariot to the swift steeds
(She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion),
For the transgressions of Israel were [o]found in you.

14 Therefore you shall [p]give presents to Moresheth Gath;*
The houses of [q]Achzib* shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
15 I will yet bring an heir to you,
O inhabitant of [r]Mareshah;*
The glory of Israel shall come to [s]Adullam.
16 Make yourself [t]bald and cut off your hair,
Because of your [u]precious children;
Enlarge your baldness like an eagle,
For they shall go from you into [v]captivity.

Woe to Evildoers

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity,
And work out evil on their beds!
At [a]morning light they practice it,
Because it is in the power of their hand.
2 They [b]covet fields and take them by violence,
Also houses, and seize them.
So they oppress a man and his house,
A man and his inheritance.

3 Therefore thus says the LORD:

"Behold, against this [c]family I am devising [d]disaster,
From which you cannot remove your necks;
Nor shall you walk haughtily,
For this is an evil time.
4 In that day one shall take up a proverb against you,
And [e]lament with a bitter lamentation, saying:
'We are utterly destroyed!
He has changed the heritage of my people;
How He has removed it from me!
To a turncoat He has divided our fields.'"

5 Therefore you will have no one to determine boundaries* by lot
In the assembly of the LORD.

* 1:10 Literally House of Dust * 1:11 Literally Going Out * 1:12 Literally was sick * 1:14 Literally Possession of Gath • Literally Lie * 1:15 Literally Inheritance * 2:5 Literally one casting a surveyor's line

1:8 stripped and naked. Micah's words describe mourning rites in which outer garments were laid aside in deep humility. The mourning person thought no longer about himself but only about the calamity that had overcome his senses.

1:10 in Gath. The reference here is to the lament of David in his mourning over the death of Saul and Jonathan (2 Sam. 1:20). Just as it was unseemly then to have the bad news of God's people profaned in a foreign city, so it would be in the present circumstance.

1:12 Maroth. This name means "bitterness." The name Jerusalem suggests "peace." Thus, the inhabitants of the "town of bitterness" would be sickened with dread, and the inhabitants of the "town of peace" would experience God's judgments.

1:16 cut off your hair. This would have been the ultimate sign of mourning in a culture in which a man's hair was highly valued.

2:1–2 devise iniquity . . . covet. The ethical teaching of the prophets regularly included oracles of judgment against greed, theft, and oppression, actions of the powerful in attacking the weak. To covet is not just to have a passing thought; it is a determination to seize what is not one's own.

2:4 To a turncoat He has divided our fields. God would take the property rights from those who had seized them illegally and give them to people who were even more reprobate than they were.

2:5–6 no one to determine boundaries. Land-grabbers would no longer have a legitimate claim among God's people. God would dispossess them even as they had dispossessed others. Do not prattle. These words may have been a strong warning to Micah not to be like the lying prophets who counseled that all was well in the land.

Lying Prophets

6 "Do not prattle," you say to those who prophesy.
So they shall not prophesy to you;*
They shall not return insult for insult.*
7 You who are named the house of Jacob:
"Is the Spirit of the LORD restricted?
Are these His doings?
Do not My words do good
To him who walks uprightly?

8 "Lately My people have risen up as an enemy—
You pull off the robe with the garment
From those who trust you, as they pass by,
Like men returned from war.
9 The women of My people you cast out
From their pleasant houses;
From their children
You have taken away My glory forever.

10 "Arise and depart,
For this is not your [f]rest;
Because it is [g]defiled, it shall destroy,
Yes, with utter destruction.
11 If a man should walk in a false spirit
And speak a lie, saying,
'I will prophesy to you of wine and drink,'
Even he would be the [h]prattler of this people.

Israel Restored

12 "I[i] will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob,
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
I will put them together [j]like sheep of the fold,*
Like a flock in the midst of their pasture;
[k]They shall make a loud noise because of so many people.
13 The one who breaks open will come up before them;
They will break out,
Pass through the gate,
And go out by it;
[l]Their king will pass before them,
[m]With the LORD at their head."

Wicked Rulers and Prophets

3 And I said:
"Hear now, O heads of Jacob,
And you [a]rulers of the house of Israel:
[b]Is it not for you to know justice?
2 You who hate good and love evil;
Who strip the skin from My people,*
And the flesh from their bones;
3 Who also [c]eat the flesh of My people,
Flay their skin from them,
Break their bones,
And chop them in pieces
Like meat for the pot,
[d]Like flesh in the caldron."

4 Then [e]they will cry to the LORD,
But He will not hear them;
He will even hide His face from them at that time,
Because they have been evil in their deeds.

5 Thus says the LORD [f]concerning the prophets
Who make my people stray;
Who chant "Peace"
While they [g]chew with their teeth,
But who prepare war against him
[h]Who puts nothing into their mouths:
6 "Therefore[i] you shall have night without vision,
And you shall have darkness without divination;
The sun shall go down on the prophets,
And the day shall be dark for [j]them.
7 So the seers shall be ashamed,
And the diviners abashed;
Indeed they shall all cover their lips;
[k]For there is no answer from God."

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
And of justice and might,
[l]To declare to Jacob his transgression
And to Israel his sin.

* 2:6 Literally to these • Vulgate reads He shall not take shame. * 2:12 Hebrew Bozrah
* 3:2 Literally them

2:12–13 assemble . . . gather . . . put them together. The verbs are emphatic, demonstrating the certainty of God's determination to bring to pass His good pleasure on His people (Deut. 30:1–6). They will break out. This phrase speaks of regathering Israel from wherever the people may have been scattered.

3:1 Is it not for you to know justice? The idea here is that one might not expect justice from pagan leaders in a faraway place. But the rulers of the people of God were expected to emphasize justice. Justice is one of the key concepts of the law (Deut. 10:18; 32:4; 33:21). Perverting justice was strongly prohibited by God (Deut. 16:19; 24:17), yet this was precisely what the leaders of Judah were doing. They had used their authority to destroy justice rather than to establish it among the people.

3:5–7 concerning the prophets. This oracle was against false prophets who proclaimed peace, causing the people to be unprepared for trouble. These prophets would have neither true prophetic insight, nor help from the forbidden arts of divination. Finally, they would have nothing to say, for there would be no answer from God.

9 Now hear this,
You heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who abhor justice
And pervert all equity,
10 [m]Who build up Zion with [n]bloodshed
And Jerusalem with iniquity:
11 [o]Her heads judge for a bribe,
[p]Her priests teach for pay,
And her prophets divine for money.
[q]Yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No harm can come upon us."
12 Therefore because of you
Zion shall be [r]plowed like a field, [s]Jerusalem shall become heaps of ruins,
And [t]the mountain of the temple*
Like the bare hills of the forest.

The LORD's Reign in Zion

4 Now [a]it shall come to pass in the latter days
That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And peoples shall flow to it.
2 Many nations shall come and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
For out of Zion the law shall go forth,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
3 He shall judge between many peoples,
And rebuke strong nations afar off;
They shall beat their swords into [b]plowshares,
And their spears into pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
[c]Neither shall they learn war anymore.*
4 [d]But everyone shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree,
And no one shall make them afraid;
For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.
5 For all people walk each in the name of his god,
But [e]we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
Forever and ever.

Zion's Future Triumph

6 "In that day," says the LORD,
[f]"I will assemble the lame,
[g]I will gather the outcast
And those whom I have afflicted;
7 I will make the lame [h]a remnant,
And the outcast a strong nation;
So the LORD [i]will reign over them in Mount Zion
From now on, even forever.
8 And you, O tower of the flock,
The stronghold of the daughter of Zion,
To you shall it come,
Even the former dominion shall come,
The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem."
9 Now why do you cry aloud?
[j]Is there no king in your midst?
Has your counselor perished?
For [k]pangs have seized you like a woman in labor.
10 Be in pain, and labor to bring forth,
O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman in birth pangs.
For now you shall go forth from the city,
You shall dwell in the field,
And to [l]Babylon you shall go.
There you shall be delivered;
There the [m]LORD will [n]redeem you
From the hand of your enemies.

* 3:12 Literally house * 4:3 Compare Isaiah 2:2–4

3:11 bribe . . . pay . . . money. The wicked leaders and prophets of Israel worked only when they could gain something from it. Needless to say, if justice had to be paid for, it would not be justice. Is not the LORD among us? Many people of Jerusalem believed that they would not be affected by God's judgment because God Himself dwelled in the holy temple in Jerusalem. They reasoned that, despite their evils, as long as God was in His temple they were safe—even from divine judgment. What people refused to believe was that God might leave His temple because of the sinfulness of the people (Ezek. 10).
4:1 in the latter days. This is an indication of a prophecy of end times.
4:2 we shall walk in His paths. Unlike the people of Micah's generation who were strangers to justice (3:1), the peoples of the coming kingdom will be obedient to God.
4:3 swords . . . spears. All weapons of destruction will be recycled into tools of production. There will finally be an end to conflict. War will not even be a subject for study any more.
4:4 vine . . . fig tree. Both are symbols of peace and prosperity (Zech. 3:10).
4:7 remnant. The majority of people in Israel did not live their lives in faith and dedication to the Lord. However, true faith never really died out in Israel, even in the worst of times.
4:9–10 like a woman in labor. The troubles of the present moment would lead finally to the birth of a deliverer. to Babylon you shall go. This refers to the exile.

against you,
Who say, "Let her be defiled,

the LORD,
Nor do they understand His counsel;
For He will gather them [r]like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 "Arise[s] and [t]thresh, O daughter of Zion;
For I will make your horn iron,
And I will make your hooves bronze;
You shall [u]beat in pieces many
peoples;
[v]I will consecrate their gain to the LORD,
And their substance to [w]the Lord of

O daughter of troops;
He has laid siege against us;
They will [a]strike the judge of Israel

The Coming Messiah

2 "But you, [b]Bethlehem [c]Ephrathah, Though you are little [d]among the [e]thousands of Judah,
Yet out of you shall come forth to Me
The One to be [f]Ruler in Israel,
[g]Whose goings forth are from of old,
From everlasting."

3 Therefore He shall give them up, Until the time that [h]she who is in labor
has given birth;
Then [i]the remnant of His brethren
Shall return to the children of Israel.
4 And He shall stand and [j]feed His flock
In the strength of the LORD,
In the majesty of the name of the LORD
His God;
And they shall abide,
For now He [k]shall be great
To the ends of the earth;
5 And this One [l]shall be peace.

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

When the Assyrian comes into our
land,
And when he treads in our palaces,
Then we will raise against him
Seven shepherds and eight princely
men.
6 They shall waste with the sword the land of Assyria,
And the land of [m]Nimrod at its entrances;
Thus He shall [n]deliver us from the Assyrian,
When he comes into our land
And when he treads within our borders.

7 Then [o]the remnant of Jacob Shall be in the midst of many peoples,
[p]Like dew from the LORD,
Like showers on the grass,
That tarry for no man
Nor wait for the sons of men.
8 And the remnant of Jacob Shall be among the Gentiles,
In the midst of many peoples,
Like a [q]lion among the beasts of the forest,
Like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
Who, if he passes through,
Both treads down and tears in pieces,
And none can deliver.
9 Your hand shall be lifted against your adversaries,
And all your enemies shall be cut off.

10 "And it shall be in that day," says the
LORD,
"That I will [r]cut off your [s]horses from your midst
And destroy your [t]chariots.
11 I will cut off the cities of your land
And throw down all your strongholds.
12 I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
And you shall have no [u]soothsayers.
13 [v]Your carved images I will also cut off,
And your sacred pillars from your
midst;
You shall [w]no more worship the work
of your hands;
14 I will pluck your wooden images* from
your midst;
Thus I will destroy your cities.

4:13 Arise and thresh. The nations would be gathered by the Lord like sheaves on the threshing floor (v. 12). This is a way of speaking of the final victory over all of Israel's foes.

5:2 Bethlehem. This name means "house of bread." Ephrathah. This locates the village in a known region in Judah (Gen. 35:16). This prophecy figures significantly in the New Testament story of the visit of the wise men to the Christ child (Matt. 2:1–12). goings forth. The birth of this Savior King would be unlike the birth of any other, because He was preexistent. He is "from everlasting."

5:3 she who is in labor. This probably refers to Zion (4:10). The metaphor refers to the deliverance in the end time of those who will be able to delight in the coming of God's kingdom (4:9—5:1).

5:7 dew . . . showers. Jewish people are blessings from God on their neighbors.

5:10 I will cut off. It was God's intention to destroy the evils in Israel's society. Horses and chariots represent the pride of Israel's military power. Israel's

God Pleads with Israel

6 Hear now what the LORD says:
"Arise, plead your case before the
mountains,
And let the hills hear your voice.
2 [a]Hear, O you mountains, [b]the LORD's complaint,
And you strong foundations of the earth;
For [c]the LORD has a complaint against
His people,
And He will contend with Israel.
3 "O My people, what [d]have I done to you?
And how have I [e]wearied you?
Testify against Me.
4 [f]For I brought you up from the land of Egypt,
I redeemed you from the house of bondage;
And I sent before you Moses, Aaron,
and Miriam.
5 O My people, remember now
What [g]Balak king of Moab counseled,
And what Balaam the son of Beor answered him,
From Acacia Grove* to Gilgal,
That you may know [h]the righteousness
of the LORD."
6 With what shall I come before the LORD,
And bow myself before the High God?
Shall I come before Him with burnt
offerings,
With calves a year old?
7 [i]Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
Ten thousand [j]rivers of oil?
[k]Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
The fruit of my body for the sin of my
soul?
8 He has [l]shown you, O man, what is good;
And what does the LORD require of you
But [m]to do justly,
To love mercy,
And to walk humbly with your God?

Punishment of Israel's Injustice

9 The LORD's voice cries to the city—
Wisdom shall see Your name:
"Hear the rod!
Who has appointed it?
10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness
In the house of the wicked,
And the short measure that is an abomination?
11 Shall I count pure those with [n]the wicked scales,
And with the bag of deceitful weights?
12 For her rich men are full of [o]violence,
Her inhabitants have spoken lies,
And [p]their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
13 "Therefore I will also [q]make you sick by striking you,
By making you desolate because of your sins.
14 [r]You shall eat, but not be satisfied;
Hunger* shall be in your midst.
You may carry some away,* but shall not save them;
And what you do rescue I will give over to the sword.
15 "You shall [s]sow, but not reap;
You shall tread the olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;
And make sweet wine, but not drink wine.
16 For the statutes of [t]Omri are [u]kept;
All the works of Ahab's house are done;
And you walk in their counsels,
That I may make you a desolation,
And your inhabitants a hissing.
Therefore you shall bear the [v]reproach of My people."*

6:7 Will the LORD be pleased. The idea of bringing pleasure to God through sacrifice is found elsewhere in the Bible. God is pleased with those who do as He commands (Gen. 4:1–8).

6:8 what does the LORD require of you. This verse speaks of the underlying attitudes that must accompany all true worship. The idea here is that God seeks certain characteristics of true worship from His people. do justly . . . love mercy . . . walk humbly. These three phrases summarize biblical piety in true worship. The majority of the people of Israel had violated each of these standards repeatedly. with your God. It is the Lord who ultimately gives a person strength, courage, and ability to exercise the virtues of godly living.

Israel's Confession and Comfort

8 [k]Do not rejoice over me, my enemy;

The LORD will be a light to me.
9 [m]I will bear the indignation of the LORD,

He will bring me forth to the light;
I will see His righteousness.

There is not a cluster. For Micah, the harvest was over. There was nothing around him but undesirable fruit.

The faithful man has perished. The norms of society had broken down; everyone was out to destroy someone else.

7:3–4 with both hands. The people were pursuing evil with gusto. The leaders of the state were leading the way in evil (3:11). The day of your watchman. This refers to the time when people needed to be alert for the approach of an enemy army. In this context, judgment was imminent.

7:7 I will look to the LORD. While there would need to be a watchman for the coming of an enemy army, Micah was going to look for the advent of the Lord.

7:8–9 I have sinned. This is the confession of the people in saving faith.

7:11–12 In the day. These words call attention to a future day, the time of the end.

7:16–17 nations shall see and be ashamed. The response of the wicked nations to the renewed mercies of God on His people would be terror. The nations would be humiliated because they had taunted Israel in the day of its trouble (vv. 8–10).

7:18–20 God's Mercy—There is a significant passage on mercy or love like this in every book in the Old Testament. God wants His people to succeed and be prosperous. He wants the best for them. He is always eager to restore them. He protects, directs, sustains, and covenants with them. His steadfast love is characterized by faithfulness in spite of constant wandering in unfaithfulness.

In the New Testament, it is also easy to find passages in every book where someone is being judged. Usually it's the religious people who have set themselves up in God's place or those who have turned away from God when they should know better who are condemned.

The Old Testament predicts, leads toward, and sets the scene for the ultimate judgment of the New Testament. The entire Bible consistently points to the kind of creatures we are because of the fall and sin. Only God has the ultimate solution in Christ. God subjects Himself to that ultimate judgment for us so that all of His love for us may be realized. It's a mystery that we can solve only in our hearts by accepting and believing its implications.

Every day our prayer needs to be, "Lord, my sins are ever with me. I deserve Your judgment. Thank You for the great mercy I've received through Jesus' death for me. That He died in my place must always be the primary reality in my life."

7:18 Who is a God like You. These words speak of the incomparability of God. There is nothing in all of creation to compare with God (Is. 40:25).

7:20 which You have sworn. This last verse is reminiscent of God's promise to Abraham in Genesis 12; 15; 22 and His promises to Jacob in Genesis 32. The Lord had sworn to fulfill His promises to the patriarchs. He would not—could not—leave His promise unfulfilled (Ps. 89:33).

THE BOOK OF NAHUM

▶ AUTHOR: The only mention of Nahum in the Old Testament is found in 1:1 where he is called an Elkoshite. Scholars have been unable to determine the exact location of Elkosh and numerous theories exist, but due to his interest in the triumph of Judah (1:15; 2:2), some believe Nahum to be a prophet of the southern kingdom.

▶ TIME: c. 660 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Nah. 1:7–8

▶ THEME: Nahum is unique in that it is a prophecy addressed completely to a nation other than Israel: Assyria and its capital Nineveh. While Nineveh may be powerful, her day of destruction is coming. Nineveh is not invincible. The message is that God's standards apply to all nations, not just Israel and Judah. They need to be prepared to live by those standards or face judgment.

God's Wrath on His Enemies

2 God is [b]jealous, and the LORD avenges;
The LORD avenges and is furious.
The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries,
And He reserves wrath for His enemies;
3 The LORD is [c]slow to anger and [d]great in power,
And will not at all acquit the wicked.
[e]The LORD has His way
In the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of His feet.
4 [f]He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
And dries up all the rivers.
[g]Bashan and Carmel wither,
And the flower of Lebanon wilts.
5 The mountains quake before Him,
The hills melt,
And the earth heaves* at His presence,
Yes, the world and all who dwell in it.
6 Who can stand before His indignation?
And [h]who can endure the fierceness of His anger?
His fury is poured out like fire,
And the rocks are thrown down by Him.
7 [i]The LORD is good,
A stronghold in the day of trouble;
And [j]He knows those who trust in Him.
8 But with an overflowing flood
He will make an utter end of its place,
And darkness will pursue His enemies.
9 [k]What do you conspire against the LORD?
[l]He will make an utter end of it.
Affliction will not rise up a second time.
10 For while tangled [m]like thorns,
[n]And while drunken like drunkards,
[o]They shall be devoured like stubble fully dried.
11 From you comes forth one
Who plots evil against the LORD,

Yet in this manner they will be [p]cut down

1:2 jealous, and the LORD avenges. The repetition of words and the use of parallel terms are typical devices in Hebrew poetry for intensifying and sharpening the poet's message.
1:3 whirlwind . . . storm . . . clouds. The peoples of the ancient Middle East worshiped nature gods, particularly deities associated with storms, clouds, and rainfall. In Canaan, this fixation on storms was centered in the worship of Baal and his consorts Anat and Asherah. The Scriptures testify that there are no gods but the Lord; it is He who rules and is above all creation.
1:8 flood . . . end . . . darkness. The judgment of the Lord will be inescapable. The word "flood" is both a poetic term for overwhelming devastation and a specific reference to the actual manner of Nineveh's fall. It is believed that the invaders of Nineveh entered the city through its flooded waterways (2:6).
1:11 A wicked counselor. "Wicked" is one of the harshest terms in biblical language, nearly a curse

The Destruction of Nineveh

2 He who scatters* has come up before your face.
Man the fort!
Watch the road!
Strengthen your flanks!
Fortify your power mightily.

2 For the LORD will restore the excellence of Jacob
Like the excellence of Israel,
For the emptiers have emptied them out
And ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his mighty men are made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet.
The chariots come with flaming torches
In the day of his preparation,

4 The chariots rage in the streets,
They jostle one another in the broad roads;
They seem like torches,
They run like lightning.

5 He remembers his nobles;
They stumble in their walk;
They make haste to her walls,
And the defense is prepared.
6 The gates of the rivers are opened,
And the palace is dissolved.
7 It is decreed:*
She shall be led away captive,
She shall be brought up;
And her maidservants shall lead her as with the voice of doves,
Beating their breasts.

8 Though Nineveh of old was like a pool of water,
Now they flee away.
"Halt! Halt!" they cry;
But no one turns back.
9 Take spoil of silver!
Take spoil of [q]gold!
There is no end of treasure,
Or wealth of every desirable prize.
10 She is empty, desolate, and waste!

Much pain is in every side,
And all their faces are drained of color.*

word. The term speaks of someone who is utterly worthless.

1:14 you are vile. The only thing to be done with Nineveh was to dig a grave and bury it. The prophecy came true literally—the city was destroyed so completely that its very existence was questioned until its discovery by archaeologists in the nineteenth century (3:13–15).

2:1 Man the fort. These were sarcastic words to the people of Nineveh and its leaders, as if they would be able to protect themselves against the wrath of the Lord.

2:3 red . . . scarlet . . . flaming torches. These images speak of blood, violence, and warfare. Isaiah refers to the custom of the Assyrians of rolling their outer garments in blood before a battle (Is. 9:5) to strike terror in the hearts of their opponents. Here the tables would be turned. While others would have shields, chariots, and spears, the people of Nineveh would be bathed in blood—their own blood.

2:4 The chariots rage. The Assyrians used chariots as formidable war machines. The proficiency of the chariot drivers underlies the imagery of this verse. But, as in the case of the shields and spears of verse 3, the chariots of Nineveh would not prevail, no matter how fast they drove.

2:6 gates of the rivers. The destruction of Nineveh is believed to have taken place when the besiegers entered the city through its flooded waterways. The attack came at flood time, when rivers undermined the walls and defenses of the city. Archaeologists have found evidence of flood debris that may be associated with the destruction of the city. Thus, the words of Nahum were fulfilled exactly.

2:11–12 dwelling of the lions. Nineveh was the city of lions (v. 13). Yet, despite all the horrors that the lion of Nineveh had brought to other nations, it would no longer need to be feared by anyone. Although the Babylonians conquered the city, they were only God's instruments. Nineveh's greatest foe was God Himself.

12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs,
Killed for his lionesses,
[c]Filled his caves with prey,
And his dens with flesh.

13 "Behold, [d]I am against you," says the LORD of hosts, "I will burn your* chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your [e]messengers shall be heard no more."

The Woe of Nineveh

3 Woe to the [a]bloody city!
It is all full of lies and robbery.
Its victim never departs.
2 The noise of a whip
And the noise of rattling wheels,
Of galloping horses,
Of clattering chariots!
3 Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear.
There is a multitude of slain,
A great number of bodies,
Countless corpses—
They stumble over the corpses—
4 Because of the multitude of harlotries of the seductive harlot,
[b]The mistress of sorceries,
Who sells nations through her harlotries,
And families through her
sorceries.

5 "Behold, I am [c]against you," says the LORD of hosts;
[d]"I will lift your skirts over your face,
I will show the nations your
nakedness,
And the kingdoms your shame.
6 I will cast abominable filth upon you,
Make you [e]vile,
And make you [f]a spectacle.
7 It shall come to pass that all who look upon you
[g]Will flee from you, and say,
[h]'Nineveh is laid waste!
[i]Who will bemoan her?'
Where shall I seek comforters for
you?"

8 [j]Are you better than [k]No Amon*
That was situated by the River,*
That had the waters around her,
Whose rampart was the sea,
Whose wall was the sea?
9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her
strength,
And it was boundless;
[l]Put and Lubim were your* helpers.
10 Yet she was carried away,
She went into captivity;
[m]Her young children also were dashed to pieces
[n]At the head of every street;
They [o]cast lots for her honorable men,
And all her great men were bound in chains.
11 You also will be [p]drunk;
You will be hidden;
You also will seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your strongholds are [q]fig trees with ripened figs:
If they are shaken,
They fall into the mouth of the eater.
13 Surely, [r]your people in your midst are women!
The gates of your land are wide open
for your enemies;
Fire shall devour the [s]bars of your gates.

14 Draw your water for the siege!
[t]Fortify your strongholds!
Go into the clay and tread the mortar!
Make strong the brick kiln!
15 There the fire will devour you,
The sword will cut you off;
It will eat you up like a [u]locust.

Make yourself many—like the locust!
Make yourself many—like the swarming locusts!
16 You have multiplied your [v]merchants
more than the stars of heaven.
The locust plunders and flies away.

*2:13 Literally her *3:8 That is, ancient Thebes; Targum and Vulgate read populous Alexandria. • Literally rivers, that is, the Nile and the surrounding canals *3:9 Septuagint reads her.

3:4 harlotries. Any worship of gods other than the God of Scriptures is an act of spiritual prostitution. Nineveh was so adept at pagan practices that the city earned the descriptive title, "the mistress of witchcrafts."

3:6–7 I will cast abominable filth upon you. The Lord described the fate of Nineveh as comparable to a person on whom unspeakable filth was thrown. When Nineveh lay in ruins, no one would grieve for her. The nations would be glad that the city was gone.

3:8 No Amon. This is the Hebrew name for Thebes, derived from the Egyptian name meaning "city of the god Amon." The argument seems to suggest that, before its destruction, no one would have even dreamed of the fall of Thebes. But the destruction had happened—not long before the writing of the Book of Nahum. The city of Thebes was rebuilt only to be destroyed later during the Roman period (29 B.C.). Nineveh, however, would never be rebuilt.

3:11 drunk . . . hidden . . . seek refuge. Nineveh would be like a helpless drunk hoping for strength but finding nowhere to turn for it.

3:16–17 When the sun rises. The people of Nineveh would be like nocturnal insects that disappear at daylight.

And the place where they are is not known.

18 [x]Your shepherds slumber, O [y]king of Assyria;

[b]All who hear news of you
Will clap their hands over you,
For upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually?

3:19 All who hear. Every nation and people that had suffered under the abusive power of Nineveh would shout and clap upon hearing of the city's destruction. There would be no mourning for Nineveh.

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

▶ AUTHOR: In both the introduction to the book (1:1) and the closing psalm (3:1) the author identifies himself as Habakkuk the prophet. It is believed that he might have been a priest as he mentions in the closing psalm, "To the Chief Musician. With my stringed instruments" (3:19). Also, in the apocryphal book of Bel and the Dragon, Daniel is rescued a second time by the prophet Habakkuk.

▶ TIME: c. 607 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Hab. 2:4

▶ THEME: This whole book of Habakkuk is really devoted to the question of "Lord, if You are all powerful, why is evil allowed to exist?" The events that seem to be precipitating this question are the victories of Babylon. God was using Babylon, a nation without God, to punish Israel, God's own people. The answers God gives us to this question in Habakkuk solidly point us in one direction, but ultimately the answers are in faith in Him alone.

1 The burden* which the prophet Habakkuk saw.

The Prophet's Question

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry,
[a]And You will not hear?
Even cry out to You, [b]"Violence!"
And You will [c]not save.
3 Why do You show me iniquity,
And cause me to see trouble?
For plundering and violence are before me;
There is strife, and contention arises.
4 Therefore the law is powerless,
And justice never goes forth.
For the [d]wicked surround the righteous;
Therefore perverse judgment proceeds.

The LORD's Reply

5 "Look[e] among the nations and watch—
Be utterly astounded!
For I will work a work in your days
Which you would not believe, though it were told you.
6 For indeed I am [f]raising up the Chaldeans,
A bitter and hasty [g]nation
Which marches through the breadth of the earth,
To possess dwelling places that are not theirs.
7 They are terrible and dreadful;
Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.
8 Their horses also are [h]swifter than leopards,
And more fierce than evening wolves.
Their chargers charge ahead;
Their cavalry comes from afar;
They fly as the [i]eagle that hastens to eat.
9 "They all come for violence;
Their faces are set like the east wind.
They gather captives like sand.
10 They scoff at kings,
And princes are scorned by them.
They deride every stronghold,
For they heap up earthen mounds and seize it.
11 Then his mind* changes, and he transgresses;
He commits offense,
[j]Ascribing this power to his god."

* 1:1 Or oracle * 1:11 Literally spirit or wind

1:2 O LORD, how long. This question is phrased as a formal complaint (Ps. 13:1–2).
1:4 the law is powerless. The revelation of God given at Mount Sinai had little impact on the hearts of people whose lives were focused on material success. These people had little interest in living by God's definition of what is fair and humane. wicked. God's chosen people committed and tolerated heinous acts through the corruption of the courts.
1:5 Look among the nations. The international scene during Habakkuk's lifetime was full of turmoil, with Assyria on the decline and Babylonia on the rise.
1:6 I am raising up. God controls the nations for His own purposes (Dan. 2:21), sometimes indirectly and at other times directly.
1:7 terrible and dreadful. Far from being humane, the Babylonians prided themselves on their arrogant use of raw power.
1:9 They gather captives like sand. The Babylonians

1:2 [a] Lam. 3:8 [b] Mic. 2:1, 2; 3:1–3 [c] [Job 21:5–16]
1:4 [d] Jer. 12:1 1:5 [e] Is. 29:14 1:6 [f] 2 Kin. 24:2 [g] Ezek. 7:24; 21:31 1:8 [h] Jer. 4:13 [i] Hos. 8:1 1:11 [j] Dan. 5:4

The Prophet's Second Question

12 Are You not [k]from everlasting,
O LORD my God, my Holy One?
We shall not die.
O LORD, [l]You have appointed them for judgment;
O Rock, You have marked them for [m]correction.
13 You are of purer eyes than to behold evil,
And cannot look on wickedness.
Why do You look on those who deal treacherously,
And hold Your tongue when the wicked devours
A person more righteous than he?
14 Why do You make men like fish of the sea,
Like creeping things that have no ruler over them?
15 They take up all of them with a hook,
They catch them in their net,
And gather them in their dragnet.
Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
16 Therefore [n]they sacrifice to their net,
And burn incense to their dragnet;
Because by them their share is sumptuous
And their food plentiful.
17 Shall they therefore empty their net,
And continue to slay nations without pity?

2 I will [a]stand my watch
And set myself on the rampart,
And watch to see what He will say to me,
And what I will answer when I am corrected.

The Just Live by Faith

2 Then the LORD answered me and said:

[b]"Write the vision
And make it plain on tablets,
That he may run who reads it.
3 For [c]the vision is yet for an appointed time;
But at the end it will speak, and it will [d]not lie.
Though it tarries, [e]wait for it;
Because it will [f]surely come,
It will not tarry.
4 "Behold the proud,
His soul is not upright in him;
But the [g]just shall live by his faith.

Woe to the Wicked

5 "Indeed, because he transgresses by wine,
He is a proud man,
And he does not stay at home.
Because he [h]enlarges his desire as hell,*
And he is like death, and cannot be satisfied,
He gathers to himself all nations
And heaps up for himself all peoples.
6 "Will not all these [i]take up a proverb against him,
And a taunting riddle against him, and say,
'Woe to him who increases
What is not his—how long?
And to him who loads himself with many pledges'?*
7 Will not your creditors* rise up suddenly?
Will they not awaken who oppress you?
And you will become their booty.
8 [j]Because you have plundered many nations,
All the remnant of the people shall plunder you,
Because of men's blood
And the violence of the land and the city,
And of all who dwell in it.

* 2:5 Or Sheol * 2:6 Syriac and Vulgate read thick clay. * 2:7 Literally those who bite you resettled numerous conquered peoples with little regard for them as individuals.

1:12 Are You not from everlasting. Habakkuk's point seems to be that God's holiness should have prohibited Him from using a dirty instrument such as Babylon to accomplish His purposes in judging and reproving His own people.

1:16 they sacrifice to their net. This phrase speaks of the contemptuous pride of the Babylonians in their devices of destruction.

2:1 I will stand . . . on the rampart. Habakkuk stationed himself as a watchman to look at the nations, as God had commanded him. what He will say to me. Habakkuk's faith is seen in his anticipation of a response from God. when I am corrected. This phrase indicates the prophet's submission to God.

2:3 an appointed time. This speaks of a determined time in God's eyes. Though it tarries, wait for it. God knows His plan and the outworking of all things in accordance with His purposes. The godly are responsible to study and proclaim His revelation while awaiting its fulfillment. it will surely come. The fulfillment of the vision would not take any longer than God had planned.

2:4 the just shall live by his faith. True righteousness before God is linked to genuine faith in God. A proud person relies on self, power, position, and accomplishment; a righteous person relies on the Lord.

2:5 all nations . . . all peoples. These peoples of the earth should have been gathered together before the Lord in holy worship (Ps. 117:1); instead, they became morsels for the rapacious appetite of Babylon.

2:6 Woe to him. A woe is an oracle of judgment consisting of two parts: a declaration of the wrong and a notice of impending judgment. The judgment usually applies the principle of the law of retribution.

2:7 creditors. This Hebrew term has the idea of "those who bite," suggesting sudden attacks (Mic. 3:5).

9 "Woe to him who covets evil gain for his house,
That he may [k]set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the power of disaster!
10 You give shameful counsel to your house,
Cutting off many peoples,
And sin against your soul.
11 For the stone will cry out from the wall,
And the beam from the timbers will answer it.

12 "Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed,
Who establishes a city by iniquity!
13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts
That the peoples labor to feed the fire,*
And nations weary themselves in vain?
14 For the earth will be filled
With the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbor,
Pressing* him to your [l]bottle,
Even to make him drunk,
That you may look on his nakedness!
16 You are filled with shame instead of glory.
You also—drink!
And be exposed as uncircumcised!*
The cup of the LORD's right hand will be turned against you,
And utter shame will be on your glory.
17 For the violence done to Lebanon will cover you,
And the plunder of beasts which made them afraid,
Because of men's blood
And the violence of the land and the city,
And of all who dwell in it.

18 "What profit is the image, that its maker should carve it,
The molded image, a teacher of lies,
That the maker of its mold should trust in it,
To make mute idols?

19 Woe to him who says to wood, 'Awake!'
To silent stone, 'Arise! It shall teach!'
Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver,
Yet in it there is no breath at all.

20 "But[m] the LORD is in His holy temple.
Let all the earth keep silence before Him."

The Prophet's Prayer

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.*

2 O LORD, I have heard Your speech and was afraid;
O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years!
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman,
The Holy One from Mount Paran.
Selah

His glory covered the heavens,
And the earth was full of His praise.
4 His brightness was like the light;
He had rays flashing from His hand,
And there His power was hidden.
5 Before Him went pestilence,
And fever followed at His feet.

6 He stood and measured the earth;
He looked and startled the nations.
[a]And the everlasting mountains were scattered,
The perpetual hills bowed.
His ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
The curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

2:11 the stone will cry out . . . the beam from the timbers will answer it. The whole structure of Israel's society called out for justice; every part reverberated with the need for righting wrongs.
2:14 the glory of the LORD. This speaks to the full manifestation of His person, significance, presence, and wonder. The true knowledge of God in the time of His kingdom on earth will be like the waters—all-embracing, inescapable, and fully enveloping.
2:16 The cup of the LORD's right hand. This represents the wrath of God (Is. 51:17,22; Rev. 14:10; 16:19).
2:18 teacher of lies. Idolatry begins with deception, encourages deception, and calls for a commitment to deception (Is. 44:20).
2:20 keep silence before Him. The call to silence is not an invitation to worship, but a command to reflect on the terrible state of all who fall into the hands of the angry God (Zeph. 1:7).
3:2 I have heard. Habakkuk knew the stories of God's mighty acts as celebrated in song and in the feasts and festivals of Israel. These mighty acts included the exodus from Egypt, the miracles by the Red Sea, and the conquest of the land. revive . . . make it known. Habakkuk prayed for God's renewed involvement in Israel. in the midst of the years. This was a way of calling for a quick response.
3:4 His power was hidden. God reveals evidence of His power, but its totality and greatness remain hidden.

Was Your wrath against the sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
Your chariots of salvation?
9 Your bow was made quite ready;
Oaths were sworn over Your arrows.* Selah

You divided the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and trembled;

At the light of Your arrows they went,
At the shining of Your glittering spear.

12 You marched through the land in indignation;
You trampled the nations in anger.
13 You went forth for the salvation of Your people,
For salvation with Your Anointed.
You struck the head from the house of the wicked,
By laying bare from foundation to neck. Selah

14 You thrust through with his own arrows
The head of his villages.
They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me;
Their rejoicing was like feasting on the poor in secret.
15 [d]You walked through the sea with Your horses,
Through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, [e]my body trembled;
My lips quivered at the voice;
Rottenness entered my bones;
And I trembled in myself,
That I might rest in the day of trouble.
When he comes up to the people,
He will invade them with his troops.

A Hymn of Faith

17 Though the fig tree may not blossom,
Nor fruit be on the vines;
Though the labor of the olive may fail,
And the fields yield no food;
Though the flock may be cut off from the fold,
And there be no herd in the stalls—
18 Yet I will [f]rejoice in the LORD,
I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God* is my strength;
He will make my feet like [g]deer's feet,
And He will make me [h]walk on my high hills.

To the Chief Musician. With my stringed instruments.

* 3:9 Literally rods or tribes (compare verse 14)
* 3:19 Hebrew YHWH Adonai

3:8 rivers . . . sea. The Lord had divided the Red Sea and the Jordan River for His people to cross (Ex. 14:26—15:5; Josh. 3:14–17). chariots of salvation. The appearance of the Lord was for the purpose of bringing deliverance to His people.
3:16 I might rest in the day of trouble. The prophet encouraged the godly not to be anxious in adversity.
3:17 God and Politics—Living in this physical, time-bound reality we see only a small portion of what God created. It is the bigger part of creation we need to be aware of and try to understand. We ultimately live beyond what we see and feel now. Life, as currently defined, is only that proverbial shadow of what it shall be. Our struggle is to have the vision to see beyond.

The same can be said for the political realities Habakkuk complains about. A season of failing crops isn't that much different than living a few years under the rule of an incompetent or cruel despot. It is tough and life can be severely affected, but the ultimate realities of how the world functions and how God relates to it remain unchanged.

God is a just God and will bring about justice. A period of injustice does not imply God has lost sight of what is going on or that He is losing His grip on the events of the world. He has different immediate purposes or works in a completely different timeframe.

Despots usually don't last more than a generation. We had many in recent times and most are gone, along with their whole empires.
3:19 my strength. God will strengthen those who trust in Him (Ps. 18:32,39). He will give those who live by faith the same confidence that a sure-footed deer has in climbing mountains.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

▶ AUTHOR: In the beginning of the book, Zephaniah traces his lineage back four generations to the godly King Hezekiah. This would make him the only prophet of royal descent. His use of the phrase "this place" in reference to Jerusalem indicates that he was probably an inhabitant of Judah's royal city.

▶ TIME: c. 630 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Zeph. 1:14–15

▶ THEME: Contemporary with Jeremiah, Zephaniah was written during the reign of Josiah, one of the good kings of Judah. The book follows a fairly familiar pattern for the prophets. Judgment is pronounced on Judah as well as several surrounding nations. After the judgment of the first two chapters, the third declares a restoration process that sounds strongly encouraging.

1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of [a]Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

2 "I will utterly consume everything
From the face of the land,"
Says the LORD;
3 "I[b] will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the heavens,
The fish of the sea,
And the stumbling blocks* along with the wicked.
I will cut off man from the face of the land,"
Says the LORD.

4 "I will stretch out My hand against Judah,
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off every trace of Baal from this place,
The names of the [c]idolatrous priests* with the pagan priests—
5 Those [d]who worship the host of heaven on the housetops;
Those who worship and swear oaths by the LORD,
But who also swear [e]by Milcom;*
6 [f]Those who have turned back from following the LORD,
And [g]have not sought the LORD, nor inquired of Him."

7 [h]Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD;
[i]For the day of the LORD is at hand,
For [j]the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
He has invited* His guests.

8 "And it shall be,
In the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
That I will punish [k]the princes and the king's children,
And all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.

1:1 Zephaniah means "hidden in the Lord," a name that relates to the principal message the prophet presented (2:3). The names of the prophets were often significantly associated with the message that God gave them to present to the people.

1:2–3 I will utterly consume everything. The message of Zephaniah begins with a pronouncement of universal judgment (Gen. 6–8). These words not only introduce the particular judgment that would be pronounced upon Judah (v. 4), but they also speak of the final judgment that will usher in the kingdom of God on earth (Rev. 20:11–15).

1:4–6 I will cut off every trace of Baal. Baal worship and its evils had led to the destruction of Israel and its capital Samaria in 722 B.C. Likewise Baal worship and its associations would lead to the destruction of Judah and its capital Jerusalem in 586 B.C.

1:7 Be silent. This prophetic call for silence was for solemn preparation for the horror of divine wrath (Hab. 2:20; Zech. 2:13). sacrifice. The people of God were expected to prepare sacrifices for the Lord as acts of contrition and celebration. But rebels, scofflaws, idolaters, and apostates would themselves become God's sacrifice.

1:8–9 foreign apparel. This suggests two things:

9 In the same day I will punish
All those who [l]leap over the threshold,*
Who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 "And there shall be on that day," says
the LORD,
"The sound of a mournful cry from [m]the Fish Gate,
A wailing from the Second Quarter,
And a loud crashing from the hills.
11 [n]Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh!*
For all the merchant people are cut down;
All those who handle money are cut off.

12 "And it shall come to pass at that time
That I will search Jerusalem with lamps,
And punish the men
Who are [o]settled in complacency,*
[p]Who say in their heart,
'The LORD will not do good,
Nor will He do evil.'
13 Therefore their goods shall become booty,
And their houses a desolation;
They shall build houses, but not inhabit them;
They shall plant vineyards, but [q]not drink their wine."

14 [r]The great day of the LORD is near;
It is near and hastens quickly.
The noise of the day of the LORD is bitter;
There the mighty men shall cry out.
15 [s]That day is a day of wrath,
A day of trouble and distress,
A day of devastation and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloominess,
A day of clouds and thick darkness,
16 A day of [t]trumpet and alarm
Against the fortified cities
And against the high towers.

17 "I will bring distress upon men,
And they shall [u]walk like blind men,
Because they have sinned against the
LORD;
Their blood shall be poured out like dust,
And their flesh like refuse."

18 [v]Neither their silver nor their gold
Shall be able to deliver them
In the day of the LORD's wrath;
But the whole land shall be devoured
By the fire of His jealousy,
For He will make speedy riddance
Of all those who dwell in the land.

A Call to Repentance

2 Gather[a] yourselves together, yes, gather together,
O undesirable* nation,
2 Before the decree is issued,
Or the day passes like chaff,
Before the LORD's fierce anger comes
upon you,
Before the day of the LORD's anger
comes upon you!
3 [b]Seek the LORD, [c]all you meek of the earth,
Who have upheld His justice.
Seek righteousness, seek humility.
[d]It may be that you will be hidden
In the day of the LORD's anger.

Judgment on Nations

4 For [e]Gaza shall be forsaken,
And Ashkelon desolate;
They shall drive out Ashdod [f]at noonday,
And Ekron shall be uprooted.
5 Woe to the inhabitants of [g]the seacoast,
The nation of the Cherethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
O [h]Canaan, land of the Philistines:
"I will destroy you;
So there shall be no inhabitant."

6 The seacoast shall be pastures,
With shelters* for shepherds [i]and folds for flocks.
7 The coast shall be for [j]the remnant of the house of Judah;
They shall feed their flocks there;

(1) acts of greed and extortion against the populace, amassing funds for exotic clothing; and (2) participation in foreign religious rites associated with exotic clothing. leap over the threshold. This may refer to a pagan practice like the one mentioned in 1 Samuel 5:5. The priests of Dagon would not step on the doorway of the temple to Dagon because the hands and the head of Dagon had fallen there.

1:12–13 The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil. The complacency of the wicked people led them to believe that God is similarly complacent. Foolishly these people believed that the Lord would be inactive, neither blessing nor cursing, neither benefiting nor punishing His people.

1:17–18 like blind men. God's judgment would be so sudden and so overwhelming that the survivors would be in a state of shock, stumbling around in the dark.

2:1–3 you will be hidden. Zephaniah used a play on words with the meaning of his own name, "hidden in the Lord." Even in the midst of the most calamitous of judgment scenes, the mercy and grace of the Lord is still available to a repentant people.

2:4–5 Gaza . . . Ashkelon . . . Ashdod . . . Ekron. The focus of the book moves from the description of divine judgment on Judah and Jerusalem to a description of divine judgment on the surrounding nations. The judgment begins with the nation to the west, Philistia and its major cities.

And [n]the insults of the people of Ammon,
With which they have reproached My
people,

Says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel,
"Surely [p]Moab shall be like Sodom,
And [q]the people of Ammon like
Gomorrah—
[r]Overrun with weeds and saltpits,
And a perpetual desolation.
The residue of My people shall plunder

10 This they shall have [s]for their pride, Because they have reproached and made arrogant threats
Against the people of the LORD of hosts.

For He will reduce to nothing all the

Both the [z]pelican and the bittern
Shall lodge on the capitals of her pillars;
Their voice shall sing in the windows;
Desolation shall be at the threshold;
For He will lay bare the [a]cedar work.
15 This is the rejoicing city
[b]That dwelt securely,
[c]That said in her heart,
"I am it, and there is none besides me."
How has she become a desolation,
A place for beasts to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her [d]Shall hiss and [e]shake his fist.

The Wickedness of Jerusalem

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted,
To the oppressing city!
2 She has not obeyed His voice,
She has not received correction;
She has not trusted in the LORD,
She has not drawn near to her God.

3 [a]Her princes in her midst are roaring lions;
Her judges are [b]evening wolves
That leave not a bone till morning.
4 Her [c]prophets are insolent, treacherous people;
Her priests have polluted the sanctuary,
They have done [d]violence to the law.
5 The LORD is righteous in her midst,
He will do no unrighteousness.
Every morning He brings His justice to light;
He never fails,
But [e]the unjust knows no shame.

6 "I have cut off nations,
Their fortresses are devastated;
I have made their streets desolate,
With none passing by.
Their cities are destroyed;
There is no one, no inhabitant.
7 [f]I said, 'Surely you will fear Me,
You will receive instruction'—
So that her dwelling would not be cut off, Despite everything for which I punished her.
But they rose early and [g]corrupted all their deeds.

A Faithful Remnant

2:11 The LORD will be awesome to them. There may be a double meaning in these words. For the righteous people of Judah and Jerusalem, there would be a response of awe and wonder before God, who had responded to the prayer of His servant. But for the wicked there would be quite another response, one of terror and dread. all the shores of the nations. Not only would there be a righteous remnant in Judah, there would also be people coming to God from the nations of the earth.

2:13–15 Their voice shall sing in the windows. The presence of birds in the ruins of Nineveh attests to the severity of the destruction announced on these people. the rejoicing city. The rejoicing here is ironic, seen as an act of the city's complacency. Soon the judgment of God would descend suddenly, and the region would be useful only for herding animals.

3:3–4 princes . . . judges . . . prophets . . . priests. God had designated these people to work for righteousness, but they were more wicked than the "regular" citizens of Jerusalem. These leaders were destroying and defrauding the weak, the needy, and the helpless.

3:8 All My fierce anger. God's response to the wickedness of Jerusalem was to declare His judgment.

He has cast out your enemy.

You shall see* disaster no more.

I will deal with all who afflict you;
I will save the [a]lame,
And gather those who were driven out;
I will appoint them for praise and fame
In every land where they were put to shame.
20 At that time [b]I will bring you back,
Even at the time I gather you;
For I will give you fame and praise
Among all the peoples of the earth,
When I return your captives before your eyes,"
Says the LORD.

3:8 God's Purpose in Judgment—What we don't properly understand is that judgment should lead us to a restoration or improvement in a relationship. We live with the tension of knowing God's judgment hangs over us while at the same time knowing that forgiveness is readily available to us too. Such is the message of Zephaniah.

Judgment implies a necessary purification process. You can't get the impurities out without first identifying their presence. We want to think of ourselves as pure without going through any process of purification. We want grace without judgment, but it doesn't work that way. Judgment reflects the true state of our being, namely that we are sinful and in need of grace. Often the only way to understand our reality is to go through a judgment process.

Once the judgment is accepted and the proper response is made, we fully experience God's grace. He deals with our enemies (3:15). He quiets us with His love (3:17). He removes our burdens (3:18). God stands ready to gather us back to Himself (3:19). He restores our fortunes (3:20).

The commonly held thought that the writings of the Old Testament prophets are all gloom and doom is actually myth and misnomer. There's always hope and renewal in the prophetic message. There are always opportunities for repentance, forgiveness, and restoration. God's judgment is in fact good for us because the sin in our lives needs to be brought to light in order for us to be restored to full fellowship with God.

3:9–13 a pure language. One day human language will become a unifying element in the true worship of God. My worshipers. God's people would come from all nations to worship Him.

3:20 I will give you fame and praise. Ordinarily Scripture speaks of the praise that should be brought to God. Here we find the praise that God will bring to His people. Says the LORD. This is a solemn vow of God to do what He has promised. Zephaniah begins and ends with the strong assertion that the Lord is speaking. The implication is clear: "Listen and live!"

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

▶ AUTHOR: The authorship of the book is virtually uncontested as Haggai's name is mentioned nine times. Haggai is known only from this book and two other references to him in Ezra 5:1 and 6:14. Haggai returned from Babylon with the remnant and may well have been one of the few people who could remember the former temple before its destruction. Haggai was therefore very instrumental in the rebuilding of the temple.

▶ TIME: c. 520 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Hag. 1:7–8

▶ THEME: Haggai is the first of the postexilic prophets, addressing the immediate problem of the rebuilding of the temple. The people had returned about 20 years earlier, but apathy and opposition were keeping the work from being completed. Haggai's concern is that neglect of the temple is a symptom of a bigger problem. God has dropped out of the Israelites' sight as a priority. The people are more concerned with building their materialistic lifestyles than they are with their relationship with God.

The Command to Build God's House

1 In [a]the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by [b]Haggai the prophet to [c]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to [d]Joshua the son of [e]Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, 2"Thus speaks the LORD of hosts, saying: 'This people says, "The time has not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built."'"

3Then the word of the LORD [f]came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 4"Is it [g]time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, and this temple* to lie in ruins?" 5Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: [h]"Consider your ways!

6 "You have [i]sown much, and bring in little;
You eat, but do not have enough;
You drink, but you are not filled with drink;
You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm;
And [j]he who earns wages,
Earns wages to put into a bag with holes."

7Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Consider your ways! 8Go up to the [k]mountains and bring wood and build the temple, that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified," says the LORD. 9[l]"You looked for much, but indeed it came to little; and when you brought it home, [m]I blew it away. Why?" says the LORD of hosts. "Because of My house that is in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house. 10Therefore [n]the heavens above you withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11For I [o]called for a drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain and the new wine and the oil, on whatever the ground brings forth, on men and livestock, and on [p]all the labor of your hands."

The People's Obedience

12[q]Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high

* 1:4 Literally house, and so in verse 8

1:2 The time has not come. The people had decided that rebuilding the Lord's dwelling among His people was not important.

1:4 your paneled houses. Those who wanted to make their houses elaborate installed wood panels. The people of Haggai's time were making their homes elegant, rivaling royal residences and the holy temple itself. But they still did not feel that the time was right to begin working on the renewed temple. While this verse is not a blanket condemnation of elegant living among God's people, it certainly calls for a re-evaluation of priorities.

1:8 that I may take pleasure in it. God's joy in the temple is related to His pleasure in the people who would worship Him there. be glorified. Clearly God does not need to receive more glory (Ps. 24:7–10); however, He gladly receives the adoration of His people.

priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared the presence of the LORD. 13Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's message to the people, saying, [r]"I am with you, says the LORD." 14So [s]the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [t]governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [u]and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

The Coming Glory of God's House

2 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying: 2"Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying: 3[a]'Who is left among you who saw this temple* in its former glory? And how do you see it now? In comparison with it, [b]is this not in your eyes as nothing? 4Yet now [c]be strong, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD; 'and be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land,' says the LORD, 'and work; for I am with you,' says the LORD of hosts. 5[d]'According to the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, so [e]My Spirit remains among you; do not fear!'

6"For thus says the LORD of hosts: [f]'Once more (it is a little while) [g]I will shake heaven and earth, the sea and dry land; 7and I will shake all nations, and they shall come to [h]the Desire of All Nations,* and I will fill this temple with [i]glory,' says the LORD of hosts. 8'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' says the LORD of hosts. 9[j]'The glory of this latter temple shall be greater than the former,' says the LORD of hosts. 'And in this place I will give [k]peace,' says the LORD of hosts."

The People Are Defiled

10On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11"Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'Now, [l]ask the priests concerning the law, saying, 12"If one carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?"'"

Then the priests answered and said, "No."

13And Haggai said, "If one who is [m]unclean because of a dead body touches any of these, will it be unclean?"

So the priests answered and said, "It shall be unclean."

14Then Haggai answered and said, [n]"'So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,' says the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

Promised Blessing

15'And now, carefully [o]consider from this day forward: from before stone was laid upon stone in the temple of the LORD— 16since those days, [p]when one came to a heap of twenty ephahs, there were but ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty baths from the press, there were but twenty. 17[q]I struck you with blight and mildew and hail [r]in all the labors of your hands; [s]yet you did not turn to Me,' says the LORD. 18'Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day

* 2:3 Literally house, and so in verses 7 and 9
* 2:7 Or the desire of all nations

1:13 I am with you. God's promise to Moses was, "I will certainly be with you" (Ex. 3:12). God's promise to the people of Judah was that the name of the Coming One would be Immanuel, meaning "God is with us" (Is. 7:14). Here God repeated the same message of comfort and encouragement.

2:3 this temple in its former glory. The temple of Solomon was one of the wonders of the ancient world (1 Kin. 6). The older temple would have loomed large and magnificent, far outstripping the present structure. So even though the building was completed, there may have been the sense among some of the people that it was "as nothing."

2:6 I will shake heaven. This is another way of speaking of the day of the Lord. The purpose of the day of the Lord is to prepare the earth for the glorious reign of Jesus Christ on earth (Matt. 24:29; Rev. 6:12–17).

2:9 I will give peace. Peace includes good health, well-being, and an abundant life. The term speaks of everything being as it ought to be.

2:12 will it become holy. Since the role of the priest was to interpret God's law, it was reasonable that questions on holiness should be addressed to them. Haggai asked whether holiness could be transferred by contact. The answer was no.

2:13–14 It shall be unclean. The priests were asked if a religiously unclean person, someone who had touched a corpse, could contaminate someone else by touch. The answer was yes (Num. 19:11–13). The people had worked hard to rebuild the temple, only to be told that their worship would be unacceptable in the new temple. The existence of the temple itself guaranteed nothing. The hearts of the people had to be in harmony with the sacrifices being made.

Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet

20And again the word of the LORD came to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, 21"Speak to Zerubbabel, [w]governor of Judah, saying:

[x]'I will shake heaven and earth.
22 [y]I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms;
I will destroy the strength of the Gentile kingdoms.
[z]I will overthrow the chariots
And those who ride in them;
The horses and their riders shall come down,
Every one by the sword of his brother.

23'In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says the LORD, [a]'and will make you like a signet ring; for [b]I have chosen you,' says the LORD of hosts."

2:23 signet ring. This was an item of great value in the ancient world. The owner used it much like we use our personal signature on checks or other important documents. God used this imagery to indicate that Zerubbabel was in His hand, that he was highly valued, and that he represented God's authority in his leadership of the people. Even though the people had been told they were still unclean in God's eyes (2:10–14), their leader Zerubbabel was encouraged to guide them through those spiritually trying times.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

▶ AUTHOR: The universal testimony of the Jewish and Christian tradition affirms Zechariah as the author of the entire book. Like Jeremiah and Ezekiel, he was of priestly lineage and was a young man when he was called to prophesy. According to Jewish tradition, Zechariah was a member of the Great Synagogue that collected and preserved the canon of revealed Scripture. He was born in Babylon and brought to Palestine by his grandfather when the Jewish exiles returned under Zerubbabel and Joshua the high priest.

▶ TIME: 520–470 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Zech. 9:9

▶ THEME: Zechariah's writings were designed to encourage the Israelites and inspire energy, identity, and vision during the rebuilding of the temple. Like Isaiah, Daniel, and Ezekiel, his prophecies are characterized by visions of God and the future. In this context, many would describe the book to be apocalyptic with similarities to Revelation. Probably more than any of the other books, Zechariah makes concrete predictions about Christ, which are fulfilled in the New Testament. He also makes some startling predictions about Israel in the end times that have already seen fulfillment.

A Call to Repentance

1 In the eighth month [a]of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came [b]to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of [c]Iddo the prophet, saying, 2"The LORD has been very angry with your fathers. 3Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Return [d]to Me," says the LORD of hosts, "and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts. 4"Do not be like your fathers, [e]to whom the former prophets preached, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: [f]"Turn now from your evil ways and your evil deeds."' But they did not hear nor heed Me," says the LORD.

5 "Your fathers, where are they?
And the prophets, do they live forever?
6 Yet surely [g]My words and My statutes,
Which I commanded My servants the prophets,
Did they not overtake your fathers?

"So they returned and said:

[h]'Just as the LORD of hosts determined to do to us,
According to our ways and according to our deeds,
So He has dealt with us.'"'"

Vision of the Horses

7On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet: 8I saw by night, and behold, [i]a man riding on a red horse, and it stood among the myrtle trees in the hollow; and behind him were [j]horses: red, sorrel, and white. 9Then I said, [k]"My lord, what are these?" So the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what they are."

10And the man who stood among the

1:1 Zechariah. The name means "Yahweh remembers," emphasizing God's faithfulness to His covenant promises and to His people.

1:3 Return to Me. These words remind us of the depth of God's unconditional love. says the LORD of hosts. The personal name translated "LORD" speaks of God's gracious nature as He relates to His people (Ex. 3:14–16); the hosts are the angelic armies that await His every command.

1:5–6 fathers . . . prophets. The previous generation had been overtaken by God's judgment (Deut. 28:15–68).

1:7—6:15 the word of the LORD. This section contains a sequence of eight night visions concerning Israel's future, followed by the symbolic crowning of the high priest Joshua. Here Zechariah pursues the same end as Haggai, rebuilding the temple as the center of worship and world rule, and as a place of pilgrimage for the nations (8:20–23).

1:8 myrtle. This was an evergreen tree that was once very common in the vicinity of Jerusalem (Neh. 8:15).

1:1 [a] Zech. 7:1 [b] Matt. 23:35 [c] Neh. 12:4, 16 1:3 [d] [Mal. 3:7–10] 1:4 [e] 2 Chr. 36:15, 16 [f] Is. 31:6 1:6 [g] [Is. 55:11] [h] Lam. 1:18; 2:17 1:8 [i] [Rev. 6:4] [j] [Zech. 6:2–7] 1:9 [k] Zech. 4:4, 5, 13; 6:4

myrtle trees answered and said, [l]"These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to walk to and fro throughout the earth."

11 [m]So they answered the Angel of the LORD, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked to and fro throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth is resting quietly."

The LORD Will Comfort Zion

12 Then the Angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, [n]how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You were angry [o]these seventy years?"

13 And the LORD answered the angel who talked to me, with [p]good and comforting words. 14 So the angel who spoke with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"I am [q]zealous for Jerusalem
And for Zion with great zeal.
15 I am exceedingly angry with the nations at ease;
For [r]I was a little angry,
And they helped—but with evil intent."

16 'Therefore thus says the LORD:

[s]"I am returning to Jerusalem with mercy;
My [t]house [u]shall be built in it," says the LORD of hosts,
"And [v]a surveyor's line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem."'

17 "Again proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"My cities shall again spread out through prosperity;
[w]The LORD will again comfort Zion,
And [x]will again choose Jerusalem."'"

Vision of the Horns

18 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were four [y]horns. 19 And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

So he answered me, [z]"These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. 21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?"

So he said, "These are the [a]horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could lift up his head; but the craftsmen* are coming to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations that [b]lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Vision of the Measuring Line

2 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and behold, [a]a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 So I said, "Where are you going?"

And he said to me, [b]"To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

3 And there was the angel who talked with me, going out; and another angel was coming out to meet him, 4 who said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying: [c]'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. 5 For I,' says the LORD, 'will be [d]a wall of fire all around her, [e]and I will be the glory in her midst.'"

Future Joy of Zion and Many Nations

6 "Up, up! Flee [f]from the land of the north," says the LORD; "for I have [g]spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven," says the LORD. 7 "Up, Zion! [h]Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon."

8 For thus says the LORD of hosts: "He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who [i]touches you touches the apple of His eye. 9 For surely I will [j]shake My hand against them, and they shall become spoil for their servants. Then [k]you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

* 1:21 Literally these

1:12–13 Angel of the LORD. This may be a conversation between the preincarnate Jesus and the first Person of the Trinity, God the Father (Ps. 110:1–3). It is certainly an allusion to Jesus' role as Intercessor.

1:15 I am exceedingly angry. Here the anger of God was against the nations that He had used to punish His unrepentant people.

1:16 line shall be stretched. A measuring line was used to make measurements in preparation for new construction. The stretching of the line was a promise that the work would begin and that the completion of the task would follow.

1:18 four horns. Animal horns were often used by poets and prophets as symbols of powerful nations and their kings (Dan. 7:7–8,24). The horns that persecuted Israel and Judah included Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, and later Greece.

2:4–5 inhabited as towns without walls. Jerusalem will have no need for defensive fortifications because God's presence will guarantee its safety and security. These words refer ultimately to the future Jerusalem under the rule of its glorious king (Zeph. 3:15–19).

2:8–9 the apple of His eye. This refers to the pupil, an endearing expression suggesting how enormously important the Hebrew people are to God because of His covenant with them. Just as we protect our eyes from even the smallest particles of dust, so God protects and cares for His people.

nations shall be joined to the LORD [o]in that day, and they shall become [p]My people. And I will dwell in your midst. Then [q]you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. 12 And the LORD will [r]take possession of Judah as His inheritance in the Holy Land, and will again choose Jerusalem. 13 [s]Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD, for He is aroused [t]from His holy habitation!"

Vision of the High Priest

3 Then he showed me [a]Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and [b]Satan standing at his right hand to oppose him. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, [c]"The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who [d]has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! [e]Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was clothed with [f]filthy garments, and was standing before the Angel.

4 Then He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, "Take away the filthy garments from him." And to him
He said, "See, I have removed your iniquity from you, [g]and I will clothe you with rich robes."

5 And I said, "Let them put a clean [h]turban on his head."

So they put a clean turban on his head, and they put the clothes on him. And the Angel of the LORD stood by.

The Coming Branch

6 Then the Angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD
of hosts:

'If you will walk in My ways,
And if you will [i]keep My command,
Then you shall also [j]judge My
house,
And likewise have charge of My courts;
I will give you places to walk
Among these who [k]stand here.

8 'Hear, O Joshua, the high priest,
You and your companions who sit
before you,
For they are [l]a wondrous sign;
For behold, I am bringing forth [m]My Servant the [n]BRANCH.

9 For behold, the stone
That I have laid before Joshua:
[o]Upon the stone are [p]seven eyes.
Behold, I will engrave its inscription,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'And [q]I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 [r]In that day,' says the LORD of hosts,
'Everyone will invite his neighbor
[s]Under his vine and under his fig tree.'"

Vision of the Lampstand and Olive Trees

4 Now [a]the angel who talked with me came back and wakened me, [b]as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. 2 And he said to me, "What do you see?"

So I said, "I am looking, and there is [c]a lampstand of solid gold with a bowl on top of it, [d]and on the stand seven lamps with seven pipes to the seven lamps. 3 [e]Two olive trees are by it, one at the right of the bowl and the other at its left." 4 So I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

5 Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?"

And I said, "No, my lord."

6 So he answered and said to me:

"This is the word of the LORD to [f]Zerubbabel:
[g]'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,'
Says the LORD of hosts.

2:12 the Holy Land. Surprisingly, this phrase occurs in the Old Testament only here. The land is "holy" because of the presence of God among His believing people.

3:1 Satan. The Hebrew is literally "the Satan," meaning "the Accuser." The picture is not unlike that of Job 1, where Satan stands before the Lord making accusations against people who follow God.

3:3 with filthy garments. The high priest represented the people before God (Ex. 28:29) and under no circumstances was he to become defiled or unclean (Ex. 28:2; Lev. 21:10–15). Joshua's garments were literally "befouled with excrement."

3:8 the BRANCH. Isaiah used this word and a similar one to describe the Messiah who will grow out of the root of the family of Jesse as a tender sprout shoots up from the ground (6:12; Is. 4:2; 11:1; 53:2). Joshua and his companions were "men wondered at" because the reinstitution of the priesthood made public God's continuing intention to fulfill His promises to His people.

4:2–3 a lampstand of solid gold. This would remind people of the lampstand in the tabernacle and the temple.

4:6 but by My Spirit. The rebuilding of the temple, which had at last begun in earnest (Ezra 5:1–2; Hag. 1:14), would be accomplished not by human strength or resources, but by the power of God's Spirit.

Before Zerubbabel you shall become

And he shall bring forth [i]the capstone

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

9 "The hands of Zerubbabel [k]Have laid the foundation of this temple;*
His hands [l]shall also finish it.
Then [m]you will know
That the [n]LORD of hosts has sent Me
to you.
10 For who has despised the day of [o]small
things?
For these seven rejoice to see
The plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.
[p]They are the eyes of the LORD,
Which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth."

11 Then I answered and said to him, "What are these [q]two olive trees—at the right of the lampstand and at its left?" 12 And I further answered and said to him, "What are these two olive branches that drip into the receptacles* of the two gold pipes from which the golden oil drains?"

13 Then he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?"

And I said, "No, my lord."

14 So he said, [r]"These are the two anointed ones, [s]who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth."

Vision of the Flying Scroll

5 Then I turned and raised my eyes, and saw there a flying [a]scroll.

2 And he said to me, "What do you see?"

So I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits."

3 Then he said to me, "This is the [b]curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth: 'Every thief shall be expelled,' according to this side of the scroll; and, 'Every perjurer shall be expelled,' according to that side of it."

4 "I will send out the curse," says the LORD of hosts;
"It shall enter the house of the [c]thief
And the house of [d]the one who swears falsely by My name.
It shall remain in the midst of his house
And consume [e]it, with its timber and stones."

Vision of the Woman in a Basket

5 Then the angel who talked with me came out and said to me, "Lift your eyes now, and see what this is that goes forth."

6 So I asked, "What is it?" And he said, "It is a basket* that is going forth."

He also said, "This is their resemblance throughout the earth: 7 Here is a lead disc lifted up, and this is a woman sitting inside the basket"; 8 then he said, "This is Wickedness!" And he thrust her down into the basket, and threw the lead cover* over its mouth. 9 Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were two women, coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a [f]stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

10 So I said to the [g]angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"

11 And he said to me, "To [h]build a house for it in [i]the land of Shinar;* when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base."

Vision of the Four Chariots

6 Then I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze. 2 With the first chariot were [a]red horses, with the second chariot [b]black horses, 3 with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses—strong steeds. 4 Then I answered [c]and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

* 4:9 Literally house * 4:12 Literally into the hands of * 5:6 Hebrew ephah, a measuring container, and so elsewhere * 5:8 Literally stone * 5:11 That is, Babylon

4:7 O great mountain. This was a figurative reference to the great obstacles the people faced in rebuilding the temple (Ezra 5:3–17). The setting of the "capstone" would mark the completion of the project. Grace, grace to it. This may be understood as a prayer for God's favor, or as a cry of admiration over the grace and beauty of the newly built temple.

4:11–14 two olive trees . . . two anointed ones. These are identified as representatives of the religious and political offices in Israel, or of priest and king. Many identify the two branches with the high priest Joshua and the governor Zerubbabel.

5:4 And consume it. God's great love does not preclude the exercise of His judgment on those who violate His will. The judgment upon the disobedient would be certain and severe.

5:7–8 This is Wickedness. The woman sitting inside the basket is a personification of sin.

6:1 chariots. In ancient times two-wheeled and four-wheeled horse-drawn carts served as vehicles for transportation and for warfare. The war chariots usually had a crew of two or three men including a driver, an archer, and a defender who used a shield to protect the others.

are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country." 7 Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might [g]walk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, "Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth." So they walked to and fro throughout the earth. 8 And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "See,
those who go toward the north country have given rest to My [h]Spirit in the north country."

The Command to Crown Joshua

9 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 10 "Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah. 11 Take the silver and gold, make [i]an elaborate crown, and set it on the head of [j]Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. 12 Then speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts,
saying:

"Behold, [k]the Man whose name is the [l]BRANCH!
From His place He shall branch out,
[m]And He shall build the temple of the
LORD;
13 Yes, He shall build the temple of the
LORD.
He [n]shall bear the glory,
And shall sit and rule on His throne;
So [o]He shall be a priest on His throne,
And the counsel of peace shall be between them both."'

14 "Now the elaborate crown shall be [p]for a memorial in the temple of the LORD for Helem,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah. 15 Even [q]those from afar shall come and build the temple of the LORD. Then you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. And this shall come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

Obedience Better than Fasting

7 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Chislev, 2 when the people sent Sherezer, with Regem-Melech and his men, to the house of God,* to pray before the LORD, 3 and to [a]ask the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in [b]the fifth month and fast as I have done for so many years?"

4 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 5 "Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: 'When you [c]fasted and mourned in the fifth [d]and seventh months [e]during those seventy years, did you really fast [f]for Me—for Me? 6 [g]When you eat and when you drink,
do you not eat and drink for yourselves?
7 Should you not have obeyed the words which the LORD proclaimed through the [h]former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and [i]the South* and the Lowland were inhabited?'"

Disobedience Resulted in Captivity

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "Thus says the LORD
of hosts:

[j]'Execute true justice,
Show mercy and compassion
Everyone to his brother.
10 [k]Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless,
The alien or the poor.
[l]Let none of you plan evil in his heart
Against his brother.'

6:5 four spirits of heaven. These spirits were probably angels.
6:11 make an elaborate crown. This crown was to be placed on the head of Joshua the high priest.
6:12 He shall build the temple of the LORD. Since the restoration temple (the second temple) was already being built and would be completed by Zerubbabel (4:9), the temple referred to here may be the future temple of the messianic kingdom (Is. 2:2–4; Ezek. 40–42; Mic. 4:1–5; Hag. 2:7–9). The Messiah Himself will build it. The temple of Zerubbabel was a prophetic symbol of the temple that is still to come.
6:13 sit and rule . . . be a priest. In the Messiah the two offices of king and priest will be united (John 1:49; Heb. 3:1).
7:3 the house of the LORD of hosts. This refers to the temple in Jerusalem.
7:5–6 did you really fast for Me. The rhetorical question was designed to confront the people and priests with the selfish motives of their self-righteous fasting. Biblical fasting is meant to be time taken from the normal routines of preparing and eating food to express humility and dependence on God during a time of prayer. There was only one required fast in the law of Moses, the fast on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 23:27).
7:9–10 Execute true justice. Judicial decisions must their [o]hearts like flint, [p]refusing to hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. [q]Thus great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. 13 Therefore it happened, that just as He proclaimed and they would not hear, so [r]they called out and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts. 14 "But [s]I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known.

Thus the land became desolate after them,
so that no one passed through or returned;
for they made the pleasant land desolate."

Jerusalem, Holy City of the Future

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying, 2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[a]'I am zealous for Zion with great zeal;
With great fervor I am zealous for her.'

3 "Thus says the LORD:

[b]'I will return to Zion,
And [c]dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
Jerusalem [d]shall be called the City of Truth,
[e]The Mountain of the LORD of hosts,
[f]The Holy Mountain.'

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[g]'Old men and old women shall again sit
In the streets of Jerusalem,
Each one with his staff in his hand
Because of great age.
5 The streets of the city
Shall be [h]full of boys and girls
Playing in its streets.'

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days,
[i]Will it also be marvelous in My eyes?'
Says the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, [j]I will save My people from the land of the east
And from the land of the west;
8 I will [k]bring them back,
And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
[l]They shall be My people
And I will be their God,
[m]In truth and righteousness.'

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[n]'Let your hands be strong,
You who have been hearing in these days
These words by the mouth of [o]the prophets,
Who spoke in [p]the day the foundation was laid
For the house of the LORD of hosts,
That the temple might be built.
10 For before these days
There were no [q]wages for man nor any hire for beast;
There was no peace from the enemy
for whoever went out or came in;
For I set all men, everyone, against his neighbor.

11 [r]But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts.

12 'For[s] the seed shall be prosperous,
The vine shall give its fruit,
[t]The ground shall give her increase,
And [u]the heavens shall give their dew—
I will cause the remnant of this people
To possess all these.
13 And it shall come to pass
That just as you were [v]a curse among
the nations,
O house of Judah and house of Israel,
So I will save you, and [w]you shall be a blessing.
Do not fear,
Let your hands be strong.'

be made without partiality or bias. Show mercy and compassion. Loving commitment and concern should guide our relationships with others. Do not oppress. No advantage is to be taken of the helpless and less fortunate. none of you plan evil in his heart. Evil scheming against others is prohibited. Sacrifices and worship are of little interest to God if they are not accompanied by practical piety. Zechariah's four admonitions highlight the practical social concerns that many of the prophets emphasized (Is. 1:11–17; Hos. 6:6; Mic. 6:6–8).

8:1–3 City of Truth. This label will be valid only when the Messiah brings His righteous reign to that city. Then the land will be holy (2:12).

8:7–8 land of the east . . . land of the west. These terms together represent all parts of the earth. My people . . . their God. This expression occurs in the descriptions of God's covenant relationship with His people (Ex. 19:5; 29:45; Lev. 26:12; Hos. 2:23). With these words, Zechariah anticipates a renewal of God's covenant with His people (Jer. 31:34).

8:10 no wages . . . no peace. Zechariah recounts the desperate situation in Judea before the work on the temple resumed in 520 B.C. (Hag. 1:1,6,10–11; 2:16–17).

8:11–13 Let your hands be strong. In view of God's gracious purposes and future plans for His people, they were called to be diligent in their present efforts to serve Him with sincere hearts (1 Cor. 15:58).

Says the LORD of hosts,

I am determined to do good
To Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Do not fear.

Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;
17 [b]Let none of you think evil in your* heart against your neighbor;
And do not love a false oath.
For all these are things that I hate,'
Says the LORD."

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts:

[c]'The fast of the fourth month,
[d]The fast of the fifth,
[e]The fast of the seventh,
[f]And the fast of the tenth,
Shall be [g]joy and gladness and cheerful feasts

'Peoples shall yet come,
Inhabitants of many cities;
21 The inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying,
[i]"Let us continue to go and pray before the LORD,
And seek the LORD of hosts.
I myself will go also."
22 Yes, [j]many peoples and strong nations
Shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem,
And to pray before the LORD.'

23 "Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In those days ten men [k]from every language of the nations shall [l]grasp the sleeve of a Jewish man, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard [m]that God is with you."'"

Israel Defended Against Enemies

9 The burden* of the word of the LORD
Against the land of Hadrach,
And [a]Damascus its resting place
(For [b]the eyes of men
And all the tribes of Israel
Are on the LORD);
2 Also against [c]Hamath, which borders on it,
And against [d]Tyre and [e]Sidon, though they are very [f]wise.

3 For Tyre built herself a tower,
Heaped up silver like the dust,
And gold like the mire of the streets.
4 Behold, [g]the Lord will cast her out;
He will destroy [h]her power in the sea,
And she will be devoured by fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear;
Gaza also shall be very sorrowful;
And [i]Ekron, for He dried up her expectation.
The king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 "A mixed race shall settle [j]in Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the [k]Philistines.
7 I will take away the blood from his mouth,
And the abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, even he shall be for our God,
And shall be like a leader in Judah,
And Ekron like a Jebusite.
8 [l]I will camp around My house
Because of the army,
Because of him who passes by and him who returns.
No more shall an oppressor pass through them,
For now I have seen with My eyes.

The Coming King

9 "Rejoice [m]greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, [n]your King is coming to you;
He is just and having salvation,
Lowly and riding on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.

8:16–17 truth, justice, and peace. Zechariah set forth the ethical obligations of a life of faith. He upheld these important values and condemned evil plans and false oaths.

8:20–23 Peoples shall yet come. Here Zechariah announces a great turning of the nations to God. During the messianic era, a multitude of people from many cities will go to Jerusalem to "seek the LORD." These Gentiles will be included among the people of God by faith (Eph. 2:13–19).

9:1 burden. This word suggests that a weighty judgment must be declared.

9:7 blood from his mouth . . . abominations from between his teeth. These phrases refer to the cessation of unlawful and idolatrous practices (Lev. 17:14; Is. 65:4; 66:17).

God Will Save His People

11 "As for you also,
Because of the blood of your covenant,
I will set your [r]prisoners free from the waterless pit.
12 Return to the stronghold,
[s]You prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare
That I will restore [t]double to you.
13 For I have bent Judah, My bow,
Fitted the bow with Ephraim,
And raised up your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And made you like the sword of a mighty man."

14 Then the LORD will be seen over them,
And [u]His arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet,
And go [v]with whirlwinds from the south.
15 The LORD of hosts will [w]defend them;
They shall devour and subdue with slingstones.
They shall drink and roar as if with wine;
They shall be filled with blood like basins,
Like the corners of the altar.
16 The LORD their God will [x]save them in that day,
As the flock of His people.
For [y]they shall be like the jewels of a crown,
[z]Lifted like a banner over His land—
17 For [a]how great is its* goodness
And how great its* [b]beauty!
[c]Grain shall make the young men thrive,
And new wine the young women.

Restoration of Judah and Israel

10 Ask [a]the LORD for [b]rain
In [c]the time of the latter rain.*
The LORD will make flashing clouds;
He will give them showers of rain,
Grass in the field for everyone.

The diviners envision [e]lies,
And tell false dreams;
They [f]comfort in vain.
Therefore the people wend their way like [g]sheep;
They are in trouble [h]because there is no shepherd.

3 "My anger is kindled against the [i]shepherds,
[j]And I will punish the goatherds.
For the LORD of hosts [k]will visit His flock,
The house of Judah,
And [l]will make them as His royal horse in the battle.

From him [n]the tent peg,
From him the battle bow,
From him every ruler* together.
5 They shall be like mighty men,
Who [o]tread down their enemies
In the mire of the streets in the battle.
They shall fight because the LORD is with them,
And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6 "I will strengthen the house of Judah,
And I will save the house of Joseph.
[p]I will bring them back,
Because I [q]have mercy on them.
They shall be as though I had not cast them aside;
For I am the LORD their God,
And I [r]will hear them.
7 Those of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
And their [s]heart shall rejoice as if with wine.

was fulfilled on the day of the triumphal entry, when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the colt of a donkey (Matt. 21:2–7). The donkey was the mount of princes (Judg. 5:10; 10:4) and kings (2 Sam. 16:1–2).

9:14 whirlwinds from the south. This description, patterned after God's appearance at Sinai (Ex. 19), reveals God's sovereignty and power to protect His own.

9:15 They shall drink. The people will be filled with drink like sacrificial basins were filled with blood, and they will be filled with meat like the corners of a sacrificial altar (Ps. 110:6).

10:2 no shepherd. The metaphor of shepherd was often used in the ancient Middle East to represent a king or ruler (Ezek. 34:6–8,23–24). Here the emphasis was on the lack of spiritual leadership.

10:3 The house of Judah. God will strengthen Judah so that she can overthrow the oppressors.

10:4–5 tent peg. A peg firmly in place suggests permanence and endurance (Is. 22:23). battle bow. This image pictures the strength necessary for military conquest (2 Kin. 13:17).

10:7 as if with wine. What was promised to Judah in verse 5 is here promised to Ephraim. Wine is used here as a symbol of abundant joy (Ps. 104:15; Amos 9:13; John 2:1–11).

Says the LORD.

Desolation of Israel

11 Open [a]your doors, O Lebanon,
That fire may devour your cedars.
2 Wail, O cypress, for the [b]cedar has fallen,
Because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
[c]For the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing [d]shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the pride* of the Jordan is in ruins.

Prophecy of the Shepherds

4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Feed the flock for slaughter, 5 whose owners slaughter them and [e]feel no guilt; those who sell them [f]say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich'; and their shepherds do [g]not pity them. 6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."

7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular [h]the poor of the flock.* I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Beauty,* and the other I called Bonds;* and I fed the flock. 8 I dismissed the three shepherds [i]in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. [j]Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh." 10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 So it was broken on that day. Thus [k]the poor* of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12 Then I said to them, "If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." So they [l]weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the [m]potter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter. 14 Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, [n]"Next, take for yourself the implements of a foolish

10:9 they shall remember Me. This phrase anticipates their turning to the Lord in repentance. shall live. This implies more than mere survival. God promises spiritual life and blessing to the repentant.

10:12 I will strengthen them. The regathering will be accomplished by God's power as He gives strength to His people. they shall walk up and down in His name. In the last days, Israel will return to the land as a believing nation (v. 8; 12:10—13:1; Rom. 11:26).

11:7 Beauty . . . Bonds. These were the names of Zechariah's two staffs. The images suggest that he wanted the flock to enjoy God's favor and to experience national unity. According to Canaanite legend, the god Baal was given the two clubs named Driver and Chaser to battle the dark deities of the sea. It is appropriate that God's messenger Zechariah is given shepherd's staffs to guide the people, instead of clubs for fighting.

11:8 three shepherds. Some have suggested that the three shepherds represent classes of rulers in Israel: kings, priests, and prophets. Others suggest that they refer to the last three kings of Judah or to certain high priests of the Maccabean era.

11:12 thirty pieces of silver. Zechariah, taking the role of the messianic shepherd, requested his wages for service rendered. This amount was the price of a slave. It was also the price paid to Judas for betraying Jesus (Matt. 27:6–10).

Who leaves the flock!
A sword shall be against his arm
And against his right eye;
His arm shall completely wither,
And his right eye shall be totally blinded."

The Coming Deliverance of Judah

12 The burden* of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, [a]who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and [b]forms the spirit of man within him: 2"Behold, I will make Jerusalem [c]a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem. 3[d]And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem [e]a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it. 4In that day," says the LORD, [f]"I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.' 6In that day I will make the governors of Judah [g]like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left, but Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place—Jerusalem.

7"The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah. 8In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them. 9It shall be in that day that I will seek to [h]destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning for the Pierced One

10[i]"And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will [j]look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him [k]as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn. 11In that day there shall be a great [l]mourning in Jerusalem, [m]like the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.* 12[n]And the land shall mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of [o]Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves; 13the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves; 14all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Idolatry Cut Off

13 "In that [a]day [b]a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for [c]uncleanness.

2"It shall be in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will [d]cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they shall no longer be remembered. I will also cause [e]the prophets and the unclean spirit to foolish shepherd. This phrase means to behave like one. eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces. These phrases express the savagery of a foolish shepherd.

11:17 worthless shepherd. He will be judged. His "arm," which should have been used to protect the sheep, will wither. His "right eye," which should have watched over the sheep, will be blinded.

12:1 The burden. As in 9:1, the burden is a weighty judgment that the prophet must discharge. heavens . . . the earth . . . the spirit of man. Three phrases are used here in describing the greatness of God as Creator.

12:3 heavy stone. Jerusalem is compared to a heavy stone that brings injury to anyone who tries to remove it from its place.

12:6 Judah. Here, Judah is likened to (1) "a firepan" used to carry hot coals for the purpose of starting a fire, and (2) "a fiery torch" that could quickly ignite a field of cut grain.

12:10 Spirit of grace. These words refer to the gracious working of the Holy Spirit that leads to conviction and repentance (John 16:8–11). supplication. The Spirit will stimulate an attitude of repentance and prayer for God's mercy. There are many significant ministries of the Holy Spirit in the period of the Hebrew kingdom.

12:12–14 the house of David . . . the house of Levi . . . their wives by themselves. These words are quoted in the Talmud as an argument for separating men and women in worship. But the verse seems to indicate that each mourner will face his or her sorrow alone, without the comfort of companionship.

13:2 cut off the names of the idols. In ancient times, a person's name reflected his or her reputation.

that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall [f]not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and mother who begot him [g]shall thrust him through when he prophesies.
4"And it shall be in that day that [h]every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not wear [i]a robe of coarse hair to deceive. 5[j]But he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a farmer; for a man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.' 6And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?'* Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Savior

7 "Awake, O sword, against [k]My Shepherd, Against the Man [l]who is My Companion,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
[m]"Strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered;
Then I will turn My hand against [n]the little ones.
8 And it shall come to pass in all the land,"
Says the LORD,
"That [o]two-thirds in it shall be cut off
and die,
[p]But one-third shall be left in it:
9 I will bring the one-third [q]through the fire,
Will [r]refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.
[s]They will call on My name,
And I will answer them.
[t]I will say, 'This is My people';
And each one will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

The Day of the LORD

14 Behold, [a]the day of the LORD is coming,
And your spoil will be divided in your
midst.
2 For [b]I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem;
The city shall be taken,
The houses rifled,
And the women ravished.
Half of the city shall go into
captivity,
But the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
3 Then the LORD will go forth
And fight against those nations,
As He fights in the day of battle.
4 And in that day His feet will stand [c]on the Mount of Olives,
Which faces Jerusalem on the east.
And the Mount of Olives shall be split
in two,
From east to west,
[d]Making a very large valley;
Half of the mountain shall move toward the north
And half of it toward the south.
5 Then you shall flee through My mountain valley,
For the mountain valley shall reach to Azal.
Yes, you shall flee
As you fled from the [e]earthquake
In the days of Uzziah king of Judah.
[f]Thus the LORD my God will come,
And [g]all the saints with You.*
6 It shall come to pass in that day
That there will be no light;
The lights will diminish.
7 It shall be one day
[h]Which is known to the LORD—
Neither day nor night.
But at [i]evening time it shall happen
That it will be light.

* 13:6 Or hands * 14:5 Or you; Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read Him.

Zechariah anticipated the complete removal of the reputation and acknowledgment of false gods.

13:4 a robe of coarse hair. This was the traditional clothing of a prophet. False prophets will deny that they are prophets for fear of punishment, and will refuse to wear one (2 Kin. 1:8; Matt. 3:4).

13:6 wounds between your arms. This is probably a reference to the profession of an ecstatic prophet who slashed himself on the back or breast. Self-inflicted wounds were thought to gain the attention and blessing of the gods (1 Kin. 18:28). Under questioning, the man declares that the wounds were received from friends so that he will not be found out as a false prophet and be put to death (v. 3).

13:7 O sword. The sword, an instrument of death, is likened to a warrior being roused for action. The Lord commands the sword to strike the Messiah. My Shepherd. This clearly indicates that the death of Jesus was not accident, but was divinely determined.

13:9 refine them. The smelting pot uses intense heat to separate the dross from pure metal. test them. Once refined, precious metal must be analyzed to determine its value.

14:4 Mount of Olives. This is located east of Jerusalem and the Kidron valley: it is a north-south hill about 2,700 feet in elevation. The Messiah will return to the Mount of Olives, the very mountain from which He will have ascended after His time on earth (Acts 1:10–11). On the day of Messiah's return, the mount will be split by a deep east-west valley.

8 And in that day it shall be
That living [i]waters shall flow from

sea;
In both summer and winter it shall occur.
9 And the LORD shall be [k]King over all
the earth.
In that day it shall be—[l]"The LORD is one,"*
And His name one.

10 All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem.
*Jerusalem shall be raised up and [m]inhabited in her place from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner Gate, [n]and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

11 The people shall dwell in it;
And [o]no longer shall there be utter
destruction,
[p]But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the people who fought against Jerusalem:

Their flesh shall dissolve while they stand on their feet,
Their eyes shall dissolve in their sockets,
And their tongues shall dissolve in their mouths.

13 It shall come to pass in that day
That [q]a great panic from the LORD will be among them.
Everyone will seize the hand of his neighbor,
And raise [r]his hand against his neighbor's hand;
14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem.
[s]And the wealth of all the surrounding nations
Shall be gathered together:
Gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 [t]Such also shall be the plague
On the horse and the mule,
On the camel and the donkey,
And on all the cattle that will be in those camps.
So shall this plague be.

The Nations Worship the King

16 And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall [u]go up from year to year to [v]worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep [w]the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 [x]And it shall be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be no rain. 18 If the family of [y]Egypt will not come up and enter in, [z]they shall have no rain; they shall receive the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

20 In that day [a]"HOLINESS TO THE LORD" shall be engraved on the bells of the horses. The [b]pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts.* Everyone who sacrifices shall come and take them and cook in them. In that day there shall no longer be a [c]Canaanite [d]in the house of the LORD of hosts.

* 14:9 Compare Deuteronomy 6:4 * 14:10 Literally She * 14:21 Or on every pot … shall be (engraved) "HOLINESS TO THE LORD OF HOSTS"

14:8 living waters. This term describes running water from a spring or river, in contrast to the stale and stagnant water of a cistern (Jer. 2:13). The water will flow from Jerusalem toward the eastern sea (the Dead Sea) and the western sea (the Mediterranean). In contrast with the seasonal streams that flow only during the rainy season, these streams will irrigate the land in both summer and winter.

14:11 shall be safely inhabited. This is a contrast to the time of Nehemiah when the population of Jerusalem was sparse (Neh. 7:4; 11:1). In the Lord's coming kingdom, the city will be inhabited and its citizens secure.

14:18–19 Egypt. In this passage, Egypt is used as an example of the nations that are unwilling to come to Jerusalem to worship King Messiah and celebrate the feast. It will be subject to divine judgment because it was a traditional enemy of Israel.

14:20–21 HOLINESS TO THE LORD. These words will be inscribed on the gold headband worn by the high priest (Ex. 28:36). Holiness will so permeate Messiah's kingdom that even the lowly cooking pots will be holy. The name "Canaanite" here refers to the merchants who frequented Jerusalem and the temple courts with their wares (Neh. 13:19–22; Matt. 21:12; John 2:14). None will profiteer in the worship of God in the coming age. God's search for true worshipers will be realized in the company of devoted, holy people.

THE BOOK OF MALACHI

▶ AUTHOR: The only Old Testament mention of Malachi is in 1:1. Nothing else is known of Malachi, not even his father's name. But tradition holds that he too, like Zechariah, was a member of the Great Synagogue. He is generally accepted as the author of this book. It is likely that Malachi proclaimed his message when Nehemiah was absent from Judah between 432 B.C. and 425 B.C., almost a century after Haggai and Zechariah began to prophesy. Thus, because of its place in history and the Old Testament, Malachi is a transitional book. Its primary themes are consistent with the rest of the Old Testament, but it also serves as a precursor to the New Testament.

▶ TIME: c. 432–425 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Mal. 2:17

▶ THEME: In Malachi, the days of political upheaval are past, and the country is living in an uneventful waiting period. The people are waiting for Messiah to bring the glorious restoration of their nation to the renewed prominence of the Davidic and Solomonic period. There is a sense the people are losing touch with God during this rather uneventful time. The old problem with idol worship is gone, but other problems have taken its place. Malachi's role is to call the people back to a genuine, enduring faith in God. His dominant admonition is for a personal relationship with the living God, who seeks men to walk with Him (2:6).

1 The burden* of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

Israel Beloved of God

2 "I[a] have loved you," says the LORD.
"Yet you say, 'In what way have You loved us?'
Was not Esau Jacob's brother?"
Says the LORD.
"Yet [b]Jacob I have loved;
3 But Esau I have hated,
And [c]laid waste his mountains and his heritage
For the jackals of the wilderness."
4 Even though Edom has said,
"We have been impoverished,
But we will return and build the desolate places,"
Thus says the LORD of hosts:
"They may build, but I will [d]throw down;
They shall be called the Territory of Wickedness,
And the people against whom the LORD will have indignation forever.
5 Your eyes shall see,
And you shall say,
[e]'The LORD is magnified beyond the border of Israel.'

Polluted Offerings

6 "A son [f]honors his father,
And a servant his master.
[g]If then I am the Father,
Where is My honor?
And if I am a Master,
Where is My reverence?
Says the LORD of hosts
To you priests who despise My name.
[h]Yet you say, 'In what way have we despised Your name?'

* 1:1 Or oracle

1:1 to Israel. In the postexilic period, the use of the word Israel for the people of Judah expresses the hope that the Lord was in the process of reasserting the fullness of His original promises to His people. The name "Malachi" means "My messenger."
1:3 Esau I have hated. The contrast between the words love and hate here and in verse 2 seems too strong. But on many occasions in the Old Testament, the verb hate has the basic meaning "not to choose." God's love for Jacob was expressed in His electing grace in extending His covenant to Jacob and to his descendants (Gen. 25:21–26; Is. 44:1–5). In His sovereign purpose, God set His love on the one and not the other. The term hate may carry the idea of indifference as well.
1:6 A son honors his father. Here the Lord uses truisms: A father and a master can expect honor from those beneath them, but God was not receiving the honor due Him. If then I am the Father. The image

Is it not evil?
And when you offer the lame and sick,

Says the LORD of hosts.

9 "But now entreat God's favor,

Will He accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.
10 "Who is there even among you who would shut the doors,

Says the LORD of hosts,

Says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you profane it,
In that you say,
[u]'The table of the LORD* is defiled;
And its fruit, its food, is contemptible.' 13 You also say,
'Oh, what a [v]weariness!'
And you sneer at it,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"And you bring the stolen, the lame, and the sick;
Thus you bring an offering!
[w]Should I accept this from your hand?"
Says the LORD.
14 "But cursed be [x]the deceiver
Who has in his flock a male,
And takes a vow,
But sacrifices to the Lord [y]what is blemished—
For [z]I am a great King,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"And My name is to be feared among the nations.

Corrupt Priests

2 "And now, O [a]priests, this commandment is for you.
2 [b]If you will not hear,
And if you will not take it to heart,
To give glory to My name,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"I will send a curse upon you,
And I will curse your blessings.
Yes, I have cursed them [c]already,
Because you do not take it to heart.

3 "Behold, I will rebuke your descendants
And spread [d]refuse on your faces,
The refuse of your solemn feasts;
And one will [e]take you away with it.
4 Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you,
That My covenant with Levi may continue,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
5 "My[f] covenant was with him, one of life and peace,
And I gave them to him [g]that he might fear Me;
So he feared Me
And was reverent before My name.
6 [h]The law of truth* was in his mouth,
And injustice was not found on his lips.
He walked with Me in peace and equity,
And [i]turned many away from iniquity.

of God as Father is common in the New Testament, but less frequent in the Old Testament (Is. 63:16; 64:8).

1:8 the blind . . . lame and sick. The demands of the holy worship of God had been made clear in the law. Only the very best should be presented as an offering to the Lord (Lev. 1:3); no one was to come with an offering that was blemished or unclean (Lev. 7:19–21).

1:11 great among the Gentiles. God would one day receive praise from all the nations. Even the despised Gentiles would offer praise, while God's own people were profaning His holy name (Ps. 87; 117).

1:14 I am a great King. The reputation of the Lord among His people was to have been the means whereby all the nations would be drawn to worship Him as well.

2:2 I will send a curse. At the passage of the people into the Promised Land, the Levites spread before the people the blessings of obedience and the curses on disobedience (Deut. 27; 28). But the priests were not obeying the law that they were supposed to uphold. They would therefore receive the curses.

2:3 refuse. This was the refuse in the sacrificed animal that should have been removed when the animal was prepared for sacrifice to the Lord.

2:6 The law of truth. The priests of the Old Testament period had a twofold responsibility: they were to represent the people in holy worship before the living God, and they were to teach and apply God's law to the people. in peace and equity. This refers to complete moral virtue in all things before the Lord.

7 "For[j] the lips of a priest should keep knowledge,
And people should seek the law from his mouth;
[k]For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.
8 But you have departed from the way;
You [l]have caused many to stumble at the law.
[m]You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
9 "Therefore [n]I also have made you contemptible and base
Before all the people,
Because you have not kept My ways
But have shown [o]partiality in the law."

Treachery of Infidelity

10 [p]Have we not all one Father?
[q]Has not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously with one another
By profaning the covenant of the fathers?
11 Judah has dealt treacherously,
And an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem,
For Judah has [r]profaned
The LORD's holy institution which He loves:
He has married the daughter of a foreign god.
12 May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob
The man who does this, being awake and aware,*
Yet [s]who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts!
13 And this is the second thing you do:
You cover the altar of the LORD with tears,
With weeping and crying;
So He does not regard the offering anymore,
Nor receive it with goodwill from your hands.
14 Yet you say, "For what reason?"
Because the LORD has been witness
Between you and [t]the wife of your youth,
With whom you have dealt treacherously;
[u]Yet she is your companion
And your wife by covenant.
15 But [v]did He not make them one,
Having a remnant of the Spirit?
And why one?

* 2:12 Talmud and Vulgate read teacher and student.

2:7 messenger. In the Old Testaments, prophets were commonly called messengers. But apparently this is the only time in the Old Testament that priests are specifically called the messengers of the Lord (3:1).

2:10 God the Father of All—The Fatherhood of God applies in a general sense to everyone since all men and women are created by God in His image. God is the Father of the human race. Several Scriptures speak of God as "the Father of spirits" (Heb. 12:9; Num. 16:22; Eccl. 12:7). Paul even agrees with a heathen poet that all men are God's offspring (Acts 17:28). James 3:9 says that men have been made in God's image.

God is also the Father of all as sustainer of life. Every person is an object of His fatherly care (Matt. 18:10) and a candidate for His Kingdom (Luke 18:16). Furthermore, God is not willing that any should perish (Matt. 18:14; 1 Tim. 2:4). Even when men and women reject God He still provides for them as He does believers with rain, fruitful seasons, food, and gladness (Matt. 5:45; Acts 14:17).

2:11 the LORD's holy institution which He loves. The text presents the ideas of affection and revulsion which we usually think of in the verbs to love and to hate. Marriage is something God loves; divorce is something He hates (v. 16). The Lord's people had polluted something in which God takes great pleasure.

2:13 the second thing you do. The prophets at times spoke of the compounding sins of the people (Jer. 2:13). Here, tears seem to be judged as hypocritical acts of insincere repentance (Is. 1:10–15).

2:14 what reason. The feigned surprise of the people fooled no one, certainly not the Lord. witness. There are some whose witness may be challenged, but the Lord is not among them (3:5). wife of your youth. These men had not only married pagan wives, but they had divorced their first wives to make room for their new ones.

2:15–16 God and Marriage—While couples make the marriage covenant with each other, God is a party in the relationship too. He owns us and makes us one, all at the same time. Going back to Genesis 2:24, He designed man and woman for each other; to be in relationship with each other, out of His wisdom for what was best for them. This design was the culminating action in the creation process. Out of it was to be the future of this race, this species that God created to rule with Him. Marriage is not just an institution for couples, but for society and God. In marriage we fulfill God's plan for the universe. God not only made the couple one, in a way He made Himself one with the couple too. It grieves Him when we cannot or will not follow through with our part of this covenant.

The best way to carry on the faith is through children of functioning covenant marriages. This only confirms what all the statistics are increasingly telling us. When divorce rates started soaring in the mid-twentieth century, many thought children were resilient and handling the dissolution of their families well. Current studies, years later, indicate children of these divorces have significantly greater problems coping with life when compared with children from intact families. While there is enormous complexity involved in a marriage relationship, nothing about it is more important in making it work than the commitment to maintain it.

2:15 a remnant of the Spirit. This somewhat difficult phrase most likely indicates the work of God's Holy Spirit in the life of the married couple. God has joined

16 "For [x]the LORD God of Israel says
That He hates divorce,
For it covers one's garment with violence,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Therefore take heed to your spirit,
That you do not deal treacherously."

17 [y]You have wearied the LORD with your words;
Yet you say,
"In what way have we wearied Him?"
In that you say,
[z]"Everyone who does evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD,
And He delights in them,"
Or, "Where is the God of justice?"

The Coming Messenger

3 "Behold, [a]I send My messenger,
And he will [b]prepare the way before Me.
And the Lord, whom you seek,
Will suddenly come to His temple,
[c]Even the Messenger of the covenant,
In whom you delight.
Behold, [d]He is coming,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

2 "But who can endure [e]the day of His coming?
And [f]who can stand when He appears?
For [g]He is like a refiner's fire
And like launderers' soap.
3 [h]He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver;
He will purify the sons of Levi,
And purge them as gold and silver,
That they may [i]offer to the LORD
An offering in righteousness.

4 "Then [j]the offering of Judah and Jerusalem
Will be pleasant to the LORD,
As in the days of old,
As in former years.
5 And I will come near you for judgment;
I will be a swift witness Against sorcerers,
Against adulterers,
[k]Against perjurers,
Against those who [l]exploit wage earners and [m]widows and orphans,
And against those who turn away an alien—
Because they do not fear Me,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

6 "For I am the LORD, [n]I do not change;
[o]Therefore you are not consumed,
O sons of Jacob.
7 Yet from the days of [p]your fathers
You have gone away from My ordinances
And have not kept them.
[q]Return to Me, and I will return to you,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
[r]"But you said,
'In what way shall we return?'

Do Not Rob God

8 "Will a man rob God?
Yet you have robbed Me!
But you say,
'In what way have we robbed You?'
[s]In tithes and offerings.
9 You are cursed with a curse,
For you have robbed Me,
Even this whole nation.
10 [t]Bring all the tithes into the [u]storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,
And try Me now in this,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"If I will not open for you the [v]windows of heaven
And [w]pour out for you such blessing
That there will not be room enough to receive it.

11 "And I will rebuke [x]the devourer for your sakes,

them, and by His Spirit He has worked on their behalf to strengthen them.

2:16 treacherously. To the Lord, attitudes of indifference to marriage vows and duties are the actions of a traitor.

2:17 You have wearied the LORD. God is wearied by people who do not submit to Him but who argue their points against His revelation. When justice comes, they will be sorry they asked (3:5).

3:1 Messenger of the covenant. This is a messianic title, referring to the One who will initiate the new covenant (Jer. 31:33–34; Matt. 26:28; Heb. 12:24). He is coming. As in Psalm 96:13, this dramatic wording indicates something that was just about to occur. However, it would be 400 years before these words would be fulfilled.

3:2 like a refiner's fire and like launderer's soap. These two images are vivid illustrations of the purifying process. The Savior King Himself will sift all people to prepare for His reign.

3:3 purify the sons of Levi. Since the priests had come under such strong censure in this book (1:6—2:9), and since the prophet himself was likely a priest, these words would have had a special significance for him.

3:6 For I am the LORD, I do not change. We might expect these opening words to ensure the nation's doom. Instead, they give assurance of God's continuing mercy.

3:8 tithes. These were gifts to the Lord that the law required. There were three: two that were annual and one that came every three years. The tithe supported the priests and Levites, and also widows, orphans, and foreigners (Deut. 14:28–29).

Says the LORD of hosts.

The People Complain Harshly

13 "Your[z] words have been harsh against Me,"
Says the LORD,
"Yet you say,
'What have we spoken against You?'
14 [a]You have said,
'It is useless to serve God;
What profit is it that we have kept His ordinance,
And that we have walked as mourners
Before the LORD of hosts?
15 So now [b]we call the proud blessed,
For those who do wickedness are raised up;
They even [c]tempt God and go free.'"

A Book of Remembrance

16 Then those [d]who feared the LORD
[e]spoke to one another,
And the LORD listened and heard them;
So [f]a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD
And who meditate on His name.

17 "They[g] shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts,
"On the day that I make them My [h]jewels.*
And [i]I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."
18 [j]Then you shall again discern
Between the righteous and the wicked,
Between one who serves God
And one who does not serve Him.

The Great Day of God

4 "For behold, [a]the day is coming,
Burning like an oven,
And all [b]the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be [c]stubble.
And the day which is coming shall burn them up,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"That will [d]leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But to you who [e]fear My name
The [f]Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings;
And you shall go out
And grow fat like stall-fed calves.
3 [g]You shall trample the wicked,
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
On the day that I do this,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
4 "Remember the [h]Law of Moses, My servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With [i]the statutes and judgments.
5 Behold, I will send you [j]Elijah the prophet [k]Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
6 And [l]he will turn
The hearts of the fathers to the children,
And the hearts of the children to their fathers,
Lest I come and [m]strike the earth with [n]a curse."

* 3:17 Literally special treasure

3:12 all nations. One of the ways in which other countries would be drawn to the worship of the Lord was by seeing how the people of Israel fared with the Lord as their God. a delightful land. The adjective indicates enjoyment, life that is genuinely pleasurable (1:10).

3:14 What profit. The people secretly entertained doubts about the value of following the Lord. In fact, they had not really "kept His ordinance." The proper attitude is encouraged in Malachi 4:4.

3:16 a book of remembrance. God never forgets His promises. God teaches us to remember and value the good that people do (Phil. 4:8); He does the same as He commands us.

3:17 They shall be Mine. These words are exciting because we can sense in them the pride God has in His children.

3:18 one who serves God. Serving God means putting Him first, obeying His commands, and finding one's chief joy in life the advancement of the glory of His name.

4:2 With healing in His wings. The prophet compares the Savior to a bird whose comforting wings bring healing to the chicks that gather underneath (Ps. 91:1–4).

4:5 Elijah the prophet. There are three ways in which this prophecy might be fulfilled: (1) John the Baptist, whom Malachi had already prophesied (3:1), was the first to fill the promise of the Elijah figure. John, like Elijah, was a minister of the Lord calling the people to repent and prepare for the coming of the Messiah (Matt. 11:14). (2) Elijah appeared in person along with Moses at the transfiguration (Matt. 17:1–8). (3) An Elijah-like figure will appear at the end times; he will call fire down from heaven just as Elijah did (1 Kin. 18:36; Rev. 11:1–7).

4:6 fathers to the children . . . children to their fathers. Malachi ends with a promise and a warning. As in every act of God announcing judgment, there is also an offer of His mercy (Jon. 4:2). a curse. The term is one of the harshest in Scripture. The Hebrew word suggests complete annihilation. This is the term translated "accursed" in the account of the destruction of Jericho (Josh. 6).

THE NEW TESTAMENT

The Words of Christ in Red

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

▶ AUTHOR: The early church uniformly attributed this Gospel to Matthew, and no tradition to the contrary ever emerged. This book was known early and accepted quickly. Matthew occupied the unpopular post of tax collector in Capernaum for the Roman government, and as a result he was no doubt disliked by his Jewish countrymen. He was chosen as one of the twelve apostles, and the last appearance of his name in the Bible is in Acts 1:13. Matthew's life from that point on is veiled in tradition.

▶ TIME: c. 4 B.C.–A.D. 33 ▶ KEY VERSES: Matt. 16:16–19

▶ THEME: Matthew is typically described as the story of Jesus written by a Jew for Jewish people. In this context it contains the most references to Jewish culture and the Old Testament of the Gospels. The author's main purpose seems to be proving to his Jewish readers that Jesus is their Messiah. Matthew is also the fullest systematic account of Christ's teachings. These five "blocks" of teaching are one of the key differences with the other Gospels: Chapters 5–7, The Sermon on the Mount; chapter 10, The Mission Charge; chapter 13, The Parables of the Kingdom; chapter 18, The Church; chapters 23–25, Judgment and the End of the Age.

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

1 The book of the [a]genealogy of Jesus Christ, [b]the Son of David, [c]the Son of Abraham:

2 [d]Abraham begot Isaac, [e]Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot [f]Judah and his brothers. 3 [g]Judah begot Perez and Zerah by Tamar, [h]Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram. 4 Ram begot Amminadab, Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon. 5 Salmon begot [i]Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse, 6 and [j]Jesse begot David the king.

[k]David the king begot Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah. 7 [l]Solomon begot Rehoboam, Rehoboam begot [m]Abijah, and Abijah begot Asa. 8 Asa begot [n]Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot [o]Uzziah. 9 Uzziah begot Jotham, Jotham begot [p]Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah. 10 [q]Hezekiah begot Manasseh, Manasseh begot Amon,* and Amon begot [r]Josiah. 11 [s]Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were [t]carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, [u]Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot [v]Zerubbabel. 13 Zerubbabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor. 14 Azor begot Zadok, Zadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud. 15 Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob. 16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of [w]Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ.

* 1:6 Words in italic type have been added for clarity. They are not found in the original Greek.
* 1:7 NU-Text reads Asaph. * 1:10 NU-Text reads Amos.

1:1 genealogy. Jesus' genealogy is crucial to His claim to be the Messiah, as it traces the lineage of Joseph, His recognized father, back to Abraham through David. It shows that from a legal standpoint, Jesus is qualified to rule from the throne of David.

1:3 Tamar. The mention of women in a Jewish genealogy is unusual. But in addition to Mary, four women are listed in this catalogue of names: Tamar , who was involved in a scandal with Judah (Gen. 38); Rahab, the Canaanite harlot of Jericho (Josh. 2:1–21); Ruth, who was not an Israelite, but a Moabite (Ruth 1:4); and Bathsheba, the wife of Uriah, who committed adultery with David (2 Sam. 11:1–5). At the beginning of his Gospel, Matthew shows how God's grace forgives the darkest of sins and reaches beyond the nation of Israel to the world. He also points out that God can lift the lowest and place them in royal lineage.

1:16 the husband of Mary. Matthew was careful not to identify Jesus as the physical son of Joseph. The Greek pronoun translated "of whom" is feminine and refers to Mary. called Christ. The words "Messiah"

17So all the generations from Abraham

David until the captivity in Babylon are

ity in Babylon until the Christ are fourteen generations.

Christ Born of Mary

18Now the [x]birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child [y]of the Holy Spirit. 19Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not wanting [z]to make her a public example, was minded to put her away secretly. 20But while he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying,
"Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, [a]for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.
21[b]And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name JESUS, [c]for He will save His people from their sins."

22So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying: 23[d]*"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us."

24Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took to him his wife, 25and did not know her till she had brought forth [e]her firstborn Son.* And he called His name JESUS.

Wise Men from the East

2 Now after [a]Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men [b]from the East came to Jerusalem, 2saying, [c]"Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen [d]His star in the East and have come to worship Him."

3When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4And when he had gathered all [e]the chief priests and [f]scribes of the people together, [g]he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

5So they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 'But[h] you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler
[i]*Who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

7Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the [i]star appeared. 8And
he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also."

9When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. 10When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, [k]they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

* 1:23 Isaiah 7:14. Words in oblique type in the New Testament are quoted from the Old Testament. * 1:25 NU-Text reads a Son. * 2:6 Micah 5:2

(from the Hebrew) and "Christ" (from the Greek) both mean "Anointed One."

1:17 Abraham . . . until the Christ. The genealogy is broken down into three groups of names with 14 generations in each list. A basic covenant is set forth in each period: the Abrahamic covenant, the Davidic covenant, and the new covenant.

1:18 betrothed. In Jewish culture, this covenant was made about a year before the marriage. Engagement was understood to be as binding as a marriage covenant, therefore a legal divorce was required to withdraw from the agreement.

1:23 Behold . . . Immanuel. The angel's message to Joseph indicated that Mary would fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah (Is. 7:14). "Jesus," the Greek form of "Joshua," means "salvation."

1:25 did not know her till. The clear implication is that Mary was a virgin only until the birth of Jesus. The brothers and sisters of Jesus (13:55–56) were probably younger siblings born to Joseph and Mary after Jesus' birth. Joseph could not have had children by a previous marriage, as some suppose, for then Jesus would not have been heir to the Davidic throne as the oldest son of Joseph.

2:1 wise men from the East. These "wise men" would have been of the same class as the "wise men" of Babylon over whom Daniel was made ruler (Dan. 2:48). to Jerusalem. Contrary to popular belief, the events of chapter two probably took place some months after Jesus' birth. Herod murdered all the male children age two and under, going by the time the wise men said the star had appeared (and probably leaving a significant margin for error). In addition, it would have been strange for Mary and Joseph to offer the sacrifice of the poor (see Lev. 12:8; Luke 2:24) if the wise men had just given them rich gifts.

2:7 Then Herod. This is Herod the Great, who reigned over Palestine for over thirty years. A crafty ruler and lavish builder, Herod had a reign marked by cruelty and bloodshed.

12 Then, being divinely warned [l]in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

The Flight into Egypt

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him."
14 When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, 15 and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, [m]*"Out of Egypt I called My Son."

Massacre of the Innocents

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death
all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men.
17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying:

18 "A [n]voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation, weeping, and great
mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted,
*Because they are no more."

The Home in Nazareth

19 Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 [o]saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who [p]sought the young Child's life are dead." 21 Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.
22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a [q]dream, he turned aside [r]into the region of Galilee. 23 And he came and dwelt in a city called [s]Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled [t]which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In those days [a]John the Baptist came preaching [b]in the wilderness of Judea, 2 and saying, "Repent, for [c]the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" 3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

[d]"The voice of one crying in the
wilderness:
[e]'Prepare the way of the LORD;
*Make His paths straight.'"

4 Now [f]John himself was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist; and his food was [g]locusts and [h]wild honey. 5 [i]Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him 6 [j]and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.
7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, [k]"Brood of vipers!
Who warned you to flee from [l]the wrath to come? 8 Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance, 9 and do not think to say to yourselves, [m]'We have Abraham as our father.'
For I say to you that God is able to raise

* 3:3 Isaiah 40:3

2:15 might be fulfilled. The prophecy quoted here, from Hosea 11:1, refers to the nation of Israel as God's son coming out of Egypt in the Exodus. Jesus is the genuine Son of God, and, as Israel's Messiah, is the true Israel (John 15:1); therefore He gives fuller meaning to the prophecy of Hosea.

2:18 Rachel weeping for her children. This prophecy comes from Jeremiah 31:15, in which Rachel, entombed near Bethlehem some 13 centuries before the Babylonian captivity, is seen weeping for her children as they are led away in 586 B.C. In the slaughter of the male infants at the time of Christ's birth, Rachel is again seen weeping for the violent loss of her sons.

2:23 Nazareth. Those who lived in Nazareth were looked down upon (John 1:46). Perhaps God chose this place for His Son to emphasize His humanness.

3:2 Repent. The Greek verb translated "repent" indicates a change of attitude. The basic idea is a recognition of sin and a reversal of thinking which changes one's life.

3:3 Prepare the way of the LORD. As roads were smoothed and straightened for the arrival of a king, so John was preparing a spiritual path for the Messiah. The quotation is from Isaiah 40:3.

3:7 Pharisees and Sadducees. The Pharisees and Sadducees were two prominent groups in Judaism at the time of Christ. The groups differed considerably in their beliefs. The Pharisees based their beliefs not only on the law of Moses, but also on a large body of oral tradition. They were devout and zealous, concerned with outward righteousness. The Sadducees were associated with a priestly caste, and in doctrine they held primarily to the first five books of Moses. They did not believe in the resurrection of the dead, and did not adhere to all the detailed laws of the Pharisees. Formerly enemies, the two groups seemed to unite against a common enemy: the long awaited Messiah.

John Baptizes Jesus

13[s]Then Jesus came [t]from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.
14And John tried to prevent Him, saying,
"I need to be baptized by You, and are You coming to me?"
15But Jesus answered and said to him,
"Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed Him.
16[u]When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He* saw [v]the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him. 17[w]And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, [x]"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Satan Tempts Jesus

4 Then [a]Jesus was led up by [b]the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry. 3Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." 4But He answered and said, "It is written, [c]'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.' "*
5Then the devil took Him up [d]into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

> [e]*'He shall give His angels charge over
> you,'*

and,

> [f]*'In their hands they shall bear you up,
> Lest you dash your foot against a > stone.'* "*

7Jesus said to him, "It is written again, [g]'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.' "* 8Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and [h]showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me." 10Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you,* Satan! For it is written, [i]'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.' "*
11Then the devil [j]left Him, and behold,
[k]angels came and ministered to Him.

3:11 baptize. Sometimes fire has connotations of judgment in Scripture, but here the fire of God's Spirit represents the transforming power of His grace and love. The baptism of all Jesus' disciples with water is an outward sign of the inward work of the Holy Spirit. It is the symbol of obedience to the command to believe in Christ's saving work of grace on the cross.
3:15 to fulfill all righteousness. This phrase does not suggest that Jesus came for baptism because He had sinned; the Lord Jesus was without sin (2 Cor. 5:21; Heb. 4:15). His baptism probably served several purposes. By being baptized, He confirmed the ministry of John and fulfilled the Father's will.
3:17 God, the Father of Christ—Most Christians eventually wonder how God may be called the Father of Christ, and Christ the Son of God. First, one must recognize that God is spirit (John 4:24), and Christ was the Son of God before He assumed a human body in Bethlehem (John 3:16; Gal. 4:4). Passages which use terms implying physical origin must be taken in a figurative sense (Heb. 1:5). Second, the title expresses a sonship relationship, unique from that of His disciples (John 20:17). He was begotten of God unlike anyone else (John 1:14; 3:16). The Nicene council in the fourth century used the phrase "very God of very God; begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father" to describe this unique relationship. Third, the title describes equality with God. When Jesus claimed to be "one" with the Father, He was speaking of a unity of "substance" with the Father and thus equality in all the attributes of deity (John 10:30). The Jews understood this claim, because they took up stones to stone Him, protesting that "You . . . make Yourself God" (John 10:33). Fourth, the title emphasizes Christ's role as the revealer of God. He alone possesses the knowledge of the Father (John 14:6–9; 1 John 1:2), and He is the sole mediator of that knowledge (1 Tim. 2:5). Therefore, no one can know the Father except through the Son (John 14:6).
4:1–4 It is written. Satan did not lead Jesus into the place of temptation, the Holy Spirit did. Perhaps part of the reason for this was to show us how to deal with temptation. Jesus quoted the Word of God, showing the power of Scripture in battling with the evil one.
4:10 Satan. Satan is not dispatched easily by anyone who merely says, "Go." The only way we can be victorious in temptation is through the blood and authority of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

12 [l]Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee. 13 And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

15 "The[m] land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:
16 [n]The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,
And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death
*Light has dawned."

17 [o]From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, [p]"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

18 [q]And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon [r]called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19 Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and [s]I will make you fishers of men." 20 [t]They immediately left their nets and followed Him.
21 [u]Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, 22 and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee,
[v]teaching in their synagogues, preaching
[w]the gospel of the kingdom, [x]and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. 24 Then His fame went throughout all Syria; and they [y]brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them.
25 [z]Great multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem,
Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Beatitudes

5 And seeing the multitudes, [a]He went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him. 2 Then He opened His mouth and [b]taught them,
saying:

3 "Blessed[c] are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 [d]Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.
5 [e]Blessed are the meek,
For [f]they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who [g]hunger and thirst for righteousness,
[h]For they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful,
[i]For they shall obtain mercy.
8 [j]Blessed are the pure in heart,
For [k]they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called sons of God.
10 [l]Blessed are those who are persecuted
for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 [m]"Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of [n]evil against you falsely for My sake. 12 [o]Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for [p]so they persecuted
the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

13 "You are the salt of the earth; [q]but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.
14 [r]"You are the light of the world. A city

4:15–16 great light. The passage quoted here (Is. 9:1–2) foretells the reign of the Messiah in the coming kingdom.

4:18–20 I will make you fishers of men. This allusion to Jeremiah 16:16 was used to call Peter and Andrew to a life of ministry.

4:23 teaching . . . preaching . . . healing. These words summarize Jesus' early ministry.

5:2 He . . . taught them. The Sermon on the Mount wasn't given as the way of salvation for the lost, but as the way of life for the children of the kingdom. It was instruction for those who had responded to Jesus' invitation to repent.

5:3–12 The Beatitudes—In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ succinctly describes the basic character traits of those who will inherit the kingdom. The word kingdom usually implies someone who is on top, who rules and has authority over others. They are the privileged. In God's kingdom the people are not privileged because they are on top but because, by being on the bottom, they are in a better position to receive God's grace and favor. These characteristics are the reverse of what man generally values in the world. "Blessed" can also be translated as "Happy." The signs of being blessed aren't power or material wealth. The sign of being blessed is receiving the benefits of God's grace.

Christ Fulfills the Law

17[v]"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. 18For assuredly, I say to you, [w]till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. 19[x]Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds [y]the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

21"You have heard that it was said to those of old, [z]'You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.' 22But I say to you that [a]whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, [b]'Raca!' shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be in danger of hell fire. 23Therefore [c]if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24[d]leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25[e]Agree with your adversary quickly, [f]while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. 26Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.

Adultery in the Heart

27"You have heard that it was said to those of old,* [g]'You shall not commit adultery.'* 28But I say to you that whoever [h]looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29[i]If your right eye causes you to sin, [j]pluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell. 30And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

Marriage Is Sacred and Binding

31"Furthermore it has been said, [k]'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32But I say to you that [l]whoever divorces his wife for any reason except sexual immorality* causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery.

Jesus Forbids Oaths

33"Again you have heard that [m]it was said to those of old, [n]'You shall not swear falsely, but [o]shall perform your oaths to the Lord.' 34But I say to you, [p]do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is [q]God's throne; 35nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of [r]the great King. 36Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37[s]But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' For whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

Go the Second Mile

38"You have heard that it was said, [t]*'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'

5:16 Let your light so shine. The believer does not have inherent light; rather, we have reflective light. As Christ followers, we must make sure that we do not allow anything to come between us and our Source of light.

5:27 adultery. Control of the heart and body begins with control of the eyes. Deeds of shame result from fantasies of shame. Jesus gives the sobering advice "if your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you" (v. 29). It should be clear here that Jesus is not advocating mutilating our bodies, but He is using a strong figure of speech to emphasize removing any temptation for evil, whatever the cost.

5:32 sexual immorality. This is a general term that includes premarital sex, extramarital infidelity, homosexuality, and bestiality.

5:38 An eye for an eye. This important Old Testament law (Ex. 21:24–25; Lev. 24:20; Deut. 19:21), known as the lex talionis (law of retaliation), covered what type of punishment should be meted out to transgressors. It limited the retribution the offender would have to bear, preventing the "head for eye, jaw for tooth" vengeance typical of humans.

with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and [x]from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.

Love Your Enemies

43 "You have heard that it was said, [y]'You shall love your neighbor [z]and hate your enemy.' 44 But I say to you, [a]love your enemies, bless those who curse you, [b]do good to those who hate you, and pray [c]for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, 45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for [d]He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46 [e]For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?
47 And if you greet your brethren* only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors* do so? 48 [f]Therefore you shall be perfect, just [g]as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Do Good to Please God

6 "Take heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. 2 Therefore, [a]when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 3 But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret [b]will Himself reward you openly.*

The Model Prayer

5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 6 But you, when you pray, [c]go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.* 7 And when you pray, [d]do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. [e]For they think that they will be heard for their many words.

8 "Therefore do not be like them. For your Father [f]knows the things you have need of before you ask Him. 9 In this [g]manner, therefore, pray:

[h]Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your [i]name.
10 Your kingdom come.
[j]Your will be done
On earth [k]as it is in heaven.
11 Give us this day our [l]daily bread.
12 And [m]forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
13 [n]And do not lead us into temptation,
But [o]deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.*

14 [p]"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 But [q]if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Fasting to Be Seen Only by God

16 "Moreover, [r]when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 17 But you, when you fast, [s]anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.*

6:2 they have their reward. The only reward the hypocrites will ever receive is to be honored by man.

6:9 In this manner. This does not mean to pray only these words, but to pray in this way, remembering the general topics of worship, request for both physical and spiritual needs, confession, and repentance of sins.

Lay Up Treasures in Heaven

19 [t]"Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal;
20 [u]but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Lamp of the Body

22 [v]"The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

You Cannot Serve God and Riches

24 [w]"No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. [x]You cannot serve God and mammon.

Do Not Worry

25 "Therefore I say to you, [y]do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? 26 [z]Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? 27 Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?
28 "So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; 29 and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?
31 "Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32 For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But [a]seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Do Not Judge

7 "Judge [a]not, that you be not judged.
2 For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; [b]and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you. 3 [c]And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye? 5 Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.
6 [d]"Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

7 [e]"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. 8 For [f]everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 9 [g]Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?
10 Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent? 11 If you then, [h]being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12 Therefore, [i]whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for [j]this is the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow Way

13 [k]"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. 14 Because* narrow is the gate and

6:19 Do not lay up . . . on earth. In other words, don't give priority to things that only last on earth, but instead put priority and energy into serving God.
6:24 Covetousness—God requires total allegiance and continuous subjection of our wills to Him. He asks for full commitment of our hearts and love for His service. We cannot serve God like that while under the influence of the god of money, urging us to make present, tangible, and worldly things the object of our thoughts and affections.
6:27 add one cubit. Some translations say, "add a single hour to his life." It seems that Jesus would bring a smile here; the mental picture either of growing taller, or of stretching time by worrying, helps us to see the futility of it.
7:1–2 Judge not. The point of this verse is that a Christian must not judge or criticize in a way that they themselves would not want to be judged or criticized. Every judgment that a person makes becomes a basis for his or her own judgment (James 3:1–2).
7:6 dogs . . . swine. These insulting terms refer to people who are enemies of the gospel, as opposed to those who are merely unbelievers.

difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

You Will Know Them by Their Fruits

15 [l]"Beware of false prophets, [m]who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. 16 [n]You will know them by their fruits. [o]Do men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles? 17 Even so, [p]every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. 19 [q]Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

I Never Knew You

21 "Not everyone who says to Me, [r]'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who [s]does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we [t]not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And [u]then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; [v]depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

Build on the Rock

24 "Therefore [w]whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: 25 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.

26 "But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: 27 and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that [x]the people were astonished at His teaching, 29 [y]for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

8 When He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him. 2 [a]And behold, a leper came and [b]worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

3 Then Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately his leprosy [c]was cleansed.

4 And Jesus said to him, [d]"See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that [e]Moses [f]commanded, as a testimony to them."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

5 [g]Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a [h]centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, 6 saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented."

7 And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8 The centurion answered and said, "Lord, [i]I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only [j]speak a word, and my servant will be healed. 9 For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10 When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel! 11 And I say to you that [k]many will come from east and west, and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But [l]the sons of the kingdom [m]will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

14 [n]Now when Jesus had come into Peter's house, He saw [o]his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. 15 So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served them.*

* 8:15 NU-Text and M-Text read Him.

7:15 Beware of false prophets. Deuteronomy 13:1–11 and 18:20–22 provide information on discerning and responding to false prophets. The way to tell a false teacher from teachers of the truth is by their fruits. Fruit does not only refer to deeds, but also to doctrine (16:12; 1 John 4:1–3).

8:4 show yourself to the priest. This was no small undertaking. The sacrifice required was long and involved (Lev. 14:4–32). In obeying the law of Moses, the leper also would be a powerful testimony to the religious authorities in Jerusalem that the Messiah had arrived.

8:10 I have not found . . . not even in Israel. Jesus makes it clear that just being a physical descendant of Abraham does not guarantee entrance into His kingdom. The true children of Abraham are those who share his faith in God (Gal. 5:6–9).

Many Healed in the Evening

16 [p]When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick, 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

> [q]"He Himself took our infirmities
> *And bore our sicknesses."

The Cost of Discipleship

18 And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side. 19 [r]Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

20 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

21 [s]Then another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, [t]let me first go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

23 Now when He got into a boat, His disciples followed Him. 24 [u]And suddenly a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But He was asleep. 25 Then His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

26 But He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then [v]He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. 27 So the men marveled, saying, "Who can this be, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

Two Demon-Possessed Men Healed

28 [w]When He had come to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes,* there met Him two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way. 29 And suddenly they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"

30 Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding. 31 So the demons begged Him, saying, "If You cast us out, permit us to go away* into the herd of swine."

32 And He said to them, "Go." So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.

33 Then those who kept them fled; and they went away into the city and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. 34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, [x]they begged Him to depart from their region.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, [a]and came to His own city. 2 [b]Then behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. [c]When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven you."

3 And at once some of the scribes said within themselves, "This Man blasphemes!"

4 But Jesus, [d]knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'? 6 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." 7 And he arose and departed to his house.

8 Now when the multitudes saw it, they [e]marveled* and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

Matthew the Tax Collector

9 [f]As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

10 [g]Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples. 11 And when

8:17 took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses. This verse quotes Isaiah 53:4. Jesus healed because He had compassion on the people.

8:28–29 demon-possessed. We learn several things about demons in this passage. They recognize the deity of Christ, they are limited in their knowledge, they know they will ultimately be judged by Christ (25:41; James 2:19; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6; Rev. 12:7–17), and they cannot act without the permission of higher authority.

9:2 their faith. This refers to the faith of the paralytic as well as that of the men who were carrying him.

9:10 tax collectors. Publicans or tax collectors were often despised not only because they were seen as traitors, working for the hated Roman government, but also because they generally collected more than necessary and pocketed the difference.

the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with [h]tax collectors and [i]sinners?"

12When Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 13But go and learn what this means: [j]'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.'* For I did not come to call the righteous, [k]but sinners, to repentance."*

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

14Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, [l]"Why do we and the Pharisees fast often,* but Your disciples do not fast?"

15And Jesus said to them, "Can [m]the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and [n]then they will fast. 16No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse. 17Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

18[o]While He spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her and she will live." 19So Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His [p]disciples.

20[q]And suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and [r]touched the hem of His garment. 21For she said to herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made well." 22But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, "Be of good cheer, daughter; [s]your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

23[t]When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw [u]the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, 24He said to them, [v]"Make room, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him. 25But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and [w]took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26And the [x]report of this went out into all that land.

Two Blind Men Healed

27When Jesus departed from there, [y]two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, [z]"Son of David, have mercy on us!"

28And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."

29Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you." 30And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, [a]"See that no one knows it." 31[b]But when they had departed, they spread the news about Him in all that country.

A Mute Man Speaks

32[c]As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed. 33And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Israel!"

34But the Pharisees said, [d]"He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons."

The Compassion of Jesus

35Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, [e]teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.* 36[f]But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary* and scattered, [g]like sheep having no shepherd. 37Then He said to His disciples, [h]"The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. 38[i]Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

9:12–13 Those who are well. Jesus refers ironically to the Pharisees as "the righteous." They were not righteous; that was only how they perceived themselves because of their pious and scrupulous law keeping (Phil. 3:6). But God is more interested in a person's loyal love than the observance of external rituals.

9:30 See that no one knows it. Jesus may have wanted to discourage the masses from coming to Him for physical healing alone, because His primary purpose was spiritual healing.

9:37 harvest. The harvest will mark the beginning of the kingdom age. For the lost it will mean doom, but for the saved it will mean blessing.

10 And [a]when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease. 2Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, [b]who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was* Thaddaeus; 4[c]Simon the Cananite,* and Judas [d]Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

Sending Out the Twelve

5These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: [e]"Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of [f]the Samaritans. 6[g]But go rather to the [h]lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7[i]And as you go, preach, saying, [j]'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead,* cast out demons. [k]Freely you have received, freely give. 9[l]Provide neither gold nor silver nor [m]copper in your money belts, 10nor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; [n]for a worker is worthy of his food.

11[o]"Now whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out. 12And when you go into a household, greet it. 13[p]If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. [q]But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14[r]And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, [s]shake off the dust from your feet. 15Assuredly, I say to you, [t]it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!

Persecutions Are Coming

16[u]"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. [v]Therefore be wise as serpents and [w]harmless as doves. 17But beware of men, for [x]they will deliver you up to councils and [y]scourge you in their synagogues. 18[z]You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19[a]But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For [b]it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak; 20[c]for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21[d]"Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 22And [e]you will be hated by all for My name's sake. [f]But he who endures to the end will be saved. 23[g]When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have [h]gone through the cities of Israel [i]before the Son of Man comes.

24[j]"A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. 25It is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If [k]they have called the master of the house Beelzebub,* how much more will they call those of his household! 26Therefore do not fear them. [l]For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

27"Whatever I tell you in the dark, [m]speak in the light; and what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops. 28[n]And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather [o]fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. 29Are not two [p]sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will. 30[q]But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

10:2 the twelve. The twelve are called disciples in verse 1; here they are called apostles. The word "apostle" emphasizes delegated authority (1 Thess. 2:6).

10:15 more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah. This verse, together with 11:22–24, implies that there will be different degrees of judgment and torment for those who reject Christ.

10:18 for My sake. God would use Jewish rejection and persecution of the messengers to bring the gospel message to the Gentiles.

10:25 Persecution—Believers must know that what the world has called our Lord, it will call us. The world has hated Jesus without cause, and they will hate those who bear His name in the same way.

Confess Christ Before Men

32 [r]"Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, [s]him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. 33 [t]But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Christ Brings Division

34 [u]"Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. 35 For I have come to [v]'set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law'; 36 and [w]*'a man's enemies will be those of his own household.' 37 [x]He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. 38 [y]And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. 39 [z]He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

A Cup of Cold Water

40 [a]"He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. 41 [b]He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 [c]And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, assuredly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward."

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

11 Now it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to [a]teach and to preach in their cities.

2 [b]And when John had heard [c]in prison about the works of Christ, he sent two of* his disciples 3 and said to Him, "Are You [d]the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

4 Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: 5 [e]The blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and [f]the poor have the gospel preached to them. 6 And blessed is he who is not [g]offended because of Me."

7 [h]As they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? [i]A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, [j]and more than a prophet. 10 For this is he of whom it is written:

> [k]'Behold, I send My messenger before
> Your face,
> Who will prepare Your way before
> *You.'

11 "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 [l]And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13 [m]For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14 And if you are willing to receive it, he is [n]Elijah who is to come. 15 [o]He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

16 [p]"But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to their companions, 17 and saying:

> 'We played the flute for you,
> And you did not dance;
> We mourned to you,
> And you did not lament.'

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, [q]a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' [r]But wisdom is justified by her children."*

10:32 whoever confesses. Every act of our lives will be evaluated at the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor. 5:10). To refuse to speak up for Christ because of intimidation or persecution will result in the believer's loss of reward and consequent loss of glory in the kingdom (Rom. 8:17; 2 Tim. 2:12).

10:38 does not take his cross. "Taking up a cross" stands for commitment to the extent of being willing to die for something.

11:3 do we look. John probably expected the Messiah to immediately judge Israel and establish His kingdom (3:2–12). Jesus' failure to do what John anticipated may have planted seeds of doubt in John's mind about whether Jesus was the Messiah. But doubt that inquires and does not weaken faith is not evil. John went to the right person for answers, and Jesus reassured him by pointing out the fulfillment of prophecy.

11:12 violent take it by force. This probably means that violent people forcibly oppose the kingdom with their hostility (23:13).

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

20 [s]Then He began to rebuke the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent: 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida!
For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago [t]in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I say to you, [u]it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. 23 And you, Caper-naum, [v]who are exalted to heaven, will be* brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24 But I say to you [w]that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

Jesus Gives True Rest

25 [x]At that time Jesus answered and said,
"I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that [y]You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent [z]and have revealed them to babes. 26 Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. 27 [a]All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. [b]Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him. 28 Come to [c]Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you [d]and learn from Me, for I am gentle and [e]lowly in heart, [f]and you will find rest for your souls. 30 [g]For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time [a]Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to [b]pluck heads of grain and to eat. 2 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look,
Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"

3 But He said to them, "Have you not read [c]what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: 4 how he entered the house of God and ate [d]the showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, [e]but only for the priests? 5 Or have you not read in the [f]law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless? 6 Yet I say to you that in this place there is [g]One greater than the temple.
7 But if you had known what this means, [h]'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

9 [i]Now when He had departed from there,
He went into their synagogue. 10 And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, [j]"Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.

11 Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out? 12 Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep?
Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath." 13 Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other.
14 Then [k]the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Behold, My Servant

15 But when Jesus knew it, [l]He withdrew from there. [m]And great multitudes* followed Him, and He healed them all. 16 Yet
He [n]warned them not to make Him known, 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

18 "Behold! [o]My Servant whom I have chosen,
My Beloved [p]in whom My soul is well
pleased!
I will put My Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.

11:21 Woe. Jesus pronounced a direct judgment on Israel. They would be judged for seeing the Messiah and then rejecting Him.

11:23 Capernaum. Capernaum, which is on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee, was called "His own city" (9:1).

12:2 is not lawful. To desecrate the Sabbath was flagrant disobedience to the law of Moses (Num. 15:30–36). The Pharisees were trying to make Jesus into a lawbreaker and accuse Him of wrongdoing.

12:14 how they might destroy Him. Because of Jesus' view of the Sabbath, the Pharisees concluded that He was trying to overthrow the entire Mosaic system, and therefore had to be destroyed. Their antagonism toward Jesus was growing.

12:17–21 spoken by Isaiah the prophet. This quotation of Isaiah 42:1–4 shows that the Messiah's gentleness was just as had been prophesied, and also that the Gentiles would be included in His blessing.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

22 [q]Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and* mute man both spoke and saw. 23 And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the [r]Son of David?"

24 [s]Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub,* the ruler of the demons."

25 But Jesus [t]knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, [u]surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. 29 [v]Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. 30 He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

The Unpardonable Sin

31 "Therefore I say to you, [w]every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, [x]but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. 32 Anyone who [y]speaks a word against the Son of Man, [z]it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

A Tree Known by Its Fruit

33 "Either make the tree good and [a]its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. 34 [b]Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? [c]For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart* brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. 36 But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Scribes and Pharisees Ask for a Sign

38 [d]Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39 But He answered and said to them, "An evil and [e]adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 [f]For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 [g]The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and [h]condemn it, [i]because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here. 42 [j]The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

43 [k]"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, [l]he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. 44 Then he says,

* 12:21 Isaiah 42:1–4 * 12:22 NU-Text omits blind and. * 12:24 NU-Text and M-Text read Beelzebul. * 12:35 NU-Text and M-Text omit of his heart.

12:31–32 blasphemy. The sin that shall not be forgiven is the stubborn refusal to heed the Holy Spirit's conviction and accept the salvation that Christ offers. Particularly in reference to the leaders of Israel, Jesus had offered them all the proof that could be expected, such as the ministry of John, the testimony of the Father, the prophecies of the Old Testament, His own testimony, and the substantiation of the Holy Spirit. Because the leaders rejected all proofs regarding Jesus as Messiah, nothing else would be given.

12:39 the sign of the prophet Jonah. The demand for signs was evidence of unbelief. The "sign of the prophet Jonah" is explained in verse 40 as the resurrection.

12:41–42 The men of Nineveh . . . The queen of the South. These terms represent Gentiles who come to faith because of the words of God's prophets and kings, lesser messengers than God's only Son.

12:43 an unclean spirit. This analogy seems to be describing the moral reformation that took place in Israel as a result of the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus. The reformation, however, was not genuine, and therefore Israel's unbelief and hardness of heart was worse than before. In the same way, a person who decides to try religion without being born again, and then decides "it's not for me," is worse off than if they had never tried, because their hearts are hardened to God's voice.

So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

46While He was still talking to the multitudes, [n]behold, His mother and [o]brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. 47Then one said to Him, "Look, [p]Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

48But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" 49And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My [q]brothers! 50For [r]whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On the same day Jesus went out of the house [a]and sat by the sea. 2[b]And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that [c]He got into a boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: [d]"Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. 5Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. 6But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. 7And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. 8But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some [e]a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9[f]He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

10And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11He answered and said to them, "Because [g]it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12[h]For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 13Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

> [i]'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand,
> And seeing you will see and not [j]perceive;
> 15 For the hearts of this people have grown dull.
> Their ears [k]are hard of hearing,
> And their eyes they have [l]closed,
> Lest they should see with their eyes
> and hear with their ears,
> Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
> So that I should [m]heal them.'

16But [n]blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear; 17for assuredly, I say to you [o]that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

18[p]"Therefore hear the parable of the sower: 19When anyone hears the word [q]of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside. 20But he who received the seed on stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately [r]receives it with joy; 21yet he has no root in himself, but endures only for a while. For when [s]tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately [t]he stumbles. 22Now [u]he who received seed [v]among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word,

13:11 it has been given to you. The purpose of this parable was to both reveal and conceal the truth. This hiding of the truth was a judgment for unbelief, as happened during Isaiah's ministry (Is. 6:9–10).

13:14–15 Spiritual Death—Genesis 3 teaches us that, through sin, man died spiritually. Here, Christ quotes from Isaiah 6 to detail the meaning of spiritual death: Our ability to perceive spiritual reality is absent. Key spiritual senses don't work as they were originally designed to work. We can't see the implications of spiritual events. We can't understand the meaning of spiritual words. It is as if our senses are dead. In order to have our spiritual senses restored, we need someone to heal us. Only Christ can provide the necessary healing to open our spiritual eyes and ears.

The Parable of the Wheat and the Tares

24Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; 25but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. 26But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared. 27So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?' 28He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us then to go and gather them up?' 29But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but [x]gather the wheat into my barn."'"

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

31Another parable He put forth to them, saying: [y]"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, 32which indeed is the least of all the seeds; but when it is grown it is greater than the herbs and becomes a [z]tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

33[a]Another parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures* of meal till [b]it was all leavened."

Prophecy and the Parables

34[c]All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them, 35that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

> [d]"I will open My mouth in parables;
> *[e]I will utter things kept secret from the foundation of the world."

The Parable of the Tares Explained

36Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37He answered and said to them: "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38[f]The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are [g]the sons of the wicked one. 39The enemy who sowed them is the devil, [h]the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. 40Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. 41The Son of Man will send out His angels, [i]and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42[j]and will cast them into the furnace of fire. [k]There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43[l]Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. [m]He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and [n]sells all that he has and [o]buys that field.

* 13:33 Greek sata, approximately two pecks in all
* 13:35 Psalm 78:2

13:25 his enemy came and sowed tares. Tares are weeds which closely resemble wheat, but which do not produce good food. They are indistinguishable from the real wheat until the fruit appears. Just like the tares among the wheat, genuine believers and counterfeits will be allowed to remain together.
13:31 like a mustard seed. The parable of the mustard seed shows that the number of people who will inherit the kingdom will be very small at first, but it will grow to be completely out of proportion to its initial size.
13:33 like leaven. Although leaven is sometimes used in Scripture to symbolize evil, here the kingdom of heaven is being compared to the dynamic character of yeast. When yeast is mixed with the dough, it expands from within, causing the dough to grow. Rather than being powered by outward armies or organizations, the kingdom of God will grow by the internal power of the Holy Spirit.
13:42 Hell—This verse describes the separation that comes between the righteous and the wicked at the end of the age. The place of their eternal dwelling is described as a "furnace of fire," perhaps because fire is one of man's most vivid concepts of suffering. Some think that there is no real, actual hell of fire, and that instead the wicked simply cease to exist, but this is difficult to support. The Scriptures consistently speak of hell as a real place of torment and anguish for all who do not receive the salvation that Jesus offers.
13:44 like treasure. The main point here is the immense value of the kingdom, which far outweighs any sacrifice or inconvenience one might encounter on earth.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, 46 who,
when he had found [p]one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Dragnet

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and [q]gathered some of every kind, 48 which,
when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. 49 So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, [r]separate the wicked from among the just, 50 and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51 Jesus said to them,* "Have you understood all these things?"

They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."*

52 Then He said to them, "Therefore every scribe instructed concerning* the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure [s]things new and old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there. 54 [t]When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? 55 [u]Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And [v]His brothers [w]James, Joses,* Simon, and Judas? 56 And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?" 57 So they [x]were offended at Him.

But Jesus said to them, [y]"A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house." 58 Now [z]He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time [a]Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."
3 [b]For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife.
4 Because John had said to him, [c]"It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, [d]because they counted him
as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod. 7 Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

8 So she, having been prompted by her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter."

9 And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her. 10 So he sent and had John beheaded in prison. 11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12 Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

Feeding the Five Thousand

13 [e]When Jesus heard it, He departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities. 14 And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He [f]was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick. 15 [g]When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."

16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

17 And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."

18 He said, "Bring them here to Me."
19 Then He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, [h]He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes. 20 So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained. 21 Now those who had eaten were 14:3 for the sake of Herodias. Herod had gone to Rome, where he met Herodias, the wife of his half brother Philip. After seducing Herodias, Herod divorced his own wife and married his sister-in-law. John had rebuked the king for his moral transgressions.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

22 Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away. 23 [i]And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. [j]Now when evening came, He was alone there. 24 But the boat was now in the middle of the sea,* tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.

25 Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw Him [k]walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.

27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good [l]cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."

28 And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

29 So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw that the wind was boisterous,* he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

31 And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of [m]little faith, why did you doubt?"

32 And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

33 Then those who were in the boat came and* worshiped Him, saying, "Truly [n]You are the Son of God."

Many Touch Him and Are Made Well

34 [o]When they had crossed over, they came to the land of* Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent out into all that surrounding region, brought to Him all who were sick, 36 and begged Him that they might only [p]touch the hem of His garment. And [q]as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

Defilement Comes from Within

15 Then [a]the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, 2 [b]"Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? 4 For God commanded, saying, [c]'Honor your father and your mother';* and, [d]*'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.' 5 But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, [e]"Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to God"— 6 then he need not honor his father or mother.'* Thus you have made the commandment* of God of no effect by your tradition. 7 [f]Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

8 'These[g] people draw near to Me with their mouth,
And honor Me with their lips,*
But their heart is far from Me.
9 And in vain they worship Me,
*[h]Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'"

10 [i]When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand: 11 [j]Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

12 Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"

13 But He answered and said, [k]"Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. 14 Let them alone. [l]They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

15:3 tradition. The scribes and Pharisees were placing their own views above the revelation of God, and yet claimed to be following Him.

15:7 Hypocrites. The Pharisees had laid down many rigid and inflexible laws concerning diet, Sabbath day activities, ceremonial washings, and many other traditions. Not only did this reduce spiritual service to a harsh system of dos and don'ts, it also caused everyone, Pharisees included, to look for loopholes of escape from the burden of so many laws and rules. The ultimate outcome was religious hypocrisy. Christ came both to fulfill the law (5:17–18) and also to free us from its penalty (Gal. 3:13).

eliminated? 18 But [p]those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile a man. 19 [q]For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. 20 These are the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile
a man."

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

21 [r]Then Jesus went out from there and departed to the region of Tyre and Sidon.
22 And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, [s]Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed."
23 But He answered her not a word.
And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."
24 But He answered and said, [t]"I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house
of Israel."
25 Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"
26 But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little [u]dogs." 27 And she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."
28 Then Jesus answered and said to her,
"O woman, [v]great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Jesus Heals Great Multitudes

29 [w]Jesus departed from there, [x]skirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the mountain and sat down there. 30 [y]Then great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' [z]feet, and He healed them. 31 So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they [a]glorified the God
of Israel.

Feeding the Four Thousand

32 [b]Now Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."
33 [c]Then His disciples said to Him,
"Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to fill such a great multitude?"
34 Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"
And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."
35 So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. 36 And [d]He took the seven loaves and the fish and [e]gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitude. 37 So they all ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that were left. 38 Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 [f]And He sent away the multitude, got into the boat, and came to the region of Magdala.*

The Pharisees and Sadducees Seek a Sign

16 Then the [a]Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that
He would show them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red'; 3 and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites!* You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times. 4 [b]A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet* Jonah." And He left them and departed.

15:18 come from the heart. As we think in our hearts, or inner beings, so we are. The raw material of our actions is what we take into our minds and allow to settle in our hearts. David put it this way: "Your word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You" (Ps. 119:11). The other side is seen in Psalm 101:3 "I will set nothing wicked before my eyes." Paul says the believer must bring "every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor. 10:5).

15:22 Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. The woman was a Gentile who would have had no natural claim on the Jewish Messiah.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5Now [c]when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. 6Then Jesus said to them, [d]"Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

7And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."

8But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you have brought no bread?* 9[e]Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? 10[f]Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up? 11How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

13When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, [g]"Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

14So they said, [h]"Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or [i]one of the prophets."

15He said to them, "But who do [j]you say that I am?"

16Simon Peter answered and said, [k]"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, [l]for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but [m]My Father who is in heaven. 18And I also say to you that [n]you are Peter, and [o]on this rock I will build My church, and [p]the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. 19[q]And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed* in heaven."

20[r]Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21From that time Jesus began [s]to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

22Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!"

23But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, [t]Satan! [u]You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

24[v]Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and [w]follow Me. 25For [x]whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26For what [y]profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or [z]what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 27For [a]the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father [b]with His angels, [c]and then He will reward each according to his works. 28Assuredly, I say to you, [d]there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

* 16:8 NU-Text reads you have no bread.
* 16:19 Or will have been bound … will have been loosed

16:11–12 leaven. In Scripture, leaven is often used as a symbol of evil. The doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees was hypocrisy and legalism, political opportunism, and spiritual hardness.

16:16 Church—Peter's confession "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" is the foundation on which the church is built. Never mind how small the apostolic band may be, the church is indestructible, and with unsurpassed power overcomes Satan and cannot be overcome. The power comes from God, the Creator of the universe, Owner and Master of the church. All the church has is derived from and dependent on the Almighty Son of God.

16:18 The Origin of the Church—The church was a mystery (not clearly revealed) in the Old Testament. Christ prophesied in these words spoken to Peter, "on this rock I will build My church." There is a play here on the word rock, which also happens to be Peter's name. Jesus said, "you are Peter" (masculine, petros) and "on this rock" (feminine, petra) "I will build My church." The Holy Spirit came upon the church on the Day of Pentecost in response to Peter's sermon when "three thousand souls were added to them" (Acts 2:41). This group, along with the original disciples, became "the church."

16:28 not taste death. In the transfiguration, Peter, James, and John saw a preview of the kingdom. Jesus was explaining that very soon those three disciples would see Him glorified as He will be in the kingdom.

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

17 Now [a]after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; 2and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. 3And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. 4Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us* make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5*b*While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [c]"This is My beloved Son, [d]in whom I am well pleased. [e]Hear Him!" 6f*And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid. 7But Jesus came and [g]touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid." 8When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

10And His disciples asked Him, saying, [h]"Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11Jesus answered and said to them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first* and will [i]restore all things. 12j*But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they [k]did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise [l]the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands." 13m*Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

A Boy Is Healed

14*n*And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying, 15"Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic* and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him."

17Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and [o]perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me." 18And Jesus [p]rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

19Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

20So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief;* for assuredly, I say to you, [q]if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. 21However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."*

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

22*r*Now while they were staying* in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, 23and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly [s]sorrowful.

Peter and His Master Pay Their Taxes

24*t*When they had come to Capernaum,* those who received the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?"

25He said, "Yes."

And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from [u]strangers?"

26Peter said to Him, "From strangers."

Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free. 27Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you will find a piece of money;* take that and give it to them for Me and you."

17:3 Moses and Elijah. This amazing experience was not only to show the disciples that Jesus was God's Son, but also to show them that He supersedes the law and the prophets and that they were subordinate to Him. It also explained that what Jesus was doing was no mystery to the Old Testament. The Old Testament people had been long looking forward to the Messiah and His kingdom.

17:11–13 Elijah. Jesus indicates that the prophecies concerning Elijah had their fulfillment in John the Baptist, yet because the restoration is not complete, many conclude that the role of Elijah will be taken up by one of the two witnesses of Revelation 11:3–6.

17:24 temple tax. This was a tax given annually by every adult Jewish male over 20 years of age for maintaining the temple. It was based on Exodus 30:13, and amounted to two days' wages for a common laborer.

17:25 strangers. Most likely this means the king taxed the common people and not the imperial family.

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At [a]that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

2 Then Jesus called a little [b]child to Him, set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, [c]unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. 4 [d]Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 [e]Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.

Jesus Warns of Offenses

6 [f]"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe to the world because of offenses! For [g]offenses must come, but [h]woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

8 [i]"If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire. 9 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

10 "Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven [j]their angels always [k]see the face of My Father who is in heaven. 11 [l]For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.*

12 [m]"What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying? 13 And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. 14 Even so it is not the [n]will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

Dealing with a Sinning Brother

15 "Moreover [o]if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, [p]you have gained your brother. 16 But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that [q]'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.'* 17 And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a [r]heathen and a tax collector.

18 "Assuredly, I say to you, [s]whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

19 [t]"Again I say* to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, [u]it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. 20 For where two or three are gathered [v]together in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

21 Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [w]Up to seven times?"

22 Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, [x]up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. 23 Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. 24 And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25 But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded [y]that he be sold, with 18:3 converted. To be "converted" means to turn around, to take a different course (Luke 22:32).

18:10 their angels. This verse seems to imply that angels watch over and serve His followers on earth (Heb. 1:14).

18:16 two or three witnesses. The principle of witnesses is taken from Deuteronomy 19:15. Evidently, in this case they are to witness that the offended brother is acting in good faith and the right spirit in attempting to work towards reconciliation. They would also be witnesses to any agreement.

18:17 church. Unfortunately "discipline" has sometimes been reduced to a merely negative concept. To be sure, discipline includes the notion of punishment and correction, but church discipline in this context clearly has the restoration of the offender in view. Severe measures may sometimes need to be taken with an erring brother or sister, but restoration and reconciliation should always be the goal.

18:22 seventy times seven. Some translations say "seventy-seven times." Whichever number is used, the point is the same: be ready to forgive over and over again, past counting. This verse does not only apply to forgiveness for seventy times seven different sins. Sometimes, we may have to consciously decide to forgive and let go of an old hurt again and again, "seventy times seven."

28"But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!' 29So his fellow servant fell down at his feet* and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'* 30And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt. 31So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done. 32Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you [z]all that debt because you begged me. 33Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' 34And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.

Marriage and Divorce

19 Now it came to pass, [a]when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2[b]And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.

3The Pharisees also came to Him, testing Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"

4And He answered and said to them, "Have you not read that He who made* them at the beginning [c]'made them male and female,'* 5and said, [d]'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and [e]the two shall become one flesh'?* 6So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

7They said to Him, [f]"Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?"

8He said to them, "Moses, because of the [g]hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your [h]wives, but from the beginning it was not so. 9[i]And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality,* and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery."

10His disciples said to Him, [j]"If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is better not to marry."

Jesus Teaches on Celibacy

11But He said to them, [k]"All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given: 12For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and [l]there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13[m]Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. 14But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for [n]of such is the kingdom of heaven." 15And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

16[o]Now behold, one came and said to Him, [p]"Good* Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?"

17So He said to him, "Why do you call Me good?* No one is [q]good but One, that is, God.* But if you want to enter into life, [r]keep the commandments."

18He said to Him, "Which ones?"

18:35 forgive. This verse is a serious warning (1 John 4:20).

19:9 divorces his wife. When the Pharisees asked Jesus if divorce could ever be considered lawful, He did not fall into their trap. He took them back to Genesis and God's original intent in marriage, one man and one woman for life (vv. 4–5; Gen. 1:27; 2:24). In spite of the "exception clause," one thing is surely clear: God hates divorce (Mal. 2:15–16). Marriage is a divine arrangement that is intended to be permanent and inviolable. Straying from God's path always has tragic consequences.

19:12 eunuchs. The term eunuch refers to a castrated man, whether by surgery, accident, or birth. In the ancient world, eunuchs were put in charge of harems, because they had the physical strength and endurance of a man, but would not be a sexual threat to the women of the harem.

20The young man said to Him, "All these things I have [v]kept from my youth.* What do I still lack?"

21Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, [w]go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that [x]it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

25When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

26But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but [y]with God all things are possible."

27Then Peter answered and said to Him, "See, [z]we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?"

28So Jesus said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, [a]you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29[b]And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife* or children or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. 30[c]But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4and said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went. 5Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle,* and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day?' 7They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.'*

8"So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.' 9And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius. 10But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received each a denarius. 11And when they had received it, they complained against the landowner, 12saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.' 13But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you. 15[a]Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or [b]is your eye evil because I am good?' 16[c]So the last will be first, and the first last. [d]For many are called, but few chosen."*

19:21 sell what you have. This verse does not teach salvation by works (Rom. 3:23–24; Eph. 2:8–9). Rather, Jesus was proving that the rich young man could not have truly fulfilled all of the law of Moses. If he really loved his neighbor as the law required (Lev. 19:18), he would not have had any difficulty in giving away his wealth to the poor.

19:23–24 it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom. The point of this seems to be that fear of losing one's wealth can hold a person back to the extent that they will never become saved at all. One of the things that goes with being saved is saying, "God's way, not my way."

20:3 third hour. This was about 9:00 A.M.

20:5 the sixth and the ninth hour. This was about noon and about 3:00 P.M.

20:6 the eleventh hour. This was about 5:00 P.M. There would be only an hour or so left in the working day.

20:16 the last will be first. The workers who were collected without an agreement represent the Gentiles who are made equal with the Jewish people when salvation became available to all through Jesus Christ (Rom. 11:15; Eph. 2:13–15; 3:6).

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

17 [e]Now Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them, 18 [f]"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, 19 [g]and deliver Him to the Gentiles to [h]mock and to [i]scourge and to [j]crucify. And the third day He will [k]rise again."

Greatness Is Serving

20 [l]Then the mother of [m]Zebedee's sons came to Him with her sons, kneeling down and asking something from Him.
21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?"
She said to Him, "Grant that these two sons of mine [n]may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom."
22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink [o]the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with [p]the baptism that I am baptized with?"*
They said to Him, "We are able."
23 So He said to them, [q]"You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;* but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father."
24 [r]And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the two brothers.
25 But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. 26 Yet [s]it shall not be so among you; but [t]whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. 27 [u]And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—28 [v]just as the [w]Son of Man did not come to be served, [x]but to serve, and [y]to give His life a ransom [z]for many."

Two Blind Men Receive Their Sight

29 [a]Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. 30 And behold, [b]two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, [c]Son of David!" 31 Then the multitude [d]warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"
32 So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for
you?"
33 They said to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened." 34 So Jesus had [e]compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 Now [a]when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,* at [b]the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her.
Loose them and bring them to Me. 3 And if anyone says anything to you, you shall say,
'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."
4 All* this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet,
saying:

5 "Tell[c] the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your King is coming to you,
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
*A colt, the foal of a donkey.'"

6 [d]So the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them. 7 They brought the donkey and the colt, [e]laid their clothes on them, and set *Him on them. 8 And a very great multitude spread their clothes on the road; [f]others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9 Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
[g]'Blessed is He who comes in the name
*of the LORD!'
Hosanna in the highest!"

21:2 a donkey tied. This was prophesied in Zechariah 9:9.
21:9 Hosanna. Hosanna literally means "save now." The people were using it as an exclamation of joyous praise, but also they expected the Messiah to save them from the oppression of the Romans.

10 [h]And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"
11 So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, [i]the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 [j]Then Jesus went into the temple of God* and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the [k]money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 13 And He said to them, "It is written, [l]'My house shall be called a house of prayer,'* but you have made it a [m]'den of thieves.'"*
14 Then the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the [n]Son of David!" they were indignant 16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?"
And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read,

> [o]'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
> You have perfected praise'?"*

17 Then He left them and [p]went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there.

The Fig Tree Withered

18 [q]Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. 19 [r]And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." Immediately the fig tree withered away.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 [s]And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither away so soon?"
21 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, [t]if you have faith and [u]do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, [v]but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done. 22 And [w]whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

Jesus' Authority Questioned

23 [x]Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and [y]said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"
24 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things: 25 The [z]baptism of [a]John—where was it from? From heaven or from men?"
And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we [b]fear the multitude, [c]for all count John as a prophet." 27 So they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know."
And He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my [d]vineyard.' 29 He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went. 30 Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?"
They said to Him, "The first."
Jesus said to them, "[e]Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you. 32 For [f]John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; [g]but tax collectors and harlots believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward relent and believe him.

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

33 "Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner [h]who planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and [i]went into 21:21 faith. Few if any besides our Savior will reach this kind of faith in its fullness. However, as each believer approaches such faith in prayer, his effort will be rewarded. Answers are always given, even to the feeblest prayers of faith.

21:33 planted a vineyard. The owner of the vineyard was God; the vinedressers were the people of Israel. The servants represent God's messengers, and the son is Jesus the Messiah.

a far country. 34Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit. 35[j]And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. 36Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them. 37Then last of all he sent his [k]son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, [l]'This is the heir. [m]Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' 39[n]So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40"Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"

41[o]They said to Him, [p]"He will destroy those wicked men miserably, [q]and lease his vineyard to other vinedressers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons."

42Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

> [r]'The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone.
> This was the LORD*'s doing,*
> And it is marvelous in our eyes'?*

43"Therefore I say to you, [s]the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it. 44And [t]whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, [u]it will grind him to powder."

45Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they perceived that He was speaking of them. 46But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they [v]feared the multitudes, because [w]they took Him for a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 And Jesus answered [q]and spoke to them again by parables and said: 2"The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son, 3and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come. 4Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "See, I have prepared my dinner; [b]my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding."' 5But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business. 6And the rest seized his servants, treated them spitefully, and killed them. 7But when the king heard about it, he was furious. And he sent out [c]his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not [d]worthy. 9Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.' 10So those servants went out into the highways and [e]gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11"But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there [f]who did not have on a wedding garment. 12So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?' And he was [g]speechless. 13Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and* cast him [h]into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14[i]"For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

15[j]Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk. 16And they sent to Him their disciples with the [k]Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not regard the person of men. 17Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test Me, you hypocrites? 19Show Me the tax money."

So they brought Him a denarius.

20And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

21:42 cornerstone. The rejected stone was the Messiah, who became the head cornerstone, the one holding the whole building together (Ps. 118:22–23).

21:11 did not have on a wedding garment. Like the others, this visitor had been invited to the wedding, but he failed to prepare himself for it. In Revelation, the garment of fine linen worn by the bride of the Lamb is said to be the righteous deeds of the saints (Rev. 19:8). In this parable the garment may refer to the righteousness of Christ, graciously provided for us through His death. To refuse to put it on would mean a refusal of Christ's sacrifice.

22:14 many are called, but few are chosen. All Israel has been invited, but only a few will accept and follow Jesus. Not all those invited will be among the chosen of God, for not all will believe.

And He said to them, [l]"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are [m]Caesar's, and to God the things that are [n]God's." 22 When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left Him and went their way.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

23 [o]The same day the Sadducees, [p]who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 24 saying: "Teacher, [q]Moses said that if a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 25 Now there were with us seven brothers. The first died after he had married, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, even to the seventh. 27 Last of all the woman died also. 28 Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her."
29 Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, [r]not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but [s]are like angels of God* in heaven. 31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 [t]'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?* God is not the God of the dead, but of the living." 33 And when the multitudes heard this, [u]they were astonished at His teaching.

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

34 [v]But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. 35 Then one of them, [w]a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"
37 Jesus said to him, [x]"'You shall love the LORD *your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it: [y]*'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 [z]On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

41 [a]While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?"
They said to Him, "The [b]Son of David."
43 He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:

44 'The[c] LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"'?*

45 If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?" 46 [d]And no one was able to answer Him a word, [e]nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore.

Woe to the Scribes and Pharisees

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples, 2 saying: [a]"The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. 3 Therefore whatever they tell you to observe,* that observe and do, but do not do according to their works; for [b]they say, and do not do. 4 [c]For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. 5 But all their works they do to [d]be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. 6 [e]They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, 7 greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.' 8 [f]But you, do not be

22:21 things that are Caesar's. When one subjects oneself to the state and accepts its protection and benefits, one is obligated to support it and obey its laws until it becomes sinful to do so (Rom. 13:1–7; 1 Pet. 2:13–17). But giving back to God what is His reaches far deeper than obedience to the state. Man has a duty to give himself to God, with all he is and all that he has.
22:42–45 Christ . . . Whose Son is He? The Old Testament foretold that the Messiah would come from David's royal line (2 Sam. 7:12–16; Ps. 89:3–4,34–36; Is. 9:7; 16:5; 55:3–4).
22:44 The LORD said to my Lord. The Hebrew text of Psalm 110:1 uses two different Hebrew words for "Lord." The first, translated "LORD," is the name Yahweh, the proper name of Israel's God. The second "Lord" means "master." David, the great king of Israel, calls one of his offspring "Lord" or "master." The implication is that Jesus, the Son of David, is divine.

23:5 phylacteries. Phylacteries were small boxes containing specific Scripture passages, in fulfillment of Deuteronomy 6:8 (Ex. 13:9,16; Prov. 3:3; 6:21; 7:3). They were worn on the forehead or arm. In order to be seen as especially righteous, some Pharisees wore conspicuously large phylacteries.
23:7 Rabbi. The title "rabbi" means "teacher."

called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ,* and you are all brethren. 9Do not call anyone on earth your father; [g]for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. 10And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ. 11But [h]he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. 12[i]And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

13"But [j]woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in. 14Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [k]For you devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.*

15"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel land and sea to win one proselyte, and when he is won, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves.

16"Woe to you, [l]blind guides, who say, [m]'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obliged to perform it.' 17Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold [n]or the temple that sanctifies* the gold? 18And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obliged to perform it.' 19Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift [o]or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it. 21He who swears by the temple, swears by it and by [p]Him who dwells* in it. 22And he who swears by heaven, swears by [q]the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

23"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [r]For you pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and [s]have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone. 24Blind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

25"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [t]For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence.* 26Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [u]For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. 28Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29[v]"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, 30and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

31"Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that [w]you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32[x]Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. 33Serpents, [y]brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? 34[z]Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: [a]some of them you will kill and crucify, and [b]some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, 35[c]that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, [d]from the blood of righteous Abel to [e]the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. 36Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

37[f]"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets [g]and stones those who are sent to her! How often [h]I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks [i]under her wings, but you were not willing! 38See! Your house is left to you desolate; 39for I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say,

23:10 do not be called teachers. This verse is a warning against the human tendency to replace a personal relationship with God with following an earthly leader. No matter how dynamic or even how godly such a leader is, as soon as people start looking to that person rather than to God, they have created an idol.

23:24 swallow a camel. The Pharisees would literally "strain out a gnat" in order not to violate Leviticus 11:41–43, but they swallowed "a camel" by neglecting mercy, justice, and faith.

23:25–26 but inside. The inside of the cup represents a person's character. Sometimes those who most loudly protest the sins of others are secretly guilty of those or worse sins themselves.

23:35 Abel . . . Zechariah. Abel was the first person murdered in the Old Testament (Gen. 4:8); Zechariah was the last. His death is recorded in 2 Chronicles 24:20–22, the last book of the Hebrew canon.

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

24 Then [a]Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. 2And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, [b]not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

3Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, [c]the disciples came to Him privately, saying, [d]"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

4And Jesus answered and said to them: [e]"Take heed that no one deceives you. 5For [f]many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' [g]and will deceive many. 6And you will hear of [h]wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all* these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7For [i]nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be [j]famines, pestilences,* and earthquakes in various places. 8All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9[k]"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. 10And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. 11Then [l]many false prophets will rise up and [m]deceive many. 12And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow [n]cold. 13[o]But he who endures to the end shall be saved. 14And this [p]gospel of the kingdom [q]will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

15[r]"Therefore when you see the [s]*'abomination of desolation,' spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" [t](whoever reads, let him understand), 16"then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. 18And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. 19But [u]woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 20And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath. 21For [v]then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall

24:1 temple. The first temple, built by Solomon, was destroyed by the Babylonians in 586 B.C. The second temple, built under the encouragement of Haggai and Zechariah, and the leadership of Zerubbabel and Joshua (Hag. 1:1), was completed after considerable delay in 516 B.C. This second temple was lavishly restored by Herod the Great, but not completed until A.D. 64. It stood completed for only six years before it was reduced to rubble by the Romans. The devastation in A.D. 70 was so complete that the precise location is still unknown today.

24:4 Take heed that no one deceives you. Jesus' warning about being deceived was especially appropriate for the disciples. The destruction of Jerusalem did not necessarily mean the nearness of the end of the age. This principle was a point of confusion for them (Luke 19:11–27; Acts 1:6–7).

24:6 must come to pass. This indicates a divine or logical necessity. Such things will happen because of the people's sin. False messiahs had existed before (Acts 5:36–38) and false preachers would come in the future (Acts 20:29; 2 Cor. 11:13–15). Verses 4–6 may describe the first part of Daniel's seventieth week (Dan. 9:25–27), but possibly they present a general picture of the present age.

24:7 famines . . . and earthquakes. These disasters are more fully described in Revelation 6:1–8; 8:5–23; 9:13–21; and 16:2–21.

24:10 Apostasy—Satan is a subtle adversary who works as an angel of light through false religious teachers (2 Cor. 11:14–15), and many will be misled. Apostasy is also the result of persecution. Jesus speaks of temporary faith, and says that a falling away often occurs when "tribulation or persecution arises because of the word" (13:21). Perseverance in faith and in the accompanying results of faith are positive evidence of a genuine Christian profession.

24:15 abomination of desolation. The abomination of desolation literally means "the abomination that makes desolate." This prophecy comes from Daniel, specifically Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. Many believe that Daniel 11:31 refers to Antiochus IV, who desecrated the temple by sacrificing a pig on its altar and setting up an idol to Zeus in it. His actions were certainly a prelude to what the ultimate "man of sin" will do. In A.D. 70, Titus destroyed Jerusalem, burned the temple, and set up an idol to mock the Jews. Significantly, Paul speaks of the Antichrist at the end times also setting himself up as a god (2 Thess. 2:3–4; Rev. 13:14–15).

24:16 flee. At the time of the war ending in the destruction of the temple in A.D. 70, many of the Christians did flee, hiding in the clefts of Petra. Some believe that the final fulfillment of this prophecy will occur in the future desecration of the temple (Dan. 9:27) and the subsequent setting up of an image of the "man of sin" in the Most Holy Place.

be. 22And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; [w]but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened.

23[x]"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it. 24For [y]false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, [z]if possible, even the elect. 25See, I have told you beforehand.

26"Therefore if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it. 27[a]For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 28[b]For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

29[c]"Immediately after the tribulation of those days [d]the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 30[e]Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, [f]and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31[g]And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

32"Now learn [h]this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 33So you also, when you see all these things, know [i]that it* is near—at the doors! 34Assuredly, I say to you, [j]this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. 35[k]Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

36[l]"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven,* [m]but My Father only. 37But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 38[n]For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 40[o]Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. 41Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. 42[p]Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour* your Lord is coming. 43[q]But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44[r]Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

45[s]"Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? 46[t]Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing. 47Assuredly, I say to you that [u]he will make him ruler over all his goods. 48But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master [v]is delaying his coming,'* 49and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, 50the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is [w]not aware of, 51and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. [x]There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

24:24 signs and wonders. Miracles by themselves do not prove that something is of God (7:21–23; 2 Thess. 2:9; Rev. 13:13–15). The teaching of those who perform signs and wonders must be tested against correct doctrine (Deut. 13:1–5; 1 John 4:1–3), and by the witness of God's Spirit (John 10:3–5,27).

24:29 Immediately after. This verse moves chronologically to the close of the tribulation, a period that will be marked by monumental cosmic disturbances (Is. 13:10; 34:4; Ezek. 32:7–8; Joel 2:30–31; 3:15; Hag. 2:6; Zech. 14:6; Rev. 6:12–14).

24:34 this generation. "Generation" may mean "race," indicating that Israel as a people will not cease to exist before God fulfills His promises to them. Another possibility is that the word describes a particular era in which people will see the end times. That is, the events will occur so rapidly that all will happen within one generation. Perhaps both interpretations are true.

24:36 that day and hour no one knows. Mark 13:32 indicates that even Jesus Himself did not know the exact time of His return. When the Lord Jesus was on earth, He voluntarily limited His use of His divine attributes (John 17:4–5; Phil. 2:5–8). Therefore He became hungry, thirsty, and tired. In this instance, Jesus surrendered the use of His divine omniscience.

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet [a]the bridegroom. 2[b]Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5But while the bridegroom was delayed, [c]they all slumbered and slept.

6"And at midnight [d]a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming;* go out to meet him!' 7Then all those virgins arose and [e]trimmed their lamps. 8And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and [f]the door was shut.

11"Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, [g]'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, [h]I do not know you.'

13[i]"Watch therefore, for you [j]know neither the day nor the hour* in which the Son of Man is coming.

The Parable of the Talents

14[k]"For the kingdom of heaven is [l]like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. 15And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, [m]to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. 16Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. 18But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money. 19After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

20"So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' 21His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were [n]faithful over a few things, [o]I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into [p]the joy of your lord.' 22He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' 23His lord said to him, [q]'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into [r]the joy of your lord.'

24"Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.'

26"But his lord answered and said to him, 'You [s]wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. 27So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. 28So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

29[t]'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. 30And cast the unprofitable servant [u]into the outer darkness. [v]There will be weeping and [w]gnashing of teeth.'

The Son of Man Will Judge the Nations

31[x]"When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy* angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. 32[y]All the nations will be gathered before Him, and [z]He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his

25:10 the bridegroom came. Christ's return is often compared to a wedding (22:1–14; Rev. 19:7–8).

25:14 delivered his goods to them. The parable of the talents illustrates the faith required of God's servants.

25:15 talents. A talent was a large sum of money, about six thousand denarii.

25:23 I will make you ruler over many things. The first two servants received the same reward, based on their faithfulness, not on the size of their responsibilities. The smallest task in God's work may receive a great reward if we are faithful in performing it (10:42).

25:32–40 Judgment—The Final Judgment will be according to the evidence, not according to what was professed but what was practiced. It will be not according to what was said, but what was done. These works cannot earn salvation, but they are works of love which reflect a life redeemed by the saving work of Christ through the Holy Spirit (Gal. 5:6). Love for God is demonstrated by love for man (1 John 4:20).

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples, 2[a]"You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3[b]Then the chief priests, the scribes,* and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, 4and [c]plotted to take Jesus by trickery and kill Him. 5But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the [d]people."

The Anointing at Bethany

6And when Jesus was in [e]Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, 7a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table. 8[f]But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste? 9For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."

10But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me. 11[g]For you have the poor with you always, but [h]Me you do not have always. 12For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My [i]burial. 13Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14[j]Then one of the twelve, called [k]Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15and said, [l]"What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver. 16So from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates Passover with His Disciples

17[m]Now on the first day of the Feast of the Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, [n]"My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples."'"

19So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

20[o]When evening had come, He sat down with the twelve. 21Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will [p]betray Me."

22And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

23He answered and said, [q]"He who dipped his hand with Me in the dish will

26:14 one of the twelve. The enormity of Judas' sin is seen in these words: Jesus was betrayed by one of His own best friends.

26:15 thirty pieces of silver. Thirty pieces of silver was the price of a slave (Ex. 21:32). Zechariah prophesied this sum (Zech. 11:12–13).

26:21 one of you will betray Me. This statement indicates the Lord's omniscience. Repeatedly, Christ unveiled evidence of His deity to His disciples.

25 Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?"

He said to him, "You have said it."

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

26 [u]And as they were eating, [v]Jesus took bread, blessed* and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; [w]this is My body."

27 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, [x]"Drink from it, all of you. 28 For [y]this is My blood [z]of the new* covenant, which is shed [a]for many for the remission of sins. 29 But [b]I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on [c]until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 [d]And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 Then Jesus said to them, [e]"All of you will [f]be made to stumble because of Me this night, for it is written:

> [g]'I will strike the Shepherd,
> And the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'*

32 But after I have been raised, [h]I will go before you to Galilee."

33 Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."

34 Jesus said to him, [i]"Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

35 Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!"

And so said all the disciples.

The Prayer in the Garden

36 [j]Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there." 37 And He took with Him Peter and [k]the two sons of Zebedee, and He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. 38 Then He said to them, [l]"My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."

39 He went a little farther and fell on His face, and [m]prayed, saying, [n]"O My Father, if it is possible, [o]let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, [p]not as I will, but as You will."

40 Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What! Could you not watch with Me one hour? 41 [q]Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. [r]The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless* I drink it, Your will be done." 43 And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

44 So He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. 45 Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being [s]betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And [t]while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him." 49 Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" [u]and kissed Him.

50 But Jesus said to him, [v]"Friend, why have you come?"

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. 51 And suddenly, [w]one of those who were with Jesus stretched out

26:26–28 My body . . . My blood. The Lord Jesus, at this last meal with His disciples before He went to the cross, instituted this ordinance for His church throughout this age. It is called "the Lord's Supper" (1 Cor. 11:20). Using common everyday items, the bread and wine that could be found on any table, no matter how poor, He gave us a "remembrance" so that we would never forget that His broken body and shed blood bought salvation for us.

26:28 My blood of the new covenant. This refers to the new covenant promised in the Old Testament (Jer. 31:31–34; 32:37–44; Ezek. 34:25–31; 37:26–28).

26:36 Gethsemane. The name "Gethsemane" means "oil press." This garden was east of Jerusalem on the Mount of Olives. In the place where olives were crushed and ground, the Anointed One was crushed.

26:51 one of those. John 18:10 informs us that the impetuous swordsman was Peter. This action was performed with one of the two swords that the disciples had (Luke 22:38).

his hand and drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

52But Jesus said to him, "Put your sword in its place, [x]for all who take the sword will perish* by the sword. 53Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with [y]more than twelve legions of angels? 54How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, [z]that it must happen thus?"

55In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me. 56But all this was done that the [a]Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."

Then [b]all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

57[c]And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. 58But [d]Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

59Now the chief priests, the elders,* and all the council sought [e]false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, 60but found none. Even though [f]many false witnesses came forward, they found none.* But at last [g]two false witnesses* came forward 61and said, "This fellow said, [h]'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'"

62[i]And the high priest arose and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?" 63But [j]Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, [k]"I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"

64Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, [l]hereafter you will see the Son of Man [m]sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65[n]Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His [o]blasphemy! 66What do you think?"

They answered and said, [p]"He is deserving of death."

67[q]Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and [r]others struck Him with the palms of their hands, 68saying, [s]"Prophesy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?"

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

69[t]Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

70But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

71And when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"

73And a little later those who stood by came up and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, for your [u]speech betrays you."

74Then [v]he began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!"

Immediately a rooster crowed. 75And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, [w]"Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." So he went out and wept bitterly.

26:53 twelve legions of angels. A legion in the Roman army was about six thousand men. When one considers the power of one angel (Ex. 32:23; 2 Sam. 24:15–17; 2 Kin. 19:35) the power of more than 72,000 angels is beyond comprehension. Jesus had all of heaven's power at His disposal, yet He refused to use it. His Father's will was for Him to go to the cross.

26:62 Do You answer nothing? In maintaining His silence, Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah 53:7.

26:64 Second Coming—Throughout His ministry, Jesus had applied to Himself the Old Testament prophecies that were acknowledged as messianic by the Jewish teachers. Here, Jesus answers Caiaphas the high priest by combining two well-known messianic prophecies from Psalm 110:1 and Daniel 7:13. The first describes His enthronement and the other His second coming. The final word spoken by Christ to the Jews was about the certainty of His future return. About His first coming Jesus said, "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world" (John 3:17). But the time will come when all the world will see Him enthroned at the right hand of God and given all power and majesty as the judge of the ages.

26:74 Immediately a rooster crowed. Some have detected a contradiction between this passage and the account in Mark 14:72. Others believe that seeing a contradiction is a forced reading of the text. Matthew, Luke, and John make the simple statement that a rooster would crow (Luke 22:61; John 18:27), whereas Mark, which is believed to be based on Peter's memories, would include more exact details.

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

27 When morning came, [a]all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death. 2And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and [b]delivered Him to Pontius* Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

3[c]Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the thirty [d]pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood."

And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"

5Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and [e]departed, and went and hanged himself.

6But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because they are the price of blood." 7And they consulted together and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. 8Therefore that field has been called [f]the Field of Blood to this day.

9Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, [g]"And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced, 10and* [h]gave them for the potter's field, as the LORD *directed me."

Jesus Faces Pilate

11Now Jesus stood before the governor. [i]And the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

Jesus said to him, [j]"It is as you say." 12And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, [k]He answered nothing.

13Then Pilate said to Him, [l]"Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?" 14But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

15[m]Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to releasing to the multitude one prisoner whom they wished. 16And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.* 17Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18For he knew that they had handed Him over because of [n]envy.

19While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just Man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him."

20[o]But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. 21The governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, [p]"Barabbas!"

22Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"

23Then the governor said, [q]"Why, what evil has He done?"

But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but rather that a tumult was rising, he [r]took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just Person.* You see to it."

25And all the people answered and said, [s]"His blood be on us and on our children."

26Then he released Barabbas to them; and when [t]he had scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

27[u]Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole garrison around Him. 28And they [v]stripped Him and [w]put a scarlet robe on Him. 29[x]When they had twisted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30Then [y]they spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on the head.

> [f]"They divided My garments among them,
> *And for My clothing they cast lots."

36 [g]Sitting down, they kept watch over Him there. 37 And they [h]put up over His head the accusation written against Him:

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 [i]Then two robbers were crucified with Him, one on the right and another on the left.

39 And [j]those who passed by blasphemed
Him, wagging their heads 40 and saying, [k]"You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! [l]If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the scribes and elders,* said, 42 "He [m]saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel,* let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.* 43 [n]He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said,
'I am the Son of God.'"

44 [o]Even the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

45 [p]Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land. 46 And about the ninth hour [q]Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, [r]"My God, My *God, why have You forsaken Me?"

47 Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!" 48 Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, [s]filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.

49 The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us
see if Elijah will come to save Him."

50 And Jesus [t]cried out again with a loud voice, and [u]yielded up His spirit.

51 Then, behold, [v]the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split,

27:31 crucified. Crucifixion, a practice probably adopted from Persia, was considered by the Romans to be the cruelest form of execution. This punishment was reserved for the worst criminals. The offender usually died after two or three days of agonizing suffering, enduring not only incomprehensible pain, but also hunger, thirst, and exposure. The offender's arms were nailed to a beam that was hoisted up and fixed to a post, to which his feet were nailed.

27:32 Simon by name. Simon probably was (or later became) a follower of Christ; it is unlikely that he would be referred to by name if he were a stranger to the Christian community (Mark 15:21).

27:34 sour wine mingled with gall. It is believed that this mixture was meant to dull the victim's pain. The prophetic words of Psalm 69:21 were fulfilled here.

27:35 casting lots. The soldiers fulfilled the prophetic words of Psalm 22:18.

27:38 two robbers. This is the fulfillment of Isaiah 53:12, "He was numbered with the transgressors." Psalm 22:6 predicted the insults that would be directed at the Messiah.

27:45 the sixth hour. This would have been noon. The first hour began at sunrise (approximately 6:00 A.M.). darkness. The darkness could not have been due to a natural cause, such as an eclipse of the sun, since the Passover occurred during a full moon. This was a supernatural occurrence.

27:46–50 Atonement—Because God cannot tolerate sin, as Jesus took upon Himself the sin of the whole human race, God had to turn away. Jesus felt this separation, and many believe it was as much for the dread of this as for the physical pain that Jesus wept in the garden. Jesus' cry to God is a quote from Psalm 22:1, a messianic verse that the Jews should have understood.

27:50 cried out again with a loud voice. The cry referred to here by Matthew was, "It is finished" (John 19:30). This was not a cry of exhaustion, but a cry of victory. The purpose for which Jesus came into the world had been accomplished. Redemption from sin had been purchased for all mankind.

27:51 the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The temple had two veils or curtains, one in front of the holy place and the other separating the holy place from the Most Holy Place. These curtains were heavy and very strong and thick. It was the second of these that was torn, demonstrating that through the death of Jesus, there was now open access to God. Jesus' blood covered our sins from God's sight.

52and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; 53and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

54[w]So when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, [x]"Truly this was the Son of God!"

55And many women [y]who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, were there looking on from afar, 56[z]among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses,* and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

57Now [a]when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. 58This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him. 59When Joseph had taken the body,
he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60and
[b]laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.
61And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

Pilate Sets a Guard

62On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate, 63saying, "Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, [c]'After three days I will rise.' 64Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night* and steal Him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."

65Pilate said to them, "You have a guard;
go your way, make it as secure as you know how." 66So they went and made the tomb secure, [d]sealing the stone and setting the guard.

He Is Risen

28 Now [a]after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene [b]and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2And behold, there was a great earthquake; for [c]an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door,* and sat on it. 3[d]His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.
4And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like [e]dead men.

5But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. 6He is not here; for He is risen, [f]as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. 7And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed [g]He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you."

8So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

The Women Worship the Risen Lord

9And as they went to tell His disciples,* behold, [h]Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"
So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. 10Then Jesus said to them,
"Do not be afraid. Go and tell [i]My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

The Soldiers Are Bribed

11Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.' 14And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure." 15So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

The Great Commission

16Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, to the mountain [j]which Jesus had appointed for them. 17When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some [k]doubted.

28:19 Why Share Our Faith—There are at least six compelling reasons for sharing our faith in Christ with those who have not experienced new life in Christ:

1. Because God has commanded us to do so (Acts 1:8).
2. Because it demonstrates our love for God. If we truly love Him we will keep His commandments (John 14:15).
3. Because all are lost without Christ (Rom. 3:10,23).
4. Because this is God's chosen method: He could use angels, but He only uses redeemed sinners to tell lost sinners about Christ (Rom. 10:14–17; 1 Tim. 1:15).
5. Because God desires to save all people (Acts 4:12; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9).
6. Because faith grows best when each generation conscientiously strives to pass it on to the next.

28:20 I am with you always. Jesus is the true Immanuel, "God with us" (1:23; Heb. 13:5–6; Rev. 21:3).

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK

▶ AUTHOR: According to Acts 12:12, Mark's mother Mary had a large house that was used as a meeting place for believers in Jerusalem. Barnabas was Mark's cousin (Col. 4:10), but Peter may have been the person that led him to Christ (Peter called him "Mark my son" in 1 Pet. 5:13). It was this close association with Peter that lent apostolic authority to Mark's Gospel, since Peter was evidently Mark's primary source of information. It has been suggested that Mark was referring to himself in his account of a "certain young man" in Gethsemane (14:51). Since all the disciples had abandoned Jesus (14:50), this little incident may have been a firsthand account.

▶ TIME: c. A.D. 29–33 ▶ KEY VERSES: Mark 8:34–37

▶ THEME: Mark is the shortest and simplest of the Gospels. He doesn't seem to be telling the story in a way that appeals to a particular audience the way Matthew does. He also does not use the well-developed thematic structure that characterizes John. One of the most common terms in the book is one that is translated "immediately" or "at once." He uses this frequently as he moves from one anecdote to another. Mark's quickly paced Gospel is often confrontational, as he tells the story of the gospel as clearly as possible. He wants the reader to respond, and almost seems to be saying, "Here is the truth, believe it, and let's get on with following Jesus."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1 The [a]beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, [b]the Son of God. 2As it is written in the Prophets:*

[c]"Behold, I send My messenger before
Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before
*You."
3 "The[d] voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the
LORD;
*Make His paths straight.'"

4[e]John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. 5[f]Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

6Now John was [g]clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. 7And he preached, saying, [h]"There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. 8[i]I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you [j]with the Holy Spirit."

* 1:2 NU-Text reads Isaiah the prophet. • Malachi 3:1 * 1:3 Isaiah 40:3

1:1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Writing three decades after the resurrection of Christ, Mark starts his narrative with a simple declaration of the good news about God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. The gospel refers to the basic story of the good news to be found in Christ's life, ministry, death, and resurrection.
1:2–3 As it is written. Other than by quoting Jesus, Mark makes only one reference to the Old Testament.
1:4 John came baptizing. The mention of John without any introduction presupposes some knowledge of the Christian faith on the part of Mark's readers.
the remission of sins. This phrase does not mean that one is baptized in order to receive forgiveness of sins. The Greek preposition translated "of" in English probably means "with a view to," signifying that baptism looks to the forgiveness that God gives through the gift of repentance.
1:5 were all baptized by him. John's baptizing was a recurring popular event that attracted large crowds. Mark vividly portrays the continuous stream of followers who flocked to John. As each person was baptized by John, he or she would admit to his or her individual sin and need for the Messiah.
1:7 And he preached, saying. The tense of these verbs indicates continuous action in past time. John's characteristic message was to promote expectancy and acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:8 I indeed baptized you with water. The water is a physical representation of the future life in the Spirit that people who followed the Messiah would have.

John Baptizes Jesus

9 [k]It came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
10 [l]And immediately, coming up from* the water, He saw the heavens parting and the Spirit [m]descending upon Him like a dove.
11 Then a voice came from heaven, [n]"You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Satan Tempts Jesus

12 [o]Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. 13 And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; [p]and the angels ministered to Him.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 [q]Now after John was put in prison,
Jesus came to Galilee, [r]preaching the gospel of the kingdom* of God, 15 and saying,
[s]"The time is fulfilled, and [t]the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

16 [u]And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 17 Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become [v]fishers of men." 18 [w]They immediately left their nets and followed Him.
19 When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. 20 And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

21 [x]Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the [y]synagogue and taught. 22 [z]And they were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.
23 Now there was a man in their synagogue with an [a]unclean spirit. And he cried out, 24 saying, "Let us alone! [b]What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I [c]know who You are—the [d]Holy One of God!" 25 But Jesus [e]rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" 26 And when the unclean spirit [f]had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he came out of him. 27 Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority* He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him." 28 And immediately His [g]fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

29 [h]Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once.
31 So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

32 [i]At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and

1:9 Jesus . . . was baptized by John. Because He had no sins to repent of, Jesus' baptism was unique. It showed His identity with John's work and with the sinner for whom He would die. It also foreshadowed His own death, burial, and resurrection for sinners.
1:11 a voice came from heaven. Three times during Christ's earthly ministry a voice came from heaven. Here it was the Father's testimony to Christ's unique and divine Sonship. The other two confirming incidents were at the transfiguration (9:7) and on the day of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem (John 12:28).
1:13 angels ministered to Him. Mark is the only Gospel that mentions these angels.
1:15 kingdom of God. The kingdom was the subject of much Old Testament prophecy, and the theme was familiar to Jesus' listeners. Repent, and believe. These are both acts of faith. When a person accepts the only true and worthy object of faith, that person readily turns from inferior substitutes.
1:19 James . . . John. The scenes of verses 16–20 are very colorful. Simon and Andrew are fishing when we encounter them. James and John are mending their nets. Such details indicate the testimony of an eyewitness, probably Peter.
1:21 Capernaum. This city is now in ruins, and sits beside the northern edge of the Sea of Galilee. It is mentioned 22 times in the Gospels. By contrast, only one recorded event during Christ's ministry occurred at Nazareth (Luke 4:16).
1:22 they were astonished at His teaching. Christ's teaching differed from that of scribes and Pharisees because He did not lean on the wisdom of other teachers and rabbis. His authority came from Himself.
1:28 His fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee. Mark notes the extent of recognition this great miracle brought Jesus. He also creates suspense by contrasting the people who received Christ with the Pharisees and rulers who worked to bring about His death.

those who were demon-possessed. 33And the whole city was gathered together at the door. 34Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and [j]cast out many demons; and He [k]did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

35Now [l]in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He [m]prayed. 36And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him. 37When they found Him, they said to Him, [n]"Everyone [o]is looking for You."

38But He said to them, [p]"Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because [q]for this purpose I have come forth."

39[r]And He was preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and [s]casting out demons.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

40[t]Now a leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

41Then Jesus, moved with [u]compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed." 42As soon as He had spoken, [v]immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. 43And He strictly warned him and sent him away at once, 44and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things [w]which Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

45[x]However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; [y]and they came to Him from every direction.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

2 And again [a]He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. 2Immediately* many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. 3Then they came to Him, bringing a [b]paralytic who was carried by four men. 4And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7"Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? [c]Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

8But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? 9[d]Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'? 10But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic, 11"I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." 12Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and [e]glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

13[f]Then He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them. 14[g]As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [h]"Follow Me." So he arose and [i]followed Him.

* 2:2 NU-Text omits Immediately.

1:35 there He prayed. The verb tense indicates Jesus prayed continuously. Jesus' prayer life was successful because it was planned, private, and prolonged. He got up early enough, got far enough away, and stayed at it long enough.

1:44 say nothing to anyone. Jesus' demand has several plausible explanations: (1) The report of Jesus' healing the man may have prejudiced the priest who needed to pronounce him clean; (2) Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, so He often commanded those who received His healing to remain quiet; and (3) the man's testimony would possibly have hastened the confrontation between Jesus and the religious leaders.

2:5 saw their faith. Not only did the four men have faith, but the paralytic himself had it too. When Jesus announced to him, "your sins are forgiven you," He was implicitly acknowledging the paralytic's trust that He was the Messiah.

2:6–7 some of the scribes. Mark notes the opposition of the scribes, who under their breath accused Jesus of blasphemy. In Christ's day the scribes were commonly called lawyers.

2:11 arise, take up your bed, and go to your house. By healing the paralytic, Jesus made His pronouncement of forgiveness far more credible.

2:13 He taught them. Jesus regularly taught the multitudes in retreat settings. This is indicated by the continuous tense of the verbs used here. They kept on coming and Jesus kept on teaching.

in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with

they said to His disciples, "How is it that

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

18 [l]The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?" 19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. 20 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be [m]taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days. 21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse. 22 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined.
But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

23 [n]Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath;
and as they went His disciples began [o]to pluck the heads of grain. 24 And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is [p]not lawful on the Sabbath?" 25 But He said to them, "Have you never read [q]what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him:
26 [r]how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread, [r]which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?" 27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the [s]Sabbath. 28 Therefore [t]the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

3 And [a]He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand. 2 So they [b]watched Him closely, whether He would [c]heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. 3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Step forward." 4 Then He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent. 5 And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved
by the [d]hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.* 6 [e]Then the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with [f]the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

A Great Multitude Follows Jesus

7 But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, [g]and from Judea 8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how [h]many things He was doing, came to Him.
9 So He told His disciples that a small boat

* 2:16 NU-Text reads of the. * 2:17 NU-Text omits to repentance. * 3:5 NU-Text omits as whole as the other.

2:18 fast. Jesus was not against fasting, if properly observed. He gave guidelines for fasting in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 6:16–18). Here, the Pharisees' fasting, perhaps twice each week (Luke 18:12), is contrasted with Jesus' feasting probably at Levi's house.

2:21–22 No one sews . . . no one puts. Mark records only four of Jesus' parables—two of which he includes here. The comparison implies that the newness of His message, and of the new covenant to follow, cannot fit into the old molds of Judaism. The Old Testament was preparation for the New Testament (Gal. 3:19–25).

2:24 what is not lawful on the Sabbath. The point to the Pharisees' accusation against Jesus and His disciples was that they had performed work on the Sabbath, but their charge was dubious. The act of plucking grain should not be confused with Sabbath work condemned by the law (Ex. 31:15). This incident is further proof of rising opposition to Jesus' ministry.

3:5 when He had looked around at them with anger. It is possible, as Paul exhorts, to be angry and not sin (Eph. 4:26). Jesus demonstrated this righteous anger. He was grieved with sin but did not sin Himself by retaliating or losing control of His emotions.

3:6 Herodians. The Pharisees were religious experts who should have led the people in righteousness. Instead they plotted Jesus' death with the Herodians, their bitter enemies. They were willing to set aside differences to destroy a common foe. The Herodians were Jews who supported Rome and the Herods in particular. Herod Antipas, a son of Herod the Great, ruled Galilee during the same time that Pilate served as Roman governor over Judea and Samaria.

should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him. 10For He healed [i]many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed about Him to [j]touch Him. 11[k]And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, [l]"You are the Son of God." 12But [m]He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles

13[n]And He went up on the mountain and called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him. 14Then He appointed twelve,* that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach, 15and to have power to heal sicknesses and* to cast out demons: 16Simon,* [o]to whom He gave the name Peter; 17James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom He gave the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder"; 18Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Cananite; 19and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. And they went into a house.

A House Divided Cannot Stand

20Then the multitude came together again, [p]so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21But when His [q]own people heard about this, they went out to lay hold of Him, [r]for they said, "He is out of His mind."

22And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, [s]"He has Beelzebub," and, "By the [t]ruler of the demons He casts out demons."

23[u]So He called them to Himself and said to them in parables: "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. 27[v]No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

The Unpardonable Sin

28[w]"Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter; 29but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"— 30because they [x]said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

31[y]Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him. 32And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers* are outside seeking You."

33But He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?" 34And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him, and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 35For whoever does the [z]will of God is My brother and My sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4 And [a]again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea. 2Then He taught them many things by parables, [b]and said to them in His teaching:

* 3:14 NU-Text adds whom He also named apostles. * 3:15 NU-Text omits to heal sicknesses and. * 3:16 NU-Text reads and He appointed the twelve: Simon …. * 3:32 NU-Text and M-Text add and Your sisters.

3:11–12 He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known. Jesus rebuked the demons who proclaimed, "You are the Son of God." This was not because the demons incorrectly identified Jesus, but because their testimony was untrustworthy.

3:16–19 gave the name Peter. Jesus gave Peter a new name because it was the Jewish custom to rename someone who had experienced a life-changing event. This renaming of the disciples has similarities to the renaming of Abram (Gen. 17:3–5) and of Saul (Acts 9).

3:27 strong man. Whoever defeats Satan must be stronger than he. Jesus implies that He Himself has come to enter the house of the strong man, Satan, to seize his goods (1 John 3:8).

3:28–30 he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit. This person places himself or herself outside the redeeming grace of God. It is apparently not a single act of defiant behavior, but a continued state of opposition entered into willingly. The tense of "they said" indicates a continued action, not a one-time event. The words and works of Christ were spoken and performed by the power of the Holy Spirit. To attribute them to Satan is to call the work of heaven a work of hell. For such perverse belief there is no remedy. How someone can commit this sin today is a difficult question to answer, but those who persist in denigrating Christ by insulting His work or by attributing it to Satan may drive themselves past a point of no return (Matt. 12:31–32).

3:31 His brothers and His mother. Opposition arose from Jesus' own immediate family. We are not told precisely what they wanted to say, but it likely involved a concern for Jesus' safety or reputation, since He was becoming widely known as a preaching prophet and a worker of miracles.

3 "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4 And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the air* came and devoured it.
5 Some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth. 6 But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had no root it withered away. 7 And some seed fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop. 8 But other seed fell on good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

9 And He said to them,* "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

10 [c]But when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. 11 And He said to them, "To you it has been given to [d]know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to [e]those who are outside, all things come in parables, 12 so that

> [f]'Seeing they may see and not perceive,
> And hearing they may hear and not
> understand;
> Lest they should turn,
> And their sins be forgiven them.' "*

The Parable of the Sower Explained

13 And He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? 14 [g]The sower sows the word. 15 And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. 16 These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness; 17 and they have no root in themselves,
and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble. 18 Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, 19 and the [h]cares of this world, [i]the de-ceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear [j]fruit: some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

Light Under a Basket

21 [k]Also He said to them, "Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand?
22 [l]For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light.
23 [m]If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."

24 Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. [n]With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. 25 [o]For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

The Parable of the Growing Seed

26 And He said, [p]"The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground, 27 and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and [q]grow, he himself does not know how.
28 For the earth [r]yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. 29 But when the grain
ripens, immediately [s]he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

* 4:12 Isaiah 6:9, 10

4:3–8 a sower went out to sow. The point of the parable is that the condition of the soil determines the potential for growth. The principle is true for Christians and non-Christians alike. Those who have become complacent and lackadaisical are not likely to receive the Word with benefit (James 1:2–25).

4:11 To you it has been given to know the mystery. In Scripture, a mystery is a truth God has revealed or will reveal at the proper time (Rom. 16:25–26). Jesus apparently used parables for several reasons. First, they are interesting and grab the listener's attention. Second, such stories are easily remembered. Third, they reveal truth to those who are ready spiritually to receive it. Fourth, they conceal truth from those who oppose Christ's message. Frequently Jesus' opponents failed to understand the lessons because of their own spiritual blindness (Matt. 21:45–46).

4:20 hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit. Only one soil produces fruit. Such a person recognizes God's call, determines to follow it, and experiences a profound transformation.

4:21–23 a lamp. These were small clay vessels that burned a wick set in olive oil. Like the lamp, Jesus' teachings reveal the motives of the human heart.

4:26–29 The kingdom of God is as if. Plants develop in a complex, intricate process that humans still do not fully understand even two thousand years after Jesus spoke these words. Yet plants grow and bear fruit and seeds just the same. God's kingdom likewise is growing, although we do not understand all that is happening. This parable, which appears only in Mark's Gospel, presents God's kingdom in brief, from first sowing to final reaping.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

30 Then He said, [t]"To what shall we liken
the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it? 31 It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; 32 but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

Jesus' Use of Parables

33 [u]And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. 34 But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, [v]He explained all things to His disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

35 [w]On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side." 36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. 38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, [x]"Teacher, [y]do You not care that we are perishing?"
39 Then He arose and [z]rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, [a]"Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. 40 But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? [b]How is it that you have no faith?"* 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be,
that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

5 Then [a]they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes.*
2 And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an [b]unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him,* not even with chains, 4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him. 5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
6 When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him. 7 And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I [c]implore You by God that You do not torment me."
8 For He said to him, [d]"Come out of the man, unclean spirit!" 9 Then He asked him,
"What is your name?"
And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion; for we are many." 10 Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.
11 Now a large herd of [e]swine was feeding there near the mountains. 12 So all the demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them." 13 And at once Jesus* gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand);
and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.
14 So those who fed the swine fled, and they told it in the city and in the country.
And they went out to see what it was that had happened. 15 Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been [f]demon-possessed and had the legion, [g]sitting and [h]clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. 16 And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine.
17 Then [i]they began to plead with Him to depart from their region.
18 And when He got into the boat, [j]he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him. 19 However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you." 20 And he departed and began to [k]proclaim in Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all [l]marveled.

4:35 cross over to the other side. The Sea of Galilee is about eight miles wide and twelve miles long. Its unique geography produces a greatly varying climate. It is 700 feet below sea level with mountains that rise 3,000–4,000 feet around it. It is not unusual for sudden windstorms to appear during the evening hours. The warm tropical air from the lake's surface rises and meets the colder air from the nearby hills. The resulting turbulences and winds can be treacherous.

4:41 Who can this be. Mark uses the disciples' question to evoke a similar response in the minds of his readers. Mark relates the works and words of the one he calls "Jesus Christ, the Son of God" (1:1).

5:1 the country of the Gadarenes. This area is on the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee. The form of the name varies (Matt. 8:28; Luke 8:26,37).

5:17–20 they began to plead with Him to depart from their region. Jesus was not well received in this region. His presence had cost financial loss to some, although it meant liberation to the demoniac. Jesus could have healed and saved in that region, but He was turned away by its fearful citizens. Decapolis.

21 [m]Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great

His feet 23 and begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and [o]lay Your hands on her,
that she may be healed, and she will live." 24 So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged
Him.
25 Now a certain woman [p]had a flow of blood for twelve years, 26 and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. 27 When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and [q]touched His garment. 28 For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well."
29 Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction. 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that [r]power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?" 31 But His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say,
'Who touched Me?' " 32 And He looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33 But the woman, [s]fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. 34 And He said to her, "Daughter, [t]your faith has made you well. [u]Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."
35 [v]While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead.
Why trouble the Teacher any further?"
36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only [w]believe." 37 And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38 Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who [x]wept and wailed loudly. 39 When He came in, He said to them,
"Why make this commotion and weep?
The child is not dead, but [y]sleeping."
40 And they ridiculed Him. [z]But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying. 41 Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." 42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were [a]overcome with great amazement. 43 But [b]He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6 Then [a]He went out from there and came to His own country, and His disciples followed Him. 2 And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue.
And many hearing Him were [b]astonished, saying, [c]"Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands! 3 Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and [d]brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?" So they [e]were offended at Him.
4 But Jesus said to them, [f]"A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his

This literally means "ten cities." This largely Gentile, Greek-speaking area was an important strategic link in Rome's military defense.

5:22 one of the rulers of the synagogue. Jairus was a lay leader charged with supervising services at the synagogue.

5:26 suffered many things from many physicians. Mark is not complimentary toward the physicians who had treated this woman.

5:29–30 Immediately. This word is used twice in this context. Both the woman and Jesus simultaneously knew what had happened. Who touched My clothes? Jesus turned when He was touched and confronted the woman before she disappeared. He wanted to correct any mistaken notion she may have had about her healing. It was not any magical quality of His clothing but His divine will that had made her well.

5:33 told Him the whole truth. Jesus' kind manner and tender words must have eased the fear this woman had of being revealed. Naturally, the time that Jesus took to care for the woman must have worried the already tense disciples.

5:34 Daughter. Jesus used this tender word to address this woman, and He noted that her faith made the difference, for it was correctly placed in Him. Faith itself does not heal—it is the proper object of that faith, Jesus, who heals.

5:43 He commanded them strictly. The command to keep the miracle a secret was a temporary measure, for certainly the girl's appearance could not be hidden very long. Such orders would, however, allow Jesus to exit quietly. Jesus did not want to be known primarily as a miracle worker, lest people seek Him for the wrong reasons.

6:4 A prophet is not without honor except in his own country. This maxim is still repeated and is still own house." 5[g]Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6And [h]He marveled because of their unbelief. [i]Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

Sending Out the Twelve

7[j]And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to send them out [k]two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits. 8He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts—9but [l]to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.

10[m]Also He said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place. 11[n]And whoever* will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, [o]shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.* Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

12So they went out and preached that people should repent. 13And they cast out many demons, [p]and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14[q]Now King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore [r]these powers are at work in him."

15[s]Others said, "It is Elijah."

And others said, "It is the Prophet, [t]or* like one of the prophets."

16[u]But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!" 17For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. 18Because John had said to Herod, [v]"It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

19Therefore Herodias held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not; 20for Herod [w]feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21[x]Then an opportune day came when Herod [y]on his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. 22And when Herodias' daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." 23He also swore to her, [z]"Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

24So she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?"

And she said, "The head of John the Baptist!"

25Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

26[a]And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her. 27Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. 29When his disciples heard of it, they came and [b]took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding the Five Thousand

30[c]Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. 31[d]And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For [e]there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat. 32[f]So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.

33But the multitudes* saw them departing, and many [g]knew Him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to Him.

true today. Perhaps others were jealous of Jesus' popularity and huge following. Their envy even took the form of violence against Christ (Luke 4:29).

6:14 King Herod. This is Herod Antipas, one of the sons of Herod the Great, the king who tried to kill the baby Jesus (Matt. 2:1–18). After Herod the Great's death in 4 B.C. his kingdom was divided between Archelaus, who received Judea and Samaria; Philip, who ruled Iturea and Trachonitis, north and east of Galilee; and Antipas, who controlled Galilee and Perea from 4 B.C. to A.D. 39. Jesus ministered largely in the territory ruled by Antipas.

6:18 not lawful. John's message to Herod was that his divorce was not lawful as grounds for remarriage. John's declaration could be based on Jesus' stern words about divorce (10:11–12) or on Leviticus 20:21, which prohibits a man from taking his brother's wife.

6:23 up to half my kingdom. This is an expression meaning a large amount but with some limits.

34 [h]And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like [i]sheep not having a shepherd. So [j]He began to teach them many things. 35 [k]When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late. 36 Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread;* for they have nothing
to eat."
37 But He answered and said to them,
"You give them something to eat."
And they said to Him, [l]"Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?" 38 But He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see."
And when they found out they said,
[m]"Five, and two fish."
39 Then He [n]commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass. 40 So they sat down in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties. 41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He [o]looked up to heaven, [p]blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all. 42 So they all ate and were filled. 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish.
44 Now those who had eaten the loaves were about* five thousand men.

Jesus Walks on the Sea

45 [q]Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the multitude away. 46 And when He had sent them away, He [r]departed to the mountain to pray. 47 Now when evening came,
the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land. 48 Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea, and [s]would have passed them
by. 49 And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a [t]ghost, and cried out; 50 for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, [u]"Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be [v]afraid." 51 Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind [w]ceased. And they were greatly [x]amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled. 52 For [y]they had not understood about the loaves, because their [z]heart was hardened.

Many Touch Him and Are Made Well

53 [a]When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored there. 54 And when they came out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 ran through that whole surrounding region, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was. 56 Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged Him that [b]they might just touch the [c]hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made well.

Defilement Comes from Within

7 Then [a]the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem. 2 Now when* they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with [b]unwashed hands, they found fault. 3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the [c]tradition of the elders. 4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold,

* 6:36 NU-Text reads something to eat and omits the rest of this verse. * 6:44 NU-Text and M-Text omit about. * 7:2 NU-Text omits when and they found fault.

6:34 moved with compassion. The Gospels record several times that when Jesus saw a need He responded compassionately (1:41). That compassion led to action, despite an obvious lack of food in this instance.

6:36–37 Send them away. The disciples sought to avoid responsibility for the hungry multitude.

6:39–40 in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties. Details such as sitting on the green grass, which is possible only in late winter and early spring, and the fact that the groups were counted are indications that an eyewitness, probably Peter, recounted this story to Mark.

6:43 twelve baskets full of fragments. These were small baskets commonly carried by travelers. It is possible to conclude that the leftovers gave each disciple enough food for his own use.

6:51 He went up into the boat to them. Three miracles are contained in this brief account (vv. 47–51): (1) In the darkness Jesus saw the disciples out in the storm miles away, (2) Jesus walked on the water, and (3) Jesus showed complete control over His creation when the wind ceased.

6:56 Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country. Mark summarizes Jesus' healing ministry, noting how widespread it was.

like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.

5[d]Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"

6He answered and said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you [e]hypocrites, as it is written:

> [f]'This people honors Me with their lips,
> But their heart is far from Me.
> 7 And in vain they worship Me,
> Teaching as doctrines the > commandments of men.'*

8For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men* —the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."

9He said to them, "All too well [g]you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. 10For Moses said, [h]'Honor your father and your mother';* and, [i]'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'* 11But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, [j]"Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban"—' (that is, a gift to God), 12then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, 13making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do."

14[k]When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear Me, everyone, and [l]understand: 15There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that [m]defile a man. 16[n]If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"*

17[o]When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable. 18So He said to them, [p]"Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him, 19because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?"* 20And He said, [q]"What comes out of a man, that defiles a man. 21[r]For from within, out of the heart of men, [s]proceed evil thoughts, [t]adulteries, [u]fornications, murders, 22thefts, [v]covetousness, wickedness, [w]deceit, [x]lewdness, an evil eye, [y]blasphemy, [z]pride, foolishness. 23All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

A Gentile Shows Her Faith

24[a]From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.* And He entered a house and wanted no one to know it, but He could not be [b]hidden. 25For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and [c]fell at His feet. 26The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter. 27But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."

28And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."

29Then He said to her, "For this saying go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

ceremonial uncleanness. Mark's intended readers in Rome likely needed more background on the Jewish faith to understand this controversy.

7:5 the tradition of the elders. This phrase refers to a series of rules meant to bolster the ceremonial law of the Jews. Its authority was not supported by Scripture. The question indirectly challenged Jesus, for as the disciples' teacher He was judged responsible for their actions.

7:6–7 hypocrites. The term originally referred to actors who wore masks on stage as they played different characters. Thus the Pharisees were not genuinely religious; they were merely playing a part for all to see.

7:11–13 But you say. This shows the absolute contrast between God's will and man's empty tradition. Corban. This was evidently a pious-sounding evasion of the requirement of honoring one's parents by supporting them financially.

7:24 the region of Tyre. This city is the farthest Jesus traveled from Israel during His public ministry.

7:27 to the little dogs. Jesus is not attempting to insult the woman by using this metaphor. In fact, He is testing her faith. Matthew records Jesus' reaction to her reply, "O woman, great is your faith" (Matt. 15:28).

7:28 And she answered. The woman understood Jesus' test and persistently replied that even during the meal the dogs consume the children's crumbs that fall from the table.

of Galilee. 32Then [e]they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him. 33And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and [f]He spat and touched his tongue. 34Then, [g]looking up to heaven, [h]He sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."

35[i]Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly. 36Then [j]He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it. 37And they were [k]astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He [l]makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Feeding the Four Thousand

8 In those days, [a]the multitude being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them, 2"I have [b]compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. 3And if I send them away hungry to their own houses, they will faint on the way; for some of them have come from afar."

4Then His disciples answered Him, "How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?"

5[c]He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven."

6So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7They also had a few small fish; and [d]having blessed them, He said to set them also before them. 8So they ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments. 9Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away, 10[e]immediately got into the boat with His disciples, and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

The Pharisees Seek a Sign

11[f]Then the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, testing Him. 12But He [g]sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, [h]no sign shall be given to this generation."

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees and Herod

13And He left them, and getting into the boat again, departed to the other side. 14[i]Now the disciples* had forgotten to take bread, and they did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat. 15[j]Then He charged them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

16And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "Why do you reason because you have no bread? [k]Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still* hardened? 18Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? 19[l]When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?"

They said to Him, "Twelve."

20"Also, [m]when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?"

And they said, "Seven."

21So He said to them, "How is it [n]you do not understand?"

A Blind Man Healed at Bethsaida

22Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a [o]blind man to Him, and begged Him to [p]touch him. 23So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when [q]He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything.

---

*8:14 NU-Text and M-Text read they. *8:17 NU-Text omits still.

7:32–35 one who was deaf. The healing of this deaf man (who also had a speech impediment) is one of the two miracles recorded by Mark only. (The other is the healing of the blind man in 8:22–26.)

8:8 seven large baskets. There was one basket for each original loaf. These baskets were much larger than the 12 small personal baskets mentioned in 6:43. It was the kind of larger basket that was used to lower Paul over the wall of Damascus (Acts 9:25).

8:10 Dalmanutha. This was probably on the western side of the Sea of Galilee, about three miles north of modern Tiberias and about five miles southwest of Capernaum. This is the only time it is mentioned in the New Testament.

8:11 the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him. The Pharisees' testing of Jesus was crafty and devious. Obviously these men did not heed the many signs and wonders that Jesus had already performed. John 20:30–31 indicates that the signs were meant to produce faith. It is doubtful that the Pharisees would have changed their minds even if they had seen another miracle.

8:17–21 How is it you do not understand? The disciples continued to show a lack of spiritual discernment despite the miracles they had witnessed. Jesus' rebuke was intended to make them recall what God had done for them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

27 [s]Now Jesus and His disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?" 28 So they answered, [t]"John the Baptist; but some say, [u]Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."
29 He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
Peter answered and said to Him, [v]"You are the Christ."
30 [w]Then He strictly warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 And [x]He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be [y]rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be [z]killed, and after three days rise again. 32 He spoke this word openly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. 33 But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He [a]rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

34 Whe He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, [b]"Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. 35 For [c]whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. 36 For what will it profit a man
if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? 37 Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 38 [d]For whoever [e]is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

9 And He said to them, [a]"Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till they see [b]the kingdom of God present with power."

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

2 [c]Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them. 3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly [d]white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. 4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here;
and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"— 6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.
7 And a [e]cloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is [f]My beloved Son. [g]Hear Him!" 8 Suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one anymore, but only Jesus with themselves.
9 [h]Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things they had seen,

* 8:26 NU-Text reads "Do not even go into the town."

8:27 Caesarea Philippi. This city is about 25 miles north of Bethsaida and the Sea of Galilee. It stands on the southern edge of Mount Hermon. One of the sources of the Jordan River springs forth from under a large rocky cliff that rises a hundred or more feet above the village. The name Philippi distinguishes this town from Caesarea by the sea.

8:29 But who do you say that I am? Jesus emphatically asks His disciples for their understanding. you. Prominent in Jesus' question is the word "you." You are the Christ. Peter answers for the group. Jesus wants His disciples to grasp firmly His true identity before He reveals to them the necessity of His coming death and resurrection. In Mark's Gospel, only the disciples come to understand who Jesus is.

8:30 tell no one about Him. Jesus' warning may seem strange. Its explanation lies in the fact that the Jews expected the Messiah to be a political liberator. Jesus' first coming was meant to accomplish another kind of liberation—release from sin. Hence Jesus was careful not to use the name Messiah publicly, for it was misunderstood by the Jewish people, their leaders, and the Roman authorities.

8:38 when He comes in the glory. This is the first glimpse of the fulfillment of all history (1 Cor. 15:24–28). Those who will reign with Christ invest their lives in that which will last (v. 35). Those who are willing to confess Him today will be rewarded before the Father in heaven (Matt. 5:10–12; 2 Tim. 2:11–13; Rev. 2:26–28).

9:4 Elijah. Elijah is mentioned in Malachi 4:5–6 in connection with the future coming of Christ. This is why people asked John the Baptist if he were Elijah (John 1:21). Moses was the lawgiver and liberator, while Elijah was the first of the great prophets. Their presence confirmed the reality that Jesus is the Messiah of Peter's confession.

till the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
10So they kept this word to themselves, questioning [i]what the rising from the dead meant.
11And they asked Him, saying, "Why do the scribes say [j]that Elijah must come first?"
12Then He answered and told them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And [k]how is it written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and [l]be treated with contempt? 13But
I say to you that [m]Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him."

A Boy Is Healed

14[n]And when He came to the disciples,
He saw a great multitude around them,
and scribes disputing with them. 15Imme-
diately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him. 16And He asked the scribes,
"What are you discussing with them?"
17Then [o]one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit. 18And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not."
19He answered him and said, "O [p]faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me." 20Then they brought him to Him. And [q]when he saw Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.
21So He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?"
And he said, "From childhood. 22And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."
23Jesus said to him, [r]"If you can believe,*
all things are possible to him who believes." 24Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; [s]help my unbelief!" 25When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He [t]rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!" 26Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead." 27But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.
28[u]And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately,
"Why could we not cast it out?"
29So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but [v]prayer and fasting."*

Jesus Again Predicts His Death and Resurrection

30Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it. 31[w]For He taught His disciples and said to them, "The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will [x]kill Him. And after He is killed, He will [y]rise the third day." 32[z]But they did not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

Who Is the Greatest?

33[a]Then He came to Capernaum. And when He was in the house He asked them,
"What was it you disputed among yourselves on the road?" 34But they kept silent, for on the road they had [b]disputed among themselves who would be the [c]greatest.
35And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, [d]"If anyone desires to be first,
he shall be last of all and servant of all."
36Then [e]He took a little child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, 37"Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me; and [f]whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me."

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

38[g]Now John answered Him, saying,
"Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us."
39But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, [h]for no one who works a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me. 40For
[i]he who is not against us is on our* side.
41[j]For whoever gives you a cup of water to 9:24 I believe; help my unbelief. These words express the dilemma that even those who believe can be nagged by doubt and hopelessness. This man took the correct course by appealing to Jesus for help.

9:40 For he who is not against us is on our side. Jesus is not endorsing all who claim to follow Him. Rather, this statement was meant to remind the disciples that God's work was not necessarily restricted to their small group.

Jesus Warns of Offenses

42 [k]"But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. 43 [l]If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— 44 where

[m]'Their worm does not die
And the fire is not quenched.'*

45 And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— 46 where

[n]'Their worm does not die
And the fire is not quenched.'*

47 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire— 48 where

[o]'Their worm does not die
And the [p]fire is not quenched.'*

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

49 "For everyone will be [q]seasoned with fire,* [r]and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. 50 [s]Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? [t]Have salt in yourselves, and [u]have peace with one another."

Marriage and Divorce

10 Then [a]He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accustomed, He taught them again.

2 [b]The Pharisees came and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" testing Him.

3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4 They said, [c]"Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to dismiss her."

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6 But from the beginning of the creation, God [d]'made them male and female.'* 7 [e]'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, 8 and the two shall become one flesh';* so then they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

10 In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter. 11 So He said to them, [f]"Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. 12 And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

13 [g]Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14 But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for [h]of such is the kingdom of God. 15 Assuredly, I say to you, [i]whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will [j]by no means enter it." 16 And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

17 [k]Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I [l]do that I may inherit eternal life?"

18 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, [m]God. 19 You know the commandments:

9:49 Everyone will be seasoned with fire. This phrase may refer to the trials and judgments that all will face—believers with trials that purify faith, unbelievers with the eternal fire of God's judgment.

10:4 a certificate of divorce. This was a document signed before witnesses. Its intent was to limit frivolous divorces. In Jesus' day, the interpretation of this custom varied widely. The disciples of Hillel allowed divorce for almost any reason, but the followers of Shammai permitted divorce only for sexual impurity.

10:11 Whosoever divorces his wife. Mark includes no exception to Christ's prohibition of divorce, nor is any exception listed in Luke 16:18, Romans 7:1–2, or 1 Corinthians 7:10–11. Compare Matthew 5:32 where the exception is made.

10:18 No one is good but One, that is, God. This reply is a claim to deity, which Jesus asks the young ruler to recognize.

10:19 Do not. Jesus recounts the Seventh, Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, and Fifth Commandments. Do not defraud. Jesus inserts this phrase just before the Fifth Commandment. All of these commands concern

20 And he answered and said to Him, "Teacher, all these things I have [o]kept from my youth."

21 Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, [p]sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have [q]treasure in heaven; and come, [r]take up the cross, and follow Me."

22 But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

With God All Things Are Possible

23 [s]Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!" 24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those [t]who trust in riches* to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a [u]rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And they were greatly astonished, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?"

27 But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not [v]with God; for with God all things are possible."

28 [w]Then Peter began to say to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You."

29 So Jesus answered and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife* or children or lands, for My sake and the gospel's, 30 [x]who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with [y]persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. 31 [z]But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

32 [a]Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. [b]Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him: 33 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles; 34 and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

Greatness Is Serving

35 [c]Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."

36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

37 They said to Him, "Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your glory."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the [d]cup that I drink, and be baptized with the [e]baptism that I am baptized with?"

39 They said to Him, "We are able."

So Jesus said to them, [f]"You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized; 40 but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those [g]for whom it is prepared."

41 [h]And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John. 42 But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, [i]"You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. 43 [j]Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become the fair and ethical treatment of other people (Ex. 20:12–17).

10:25–27 It is easier. This comparison of a camel going through a needle is a literal one. In human terms, it is not just difficult, but totally impossible, for a rich man to be saved. But it is also impossible for anyone at all to be saved apart from God's grace and power. God provides the means of salvation, enlightens the sinner's understanding, and regenerates the believing soul.

10:30 in this time. This is the time between Christ's first and second comings. Mark alone mentions that persecutions will follow as well—a point his Roman readers may have already known.

10:37 one on Your right hand and the other on Your left. To be seated at a king's right hand was to take the position of the most prominence; the person seated at the left hand ranked just below that (Luke 22:24–30). Jesus had to remind the disciples again about the price of greatness in God's kingdom.

10:38 drink the cup that I drink . . . be baptized with the baptism. These phrases are references to the suffering and death that awaited Jesus (14:36). Jesus wanted His disciples to understand the mocking, scourging, beating, and torture He would have to endure.

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

46[m]Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging. 47And
when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, [n]Son of David, [o]have mercy on me!"
48Then many warned him to be quiet;
but he cried out all the more, "Son of David,
have mercy on me!"
49So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called.
Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."
50And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.
51So Jesus answered and said to him,
"What do you want Me to do for you?"
The blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may receive my sight." 52Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way;
[p]your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 Now [a]when they drew near Jerusalem, to Bethphage* and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples; 2and He said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it.
3And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,'
and immediately he will send it here."

4So they went their way, and found the* colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it. 5But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"
6And they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. So they let them go.
7Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it. 8[b]And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!
[c]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD*!'
10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father
David
That comes in the name of the Lord!*
[d]Hosanna in the highest!"

11[e]And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late,
He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Fig Tree Withered

12[f]Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry.
13[g]And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it,
He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14In response Jesus said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again."
And His disciples heard it.

10:45 The Ministry of Christ—

1. He is Savior. Sinful men to be saved (1 Tim. 1:15); Christ's qualifications to be Savior (John 10:18–38); His humiliating death (John 19:18); bodily resurrection to guarantee our salvation (1 Cor. 15:13–22); and results of salvation (John 5:24). It is no wonder that, in light of these realities, Paul speaks of Christ as "our great God and Savior" (Titus 2:13).
2. He is High Priest. The high priest brought the people before God on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:32–33). Jesus is eminently qualified to be our High Priest: appointed by God (Heb. 5:5), eternal (Heb. 7:24–25), sinless (Heb. 7:26), His offering was final (Heb. 9:28), and His mediation is effective (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25; 1 John 2:1). As the only qualified High Priest for men and women, Jesus Christ thus constitutes the only way to God (1 Tim. 2:5).
3. He is King. King implies sovereign authority and rule over all. This right belongs only to Jesus Christ who is called "Lord of lords and King of kings" (Rev. 17:14; 19:16). He is destined to rule as king and every knee must ultimately bow and acknowledge His authority (Phil. 2:10). Those who acknowledge Christ as King and Lord in this life will reign with Him; those who do not will be judged by Him (Rev. 20:11–15).

11:8–11 Bethany. Jesus retired there each night, perhaps staying in a friend's home. But in view of the fact that Jesus appears to have had no breakfast the next day (v. 12), He and the twelve may have camped outside this night.

11:13 it was not the season for figs. Passover always comes in March or April, and fig season is not until May or June. However, fig trees generally produce a number of buds in March, leaves in April, and ripe fruit later on. Jesus was looking for the edible buds, the lack of which indicated that the tree would be fruitless that year.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 [h]So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold [i]doves. 16 And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple. 17 Then He taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, [j]'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'?* But you have made it a [k]'den of thieves.'"*

18 And [l]the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because [m]all the people were astonished at His teaching. 19 When evening had come, He went out of the city.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 [n]Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter, remembering, said to Him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away."

22 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God. 23 For [o]assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. 24 Therefore I say to you, [p]whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.

Forgiveness and Prayer

25 "And whenever you stand praying, [q]if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. 26 But [r]if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses."*

Jesus' Authority Questioned

27 Then they came again to Jerusalem. [s]And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him. 28 And they said to Him, "By what [t]authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?"

29 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: 30 The [u]baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me."

31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32 But if we say, 'From men'"—they feared the people, for [v]all counted John to have been a prophet indeed. 33 So they answered and said to Jesus, "We do not know."

And Jesus answered and said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

12 Then [a]He began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine vat and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country. 2 Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers. 3 And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 4 Again he sent them another servant, and at him they threw stones,* wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. 5 And again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, [b]beating some and killing some. 6 Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 So they took him and [c]killed him and cast him out of the vineyard.

11:17 den of thieves. Jesus was referring to the practice of cheating people, both Israelites and those of other nations, either through a crooked exchange of money or by selling inferior products.

11:21 The fig tree which You cursed has withered away. The passage emphasizes the power of true faith. Some have suggested that the fig tree represented Israel, which bore no fruit and would soon face the judgment of God.

11:29–30 answer Me. The intent of Jesus' question was to expose once again the insincerity of His detractors. baptism of John. This refers to the authority of John's baptism. from heaven. Was it ordained by God and worthy of obedience? from men. Or was it of human contrivance and void of any spiritual authority and reality?

12:1 He began to speak to them in parables. Parables usually get across a significant truth, but the details are not meant to correspond exactly with particular spiritual realities. In this parable, the owner of the vineyard represents God, but God Himself was never so mistaken as to assume they would respect His Son. God is omniscient, whereas the vineyard owner in the parable is not. This story illustrates the immense patience God had with Israel.

9"Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others. 10Have you not even read this Scripture:

[d]'The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.
11 This was the LORD's doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes'?"*

12[e]And they sought to lay hands on Him, but feared the multitude, for they knew He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

13[f]Then they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words. 14When they had come, they said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and care about no one; for You do not regard the person of men, but teach the [g]way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?"

But He, knowing their [h]hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it." 16So they brought it.

And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."

17And Jesus answered and said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to [i]God the things that are God's."

And they marveled at Him.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

18[j]Then some Sadducees, [k]who say there is no resurrection, came to Him; and they asked Him, saying: 19"Teacher, [l]Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 20Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring. 21And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise. 22So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also. 23Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."

24Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God? 25For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but [m]are like angels in heaven. 26But concerning the dead, that they [n]rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God spoke to him, saying, [o]'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?* 27He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You are therefore greatly mistaken."

The Scribes: Which Is the First Commandment of All?

28[p]Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving* that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

29Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: [q]'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one. 30*And*

* 12:11 Psalm 118:22, 23 * 12:26 Exodus 3:6, 15
* 12:28 NU-Text reads seeing.

12:12 they sought to lay hands on Him. Only as the final points of the parable were made did these evil men realize that Jesus was speaking of them.

12:14 You are true, and care about no one. This comment was intended as a compliment. The teachers recognized that Jesus was partial to no one. The question, however, was a lose-lose proposition: a yes answer would alienate Jews who opposed Rome, while a no answer could be taken as treason against the state.

12:18 Sadducees were an elite group of religious leaders who denied the existence of angels, the immortality of the soul, and the resurrection. They rejected the oral traditions and accepted only the validity of the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament.

12:19–22 Moses wrote to us. The custom of marrying the widow of one's brother was supported by Deuteronomy 25:5–6, but it was not absolutely binding (Deut. 25:7–10).

12:26–27 I am the God of Abraham . . . Isaac . . . Jacob. Jesus quotes from the law—the Book of Exodus—to make His point. God said I am the God of the three patriarchs mentioned, not "I was their God, but now they are dead." He still is their God because they are still alive. Their souls not only live after death, but their bodies will be raised anew as well.

12:29 Hear, O Israel. In Judaism, these words (quoted from Deut. 6:4–5) are known as the Shema. It is described by Jews as the most important words a Jew can know. Jesus quotes these words at the beginning of answering the question, "Which is the first commandment of all?" We should be driven to the cross. There, we understand His love for us and are constantly motivated to seek to love Him better because of what He has done. We can only be thankful at the comprehensiveness of His love. Even though we sin every day of our lives, He forgives. We just need to keep coming to Him for that forgiveness.

32So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, [u]and there is no other but He. 33And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul,* and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, [v]is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34Now when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

[w]But after that no one dared question Him.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

35[x]Then Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? 36For David himself said [y]by the Holy Spirit:

> [z]'The LORD said to my Lord,
> "Sit at My right hand,
> Till I make Your enemies Your > *footstool."'

37Therefore David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how is He then his [a]Son?"

And the common people heard Him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

38Then [b]He said to them in His teaching, [c]"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, [d]love greetings in the marketplaces, 39the [e]best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts, 40[f]who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Two Mites

41[g]Now Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money [h]into the treasury. And many who were rich put in much. 42Then one poor widow came and threw in two mites,* which make a quadrans. 43So He called His disciples to Himself and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that [i]this poor widow has put in more than all those who have given to the treasury; 44for they all put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all that she had, [j]her whole livelihood."

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

13 Then [a]as He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!"

2And Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? [b]Not one stone shall be left upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

3Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, [c]Peter, [d]James, [e]John, and [f]Andrew asked Him privately, 4[g]"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?"

5And Jesus, answering them, began to say: [h]"Take heed that no one deceives you. 6For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many. 7But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do

12:35 in the temple. This does not refer to the sanctuary itself, where only the priests were allowed to minister. The temple environs included a number of porticos and courts. One was designated especially for women, another for men. Gentiles could view the temple from an outer area.

12:43–44 this poor widow hath put it more than all those who have given to the treasury. Jesus' comparison of the percentages contributed by the rich and the poor reminds us that God measures not how much we give, but how much we retain. Those with greater income have an obligation to return a larger percentage of it to God's work.

13:1–2 what manner of stones and what buildings are here. The disciples' excitement over the temple's tremendous construction was a natural reaction to splendid and majestic architecture; each stone weighed several tons. Josephus described its magnificence. There was nothing like it in all the world. Begun by Herod the Great in 20 B.C., the temple was later completed by Herod's descendants some time before A.D. 66. Its beautiful white marble stones with gold ornamentation reached 100 feet high. Surrounding it were colonnaded walkways, courtyards, and stairways that filled 20 acres of the most prominent landscape in all Jerusalem.

not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the end is not yet. 8For nation will rise against nation, and [i]kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles.* [j]These are the beginnings of sorrows.

9"But [k]watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought* before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them. 10And [l]the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. 11[m]But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate* what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, [n]but the Holy Spirit. 12Now [o]brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 13[p]And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But [q]he who endures to the end shall be saved.

The Great Tribulation

14[r]"So when you see the [s]'abomination of desolation,'* spoken of by Daniel the prophet,* standing where it ought not" (let the reader understand), "then [t]let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. 16And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. 17[u]But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 18And pray that your flight may not be in winter. 19[v]For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be. 20And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21[w]"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, He is there!' do not believe it. 22For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and [x]wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. 23But [y]take heed; see, I have told you all things beforehand.

The Coming of the Son of Man

24[z]"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; 25the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be [a]shaken. 26[b]Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. 27And then He will send His angels, and gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

28[c]"Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 29So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it* is near—at the doors! 30Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. 31Heaven and earth will pass away, but [d]My words will by no means pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

13:11–12 the Holy Spirit. The promise given that the Holy Spirit will guide one's speech in the hour of trial applies first to the twelve and only secondarily to others who will experience persecution. But this promise does not assure escape from persecution or even freedom from being put to death.

13:13 he who endures to the end shall be saved. This is not referring to regeneration or justification but to physical deliverance from affliction (vv. 19–20). The ones who physically endure will be delivered into Christ's messianic kingdom.

13:14 standing where it ought not. This phrase refers to the presence of an idol standing in the temple. Daniel's prediction primarily referred to placement of sacrifices to Zeus on the temple's altar by Antiochus Epiphanes. Some believe that the destruction of the Herodian temple in A.D. 70 fulfilled Jesus' prediction. Others still await its fulfillment in the blasphemous actions of the antichrist in the last days (2 Thess. 2:3–4).

13:28–29 when you see these things happening. Jesus likened the signs of His second coming to the sprouts of growth and leaves on a fig tree. Both point to the glories to come—the full flowering of the earth and return of Christ.

13:32 But of that day and hour no one knows. As one who was fully God and at the same time fully man, Jesus possessed all the attributes of deity, including omnipotence and omniscience. He knew what was in people's hearts (2:8), and He could still the waves (4:39). When Jesus became a man, however, He voluntarily placed certain knowledge in the hands of the

the time is. 34[h]It is like a man going to a far country, who left his house and gave [i]authority to his servants, and to each his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch. 35[j]Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming—in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning— 36lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. 37And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After [a]two days it was the Passover and [b]the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by trickery and put Him to death. 2But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

3[c]And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head. 4But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? 5For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [d]denarii and given to the poor." And they [e]criticized her sharply.

6But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me. 7[f]For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; [g]but Me you do not have always. 8She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. 9Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is [h]preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10[i]Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them. 11And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

Jesus Celebrates the Passover with His Disciples

12[j]Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"

13And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. 14Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' 15Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

16So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

17[k]In the evening He came with the twelve. 18Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, [l]one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."

19And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"*

20He answered and said to them, "It is one of the twelve, who dips with Me in the dish. 21[m]The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It

Father. Of course today, glorified in heaven, Jesus now knows the day and hour of His return.

13:34–36 like a man going to a far country. Jesus' parable of the absent master of the house is unique to Mark. The point of the parable is that the master could return at any time so all servants must be vigilant and watchful (Luke 19:11–27).

14:3 alabaster. Alabaster is a translucent stone still used to make ornamented jewelry boxes and other items of value. spikenard. Spikenard was a precious perfume imported from India, made from plants that grow in the high elevations of the Himalayas. This perfume is mentioned in the Song of Solomon (1:12; 4:13–14).

14:7 For you have the poor with you always. Jesus' statement does not show callousness towards the poor (Deut. 15:7–11). His compassion for those overwhelmed by sickness and poverty appears frequently in the Gospels, and He encouraged others to meet their needs (10:21). But He also wanted people to give freely and of their own volition. No one can coerce a gift from another; no one should criticize another's gift; and no one can read the heart of a giver. A giver's motive is known only to God.

14:14–15 a large upper room. There is reason to suspect that the master of the house may have been Mark's father. Mark himself may have been the young man of verses 51 and 52. Acts 12:12 indicates that this house was later used as a gathering place for many believers who prayed together. Tradition has it that this was also the "upper room" of Acts 1:13 where over 100 believers met on Pentecost.

14:19 Is it I? In Greek this is actually a negative question that implies a negative answer. The phrase means "It is not I, is it?" Matthew and John both identify the culprit as Judas, even though Mark does not (Matt. 26:25; John 13:26).

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

22 [n]And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said, "Take, eat;* this is My [o]body."

23 Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24 And He said to them, "This is My blood of the new* covenant, which is shed for many. 25 Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26 [p]And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 [q]Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night,* for it is written:

> [r]'I will strike the Shepherd,
> And the sheep will be scattered.'*

28 "But [s]after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee."

29 [t]Peter said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble, yet I will not be."

30 Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

31 But he spoke more vehemently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!"

And they all said likewise.

The Prayer in the Garden

32 [u]Then they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray." 33 And He [v]took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed. 34 Then He said to them, [w]"My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch."

35 He went a little farther, and fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. 36 And He said, [x]"Abba, Father, [y]all things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me; [z]nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will."

37 Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour? 38 [a]Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. [b]The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39 Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words. 40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

41 Then He came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! [c]The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 [d]Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

* 14:22 NU-Text omits eat. * 14:24 NU-Text omits new. * 14:27 NU-Text omits because of Me this night. • Zechariah 13:7

14:24 This is My blood. This means that the contents of this cup represented Jesus' blood that would be shed for our sins. The sprinkling of blood was required to institute the Mosaic covenant in Exodus 29:12 (Heb. 9:18–22). In the same way, Jesus' blood shed on the cross initiated the new covenant. His blood was shed for many. He died on the cross in the place of many sinners from every nation. He paid the price for all of their sins. All those who believe in Him will receive eternal life.

14:26 And when they had sung a hymn. What they sang was no doubt from the Psalms. Frequently Psalms 113–118 were used in connection with the Passover.

14:30 before the rooster crows twice. Only Mark mentions Christ's prediction of Peter's denial. The incident would have remained vivid in Peter's mind when he related the story to Mark.

14:34 My soul is exceeding sorrowful. The crushing realization of having to bear the sin of the world and to lose, even temporarily, the fellowship of God the Father was nearly more than Jesus' soul could bear.

14:35 the hour might pass from Him. This is a reference to the time Jesus would bear the punishment for the sin of the world in His own body, becoming, as it were, sin for all.

14:38 Temptation by the Flesh—Flesh in the Bible often means something other than the substance of the human body. It is used constantly to refer to the carnal, sinful principle within man that is opposed to God (Rom. 8:7). The actions produced by the flesh are given in detail in Galatians 5:19–21. Among these are all types of sexual immorality, impurity, hatred, anger, envy, and drunkenness. A person whose life is characterized by these sins cannot be a true Christian and is under the wrath of God (Gal. 5:21; Eph. 2:3). Though the flesh is not eradicated for the Christian, he does have the power to deny it (Rom. 7:15–25). He possesses a new nature empowered by the Holy Spirit. The solution to the urges of the flesh lies in acknowledging that the power of sin was nullified by Jesus' death (Rom. 6:11) and in living under the control of the Spirit's power (Gal. 5:16). The latter is a moment-by-moment dependence in faith on the Spirit's power. The believer must choose by an act of his will to benefit from the Spirit's enablement.

14:39–41 Again He went away. The three apostles were exhorted to watch and pray several times, and no doubt truly desired to uphold their Lord in His deepest hour of need. Yet physical fatigue overcame spiritual alertness.

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

43 [e]And immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever
I [f]kiss, He is the One; seize Him and lead Him away safely."
45 As soon as he had come, immediately
he went up to Him and said to Him, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.
46 Then they laid their hands on Him and took Him. 47 And one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 [g]Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? 49 I was daily with you in the temple [h]teaching, and you did not seize Me. But [i]the Scriptures must be fulfilled."
50 [j]Then they all forsook Him and fled.

A Young Man Flees Naked

51 Now a certain young man followed Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And the young men laid hold of him, 52 and he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

53 [k]And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and with him were [l]assembled all the [m]chief priests, the elders, and the scribes. 54 But [n]Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.
55 [o]Now the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but found none. 56 For many bore [p]false witness against Him, but their testimonies did not agree.
57 Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, 58 "We heard Him say, [q]'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59 But not even then did their testimony agree.
60 [r]And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?" 61 But [s]He kept silent and answered nothing.
[t]Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"
62 Jesus said, "I am. [u]And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."
63 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "What further need do we have of witnesses? 64 You have heard the [v]blasphemy! What do you think?"
And they all condemned Him to be deserving of [w]death.
65 Then some began to [x]spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers struck Him with the palms of their hands.*

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps

66 [y]Now as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came. 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said,
"You also were with [z]Jesus of Nazareth." 68 But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out on the porch, and a rooster crowed.
69 [a]And the servant girl saw him again,
and began to say to those who stood by,
"This is one of them." 70 But he denied it
again.
[b]And a little later those who stood by said to Peter again, "Surely you are one of them; [c]for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."* 71 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this Man of whom you speak!"
72 [d]A second time the rooster crowed.
Then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."
And when he thought about it, he wept.

14:43 with a great multitude. Judas came with a detachment of troops (John 18:3). It was one-tenth of a Roman legion or roughly 600 men.

14:50–52 young man. Only Mark tells of this incident and many believe that this young man was Mark himself. How else would he have known this story, and why else should he have included it? If it was Mark, and if the Last Supper was at his home that evening, he could easily have risen from bed, pulled on a linen sheet, and followed the disciples.

14:61 He kept silent. Jesus remained silent before Pilate and Herod Antipas. Finally they could find nothing substantial with which to charge Him. the Christ, the Son of the Blessed. The trial was over, and Jesus stood falsely condemned for blasphemy, which in this context means laying claim to deity. Naturally, this is the boast of a liar or a lunatic—unless He is the Almighty God in human flesh, as Jesus was (Phil. 2:5–8; 1 John 1:1–3).

14:71–72 the rooster crowed. We are not told that Peter thought at all about Jesus' words. If he did,

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 Immediately, [a]in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and [b]delivered Him to Pilate. 2[c]Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

He answered and said to him, "It is as you say."

3And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He [d]answered nothing. 4[e]Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, "Do You answer nothing? See how many things they testify against You!"* 5[f]But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

6Now [g]at the feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they requested. 7And there was one named Barabbas, who was chained with his fellow rebels; they had committed murder in the rebellion. 8Then the multitude, crying aloud,* began to ask him to do just as he had always done for them. 9But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" 10For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

11But [h]the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should rather release Barabbas to them. 12Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the [i]King of the Jews?"

13So they cried out again, "Crucify Him!"

14Then Pilate said to them, "Why, [j]what evil has He done?"

But they cried out all the more, "Crucify Him!"

15[k]So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be [l]crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

16[m]Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison. 17And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head, 18and began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19Then they [n]struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshiped Him. 20And when they had [o]mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

The King on a Cross

21[p]Then they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus, as he was coming out of the country and passing by, to bear His cross. 22[q]And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull. 23[r]Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it. 24And when they crucified Him, [s]they divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what every man should take.

25Now [t]it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. 26And [u]the inscription of His accusation was written above:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27[v]With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left. 28So the Scripture was fulfilled* which says, [w]*"And He was numbered with the transgressors."

29And [x]those who passed by blasphemed Him, [y]wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! [z]You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, 30save Yourself, and come down from the cross!"

maybe he tried to conceal his identity more carefully, but to no avail. Each of the other Gospel writers tells us that the cock crowed immediately upon Peter's final denial (Matt. 26:74; Luke 22:60; John 18:27). This time he thought about it, and he wept.

15:1–3 held a consultation. Rather than murdering Jesus privately, the Jewish politicians decided to seek Pilate's approval so they could execute the "blasphemer" legally. Their charges included many things but apparently centered on treason. Jesus claimed to be a king, thus defying Caesar (Luke 23:2). This crime was punishable in the Roman Empire by death. Pilate must have concluded that the charges against Jesus were groundless, for Mark tells us he desired to release Him.

15:15 after he had scourged Him. This word, used only twice in the New Testament (Matt. 27:26 and here), describes a punishment more severe than flogging or beating. The prisoner was beaten with a whip fashioned of numerous strips of leather attached to a handle. To the leather strips were tied sharp pieces of bone and metal, which could rip and tear one's skin to shreds.

15:22 Golgotha is an Aramaic word. The hill may have resembled the bony features of a skull or was called this because it was a place of death. The name Calvary comes from the Latin word for skull.

15:25 the third hour. This was 9 A.M., using a common Jewish system of marking the day. Jesus suffered on the cross until at least 3 P.M., the ninth hour of verse 34.

31 Likewise the chief priests also, [a]mocking among themselves with the scribes, said, "He saved [b]others; Himself He cannot save. 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe."*

Even [c]those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

Jesus Dies on the Cross

33 Now [d]when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, [e]*"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"

35 Some of those who stood by, when they heard that, said, "Look, He is calling for Elijah!" 36 Then [f]someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and [g]offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."

37 [h]And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and breathed His last.

38 Then [i]the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. 39 So [j]when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last,* he said, "Truly this Man was the Son of God!"

40 [k]There were also women looking on [l]from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome, 41 who also [m]followed Him and ministered to Him when He was in Galilee, and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

42 [n]Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who [o]was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, coming and taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 Pilate marveled that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if He had been dead for some time. 45 So when he found out from the centurion, [p]he granted the body to Joseph. 46 [q]Then he bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed where He was laid.

He Is Risen

16 Now [a]when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome [b]bought spices, that they might come and anoint Him. 2 [c]Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3 And they said among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" 4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large. 5 [d]And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

6 [e]But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him. 7 But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, [f]as He said to you."

* 15:32 M-Text reads believe Him. * 15:34 Psalm 22:1 * 15:39 NU-Text reads that He thus breathed His last.

15:32 Let the Christ. Jesus was mockingly called the Christ or Messiah by the chief priests and scribes. Their offer to believe in Christ if He would descend from the cross was not believable.

15:37 Jesus cried out with a loud voice. Frequently, crucifixion produced a coma or unconsciousness prior to death, but Jesus was in control of all His faculties until the moment when He voluntarily gave up His life (John 10:17–18).

15:38 the veil of the temple. The significance of this event is that access to God is now open to all. No longer through priests and the blood of bulls and goats do we approach God, but through the torn veil, which also symbolizes Jesus' broken and torn body (Heb. 10:20).

15:40–41 There were also women looking on. These women were true disciples of Christ. They had ministered to Jesus' needs and would be the first witnesses of His resurrection. Mark does not name Jesus' mother here but includes other prominent women. Three Marys were present along with many other women and Salome. She was the mother of the disciples James and John (Matt. 27:56).

15:43 Joseph of Arimathea. He is identified as a prominent member of the Sanhedrin. To ask Pilate for the body of Jesus was not just a gesture of kindness. It was an act of bravery, which placed Joseph in opposition to the Sanhedrin and identified him as a follower of Jesus.

16:5–6 a young man . . . sitting on the right side. Mark does not identify the young man with the robe as an angel, but he is there to explain the mystery from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. [g]And they said nothing to anyone,

for they were afraid.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

9Now when He rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, [h]out of whom He had cast seven demons. 10[i]She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept. 11[j]And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

Jesus Appears to Two Disciples

12After that, He appeared in another form [k]to two of them as they walked and went into the country. 13And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

The Great Commission

14[l]Later He appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. 15[m]And He said to them, "Go into all the world [n]and preach the gospel to every creature. 16[o]He who believes and is baptized will be saved;
[p]but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17And these [q]signs will follow those who believe: [r]In My name they will cast out demons; [s]they will speak with new tongues; 18[t]they* will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; [u]they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

Christ Ascends to God's Right Hand

19So then, [v]after the Lord had spoken to them, He was [w]received up into heaven,
and [x]sat down at the right hand of God.
20And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them [y]and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.*

* 16:8 NU-Text and M-Text omit quickly.
* 16:18 NU-Text reads and in their hands they will.

that confronts the women. He is risen. In the passive voice, this indicates that an act of God accomplished the raising up of Jesus.

16:9–20 Now when He rose. The authenticity of these last twelve verses has been disputed. Those who doubt Mark's authorship of this passage point to two fourth-century manuscripts that omit these verses. Others believe that they should be included because even these two manuscripts leave space for all or some of these verses, indicating that their copyists knew of their existence. The difficulty is in knowing whether the space is for this longer version of Mark's ending or for one of the alternate endings found in the manuscripts. Important early church fathers endorsed this passage, and it does not seem likely that Mark would end his story on a note of fear (v. 8).

16:14 to the eleven. After Judas' demise (Matt. 27:3–5; Acts 1:16–18), the disciples were known for a while as the eleven. Jesus upbraided these disciples for not believing the accounts of eyewitnesses, but He pronounced a blessing on "those who have not seen and yet have believed" (John 20:29).

16:19 He was received up into heaven. This was the final sign that Jesus was the Son of God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

▶ AUTHOR: It is evident from the prologues to Luke and Acts (1:1–4; Acts 1:1–5) that both books were addressed to a man called Theophilus as a two-volume work. Acts begins with a summary of Luke and continues the story from where the Gospel of Luke concludes. Luke may have been a Hellenistic Jew, but it is more likely that he was a Gentile (this would make him the only Gentile contributor to the New Testament). It has been suggested that Luke may have been a Greek physician to a Roman family who at some point was set free and given Roman citizenship. Luke was not an eyewitness of the events in his Gospel, but he relied on the testimony of apostolic eyewitnesses and reliable written sources.

▶ TIME: c. 4 B.C.–A.D. 33 ▶ KEY VERSE: Luke 19:10

▶ THEME: The beginning of Luke makes reference to the fact that there was a great deal of oral tradition concerning Jesus circulating during the first century. The rapid growth of the church (over 3,000 on the Day of Pentecost alone) meant that there would have been potential for significant variety in stories about Jesus. Luke's stated agenda is reliability. Where Matthew goes to great lengths to tie Jesus' story to the history of the Jews, Luke is more interested in where the story fits in the history of the human race. Throughout the book, Christ reaches out to people from a variety of social strata, nationalities, and cultures. Luke sees Jesus as the Savior of the whole world.

Dedication to Theophilus

1 Inasmuch as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those [a]things which have been fulfilled* among us, 2just as those who [b]from the beginning were [c]eyewitnesses and ministers of the word [d]delivered them to us, 3it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, [e]most excellent Theophilus, 4[f]that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed.

John's Birth Announced to Zacharias

5There was [g]in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, [h]of the division of [i]Abijah. His [j]wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. 7But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well advanced in years.

* 1:1 Or are most surely believed

1:1 many have taken in hand to set in order. Luke makes it clear that he was not the first to write a narrative of the ministry of Jesus.

1:2 eyewitnesses. These verses suggest that Luke was not an eyewitness to the events of Jesus' ministry, but that he had access to statements of those who were.

1:3 orderly account. Luke gave his narrative a basic structure. Not every part is in chronological sequence, but the broad sequence is Christ's ministry in Galilee, His travel to Jerusalem, and His struggles in Jerusalem. The order of events shows how Jesus gradually revealed Himself and how opposition to Him grew.

1:4 the certainty. Theophilus was likely a young Gentile believer. He not only needed to know the truth and accuracy of what the church taught, but he also needed to be reassured. He might well have been wondering what he as a Gentile was doing in a movement which was originally Jewish.

1:5 Herod. He was appointed by the Roman emperor and reigned over Judea, Samaria, Galilee, Perea, and Syria from 37 to 4 B.C.

1:7 Elizabeth was barren. Being childless was a grave disappointment in ancient Israel (1 Sam. 1). The Scriptures record a number of times when God blessed a barren woman by giving her a son (Gen. 18:11; 21:2).

1:1 [a] John 20:31 1:2 [b] Acts 1:21, 22 [c] Acts 1:2 [d] Heb. 2:3 1:3 [e] Acts 1:1 1:4 [f] [John 20:31] 1:5 [g] Matt. 2:1 [h] 1 Chr. 24:1, 10 [i] Neh. 12:4 [j] Lev. 21:13, 14

8So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division, 9according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot fell [k]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10[l]And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense. 11Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of [m]the altar of incense. 12And when Zacharias saw him, [n]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and [o]you shall call his name John. 14And you will have joy and gladness, and [p]many will rejoice at his birth. 15For he will be [q]great in the sight of the Lord, and [r]shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy Spirit, [s]even from his mother's womb. 16And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. 17[t]He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, *'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18And Zacharias said to the angel, [u]"How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19And the angel answered and said to him, "I am [v]Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you these glad [w]tidings. 20But behold, [x]you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time."

21And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple. 22But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he beckoned to them and remained speechless.

23So it was, as soon as [y]the days of his service were completed, that he departed to his own house. 24Now after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, 25"Thus the Lord has dealt with me, in the days when He looked on me, to [z]take away my reproach among people."

Christ's Birth Announced to Mary

26Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27to a virgin [a]betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. 28And having come in, the angel said to her, [b]"Rejoice, highly favored one, [c]the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women!"*

29But when she saw *him, [d]she was troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was. 30Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found [e]favor with God. 31[f]And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son, and [g]shall call His name JESUS. 32He will be great, [h]and will be called the Son of the Highest; and [i]the Lord God will give Him the [j]throne of His [k]father David. 33[l]And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end."

34Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I do not know a man?"

* 1:17 Malachi 4:5, 6 * 1:28 NU-Text omits blessed are you among women. * 1:29 NU-Text omits when she saw him.

1:8–9 the custom of the priesthood. Zacharias served for one week twice a year at the temple, one of perhaps 18,000 priests who served in a year.

1:13 Do not be afraid. Angels often calmed the fears of those to whom they appeared (v. 30; 2:10; Gen. 15:1; Dan. 10:12; Matt. 1:20; Acts 18:9; Rev. 1:17).

1:14 joy and gladness. Joy is a major theme throughout the writings of Luke (vv. 44,47,58; 2:10; 10:20; 13:17; 15:5–7; Acts 5:41).

1:15 shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. As with Samuel and Samson, a vow was imposed on the child that indicated his special consecration to the Lord. filled with the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Spirit means being directed by Him and obedient to Him (Eph. 5:18).

1:17 in the spirit and power of Elijah. John was the forerunner of the Messiah. This description recalls Matthew 3:1–6. John's ministry paralleled Elijah, for both prophets called Israel to repentance (1 Kin. 17:18).

1:19 Gabriel. Two angels are named in the Bible who function as messengers. Michael is the other one (Dan. 8:16; 9:21; 10:13,21; Jude 9; Rev. 12:7).

1:25 my reproach. In ancient Israel barrenness was seen as a cause for shame. The "opening of the womb" indicated God's grace (Gen. 21:6; 30:23; 1 Sam. 1:2). In this verse, Elizabeth praises the Lord for mercifully blessing her even as He moved His plan for all of human history forward.

1:32 the Highest. This phrase is another way of referring to the majesty of God. David. Jesus fulfilled God's promise to David concerning an unending dynasty.

1:34 How can this be. Mary did not ask for a sign, so this remark does not reflect unbelief. She accepts her role without question in verse 38, and thus is a model of faith, even though she does not fully understand everything. The work of God in Mary introduces something unknown before or after; the birth into the human race of One who is both God and man.

35 And the angel answered and said to her, [m]"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called [n]the Son of God. 36 Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren. 37 For [o]with God nothing will be impossible."

38 Then Mary said, "Behold the maidser-vant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 Now Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, [p]to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. 41 And it happened, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was [q]filled with the Holy Spirit. 42 Then she spoke out with a loud voice and said, [r]"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 But why is this granted to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For indeed, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
45 [s]Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

The Song of Mary

46 And Mary said:

[t]"My soul magnifies the Lord,
47 And my spirit has [u]rejoiced in [v]God
my Savior.
48 For [w]He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant;
For behold, henceforth [x]all generations
will call me blessed.
49 For He who is mighty [y]has done great things for me,
And [z]holy is His name.
50 And [a]His mercy is on those who fear
Him
From generation to generation.
51 [b]He has shown strength with His arm; [c]He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 [d]He has put down the mighty from their thrones,
And exalted the lowly.
53 He has [e]filled the hungry with good
things,
And the rich He has sent away empty.
54 He has helped His [f]servant Israel,
[g]In remembrance of His mercy,
55 [h]As He spoke to our [i]fathers,
To Abraham and to his [j]seed forever."

56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

Birth of John the Baptist

57 Now Elizabeth's full time came for her to be delivered, and she brought forth a son. 58 When her neighbors and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they [k]rejoiced with her.

Circumcision of John the Baptist

59 So it was, [l]on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him by the name of his father, Zacharias. 60 His mother answered and said, [m]"No; he shall be called John."

61 But they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name." 62 So they made signs to his father—
what he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, "His name is John." So they all marveled. 64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God. 65 Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea. 66 And all those who heard them [n]kept them in their hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be?" And [o]the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zacharias' Prophecy

67 Now his father Zacharias [p]was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying:

1:35 The Holy Spirit will come upon you. This is a direct declaration of Jesus' divine conception. The child's conception means He is uniquely set apart.

1:38 maidservant. This term suggests humility before the Lord and a readiness for faithful and obedient service, which should characterize every believer. Paul uses the masculine form of this word to describe himself (Rom. 1:1).

1:46 My soul magnifies the Lord. The following hymn gets its name, the "Magnificat," from the Latin word for magnifies. Mary's hymn is a recital of what God had done for her and for others in the past.

1:48 all generations will call me blessed. Mary went from being a poor unknown Hebrew girl to the most honored woman in the history of the world.

1:50 mercy. This term expresses the Old Testament concept of God's loyal, gracious, faithful love (Ps. 103).

1:51–53 He has put down the mighty. These verses portray a "reversal" in the end times, when those who have abused power will be judged and those who have suffered persecution will be exalted.

1:67 Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied. The presence of the Holy Spirit enabled

68 "Blessed[q] is the Lord God of Israel,
For [r]He has visited and redeemed His people,
69 [s]And has raised up a horn of salvation for us
In the house of His servant David,
70 [t]As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets,
Who have been [u]since the world began,
71 That we should be saved from our enemies
And from the hand of all who hate us,
72 [v]To perform the mercy promised to our fathers
And to remember His holy covenant,
73 [w]The oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
74 To grant us that we,
Being delivered from the hand of our enemies,
Might [x]serve Him without fear,
75 [y]In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.
76 "And you, child, will be called the [z]prophet of the Highest;
For [a]you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,
77 To give [b]knowledge of salvation to His people
By the remission of their sins,
78 Through the tender mercy of our God,
With which the Dayspring from on high has visited* us;
79 [c]To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
To [d]guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 So [e]the child grew and became strong in spirit, and [f]was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Christ Born of Mary

2 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. 2[a]This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. 3So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

4Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to [b]the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, [c]because he was of the house and lineage of David, 5to be registered with Mary, [d]his betrothed wife,* who was with child. 6So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. 7And [e]she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Glory in the Highest

8Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9And behold,* an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, [f]and they were greatly afraid. 10Then the angel said to them, [g]"Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy [h]which will be to all people. 11[i]For there is born to you this day in the city of David [j]a Savior, [k]who is Christ the Lord. 12And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger."

13[l]And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

Zacharias to announce God's promise. Zacharias's hymn is called the "Benedictus" from its first word in the Latin Vulgate translation. There are three types of prophecy in the Bible: foretelling future events, forth-telling the Word of God, and praising God. Zacharias's prophecy includes all three.

1:69 horn of salvation. The horn of an ox is a symbol of power (Deut. 33:17; 1 Sam. 2:10; 2 Sam. 22:3; Ps. 75:4–5,10; 132:17; Ezek. 29:21).

1:77 knowledge of salvation. John's task was to prepare the people by informing them of their need to repent (3:1–14) and of the One who was coming (3:15–18).

1:78 the Dayspring from on high has visited us. This phrase is a reference to the coming of Messiah (Num. 24:17; Mal. 4:2).

2:1–2 Augustus. This was the Roman emperor from 31 B.C. to A.D. 14. Quirinius. Quirinius was the governor or administrator of a major census organized to facilitate the collection of taxes.

2:3–4 to be registered. The registration, following Jewish custom, took place at a person's ancestral home (2 Sam. 24). The journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem was about 90 miles, at least a three-day trip.

2:9 glory. This word refers to evidence of God's majestic presence, later associated with Jesus (Acts 7:55). In this scene, the glory is the appearance of light in the midst of darkness.

2:11 Savior, who is Christ the Lord. These three titles together summarize the saving work of Jesus and His sovereign position. What God was called in 1:47, Jesus is called here. The word Christ means "Anointed," referring to Jesus' royal, messianic position. The word Lord was the title of a ruler.

14 "Glory[m] to God in the highest,
And on earth [n]peace, [o]goodwill toward men!"*

15So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." 16And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. 17Now when they had seen Him, they made widely* known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. 18And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. 19[p]But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. 20Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and [q]praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

Circumcision of Jesus

21[r]And when eight days were completed for the circumcision of the Child,* His name was called [s]JESUS, the name given by the angel [t]before He was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

22Now when [u]the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord 23[v](as it is written in the law of the Lord, [w]"Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD"),* 24and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, [x]*"A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Simeon Sees God's Salvation

25And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, [y]waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not [z]see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27So he came [a]by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, 28he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

29 "Lord, [b]now You are letting Your servant depart in peace,
According to Your word;
30 For my eyes [c]have seen Your salvation
31 Which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, 32 [d]A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of Your people Israel."

33And Joseph and His mother* marveled at those things which were spoken of Him. 34Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the [e]fall and rising of many in Israel, and for [f]a sign which will be spoken against 35(yes, [g]a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna Bears Witness to the Redeemer

36Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of [h]Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; 37and this woman was a widow of about eighty-four years,* who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [i]night and day. 38And coming in that instant she gave thanks to the Lord,* and spoke of Him to all those who [j]looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

The Family Returns to Nazareth

39So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city,

2:14 peace, goodwill toward men. Peace is not for everyone, but for those who please God.
2:21 when eight days. According to the law, a Jewish boy was to be circumcised on his eighth day (Gen. 17:12; Lev. 12:3).
2:25 Consolation of Israel. Simeon was waiting for the comforter of Israel, a hope that parallels the hope of national deliverance expressed in the two hymns of chapter one. This deliverance would involve the work of Messiah, as verse 26 suggests.
2:32 A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles. This is the first explicit statement in Luke that includes both Jew and Gentile. Salvation is portrayed as light (1:79). It would be a revelation to Gentiles because they would be able to participate in God's blessing with a fullness that had not been revealed in the Old Testament (Eph. 2:11—3:7).
2:36 there was one, Anna, a prophetess. Anna's work as a prophetess in the temple court suggests that she addressed all who would listen to her, as did Miriam (Ex. 15:20), Deborah (Judg. 4:4), and Huldah (2 Kin. 22:14).

The Boy Jesus Amazes the Scholars

41His parents went to [l]Jerusalem [m]every year at the Feast of the Passover. 42And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the [n]custom of the feast. 43When they had finished the [o]days, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother* did not know it; 44but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him. 46Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. 47And [p]all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. 48So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."

49And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be [q]about [r]My Father's business?" 50But [s]they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

Jesus Advances in Wisdom and Favor

51Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother [t]kept all these things in her heart. 52And Jesus [u]increased in wisdom and stature, [v]and in favor with God and men.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, [a]Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2while [b]Annas and Caiaphas were high priests,* the word of God came to [c]John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3[d]And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance [e]for the remission of sins, 4as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

[f]"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.
5 Every valley shall be filled
And every mountain and hill brought low;
The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough ways smooth;
6 And [g]all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"*

John Preaches to the People

7Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, [h]"Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Therefore bear fruits [i]worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 9And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore [j]every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10So the people asked him, saying, [k]"What shall we do then?"

11He answered and said to them, [l]"He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, [m]let him do likewise."

2:41 to Jerusalem every year. The annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem was customary for many who lived outside the city. The laws commanded three pilgrimages for the men each year: Passover, Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex. 23:14–17; Deut. 16:16).

2:49 I must be about My Father's business. This is the first indication in Luke's Gospel that Jesus knew He had a unique mission and a unique relationship to the Father.

3:1–2 Tiberius Caesar . . . Pontius Pilate . . . Herod . . . Annas . . . Caiaphas. The various rulers that Luke lists show the complexity of the historical and political situation in Israel during Jesus' day. A first-century Israelite had to deal with the edicts of the Roman emperor, the regulations of the governor over Israel, and the judgments of the religious leaders of Israel.

3:4–6 Prepare the way of the LORD. This citation from Isaiah 40:3–5 declares the coming of God's deliverance. Luke cites the text more fully than Matthew or Mark. He carries the passage through to its mention of salvation being seen by all flesh (v. 6), thus highlighting that the gospel is for all people. The preparation for the arrival of a king typically meant that a road was prepared for his journey. This is what Isaiah compares to the arrival of God's salvation.

3:8 Therefore bear fruits. John the Baptist warned that the fruits of repentance are necessary, not the claim of an ancestral connection to Abraham. External genealogical connections would not change one's attitude to God.

3:11 two tunics. One was an undergarment, and the 12 Then [n]tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, [o]"Collect no more than what is appointed for you." 14 Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?"
So he said to them, "Do not intimidate anyone [p]or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."
15 Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John,
whether he was the Christ or not, 16 John answered, saying to all, [q]"I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will [r]baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 17 His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and [s]gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire." 18 And with many other exhortations he preached to the people. 19 [t]But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,* and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

John Baptizes Jesus

21 When all the people were baptized,
[u]it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened. 22 And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, "You are My beloved Son; in You I am [v]well pleased."

other was an outer garment. A person did not need two when another person had none.

3:12 tax collectors. These men were Jewish agents employed by those who had purchased the right to collect taxes for the Roman state. They often added interest to cover their own expenses and to pad their income. They were disliked both for their business practices and for their support of the occupying state.

3:16–17 the Holy Spirit and fire. These two facets of Christ's work relate to His first and second comings. As a result of Christ's work at His first coming, believers are placed into one family (1 Cor. 12:13) and commended to the care of the Holy Spirit. When Christ comes a second time, He will come with the fire of judgment. winnowing fan. This tool was a wooden forklike shovel that lifted the grain in the air so that the wind could separate it from the chaff.

3:19–20 all the evils which Herod had done. Herod had divorced his wife to marry his own niece Herodias, who already had been the wife of his brother Philip. Not only was the divorce a problem, so was marrying such a close relative (Lev. 18:16; 20:21).

3:22 You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased. This statement combines two ideas. The idea of God's Son comes from Psalm 2:7, a psalm about God's chosen King. The idea of pleasure comes from the image of the Servant in Isaiah 42:1. The fact that Jesus is both King and Servant is fundamental to Jesus' identity.

5 Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him* all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6 And the devil said to Him, "All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for [f]this has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish. 7 Therefore, if You will worship before me, all will be Yours."

8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Get behind Me, Satan!* For* it is written, [g]'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"*

9 [h]Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. 10 For it is written:

> [i]'He shall give His angels charge over you,
> To keep you,'

11 and,

> [j]'In their hands they shall bear you up,
> Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'"*

12 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It has been said, [k]'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.'"*

13 Now when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from Him [l]until an opportune time.

Jesus Begins His Galilean Ministry

14 [m]Then Jesus returned [n]in the power of the Spirit to [o]Galilee, and [p]news of Him went out through all the surrounding region. 15 And He [q]taught in their synagogues, [r]being glorified by all.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

16 So He came to [s]Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, [t]He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

> 18 "The[u] Spirit of the LORD is upon Me,
> Because He has anointed Me
> To preach the gospel to the poor;
> *He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
> To proclaim liberty to the captives
> And recovery of sight to the blind,
> To [v]set at liberty those who are oppressed;
> 19 *To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."

* 4:4 Deuteronomy 8:3 • NU-Text omits but by every word of God. * 4:5 NU-Text reads And taking Him up, he showed Him. * 4:8 NU-Text omits Get behind Me, Satan. • NU-Text and M-Text omit For. • Deuteronomy 6:13 * 4:11 Psalm 91:11, 12 * 4:12 Deuteronomy 6:16 * 4:18 NU-Text omits to heal the brokenhearted. * 4:19 Isaiah 61:1, 2

examples of this quite plainly. The temptations are about security and power. In becoming man, Jesus gave up both (Phil. 2:5–11). Jesus didn't cling to any of what was by nature and identity rightfully His. In doing so, He had to trust fully in the Father for His life and very being. He can truly identify with our temptations. His experience wasn't just like ours are. No one ever gave up more power. No one of greater stature has ever been in such an insecure position. He can be there for us because He has been there before us.

4:3 If You are the Son of God. This is a conditional statement. In other words, Satan was saying: "Let's assume for the sake of argument that You are the Son of God." In fact, Satan was challenging Jesus' identity and authority.

4:4 It is written. Jesus responded to Satan's temptation by quoting Deuteronomy 8:3. Jesus refused to operate independently of God. The Spirit had led Him into the wilderness to prepare Him for His ministry, so eating at Satan's instruction would have shown a lack of dependence on the Father.

4:5 all the kingdoms of the world. This temptation was an attempt to offer Jesus power by the wrong means. Satan's method involved a detour around the cross, an inducement to "take the easy way" to power.

4:10–11 He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you. Satan cited Psalm 91:11–12, reminding Jesus of God's promise of protection. However, the mere use of biblical words does not always reveal God's will, particularly if they are placed in the wrong context.

4:12 You shall not tempt the LORD your God. In response to Satan's third temptation, Jesus cited Deuteronomy 6:16. God is to be trusted, not tested. The Deuteronomy passage refers to Israel's attempt to test God at Meribah (Ex. 17:1–7). Jesus would not repeat the nation's error of unfaithfulness to God.

4:16–17 stood up to read. Most synagogue services had a reading from the Law and one from the Prophets, with an exposition that tied the texts together. Jesus expounded Isaiah 61.

4:18–19 He has sent Me. By citing Isaiah 61, Jesus was claiming to be a royal figure and to have a prophetic mission (v. 24). liberty to the captives. In the Old Testament, captivity refers to Israel's exile (1:68–74); here captivity refers to sin (1:77; 7:47; 24:47; Acts 2:38; 5:31; 10:43; 13:38; 26:18). those who are oppressed. This was originally the call of Israel, but

20 Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. 21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is [w]fulfilled in your hearing." 22 So all bore witness to Him, and [x]marveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, [y]"Is this not Joseph's son?"

23 He said to them, "You will surely say this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done in [z]Capernaum,* do also here in [a]Your country.'" 24 Then He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, no [b]prophet is accepted in his own country. 25 But I tell you truly, [c]many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land; 26 but to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath,* in the region of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 [d]And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

28 So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were [e]filled with wrath, 29 [f]and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff. 30 Then [g]passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

Jesus Casts Out an Unclean Spirit

31 Then [h]He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths. 32 And they were [i]astonished at His teaching, [j]for His word was with authority. 33 [k]Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, 34 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? [l]I know who You are—[m]the Holy One of God!"

35 But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him. 36 Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." 37 And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Peter's Mother-in-Law Healed

38 [n]Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they [o]made request of Him concerning her. 39 So He stood over her and [p]rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

Many Healed After Sabbath Sunset

40 [q]When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. 41 [r]And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, [s]"You are the Christ,* the Son of God!"

And He, [t]rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

42 [u]Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them; 43 but He said to them, "I must [v]preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent." 44 [w]And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.*

* 4:23 Here and elsewhere the NU-Text spelling is Capharnaum. * 4:26 Greek Sarepta * 4:41 NU-Text omits the Christ. * 4:44 NU-Text reads Judea.

the nation had failed in its assignment (Is. 58:6). the acceptable year of the Lord. This phrase is an allusion to the year of Jubilee when every 50th year all debt was forgiven and slaves were given their freedom (Lev. 25:10).

4:20 He closed the book. Jesus closed the book in the middle of the sentence. He did not continue because the next phrase—"the day of vengeance of our God"—was not being fulfilled then.

4:34 What have we to do with You. The demon knew that Jesus possessed divine authority, and he wanted nothing to do with Him.

4:35–36 rebuked. This term in Aramaic was a technical term for calling evil into submission. Jesus' authority over evil forces is clear.

4:41 You are the Christ, the Son of God. This confession, unique to the Gospel of Luke, shows the close connection Luke makes between Jesus' sonship and messiahship.

4:43 kingdom of God. In Luke, the kingdom is referred to thirty times and six times in Acts. Jesus announced the rule of God through His person, in dealing with sin (24:47), in distributing the Spirit as He mediates blessing from God's side (24:49), and in reigning with His followers according to the Old Testament promise (Ps. 2:7–12; Acts 3:18–22).

Four Fishermen Called as Disciples

5 So [a]it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to [b]hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, 2and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. 3Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He [c]sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

4When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, [d]"Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

5But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught [e]nothing; nevertheless [f]at Your word I will let down the net." 6And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. 7So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [g]"Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

9For he and all who were with him were [h]astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; 10and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. [i]From now on you will catch men." 11So when they had brought their boats to land, [j]they forsook all and followed Him.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

12[k]And it happened when He was in a certain city, that behold, a man who was full of [l]leprosy saw Jesus; and he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13Then He put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." [m]Immediately the leprosy left him. 14[n]And He charged him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them, [o]just as Moses commanded."

15However, [p]the report went around concerning Him all the more; and [q]great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities. 16[r]So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and [s]prayed.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic

17Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.* 18[t]Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him. 19And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst [u]before Jesus.

20When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21[v]And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? [w]Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

22But when Jesus [x]perceived their thoughts, He answered and said to them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts? 23Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'? 24But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the man who was paralyzed, [y]"I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

* 5:17 NU-Text reads present with Him to heal.

5:1 Gennesaret. This is another name for the Sea of Galilee or the Sea of Tiberias.

5:5 at Your word I will let down the net. This is Peter's statement of faith. The fisherman noted that he and his companions had just failed to make a catch at the best time for fishing, the evening. The circumstances were not good for a catch at the time of Jesus' command, but Peter chose to obey His word and let down his nets anyway.

5:12 leprosy. This term was used broadly in the ancient world. It included psoriasis, lupus, and ringworm. Lepers were isolated from the rest of society (Lev. 13:45–46), but could be restored to the community when they recovered (Lev. 14).

5:14 show yourself to the priest. Jesus commanded that the regulation of Leviticus 14 be followed in silencing the healed leper. Jesus sought to avoid drawing excessive attention to His healing ministry.

5:21 blasphemies. The charge of the scribes and the Pharisees was that Jesus' claim dishonored God. This was a serious charge; the conviction of blasphemy would eventually lead to Jesus' death (22:70–71).

5:23 Which is easier. Jesus posed a riddle to His audience. From an external point of view, it would seem easier to declare sins forgiven than to actually heal a person. In reality, however, one has to possess more authority to forgive sin. Jesus linked the healing to what it represented, the forgiveness of sin. Jesus forgave the man's sins and healed him at the same time.

5:24 Son of Man. This is an Aramaic idiom that refers to a human being, meaning "someone" or "I." Jesus used this idiom as a title, taken from Daniel 7:13. In the Book of Daniel, the phrase "Son of Man" describes a figure who shares authority with the Ancient of Days.

rified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today!"

Matthew the Tax Collector

27 [b]After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, [c]"Follow Me." 28 So he left all, rose up, and [d]followed
Him.
29 [e]Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And [f]there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them. 30 And their scribes and the Pharisees* complained against His disciples, saying, [g]"Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" 31 Jesus answered and said to them,
"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 32 [h]I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

Jesus Is Questioned About Fasting

33 Then they said to Him, [i]"Why do* the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?" 34 And He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the [j]bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; then they will fast in those days."
36 [k]Then He spoke a parable to them: "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old one;* otherwise the new makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the new does not match the old. 37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined. 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved.*
39 And no one, having drunk old wine, immediately* desires new; for he says, 'The old is better.'"*

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

6 Now [a]it happened on the second Sabbath after the first* that He went through the grainfields. And His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate them, rubbing them in their hands. 2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing [b]what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"
3 But Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read this, [c]what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: 4 how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, [d]which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat?" 5 And He said to them, "The Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

6 [e]Now it happened on another Sabbath, also, that He entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered. 7 So the scribes and Pharisees watched Him closely, whether He would [f]heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an [g]accusation against Him.
8 But He [h]knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Arise and stand here." And he arose and stood.

* 5:30 NU-Text reads But the Pharisees and their scribes. * 5:33 NU-Text omits Why do, making the verse a statement. * 5:36 NU-Text reads No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it on an old one. * 5:38 NU-Text omits and both are preserved. * 5:39 NU-Text omits immediately. • NU-Text reads good. * 6:1 NU-Text reads on a Sabbath.

5:29 with them. In ancient Israel the table was a place where spiritual points were taught and where fellowship occurred.

5:33 fast. The Pharisees fasted twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays (18:12), as well as on the Day of Atonement (Lev. 16:29). They also fasted as an act of penitence (Is. 58:1–9) and to recall four times a year the destruction of Jerusalem (Zech. 7:3,5; 8:19). The goal of fasting was to dedicate oneself to prayer and to focus on God. John led an ascetic life, which his followers also imitated (7:24–28; Matt. 11:1–19).

5:35 the days will come. The image of the removal of the bridegroom is the first hint in Jesus' ministry of His fast-approaching death.

5:37 puts new wine into old wineskins. This would not work because as the new wine fermented, it would stretch the old skin and break it, ruining the wineskin and wasting the wine.

6:1 plucked . . . ate . . . rubbing. According to Jewish tradition, the disciples were reaping, threshing, and preparing food, and so were violating the commandment not to work on the Sabbath. It is clear that at this point the Pharisees were watching Jesus carefully (v. 7).

6:3–4 showbread. This was bread that was taken from the twelve loaves placed on a table in the holy place and changed once a week (Ex. 25:30; 39:36; Lev. 24:5–9). Jesus pointed out that if David and his men could violate the law to satisfy their hunger, His disciples could do the same.

6:5 also Lord of the Sabbath. Regardless of the laws and customs that the Pharisees cited, Jesus has authority over the Sabbath. Jesus' claim of divine authority here is similar to His claim of authority to forgive sins in 5:21, 24.

9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: [i]Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy?"* 10 And when He had looked around at them all, He said to the man,* "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.*
11 But they were filled with rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

12 Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray,
and continued all night in [j]prayer to God.
13 And when it was day, He called His disciples to Himself; [k]and from them He chose [l]twelve whom He also named apostles:
14 Simon, [m]whom He also named Peter,
and Andrew his brother; James and John;
Philip and Bartholomew; 15 Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot; 16 Judas [n]the son of James, and [o]Judas Iscariot who also became a traitor.

Jesus Heals a Great Multitude

17 And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples [p]and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, 18 as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed.
19 And the whole multitude [q]sought to [r]touch Him, for [s]power went out from Him and healed them all.

The Beatitudes

20 Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

[t]"Blessed are you poor,
For yours is the kingdom of God.

21 [u]Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be [v]filled.
[w]Blessed are you who weep now,
For you shall [x]laugh.
22 [y]Blessed are you when men hate you,
And when they [z]exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man's sake.
23 [a]Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in
heaven,
For [b]in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

Jesus Pronounces Woes

24 "But[c] woe to you [d]who are rich,
For [e]you have received your consolation.
25 [f]Woe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
[g]Woe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and [h]weep.
26 [i]Woe to you* when all* men speak well
of you,
For so did their fathers to the false
prophets.

Love Your Enemies

27 [j]"But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 [k]bless those who curse you, and [l]pray for those who spitefully use you. 29 [m]To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. [n]And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. 30 [o]Give to everyone who asks of you.
And from him who takes away your goods
do not ask them back. 31 [p]And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.

* 6:9 M-Text reads to kill. * 6:10 NU-Text and M-Text read to him. • NU-Text omits as whole as the other. * 6:26 NU-Text and M-Text omit to you. • M-Text omits all.

6:11 rage. The term here means irrational or mindless anger. The parallels in Matthew 12:14 and Mark 3:6 make it clear that the Pharisees started to plot against Jesus in earnest after this confrontation.

6:17 level place. This probably refers to a plateau on a mountain. The setting and the contents of the sermon that follows suggest that Luke is providing a shorter version of the Sermon on the Mount, omitting those portions that have to do with the law.

6:20 Blessed are you. Blessed means "happy," referring to the special joy and favor that comes upon those who experience God's grace.

6:22 For the Son of Man's sake. Identification with Jesus usually leads to rejection and hardship, but the disciple who has left all to follow Jesus understands what placing Jesus first means. He or she also recognizes that God is aware of all suffering.

6:24 woe. A woe is a cry of pain that results from misfortune. Just as God presented blessings for obedience and curses for disobedience in Deuteronomy 28, Jesus presented blessings and woes to His disciples who were anticipating the kingdom. The same blessings and woes apply to believers today when their works are evaluated (1 Cor. 3:12–15; 2 Cor. 5:10; 1 John 2:28; Rev. 22:12).

6:27–28 Love your enemies. The threat of religious persecution was very real when Jesus presented His command for extraordinary love. The reference to a cursing enemy suggests a context of religious persecution.

6:30 do not ask them back. The commands of verses 29 and 30 are expressed in such absolute terms that credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34 [r]And if you lend to those from evil. 36 [w]Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

37 [x]"Judge not, and you shall not be judged.
Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. [y]Forgive, and you will be forgiven.
38 [z]Give, and it will be given to you: good Hypocrite! First remove the plank from to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye.

A Tree Is Known by Its Fruit

43 [f]"For a good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit.
44 For [g]every tree is known by its own fruit.
For men do not gather figs from thorns,
nor do they gather grapes from a bram-ble bush. 45 [h]A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good;
and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart* brings forth evil. For out [i]of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Build on the Rock

46 [j]"But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say? 47 [k]Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you whom he is like: 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation
on the rock. And when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, and could not shake it, for it was founded on the rock.* 49 But he who heard and did nothing is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehement-ly; and immediately it fell.* And the ruin of that house was great."

Jesus Heals a Centurion's Servant

7 Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He [a]entered Capernaum. 2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. 3 So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant. 4 And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was deserving, 5 "for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue."

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof. 7 Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But [b]say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8 For I also am a man placed under [c]authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one,
'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,'
and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,'
and he does it."

they force the listener to reflect on them by contrasting them with the normal responses people would have to such injustices.

6:35 He is kind to the unthankful and evil. The practice of loving one's enemies is modeled by God Himself.

6:38 good measure. This illustration comes from the marketplace where grain was poured out, shaken down, and then filled to overflowing so the buyer received the full amount purchased. Such is the full measure that will be returned to one who has been generous.

6:46 Lord, Lord. Jesus pointed out that those who called Him by this title of respect acknowledged submission to Him. However when these same people ignored His teaching, they were guilty of hypocrisy.

7:1 Capernaum. This city was on the northwest shore of the Sea of Galilee. It was an important town in northern Galilee with an economy centered on fishing and agriculture. Heavily Jewish, it was the center for Jesus' Galilean ministry (4:31–44).

7:5 built us a synagogue. The Roman government regarded synagogues as valuable because their moral emphasis helped maintain order.

9When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, "I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!" 10And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.*

Jesus Raises the Son of the Widow of Nain

11Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd. 12And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her. 13When the Lord saw her, He had [d]compassion on her and said to her, [e]"Do not weep." 14Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, [f]arise." 15So he who was dead [g]sat up and began to speak. And He [h]presented him to his mother.

16[i]Then fear came upon all, and they [j]glorified God, saying, [k]"A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, [l]"God has visited His people." 17And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

John the Baptist Sends Messengers to Jesus

18[m]Then the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things. 19And John, calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to Jesus,* saying, "Are You [n]the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

20When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?'" 21And that very hour He cured many of infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.

22[o]Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: [p]that the blind [q]see, the lame [r]walk, the lepers are [s]cleansed, the deaf [t]hear, the dead are raised, [u]the poor have the gospel preached to them. 23And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me."

24[v]When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings' courts. 26But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. 27This is he of whom it is written:

> [w]'Behold, I send My messenger before
> Your face,
> Who will prepare Your way before
> You.'*

28For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a [x]greater prophet than John the Baptist;* but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29And when all the people heard Him, even the tax collectors justified God, [y]having been baptized with the baptism of John. 30But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected [z]the will of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.

31And the Lord said,* [a]"To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like? 32They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying:

> 'We played the flute for you,
> And you did not dance;
> We mourned to you,
> And you did not weep.'

33For [b]John the Baptist came [c]neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34The Son of Man has come [d]eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35[e]But wisdom is justified by all her children."

7:9 not even in Israel. The centurion's example of faith came from outside the nation of Israel. This is one of only two cases where Jesus "marveled" (Mark 6:6).

7:12 a dead man . . . carried out. This was a funeral procession. The cemetery was located outside the city gates. Funerals were normally held the day of death because keeping a body overnight rendered a house unclean.

7:24–26 He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John. The questions that Jesus asked were designed to emphasize that John the Baptist played a special role in God's plan. The crowds did not go out to the wilderness to see scenery or a man dressed in special clothes, but to see a prophet.

7:28 he who is least in the kingdom of God. Jesus emphasizes the contrast between the old and new eras. John was the greatest prophet ever born. But the lowest person in the new era of God's kingdom is higher than the greatest prophet of the old era.

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

36 [f]Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat. 37 And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil, 38 and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil. 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, [g]"This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

So he said, "Teacher, say it."

41 "There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred [h]denarii, and the other fifty. 42 And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"

43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more."

And He said to him, "You have rightly judged." 44 Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no [i]water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45 You gave Me no [j]kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in. 46 [k]You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. 47 [l]Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

48 Then He said to her, [m]"Your sins are forgiven."

49 And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, [n]"Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50 Then He said to the woman, [o]"Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Many Women Minister to Jesus

8 Now it came to pass, afterward, that He went through every city and village, preaching and bringing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him, 2 and [a]certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities—Mary called Magdalene, [b]out of whom had come seven demons, 3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who provided for Him* from their substance.

The Parable of the Sower

4 [c]And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable: 5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. 6 Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. 8 But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, [d]"He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Purpose of Parables

9 [e]Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"

10 And He said, "To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that marketplace and the present generation of Israel, referring especially to the Jewish religious leaders. The leaders were like the children in that they complained no matter what tune was played. John the Baptist refused to eat bread or drink wine, and the religious leaders dismissed him as demon-possessed. In contrast, Jesus, the Son of Man was accused of living loosely and associating with sinners. No matter what the style of God's messenger was, the religious leaders complained and rejected him.

> *And hearing they may not understand.'

7:36 one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. This event is not the same as the one in Matthew 26:6–13; Mark 14:3–9; and John 12:1–8. The event described in those passages occurred in the house of a leper, a place where no Pharisee would ever have gone.

7:37 alabaster flask. This was made of soft stone to preserve the quality of the precious and expensive perfume. There is humility and devotion in the woman's act of service, as well as a great deal of courage, as she performed the deed in front of a crowd that knew her as a sinner.

7:44–46 Do you see this woman? Jesus contrasted the actions of the woman with the actions of the Pharisee Simon, implying that the woman knew more about forgiveness than Simon (v. 47).

8:1–3 Mary called Magdalene. Because she is introduced here, it is unlikely that she was the sinful woman of 7:36–50. Joanna. This is an example of how some women of means used their wealth to benefit the work of God.

8:10 kingdom . . . parables. Jesus' parables both concealed and revealed truths. The disciples were

The Parable of the Sower Explained

11 [g]"Now the parable is this: The seed is the [h]word of God. 12 Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. 13 But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away.
14 Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, [i]riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15 But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with [j]patience.

The Parable of the Revealed Light

16 [k]"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the [l]light. 17 [m]For nothing is secret that will not be [n]revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light. 18 Therefore take heed how you hear. [o]For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to [p]have will be taken from him."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers Come to Him

19 [q]Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd. 20 And it was told Him by some, who said, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You."

21 But He answered and said to them,
"My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

Wind and Wave Obey Jesus

22 [r]Now it happened, on a certain day,
that He got into a boat with His disciples.
And He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they launched out. 23 But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!"

Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 But He said to them, [s]"Where is your faith?"

And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, [t]"Who can this be?
For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!"

A Demon-Possessed Man Healed

26 [u]Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes,* which is opposite Galilee.
27 And when He stepped out on the land,
there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes,* nor did he live in a house
but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he [v]cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, [w]"What have I to do with [x]You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!" 29 For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound privileged to learn the truths of parables. For other listeners, the parables served as judgments that concealed truth, as the reference to Isaiah 6:9 indicates. On occasion, a parable was understood by an outsider but was not accepted, thus still functioning as a message of judgment (20:9–19).

8:13 who believe for a while . . . fall away. Brief and superficial encounters with the Word of God will not stand times of testing. A person needs to meditate on the truths in Scripture and establish them as principles for living in order to withstand the trials and temptations that will inevitably come.

8:14 cares, riches, and pleasures of life. According to this parable, these three are the great obstacles to spiritual fruitfulness. The concerns of life can squelch spiritual growth. This type of "soil" is viewed as tragically unsuccessful (2 Tim. 2:4; 4:10).

8:19–20 Then his mother and brothers came to Him. Jesus' family was concerned about the direction of His ministry (Mark 3:31–35). Though some have suggested that the brothers here were sons of Joseph by a previous marriage or cousins of Jesus, most likely they were the sons of Joseph and Mary. Joseph's absence here may mean that he had died by this time.

8:23 a windstorm. The calming of the wind is the first of four miracles in verses 22–56 that demonstrate Jesus' authority over a variety of phenomena—nature, demons, disease, and death. This miracle took place on the Sea of Galilee. Cool air rushing down the ravines and hills of the area collides with warm air from the Sea of Galilee, causing sudden and strong storms.

8:25 Where is your faith? Jesus' question was a rebuke of His disciples. Because God was aware of their situation, they could trust in His protection, for He was powerful enough to control the winds and waves.

8:28 Son of the Most High God. The demon's confession recalls the angel's announcement to Mary in 1:31–32 and the demonic confessions of 4:34, 41.

with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

30 Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?"

And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. 31 And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out [y]into the abyss.

32 Now a herd of many [z]swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them. 33 Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

34 When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. 35 Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, [a]sitting at the [b]feet of Jesus, clothed and in his [c]right mind. And they were afraid. 36 They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was healed. 37 [d]Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes* [e]asked Him to [f]depart from them, for they were seized with great [g]fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

38 Now [h]the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

40 So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. 41 [i]And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, 42 for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she [j]was dying.

But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. 43 [k]Now a woman, having a [l]flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, 44 came from behind and [m]touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those with him* said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "*

46 But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived [n]power going out from Me." 47 Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer;* [o]your faith has made you well. [p]Go in peace."

49 [q]While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."*

50 But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; [r]only believe, and she will be made well." 51 When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in* except Peter, James, and John,* and the father and mother of the girl. 52 Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, [s]"Do not weep; she is not dead, [t]but sleeping." 53 And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead.

54 But He put them all outside,* took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, [u]arise." 55 Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. 56 And her parents were astonished, but [v]He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

8:30 Legion. This name reflects the fact that the man was possessed by multiple demons. A legion was a Roman military unit of about 6,000 soldiers.

8:31 the abyss. This is an allusion to the underworld and the destruction of judgment (Rom. 10:7).

8:44 her flow of blood stopped. This condition not only would have been embarrassing, it would have made the woman unclean (Lev. 15:25–31). It took great courage for her to seek out Jesus. Note that her action was not criticized, but commended (v. 48).

8:52 but sleeping. Sleeping was a common metaphor for death. Here it indicates that the girl's death was not permanent.

diseases. 2[c]He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3[d]And He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money; and do not have two tunics apiece.
4[e]"Whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. 5[f]And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, [g]shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them."
6[h]So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

Herod Seeks to See Jesus

7[i]Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9Herod said, "John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" [i]So he sought to see Him.

Feeding the Five Thousand

10[k]And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. [l]Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. 11But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing. 12[m]When the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."
13But He said to them, "You give them something to eat."
And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people." 14For there were about five thousand men.
Then He said to His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty." 15And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He [n]blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17So they all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

18[o]And it happened, as He was alone praying, that His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"
19So they answered and said, [p]"John the Baptist, but some say Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."
20He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"
[q]Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection

21[r]And He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one, 22saying, [s]"The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

Take Up the Cross and Follow Him

23[t]Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,* and follow Me. 24[u]For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life

* 9:23 M-Text omits daily.

9:2 to preach . . . to heal the sick. The entire nation of Israel needed to see the evidence of the kingdom of God and make a decision concerning the King. Jesus commissioned His disciples to spread the word about God's kingdom through preaching and healing.
9:11 spoke . . . healing. Jesus had the same two-pronged ministry that the twelve disciples had: preaching and healing (v. 2). The topic of Jesus' preaching was always the kingdom of God.
9:13–17 about five thousand men. This is the only miracle of Jesus' ministry that appears in all four Gospels. The feeding of the 5,000 demonstrated Jesus' ability to provide.
9:20 The Christ of God. The emphasis here is on the messianic role of Jesus. He is the Promised One who was ushering in a new era. However, Jesus would soon reveal to the disciples that His messiahship would have elements of suffering that the disciples did not expect (vv. 22–23).
9:22 must suffer . . . be rejected . . . be killed . . . be raised. This is the first of several predictions in Luke of Jesus' suffering and vindication (v. 44; 12:50; 13:31–33; 17:25; 18:31–33). The disciples struggled to understand what Jesus was saying (v. 45; 18:34). They could not comprehend how Jesus' predictions fit into God's plan. Only after Jesus' resurrection and His explanation of the Scriptures to them did they begin to understand (24:25–27,44–49).
9:23 take up his cross daily. Although Jesus offered salvation as a free gift (John 1:12; 3:16–18), He also warned that following Him would entail suffering and hardship (Matt. 5:10–12; Rom. 8:17; 2 Thess. 1:5).
9:24–25 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world. It makes no sense to attempt to save our lives on earth only to lose everything when

Jesus Transfigured on the Mount

28[z]Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. 29As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and glistening. 30And behold, two men talked with Him, who were [a]Moses and [b]Elijah, 31who appeared in glory and spoke of His decease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32But Peter and those with him [c]were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him. 33Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said.

34While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the [d]cloud. 35And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, [e]"This is My beloved Son.* [f]Hear Him!" 36When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. [g]But they kept quiet, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

A Boy Is Healed

37[h]Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him. 38Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child. 39And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him. 40So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

41Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." 42And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

43And they were all amazed at the majesty of God.

But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples, 44[i]"Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men." 45[j]But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

Who Is the Greatest?

46[k]Then a dispute arose among them as to which of them would be greatest. 47And Jesus, [l]perceiving the thought of their heart, took a [m]little child and set him by Him, 48and said to them, [n]"Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and [o]whoever receives Me [p]receives Him who sent Me. [q]For he who is least among you all will be great."

Jesus Forbids Sectarianism

49[r]Now John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us."

50But Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for [s]he who is not against us* is on our* side."

our lives quickly and inevitably pass away. The wise course is to invest our earthly resources—our time, talents, and wealth—in what is eternal.

9:31 spoke of His decease. This important allusion to the central Old Testament event of salvation is unique to Luke's account of the transfiguration. The comparison is made between Jesus' death and the journey to salvation that the nation of Israel experienced under Moses.

9:34 cloud. This is an allusion to the presence of God (Ex. 40:35).

9:41 O faithless and perverse generation. This rebuke suggests that the disciples lacked the faith to cast out the spirit described in verses 38–40. There is also a hint of a competitive spirit among the disciples (v. 46).

9:45 they were afraid to ask. The indication here is that the disciples still had much to learn. Their fear shows that they understood something about what Jesus said, but they did not understand how and why Jesus could say such things about Himself, since He was the Messiah. The suffering of the Messiah was something the disciples did not yet understand. They would continue to be confused in their understanding of how such suffering fit into God's plan until Jesus' death and resurrection (24:25–26,43–49).

A Samaritan Village Rejects the Savior

51 Now it came to pass, when the time had come for [t]Him to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, 52 and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him. 53 But [u]they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem. 54 And when His disciples [v]James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as [w]Elijah did?"*

55 But He turned and rebuked them,* and said, "You do not know what manner of [x]spirit you are of. 56 For [y]the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them."* And they went to another village.

The Cost of Discipleship

57 [z]Now it happened as they journeyed on the road, that someone said to Him, "Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man [a]has nowhere to lay His head."

59 [b]Then He said to another, "Follow Me."

But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

60 Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God."

61 And another also said, "Lord, [c]I will follow You, but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house."

62 But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is [d]fit for the kingdom of God."

The Seventy Sent Out

10 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also,* and [a]sent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go. 2 Then He said to them, [b]"The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore [c]pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest. 3 Go your way; [d]behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4 [e]Carry neither money bag, knapsack, nor sandals; and [f]greet no one along the road. 5 [g]But whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.' 6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you. 7 [h]And remain in the same house, [i]eating and drinking such things as they give, for [j]the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house. 8 Whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. 9 [k]And heal the sick there, and say to them, [l]'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11 [m]'The very dust of your city which clings to us* we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near you.' 12 But* I say to you that [n]it will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

Woe to the Impenitent Cities

13 [o]"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! [p]For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon

9:51 He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem. This is the first indication that Jesus' attention was turning toward His final suffering in Jerusalem (v. 53; 13:22; 17:11; 18:31; 19:11,28,41). Luke's Gospel uniquely emphasizes this journey to Jerusalem.

9:52 Samaritans. These people were the descendants of Jews who had married Gentiles after the fall of the northern kingdom, Israel. The Samaritans eventually developed their own religious rites which they practiced on Mount Gerizim instead of at the temple in Jerusalem. Though there was deep hostility between Jews and Samaritans, Jesus ministered to both groups.

9:54 command fire to come down. James and John wanted Jesus to bring judgment upon the Samaritan villages that refused to respond to His message, just as Elijah had done in 2 Kings 1:9–16. Their demand for judgment was antithetical to Jesus' loving response (v. 56).

9:59 let me first go and bury my father. This aspiring disciple placed family responsibilities ahead of following Jesus. The concerns of home were this man's stumbling block.

9:62 fit for the kingdom. This remark of Jesus demonstrates the seriousness of commitment to Him.

10:2 The harvest truly is great. The picture of a great harvest suggests that a positive response awaited the laborers, even in the face of much rejection.

10:3 lambs among wolves. This image from Isaiah 40:11 was a popular one in Judaism.

10:13 if the mighty works . . . had been done. Jesus' remark was meant to wake the people up to what their rejection of Him signified.

The Seventy Return with Joy

17Then [w]the seventy* returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."

18And He said to them, [x]"I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19Behold, [y]I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather* rejoice because [z]your names are written in heaven."

Jesus Rejoices in the Spirit

21[a]In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. 22[b]All* things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and [c]no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."

23Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, [d]"Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; 24for I tell you [e]that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, [f]"Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26He said to him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?"

27So he answered and said, [g]"'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,'* and [h]'your neighbor as yourself.'"*

28And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and [i]you will live."

29But he, wanting to [j]justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, [k]he passed by on the other side. 32Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side. 33But a certain [l]Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. 10:16 He who hears you hears Me. Hearing the messenger is the same as hearing the One who sent him. Authority resides not in the messenger, but in the person the messenger represents, the source of the message.

10:18 I saw Satan. This verse provides a commentary on what the disciples' healing ministry meant. The reversal of the effects of sin and death, which Satan introduced through his deception in Genesis 3 is portrayed graphically as Satan falling from heaven. Jesus' ministry and what grows out of it represents the defeat of Satan, sin, and death.

10:19–20 I give you the authority. This passage records the transmission of Jesus' power to His immediate circle of disciples. It should be noted that similar power was not given beyond that circle of disciples.

10:22 All things have been delivered to Me. This is Jesus' declaration of total authority as the Son of God (John 10:18; 17:2). Jesus declares His unique relationship with God the Father. The Lord reveals Himself only through Jesus. To know God, one must know His Son, Jesus.

10:25–26 what shall I do to inherit eternal life. The question posed by the lawyer is really a challenge, since the verse speaks of the testing of Jesus. This is a similar, though probably distinct, event from Matthew 22:34–40 and Mark 12:28–34. To inherit something is to receive it. In other words, the man was asking, "What must I do to share in the reward at the resurrection of the righteous at the end?"

10:27 love the LORD . . . your neighbor. The lawyer responded to Jesus' question by quoting Deuteronomy 6:5, a text that was recited twice a day by every faithful Jew. This text summarized the central ethical standard of the law.

10:28 do this and you will live. Jesus was not saying that righteousness is the result of works. Rather He was saying that love for and obedience to God will be a natural result of placing one's faith in the Lord.

10:29 who is my neighbor. This question was an attempt to limit the demands of the law by suggesting that some people are neighbors while others are not. The lawyer was looking for minimal obedience while Jesus was looking for absolute obedience.

10:30 Jerusalem to Jericho. This was a 17-mile journey on a road known to harbor many robbers.

10:31–33 priest . . . Levite . . . Samaritan. Part of the beauty of the story of the Good Samaritan is the reversal of stereotypes. The priest and Levite traditionally would have been the "good guys." The 37And he said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, [o]"Go and do likewise."

Mary and Martha Worship and Serve

38Now it happened as they went that He entered a certain village; and a certain woman named [p]Martha welcomed Him into her house. 39And she had a sister called Mary, [q]who also [r]sat at Jesus'* feet and heard His word. 40But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she approached Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me."

41And Jesus* answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. 42But [s]one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her."

The Model Prayer

11 Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

2So He said to them, "When you pray, say:

[a]Our Father in heaven,*
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.*
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
3 Give us day by day our daily bread.
4 And [b]forgive us our sins,
For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one."*

A Friend Comes at Midnight

5And He said to them, "Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves; 6for a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; 7and he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'? 8I say to you, [c]though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as many as he needs.

Keep Asking, Seeking, Knocking

9[d]"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; [e]seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. 10For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 11[f]If a son asks for bread* from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? 12Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? 13If you then, being evil, know how to give [g]good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Samaritan would have been a "bad guy," a person who compromised in religious matters. However, the Samaritan knew how to treat his neighbor. The neighbor here was not someone the Samaritan knew or even someone of the same race, just someone in need.

10:36 which . . . was neighbor. The central issue is not determining who one's neighbor is, but being a good neighbor to all.

11:1 Lord, teach us to pray. The Lord's Prayer illustrates the variety of requests that one can and should make to God, as well as displaying the humble attitude that should accompany prayer. The use of the plural pronoun "us" throughout the prayer shows that it is not just the prayer of one person for his or her own personal needs, but a community prayer.

11:2 Your kingdom come. The reference here is to God's program and promise. This is more affirmation than request, highlighting the petitioner's submission to God's will and the desire to see God's work come to pass.

11:4 we also forgive. The petitioner recognizes that if mercy is to be sought from God, then mercy must be shown to others. We need to adopt the same standard that we expect others to follow. do not lead us into temptation. This remark is often misunderstood as suggesting that perhaps God can lead us into sin. The point is that if one is to avoid sin, one must follow where God leads. In short, the petitioner asks God for the spiritual protection necessary to avoid falling into sin.

gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled. 15But some of them said, [i]"He casts out demons by Beelzebub,* the ruler of the demons."

16Others, testing Him, [j]sought from Him a sign from heaven. 17[k]But [l]He, knowing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls. 18If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub. 19And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 20But if I cast out demons [m]with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. 21[n]When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace. 22But [o]when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils. 23[p]He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit Returns

24[q]"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' 25And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order. 26Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and [r]the last state of that man is worse than the first."

Keeping the Word

27And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, [s]"Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!"

28But He said, [t]"More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

Seeking a Sign

29[u]And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a [v]sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.* 30For as [w]Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. 31[x]The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a [y]greater than Solomon is here. 32The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for [z]they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

The Lamp of the Body

33[a]"No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a [b]basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. 34[c]The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. 35Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness. 36If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

Woe to the Pharisees and Lawyers

* 11:15 NU-Text and M-Text read Beelzebul.

11:17–18 you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub. The attribution of Jesus' miracles to Satan was not only blasphemous, it was illogical. If Satan had cast out the demon (v. 14), he would have been destroying the result of his own work.

11:20 the finger of God. This phrase is an allusion to God's power, like that demonstrated in the Exodus (Ex. 8:19; Deut. 9:10; Ps. 8:3). the kingdom of God has come upon you. Jesus' miracles represented the arrival of God's power and promise—in short, His rule. That rule comes in and through Jesus. The miracles of Jesus demonstrated God's victory over the forces of evil. The kingdom program, depicted as drawing near, will be consummated at the return of Jesus when this rule is manifested over every creature.

11:22 when a stronger than he. Jesus portrays Himself as someone stronger than Satan who overruns Satan's house and gives the spoils of victory to those who are His (Eph. 4:8–9).

11:23 He who is not with Me. Jesus' ministry forces everyone to make a choice. Neutrality is not an option. Either Jesus comes from God or He does not. Not to align with Jesus is to be against Him.

11:26 the last state. Jesus' point is that experiencing God's blessing and then ignoring it leaves one callous towards the work of God and exposed to the control of demonic forces.

11:29 the sign of Jonah. This refers to his prophetic call to repentance rather than to the resurrection foreshadowed by Jonah's return from the belly of the great fish.

11:36 your whole body is full of light. A person can become like light, a living picture of what God's Word teaches, by concentrating on the light of the truth.

and sat down to eat. 38[d]When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

39[e]Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but [f]your inward part is full of greed and wickedness. 40Foolish ones! Did not [g]He who made the outside make the inside also? 41[h]But rather give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

42[i]"But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and [j]pass by justice and the [k]love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone. 43[l]Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. 44[m]Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!* [n]For you are like graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45Then one of the lawyers answered and said to Him, "Teacher, by saying these things You reproach us also."

46And He said, "Woe to you also, lawyers! [o]For you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. 47[p]Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49Therefore the wisdom of God also said, [q]'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,' 50that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, 51[r]from the blood of Abel to [s]the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

52[t]"Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

53And as He said these things to them,* the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, 54lying in wait for Him, and [u]seeking to catch Him in something He might say, that they might accuse Him.*

Beware of Hypocrisy

12 In [a]the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, [b]"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2[c]For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. 3Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

11:39 make the outside . . . clean. These condemnations by Jesus are similar to those in Matthew 23. The Pharisees washed the outside of cups, making sure that the cups had not become unclean through contact with a dead insect (Lev. 11:31–38). Jesus pointed out that the Pharisees concerned themselves with outward appearances and ritual cleanness, while what was inside, what really counts, was full of selfishness and evil.

11:42 tithe mint and rue. Some Pharisees took the strictest interpretation and counted almost anything, including spices. However, they neglected two basic things that the prophets also had warned about: love and justice (Mic. 6:8; Zech. 7:8–10).

11:46 burdens. This term refers to a ship's cargo. The idea is that a heavy strain was being imposed on the people and yet, in the end, this burden did not bring them close to God. Here Jesus rebuked the tradition that had grown up around the law of Moses.

11:47–48 you build the tombs of the prophets. Jesus made a biting, ironic comparison between the current generation of Israel and the generations of the past. Jesus was saying that the current generation finished the job of slaying the prophets that the previous generation had started. The building and care of tombs was supposed to be an act of honoring the prophets, but Jesus pointed out that something else was really going on.

11:52 Woe to you lawyers. Jesus charged the lawyers with doing the opposite of what they claimed their calling to be. Rather than bringing people nearer to God, they had removed the possibility of their entering into that knowledge, and had prevented others from understanding it as well.

12:1–2 leaven. This represents the presence of corruption. Unleavened bread is what the Jews ate at Passover (Ex. 12:14–20). The corruption in view here is hypocrisy. Practicing hypocrisy is senseless because eventually all deeds—both good and evil—will be exposed.

12:4 do not be afraid of those who kill the body. This verse anticipates the presence of severe religious persecution in response to Jesus' remarks in Luke 11:39–54.

12:5 Fear Him. Even in the context of physical

6"Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins?* And [g]not one of them is forgotten before God. 7But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Confess Christ Before Men

8[h]"Also I say to you, whoever confesses Me [i]before men, him the Son of Man also will confess before the angels of God. 9But he who [j]denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

10"And [k]anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

11[l]"Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say. 12For the Holy Spirit will [m]teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13Then one from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14But He said to him, [n]"Man, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?" 15And He said to them, [o]"Take heed and beware of covetousness,* for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."

16Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. 17And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?' 18So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. 19And I will say to my soul, [p]"Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; [q]eat, drink, and be merry."' 20But God said to him, 'Fool! This night [r]your soul will be required of you; [s]then whose will those things be which you have provided?'

21"So is he who lays up treasure for himself, [t]and is not rich toward God."

Do Not Worry

22Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, [u]do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on. 23Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and [v]God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds? 25And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? 26If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest? 27Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even [w]Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of [x]little faith?

29"And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind. 30For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father [y]knows that you need these things. 31[z]But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things* shall be added to you.

32"Do not fear, little flock, for [a]it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33[b]Sell what you have and give [c]alms; [d]provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches persecution, the only One believers should fear is God, who sees how we live and judges us. Jesus was not guaranteeing physical preservation in this life, but was opening the prospect of deliverance in the next life.

12:6 two copper coins. These were the smallest coins in circulation, worth about one-sixteenth of a basic day's wages.

12:14 who made Me a judge. Jesus refuses to enter into a dispute over money, which is clearly dividing a family. Such disputes over money destroy relationships, so Jesus tells a parable that explains the danger of focusing on wealth.

12:18–19 I will do this. Including verse 17, the word "I" appears six times, showing the selfish focus this man has as a result of his fortune. His plan is to store his abundant resources for himself, as though the assets were his alone and should be hoarded. This focus on the self is what Jesus is condemning.

12:27–29 God so clothes the grass. This illustration indicates that God cares enough to provide beauty for the parts of His creation that have a short life. Why should we worry if God takes such care of even the smallest blade of grass? The Lord knows our problems and will provide us with what we need.

12:33 Sell what you have. In contrast to the world's hoarding of possessions, the disciple must be generous with what God gives. By serving God and others, you can invest in your eternal future. You cannot take possessions with you in the next life, but you can store up an eternal treasure by giving to others (Phil. 4:17).

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

35[e]"Let your waist be girded and [f]your lamps burning; 36and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. 37[g]Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. 38And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. 39[h]But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and* not allowed his house to be broken into. 40[i]Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

41Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?"

42And the Lord said, [j]"Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? 43Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. 44[k]Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has. 45[l]But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk, 46the master of that servant will come on a [m]day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. 47And [n]that servant who [o]knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. 48[p]But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

Christ Brings Division

49[q]"I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! 50But [r]I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is [s]accomplished! 51[t]Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, [u]but rather division. 52[v]For from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three. 53[w]Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Discern the Time

54Then He also said to the multitudes, [x]"Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is. 55And when you see the [y]south wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is. 56Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern [z]this time?

* 12:39 NU-Text reads he would not have allowed.

12:34 where your treasure is. What people consider valuable is where their energy will be spent. Knowing God and investing in His purposes should be the treasure we seek.

12:38 if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch. This verse speaks of a return at an unusually late hour. The exact time referred to depends on which system of time was used. In the Roman system the second and third watch would be 9 P.M. to 3 A.M. By the Jewish method it would be 10 P.M. to 6 A.M.

12:41 only to us, or to all. Peter asked if Jesus' teaching was for the disciples only or for all people. Jesus did not answer the question directly. Instead He described a variety of categories of servants. Servants are those who belong to the Master and have their stewardship evaluated (19:11–27). Several responses, from faithfulness to blatant disobedience, are described in verses 42–48. The issue is who lives life in a way that looks for, and takes seriously, the return of Jesus (1 John 2:28).

12:45 begins to beat the male and female servants. This servant is depicted as consciously doing the opposite of caring for others, and of treating the Master's return as irrelevant.

12:46 will cut him in two. The image of being slain indicates the severity of this judgment, especially in contrast to the whippings of verses 47 and 48.

12:49 I came to send fire on the earth. Fire is an image associated with God's judgment (Jer. 5:14; 23:29). Jesus' coming brings judgment on those who refuse to accept Him and divides the believers from the faithless.

12:54–55 a cloud rising out of the west. In Palestine, a western breeze meant moisture coming from the Mediterranean Sea. A south wind meant hot air coming from the desert.

12:56 Hypocrites. Jesus rebuked His audience for being able to discern the weather but not what God was doing through Him.

Make Peace with Your Adversary

57"Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right? 58[a]When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort [b]along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. 59I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite."

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that season
some who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. 4Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem? 5I tell you, no;
but unless you repent you will all likewise
perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

6He also spoke this parable: [a]"A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. 7Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?' 8But he answered and said to him,
'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that* you can [b]cut it down.'"

A Spirit of Infirmity

10Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. 11And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way raise herself up. 12But
when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your [c]infirmity." 13[d]And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had [e]healed on the Sabbath; and he said to the crowd, [f]"There are six days on which men ought to work; therefore come and be healed on them, and [g]not on the Sabbath
day."

15The Lord then answered him and said,
"Hypocrite!* [h]Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it? 16So ought not this woman, [i]being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?" 17And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were [j]done by Him.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

18[k]Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? 19It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden; and it grew and became a large* tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven

20And again He said, "To what shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21It is like leav-en, which a woman took and hid in three [l]measures* of meal till it was all leavened."

The Narrow Way

22[m]And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. 23Then one said to Him, "Lord, are there [n]few who are saved?"

13:1 Pilate. Pilate was known for his insensitivity to the Jewish people early in his rule. The event probably occurred during the Feast of the Passover or Tabernacles, when Galileans most likely would have been at the temple.

13:5 unless you repent. The manner in which a person dies is not a measure of righteousness; what is important is not to die outside of God's grace and care. The way to avoid such a fate is to repent, to come to God through the care of the Physician Jesus (5:32).

13:6 a fig tree. This tree often represents God's blessing, or a people who have a special relationship with God (Mic. 7:1–2). The man in this parable represents God; the fig tree represents Israel.

13:7 for three years. A fig tree was often given some time to bear good fruit since its root structure was complex and took time to develop. Three years would have been enough for the tree to yield some fruit.

13:15 Hypocrite. When the ruler of the synagogue became indignant regarding Jesus' healing on the Sabbath (vv. 10–14), Jesus pointed out that basic compassion was shown to animals on the Sabbath, so how much more compassion should be shown to a suffering woman (v. 16)?

13:18–19 mustard. A tree of the mustard family would grow to about twelve feet. The image of birds nesting in the trees is found frequently in the Old Testament (Ps. 104:12; Ezek. 17:22–24; Dan. 4:10–12).

[v]Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.' 28[w]There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [x]when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out. 29They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God. 30[y]And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

31On that very day* some Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."

32And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day [z]I shall be perfected.' 33Nevertheless I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus Laments over Jerusalem

34[a]"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing! 35See! [b]Your house is left to you desolate; and assuredly,* I say to you, you shall not see Me until the time comes when you say, [c]'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD*!'"

A Man with Dropsy Healed on the Sabbath

14 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched Him closely. 2And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy. 3And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [a]"Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"*

4But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go. 5Then He answered them, saying, [b]"Which of you, having a donkey* or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" 6And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

Take the Lowly Place

7So He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them: 8"When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him; 9and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10[c]But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you. 11[d]For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

13:26 We ate and drank . . . You taught. The appeal here is by people who experience Jesus' presence. The passage primarily involves those Jews who witnessed Jesus' ministry. They were trying to gain entry into God's presence based simply on the fact that they had observed Jesus. Jesus refused them, pointing out that it was not enough for them to have been close to Him. In order to have a relationship with God, one must embrace Jesus and come to know Him.

13:29 east . . . west . . . north . . . south. People would come from all corners of the earth for entrance into God's kingdom. This passage alludes to the inclusion of Gentiles.

13:30 there are last who will be first. There will be many surprises in God's kingdom. Those who are despised on earth—some Gentiles, for example—will be greatly honored in the kingdom. Conversely, those who are considered influential and powerful on earth—the Jewish religious leaders of Jesus' day, for example—will be excluded from the kingdom.

13:32 Go, tell that fox. Herod is portrayed as more curious than hostile. The reference here is to Herod's cunning. Jesus' reply seems to take the Pharisees' warning at face value.

13:34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem. The double address indicates Jesus' deep sorrow (2 Sam. 18:33; Jer. 22:29). The city had executed many of God's messengers. Stephen makes a similar point about the nation of Israel in Acts 7:51–53.

13:35 Blessed is He. This is a citation of Psalm 118:26. The people of Israel would not see the Messiah again until they were ready to receive Him and recognize that He was sent from God. Psalm 118 reflects the greeting of a priest to a group entering the temple. Jesus used the language of this psalm to illustrate God's greeting to Him.

14:7 they chose the best places. In ancient times the best seats at a meal were those next to the host.

Him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid. 13But when you give a feast, invite [e]the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind. 14And you will be [f]blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

The Parable of the Great Supper

15Now when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, [g]"Blessed is he who shall eat bread*
in the kingdom of God!"

16[h]Then He said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper and invited many, 17and [i]sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.' 18But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see
it. I ask you to have me excused.' 19And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.' 20Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' 21So that servant came and reported these things to his master.
Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.' 22And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.' 23Then
the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24For I say to you [j]that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.'"

Leaving All to Follow Christ

25Now great multitudes went with Him.
And He turned and said to them, 26[k]"If anyone comes to Me [l]and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, [m]yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. 27And [n]whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. 28For [o]which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it— 29lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish'? 31Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
32Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace. 33So likewise, whoever of you [p]does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

Tasteless Salt Is Worthless

34[q]"Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? 35It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Then [a]all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. 2And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners [b]and eats with them." 3So He spoke this parable to them, saying:

4[c]"What man of you, having a hundred

* 14:15 M-Text reads dinner.

14:17 those who were invited. In the ancient world, invitations to a feast were sent out well in advance of the meal. Then on the day of the feast, servants would announce the start of the meal. This parable is similar to the one in Matthew 22:1–4, but was probably spoken on a different occasion.

14:20 I have married a wife. While the Old Testament exempted a man from military duty because of marriage (Deut. 20:7; 24:5), marriage was not an excuse for avoiding social duties. The general point here is that the man regarded his own affairs as more important than the feast.

14:21 the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind. This list matches that of verse 13. The maimed were excluded from full participation in Jewish worship (Lev. 21:17–23). The master's second invitation extended the scope of the offer to those who were rejected by society.

14:23 Go out into the highways. The master's second invitation extended beyond the city limits, encouraging even more people to come to the feast. This may picture the inclusion of Gentiles in God's salvation (Is. 49:6). The instruction to compel them to come in does not mean to force people in, but to urge them.

14:34 Salt is good. In the ancient world, salt was often used as a catalyst for burning fuel such as cattle dung. The salt of the time was impure and could lose its strength over time, becoming useless. Jesus' point is that the same is true of a "saltless" disciple.

15:1 tax collectors . . . sinners. The three parables of chapter 15 explain why Jesus associated with the despised groups while the Pharisees and scribes did not. The parables in this chapter are found only in Luke.

15:4 a hundred sheep. This was a medium-sized flock. The average herd ran from 20 to 200 head, while a flock of 300 or more was considered large.

sheep, if he loses one of them, does not it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, [d]'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep [e]which was lost!' 7I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents [f]than over ninety-nine just persons who [g]need no repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

8"Or what woman, having ten silver coins,* if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? 9And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!' 10Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Lost Son

11Then He said: "A certain man had two sons. 12And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them [h]his livelihood. 13And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with prodigal living. 14But
when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want. 15Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.

17"But when he came to himself, he said,
'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! 18I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, [i]I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."'

20"And he arose and came to his father.
But [j]when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.
21And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven [k]and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22"But the father said to his servants,
'Bring* out the best robe and put it on him,
and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; 24[l]for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

25"Now his older son was in the field.
And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26So
he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'

28"But he was angry and would not go in.
Therefore his father came out and pleaded

* 15:8 Greek drachma, a valuable coin often worn in a ten-piece garland by married women

15:7 persons who need no repentance. This phrase is a rhetorical way of describing the scribes and Pharisees. A similar description is found in 5:31, where it is said that some do not need a physician. The scribes and Pharisees believed that they did not need to repent because they were not lost.

15:8 ten silver coins. A drachma was a silver coin equal to a day's wage for a basic laborer. The woman needed a lamp because she lived in a windowless house. Her broom for sweeping would have been made of palm twigs.

15:15 to feed swine. Feeding swine was an insulting job for a Jewish person, since pigs were unclean according to the law of Moses.

15:20 his father saw him and had compassion. Many scholars feel that the emphasis on the son in this parable causes people to miss the more important point, namely, the importance of the father's welcoming role. Still others think it could even be called the Parable of the Elder Brother. Interestingly, both brothers underestimate their father's love and grace. The younger brother is slow to realize the extent and permanence of his father's love. The elder brother has trouble understanding that the restored relationship with the younger son is vital to the life of the father. What makes the dramatic conversion possible is the younger son's knowledge that he will be accepted when he returns. While there are consequences to his behavior (his money is gone), he is welcomed to be a part of the family again. In many ways the welcome is even more than he could have hoped for. What is amazing about grace is that it is always more than we expect or deserve.

15:21 no longer worthy to be called your son. Despite his awareness of being accepted by his father, the son continued his confession of his sin. He then asked to become one of his father's servants. Similarly, a sinner realizes that he or she brings nothing to and deserves nothing from God, but must rely completely on God's mercy.

15:24 dead . . . alive again . . . lost . . . found. The total transformation of the prodigal son is summarized in these two contrasts. Such a transformation is a reason to celebrate. It is also the reason Jesus chose to associate with the lost.

15:28 he was angry. The elder brother's unhappiness over a fatted calf (v. 27) being killed to celebrate with him. 29So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends. 30But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.'

31"And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. 32It was right that we should make merry and be glad, [m]for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.'"

The Parable of the Unjust Steward

16 He also said to His disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was wasting his goods. 2So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an [a]account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

3"Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg. 4I have resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.'

5"So he called every one of his master's debtors to him, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' 6And he said, 'A hundred measures* of oil.' So he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' 7Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' So he said, 'A hundred measures* of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' 8So the master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in their generation than [b]the sons of light.

9"And I say to you, [c]make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail,* they may receive you into an everlasting home. 10[d]He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much. 11Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your [e]own?

13[f]"No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

The Law, the Prophets, and the Kingdom

14Now the Pharisees, [g]who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they derided Him. 15And He said to them, "You are those who [h]justify yourselves [i]before men, but [i]God knows your hearts. For [k]what is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

16[l]"The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it. 17[m]And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tittle of the law to fail.

18[n]"Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced from her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19"There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. 20But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, 21desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell* from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came the return of his undisciplined brother illustrates the response of the Pharisees and scribes at the prospect of sinners becoming acceptable to God.

16:1 a steward. This was a servant who supervised and administered an estate. The charge brought against this steward is incompetence.

16:8 So the master commended the unjust steward. The master recognized the foresight in the steward's generosity. It is debatable whether the steward was dishonest and robbed the master by such reductions or was shrewd in using his authority to discount the goods (vv. 6–7). The fact that the master commended the steward may suggest that the master was not robbed and that the steward's reduction was the result of either an adherence to the law or a lowering of the steward's own commission.

16:9 unrighteous mammon. This is money and should be used generously to build works that last. Money is called unrighteous because it often manifests unrighteousness and selfishness in people (1 Tim. 6:6–10,17–19; James 1:9–11; 5:1–6).

16:19 clothed in purple. Purple clothes were extremely expensive because they were made with a special dye extracted from a kind of snail.

16:20–21 licked his sores. To have his sores licked by dogs threatened Lazarus with infection as well as ritual uncleanness, since dogs fed on garbage, including dead animals.

and licked his sores. 22So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to [o]Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. 23And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24"Then he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and [p]cool my tongue; for I [q]am tormented in this flame.' 25But Abraham said, 'Son, [r]remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented. 26And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.'

27"Then he said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, 28for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.' 29Abraham said to him, [s]'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.' 30And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' 31But he said to him, [t]'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, [u]neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.'"

Jesus Warns of Offenses

17 Then He said to the disciples, [a]"It is impossible that no offenses should come, but [b]woe to him through whom they do come! 2It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. 3Take heed to yourselves. [c]If your brother sins against you,* [d]rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. 4And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you,* saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

Faith and Duty

5And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

6[e]So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'? 8But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself [f]and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink'? 9Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.* 10So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, 'We are [g]unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.'"

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11Now it happened [h]as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. 12Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, [i]who stood afar off. 13And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14So when He saw them, He said to them, [j]"Go, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed.

15And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice [k]glorified God, 16and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a [l]Samaritan.

17So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" 19[m]And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

20Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would

16:22 Abraham's bosom. This was the blessed place of the dead. Angelic escorts for the dead were also known in Judaism. This verse indicates that the dead know their fate immediately.

16:24 I am tormented in this flame. The rich man desired relief from his suffering. The image of thirst for the experience of judgment is common (Is. 5:13; 65:13; Hos. 2:3).

16:29 They have Moses and the prophets. Abraham made it clear that the rich man's brothers should have known what to do, since they had the message of God in the ancient writings. The point here is that generosity with money and care for the poor were taught in the Old Testament (Deut. 14:28–29; Is. 3:14–15; Mic. 6:10–11).

17:1–2 woe to him. Jesus warned that judgment awaits those who cause others to stumble. The severe form of the warning suggests that false teaching, or leading someone into apostasy, is in view here.

come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation; 21[n]nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!'* For indeed, [o]the kingdom of God is within you."

22Then He said to the disciples, [p]"The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23[q]And they will say to you, 'Look here!' or 'Look there!'* Do not go after them or follow them. 24[r]For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day. 25[s]But first He must suffer many things and be [t]rejected by this generation. 26[u]And as it [v]was in the [w]days of [x]Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: 27They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the [y]day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and [z]destroyed them all. 28[a]Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29but on [b]the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man [c]is revealed.

31"In that day, he [d]who is on the housetop, and his goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back. 32[e]Remember Lot's wife. 33[f]Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. 34[g]I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left. 35[h]Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left. 36Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."*

37And they answered and said to Him, [i]"Where, Lord?"

So He said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then He spoke a parable to them, that men [a]always ought to pray and not lose heart, 2saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. 3Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' 4And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man, 5[b]yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

6Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said. 7And [c]shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? 8I tell you [d]that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

with cosmic signs (Joel 2:28–32). Jesus' concept of the kingdom of God, however, was broader than the time of the final consummation.

17:21 within you. This verse indicates that there was an aspect of kingdom promise involved in Jesus' first coming. The kingdom of God is among earthly kingdoms today; but one day the kingdom of God will swallow up all rival kingdoms (Rev. 11:15). In verses 22–37, Jesus makes it clear that the kingdom has two phases—one now and one to come. In the beginning of His kingdom on earth, God first prepares a King to rule; then He gathers a people for Him to rule over; then He gives the Ruler a realm in which to reign. The kingdom of God is not the same as the church, though the church is a part of the kingdom. The kingdom now is the presence of God alongside earthly kingdoms. One day, however, Jesus will rule over all, and He will share that rule with His people (Rev. 2:26–27; 5:9–10; 20:4–6).

17:26 in the days of Noah. At that time people paid little attention to God and faced judgment as a result (Gen. 6:5–13). The same will be the case at Jesus' return.

17:32 Lot's wife. This woman represents those who are attached to earthly things, those whose hearts are still in this world. Like Lot's wife, such people will perish (Gen. 19:26).

17:34–37 one will be taken. This phrase suggests judgment such as when the soldiers took Jesus to crucify Him. Verse 37 makes it clear that those who are taken are taken to final judgment. The vultures will be gathered. When judgment comes, it will be final and terrible, with the stench of death and the presence of vultures everywhere. No one will need to look for the place of judgment; the presence of the birds will reveal where the carcasses are.

18:2 a judge. The Romans allowed the Jews to manage most of their own affairs. This judge did not fear God, and was therefore probably a secular judge, not a religious one. The dishonest judge represents corrupted power.

18:5 this widow troubles me. The persistence of the widow is the lesson of the parable. God is a counterexample to the judge. God does not begrudge answering prayer. Jesus' point is that, if an insensitive judge will respond to the continual requests of a widow, God will certainly respond to the continual prayers of believers.

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 Also He spoke this parable to some [e]who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
11 The Pharisee [f]stood and prayed thus with himself, [g]'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' 13 And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; [h]for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Jesus Blesses Little Children

15 [i]Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
16 But Jesus called them to Him and said,
"Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for [j]of such is the kingdom of God. 17 [k]Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

Jesus Counsels the Rich Young Ruler

18 [l]Now a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

19 So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but [m]One, that is, God. 20 You know the commandments:
[n]'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,'
'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' [o]'Honor your father and your mother.'"*

21 And he said, "All [p]these things I have kept from my youth."

22 So when Jesus heard these things, He said to him, "You still lack one thing. [q]Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

23 But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

With God All Things Are Possible

24 And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, [r]"How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And those who heard it said, "Who then can be saved?"

27 But He said, [s]"The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28 [t]Then Peter said, "See, we have left all* and followed You."

29 So He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, [u]there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, 30 [v]who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

Jesus a Third Time Predicts His Death and Resurrection

31 [w]Then He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things [x]that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. 32 For [y]He will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. 33 They will scourge Him and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

* 18:20 Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20
* 18:28 NU-Text reads our own.

18:11–12 God, I thank You. The tone of the prayer reveals the Pharisee's problem. He uses the pronoun "I" five times in two verses. The Pharisee's attitude seems to be that God should be grateful to him for his commitment. The man obviously looked down on other people and was proud of his fasting and tithing.

18:13 God, be merciful to me a sinner. This is an example of the humble spirit of repentance that Jesus commends. The tax collector knew that he could not say or bring anything to enhance his standing with God. He knew that only God's mercy and grace, and not his own works, could deliver him.

18:16 But Jesus called them. Jesus used the thoughtlessness of his disciples to make two points: (1) all people, even little children, are important to God; and (2) the kingdom of God consists of those who respond to Him with the trust that a little child gives to a parent.

18:22 Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor. This was a radical test of the ruler's concern for others (12:33–34). Jesus was determining whether the ruler's treasure (Matt. 6:19–21) lay with God or money (16:13). Jesus was not establishing a new requirement for being saved. He was examining the ruler's orientation to God by directly confronting him with the very thing that was hindering him—namely, his wealth.

18:24–25 For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. Jesus used this figure of speech to emphasize the difficulty of turning from wealth to find salvation. Because many Jewish people believed that wealth was evidence of God's blessing, Jesus' statements would have been shocking to His audience.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

35 [a]Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat
by the road begging. 36 And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.
37 So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38 And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, [b]Son of David, have mercy on me!"
39 Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"
40 So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, 41 saying,
"What do you want Me to do for you?"
He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight." 42 Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; [c]your faith has made you well." 43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, [d]glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Comes to Zacchaeus' House

19 Then Jesus entered and passed through [a]Jericho. 2 Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.
3 And he sought to [b]see who Jesus was,
but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way.
5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him,* and said to him,
"Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6 So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. 7 But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, [c]"He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner."
8 Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the [d]poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by [e]false accusation, [f]I restore fourfold."
9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because [g]he also is [h]a son of Abraham; 10 [i]for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Parable of the Minas

11 Now as they heard these things, He spoke another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because [j]they thought the kingdom of God would appear immediately. 12 [k]Therefore He said: "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. 13 So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas,* and said to them, 'Do business till I come.' 14 [l]But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.'
15 "And so it was that when he returned,
having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16 Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.' 17 And he said to him, [m]'Well done, good servant; because you were [n]faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.' 18 And the second came, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned five minas.' 19 Likewise he said to him, 'You also be over five cities.'

* 19:5 NU-Text omits and saw him. * 19:13 The mina (Greek mna, Hebrew minah) was worth about three months' salary.

18:34 they understood none of these things. The disciples may have understood something of what Jesus said, but they could not understand why God's Chosen One would have to face such suffering. For those who were expecting the Promised One to be an exalted figure who would deliver God's people, it would be very difficult to reconcile such an expectation with such terrible suffering.
18:38 Son of David. Note the irony in this verse. The blind man recognized who Jesus was more clearly than many people who were blessed with physical sight. The blind man's cry for mercy demonstrated his belief that Jesus had the power to heal him.
19:2 Zacchaeus. This was the chief tax collector, which meant he most likely bid for the right to collect taxes and then hired another tax collector to actually gather the money.
19:7 they all complained. The crowd was not happy with Jesus' choice of who to honor with His fellowship. In the crowd's opinion, Zacchaeus was a sinner. Tax collectors often took for themselves a high percentage of what they demanded. They were hated and despised in ancient Israel.
19:11 they thought. Evidently the disciples believed that Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem would signal the arrival of the kingdom of God. Jesus' parable in verses 12–27 was designed to dispel this misconception. Note that the disciples raised the same question in Acts 1:6.
19:13 ten minas. Each servant received one mina or about three months' wages for the average worker. The master, symbolizing Jesus Himself, wants to see fruit, or dividends from his investment. Did his servants put the money they received to good use?

20 "Then another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief. 21 [o]For I feared you, because you are an austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap
what you did not sow.' 22 And he said to him, [p]'Out of your own mouth I will judge you,
you wicked servant. [q]You knew that I was an austere man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow.
23 Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have collected it with interest?' 24 "And he said to those who stood by,
'Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.' 25 (But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.') 26 'For I say to you, [r]that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.
27 But bring here those enemies of mine,
who did not want me to reign over them,
and slay them before me.'"

The Triumphal Entry

28 When He had said this, [s]He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29 [t]And it came to pass, when He drew near to Beth-phage* and [u]Bethany, at the mountain called [v]Olivet, that He sent two of His disciples, 30 saying, "Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat.
Loose it and bring it here. 31 And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you loosing it?' thus you shall say to him, 'Because the Lord has need of it.'" 32 So those who were sent went their way and found it just [w]as He had said to them. 33 But as they were loosing the colt,
the owners of it said to them, "Why are you loosing the colt?"
34 And they said, "The Lord has need of him." 35 Then they brought him to Jesus.
[x]And they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him. 36 And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.
37 Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to [y]rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, 38 saying:

> [z]"'Blessed is the King who comes in the > name of the LORD*!'
> [a]Peace in heaven and glory in the > highest!"

39 And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke
Your disciples."
40 But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, [b]the stones would immediately cry out."

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

41 Now as He drew near, He saw the city and [c]wept over it, 42 saying, "If you had known, even you, especially in this [d]your day, the things that [e]make for your [f]peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For days will come upon you when your enemies will [g]build an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side, 44 [h]and level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and [i]they will not leave in you one stone upon another, [j]because you did not know the time of your visitation."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

45 [k]Then He went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,* 46 saying to them, "It is written, [l]'My *house is a house of prayer,'* but you have made it a [m]'den of thieves.'"* 47 And He [n]was teaching daily in the temple. But [o]the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people sought to destroy Him, 48 and were unable to do anything; for all the people were very attentive to [p]hear Him.

19:20–23 I feared you. The unfaithful servant's excuse for failure reflects a negative view of the nobleman. If the servant had really feared the master, he would have done something with the money. Even putting the money in the bank would have yielded interest.

19:31–34 the Lord has need of it. Such borrowing of an animal was not as strange as it may appear. There was an ancient custom by which a political or religious leader could commandeer property for short-term use. Jesus was entering Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, festivals that commemorated the great act of God's deliverance of the nation. Such feasts were often celebrated at this time with the hope that God's decisive deliverance would come.

19:41 wept over it. Jesus knew that so many of the people of Israel had rejected Him that the nation would suffer judgment, in the form of the terrible destruction that came on Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

19:43 build an embankment around you. This is a prediction of Rome's successful siege of Jerusalem under Titus. The details reflect a divine judgment for covenant unfaithfulness, similar to the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C. (Is. 29:1–4; Jer. 6:6–21; Ezek. 4:1–3).

19:45 He went into the temple. Jesus cleansed the temple in anger after seeing that the place of prayer had become an excuse for corrupt commerce.

Jesus' Authority Questioned

20 Now [a]it happened on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him 2and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us, [b]by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?"

3But He answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me: 4The [c]baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?"

5And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then* did you not believe him?' 6But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, [d]for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

8And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Vinedressers

9Then He began to tell the people this parable: [e]"A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to vinedressers, and went into a far country for a long time. 10Now at vintage-time he [f]sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 11Again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. 12And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

13"Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.' 14But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the [g]heir. Come, [h]let us kill him, that the inheritance may be [i]ours.' 15So they cast him out of the vineyard and [j]killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16He will come and destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to [k]others."

And when they heard it they said, "Certainly not!"

17Then He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

[l]'The stone which the builders rejected
*Has become the chief cornerstone'?

18Whoever falls on that stone will be [m]broken; but [n]on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

19And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people*—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

The Pharisees: Is It Lawful to Pay Taxes to Caesar?

20[o]So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.

21Then they asked Him, saying, [p]"Teacher, we know that You say and teach rightly, and You do not show personal favoritism,

* 20:5 NU-Text and M-Text omit then.
* 20:17 Psalm 118:22 * 20:19 M-Text reads but they were afraid.

Merchants were selling sacrificial animals in the outer court of the temple (the Court of the Gentiles) at exorbitant prices. Money changers were making an excessive profit exchanging currencies for the temple shekel. John records a temple cleansing in John 2:13–22, but it is not clear whether that event is the same as this one in Luke. Since John places the event early in Jesus' ministry, Jesus might have cleansed the temple twice.

20:4 The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Here as throughout the Gospel of Luke, the ministries of John the Baptist and Jesus are linked. Jesus' question presented the Pharisees with a dilemma. If they recognized John's ministry as coming from heaven, they would be recognizing the same divine origin of Jesus' similar "independent" Spirit-directed ministry. But if the Pharisees denied that John was sent by God they risked angering the majority of the people, who believed that John's ministry was divinely directed (vv. 5–6).

20:9 A certain man planted a vineyard. The imagery of the vineyard recalls the subject of Jesus' parable in 13:6–9. This parable is also found in Matthew 21:33–44 and Mark 12:1–12, with some slight variations of detail in each account.

20:14 This is the heir. The vinedressers hoped that with the son gone, the inheritance would fall to those who worked the property, a transfer that was possible in the ancient world. The details of this parable do not represent the thinking of those who crucified Jesus. The leaders of Israel thought they were stopping someone who was dangerous to Judaism, not that they were going to inherit Jesus' kingdom.

20:17 The stone which the builders rejected. This passage, taken from Psalm 118:22, pictures the exaltation of the Righteous One, Jesus, after His rejection. Opposition will not stop God from making the One who is rejected the center of His work of salvation.

20:18 Whoever falls on that stone. Jesus is the stone. Anyone who goes against the stone will be destroyed. Jesus' statement is similar to a late Jewish proverb: "If the stone falls on the pot, alas for the pot; If the pot falls on the stone, alas for the pot." The imagery for the stone is also found in 1 Peter 2:4–8.

23But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test Me?* 24Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?"

They answered and said, "Caesar's."

25And He said to them, [q]"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26But they could not catch Him in His words in the presence of the people. And they marveled at His answer and kept silent.

The Sadducees: What About the Resurrection?

27[r]Then some of the Sadducees, [s]who deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 28saying: "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 29Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children. 30And the second* took her as wife, and he died childless. 31Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children,* and died. 32Last of all the woman died also. 33Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."

34Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35But those who are [t]counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage; 36nor can they die anymore, for [u]they are equal to the angels and are sons of God, [v]being sons of the resurrection. 37But even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord [w]*'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for [x]all live to Him."

39Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well." 40But after that they dared not question Him anymore.

Jesus: How Can David Call His Descendant Lord?

41And He said to them, [y]"How can they say that the Christ is the Son of David? 42Now David himself said in the Book of Psalms:

[z]'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
43 *Till I make Your enemies Your footstool."'

44Therefore David calls Him 'Lord'; [a]how is He then his Son?"

Beware of the Scribes

45[b]Then, in the hearing of all the people, He said to His disciples, 46[c]"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, [d]love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts, 47[e]who devour widows' houses, and for a [f]pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar. This question concerned the poll tax to Rome, which was different from the taxes collected by the tax collectors. The poll tax was a citizenship tax paid directly to Rome, as an indication that Israel was subject to that Gentile nation. The Pharisees' query was a trick question. If Jesus answered yes, the people would be angry because He respected a foreign power. If He answered no, He could be charged with sedition.

20:24 Whose image and inscription does it have? Jesus' reply was clever. He had the Pharisees pull out a coin, indicating that they already recognized Roman sovereignty by using Roman coins themselves. A penny was a silver coin that had a picture of the emperor Tiberius on it.

20:27 Sadducees. The Sadducees, the Pharisees, and the Essenes were three major divisions in first-century Judaism. The Sadducees rejected the oral traditions that the Pharisees too stringently obeyed. Instead they based their teaching only on the first five books of the Old Testament. They also denied that there could be a resurrection.

20:36 they are equal to the angels. The everlasting life of a resurrected person makes that person something like an angel. Paul explains further that in the resurrection we will be given resurrection bodies similar to Christ's (1 Cor. 15:25–58). This will be a new experience that will not necessarily parallel experiences on this earth, such as marriage.

20:41–42 How can they say. Here Jesus takes His turn at raising a theological issue. The dilemma He poses is how the Messiah could be called the Son of David, when David himself gave Him the title Lord, my Lord. This is a citation from Psalm 110:1. The Messiah was David's descendant and yet David gave Him the respect due to a superior, the reverse of what normally occurred in ancient times. Jesus was not denying the title Son of David to the Messiah, He was simply noting that the title Lord, meaning "Master," is more central. Even David one day will bow at the Messiah's feet and confess that He is Lord (Phil. 2:10).

21 And He looked up [a]and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, 2and He saw also a certain [b]poor widow putting in two [c]mites. 3So He said, "Truly I say to you [d]that this poor widow has put in more than all; 4for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God,* but she out of her poverty put in [e]all the livelihood that she had."

Jesus Predicts the Destruction of the Temple

5[f]Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said, 6"These things which you see—the days will come in which [g]not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

The Signs of the Times and the End of the Age

7So they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"

8And He said: [h]"Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore* do not go after them. 9But when you hear of [i]wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."

10[j]Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11And there will be great [k]earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. 12[l]But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and [m]prisons. [n]You will be brought before kings and rulers [o]for My name's sake. 13But [p]it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. 14[q]Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer; 15for I will give you a mouth and wisdom [r]which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or resist. 16[s]You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put [t]some of you to death. 17And [u]you will be hated by all for My name's sake. 18[v]But not a hair of your head shall be lost. 19By your patience possess your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

20[w]"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those who are in the midst of her depart, and let not those who are in the country
enter her. 22For these are the days of vengeance, that [x]all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23[y]But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. 24And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles [z]until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

* 21:4 NU-Text omits for God. * 21:8 NU-Text omits Therefore.

21:2 two mites. These were the smallest currency available.

21:5 donations. These were gift offerings for the decoration of the temple and included gold and silver-plated gates, grapevine clusters, and Babylonian linen tapestries which hung from the temple veil. Even Tacitus, the Roman historian, called it an "immensely opulent temple."

21:6 not one stone shall be left upon another. Jesus noted that the beautiful place of worship was temporary and would be destroyed. He was referring to the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, which itself was a picture of the destruction of the last days.

21:8 Take heed that you not be deceived. The first century and early second century were times of great messianic fervor in Judaism, as the Israelites sought freedom from Roman rule. Many people claimed to be the Messiah. Jesus warned His disciples not to be fooled by such claims.

21:12 synagogues and prisons . . . kings and rulers. These references indicate that all nations would share responsibility for the massacre of the disciples.

21:15 I will give you a mouth and wisdom. Jesus promises the disciples that the Holy Spirit will assist them in giving testimony (12:11–12). The initial fulfillment of this promise is found in Acts 4:8–14; 7:54; and 26:24–30.

21:16 You will be betrayed. The persecution of the disciples would be painful and severe. Identifying with Jesus often means risking the rejection and denunciation of family, and in some cases martyrdom.

21:20 its desolation. This passage compared the desecration of the temple to what occurred in 167 B.C., when Antiochus Epiphanes erected an altar to Zeus in the temple. A similar desecration of the temple site occurred during the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

21:22 days of vengeance. Jerusalem had become an object of divine judgment because of its unfaithfulness. Jesus warned of this consequence throughout His ministry (13:9,34–35; 19:41–44). The premise for such judgment goes back to the curses of the Mosaic

The Coming of the Son of Man

25 [a]"And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; 26 men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, [b]for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27 Then they will see the Son of Man [c]coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because [d]your redemption draws near."

The Parable of the Fig Tree

29 [e]Then He spoke to them a parable:
"Look at the fig tree, and all the trees.
30 When they are already budding, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. 31 So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. 32 Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all things take place. 33 [f]Heaven and earth will pass away, but My [g]words will by no means pass away.

The Importance of Watching

34 "But [h]take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with carous-ing, drunkenness, and [i]cares of this life,
and that Day come on you unexpectedly.
35 For [j]it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 [k]Watch therefore, and [l]pray always that you may be counted [m]worthy* to escape all these things that will come to pass, and [n]to stand before the Son of Man."

37 [o]And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but [p]at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet.
38 Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22 Now [a]the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called Passover.
2 And [b]the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.

3 [c]Then Satan entered Judas, surnamed
Iscariot, who was numbered among the [d]twelve. 4 So he went his way and conferred with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them. 5 And they were glad, and [e]agreed to give him money. 6 So he promised and sought opportunity to [f]betray
Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

Jesus and His Disciples Prepare the Passover

7 [g]Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be killed.
8 And He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."

9 So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters. 11 Then you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' 12 Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready."

13 So they went and [h]found it just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

covenant and the Old Testament prophets' warnings of coming judgment (Deut. 28:49–57; 32:35; Jer. 6:1–8; 26:1–9; Hos. 9:7).

21:27 the Son of Man coming in a cloud. The reference here is to the authoritative return of Jesus. The allusion to the cloud and the figure comes from Daniel 7:13–14, with its picture of One who receives authority from the Ancient of Days. Jesus viewed this text in terms of an apocalyptic deliverance. The image of the cloud is important, since God is identified as riding the clouds in the Old Testament (Ex. 34:5; Ps. 104:3). The Son of Man has divine authority to judge the world.

21:29–30 When they are already budding. The tender buds that appear every spring on trees show that summer is approaching; the appearance of the signs Jesus describes will warn of the coming of the end times.

21:33 will by no means pass away. The disciples had the assurance that Jesus' promises concerning the end times were more certain than creation itself. God made an unconditional and unilateral covenant, and He will keep it (Gen. 12:1–3; 15:18–21; Ps. 89).

21:34 take heed to yourselves. Though the events of the end times may not come to pass for a long time, believers should continue to look for their arrival. The day of Jesus' return should not take us by surprise. We should live as if it is imminent.

22:1 the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This feast took place immediately following Passover (Ex. 12:1–20; Deut. 16:1–8). The two feasts were often considered as one. Passover commemorated the night of the tenth plague in Egypt. The Feast of Unleavened Bread celebrated the Exodus.

22:4 captains. These were Levites who were members of the temple guard. They were the ones who could make the arrest.

22:11–12 guest room. Such rooms were often made available to the thousands of pilgrims who came to Jerusalem for the celebration of Passover and the

Jesus Institutes the Lord's Supper

14 [i]When the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve* apostles with Him.
15 Then He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; 16 for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it [j]until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

17 Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; 18 for [k]I say to you,* I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19 [l]And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My [m]body which is given for you; [n]do this in remembrance of Me."

20 Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, [o]"This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you.
21 [p]But behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table. 22 [q]And truly the Son of Man goes [r]as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"

23 [s]Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

The Disciples Argue About Greatness

24 [t]Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest. 25 [u]And He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.'
26 [v]But not so among you; on the contrary, [w]he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves. 27 [x]For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet [y]I am among you as the One who serves.

28 "But you are those who have continued with Me in [z]My trials. 29 And [a]I bestow upon you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one upon Me, 30 that [b]you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, [c]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

31 And the Lord said,* "Simon, Simon! Indeed, [d]Satan has asked for you, that he may [e]sift you as wheat. 32 But [f]I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, [g]strengthen your brethren."

33 But he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death."

34 [h]Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me."

Supplies for the Road

35 [i]And He said to them, "When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?"

So they said, "Nothing."

36 Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. 37 For I say to you that this which is written must still be accomplished in Me: [j]'And He was numbered with the transgressors.'" For the things concerning Me have an end."

38 So they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords."

And He said to them, "It is enough."

The Prayer in the Garden

39 [k]Coming out, [l]He went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him. 40 [m]When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

Feast of Unleavened Bread. Such a room would contain couches for guests at the feasts to recline for the meal. Access to the room was probably gained by stairs on the outside of the house.

22:19 My body . . . do this in remembrance. Jesus instituted a new meal which is not only a memorial of His death, but also a fellowship meal of unity. It is a proclamation and a symbol of the believer's anticipation of Jesus' return, when all God's promises will be fulfilled (1 Cor. 10:16–17; 11:23–26).

22:20 This cup is the new covenant. The wine of the Lord's Supper depicts the giving of life, a sacrifice of blood, which inaugurated the new covenant for those who respond to Jesus' offer of salvation (Heb. 8:8,13; 9:11–28).

22:30 eat and drink . . . sit on thrones judging. This is a promise of future blessing and authority. The disciples were promised a seat at the banquet of victory and the right to help Jesus rule over Israel on His return (Matt. 19:28; 2 Tim. 2:12).

22:32 I have prayed for you . . . you have returned. The Greek word for you here is singular, referring specifically to Peter. In effect, Jesus restored Peter even before his fall (vv. 54–62), and He instructed the disciple to shepherd the saints by strengthening them.

22:37 this which is written. Jesus cited Isaiah 53:12, which describes a righteous one who suffers as a

about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if it is Your 43 Then [p]an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him. 44 [q]And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood

45 When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. 46 Then He said to them,
"Why [r]do you sleep? Rise and [s]pray, lest you enter into temptation."

Betrayal and Arrest in Gethsemane

47 And while He was still speaking, [t]behold, a multitude; and he who was called [u]Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. 48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a [v]kiss?" 49 When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him,
"Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"
50 And [w]one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
51 But Jesus answered and said, "Permit even this." And He touched his ear and healed him.
52 [x]Then Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a [y]robber, with swords and clubs?
53 When I was with you daily in the [z]temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your [a]hour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus, and Weeps Bitterly

54 [b]Having arrested Him, they led Him and brought Him into the high priest's house. [c]But Peter followed at a distance.
55 [d]Now when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. 56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat
by the fire, looked intently at him and said,
"This man was also with Him."
57 But he denied Him,* saying, "Woman,
I do not know Him."
58 [e]And after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them."
But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"
59 [f]Then after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying,
"Surely this fellow also was with Him, for he is a [g]Galilean."
60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!"
Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster* crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then [h]Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, [i]"Before the rooster crows,* you will deny Me three times." 62 So Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

63 [j]Now the men who held Jesus mocked
Him and [k]beat Him. 64 And having blindfolded Him, they [l]struck Him on the face and asked Him,* saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?" 65 And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

66 [m]As soon as it was day, [n]the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him into their council, saying, 67 [o]"If You are the Christ, tell us."
But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will [p]by no means believe. 68 And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer Me criminal. Jesus noted that His death would fulfill Isaiah's prediction.

22:42 this cup. This is a figure of speech for wrath (Ps. 11:6; 75:7–8; Jer. 25:15–16; Ezek. 23:31–34).

22:43 strengthening Him. God's answer to Jesus' prayer did not allow His Son to avoid suffering. However, God did provide angelic help for Jesus to face what was coming. Sometimes God answers prayer by eliminating trials; sometimes He answers by strengthening us in the midst of them.

22:52 as against a robber. The Greek term for robber was used of both highway bandits and revolutionaries. Jesus rebuked His captors for treating Him as though He were a dangerous lawbreaker.

22:59 for he is a Galilean. According to Mark 14:70, Peter's accent gave him away as being from the same region as Jesus.

22:66 the elders of the people . . . came together. The description here is of a major morning trial that involved all the Jewish religious leaders, the entire council or Sanhedrin. This trial violated various Jewish legal rules given in later sources: meeting on the morning of a feast; meeting at Caiaphas's home; trying a defendant without defense; and reaching the verdict in one day instead of the two days that were required for capital cases.

70Then they all said, "Are You then the Son of God?"

So He said to them, [r]"You rightly say that I am."

71[s]And they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

Jesus Handed Over to Pontius Pilate

23 Then [a]the whole multitude of them arose and led Him to [b]Pilate. 2And they began to [c]accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow [d]perverting the* nation, and [e]forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying [f]that He Himself is Christ, a King."

3[g]Then Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

He answered him and said, "It is as you say."

4So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, [h]"I find no fault in this Man."

5But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from [i]Galilee to this place."

Jesus Faces Herod

6When Pilate heard of Galilee,* he asked if the Man were a Galilean. 7And as soon as he knew that He belonged to [j]Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. 8Now when Herod saw Jesus, [k]he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see Him, because [l]he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. 9Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him [m]nothing. 10And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. 11[n]Then Herod, with his men of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. 12That very day [o]Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

Taking the Place of Barabbas

13[p]Then Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14said to them, [q]"You have brought this Man to me, as one who misleads the people. And indeed, [r]having examined Him in your presence, I have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him; 15no, neither did Herod, for I sent you back to him;* and indeed nothing deserving of death has been done by Him. 16[s]I will therefore chastise Him and release Him" 17[t](for it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).*

18And [u]they all cried out at once, saying, "Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas"— 19who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder.

20Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them. 21But they shouted, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

22Then he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go."

23But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed.* 24So [v]Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they requested.

reply here alludes to the regal enthronement image of Psalm 110:1. This reply is what convicted Him. Apparently what offended Jesus' audience was His claim to sit in God's presence and to exercise divine authority. In effect, His answer to their question about being the Christ was more than they expected. It was not blasphemous to claim to be Messiah. What was blasphemous was the claim to be the Judge of Jewish people, with God's authority.

23:2 began to accuse. Three charges were lodged against Jesus: (1) perverting the nation, (2) forbidding payment of taxes to Rome, and (3) claiming to be the Christ. The first charge, which was a general complaint, involved disturbing the peace. The other two charges could have been construed as challenges to Rome. The second charge was a blatant lie (20:20–26). The third charge was true, but not in the threatening sense that the prosecutors suggested. A three-part Roman procedure was followed at the trial; charges, examination, and verdict.

23:5 they were the more fierce. By mentioning the charge that Jesus stirred up the people, the leaders suggested that Pilate risked being found derelict in his duty if he let Jesus go.

23:7 Herod's jurisdiction. Herod was responsible for Galilee, so Pilate "passed the buck" for the ruling and showed political courtesy at the same time.

23:16 chastise Him and release Him. Pilate hoped that a public whipping might satisfy the crowd and tame Jesus, avoiding the need to resort to the death penalty.

23:18–19 Away with this Man. The entire crowd is portrayed as wanting Jesus to die. Luke makes it clear that Jesus' death was not only instigated by Jewish officials but approved by the Jewish people.

The King on a Cross

26 [x]Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.
27 And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and women who also mourned and lamented Him. 28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 [y]For indeed the days are coming in which they will say,
'Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!' 30 Then they will begin [z]'to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"' 31 [a]For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?" 32 [b]There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death. 33 And [c]when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34 Then Jesus said, "Father, [d]forgive them, for [e]they do not know what they do."
And [f]they divided His garments and cast lots. 35 And [g]the people stood looking on.
But even the [h]rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."
36 The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him [i]sour wine, 37 and saying,
"If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."
38 [j]And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:*

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 [k]Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ,* save Yourself and us." 40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done [l]nothing wrong." 42 Then he said to Jesus, "Lord,* remember me when You come into Your kingdom." 43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in [m]Paradise."

Jesus Dies on the Cross

44 [n]Now it was* about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. 45 Then the sun was darkened,* and [o]the veil of the temple was torn in two. 46 And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, "Father, [p]*'into Your hands I commit My spirit.'" [q]Having said this, He breathed His last.
47 [r]So when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous Man!" 48 And the whole crowd who came together to that sight, seeing what had been done, beat their breasts and returned.
49 [s]But all His acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus Buried in Joseph's Tomb

23:26 Simon a Cyrenian was recruited to carry Jesus' cross. He was from a leading city of Libya.
23:28 do not weep for me. Though He was dying, Jesus pointed out that their weeping should be for Jerusalem and its inhabitants, since judgment was going to fall on the city (19:41–44). Jerusalem here represents the entire nation of Israel.
23:31 what will be done in the dry. The idea here seems to be "If this is what is done to a live tree, what will happen to the dead one?" In other words, "If Jesus, the living tree, has not been spared, how much more will dead wood not be spared." This is Jesus' final lament over the nation of Israel.
23:33 the place called Calvary. The name of the place in Aramaic is Golgotha, which means "skull." Calvary is the Latin name for Golgotha. Possibly the name referred to a geographical feature of the locale, something that resembled a skull.
23:36 sour wine. The drink referred to here was probably wine vinegar, which was inexpensive and quenched thirst better than water. It was a drink of the poor.
23:44 sixth hour . . . ninth hour. The first hour was sunrise, so the time was 12 P.M. to 3 P.M. During these three hours, signs of creation revealed that the hour was not one of light but of darkness (22:53).
23:47 Certainly this was a righteous Man. If Jesus was righteous and innocent, then He is who He claimed to be. Thus a second figure besides the thief on the cross had insight into Jesus' death.

decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, [u]who himself was also waiting* for the kingdom of God. 52This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 53[v]Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where no one had ever lain before. 54That day was [w]the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near.

55And the women [x]who had come with Him from Galilee followed after, and [y]they observed the tomb and how His body was laid. 56Then they returned and [z]prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath [a]according to the commandment.

He Is Risen

24 Now [a]on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them,* came to the tomb [b]bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2[c]But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3[d]Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4And it happened, as they were greatly* perplexed about this, that [e]behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. 5Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? 6He is not here, but is risen! [f]Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, 7saying, 'The Son of Man must be [g]delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.' "

8And [h]they remembered His words. 9[i]Then they returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10It was Mary Magdalene, [j]Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles. 11[k]And their words seemed to them like idle tales, and they did not believe them. 12[l]But Peter arose and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying* by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

13[m]Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was seven miles* from Jerusalem. 14And they talked together of all these things which had happened. 15So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that [n]Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. 16But [o]their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

17And He said to them, "What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?"*

18Then the one [p]whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"

19And He said to them, "What things?"

So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, [q]who was a Prophet [r]mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20[s]and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him. 21But we were hoping [t]that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened. 22Yes, and [u]certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us. 23When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. 24And [v]certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."

23:52 the body of Jesus. There is no doubt that Jesus died. Efforts to explain the resurrection as something like a return from a coma are more impossible than the idea of the resurrection itself.

23:54 That day was the Preparation. Jesus was buried late on Friday, on the day called Preparation when everything was made ready for the Sabbath, the day when no labor could take place.

24:2 they found the stone rolled away. Matthew 28:2 mentions that an earthquake moved the stone, which would have fit in a channel in front of the entrance to the tomb. Moving the stone would have been possible, though difficult, for a group of people. The earthquake settles the question of how the stone was moved.

24:11 they did not believe them. Skepticism reigned among the disciples. It is clear that they did not expect a resurrection. The disciples thought the women's story was nonsense.

24:12 Peter arose and ran. Having already experienced a fulfilled prediction of the Lord (22:54–62), Peter hurried to the tomb to check out the women's story. It is hard to say whether Peter believed in the resurrection when he left the tomb. At that point he was probably more amazed than anything else.

24:19–21 Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet. These disciples on the road to Emmaus regarded Jesus as the Revealer of God's way and the Doer of His work.

24:23 He was alive. The women reported that there was no body found in Jesus' tomb, and that angels had announced to them that Jesus lives. The fact

25 Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! 26 [w]Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His [x]glory?" 27 And beginning at [y]Moses and [z]all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

The Disciples' Eyes Opened

28 Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and [a]He indicated that He would have gone farther. 29 But [b]they constrained Him, saying, [c]"Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.

30 Now it came to pass, as [d]He sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, 34 saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and [e]has appeared to Simon!" 35 And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

36 [f]Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you." 37 But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen [g]a spirit. 38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. [h]Handle Me and see, for a [i]spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."

40 When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.* 41 But while they still did not believe [j]for joy, and marveled, He said to them, [k]"Have you any food here?" 42 So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.* 43 [l]And He took it and ate in their presence.

The Scriptures Opened

44 Then He said to them, [m]"These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me." 45 And [n]He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

46 Then He said to them, [o]"Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise* from the dead the third day, 47 and that repentance and [p]remission of sins should be preached in His name [q]to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48 And [r]you are witnesses of these things. 49 [s]Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem* until you are endued with power from on high."

The Ascension

50 And He led them out [t]as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. 51 [u]Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. 52 [v]And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually [w]in the temple praising and* blessing God. that the men were still sad indicates that they did not believe the report.

24:25 slow of heart to believe. Jesus, who at this time was still not known to the travelers, rebuked His companions and reminded them of the things that the prophets taught.

24:27 And beginning at Moses. Going from the books of Moses to the Prophets, Jesus provided an overview of God's plan in the Scriptures. This plan is present throughout the entire Old Testament (Acts 3:22–26; 10:43).

24:39 flesh and bones. Jesus pointed out that a raised body is not a disembodied spirit. The presence of His body indicates that Jesus had been raised and that He was not a hallucination. He was raised in the same physical body in which He had been put to death. The difference was that His resurrected body is not corruptible and not subject to death.

24:46 Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead. Two parts of God's plan had been fulfilled. Jesus had been crucified and raised from the dead. Old Testament texts that predict these events are Psalm 22 and Psalm 118:22.

24:49 the Promise of My Father. This is a reference to the baptism of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Acts 2:4). It was promised in Jeremiah 31:31–33, and in Joel 2:28. Peter called this coming of the Spirit "the beginning" (Acts 11:15) because the real fulfillment of God's promise of salvation would start in those people united by the Spirit to establish the church.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

▶ AUTHOR: Jesus nicknamed John and his brother, James, "sons of thunder" (Mark 3:17). John was evidently among the Galileans who followed John the Baptist until they were called to follow Jesus at the outset of His public ministry. These Galileans were later called to become full-time disciples of the Lord (Luke 5:1–11), and John was among the twelve men who were selected to be apostles (Luke 6:12–16). The author of this Gospel is identified only as the disciple "whom Jesus loved" (John 13:23; 19:26; 21:7), but attention to detail concerning geography and Jewish culture in the Gospel lend credibility to the author's claim to be an eyewitness. The strong testimony of the early church relates this eyewitness to the apostle John.

▶ TIME: C. A.D. 29–33 ▶ KEY VERSES: John 20:30–31

▶ THEME: John is a great book for new or young Christians because it intentionally helps the reader understand the significance of Jesus. What becomes increasingly clear as you read the Gospel of John is that Jesus does not fit the image of someone who is simply a nice moral teacher. Only a lunatic would make the claims He makes for Himself unless He was who He said He was. John leaves no room for indecision. Like the many people Jesus encounters in the book, as you read, you must either reject Him or accept Him, and say in the end like Thomas: "My Lord and my God" (20:28). This Gospel is an incredibly powerful presentation of Jesus.

The Eternal Word

1 In the beginning [a]was the Word, and the [b]Word was [c]with God, and the Word was [d]God. 2[e]He was in the beginning with God. 3[f]All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. 4[g]In Him was life, and [h]the life was the light of men. 5And [i]the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend* it.

John's Witness: The True Light

6There was a [j]man sent from God, whose name was John. 7This man came for a [k]witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might [l]believe. 8He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that [m]Light. 9[n]That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.*

* 1:5 Or overcome * 1:9 Or That was the true Light which, coming into the world, gives light to every man.

1:1 In the beginning. Genesis 1:1 starts with the moment of creation and moves forward to the creation of humanity. John 1:1 starts with creation and contemplates eternity past. the Word was with God. This suggests a face-to-face relationship. In the ancient world, it was important that persons of equal station be on the same level when seated across from one another.

1:3 All things were made through Him. God the Father created the world (Gen. 1:1) through God the Son (Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2). All creation was made through Him. Thus, He is the Creator God.

1:4 light of men. This image conveys the concept of revelation. As the light, Jesus Christ reveals both sin and God to humans (Ps. 36:9). Later in this Gospel, Christ declares Himself to be both the life (11:25) and the light (8:12). Death and darkness flee when the life and light enter.

1:5 light shines in the darkness. Although Satan and his forces resist the light, they cannot thwart its power. In short, Jesus is life and light; those who accept Him are "sons of light" (12:35–36). As the creation of light was the beginning of the original creation, so, when believers receive the light, they become part of the new creation (2 Cor. 4:3–6).

1:7 for a witness. This phrase means "to testify" or "to declare." John uses the word translated witness 33 times as a verb and 14 times as a noun in his Gospel. The term is particularly important to his purpose, which is to record adequate witnesses to Jesus as the Messiah so that individuals might believe Him (20:30–31). believe. This word means "to trust." John uses this verb almost 100 times in his Gospel to express what must take place for a person to receive the gift of eternal life.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and [o]the world did not know Him. 11 [p]He came to His own,* and His own* did not receive Him. 12 But [q]as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: 13 [r]who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

The Word Becomes Flesh

14 [s]And the Word [t]became [u]flesh and dwelt among us, and [v]we beheld His glory,
the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, [w]full of grace and truth.

15 [x]John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, [y]'He who comes after me is preferred before me, [z]for He was before me.'"

16 And* of His [a]fullness we have all received, and grace for grace. 17 For [b]the law was given through Moses, but [c]grace and [d]truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 [e]No one has seen God at any time. [f]The only begotten Son,* who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

A Voice in the Wilderness

19 Now this is [g]the testimony of John,
when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 [h]He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."

21 And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you [i]the Prophet?"

And he answered, "No."

22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

23 He said: [j]"I am

> [k]'The voice of one crying in the
> wilderness:
> "Make straight the way of the LORD,'"*

as the prophet Isaiah said."

24 Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, saying, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

26 John answered them, saying, [l]"I baptize with water, [m]but there stands One among you whom you do not know. 27 [n]It is He who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose."

28 These things were done [o]in Bethabara* beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

1:11 receive. This means "to receive with favor" and implies "welcome." Instead of a welcome mat, Jesus had a door slammed in His face. The themes of rejection and reception (v. 12) introduced in the prologue (1:1–18) appear repeatedly throughout the Gospel of John.

1:12 He gave the right. This phrase refers to the legitimate entitlement to the position of children of God. By believing, undeserving sinners can become full members of God's family.

1:14 the Word became flesh. The Son of God who was from eternity became human, with limitations in time and space (Phil. 2:5–8). This is the doctrine of the incarnation: God became human. Nothing of the essential nature of deity was lost in this event; we might rephrase became as "took to Himself." John uses the word flesh to refer to the physical nature of humans, not to our sinful disposition. dwelt among us. The Greek word for tent or dwelling was also used in the Greek Old Testament for the tabernacle, where the presence of God dwelt. only begotten. This means unique, one of a kind.

1:16 grace for grace. The background of this doubled term, as well as the use of the term in verse 17, is found in Exodus 32–34. Moses and the people had received grace, but they were in tremendous need of more grace (Ex. 33:13).

1:18 No one has seen God. God is Spirit (4:24) and is invisible (Col. 1:15; 1 Tim. 1:17) unless God chooses to reveal Himself. Humans cannot look at God and live (Ex. 33:20). However, the Son is in intimate relationship with the Father, face-to-face with God (1:1; 6:46; 1 John 1:2). God became visible to human eyes in the man Jesus. It is through seeing the Son that we see God.

1:19–20 the Jews. This refers to the Jewish leaders or the council (the Sanhedrin), who would be responsible for examining anyone thought to be a prophet, to see if the person was true or false.

1:23 Make straight. When a king traveled, roads were built so that the royal chariot would not have to travel over rough terrain or be stuck in the mud. Isaiah was saying that before God appeared to manifest His glory, a voice would be heard, inviting Israel to make straight the way by which God Himself would come.

1:24 the Pharisees. The Pharisees were an influential sect that numbered about 6,000. As strict interpreters of the law in Israel, they were extremely zealous for ritual and tradition.

1:27 whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. Undoing the shoe strap was the job of a slave. The Jewish Talmud says, "Everything that a servant will do for his master, a scholar shall perform for his teacher, except the menial task of loosing his sandal thong." Thus, John was saying that "Jesus Christ is the living Lord and I am the voice, His servant and slave. Actually, I'm not even worthy to be His slave."

The Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! [p]The Lamb of God [q]who takes away the sin of the world!
30 This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who is preferred before me, for He was before me.' 31 I did not know Him; but that He should be revealed to Israel, [r]therefore I came baptizing with water." 32 [s]And John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him. 33 I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'Upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, [t]this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' 34 And I have seen and testified that this is the [u]Son of God."

The First Disciples

35 Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples. 36 And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, [v]"Behold the Lamb of God!"
37 The two disciples heard him speak, and they [w]followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, "What do you seek?"
They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), "where are You staying?"
39 He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).
40 One of the two who heard John speak,
and followed Him, was [x]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41 He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated,
the Christ). 42 And he brought him to Jesus.
Now when Jesus looked at him, He said,
"You are Simon the son of Jonah.* [y]You shall be called Cephas" (which is translated, A Stone).

Philip and Nathanael

43 The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He found [z]Philip and said to him, "Follow Me." 44 Now [a]Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
45 Philip found [b]Nathanael and said to him,
"We have found Him of whom [c]Moses in the law, and also the [d]prophets, wrote—Jesus [e]of Nazareth, the [f]son of Joseph." 46 And Nathanael said to him, [g]"Can anything good come out of Nazareth?"
Philip said to him, "Come and see."
47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold, [h]an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!" 48 Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?"
Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
49 Nathanael answered and said to Him,
"Rabbi, [i]You are the Son of God! You are [j]the King of Israel!"
50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." 51 And He said to him,
"Most assuredly, I say to you, [k]hereafter*
you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Water Turned to Wine

2 On the third day there was a [a]wedding in [b]Cana of Galilee, and the [c]mother of Jesus was there. 2 Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding. 3 And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."
4 Jesus said to her, [d]"Woman, [e]what does your concern have to do with Me? [f]My hour has not yet come."

* 1:42 NU-Text reads John. * 1:51 NU-Text omits hereafter.

1:29 The Lamb of God. Jesus Christ is the Lamb that God would give as a sacrifice not only for Israel, but for the whole world (Is. 52:13—53:12).
1:33 this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. Seven times, the New Testament mentions this ministry of Jesus. Five are prophetic (Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; Acts 1:5); one is historical (Acts 11:16–18); one is doctrinal (1 Cor. 12:13).
1:42 Cephas. This is the Aramaic word for "rock" (Matt. 16:18).
1:45 Nathanael. This name is not mentioned in the Synoptic Gospels. But in every list of the apostles in Matthew, Mark, and Luke, the name Bartholomew is listed with Philip, as Nathanael is linked with Philip here. It is likely that Nathanael and Bartholomew were the same person.
1:46 Nazareth. Nathanael knew that the Old Testament prophets had predicted that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. Furthermore, Nazareth was an obscure village. Nathanael simply could not fathom that such a significant person as the Messiah could come from such an insignificant place as Nazareth.
1:48–49 under the fig tree. In the Old Testament, this expression often suggests being safe and at leisure (1 Kin. 4:25; Mic. 4:4; Zech. 3:10).
2:1–2 Cana. This city was about four and a half miles northwest of Nazareth. the mother of Jesus was there. Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited. This suggests that Jesus and His disciples were invited because of Mary. Her forwardness in asking Jesus to help when the wine ran out (v. 3) may indicate that she was in some way related to the family holding the wedding.
2:3 They have no wine. Hospitality in the East was a

5His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."

6Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, [g]according to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece. 7Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8And He said to them, "Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it. 9When the master of the feast had tasted [h]the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom. 10And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"

11This [i]beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, [j]and manifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

12After this He went down to [k]Capernaum, He, His mother, [l]His brothers, and His disciples; and they did not stay there many days.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

13[m]Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14[n]And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business. 15When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. 16And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make [o]My Father's house a house of merchandise!" 17Then His disciples remembered that it was written, [p]"Zeal for Your house has eaten Me up."

18So the Jews answered and said to Him, [q]"What sign do You show to us, since You do these things?"

19Jesus answered and said to them, [r]"Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

21But He was speaking [s]of the temple of His body. 22Therefore, when He had risen from the dead, [t]His disciples remembered that He had said this to them;* and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

The Discerner of Hearts

23Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the [u]signs which He did. 24But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He [v]knew all men, 25and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for [w]He knew what was in man.

* 2:17 NU-Text and M-Text read will eat. • Psalm 69:9 * 2:22 NU-Text and M-Text omit to them.

sacred duty. A wedding feast often lasted for a week. To run out of wine at such an important event would have been humiliating for the bride and groom. The family of Jesus was not wealthy, and it is likely their relatives and acquaintances were not either. This may have been a "low-budget" wedding feast.

2:6 six waterpots. Each waterpot held 20–30 gallons, for a total of 120–180 gallons of the finest wine (v. 10). manner of purification of the Jews. Jewish tradition required several kinds of ceremonial washings. Strict Jews washed their hands before a meal, between courses, and after the meal. This "purifying" extended not only to washing hands, but also to washing cups and vessels (Mark 7:3–4).

2:11 This beginning of signs. In the Gospel of John, the miracles of Jesus are called signs, indicating that they pointed to His messiahship. This sign signified Christ's glory—that is, His deity. When Jesus transformed water into wine, He demonstrated His power.

2:13 the Passover of the Jews. Every male Jew was required to go to Jerusalem three times a year—for the Feast of Passover, the Feast of Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles (Ex. 23:14–19; Lev. 23). Jerusalem. The Synoptic Gospels concentrate on Jesus' Galilean ministry. John focuses on Jesus' ministry in Jerusalem.

2:14 And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves. The Synoptic Gospels place the cleansing of the temple at the conclusion of Jesus' ministry (Matt. 21:12–13), whereas John puts it at the beginning. Apparently, Jesus cleansed the temple two different times. The law of Moses required that any animal offered in sacrifice be unblemished and that every Jewish male over 19 years of age pay a temple tax (Lev. 1:3; Deut. 17:1). As a result, tax collectors and inspectors of sacrificial animals were present at the temple. However, these officials would not accept secular coins because they had an image of the Roman emperor. To put such coins into the temple treasury was thought to be an offense. Accordingly, merchants and money changers set up shop and charged high prices for changing currency and for sacrificial animals.

2:19 Destroy this temple. Jesus was not talking about the physical building; He was referring to His body, as John emphasizes in verse 21. Jesus was speaking of His death. I will raise it up. Note that Jesus did not say, "I will build it again." He was referring to His resurrection, three days after His death.

2:20 Forty-six years. Herod the Great began restoring the temple in 20 B.C. The work was not finished at the time of this conversation. In fact, it was not completed until around A.D. 64 under Herod Agrippa.

2:23 many believed in His name. This was saving faith. John's purpose in recording Jesus' miracles was for people to believe and have eternal life (20:30–31).

2:24 But Jesus did not commit Himself. This word

The New Birth

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.
2 [a]This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for [b]no one can do these signs that You do unless [c]God is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [d]unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, [e]unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is [f]flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' 8 [g]The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, [h]"How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things? 11 [i]Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and [j]you do not receive Our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 [k]No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.* 14 [l]And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so [m]must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever [n]believes in Him should not perish but* [o]have eternal life. 16 [p]For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten [q]Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17 [r]For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

18 [s]"He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, [t]that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For [u]everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. 21 But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been [v]done in God."

* 3:13 NU-Text omits who is in heaven.
* 3:15 NU-Text omits not perish but.

is the same Greek word translated believe in verse 23. There is a play on words here. These individuals trusted Jesus, but Jesus did not entrust Himself to them.

3:2 by night. The fact that Nicodemus came to Jesus at night may reveal the timidity of his faith (12:42); however, his faith was developing (7:50–51; 19:39).

3:3 unless one is born again. Jesus was explaining to Nicodemus that there is more to having a right relationship with God than being physically born a Jew. The new birth is not physical; rather, it is spiritual (v. 6). It must come by the Spirit of God if it is a spiritual birth (v. 5).

3:5 born of water and the Spirit. There are several interpretations of this phrase. (1) Jesus was referring to water baptism (Acts 10:43–47). (2) Water is to be understood as a symbol for the Holy Spirit. (3) Water is to be understood as a symbol of the Word of God. (4) Jesus used the phrase "born of water" to refer to physical birth. He then used the contrasting phrase "of the Spirit" to refer to spiritual birth. (5) Jesus used the phrase "born of water" to refer to John the Baptist's baptism. (6) Jesus used the Old Testament imagery of "water" and "wind" to refer to the work of God from above (Is. 44:3–5).

3:8 The wind. Jesus used the wind as an illustration of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Greek word translated Spirit also means "wind." As the wind seemingly blows where it wills, so the Holy Spirit sovereignly works. Likewise, no one knows the origin or destination of the wind, but everyone knows it is there. The same is true of the Holy Spirit.

3:12 heavenly things. This refers to events like Christ's ascension (6:61–62) and the coming of the Holy Spirit (16:7).

3:14 as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness. Those who looked at it lived (Num. 21:9). So it is with the Son of Man (1:51). lifted up. Every time these words occur in the Gospel of John, there is a reference to Jesus' death (8:28; 12:32,34).

3:16 Belief—Belief involves understanding, knowing, living, and being committed to a relationship with God. How one does all that is so different from not doing it, it is like being born again to a new life. Nicodemus had a little knowledge. What Nicodemus failed to understand was the nature of spiritual reality. He was earthbound and didn't understand that Jesus and belief are God things. He could not get from where he was to where Jesus was on the road of his understanding. He needed to accept a new road, namely the one Jesus was walking, toward Him. Jesus draws us to that light, His light. We have to respond to it as Nicodemus did over time (7:50; 19:39). Belief involves internalizing these truths with our whole hearts and minds, being born again, letting all of ourselves be exposed to, and by, that light.

3:20 For everyone practicing evil hates the light. People offer many excuses for not accepting Christ.

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there
He remained with them [w]and baptized.
23 Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near [x]Salim, because there was much water there. [y]And they came and were baptized. 24 For [z]John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification. 26 And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, [a]to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all [b]are coming to Him!"

27 John answered and said, [c]"A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. 28 You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, [d]'I am not the Christ,' but, [e]'I have been sent before Him.' 29 [f]He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but [g]the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled. 30 [h]He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 [i]He who comes from above [j]is above all; [k]he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. [l]He who comes from heaven is above
all. 32 And [m]what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no one receives His testimony. 33 He who has received His testimony [n]has certified that God is true. 34 [o]For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit [p]by measure. 35 [q]The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. 36 [r]He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the [s]wrath of God abides on him."

A Samaritan Woman Meets Her Messiah

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and [a]baptized more disciples than John 2 (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples), 3 He left Judea and departed again to Galilee. 4 But He needed to go through Samaria.

5 So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that [b]Jacob [c]gave to his son Joseph. 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." 8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

Some cite the presence of hypocrites in the church. Others claim inability to believe some of the truths about Christ or the gospel. These are merely attempts to conceal a heart in rebellion against God. The ultimate reason people do not come to Christ is that they do not want to.

3:26 they came to John. John the Baptist's disciples were loyal to him. They were deeply concerned that one of his "disciples," Jesus, was competing with and surpassing him. In their astonishment, they exaggerated the predicament, saying, "all are coming to Him." They were concerned that John was losing his audience to another preacher.

3:27 John answered. John the Baptist clarified the relationship between himself and Jesus. First, he talked about himself (vv. 27–29); then he talked about Jesus (vv. 30–36). John explained that he could not accept the position of supremacy that his disciples wanted to thrust upon him because he had not received it from heaven.

3:29 friend of the bridegroom. John compared himself to this person who was generally appointed to arrange the preliminaries of the wedding, to manage the wedding, and to preside at the wedding feast.

3:31 He who comes from above. This is a reference to Christ. he who is of the earth. This refers to John the Baptist. John emphasized his earthly origin and its limitations. John proclaimed divine truth on earth; Jesus, on the other hand, is from heaven and above all.

3:33 has certified. In a society where many could not read, seals were used to convey a clear message, even to the illiterate. A seal indicated ownership to all and expressed a person's personal guarantee. To receive Jesus' testimony is to certify that God is true regarding what He has sealed.

3:34 God does not give the Spirit by measure. Unlike human teachers, Jesus was not given the Spirit in a limited way (Is. 11:1–2). All three Persons of the Trinity are referred to in this verse; God the Father sent Christ the Son, and gave Him the Holy Spirit without measure.

4:1 Therefore, when. This refers the reader back to 3:22–36. Christ's success in winning disciples had created jealousy among John's followers and provoked questions among the Pharisees. Since Jesus did not want to be drawn into a controversy over baptism at this stage of His ministry, He left Judea for Galilee (v. 3).

4:4 He needed to go through Samaria. The shortest route from Judea in the south to Galilee in the north went through Samaria. The journey took three days if He wanted to travel the direct route. The Jews often avoided Samaria by going around it along the Jordan River. The hatred between the Jews and Samaritans went back to the days of the exile. Samaria was the region between Judea and Galilee. When the northern kingdom was exiled to Assyria, King Sargon repopulated the area with captives from other lands. The intermarriage of these foreigners and the Jews who had been left complicated the ancestry of the Samaritans. The Jews hated the Samaritans and considered them to be no longer "pure" Jews.

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For [d]Jews have no dealings with [e]Samaritans.
10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the [f]gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you [g]living water."
11 The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep.
Where then do You get that living water?
12 Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"
13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 but [h]whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him [i]will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."
15 [j]The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."
16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." 17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband."
Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,' 18 for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly." 19 The woman said to Him, "Sir, [k]I perceive that You are a prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped on [l]this mountain, and you Jews say that in [m]Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship."
21 Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me,
the hour is coming [n]when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22 You worship [o]what you do not know; we know what we worship, for [p]salvation is of the Jews. 23 But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will [q]worship the Father in [r]spirit [s]and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. 24 [t]God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."
25 The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah [u]is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, [v]He will tell us
all things."
26 Jesus said to her, [w]"I who speak to you am He."

The Whitened Harvest

27 And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?" 28 The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, 29 "Come, see a Man [x]who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" 30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.
31 In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."
32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know."
33 Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything
to eat?"
34 Jesus said to them, [y]"My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to [z]finish
His work. 35 Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes [a]the harvest'?
Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, [b]for they are already white for harvest! 36 [c]And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that [d]both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37 For in this the saying is true: [e]'One sows and another reaps.' 38 I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; [f]others have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

4:14 a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life. Jesus desired a drink of water. He then directed the focus of discussion from physical water to spiritual water, pointing out the tremendous advantages of the second kind, which is obtained without cost or effort. This water satisfies completely and eternally.

4:16 Go, call your husband. Jesus mentioned the woman's husband in order to expose her sin (v. 18).

4:20 you Jews say that in Jerusalem. The Jews insisted that the exclusive place of worship was Jerusalem. But the Samaritans had set up a rival worship site on Mount Gerizim, which according to their tradition was where Abraham went to sacrifice Isaac and where later on he met Melchizedek.

4:24 God is Spirit . . . must worship in spirit and truth. God is not limited by time and space. When people are born of the Spirit, they can commune with God anywhere. Spirit is the opposite of what is material and earthly, for example, Mount Gerizim. Christ makes worship a matter of the heart. Truth is what is in harmony with the nature and will of God. The issue is not where a person worships, but how and whom.

4:29 all things that I ever did. In her excitement, the woman exaggerated. She did not report what Jesus actually told her, but what He could have told her. Note the woman's spiritual journey. She first viewed Christ as a Jew (v. 9), then as a prophet (v. 19), and finally as the Messiah.

4:36 receives wages. The reaper of a spiritual harvest receives wages—that is, fruit which brings joy. In this case, Jesus sowed by giving the message to the woman. The disciples were going to reap the harvest that He had sown.

The Savior of the World

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him [g]because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did." 40 So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.
41 And many more believed because of His own [h]word.
42 Then they said to the woman, "Now
we believe, not because of what you said, for [i]we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ,* the Savior of the world."

Welcome at Galilee

43 Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee. 44 For [j]Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, [k]having seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; [l]for they also had gone to the feast.

A Nobleman's Son Healed

46 So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee [m]where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48 Then Jesus said to him, [n]"Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe." 49 The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!" 50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your son lives." So the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. 51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying,
"Your son lives!"
52 Then he inquired of them the hour
when he got better. And they said to him,
"Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." 53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." And he himself believed, and his whole household.
54 This again is the second sign Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

A Man Healed at the Pool of Bethesda

5 After [a]this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus [b]went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is in Jerusalem [c]by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda,* having five porches. 3 In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water.
4 For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.* 5 Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"
7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me." 8 Jesus said to him, [d]"Rise, take up your bed and walk." 9 And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked.
And [e]that day was the Sabbath. 10 The Jews therefore said to him who was cured,
"It is the Sabbath; [f]it is not lawful for you to carry your bed." 11 He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.' "
12 Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk'?" 13 But the one who was [g]healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a multitude being in that place.
14 Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. [h]Sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon you."

* 4:42 NU-Text omits the Christ. * 5:2 NU-Text reads Bethzatha. * 5:4 NU-Text omits waiting for the moving of the water at the end of verse 3, and all of verse 4.

4:42 Savior of the world. This title is used only here and in 1 John 4:14. The Jews of Jesus' day taught that to approach God, one first had to be a Jew. By including this incident in the Gospel, John demonstrates that Jesus is for all people of the world.

4:46 a certain nobleman. This was probably someone who was in the service of the king. Herod Antipas was technically the "tetrarch" of Galilee, but he was referred to as a king.

5:2 the Sheep Gate. This was a gate in the wall of Jerusalem near the temple, through which sheep were brought for sacrifice.

5:9 took up his bed, and walked. Carrying a bed on the Sabbath was considered a violation of the law of Moses (v. 10).

5:10 it is not lawful. The law of Moses taught that the Sabbath must be different from other days. On it, neither people nor animals could work. The prophet Jeremiah had prohibited carrying burdens or working on the Sabbath (Jer. 17:21–22). Over the years, the Jewish leaders had amassed thousands of rules and regulations concerning the Sabbath. By Jesus' day, they had 39 different classifications of work. According to them, carrying furniture and even providing medical treatment on the Sabbath were forbidden. Jesus did not break the law. He violated the traditions of the Pharisees which had grown up around the law.

Honor the Father and the Son

16For this reason the Jews [i]persecuted
Jesus, and sought to kill Him,* because He had done these things on the Sabbath.
17But Jesus answered them, [j]"My Father has been working until now, and I have been working."
18Therefore the Jews [k]sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, [l]making Himself equal with God.
19Then Jesus answered and said to them,
"Most assuredly, I say to you, [m]the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. 20For [n]the Father loves the Son, and [o]shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel. 21For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, [p]even so the Son gives life to whom He will. 22For the Father judges no one, but [q]has committed all judgment to the Son, 23that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father.
[r]He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

Life and Judgment Are Through the Son

24"Most assuredly, I say to you, [s]he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, [t]but has passed from death into life. 25Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when [u]the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live. 26For [v]as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have [w]life in Himself, 27and [x]has given Him authority to execute judgment also, [y]because He is the Son of Man. 28Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will [z]hear His voice 29[a]and come forth—[b]those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation. 30[c]I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because [d]I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

The Fourfold Witness

31[e]"If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true. 32[f]There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true.
33You have sent to John, [g]and he has borne witness to the truth. 34Yet I do not receive testimony from man, but I say these things that you may be saved. 35He was the burning and [h]shining lamp, and [i]you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light. 36But [j]I have a greater witness than John's; for [k]the works which the Father has given Me to finish—the very [l]works that I do—bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent

* 5:16 NU-Text omits and sought to kill Him.

5:16 the Jews persecuted Jesus. This is the first recorded declaration of open hostility toward Jesus in the Gospel of John.

5:17 My Father. Jesus is "the only begotten Son" (1:14,18; 3:16,18)—that is, the unique Son of God. Here He claims not only a unique relationship with God the Father, but also equality with God in nature. Since God continually does good works without allowing Himself to stop on the Sabbath, the Son does likewise, since He is equal with God. Certainly the Jewish leaders understood the implications of Jesus' claims (v. 18).

5:19 the Son can do nothing of Himself. Action by the Son apart from the Father is impossible because of the unity of the Father and the Son (v. 17). whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. Here is a claim of deity and unity with the Father.

5:22 all judgment to the Son. The Jews recognized that God alone had the right to judge humanity. In claiming that the Father committed all judgment to Him, Jesus again claimed equality with God.

5:24 Never-Ending Life—One of the primary features of the new life that we have in Christ is that it is an eternal or everlasting life. This truth completely changes how we look at our present lives and at the future. It needs to be seen as something we possess even now (10:28). We have entered into a new, personal relationship with God that gives us a spiritual vitality and fullness of life that we lacked before (17:3). It will be completely fulfilled in the future when we are bodily redeemed (Rom. 8:23). The greatness of this spiritual reality constitutes a wonderful incentive to vigorously proclaim the gospel to those who are still dead in trespasses and sins (Eph. 2:1).

5:26 For. This indicates that this verse explains the previous verse. Christ can give life because He Himself possesses life. He not only has a part in giving it, He is the source of it. This is another testimony to Jesus' deity because only God has life in Himself.

5:29 resurrection of life . . . resurrection of condemnation. Two separate resurrections are presented here in the fashion of the Old Testament prophets, who often grouped together events of the future without distinction of the time (Is. 61:2). Jesus was teaching the universality of resurrection, not the timing of it.

5:31–32 My witness is not true. If Christ were the only one bearing witness of what He was claiming, His witness would not be accepted. According to
